Dear Daniel Abell:

After a careful review of your application, I am pleased to confirm that you are being offered admission into the following program:

Bachelor of Arts
Major in Economics
Faculty of Arts & Science

As a next-generation university, Concordia fosters a creative and inspiring learning environment that encourages its students to address the challenges facing contemporary society. I am delighted that you will be joining us this Fall 2024. Allow me to be the first to congratulate you!

Here are your next steps:

1. Log into the Student Hub, go to My CU Account, click on your Student Centre and accept your Offer of Admission (see the how-to guide). Your deadline to confirm is on page two of this letter.
2. Get ready to register for classes. After you accept your offer, you will receive an email with information and contact details for academic advising and course registration. You must register for classes in the term to which you've been admitted. Refer to the term dates and deadlines to learn when you can begin registering for courses.
3. Consult the Welcome Guide for New Concordians for the next steps to take as a newly admitted student.

Do you have questions about your admission? Your Admissions Officer's contact information can be found in the Program Information section below.

Once again congratulations on your achievement. We look forward to welcoming you into the Concordia community.

Degree Requirements

- Program versus Degree requirements (e.g.: our major programs are worth 42 credits but your degree requires 90, 108 or 120 credits to graduate)
- Ensure you're following the Concordia General Education Requirements

History | Major

- 42 credits in total:
  - 3: HIST 200 Introduction to History
  - 15: HIST courses at the 200 level
  - 18: any 300-level course
  - 6: any 300- or 400-level course

Department of History

Major in History (42 credits)

This program will apply to all students entering the History Major program from Fall 2022 forwards. For students admitted to the History Major before Fall 2022, see the document “Major in History (42 credits), 2015-2022.”

The History Major requires 42 credits at introductory, intermediate, and advanced levels, exploring different fields of history through breadth requirements. The credits for the Major are distributed in this way:

3 Credits	HIST 200 Introduction to History HIST 200 is a First Year Seminar on a focused topic (a “deep dive” into a historical subject) that introduces students to how historians make arguments, how they use historical evidence and other scholars’ writing, and how they communicate their ideas. There are several sections of HIST 200 offered in the Fall and Winter terms, each with a different topic.
15 Credits	HIST courses at the 200 level
18 Credits	HIST courses at the 300 level
6 Credits	HIST courses at the 300 or 400 level

24-Credit and General Education rules

In addition to your History credits, you must take at least 24 elective credits, including 6 General Education credits (courses outside the Humanities sector – e.g. in Social Science or in Science). See <https://www.concordia.ca/artsci/history/programs/undergraduate/requirements.html> for details.

History | Specialization

- 60 History credits total:

History Introduction (HIST 200)

You are required to take a HIST 200 Introduction to History course:

- HIST 200 is a First Year Seminar on a focused topic (a “deep dive” into a historical subject) that introduces students to how historians make arguments, how they use historical evidence and other scholars’ writing, and how they communicate their ideas.
- There are several sections of HIST 200 offered in the Fall and Winter terms, each with a different topic. Make sure you pick the topic you wish to take!

Degree audits

- Unsure of where you are in your degree?
  - You can use the Degree Advisement Report Audit through SIS to determine which courses you have completed toward your degree and which ones you have remaining, although, it's best if you consult with an advisor.
  - We are happy to answer your questions!

Prerequisites

- You may not take 300-level History courses until you have completed 24 credits (of any kind)
- 400-level courses are only open to Honours students or students with a 3.3 GPA or higher and permission from the department.
- When taking 300-level General Electives from other departments, this rule generally applies. Please contact the department in charge of the course to find out more.
- 200-level General Electives generally do not require prerequisites but is a first-come-first-serve basis.

Registration Questions

✓ What courses should I take?

Refer to your course plan or reach out to your department advisor

✓ Where do I find course descriptions?

Current course descriptions

✓ How do I know when courses are offered?

Undergraduate Calendar

Browse the Course Catalog

✓ How do I register?

Through your MyConcordia Portal

✓ Until when can I make changes to my schedule?

The deadlines are in the Undergraduate Calendar

✓ What if I pass the drop deadline and I am doing poorly in my course?

After the DNE (Did Not Enter) deadline, you can still Discontinue or DISC the course. However, you are still responsible for the tuition fees.

  - Check out a map of Concordia
- Term:
  - Unless specified: Fall classes are sometimes listed with a “/2” suffix - Winter classes are sometimes listed with a “/4” suffix
- Class Number:
  - Use this number when searching with the schedule builder

Waitlisting

Waitlist:

- After using the Class Search to find your desired class, click the green 'Select Class' button. On the Enrollment Preferences page (next page) select the box "Wait list if class is full" and hit 'Next'. You must then proceed with the rest of the registration process.
- Helpful Hint - Be patient!
  - The waitlist is designed to help you enroll into the class you want; you could enroll in the first week of classes.

SWAP feature

SWAP feature:

- Remove yourself from the waitlist of your preferred class.
- Use the SWAP feature to select one of your enrolled classes to drop and put yourself back on the waitlist.
- Check out the SIS How-to video
- Helpful Hint:
  - Enroll into a class (to ensure you have a schedule) and then use the SWAP feature. If you put yourself onto a waitlist first and then unenroll, you will lose your place on the waitlist.

Additional FAQs

- What is Full-Time and Part-Time Status?
  - If you are registered for four or more courses in a semester, you are considered a full-time student
  - If you take three or fewer courses, you are considered part-time.
  - Some bursaries may require you to be a full time student.
- Can I re-take a class?
  - It is possible to take a class for a second (or third) time, but you will not receive any additional credits.
  - The grade that you receive will replace the previous one in the calculation of your CGPA, but the first course will remain on your transcripts
- How are grades and GPA calculated?
  - Grade/letter equivalents – see “Grading Norms:
  - GPA Calculator
  - Grade Notations: DNW: Did not write final exam, FNS: Failed, no supplemental exam, INC: Incomplete, may complete missing work after end of term, NR: Not reporting, IP: In progress.

Change it up

- The Honours Program
  - 3.3 GPA, 30 credits
- Can I switch programs during my studies?
  - Yes! You need to complete 24-30 credits, depending on which program you're interested in;
  - Please contact the department you wish to switch into for information on what is required to be admitted;
  - You are still able to take prerequisites for another program while you are enrolled as a History program student.

Unique Opportunities

- Student Exchange program:
  - Must have completed 24 credits;
  - May spend 1-2 semesters abroad;
  - Minimum CGPA of 2.7
  - Bursaries available!
- Take courses and get credit from other Quebec Universities:
  - Must receive prior permission by using the Interuniversity Agreement \(INTU\) form from the CREPUQ.
- Did you complete credits somewhere else? Maybe they count now:
  - You must complete a Student Request form
  - Submit to Student Academic Services with all relevant information
  - Should be done prior to registration

Academic Probation:

- Conditional Standing:
  - If you fall between the annual GPA of 1.50 and 1.99
