Dear New Student:

Congratulations! On behalf of the Faculty of Fine Arts, it is with great pleasure that I inform you of your admission to Concordia University. After carefully reviewing your program choices, we are very pleased to offer you admission into the following program:

Bachelor of Fine Arts
Major in Studio Art
Extended Credit Program (ECP)

The Faculty of Fine Arts enjoys a longstanding reputation as one of Canada's foremost environments for the study and creation of visual and performing arts. Nine departments and four research centres provide the most comprehensive range of fine arts programs and research in the country. Reflecting the openness and diversity of contemporary culture, our faculty members are committed to integrating new technologies with traditional media and historical fine arts practices. Fine Arts' faculty members are dedicated to mentoring our developing artists, designers, scholars, teachers and therapists, who are the future stewards of our culture and whose work will encourage meaningful reflection and dialogue across

History Skills Workshop (HISW)

- You are required to take 6 HISW credits
 - Make sure you have enrolled in:
 - Lecture section
 - and conference section
 - Discussion of course readings
 - Development of research, writing and analytical skills

Degree audit

- Unsure of where you are in your degree?
 - You can use the Degree Audit through SIS to determine which courses you have completed toward your degree and which ones you have remaining, although, it's best if you consult with an advisor.

Prerequisites

- You may not take 300-level History courses until you have completed 24 credits (of any kind)
- 400-level courses are only open to Honours students or students with a 3.3 GPA or higher and permission from the department.
- When taking 300-level General Electives from other departments, this rule generally applies. Please contact the department in charge of the course to find out more.
- 200-level General Electives generally do not require prerequisites but is a first-come-first-serve basis.

Registration Questions

✓ What courses should I take?

Refer to your course plan or reach out to your department advisor

✓ Where do I find course descriptions?

Current course descriptions

✓ How do I know when courses are offered?

Undergraduate Calendar
Browse the Course Catalog

✓ How do I register?

Through your MyConcordia Portal

✓ Until when can I make changes to my schedule?

The deadlines are in the Undergraduate Calendar

✓ What if I pass the drop deadline and I am doing poorly in my course?

After the DNE (Did Not Enter) deadline, you can still Discontinue or DISC the course. However, you are still responsible for the tuition fees.

- Term:
 - Unless specified: Fall classes are sometimes listed with a “/2” suffix - Winter classes are sometimes listed with a “/4” suffix
- Class Number:
 - Use this number when searching with the schedule builder

Waitlisting

Waitlist:

- After using the Class Search to find your desired class, click the green 'Select Class' button. On the Enrollment Preferences page (next page) select the box "Wait list if class is full" and hit 'Next'. You must then proceed with the rest of the registration process.
- Helpful Hint - Be patient!
 - The waitlist is designed to help you enroll into the class you want; you could enroll in the first week of classes.

SWAP feature

SWAP feature:

- Remove yourself from the waitlist of your preferred class.
- Use the SWAP feature to select one of your enrolled classes to drop and put yourself back on the waitlist.
- Check out the SIS How-to video
- Helpful Hint:
 - Enroll into a class (to ensure you have a schedule) and then use the SWAP feature. If you put yourself onto a waitlist first and then unenroll, you will lose your place on the waitlist.

Additional FAQs

- What is Full-Time and Part-Time Status?
 - If you are registered for four or more courses in a semester, you are considered a full-time student
 - If you take three or fewer courses, you are considered part-time.
 - Some bursaries may require you to be a full time student.
- Can I re-take a class?
 - It is possible to take a class for a second (or third) time, but you will not receive any additional credits.
 - The grade that you receive will replace the previous one in the calculation of your CGPA, but the first course will remain on your transcripts
- How are grades and GPA calculated?
 - Grade/letter equivalents – see “Grading Norms:
 - GPA Calculator
 - Grade Notations: DNW: Did not write final exam, FNS: Failed, no supplemental exam, INC: Incomplete, may complete missing work after end of term, NR: Not reporting, IP: In progress.

What options do I have?

- The Honours Program
 - 3.3 GPA, 30 credits
- Can I switch programs during my studies?
 - Yes! You need to complete 24-30 credits, depending on which program you're interested in;
 - Please contact the department you wish to switch into for information on what is required to be admitted;
 - You are still able to take prerequisites for another program while you are enrolled as a History program student.
