

FILM PRODUCTION Independent Study Request Form

Undergraduate

FMPR 448 Independent Study I (3 credits)

FMPR 449 Independent Study II (3 credits)

Prerequisites for FMPR 448: 24 credits completed in FMPR, written permission of the School of Cinema and a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5

Prerequisites for FMPR 449: FMPR 448, 24 credits completed in FMPR, written permission of the School of Cinema and a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5.

Independent studies offer a limited number of students the opportunity to pursue advanced production and/or research under the supervision of a full-time Cinema faculty member. The study workload should be equivalent to a 3-credit course in the FMPR program (45 hours per credit = 135 hours). Independent Studies may not duplicate curriculum offerings. Independent Study courses are enrolled in and billed like any other course at Concordia.

Guidelines:

- Attach a 2-page description of the project that clearly states the nature of the production and/or research to be undertaken, including a provisional list of your production/research projections (i.e. filmography, bibliography) and a work schedule including the number of meetings with your Advisor, film(s), drawings and/or assignments to be submitted, expected scope/length of each and dates of submission
- Attach a copy of your current unofficial transcript/student record
- Submit all documents in one continuous PDF to the Cinema Office via email: undergrad.cinema@concordia.ca no later than 7 calendar days before the drop-add deadline (second Monday after classes begin) in the term you are requesting the course.
