Department of Mathematics & Statistics
Dwivedi Memorial Lecture

Linking Ridge Regression with Model Averaging and Hypothesis Testing

A talk by

Professor Aman Ullah
University of California, Riverside

Date: April 27, 2012

Time: 3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Location: 1400 de Maisonneuve Blvd. West
J.W. McConnell Building/Library Bldg.
Room S-LB 646

The lecture will be followed by a reception in room S-LB 921.04

RSVP: Geraldine Ford (g.ford@concordia.ca) by April 24, 2012

About the speaker:

Professor Aman Ullah is currently Distinguished Professor of Economics and Chair in the Department of Economics, University of California, Riverside.

He has held previous positions at SMU, Dallas and University of Western Ontario, Canada. Among many prestigious universities and Institutes, that he has visited include, ANU, Monash, NSW, Canterbury(NZ), Cambridge, Amsterdam, Tinbergen Institute, FGV (Brazil), CIDE (Italy), Goethe (Frankfurt), CORE, Xiamen, Peking, SMU(Singapore) Bilkent, Stanford, McGill, and World Bank among others.

His main research interests are in Econometric Theory, Nonparametric Econometrics, Finite Sample Econometrics, Cross Sectional and Time Series Econometrics, and Panel and Spatial Econometrics. Prof. Ullah is the author, coauthor, editor, or coeditor of eight books and over 120 published papers in Economics, Econometrics, and Statistics. He is an elected fellow of the Journal of Econometrics and National Academy of Sciences (India), as well as that of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) Fellow; he is also honoured as an Associate Fellow of CIREQ, Montreal and Senior Fellow of the Rimini Centre for Economic Analysis, Italy.

artsandscience.concordia.ca