

Concordia University

FALL SYMPOSIUM, CMLL

Wednesday, December 5, 2007

1:00-6:30 PM

H-1013

*Special Individualized Program, MA and PhD
PhD in the Humanities
Linguistics Honours Program*

- 1:00 The subversion of authentic gay discourse in NBC's 'Will & Grace'
Olivier Couture
- 1:30 José Martí and his translation of Helen Hunt Jackson's 'Ramona'
Ana-Maria Kerekes
- 2:00 Agree, disagree; Where is this relation going?
Michaël Gagnon
- 2:30 Prepositions: cause, effect or mere instrument in Latin morphosyntactic change?
Lidia Cuccia
- 3:00 Coffee
- 3:30 Where has the copula gone? Was it ever really there? Copula absence in AAVE and the African Diaspora
Jacqueline Peters
- 4:00 An analysis of right-dislocated subjects in Romanian
Sabina Matyiku

- 4:30 Subtitling the national official language: the role of film and television in Irish language planning
Heather Macdougall
- 5:00 Difficulties in applying the comparative method to languages of pre-historic origin: the problems entailed by the classification of Papuan languages
David Cox
- 5:30 WH-movement in American sign language
Melanie Perrett
- 6:00 Adhuc sub iudice
Daniel Phelan

Special thanks to the SIP program for generous support of the Symposium