*Students should get the above information from their instructor during class time. The instructor is the person to contact should there be any questions about the course.

Textbook: Thomas' Calculus: Early Transcendentals, Single Variable, (ed. 14)
The e-text, including MyLabMath, is available through the Concordia BookStop:
<https://www.bkstr.com/concordiastore/home>
The Loose-Leaf printed text only (the less expensive but without access to MyLabMath) can be purchased at
<https://www.pearson.com/en-ca/subject-catalog/p/thomas-calculus-early-transcendentals/P200000006209/9780134439495>

Prerequisite: Math 203 or an equivalent Calculus I course.

Office Hours: Your professor will announce her/his office hours during which she/he will be also available to give a reasonable amount of help. Note, however, that if you missed a class it is not reasonable to expect your professor to cover the missed material for you.

Tutorials: It takes a great deal of practice to succeed in this course. To complement lectures, the Department has organized weekly tutorials, which are conducted by tutors who will help with solving problems on the topics learned in class that week, with emphasis on the material that students may have particular difficulties within this course. Students are strongly encouraged to actively participate in these problem-solving sessions which can contribute very significantly to students' success in this course.

Math Help Centre: A Math Help Centre staffed by graduate students is available. The schedule of its operation and its location will be posted in the Department and on the Department webpage <http://www.concordia.ca/artsci/math-stats/services/math-help-centre.html>

WeBWorK: Every student will be given access to an online system called WeBWorK. The system offers many exercises and practice problems. Students must use this system to do online assignments (see Assignments below). Before each exam (midterm and final), numerous practice problems will be posted on WeBWorK to aid students in their preparation.

MyLab Math: Every student who purchases the e-text will be given access to one more online system called MyLab Math. This system contains an e-version of the textbook, as well as a large number of various resources, like practice exercises, typical examples on different topics, video materials, etc., that help you master the course material.

Assignments: Students are expected to submit assignments online using WeBWork. Late assignments will not be accepted. Assignments contribute 10% to your final grade. Working regularly on the assignments is essential for success in this course. Students are also strongly advised to work on the practice exercises in WeBWork and in MyLab Math.

Calculators: Only calculators approved by the Department (with a sticker attached as proof of approval) are permitted for the class test and final examination. For the list of Approved calculators see www.concordia.ca/artsci/math-stats/services.html

Midterm Test: There will be one midterm test, based on the material of weeks 1-6, (as listed in the CONTENTS below), which will contribute up to 30% to your final grade (see the Grading Scheme below). The test will be common for all sections of this course and will be held on Sunday 29 October 2023, at 10:00 A.M.

Students who are unable to write the midterm test for a valid reason must inform their instructor in advance to request a 90% final exam option in calculating their grade (see below). Such a request will not be granted unless it is made in writing by email, and the reason is accepted as valid and supported by appropriate documentation or other evidence. Valid reasons for missing the midterm test include time conflicts (coinciding exam times) with other exams, religious observances (must be reported to the instructor in advance); illness (to be reported as soon as possible and supported by a valid medical note). Students who miss the midterm test but were not approved for 90% final exam option as described above will not be granted it and will forfeit the marks for the midterm test.

N.B: Travel arrangements are not considered a valid reason for missing the test.

NOTE: If you are taking another course with a common midterm test at the same time (NOT just the day) as this one, you may choose which of the two tests you want to write. You must then inform the instructor of the other (to be missed) course that you will not write that test because of the time conflict between the two courses, indicating clearly the other course and its section. In this case, the “90% final +10% assignments” scheme will be applied to calculate your grade.

Final Exam: The final examination will be three hours long and will cover all the material in the course.

NOTE: Students are responsible for finding out the date and time of the final exams once the schedule is posted by the Examinations Office. Conflicts or problems with the scheduling of the final exam must be reported directly to the Examinations Office, not to your instructor.

Grading Scheme: The final grade will be based on the higher of (a) or (b) below:

- a) 10% for the assignments, 30% for the midterm test, 60% for the final exam.
- b) 10% for the assignments, 10% for the midterm test, 80% for the final exam.
