

PLAGIARISM

WHAT YOU MUST KNOW!

plagiarism defined: “the presentation of the work of another person, in whatever form, as one’s own or without proper acknowledgement.”

(Academic Code of Conduct, Concordia University 04/05/2015)

WHY MUST I CITE MY SOURCES?

- To give yourself credibility
- To help the reader
- To protect yourself

WHAT HAPPENS IF I DON’T CITE?

The consequences for committing plagiarism can be one or more of the following: a re-submission of your work, a mark of 0 given to your work, a reduction in the grade for your work or in your final grade, a failing grade for the course, or the requirement to complete up to 24 extra credits in addition to your degree requirements.

THE RULES OF CITATION APPLY TO ALL CONCORDIA STUDENTS

BE SAFE, LEARN TO CITE!

For help, come and see us at:

Student Advocacy Office

1550 de Maisonneuve Blvd. W., GM-320

514-848-2424, ext. 3992

studentadvocates@concordia.ca

www.concordia.ca/advocacy

