PAID EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING FOR A CONCORDIA STUDENT

WEBSITE DESIGNER

TREES research collective, School of Community & Public Affairs
Winter 2020

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

TREES (Transformation, Research, Economies, and Ecosystems) is a self-managed research collective composed of students, faculty and community partners. It works on documenting emancipatory economic initiatives proliferating on the margins of the social economy. Different field sites are underway, including Treaty 6 Cree territory, Atikamekw territory, Park Extension/Little Burgundy and Pointe-Saint-Charles.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Working closely with the research team, the Website Designer will facilitate and implement the redesign of the collective’s website. They will propose new designs and concepts for the website and work with collective members to populate it with the necessary information.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES & TASKS

1. Meet with the TREES Research Collective as a group, and with individual researchers, to gather information on the content and select which material to display.
2. Propose iconography and themes for the website.
3. Prepare three prototypes for review by the TREES Research Collective.
4. Implement the new website design.
5. Train TREES researchers to upload content to the website.

QUALIFICATIONS

1. Must be a Concordia student
2. Experience in website development and content management,
3. Proven ability to coordinate and publish web content across a variety of platforms (websites, social media, blogs, interactive pdf, digital publishing)
4. Strong knowledge of web best practices; working knowledge of web development and graphic design processes
5. Creative, autonomous, organized
6. Able to work in a dynamic and collaborative team environment; and
7. Able to read and write English; able to understand written French.

PRIORITIZATION CRITERIA

- Active in community and social movements, an asset

WORKING CONDITIONS

Hours & pay: $2000 for 100 hours of work
Timeframe: February 1st through April 30th 2020
Work-site: can work from home with occasional meetings at Bâtiment 7 or Concordia

TO APPLY: Send cover letter and CV to Noura Nasser, research assistant at TREES, by January 17th 2019. Email: noura.nasser@economiesdecommunaute.org. Applicants to be interviewed will be expected to provide evidence of prior website development work.

If you wish to be considered for employment equity:

TREES values the contribution of individuals who identify as members of marginalized communities. We encourage, among others, Indigenous people, people of colour, people with disabilities, people identifying as LGBT2QL, women, formerly incarcerated or institutionalized people, immigrants and people from working class backgrounds to apply. We also understand that applicants may experience a number of these identities simultaneously in ways that reinforce and nuance their experience. We are committed to creating an organization as diverse as the communities we serve. If you so desire, please self-identify in the cover letter, but note that you are not expected to go into detailed explanations.