7:00 pm

H-767 – Henry F. Hall Building
1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd. W

Spanning three generations in one family's life, Shalev's latest novel tells the story of love, betrayal, and salvation. Join Israel's master storyteller on this fascinating journey and exploration of our dark side.

Internationally acclaimed author Meir Shalev is one of Israel's most celebrated novelists. He is the author of more than eight novels, all of which were bestsellers in Israel and Europe. Shalev has won numerous literary prizes, including The National Jewish Book Award, The Prime Minister's Prize, and the Brenner Prize. He is also a long-time columnist for Yedioth Achronot.

Introduced by Dr. Yael Halevi-Wise, Associate Professor in Judaic Studies and the English Department at McGill University.

Books will be sold at the event.
