Elective Credit information:

Students completing a Major in Political Science in their Bachelor of Arts degree, are required to complete 30/48/60 elective credits depending on whether they are completing a 90/108/120 credit degree. These credits can be assigned to another Major, a Minor, and/or to an Elective Group from any other program discipline outside of Political Science, where available.

General Education Requirement:

A candidate for graduation must satisfy the Arts & Science General Education Requirement by successfully completing a minimum of 6 credits from course offerings outside the candidate's disciplinary sector. For Political Science students, it is the Social Sciences.

HUMANITIES: Classics, Modern Languages and Linguistics; Communication Studies; English; Études françaises; History; Irish Studies; Journalism; Liberal Arts College; Philosophy; Theological Studies

SOCIAL SCIENCE: Applied Human Sciences; Economics; Education; Geography, Planning and Environment; Loyola College for Diversity and Sustainability; Political Science; Religions and Cultures; School of Community and Public Affairs; Simone de Beauvoir Institute; Sociology and Anthropology

SCIENCE: Biology; Chemistry/Biochemistry; Exercise Science; Mathematics and Statistics; Physics; Psychology; Science College

Courses falling under the administrative umbrella of Interdisciplinary Studies are considered for General Education Requirement purposes to fall within the Social Sciences. Students may also count courses offered by the John Molson School of Business, the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science, and the Faculty of Fine Arts toward their General Education Requirement.

Students enrolled in two areas of concentration or in an Undergraduate Certificate Program should consult their Undergraduate Academic Calendar for further information.

ESL courses or introductory English language courses are not considered as substitutions for this requirement.
