

REVISED - Fall 2021 Important Information for Students

For Fall 2021 course and on-campus information including class schedules, course delivery mode, exams and more please visit <https://www.concordia.ca/artsci/in-person-activities.html>

As of September 20, 2021, Department of Sociology and Anthropology staff members in the main office will be available to students Monday-Wednesday- Friday from 9:45 am – 3:45 pm.

Undergraduate student advising for new and returning students will take place via Zoom. The latest advising schedule can be found on the Sociology and Anthropology webpage under the Student Life:

<https://www.concordia.ca/artsci/sociology-anthropology/student-life/advising.html>

Any questions or queries related to Undergraduate Programs or courses please email socanth.fas@concordia.ca

Please submit Undergraduate Student Request Forms and Change of Concentration Forms to socanth.fas@concordia.ca

Any questions or queries related for Graduate Programs or courses should be directed to Eve Girard, Graduate Programs Assistant, at gpasa@concordia.ca

If you need to meet with Eve in-person, kindly email her in advance for her availability and/or to make an appointment.

The Undergraduate Student Lab (H-1132) will be open during the fall semester. Priority will be given to remote learners on campus. Please go to the Student Life page on the department webpage for the lab schedule. https://www.concordia.ca/artsci/sociology-anthropology/student-life/ugrad_resources.html

For general inquires, please contact Rebecca Hadida, Department Assistant, by telephone at (514) 848-2424 ext: 2140 or by email at daas@concordia.ca