

CALL FOR IMAGES

The Department of Religions and Cultures & the Concordia Religion Students Association announce a contest for any and all images related to religion.

Been somewhere interesting recently? Working on a design or art project?
Walk by a place in Montreal that catches your eye?

Images can be graphic, artwork, or photographs. Historical or contemporary. Any and all images related to religion, morality, and spirituality in a broad sense, including subjects not conventionally associated with religion. The committee is also looking for representations of a diversity of religions.

Winning entries are eligible for prizes and will be featured on the department's website and conference rooms

Some subjects might include:
religion in practice
monuments and architecture
art, media, and graffiti religious objects and rituals religion in Montreal & other urban areas

Deadline 15 December 2017

Send entries to: Munit.Merid@concordia.ca

All entries should include the name of the entrant and a short caption clarifying what it is and where/when it was created or taken
