

THE DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS, MODERN LANGUAGES AND LINGUISTICS

presents

THE SWORD AND THE PEN: WOMEN, POLITICS, AND POETRY IN 16th CENTURY SIENA

with Professor

KONRAD EISENBICHLER

Wednesday, October 2, 2013

6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Room H-527, Henry F. Hall Building

1455 De Maisonneuve Blvd. W.

Konrad Eisenbichler is professor of Renaissance and Italian Studies at the University of Toronto. He is the author, translator, and editor of more than a dozen books on various aspects of the Italian Renaissance including The Boys of the Archangel Raphael: A Youth Confraternity in Florence, 1411-1785 (winner of the Marraro Prize from the American Catholic Historical Association), Renaissance Medievalisms (2009), and L'opera poetica di Virginia Martini Salvi (2012).

PUBLIC LECTURE

cmll.concordia.ca