Short-Term Internship on Gambling - 2021-2022

Description

Concordia University's Research Chair on Gambling, funded by the FRQ-SC and the Fondation Mise-sur-toi, offers a short-term internship on one of the Chair's research axis: (i) Gambling and social inequalities; (ii) gambling, digitalization & cyberspace. This award is seeking to encourage students and young researchers in the field of gambling under the aegis of the Research Chair specifically in its data analysis and production of publications.

Value and duration

The short-term internship can begin at any time during the year. The duration may be from 1 to 3 months, but award holders may re-apply. The value of the internship is set between $2,500-$5,000 according to the last degree obtained, internship's duration and deliverables. It can be combined as a supplement to an award from any external granting agency.

Eligibility

Candidates must be registered full-time or have been admitted to an undergraduate Bachelor's degree (in their last year) or to a graduate program (Master's or Ph.D.). Postdoctoral fellows are also welcome to apply. Candidates must be supervised or co-supervised by a researcher affiliated to the Research Chair on Gambling. International candidates are responsible for obtaining the proper documents for their stay in Quebec.

Application procedure

Candidates must submit the following:
- Letter of interest (2 pages) stating the reason for applying for a Scholarship at the Research Chair;
- Official transcripts;
- Curriculum vitae;
- Copy of the letter of acceptance to a program or proof of registration;
