

Department of Theatre – Resolution Guide

The Advisory Committee on Equity and Diversity has recommended the following steps to facilitate effective resolution of issues within the Department of Theatre. Issues arising between students or between students and faculty/staff members can be approached using these steps as a guide. These recommendations have been suggested to assist members in resolving conflicts using informal methods within the department.

The Committee is composed of faculty and students, including the Department Chair and Area Coordinators, and is tasked with addressing issues of equity and diversity including, but not limited to, gender, sexuality, race, class, ability, and age. Students may contact the Committee's student delegates at any time with questions about these guidelines or for assistance in resolving specific issues with the utmost confidentiality. For current composition and contact information, visit the Committee website: <http://concordia.ca/finearts/theatre/equity.html>

At any time, University members (students, faculty, or staff) may also consult the Ombuds Office or the Office of Rights and Responsibilities. The Ombuds Office assists with the informal resolution of complaints related to the application of policies, rules, and procedures at Concordia. The Office of Rights and Responsibilities assists in addressing behavioural incidents and conflicts on campus as described in the Code of Rights and Responsibilities.
