

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Momus Emerging Critics Residency (2019)

The Faculty of Fine Arts invites applications for the new Momus Emerging Critics Residency. The 2019 residency is a one-week intensive summer program that will take place from August 26 to August 30 at Concordia University. The program will help foster the next generation of art writers through mentorship and practical skills development. Fine Arts graduate students, as well as graduating students and recent Concordia alumni are eligible to apply. The Faculty of Fine Arts will cover the participation fee for selected Concordia applicants.
