

Status: Returning student*New student*Application for Financial Support for Graduate Students in Irish Studies

Incoming graduate students at Concordia working on an Irish topic with a professor or fellow from the School of Irish Studies can apply for financial support from the School of Irish Studies. The duration of funding and annual amounts for multi-year awards will vary and will depend on support received from other sources. Full eligibility requirements are posted on the School's website (<http://concordia.ca/irishstudies>). The recipients of the scholarships shall be selected by Concordia University through the Irish Studies Graduate Scholarship Committee.

Applicants should complete the following information:

Last name: _____ First Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

Previous degrees, dates and university:

Degree name: _____ Date: _____ University: _____

Degree name: _____ Date: _____ University: _____

Degree name: _____ Date: _____ University: _____

Program to which you are accepted: _____

Start date: _____

Funding received upon admission from external and internal sources. List source, amount, and duration, as well as details regarding research and teaching assistantships.

Funding applied for from external and internal sources. List source, amount and duration

Primary advisor: _____

Committee members: _____

50-75 word summary of past courses, research and engagement with Irish Studies.

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Note: The application should be accompanied by a brief description of your planned research area of interest (max. 150 words).