Motivation Statement

The John Molson EMBA is aimed at developing “complete executives”; leaders who are committed to continuous learning, personal and professional development and making positive contributions to their organizations and their communities. In 600 words (or less), please:

- Describe two different and distinct paths you could see your career taking in the next 10 years. How do you see these two paths unfolding?
- Explain how developing as a “complete executive” can bring you further along each of these paths.
- Explain the factors that will most likely determine which path you ultimately take.

In addition to completing this form, EMBA applicants must also provide or arrange to send the following documents as part of their formal application:

1. Birth Certificate or Canadian citizenship card or Permanent Residency card
2. Official university transcripts
3. Official GMAT score
4. CV or Resume
5. Academic Assessment form (with Letter of reference) from each referee
6. Organizational Support Form
