

With Riipen, you can easily connect assignments or educator-designed competitions to businesses and non-profits that have real time projects for your learners to work on.

What Can Riipen Do For You As An Educator?

- Connect you to a network of over 27,300 employers
- Get feedback from the business community on learner skills
- Manage your experiential learning project using project-management tools that will save you time
- Improve the classroom experience

How Does It Work?

- 1 Post your course to the Riipen marketplace using one of our many templates. Connect with a business project that fits your learners' learning outcomes.
- 2 Use our project management features to engage with the industry partner and learners effectively.
- 3 Learners complete projects and receive verified feedback on skills from industry partners.
- 4 Duplicate your course page for your next teaching semester to connect with new business partners.

Educators

Easily connect with businesses and non-profits globally and provide experiential learning opportunities for your learners.

Employers

Grow your network of business and non-profit connections and introduce current and relevant applied problems to your curriculum.

EXPAND CLASSROOM EXPERIENCES

Learners require more than just the knowledge they learn in class to succeed in the workplace. Give your learners a head start by applying real-world challenges to the curriculum and provide them with learning that extends the classroom experience.

CONNECT WITH INDUSTRY PARTNERS

It can be challenging to find and coordinate with a suitable industry partner. The Riipen marketplace allows you to connect with local and international companies and non-profits who are ready to engage with learners.

MANAGE WIL ENGAGEMENTS

Communication can easily get lost when dealing with a lot of different people. Our project management tools help ensure things stay on track.

CREATE A STRONGER FUTURE

Join Riipen in shaping the future of work. Help learners build valuable work-ready skills, play a role in closing the skills gap, and help build a stronger future.
