Undergraduate Academic Program Guide
for New Students

2017/2018
Dear Political Science Students:

Welcome to Concordia University and the Department of Political Science!

Congratulations on your acceptance and we are excited to see you on your way in your academic career. The Department of Political Science is a place to explore new ideas and theories of how people, and societies, create and exercise power. Faculty members explore how concepts of justice and democracy have evolved and changed and how different countries and institutions confront the challenges of governance, globalization, conflict, and growth. Along the way, you will learn to think critically, read carefully, argue convincingly, and write well.

The Department offers numerous possibilities to explore policy-making in practice at talks by current and former government officials and internships for credit in government agencies and NGOs. Students can apply to study abroad to see global issues first hand, or participate in competitions such as Model United Nations of Jeux de la Science Politique. The Political Science Student Association, and Concordia Student Union, offer additional opportunities to put theory in practice and opportunities to engage with current political issues at home and abroad.

Graduates from Political Science have gone on to careers in public service, law, journalism, and academia in Montreal, Quebec, Canada and abroad. The skills you learn over the next few years will open many doors, from employment with Members of Parliament to graduate and law schools to conducting policy analysis for Global Affairs Canada or the Canadian Space Agency or analyzing elections data with Statistics Canada.

It is up to you what you choose to study and how you choose to make the most of the opportunities and resources available for you here in the Department and the University. Engaging in class debates, challenging preconceived ideas, and pushing yourself to improve your written arguments and oral presentation skills will provide value no matter what your future path. In addition, you will develop lifelong friendship and networks that will support you through the highs and lows of your university career. Your professors, and the staff, in the Department will be here to help you develop intellectually, to discuss your ideas and any problems you are having with the material, and to provide mentorship in finding your next steps.

I look forward to seeing where your time in the Political Science Department takes you!

Elizabeth Bloodgood, Ph.D.
Chair, Department of Political Science

deadlines are May 15 for the Fall semester, and November 15 for the Winter semester.
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE PROGRAMS - MINORS

Within the bachelor’s degree, students can focus on another topic of interest by taking a “Minor”. A student with a Major in Political Science can have a Minor in Human Rights Studies but not in Political Science. A Minor can also be chosen from another department.

The credits students take as Electives are the credits that also go towards the Minor. Students must meet the program requirements from the Department that offers the Minor in order to apply. Please see each department website for details.

24 MINOR IN POLITICAL SCIENCE
12 POLI 203, 204, 205, 206
12 Chosen from any of the five groups (see pages 3-6) in Political Science. A minimum of nine credits must be taken at the 300 or 400 level.

24 MINOR IN HUMAN RIGHTS STUDIES
6 PHIL 241; POLI 214

NOTE: For details on the course descriptions in the program listed above, please refer to the individual departmental course listings.

NOTE: Students who complete POLI courses for the Human Rights Minor cannot also count them for their Political Science Major.

CO-OPERATIVE EDUCATION

Political Science Co-operative Education Program

The Political Science co-operative education program is offered to all full-time honours or high achieving students who are enrolled in the Department and meet the academic requirements for co-op. Students interested in applying for the Political Science co-op program should refer to §24 (in the Undergraduate Calendar) where a full description of the admission requirements is provided. Academic content is identical to that of the regular programs, with some specific recommendations for courses to improve the students’ job skills. While most of the positions will be in the Montreal area, students must be prepared to work in other parts of Canada. Students are supervised personally and must meet the requirements specified by the Faculty of Arts and Science and the Institute for Co-operative Education in order to continue their studies in the co-op format. Liaison between the student, the employers, and the Institute for Co-operative Education is provided by the Political Science co-op committee, which includes the student’s advisors. Please refer to §24 (in the Undergraduate Calendar) for the schedule of study and work terms and the full description of admission requirements.
Higher Learning

At this Institution of higher learning, we provide students with the opportunity to design their academic career plan while guiding them to the successful completion of a bachelor’s degree. It is the student’s sole responsibility to carefully read and follow the requirements of their academic program to ensure success. In this Academic Program Guide, the Department gathers pertinent information from the University’s Undergraduate Calendar and adds Department information to help assist the student to make good decisions. There are many University policies and procedures to follow, and important dates and deadlines to respect, in order to accomplish the goal of choosing, registering, and completing all courses successfully.

We have created this document to help the student ease into their academic experience with confidence. Please read this guide carefully and ensure that you understand the material before you begin (2 hours minimum time recommended).

What if the course requirements for my degree change?

If the courses a student is required to take in the Minor, Major, or Honours program change, that student MUST follow the course requirements from the Calendar of the year that they entered into the Political Science program. The official date of entry is located at the top of the Unofficial Transcript (or Student Record).

How long will it take to finish my degree?

Full-time students are permitted to take 30 credits a year (September to April): 15 credits (5 courses - 3 credits each) in the Fall semester (September to December), and another 15 credits (5 courses - 3 credits each) in the Winter semester (January to April). The degree can be completed in three years in a 90 credit program. Some students may opt to take less than the maximum number of courses (e.g. 4 per semester - total of 24 credits). The remaining credits may be made up during the summer session of which there are three sessions - May-August; May-June; and June-August.
How many credits do I need to graduate? Which courses do I take?

For those students following the MAJOR in Political Science:

This depends on the length of the program that a student has been admitted to. To know how many credits (90, 108, 120) a student must complete, they are to refer to the Offer of Admission. The number of credits a student is required to complete is indicated at the top of the Student Record under “Minimum Credits Required”. N.B. Students completing the 120 Extended Credit Program can only take a maximum of 12 elective credits outside of the Faculty of Arts and Science. More information about credit allotment, consult the Faculty of Arts and Science webpage: www.concordia.ca/artscl.html

EXAMPLE: A full-time course load, of five 3-credit courses per term (Summer not included), in a 90 credit program, results in three years of study. This equation presumes the successful completion of all courses.

If I am following the Major, which courses do I take?

Although some students will be following a double-major, honours, or also have a minor while completing their degree program, the distribution below, is for the Major with Electives only.

If you are in a 90-credit program:
42/90 credits = Political Science course requirements
48/90 credits = ELECTIVE requirements (can be inside and outside the Political Science program)

If you are in 108-credit program:
42/108 credits = Political Science course requirements
66/108 credits = ELECTIVE requirements (can be inside and outside the Political Science program)

If you are in a 120-credit program:
42/120 credits = Political Science course requirements
78/120 credits = ELECTIVE requirements (can be inside and outside the Political Science program)

What does it mean to take 300 and 400 level courses in 3 of the 5 groups?

Every political science course at Concordia University falls into one of five groups: International Relations; Comparative Politics; Canadian and Québec Politics; Public Policy and Administration; and Political Theory. Within the 30 credits a Political Science Major student takes at the 300 and 400 level, they must take at least one course in at least three of the five groups in order to graduate.
What are the Political Science Course Requirements?

42 credits are required to be completed for the MAJOR in Political Science

Students must take 42 credits in Political Science. They are distributed as follows:
(Honours students have different requirements, see page 2 of this guide for details.)

12/42 credits are Introductory Core Program courses
   POLI 203 Introduction to Comparative Politics (3 credits)
   POLI 204 Introduction to Canadian Politics (3 credits)
   POLI 205 Introduction to International Relations (3 credits)
   POLI 206 Introduction to Western Political Theory (3 credits)

☐ POLI 203 ☐ POLI 204 ☐ POLI 205 ☐ POLI 206

30/42 credits are chosen from the list of courses offered at the 300 or 400 level and must be selected from 3 of the 5 groups, 6 credits of which must be seminar courses (400 level)

MAJOR PROGRAM COURSE REQUIREMENTS (30 Credits)

Credits taken from at least 3 of the 5 groups at the 300 or 400 level; 6 of which must be seminar courses (400 level)

8 courses: 24 credits 300 level

What are the Elective Course Requirements?

Electives are the courses that students are free to choose in addition to the 42 credits they are allotted for their Political Science Major. These credits can be assigned to another Major, a Minor or an Elective group from any other discipline outside of Political Science, where available.

- If in a 90-credit Program: 48/90 credits = Elective requirement
- If in 108-credit Program: 66/108 credits = Elective requirement
- If in a 120-credit Program: 78/120 credits = Elective requirement

(N.B. Students completing the 120 Extended Credit Program (ECP) can take a maximum of 12 elective credits outside of the Faculty of Arts and Science.)

In the Department of Political Science, Elective credits must be broken down as follows:

24 of the total elective credits must be taken outside of the Department of Political Science, 6 credits of which must meet the General Education Requirement

| ELECTIVE REQUIREMENTS (24 credits) Outside of Political Science: of which 6 credits must meet the General Education Requirement. (See verso) |
|---|---|
| 3. | 4. |
| 5. | 6. |
| 7. | 8. |

The remaining 24 elective credits may be taken inside or outside the Department of Political Science (90-credit program); the remaining 42 elective credits may be taken inside or outside the department (108-credit program); the remaining 54 elective credits may be taken inside or outside the department (120-credit program)

| 9. | 10. | 11. | 12. |
| 17. | 18. /120 For 120-credit: A maximum of 12 credits outside of A&Sc |

N.B. Each numbered line represents 3 credits.
What is the General Education Requirement?

The general education requirement is meant to provide breadth to the student’s program of study. A candidate for graduation must satisfy the Arts and Science General Education Requirement by successfully completing a minimum of six credits from course offerings OUTSIDE the student’s disciplinary sector, which is in this case, the Social Science Sector.

SOCIAL SCIENCE
- Applied Human Sciences; Economics; Education; Geography, Planning and Environment;
- Political Science: Religion; School of Community and Public Affairs; Simone de Beauvoir Institute;
- Sociology and Anthropology

HUMANITIES
- Canadian Irish Studies, Classics, Modern Languages and Linguistics; Communication Studies; English; Études françaises; History; Journalism; Liberal Arts College; Loyola International College;
- Philosophy; Theological Studies

SCIENCE
- Biology; Chemistry/Biochemistry; Exercise Science; Mathematics and Statistics;
- Physics; Psychology; Science College

Students may also include courses offered by the John Molson School of Business, the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science, and the Faculty of Fine Arts as credits for their General Education Requirement.

Distribution Requirement: Students enrolled in two areas of concentration which are both within the same disciplinary sector are required to take six credits outside of the sector. For example, students enrolled in a BA major in Political Science and Economics, both of which fall within the Social Sciences, must fulfill the requirement by successfully completing either six credits from the Humanities or Science sector, or three credits from the Humanities sector and three credits from the Science sector, or six credits from outside the Faculty of Arts and Science.

Students enrolled in two areas of concentration drawn from different disciplinary sectors will be considered as having satisfied the General Education requirement.

ESL courses or introductory English-language courses are not considered as substitutions for this requirement.
MY STUDENT CENTRE
HINTS AND TIPS TO GET YOU STARTED

UPDATING YOUR INFORMATION & HOLDS
Before you get started, you should make sure that your email address is updated. It is also a good idea to enable pop-ups in your internet browser as some of the functions in the Student Centre open in new windows.

See the how-to guide for more information at concordia.ca/your-sis and click on the Personal Information section.

Before you register for any classes, you should check for any holds that could be on your account.

You can find your holds on the top right of the Student Centre dashboard. Click on 'Details' for more information about the hold and what you need to do to remove it.

SEARCHING FOR CLASSES
To find classes to enrol in, click

There are then two ways to search for a class:

Search for classes. This option lets you search for classes that are available by academic term.

When using the search for classes option, follow these tips to make sure you can find and enrol in the classes that you want:

TIP 1. Select the correct academic term.

Fall 2015. This will show all single-term classes available in the Fall 2015 term

Fall/Winter 2015-16. This will show all double-term classes available.

It will not show any single-term classes for Fall 2015 or Winter 2016.

TIP 2. Know what the symbols mean.

Closed: The class has places available

Waitlist: The class is full but you can opt to put yourself on the automated waitlist in case space becomes available

TIP 3. Adding to the Course Cart is NOT enrolling.

When you choose a class, you might notice the following message:

✓ HIST 202 has been added to your Course Cart

When you place a class in your Course Cart, you are not enrolling, reserving a space or holding a spot in the class. You still need to follow all of the steps to enrol in the class.

The Course Cart enables you to keep all the classes you are interested in taking in one place. You can also validate the classes in your Course Cart to make sure you have all of the pre-requisites and there are no scheduling conflicts. That way you’re all ready and prepared for your enrolment date to arrive.

See the how-to guide for more information at concordia.ca/your-sis and click on the Course Registration section.

WAITLISTS & SWAPS
If a class is full, you may be able to choose to put yourself on the waitlist in case space becomes available. You can do this by checking the ‘Wait list if class is full’ option before you add the class to your Course Cart.

Once you’ve completed the steps to enrol in the class you will be placed on the waitlist. If space becomes available you will automatically be enrolled in the class and you will receive an email to advise you of this.

HANDY TIP: It’s best if you select the waitlist option before adding any classes, even if the class shows as currently open, as sometimes there are reserve lists within a class that keep space for certain types of students.

You can also use the swap function in the system if you decide you want to try to enrol in a different class without losing your place in an existing class.

You can even combine the two functions to swap an existing class to go on the waitlist for a full class. If space becomes available in the waitlisted class, you will be automatically enrolled into it and dropped from the class you are currently enrolled in.

See the how-to guide for more information at concordia.ca/your-sis and click on the Course Registration section.

UNOFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS, GPA & GRADES
Your unofficial transcript has a lot of useful information. You can view a copy by selecting ‘Transcript: View Unofficial’ from the Academic drop-down menu in your Student Centre dashboard. Click the link ‘Undergraduate/Graduate Record’ to view a copy of your Student Record.

See the how-to guide for more information at concordia.ca/your-sis and click on the Transcripts and Records section.

You can now view your cumulative GPA or Grades by selecting ‘Program CGPA’ or ‘Grades’ from the drop-down list under the Academics part of the Student Centre. This is a much easier and quicker way to view this information rather than viewing your unofficial transcript.
These are the terms that may appear on your letter of acceptance. What do they mean?

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Please don’t hesitate to contact the person who signed your Offer of Admission if you have any questions about your offer.

DEFICIENCIES: A deficiency is a course required for admission to your chosen program that you have not completed. Courses identified as “deficiencies” must be completed as early in your studies as possible. You may have two options for making up those deficiencies as indicated by the letters “A” or “B.” Engineering and Computer Science students must complete any deficiencies before registering for classes.

EXEMPTIONS: Concordia grants you an exemption when you successfully complete a specific course and meet any indicated minimum grade. An exemption does not count as credit towards a degree, so it will not decrease the number of courses you need to complete your degree — but an exemption will let you skip ahead to a more advanced course. If Concordia gives you an exemption from a course, you may not take that course for credit. If you received an exemption from a required course, you must take another course in the same department, to be determined in consultation with a departmental advisor.

EXTENDED CREDIT PROGRAM (ECP): Students who have not successfully completed a two-year pre-university program may be admitted to the Extended Credit Program, which requires them to take a minimum of 30 additional credits. This ensures the time to complete a program at Concordia is the same as it would be at any other university outside Quebec, about four years of full-time study. The Undergraduate Calendar lists ECP requirements for each faculty.

MATURE ENTRY PROGRAM (MEP): Canadians and permanent residents 21 years of age and older who lack the required pre-university schooling may be considered for admission to the Mature Entry Program. The MEP requires you to complete at least 18 additional credits.

TRANSFER CREDIT: You may earn transfer credits through your studies at another post-secondary institution or in another degree program at Concordia. These credits are applied towards your degree, meaning you’ll have fewer courses left to complete.

For more information regarding the university list of acronyms and vocabulary, please visit: https://www.concordia.ca/content/dam/concordia/docs/GuideFirstYear.pdf
Explanation of Academic Terms

Core Course
A core course is a course that is required in the Honours, Specialization, Major or Minor program of your department.

Credit Loads
6-credit courses are normally taught over the Fall and Winter terms.
3-credit courses are normally taught over one term.
Full-time students normally take 12-15 credits per term.
Part-time students take 9 or less credits per term.
The maximum credit load for the summer session is 12 credits (excluding Co-op students)

24-Credit Rule
Before you are eligible to graduate, you must successfully complete a minimum of 24 credits of electives outside of your department or single discipline.

DISC
DISC, or discontinue is an academic withdrawal and has no impact in the calculation of your GPA. Students remain financially responsible for the discontinued course(s).

DNE
DNE, or Did Not Enter, means you officially withdrew from a course within the deadline. Check your current Undergraduate Calendar or Undergraduate Class Schedule and Registration Guide for the exact list of deadlines. There is a full refund.

ECP
The ECP, or Extended Credit Program, is designed for graduates of secondary schools outside Quebec and requires completion of 30 credits in addition to the regular 90 credit program. Some of the additional 30 credits may be specified.

Elective Course
An Elective course is a course outside of your required core courses.

Equivalent Course
An Equivalent course is a course that has the identical content as another course, but with a different course number (see Section 200 of the Undergraduate Calendar).

External Credit
If you want to take a course at another university, you must apply in advance through your department. Final permission is given by Student Academic Services. Depending on where the courses are taken, normally a maximum of 12 credits is permitted. Without prior permission, no credits will be transferred.

F & FNS
A grade of F or FNS means that you have failed the course. A supplemental examination is only available in some circumstances to those students who receive an F. (details in the Undergraduate Calendar)
Do I have to maintain a certain Grade Point Average (GPA) to remain at the University or in good academic standing?

Every student must maintain a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 (“C” average) in order to remain in good academic standing at the University. Failure to maintain a 2.0 GPA could lead to academic jeopardy. A student is responsible for maintaining the GPA and will be notified by the University if it falls below 2.0. The student will either be placed in Conditional Standing or in Failed Standing, depending on the GPA.

Grade Point Average (GPA) Regulations
(See Academic Performance Regulations in the Concordia Undergraduate Calendar)

Acceptable Standing
To be in acceptable standing, you must obtain an annual GPA of at least 2.00 (C). Students in acceptable standing may continue their program of study, following the advice of their academic departments.

Conditional Standing
A student is in conditional standing when they obtain an annual GPA of less than 2.00, but at least 1.50. A student is not permitted to obtain two consecutive conditional standing assessments. Students in Conditional Standing may not write supplemental exams. If placed in Conditional Standing they must follow the conditions outlined in the e-mail letter sent to them regarding their academic standing.

Failed standing
Failed standing results from a student’s GPA that has fallen to less than 1.50, or if they obtain Conditional Standing in two consecutive assessment periods.

What happens if I suspect or attain Failed Standing?
If a student is in failed standing for the first time, they are withdrawn from the University for a period of at least one year and must apply for readmission after that year. If they have extenuating circumstances, they may apply for immediate readmission by following the guidelines and deadlines in the instruction letter received from the Office of the Registrar and by visiting www.concordia.ca/artsci/students/readmission.html for the readmission form and explanatory details. Deadlines are firm. If a student knows that they are failing, they must tend the situation before leaving campus for the summer (assessments are completed in May each year). If a student attains failed standing for a second time they must withdraw from the University for a period of three years. Second time failed students who wish to reapply for readmission may do so after a period of three years by applying to Student Academic Services, Faculty of Arts and Science. Failed students may not write supplemental exams.
Going through a tough semester? Grades not what you want them to be?

A bad semester is like bad credit: It’s hard to fix. Take action early!!

If you are experiencing difficulties during the semester:
- See your professor as soon as possible to discuss a course of action;
- Make sure to document the case for any extraneous circumstances; (medical notes)
- See an academic advisor;
- Seek support at the Counselling and Development Centre (cdev.concordia.ca);
- Reduce the number of hours at your place of employment;
- Assess if you are taking too many courses; many students take five courses in their first semester. Sometimes, it is better to take four;
- *WITHDRAW by the posted deadline so that it will NOT affect your Grade Point Average (GPA).

*You should assess your status in your course midway through the semester. If you feel you cannot reach a satisfactory grade by the end of term WITHDRAW from the class before the withdrawal (DISC) deadline.

There are two WITHDRAWAL DEADLINES:
- DNE (Did Not Enter): receive a full refund on your tuition and not have the class reflected on your transcript. Your GPA remains unaffected.
- DISC (Discontinue): you will not receive a refund on your tuition and your GPA remains unaffected.

BE AWARE OF IMPORTANT UNIVERSITY DEADLINES!

Retrieved from “Undergraduate Academic Calendar 2017-2018”
http://www.concordia.ca/events/academic-dates.html

Deadline dates are published each year in the front of the Concordia Undergraduate Calendar (Section 11) and listed on your MyConcordia portal for:
- Withdrawing from a course with a tuition refund (DNE)
- Withdrawing from a course – no refund (DISC)
- Applying to complete work for a course after the course has finished (INC)
- Applying for re-evaluation of a grade
- Applying for replacement and supplemental exams
- Applying to graduate
- Applying for a DEF/MED notation
- Last day to register for courses, and so much more...

Please consult your MyConcordia portal for dates. It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of all changes to deadlines.

Department of Political Science statement on Plagiarism

The Political Science Department has zero tolerance for plagiarism.

What is plagiarism? The University defines plagiarism as "The presentation of the work of another person, in whatever form, as one's own or without proper acknowledgment." (Concordia Undergraduate Calendar 2016-2017, pages 54-60). Plagiarism is an academic offence governed by the Academic Code of Conduct. To find out more about how to avoid plagiarism, see www.concordia.ca/students/academic-integrity.html

What are the consequences of getting caught? The Dean or an Academic Hearing Panel may impose the following sanctions on students caught plagiarizing:

a. A written reprimand; b. Direct that a piece of work be re-submitted; c. Enter a grade of "0" for the piece of work in question; d. Enter a grade reduction in the course; e. Enter a failing grade for the course; f. Enter a failing grade and ineligibility for a supplemental examination or any other evaluative exercise for the course; g. Impose the obligation to take and pass courses of up to twenty-four (24) credits in addition to the total number of credits required for the student’s program as specified by the Dean. If the student is registered as an Independent student, the sanction will be imposed only if he or she applies and is accepted into a program; h. Impose a suspension for a period not to exceed six (6) academic terms. Suspensions shall entail the withdrawal of all University privileges, including the right to enter and be upon University premises; i. Expulsion from the University. Expulsion entails the permanent termination of all University privileges (Undergraduate calendar, pages 57-59, 60).

Complete regulations can be found in Section 17.10 of the Undergraduate calendar.
