Sample Master's Abstract

ABSTRACT

On the Illusory Nature of Sustainable Development:
A Case Study of a Montreal Suburb

Peter Graham

An apparent paradox attaches to the concept of sustainable development: as general levels of education, technology, and scientific knowledge have increased, so has the ecological impact of humanity and the likelihood of large-scale anthropogenic catastrophe for human populations. This paradox can be at least partially explained as the result of perceptual and cognitive illusion. Human perception, cognition and meaning systems are always to some extent “inherited” as a path-dependent “traditionality”. This difference between the world “as it is” and “as we know it” creates an illusion and a false sense of impunity to act in the world . . .
