Faculté de pharmacie Université de Montréal

Université Concordia University

John Molson School of Business Executive Centre

Montréal InVivo

LAUNCH OF THE 2ND GRANT AWARD

WOMEN'S ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Montréal InVivo is proud to annonce the support of the City of Montréal, which is launching a Grant Award competition offering women the opportunity to develop their skills by enrolling in the Entrepreneurship Development Program in Life Sciences

This grant award is possible due the the financial help of Montréal

ARE YOU INTERESTED? SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION BEFORE JANUARY 8, 2021

INFO@MONTREAL-INVIVO.COM

LAUNCH OF THE 2ND GRANT AWARD

WOMEN'S ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Faculté de pharmacie
Université de Montréal

Université Concordia University

JOHN MOLSON SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
Executive Centre

MONTRÉAL INVIVO

TO SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION

Interested candidates must submit a short CV and a letter of interest of no more than 400 words that explains how the Program will help them progress in their careers and why the award will make a difference to them. Nominations will be evaluated by a selection committee composed of a representative from Montréal InVivo, the Faculty of Pharmacy of the Université de Montréal and the John Molson Executive Centre at Concordia University.

COMMITMENT OF CANDIDATE

By submitting your application, you agree to meet the requirements of the Life Sciences Entrepreneurship Development Program and accept that your name and affiliation be included in communications about the recipients of the award.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PROGRAM CLICK HERE.

This grant award is possible due the the financial help of Montréal

ARE YOU INTERESTED? SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION BEFORE JANUARY 8, 2021
INFO@MONTREAL-INVIVO.COM