Undergraduate Academic Program Guide
for New Students

2015/2016
Dear Political Science Students:

We in the Department of Political Science are dedicated to making your higher education a higher experience.

Congratulations on your acceptance to Concordia University and welcome to the Department of Political Science. If you are here to make a difference, then you have found the right place to start.

You are commencing a journey that will influence your future in so many ways. Beginning with your studies in the classroom, you will encounter new political ideas and theories, and contemplate their meanings. Your world view will take shape in the context of how political life is organized and how it influences everything, especially how we govern our affairs locally, nationally, and internationally. This educational engagement necessarily creates your critical mind.

This knowledge is acquired over time. It is during that time that you will bond with your peers and create study and work groups; honing your soft skills. Your dedicated professors will teach you about the many intellectual debates and philosophical traditions and will be available to discuss your ideas and any problems you are having with the material during office hours. It is in these experiences that you will discover the future that reflects your interests.

An undergraduate degree in Political Science has offered our graduates many choices. They can immediately start their career, pursue graduate studies, or study law. Students have gone on to professional careers in International Business, Public Service, NGOs, and Journalism; to name a few.

In the corridors, and during club and association activities, you will also create new relationships that will help guide your choices and your success.

I hope to see you in the hallways and in the classroom.

Marlene Sokolon, Ph.D.
Chair
Department of Political Science
The Department of Political Science offers the following programs of study:

Students who have met this criterion may apply to the Honours program by contacting the Honours Advisor. The application deadlines are May 15 for the Fall semester, and November 15 for the Winter semester.
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE PROGRAMS - MINORS

Within the bachelor’s degree, students can focus on another topic of interest by taking a “Minor”. A student with a Major in Political Science can have a Minor in Human Rights Studies but not in Political Science. A Minor can also be chosen from another department.

The credits students take as Electives are the credits that will go towards the Minor. Students must meet the program requirements from the Department that offers the Minor in order to apply. Please see each department website for details. Most departments require students to complete their first year of study, or 24 credits, and have an acceptable GPA before they can apply to add a Minor.

24 MINOR IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

12 POLI 203³, 204³, 205³, 206³
12 Chosen from any of the five groups (see pages 4-6) in Political Science. A minimum of nine credits must be taken at the 300 or 400 level.

24 MINOR IN HUMAN RIGHTS STUDIES

6 PHIL 241³; POLI 214³
18 Chosen from ENGL 369³, 380³, 382, 383³, 387³; FPST 321³; HIST 315³, 359³, 477³; HIST 360³ or SOCI 367³; JOUR 442³; PHIL 232³, 342³, 343³, 345³; POLI 301³, 388³; RELI 310³, 312³; SOCI 380³ or ANTH 380³; THEO 343³

CO-OPERATIVE EDUCATION

Political Science Co-operative Program

The Political Science co-operative program is offered to all full-time honours students who are enrolled in the Department and meet the academic requirements for co-op. Students interested in applying for the Political Science co-op should refer to §24 (in the Undergraduate Calendar) where a full description of the admission requirements is provided. Academic content is identical to that of the regular programs, with some specific recommendations for courses to improve the students' job skills. While most of the positions will be in the Montreal area, students must be prepared to work in other parts of Canada. Students are supervised personally and must meet the requirements specified by the Faculty of Arts and Science and the Institute for Co-operative Education in order to continue their studies in the co-op format. Liaison between the student, the employers, and the Institute for Co-operative Education is provided by the Political Science co-op committee, which includes the student’s advisors. Please refer to §24 (in the Undergraduate Calendar) for the schedule of study and work terms and the full description of admission requirements.
Higher Learning

At this Institution of higher learning, we provide students with the opportunity to design their academic career plan while guiding them to the successful completion of a bachelor’s degree. It is the student’s sole responsibility to carefully read and follow the requirements of their academic program to ensure success. In this Academic Program Guide, the Department gathers pertinent information from the University's Undergraduate Calendar and adds Department information to help assist the student to make good decisions. There are many University policies and procedures to follow, and important dates and deadlines to respect, in order to accomplish the goal of choosing, registering, and completing all courses successfully.

We have created this document to help the student ease into their academic experience with confidence. Please read this guide carefully and ensure that you understand the material before you begin.

What if the course requirements for my degree change?

If the courses a student is required to take in the Minor, Major, or Honours program change, that student MUST follow the course requirements from the Calendar of the year that they entered into the Political Science program. The official date of entry is located at the top of the Unofficial Transcript.

How long will it take to finish my degree?

Full-time students are permitted to take 30 credits a year (September to April); 15 credits (5 courses - 3 credits each) in the Fall semester (September to December) and another 15 credits (5 courses - 3 credits each) in the Winter semester (January to April). The degree can be completed in three years in a 90 credit program. Some students may opt to take less than the maximum number of courses (e.g. 4 per semester - total of 24 credits). The remaining credits may be made up during the summer session of which there are three sessions - May-August; May-June; and June-August.

How many credits do I need to graduate? Which courses do I take?

For those students following the MAJOR in Political Science:

This depends on the length of the program that a student has been admitted to. To know how many credits (90, 108, 120) a student must complete, they are to refer to the Unofficial Transcript through the MyConcordia Portal - Student Center. The number of credits a student is required to complete will be indicated at the top of the Unofficial Transcript under “Minimum Credits Required”. For more information about credit allotment, consult the Faculty of Arts and Science webpage: http://artsandscience.concordia.ca/

EXAMPLE: A normal full-time course load, of five 3-credit courses per term, in a 90 credit program, results in three years of study. This equation presumes the successful completion of all courses and no courses taken during the summer terms.
If I am following only the Major, which courses do I take?

Although some students will be following a double-major, honours, or also have a minor while completing their degree program, the distribution below, is for the Major with Electives only.

If you are in a 90-credit program:
42/90 credits = Political Science course requirements
48/90 credits = ELECTIVE requirements (can be inside and outside the Political Science program)

If you are in a 108-credit program:
42/108 credits = Political Science course requirements
66/108 credits = ELECTIVE requirements (can be inside and outside the Political Science program)

If you are in a 120-credit program:
42/120 credits = Political Science course requirements
78/120 credits = ELECTIVE requirements (can be inside and outside the Political Science program)

What does it mean to take 300 and 400 level courses in 3 of the 5 groups?

Every political science course at Concordia University falls into one of five groups: International Politics; Comparative Politics; Canadian and Québec Politics; Public Policy and Administration; and Political Theory. Within the 27 credits a Political Science Major student takes at the 300 and 400 level, they must take at least one course in at least three of the five groups in order to graduate.

Students may take courses from more than three of the five groups if they choose. For listing of all courses and their Group designations, refer to pages 4 -7 of this Guide.
What are the Political Science Course Requirements?

42 credits are required to be completed for the MAJOR in Political Science

Students must take 42 credits in Political Science. They are distributed as follows:

(Honours students have different requirements, see page 2 of this guide for details.)

15/42 credits are Introductory Core Program courses
- POLI 203 Introduction to Comparative Politics (3 credits)
- POLI 204* Introduction to Canadian Politics (3 credits)
- POLI 205 Introduction to International Relations (3 credits)
- POLI 206 Introduction to Western Political Theory (3 credits)
- POLI 207 Introduction to Political Science Research (3 credits)

*Please note POLI 204 Online (EC or OL) can NOT be taken to satisfy Political Science program degree requirements

27/42 credits are chosen from the list of courses offered at the 300 or 400 level and must be selected from 3 of the 5 groups, 6 credits of which must be seminar courses (400 level)

What are the Elective Course Requirements?

Electives are the courses that students are free to choose in addition to the 42 credits they are allotted for their Political Science course requirements.

- If in a 90-credit Program:
  48/90 credits = Elective requirement
- If in a 108-credit Program:
  66/108 credits = Elective requirement
- If in a 120-credit Program:
  78/120 credits = Elective requirement

In the Department of Political Science, Elective credits must be broken down as follows:

24 of the total elective credits must be taken outside of the Department of Political Science, 6 credits of which must meet the General Education Requirement

1. __________ (General Education) 2. __________ (General Education)

3. __________ 4. __________

5. __________ 6. __________

7. __________ 8. __________

The remaining 24 elective credits may be taken inside or outside the Department of Political Science (90-credit program); the remaining 42 elective credits may be taken inside or outside the department (108-credit program); the remaining 54 elective credits may be taken inside or outside the department (120-credit program)

9. __________ 10. __________ 11. __________ 12. __________

13. __________ 14. __________ / 108-credit program end

15. __________ 16. __________ 17. __________ 18. __________ /

120-credit program end
What is the General Education Requirement?

The general education requirement is meant to provide breadth to the student’s program of study. A candidate for graduation must satisfy the Arts and Science General Education Requirement by successfully completing a minimum of six credits from course offerings outside the candidate’s disciplinary sector.

Political Science falls under the Social Science Sector. Therefore, six credits from the elective requirements MUST be taken from the Humanities or Science Sectors.

HUMANITIES
Canadian Irish Studies, Classics, Modern Languages and Linguistics;
Communication Studies; English; Études françaises; History; Journalism;
Liberal Arts College; Loyola International College; Philosophy;
Theological Studies

SCIENCE
Biology; Chemistry/Biochemistry; Exercise Science; Mathematics and Statistics;
Physics; Psychology; Science College

* SOCIAL SCIENCE
Applied Human Sciences; Economics; Education; Geography, Planning and Environment; Political Science; Religion; School of Community and Public Affairs; Simone de Beauvoir Institute; Sociology and Anthropology

Students may also count courses offered by the John Molson School of Business, the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science, and the Faculty of Fine Arts toward their General Education Requirement.

Distribution Requirement: Students enrolled in two areas of concentration which are both within the same disciplinary sector are required to take six credits outside of the sector. For example, students enrolled in a BA major in Political Science and Economics, both of which fall within the Social Sciences, must fulfill the requirement by successfully completing either six credits from the Humanities or Science sector, or three credits from the Humanities sector and three credits from the Science sector, or six credits from outside the Faculty of Arts and Science.

Students enrolled in two areas of concentration drawn from different disciplinary sectors will be considered as having satisfied the General Education requirement.

ESL courses or introductory English-language courses are not considered as substitutions for this requirement.
MY STUDENT CENTRE
WELCOMES POLITICAL SCIENCE STUDENTS

The My Student Centre is an essential tool to help you with your academic life here at Concordia University.

From your self-serve dashboard you can update your personal details, register for classes, view your class schedules, pay your tuition, and look up your GPA, amongst many other important tasks.

There are detailed how-to guides available at concordia.ca/your-sis to help you do all that you need to do, and here are some more helpful hints for using your Student Centre.

1 Updating your information & Holds

Before you get started, you should make sure that your email address is updated. It is also a good idea to enable pop-ups in your Internet browser as some of the functions in the Student Centre open in new windows.

See the how-to guide for more information at concordia.ca/your-sis and click on the Personal Information section.

Before you register for any classes you will need to check for any holds that you may have.

You can find your holds on the top right of the Student Centre dashboard. Click on ‘details’ for more information about the hold and what you need to do to remove it.

2 Searching for classes

To find classes to enrol in, click Search for Classes.

There are then two ways to search for a class:

Search for classes. This option lets you search for classes that are being offered for the current academic year.

Browse course catalogue. This option lets you see all of the classes under each department. These may not be offered for the current academic year.

When using the search for classes option, follow these tips to make sure you can find and enrol in the classes that you want:

TIP 1. Select the correct academic term.

Fall 2015. This will show all single-term classes available in the Fall 2015 term.

Fall/Winter 2015-16. This will show all double-term classes available. It will not show any single-term classes for Fall 2015 or Winter 2016.

Winter 2016. This will show all single-term classes available in the Winter 2016 term.

TIP 2. Viewing all classes and sections.

Before you search, be sure the ‘Show Open Classes Only’ option is deselected. If it is not deselected then you will not see the classes with waitlists available.

After you’ve searched, make sure you can see all of the available sections for a class by clicking ‘View All Sections’ on the blue bar below the class title. If you don’t then you will only see the first 20 being offered.

TIP 3. Know what the symbols mean.

Open: The class has places available

Closed: The class has no places available and there is no waitlist

Wait List: The class is full but you can opt to put yourself on the automated waitlist in case space becomes available.

TIP 4. Adding to the Shopping Cart is NOT enrolling.

Some courses are automatically added to your cart when you enrol in them. If you want to remove a course, you can click the ‘X’ to remove it from your cart.

When you place a class in your shopping cart you are not enrolling, preserving a space or holding a spot in the class. You still need to follow all of the steps to enrol in the class.

The shopping cart enables you to keep all the classes you are interested in taking in one place. You can also validate the classes in your shopping cart to make sure you have all of the pre-requisites and there are no scheduling conflicts. That way you’re all ready and prepared for your enrolment date to arrive.

See the how-to guide for more information at concordia.ca/your-sis and click on the Course Registration section.

For more information and help, please visit www.concordia.ca/your-sis where you can find a variety of how-to guides.

3 Waitlists & Swaps

If a class is full, you may be able to choose to put yourself on the waitlist in case space becomes available. You can do this by checking the ‘Wait list if class is full’ option before you add the class to your shopping cart.

Once you’ve completed the steps to enrol in the class you will be placed on the waitlist. If space becomes available you will automatically be enrolled in the class and you will receive an email to advise you of this.

HANDBY TIP. It’s best if you select the waitlist option before adding any classes, even if the class shows as currently open, as sometimes there are reserve lists within a class that keep space for certain types of students.

You can also use the swap function in the system if you decide you want to try to enrol in a different class without risking losing your place in an existing class.

You can even combine the two functions to swap an existing class to go on the waitlist for a full class. If space becomes available in the full class, you will be automatically enrolled into it and dropped from the existing class.

See the how-to guide for more information at concordia.ca/your-sis and click on the Course Registration section.

4 Unofficial Transcripts

Your unofficial transcript has a lot of useful information. You can download a copy by selecting ‘Transcript: View Unofficial’ from the Academic drop-down menu in your Student Centre dashboard.

HANDBY TIP. The unofficial transcript opens in a new window as a PDF file so you will need to change the pop-up settings on your Internet browser to ensure this works.

See the how-to guide for more information at concordia.ca/your-sis and click on the Transcripts and Records section.

You can now view your cumulative GPA or Grades by selecting “Program CGPA” or “Grades” from the drop-down list under the Academics part of the Student Centre. This is a much easier and quicker way to view this information rather than viewing your unofficial transcript.

5 Advisement Reports

Your personal Advisement Report can be found by selecting the My Academics link near the top of the Student Centre dashboard and then clicking ‘View my advisement report’.

You can see how the courses you have completed, or are currently taking, are applied to your degree, along with which courses you need to complete to satisfy the degree requirements. The advisement report is only an informative tool to help you work out which classes you could take, always speak to your academic advisor if you need more detailed information. See the how-to guide for more information at concordia.ca/your-sis and click on the Academic Advising section.
These are the terms that may appear on your letter of acceptance. What do they mean?

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Please don’t hesitate to contact the person who signed your Offer of Admission if you have any questions about your offer.

DEFICIENCIES: A deficiency is a course required for admission to your chosen program that you have not completed. Courses identified as “deficiencies” must be completed as early in your studies as possible. You may have two options for making up those deficiencies as indicated by the letters “A” or “B.” Engineering and Computer Science students must complete any deficiencies before registering for classes.

EXEMPTIONS: Concordia grants you an exemption when you successfully complete a specific course and meet any indicated minimum grade. An exemption does not count as credit towards a degree, so it will not decrease the number of courses you need to complete your degree — but an exemption will let you skip ahead to a more advanced course. If Concordia gives you an exemption from a course, you may not take that course for credit. If you received an exemption from a required course, you must take another course in the same department, to be determined in consultation with a departmental advisor.

EXTENDED CREDIT PROGRAM (ECP): Students who have not successfully completed a two-year pre-university program may be admitted to the Extended Credit Program, which requires them to take a minimum of 30 additional credits. This ensures the time to complete a program at Concordia is the same as it would be at any other university outside Quebec, about four years of full-time study. The Undergraduate Calendar lists ECP requirements for each faculty.

MATURE ENTRY PROGRAM (MEP): Canadians and permanent residents 21 years of age and older who lack the required pre-university schooling may be considered for admission to the Mature Entry Program. The MEP requires you to complete at least 18 additional credits.

TRANSFER CREDIT: You may earn transfer credits through your studies at another post-secondary institution or in another degree program at Concordia. These credits are applied towards your degree, meaning you’ll have fewer courses left to complete.

Explanation of Academic Terms

Core Course
A core course is a course that is required in the Honours, Specialization, Major or Minor program of your department.

Credit Loads
6-credit courses are normally taught over the Fall and Winter terms.
3-credit courses are normally taught over one term.
Full-time students normally take 12-15 credits per term.
Part-time students take 9 or less credits per term.
The maximum credit load for the summer session is 12 credits (excluding Co-op students)

24-Credit Rule
Before you are eligible to graduate, you must successfully complete a minimum of 24 credits of electives outside of your department or single discipline.

DISC
DISC, or discontinue is an academic withdrawal and has no impact in the calculation of your GPA.
Students remain financially responsible for the discontinued course(s).

DNE
DNE, or Did Not Enter, means you officially withdrew from a course within the deadline. Check your current Undergraduate Calendar or Undergraduate Class Schedule and Registration Guide for the exact list of deadlines. There is a full refund.

ECP
The ECP, or Extended Credit Program, is designed for graduates of secondary schools outside Quebec and requires completion of 30 credits in addition to the regular 90 credit program. Some of the additional 30 credits may be specified.

Elective Course
An Elective course is a course outside of your required core courses.

Equivalent Course
An Equivalent course is a course that has the identical content as another course, but with a different course number (see Section 200 of the Undergraduate Calendar).

External Credit
If you want to take a course at another university, you must apply in advance through your department. Final permission is given by Student Academic Services. Depending on where the courses are taken, normally a maximum of 12 credits is permitted. Without prior permission, no credits will be transferred.

F & FNS
A grade of F or FNS means that you have failed the course. A supplemental examination is only available in some circumstances to those students who receive an F. (details in the Undergraduate Calenar)
Do I have to maintain a certain Grade Point Average (GPA) to remain at the University or in good academic standing?

Every student must maintain a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 ("C" average) in order to remain in good academic standing at the University. Failure to maintain a 2.0 GPA could lead to academic jeopardy. A student is responsible for maintaining the GPA and will be notified by the University if it falls below 2.0. The student will either be placed in Conditional Standing or in Failed Standing, depending on the GPA.

Grade Point Average (GPA) Regulations
(See Academic Performance Regulations, sections 16.3.11 & 31.003.1 of the Concordia Undergraduate Calendar)

Acceptable Standing
To be in acceptable standing, you must obtain an annual GPA of at least 2.00 (C). Students in acceptable standing may continue their program of study, following the advice of their academic departments.

Conditional Standing
A student is in conditional standing when they obtain an annual GPA of less than 2.00, but at least 1.50. A student is not permitted to obtain two consecutive conditional standing assessments. Students in Conditional Standing may not write supplemental exams. If placed in Conditional Standing they must follow the conditions outlined in the e-mail letter sent to them regarding their academic standing.

Failed standing
Failed standing results from a student’s GPA that has fallen to less than 1.50, or if they obtain Conditional Standing in two consecutive assessment periods.

What Happens if I suspect or attain Failed Standing?
If a student is in failed standing for the first time, they are withdrawn from the University for a period of at least one year and must apply for readmission after that year. If they have extenuating circumstances, they may apply for immediate readmission by following the guidelines and deadlines in the instruction letter received from the Office of the Registrar and by visiting artsandsscience.concordia.ca/currentstudents/degreerequirementsandprocedures/readmission for the readmission form and explanatory details. Deadlines are firm. If a student knows that they are failing, they must tend the situation before leaving campus for the summer (assessments are completed in May each year). If a student attains failed standing for a second time they must withdraw from the University for a period of three years. Second time failed students who wish to reapply for readmission may do so after a period of three years by applying to Student Academic Services, Faculty of Arts and Science. Failed students may not write supplemental exams.
Going through a tough semester? Grades not what you want them to be?

A bad semester is like bad credit: It’s hard to fix. Take action early!!

If you are experiencing difficulties during the semester:
- See your professor as soon as possible to discuss a course of action;
- Make sure to document the case for any extraneous circumstances; (medical notes)
- See an academic advisor;
- Seek support at the Counselling and Development Centre (cdev.concordia.ca);
- Reduce the number of hours at your place of employment;
- Assess if you are taking too many courses; many students take five courses in their first semester. Sometimes, it is better to take four;
- WITHDRAW by the posted deadline so that it will NOT affect your Grade Point Average (GPA).

*You should assess your status in your course midway through the semester. If you feel you cannot reach a satisfactory grade by the end of term WITHDRAW from the class before the withdrawal (DISC) deadline.

There are two WITHDRAWAL DEADLINES:
- DNE (Did Not Enter): receive a full refund on your tuition and not have the class reflected on your transcript. Your GPA remains unaffected.
- DISC (Discontinue): you will not receive a refund on your tuition and your GPA remains unaffected.

BE AWARE OF IMPORTANT UNIVERSITY DEADLINES

https://www.concordia.ca/artsci/students/sas.html

Deadline dates are published each year in the front of the Concordia Undergraduate Calendar (Section 11) and listed on your MyConcordia portal for:
- Withdrawing from a course with a tuition refund (DNE)
- Withdrawing from a course – no refund (DISC)
- Applying to complete work for a course after the course has finished (INC)
- Applying for re-evaluation of a grade
- Applying for replacement and supplemental exams
- Applying to graduate
- Applying for a DEF/MED notation
- Last day to register for courses, and so much more...

Please consult your MyConcordia portal for dates. It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of all changes to deadlines.

KNOW THE CODE

Department of Political Science statement on Plagiarism

The Department has zero tolerance for plagiarism.

What is plagiarism? The University defines plagiarism as “The presentation of the work of another person, in whatever form, as one's own or without proper acknowledgment” (Concordia Undergraduate Calendar 2015-16, page 55). Plagiarism is an academic offence governed by the Academic Code of Conduct. To find out more about how to avoid plagiarism, see the Concordia University Student Learning Services: http://www.concordia.ca/offices/cdev.html/our-services/learning-support/

What are the consequences of getting caught? The Dean or an Academic Hearing Panel may impose the following sanctions on students caught plagiarizing:

a. Reprimand the student;
b. Direct that a piece of work be re-submitted;
c. Enter a grade of "0" for the piece of work in question;
d. Enter a grade reduction in the course;
e. Enter a failing grade for the course;
f. Enter a failing grade and ineligibility for a supplemental examination or any other evaluative exercise for the course;
g. Impose the obligation to take and pass courses of up to twenty-four (24) credits in addition to the total number of credits required for the student's program as specified by the Dean. If the student is registered as an Independent student, the sanction will be imposed only if he or she applies and is accepted into a program;
h. Impose a suspension for a period not to exceed six (6) academic terms. Suspensions shall entail the withdrawal of all University privileges, including the right to enter and be upon University premises;
i. Expulsion from the University. Expulsion entails the permanent termination of all University privileges (Undergraduate calendar, pages 58-59, 60).

Complete regulations can be found in Section 17.10 of the Undergraduate calendar.

Guides for Students on Avoiding Plagiarism

These guides usually include information about the university code of conduct but most importantly they tell students what is considered acceptable paraphrasing and what is not, and they provide information on proper citation of documents.
