

Jared Wiercinski
Concordia Libraries
January 2016

DANC 211: Dance Traditions

Finding books, journals, and videos
at the library

*Tartola Calenci's
"La Serpiente"
1915. Barcelona.*

Overview

- ⌘ The library has a dynamic collection of dance books, journals and videos
- ⌘ I can help you to use the collection to find what you need for your assignments

Overview

- ⌘ Finding example abstracts (Assignment 2)
- ⌘ Finding scholarly sources for your research paper
- ⌘ Using Chicago-Style citations and bibliography

Finding example abstracts

1. Go to: Dance Research Journal
2. Pick an issue from the right-hand side
3. Click on an article and read the abstract

Finding scholarly sources

For all formats (books, ebooks, journals, journal articles, videos):

1. Search from within Moodle
2. Search from library website

Searching tip:

1. Try quotation marks around names or phrases (e.g. “edouard lock”)
2. Use a * symbol to search for variations of a word. E.g. philosoph* searches for philosophy, philosophical, philosopher, etc.

Finding scholarly sources

Dance subject guide

- ⌘ A good starting point for finding dance books, journals and videos at the library
- ⌘ To find it, Google “concordia library dance” or use link above
- ⌘ Helpful for more refined searching

Finding scholarly sources

1. Excellent search tool: Google Scholar
2. Connecting from off campus:
 - Login with Concordia Netname/password
 - VPN

Suggested keywords

Search for name of dancer/choreographer/dance company and:

- ⌘ aesthetics
- ⌘ social
- ⌘ political
- ⌘ philosophy
- ⌘ inspiration
- ⌘ legacy
- ⌘ influence
- ⌘ biography

For example:

isadora duncan aesthetics

Chicago-Style

⌘ For help creating a bibliography, filmography, videography:

- ⌘ Moodle

- ⌘ Library citation guide

- ⌘ Citing: DVDs and videocassettes

- ⌘ Citing: online multimedia

Need help?

⌘ Contact me to set up an appointment

✉ jared.wiercinski@concordia.ca

✉ (514) 848-2424 ext. 7726

⌘ Try our Ask a Librarian service