

6) Articles and papers by others, 1898-1986

Karl Polanyi's interest in economic anthropology and economic history is reflected in articles, draft articles, papers, draft manuscripts, notes, and outlines by various authors, many of them being his colleagues and students. Some material in the series is annotated by Karl Polanyi. There are papers by many important scholars including Paul Meadow, Harry W. Pearson, Abraham Rotstein, Conrad M. Arensberg, Paul Bohanna, George Dalton, Paul Medow, Walter C. Neale, Joseph Needham, Harry H. Pearson, Abraham Rotstein, among others. Some of the material is annotated by Karl Polanyi. The papers were mainly written in North America, but there also are earlier articles and draft articles by Otto Bauer, Oszkár Jászi, Aurel Kolnai, Ernst Mach, Ludwig Mises, and others. An important part of the series is formed by papers, articles, lecture notes etc. by Ilona Duczynska and Michael Polanyi. Included in the file also are newspaper clippings and pamphlets.
