

Finding Case Studies via Publishers Websites (to purchase)

Caseplace.org: Abstracts and publisher information for a set of case studies that "pose social and environmental challenges within traditional business problems". Cases are organized by discipline such as Accounting and Economics and topic such as Corporate Citizenship and Environmental Issues.

Ivey Publishing: Search the site by keyword or list cases by discipline such as Accounting. Or, search under Products by theme such as Ethics.

Harvard Business School: Cases: See a list of recent cases or search all cases by topic such as leadership or a company name such as Enron. Abstracts are available from 1942 - via Business Source Complete. Search for Harvard Business School Cases.

AsiaCase.com: the Asian Business Case Centre: The faculty of Nanyang Business School.

European Case Clearing House (ECCH): The Clearing House distributes the European Collection from the Babson College Office including case collections of IMD, INSEAD, IESE, London Business School, Cranfield School of Management, Babson College and cases from independent authors.

Darden Case Collection (University of Virginia): Cases for review are organized by theme including Management Communications, Ethics and Multimedia.

BSDglobal (International Institute for Sustainable Development): "This site explains the strategies and tools that companies can draw on to translate an aspiration of sustainability into practical, effective solutions. Case studies from around the world are provided as an example of each measure." Can be searched by country and sector.

SHRM - Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM): Major U.S. association for HR practitioners. Free access to a wide range of case studies related to human resources.

Stanford Graduate School of Business: Search by keyword, author's name &/or year.

London Business School: Searchable by keyword, faculty name, research activity or year.