ADMI 201 Introduction to Administration (Administered by the Finance Department) (3 credits)

This course is intended to develop a basic understanding of the role of administration in our society. The course includes a survey of different forms of organizations, their social and legal responsibilities, and how they function to achieve their goals.

NOTE: JMSB students may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: This course does not count towards the requirements for the Minor in Business Studies.

ADMI 202 Perspective on Canadian Business (Administered by the Finance Department) (3 credits)

This course is designed to review the historical development of business in Canada and to examine the relationships between the firm (management) and the owners, the employees, the customers, the government, and the community. Further, it studies some of the problems facing Canadian business today: the dehumanizing aspect, pollution problems, large vs. small firms, foreign ownership, and competition.

NOTE: JMSB students may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this course may not take MANA 369 for credit.

NOTE: This course does not count towards the requirements for the Minor in Business Studies.
