Nomination Process

Step 1: Determine whether the applicant is eligible to apply for the competition(s).

- Master's research component (VM) is tenable within the first six semesters of the master's program - All master's sessions, funded or unfunded, completed before the scholarship takes effect (May 1st next year) are used in calculating the eligibility period.
- Doctoral research component (V1, 1B, 1IS, 1I, 1W) is tenable within the first nine terms of the doctoral program - All doctoral sessions, funded or unfunded, completed before the scholarship takes effect (May 1st next year) are used in calculating the eligibility period.
- Postdoctoral component (V2, 2B, 2I) is intended for researchers who have obtained their degree no more than two years before the deadline of the competition or who submitted their dissertation by January 15th following the application deadline at the latest, the deadline for the beginning of scholarship use. Postdoctoral research must be conducted in an institution other than the one that granted the doctorate. The applicant's doctoral supervisors and co-supervisors may not act as their postdoctoral supervisor, even if they have changed institutions.
- Short-term research or professional development component (V3, 3B, 3IS, 3I, 3W) is intended for technical and university students (option A) or researchers who have completed a doctorate no more than five years before the deadline for the competition (option B). The research or professional development must be conducted in an institution other than the one at which the student was enrolled when they applied.

Step 2: Verify that the application is complete by consulting the checklist (see page 4).

Step 3: Follow-up with the applicant for any missing documents.

Step 4: Review all files and selects the file(s) to be forwarded for evaluation by Concordia's internal adjudicating committee.

Step 5: Download and complete the Nominating Department Submission Form from Concordia's PBEEE page.

Step 6: Merge all documents into one pdf document, using the Nominating Department Submission Form as the first page.

Step 7: Submit a Nomination Package for each recommended candidate (one pdf document per application) to the Graduate Awards Office via email by August 13th.

NOTE: If an application is deemed ineligible, the department must inform the applicant.
