Ryan F. Cianflone Memorial Award

Ryan Francis was a promising young student at Concordia University who participated and played Rugby at the University. Ryan was a student who was open to the community around him, who loved to be involved in sports activities, and who while carrying out many extracurricular activities showed progressive and marked improvement with his grades throughout his studies. This award was generously established in 2007 by Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Cianflone in Ryan's memory.

Candidates for this award will demonstrate commitment and spirit towards sports and student life activities at Concordia University and / or in the community at large. These are values exemplified by Ryan Francis.
