Concordia University's Mission Statement

Concordia is an urban university which is responsive to the needs of a diverse student population as well as to the bilingual and multicultural environment in which it resides. It is a welcoming community where values of equality, non-discrimination and tolerance of diversity are appreciated and actively promoted. Furthermore, Concordia is committed to responsible and innovative leadership in fulfilling the mission of universities to develop and disseminate knowledge and values and to act as a social critic. The University seeks to achieve this end by offering its students inclusive and accessible academic programmes which stress a broad-based, interdisciplinary approach to learning, as well as by a dedication to superior teaching supported by the best possible research, scholarship, creative activity and service to society. Through these means, the University prepares its graduates, at all levels, to live as informed and responsibly critical citizens who are committed to learning and to the spirit of enquiry.
This is the only official listing of undergraduate courses offered at Concordia University.

Not all courses listed in this Calendar are offered this year. Students are advised to consult the Undergraduate Class Schedule for a timetable of courses offered.

Copies of calendar are available at Concordia bookstores.

Concordia University is one of the largest urban universities in Canada. It has two campuses - one in downtown Montréal (Sir George Williams), the other in a residential setting in the city's west end (Loyola).

The University has long promoted accessibility, innovation and an interdisciplinary approach to learning as its fundamental characteristics. As an urban university, it is also responsive to Montréal's bilingual and multicultural environment, and has a strong tradition in part-time education.

Approximately 94% of Concordia's students are Quebecers; 3% come from other Canadian provinces and the remaining 3% are international students. Approximately 14% of Concordia students list French as their mother tongue.

Approximately 4,000 students a year are granted degrees at the graduate and undergraduate levels. More than 500 students earn scholarships and fellowships.

Concordia employs about 3,400 people, both full-time and part-time, including 850 full-time professors and 1200 part-time instructors. Among the latter group is a large number of professionals drawn from the artistic community and the business world.

The value of grants and contracts allotted to Concordia researchers has increased by more than 120% since 1982. Particularly active areas of research are Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Psychology and Computer Science. Other research strengths are Building Studies, Transportation Engineering, Cell and Molecular Biology, Behavioural Neurobiology, Human Development and Management Studies.

Concordia professors have travelled to more than 100 countries during the past decade, and Concordia continues to play host to visiting students and professors from every corner of the globe. Research and study programmes have been held recently in Brazil, Costa Rica, France, Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Hong Kong, India, Israel, Italy, Japan, The People's Republic of China, Poland and the United States.

The University holds the distinction of being the first in the western world to establish a joint doctoral programme with a university in The People's Republic of China, and Concordia remains one of the most active Canadian universities in that country. Formal exchange programmes have been established with eight of the PRC's leading academic institutions. As a consequence, Concordia professors now travel to China to teach PhD courses in Civil Engineering, Computer Science, and a growing array of other disciplines in the arts, sciences and engineering.

Concordia is the only English-language University in Québec with a Co-operative Education programme, a process by which academic study terms are alternated with work terms in business and industry to give students practical, on-the-job experience. The areas of work experience included in the Concordia programme are Building Engineering, Chemistry, Computer Science, Economics, Exercise Science, Mathematics and Physics.

Established in 1974 with the merger of Loyola College and Sir George Williams University, Concordia offers more than 160 graduate and undergraduate programmes in four Faculties (Arts and Science, Commerce and Administration, Engineering and Computer Science, and Fine Arts) and the School of Graduate Studies. At the bachelor's level, the University offers the degrees of Bachelor of Administration, Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Commerce, Bachelor of Computer Science, Bachelor of Education, Bachelor of Engineering, Bachelor of Fine Arts, and Bachelor of Science.
At the master's level, the University awards the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, Master in the Teaching of Mathematics, Master of Business Administration, Master of Applied Science, Master of Computer Science, Master of Engineering and Master of Fine Arts.

Programmes leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Administration, Art Education, Building Engineering, Chemistry, Civil Engineering, Communication, Computer Science, Economics, Educational Technology, Electrical and Computer Engineering, History, Humanities, Mechanical Engineering, Physics, Psychology, Religion, and in special Individual programmes.

Enrolment in the 1992-93 academic year was:

In addition to the programmes described in this calendar and in the School of Graduate Studies Calendar, the University offers a wide range of summer courses and programmes on both campuses. A separate publication listing summer offerings is published annually.

Libraries
Last year, Concordia consolidated all of its library holdings in two locations: the Georges P. Vanier Library, on the Loyola Campus; and the R. Howard Webster Library, a major new facility on the Sir George Williams Campus. Both the Vanier and Webster libraries house materials on the humanities, science and technology, the social sciences, fine arts, commerce, engineering and computer science.

The collection is composed of 1.6 million items, and is growing at a rate of 65,000 items annually, including books, periodicals, government publications, technical reports, microforms, non-print (audio-visual) material and special collections.

Students may use libraries on both campuses. Reference services are provided to assist in identifying and locating materials. If these are not available at Concordia they may be consulted in other Montréal libraries or borrowed through the Interlibrary Loans service, which gives access to items from virtually any library in the world.

Students wishing more complete information on Concordia's libraries are invited to pick up a copy of the Library Owner's Manual which is available free of charge in all libraries.

Computing Services
Computing Services provides resources and services to students, researchers, the library, and the administration of the University. Facilities include a high-speed data communications network linking Concordia to regional, national and international communities, a number of mainframe-class computers, several super-mini computers, almost 200 public access personal computers and work stations, more than 100 timesharing terminals, vector processing, graphics and word-processing facilities. A comprehensive software library is available including numerical analysis routines, statistical processing packages, data-base products, simulation languages, graphics support, all widely used computer languages, text processing, on-line news services and many other general purpose utilities. Computing Services provides around the clock computer access. Consulting services are available during normal University operating hours. Newsletters and hand-outs outlining services and facilities in more detail are available at the service areas located on each campus.

Art Galleries
The Leonard & Bina Ellen Art Gallery, formerly the Concordia Art Gallery, moved into new quarters last year in the $65 million J.W. McConnell Building, directly across from the Henry F. Hall Building on the Maisonneuve Boulevard. The Gallery, one of the major small museums in Canada, presents a year-round programme of exhibitions of Canadian art in all visual media. While most of these exhibitions are organized by the Leonard & Bina Ellen Art Gallery, shows are often borrowed from other art institutions across Canada. The Gallery has a permanent collection. of Canadian art with a special emphasis on modern and contemporary work. The collection includes painting, sculpture, works on paper, mixed media and photography. Selections from the collection are frequently included in the Gallery's exhibitions. Illustrated bilingual publications accompany the majority of the exhibitions.

The V.A.V. Gallery, devoted to work by undergraduate students in the visual arts programmes of the Faculty of Fine Arts, is located on the main floor of the Visual Arts Building at the corner of René-Lévesque Boulevard and Crescent Street. In the Bourget Building on Mountain Street, exhibitions of work by Fine Arts graduate students are presented in the gallery on the main floor.

Theatres, Music and Arts Studios
The Faculty of Fine Arts operates several performing arts facilities on the Loyola Campus, including a state-of-the-art concert hall, seating 600, and the Chameleon Theatre, a flexible teaching facility serving theatre students. Dramatic productions and musical performances on the Sir George Williams Campus are staged in the Douglas Burns Clarke Theatre, a modern 380-seat facility in the Henry F. Hall Building.

Specialized studios and workshops for undergraduate and graduate students in the visual arts are located in the Visual Arts Building and the MF Annex.

Music students use ensemble rooms in the Refectory Building on the Loyola Campus, where a number of practice studios of various sizes are maintained. Performances are given in the large ensemble rooms and in the Concert Hall. Dance and theatre students use studios in the TJ Annex, located on the Loyola Campus.

Audio-Visual Facilities
The Audio-Visual Department operates three equipment depots, primarily responsible for media services in teaching areas, but also providing over-the-counter sales of materials and loan of equipment to students, faculty and staff.

The facilities in the Learning Laboratories, media workshops (AVISTAs), television and sound studios, preview and presentation rooms, cinemas and media library, are also available to students, faculty and staff, on an individual basis, for self-instruction, training and the preparation of presentation materials.

Professional production services and consultation are available in the areas of video, sound, graphics, photography, computer controlled presentation and distance education.

The University is a member of the Québec educational television network, CANAL, which broadcasts a variety of credit and non-credit courses, lectures, seminars and interviews on UHF Channel 29 in the Montréal region and on Cable 23 in other areas of Québec.

Film
The Montréal Conservatory of Cinematographic Art, established in 1968, houses an important collection of films of historic and cultural value.

The University offers regular programmes of public film screenings in the cinemas on both campuses sponsored by the Conservatory, the Department of Communication Studies and other groups from the University community.

Sports Facilities
The University offers extensive programmes for participation in intramural and intercollegiate sports. Facilities include several full-sized playing fields and a fully-equipped physical education centre on the Loyola Campus. The centre includes a gymnasium and an ice arena, as well as training and sports medicine areas, an activities room and a weight-training room.

The Lacolle Centre for Educational Innovation
Concordia also provides facilities for personal and professional development for its students, faculty, staff and members of the public. Workshops are conducted by the Lacolle Centre for Educational Innovation – on both campuses and in a country setting at a 150-year-old farmhouse on 20 acres of land near Lacolle, Québec, about 40 miles south of Montréal.

The rental fee, per group, is $75 a day. Students and others who wish to use the Lacolle facility should call (514) 848-4955 for more information.
The Academic Calendar is subject to change. Updated information will be available from the Student Service Centre. For dates pertaining to registration and final examinations please consult the relevant class schedule or the Student Service Centre. For financial deadlines see §15. Deadlines falling on weekends or holidays will be extended to the next working day.

13.1 ADMISSION TO CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

The University gives fair consideration to all applicants and informs them of its decisions and the basis for such decisions within a reasonable period of time. Concordia has a long tradition of service to adult and part-time students. Basic information on admission requirements and procedures is included in this Calendar. More detailed information can be found in the Admissions Guide.

In keeping with general principles accepted by Québec universities, admission to Concordia University is open to qualified applicants in the programme of their choice. In programmes with limited enrolments, not all qualified applicants can be accepted. In such cases, the University accepts those with the strongest qualifications and demonstrable potential. Qualified applicants not admitted to their preferred programme are immediately considered for their second choice programme.

The University maintains Admissions Offices on both campuses where application forms as well as information about requirements and procedures are available. There is a single processing centre to which all applications and supporting documents should be mailed:

13.2 DEFINITIONS

The Academic Year
The Academic Year begins with a Summer Session (May to August) followed by a Regular Session (September to April). The Summer Session includes all courses offered between the beginning of May and the end of August. The Regular Session is divided into a Fall Term (September-December) and a Winter Term (January-April), each 15 weeks long. Terms include an examination period, during which any final examination must be held. The Academic Calendar §11 lists precise dates for the beginning and end of classes and examination periods.

Undergraduate Students
Students registered in a Bachelor's degree or in a Certificate programme, whether on a full-time or part-time basis. See §16.1.2 for a definition of full-time and part-time study.

Mature Students
Undergraduate students who do not meet regular academic admission requirements and have been admitted on the basis of their age, experience, and potential.

Extended Credit Programme Students
Students registered in an extended programme, normally requiring a minimum of 120 credits, designed for students entering from secondary institutions outside Quebec. (See relevant Faculty section).

Visiting Students
Undergraduate students from other universities who have written approval from their home university to take courses at Concordia University, or students currently registered in certain Certificate programmes sponsored by external associations (e.g. programmes in the Faculty of Commerce and Administration).

Independent Students
Students not seeking a degree or Certificate.

Residence Requirement
The minimum number of credits which must be taken at Concordia University to obtain a degree or Certificate awarded by the University.

13.3 ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Quebec applicants must have successfully completed a two-year pre-university programme in a CEGEP and qualify for a Diploma of Collegial Studies (DEC) or the equivalent. Applicants who have completed a three-year professional programme in a CEGEP or have obtained a French or International Baccalaureate are also eligible for consideration.

CEGEP records of applicants must include the successfully completed prerequisites of the Concordia degree programme for which they are applying. These programmes and admission requirements “profiles” are listed in:

- The Department of Education booklet “Accueil 93 – Structures d'accueil aux études universitaires de premier cycle”
- The programmes and admission requirements listed under each Faculty section
- The Admissions Guide.

Students admitted to a particular programme at the University and who subsequently wish to change to another programme may have to complete specific prerequisites in addition to their regular programme requirements.

Graduates of secondary schools in Canadian provinces and territories other than Quebec are considered for admission to the Extended Credit Programme (ECP) at Concordia. The ECP requires completion of 30 credits in addition to the regular 90-credit (three-year) degree programme (for a total of 120 credits). The duration of a degree programme is normally four years. The Bachelor of Engineering degree will generally require five years of full-time study to complete.

To be considered for admission, students must have a minimum overall average of 65% in academic subjects taken in the final year of secondary school, and should have senior high school course credits appropriate to the degree programme for which they are applying. Higher averages may be required for admission to certain programmes in which the demand for places by qualified applicants exceeds the number of places available.

Students completing the following levels of education may be considered for entry to the Extended Credit Programme.

Ontario
Applicants from Ontario must present the Secondary School Honour Graduate Diploma.
13.3.3 Transfers from Other Universities

Each transfer application is considered on its merits. The number of transfer credits granted depends on the character, quality, and quantity of the work completed at the accredited institution. In allowing transfer credits, some special conditions apply:

1. To earn a Bachelor's degree, students must take a minimum of 45 credits at Concordia University. These should be the last 45 credits. The Bachelor of Engineering requires 60 credits at Concordia.
2. Students transferring to Concordia after having failed to achieve a satisfactory record at another university must take a minimum of 60 credits at Concordia.
3. At least 50% of the degree credits for Honours, Specializations, Majors or Minors must be taken at Concordia. Individual Faculties determine the precise proportion.

13.3.4 Transfers from Other Post-Secondary Institutions

Each transfer application is considered on its merits. Credits from junior colleges, community colleges, or colleges of applied arts and technology outside Québec will, in general, be given the same recognition towards undergraduate programmes as they receive in their respective provinces.

13.3.5 Pro-Tanto Credits and Exemptions

Pro-tanto credits are credits for courses taken at another institution (or in another Concordia programme) which may be transferred towards a Concordia degree. The Admissions Office, in consultation with the four Faculties, assesses all requests for pro-tanto credits.

An exemption from a course has no credit value towards a degree. Exemptions from required courses may be granted in cases where students have already covered the work at another institution, with an appropriate level of performance. Any such courses will be replaced with courses they choose in consultation with their advisers.

13.3.6 Applicants from Outside Canada

The academic qualifications required of Canadian students applying from institutions outside Canada are comparable to those required of students applying from within Canada. Non-Canadian applicants from institutions outside Canada should refer to §19.

13.4 LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

While the language of instruction at Concordia is English, most assignments and examinations may be submitted in French. Students whose first language is neither French nor English must demonstrate language proficiency prior to their admission to Concordia. They will ordinarily be exempt from pre-admission English tests if they meet one of the following criteria:

1. They hold a Québec Diploma of Collegial Studies (or its equivalent from an English- or French-language school system).
2. They have obtained an O-level pass in English language in the General Certificate of Education, or the equivalent.
3. They are applying for Mature Entry or for admission to the Extended Credit Programme, and they completed their last two years of full-time schooling in an English- or French-language system.

If none of these criteria fits, a student whose first language is other than English or French must write a required English test (see §16.2.4). Only when the Admissions Office has received the test results is the student's application to Concordia considered complete. Any exceptional cases will be decided by the Admissions Office.

13.5 APPLYING FOR ADMISSION

Application forms are available from the Admissions Office. Students should apply for admission as early as possible to allow sufficient time for the evaluation of their applications.
There is a $20 (Canadian) application fee required with every application, payable by certified cheque or money order to Concordia University. Applicants from outside Canada may pay this fee by international money order or draft drawn on a Canadian bank in Canadian funds. This application fee is not refundable under any circumstances, nor can it be used towards tuition. It is not transferable to a session other than that for which the student is applying.

September is the normal point of entry to full-time and part-time studies. Entry in January or in the Summer Session is limited to certain programmes. International students, other than those applying from CEGEP, are admitted in January in exceptional cases only. Students should refer to the admissions information within the relevant Faculty section.

Full-Time
March 1 and November 1 are the application deadline dates normally set for the Fall and Winter terms respectively.

Part-Time
The deadlines for applying for Fall and Winter terms are July 15 and November 1 respectively. However, candidates are encouraged to submit their applications well before the start of term to allow sufficient time for evaluation and notification.

Note: Part-time applicants to the Faculty of Fine Arts should apply before March 1. Further information can be obtained from the Admissions Office.

13.6 SPECIAL ADMISSIONS

Mature students are undergraduates who have not met the regular academic admission requirements (e.g. completion of a DEC or equivalent), but have been admitted on the basis of age, experience, and potential. Mature students may study full-time or part-time. Information on Mature Entry is contained in §14.

Visiting students are undergraduate students from other universities who have written approval from their home university to take courses at Concordia University, or they are students currently registered in certain Certificate programmes sponsored by external associations. These students may apply for Visiting student status by contacting the Student Service Centre. The granting of such status in no way guarantees a student a place in a course.

1. Undergraduate students from other universities who wish to take courses at Concordia, must submit a letter of permission from the registrar of their home university and citizenship documents (see §13.7) or a student visa.
2. Students who wish to register in Certificate programmes sponsored by external associations, must submit proof of membership in the association and citizenship documents (see §13.7).

Concordia University allows students who are not seeking a degree or Certificate to register as Independent students, if they are Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents (Landed Immigrants) or holders of a diplomatic visa, and if they satisfy admission requirements. Independent students may register for a maximum of 18 credits a year, equally divided between Fall and Winter terms. They register for courses once all undergraduate students have selected their schedules; their Independent status in no way guarantees them a place in a given course.

There are two categories of independent student:
1. those who meet regular admission requirements.
2. those who meet Mature Entry age requirements (see §14.3), and satisfy the University that they have the right background for the course(s) for which they wish to register.

Note: Independent students must satisfy the University that they have completed prerequisite courses where required.

Applicants for Independent status should contact the Admissions Office. They will be required to...
13.7 REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Citizenship Documents
Canadian Citizens and Permanent Residents (Landed Immigrants) must present documents with proof of their status in Canada. Applicants who have been accepted by the University and who have not provided such evidence are automatically charged International tuition fees. To prove their citizenship or residency status, applicants must supply the Admissions Office with a photocopy of one of the following documents:
- Canadian Birth Certificate;
- Canadian Baptismal Certificate (indicating place of birth);
- Citizenship or Permanent Resident (Landed Immigrant) papers;
- Canadian Passport.

The following documents are not acceptable:
- Driver's Licence;
- Medicare or Health Insurance card;
- Social Insurance Number card.

Academic Documents
Applicants must submit all secondary and post-secondary academic records. They must ensure that an official transcript is forwarded directly to the Admissions Application Centre by all the institutions which they have attended. (Applications will not be considered until an official transcript from EACH institution has been received. These are required even where the student may have earned no credit.) With their application, students currently enrolled at an institution must include results from all previous terms together with a list of courses in progress. They must arrange for an official transcript with the results of the final semester to be forwarded as soon as possible. All documents must be originals or appropriately certified copies. Uncertified copies are not acceptable; neither are records transmitted by FAX. Certificates in other languages must be accompanied by a notarized translation. If the certificate does not detail the subjects and the grades, a certified statement of these from an authorized official of the institution should also be included.

13.7.1 All Applicants

13.7.2 CEGEP Applicants

All CEGEP applicants must provide, at the time of application, or as soon thereafter as possible, an accurate and complete copy of their CEGEP transcript. This transcript should show their record to date, including grades for all courses followed during the previous term. A list of courses in progress should also be included.

Currently Enrolled CEGEP Students
For students applying directly from CEGEP, Concordia University will automatically obtain the required CEGEP records from CREPUQ (Conférence des recteurs et des principaux des universités du Québec). To prevent delays in the transfer of the CEGEP records, students must correctly enter their "code permanent" (the educational code number for Québec students) on their application forms and submit these as early as possible. Final transcripts are obtained by the Admissions Office as soon as they are available. A copy of the computerized CEGEP record will be issued to the applicant for verification.

Former CEGEP students
Applicants who have already graduated from CEGEP or have discontinued their CEGEP studies must arrange for their former CEGEP to send a transcript of their grades directly to the Admissions Application Centre at Concordia.

13.8 SELECTION PROCESS AND NOTIFICATION

Applicants seeking admission to undergraduate programmes may be granted conditional acceptance on the basis of available academic records, including interim results for the current year. Final admission is contingent upon a student's successfully completing the final term or semester and satisfying all of the academic admission requirements. Candidates granted early conditional admission are usually notified before May 15.

Applicants who have been granted admission or conditional admission to full-time studies or to certain part-time programmes must submit a cheque or money order for $50 (Canadian) to confirm their intention to enter the University. This non-refundable admission deposit is applied towards tuition fees.

Applicants who receive conditional acceptance, but who are ultimately denied admission because they have not completed the minimum academic requirements for entrance, will receive a refund of their admission deposit.

Complete information regarding registration is sent to all students with the letter of acceptance.

14.1 GENERAL INFORMATION

For many years, Concordia has demonstrated its commitment to educating men and women of all ages. Through mature entry, adults may earn university degrees and certificates at Concordia although they lack the pre-university preparation normally required of applicants. Concordia also offers an audit programme which allows people 60 years of age or over to participate in courses on a non-credit basis.

At Concordia, we use the term "mature entrants" to designate students 21 or over who have not completed the normal admission requirements, or their equivalent for the programme they wish to enter. The designation does not apply to adult applicants whose academic background qualifies them for regular admission.

In applying to Concordia, students apply for admission to particular programmes within one of the four Faculties of the University. In every respect, mature entrants at Concordia are treated as regular undergraduates and are expected to meet the same standards before graduating.

Normally, mature entrants without any CEGEP or equivalent must complete at least 18 additional credits of preparatory or complementary courses. These additional credits are intended to help mature entrants to prepare for their subsequent studies. Students with partial CEGEP or equivalent may be given advanced standing for some of the additional 18 credits.
14.2 CENTRE FOR MATURE STUDENTS

The primary aim of the Centre for Mature Students is to provide services for mature entry students returning to formal studies after an absence of some years. Advisers on staff are qualified to help guide students with course selections or with problems of an academic or administrative nature. The work of the advisers at the Centre is supported and enhanced by the contributions of the Centre’s Fellows. The Fellows are Concordia University faculty members especially interested in the challenges encountered by adults working towards a degree. They are available at certain times to offer advice and information on both elective and required courses in their areas of specialty. Associate Fellows of the Centre, who are generally University staff members, are available to students and advisers for consultation on a variety of concerns such as entry requirements, administrative procedures and study skills. It is the goal of everyone involved in the work of the Centre to try to provide mature students with a sense of belonging and help them gain the self-confidence necessary for successful university work.

14.3 ADMISSION AS A MATURE STUDENT

The admission of applicants for mature entry is subject to the following conditions:

1. Applicants must have reached the age of 21 by August 1 for the September term, December 1 for the January term or April 1 for the May term in any given year.

2. Although not meeting the normal academic requirements for admission (Québec Diplôme d’études collégiales or the equivalent), applicants must satisfy the University that they have the potential to undertake undergraduate courses; those who have the Québec Diplôme d’études collégiales or the equivalent should contact the Admissions Office regarding their admission.

3. Applicants must have been out of school — that is not engaged in full-time study — for at least 24 months since attaining the age of 18. Applicants who have been out of school for only 12 months are also admissible provided that they have had no unfavourable academic record in the previous 24 months;

4. Applicants must be Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents (Landed Immigrants). Applicants must submit proof of citizenship and age, together with school records and any material which may indicate ability to pursue university studies. Applicants are expected to arrange for official transcripts of all of their previous studies to be sent directly to Concordia. (§13 provides general information on how to apply for admission.)

5. In all programmes, some students may require courses in English as a Second Language, as determined by Language Proficiency Testing. See §13.4 of this Calendar regarding Language Proficiency Testing.

14.4 PROGRAMME REQUIREMENTS

A maximum of six of a mature student’s initial 18 credits may count towards their eventual concentration (honours, major, etc.). In selecting courses to fulfill the 18-credit requirement, mature students in the Faculty of Arts and Science must consult with advisers at the Centre for Mature Students. Once students have completed these preliminary courses, they select courses in consultation with advisers in their programme rather than at the Centre.

Mature students accepted into the Faculties of Commerce and Administration, Fine Arts or Engineering and Computer Science consult directly with their Faculty in selecting courses to fulfill both the 18-credit requirement and subsequent requirements.

14.4.1 Faculty of Arts and Science

Arts

For most BA programmes there are no specific programme prerequisites. Therefore within the initial 18 credits, students are encouraged to take courses which will broaden their background or help them develop study skills.

NOTE: Mature entry students may not apply directly to Early Childhood Education, TESL Certificate, and in general the BED (TESL). These students must complete 18 credits prior to applying to the above programmes.

Certain Arts programmes have specific prerequisites which will take up some or all of the initial 18 credits. These are listed as follow:
14.4.2
Faculty of Commerce and Administration

Applied Social Science (BA)
PSYC 200\textsuperscript{6}
Applied Social Science (Certificate programmes)
APSS 240\textsuperscript{6}, PSYC 200\textsuperscript{6}, SOCI 203\textsuperscript{3}
Community and Ethnic Studies (Certificate programme)
ANTH 202\textsuperscript{3}, SOCI 203\textsuperscript{5}

Leisure Studies
PSYC 200\textsuperscript{6}, SOCI 203\textsuperscript{3}, BIOL 200\textsuperscript{3} or 201\textsuperscript{3}, MATH 207\textsuperscript{3} or equivalent from §200.7

Mathematics (BA)
MATH 203\textsuperscript{3}, 204\textsuperscript{3}, 205\textsuperscript{5}

NOTE: Students not having MATH 202\textsuperscript{2} or the equivalent must include it in their 18 credits.

NOTE: Students may need one or more of MATH 202\textsuperscript{2} and MATH 201\textsuperscript{1}.

Psychology (BA)
PSYC 200\textsuperscript{6}, BIOL 200\textsuperscript{3} or 201\textsuperscript{3}, 3 credits in Mathematics (in preparation for statistics) taken in consultation with the Centre for Mature Students.

Science

For those mature entry students pursuing a degree in Science the following courses must be included within their 108-credit requirement:
- 6 credits in Chemistry: CHEM 205\textsuperscript{3}, 206\textsuperscript{3}
- 9 credits in Mathematics: MATH 202\textsuperscript{2}, 203\textsuperscript{3} and 205\textsuperscript{5*}
- 8 credits in Physics: PHYS 204\textsuperscript{3}, 205\textsuperscript{3}, 224\textsuperscript{1} and 225\textsuperscript{1}

Additional requirements for programmes in the following departments:
- Biology and Psychology: BIOL 201\textsuperscript{1}
- Chemistry: PHYS 206\textsuperscript{3}, 226\textsuperscript{1} (BIOL 201\textsuperscript{1} recommended)
- Biochemistry: PHYS 206\textsuperscript{3}, 226\textsuperscript{1} and BIOL 201\textsuperscript{1}
- Exercise Science: PHYS 206\textsuperscript{3}, 226\textsuperscript{1} and BIOL 201\textsuperscript{1}
- Geology: PHYS 206\textsuperscript{3}, 226\textsuperscript{1} and GEOL 21a3

NOTE: Students must consult with advisers of the Centre for Mature Students before registering particularly with regard to the sequencing of the above credits in the BSc degree. Consultation with the Centre for Mature Students is also necessary in the choice of the 18 additional credits required in the case of a Certificate.

* Students not having MATH 201\textsuperscript{1}, or the equivalent, must take it in place of one of their elective courses.

For entry to degree programmes in Commerce and Administration, mature entry students must include the following within their 108-credit requirement:
- 9 credits in Mathematics: 208\textsuperscript{3}, 209\textsuperscript{3} and 211\textsuperscript{4*}
- 9 elective credits, appropriate for the student’s intended programme.

* Students may need one or more of MATH 200\textsuperscript{1} and MATH 206\textsuperscript{1}.

Requirements for certificate programmes are listed with the programme descriptions in §61 of this Calendar.

14.4.3
Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science

Engineering

Mature entrants to the Bachelor of Engineering degree, which requires completion of a minimum of 115.5 to 118.5 credits depending on the programme chosen, are also required to complete a minimum of 18 credits beyond the normal requirements for their programme, including the following courses\textsuperscript{5}:

a) Building, Civil, Industrial and Mechanical Engineering:
- CHEM 205\textsuperscript{3}
- MATH 202\textsuperscript{3}, 203\textsuperscript{3}, 204\textsuperscript{3}, 205\textsuperscript{5}
- PHYS 204\textsuperscript{3}, 205\textsuperscript{3}, 224\textsuperscript{1}, and 225\textsuperscript{1}
- COMP 201\textsuperscript{1}

Six credits chosen from courses in the humanities and social sciences.

b) Electrical and Computer Engineering:
- The courses specified in a), plus PHYS 206\textsuperscript{5}

*In all programmes, some students may require one or more of MATH 200\textsuperscript{1} and 201\textsuperscript{1} as determined by the Faculty, and/or courses in English as a Second Language, as determined by Language Proficiency Testing.
Computer Science
Mature entry students accepted to the Bachelor of Computer Science must include in their degree programme (minimum 108 credits) the following courses:

a) Information Systems Options:
   MATH 202, 203, 204, 205
   COMP 201

b) Other Options:
The courses specified in the Information Systems Option above, plus
   CHEM 205, PHYS 204, 205, 224, 225

Depending on the option chosen, up to six of the credits listed above may be applied towards the elective component of the regular degree programme.

"In all options, some students may require one or more of MATH 200, 201 as determined by the Faculty, and/or courses in English as a Second Language, as determined by Language Proficiency Testing.

Mature entry students wishing to pursue degree and certificate programmes in the Faculty of Fine Arts must take 18 additional credits appropriate for entry into the student's ultimate area of concentration. These credits will be chosen with the approval of the Faculty adviser.

14.5 PROGRAMMES OF STUDY FOR SENIOR STUDENTS

Concordia University is committed to lifelong learning and community service. Seniors at Concordia either take credit courses in a programme or as Independent students. They can also choose to audit courses on a non-credit basis through the Senior Audit Programme administered by the Centre for Mature Students.

Students age 60 and older who wish to attend undergraduate courses in the Faculty of Arts and Science for personal interest rather than for credit, may register to audit a maximum of six credits per academic year. Though not required to write class assignments or final examinations, they participate in every other aspect of the courses. Senior audit students pay significantly reduced fees.

If seniors wish to pursue an undergraduate programme or take courses as Independent students for credit, they may do so at the regular tuition fees. Some assistance through a Senior Student Bursary is possible for those 65 or over. Applications and information may be obtained at the Financial Aid Office or at the Centre for Mature Students.

Five senior scholarships are offered each year by the University. They are worth $500 a year and may be renewed for up to four years. To be eligible, candidates must be at least 60 years old, and enrolled in a minimum of 12 credits in an undergraduate or graduate programme. Educational background and life experience are taken into account in awarding these scholarships.

There is one additional $500 scholarship made available by money raised by senior students themselves for seniors enrolled in a programme.

Information on these scholarships may be obtained at the Financial Aid Office.
SECTION 15
TUITION AND FEES

15.1 TUITION AND FEES

15.2 PAYMENT OF TUITION AND FEES

15 TUITION AND FEES

15.1 TUITION AND FEES

The University reserves the right to change the published scale of fees without prior notice, and at any time before the beginning of the upcoming Academic Year.

Tuition fees, for all undergraduate courses, are based on a per credit charge as listed below:

Canadian and other students with Permanent Residence (Landed Immigrant) status:
- Undergraduate and Independent $50.58

*International students:
- Undergraduate and Independent $243.58

*Certain international students may be eligible to pay the same fees as Canadian students. Detailed information may be obtained from the Admissions or Registrar's Offices.

In addition to the tuition fee, the following fees are charged on a per credit basis:

- Student Service Fee $5.00
- Academic Materials and Services Fee $3.78
- Student Association Fee:
  - (Commerce) $1.80
  - (Engineering & Computer Science) $2.00
  - (Other Faculties) $2.07

Other Fees:
- Application Fee $20
- Application for Degree Transfer $20
- Acknowledgement of Payment Receipt $1
- Confirmation Deposit (Non-Refundable) $50
- Copy of Registration Contract $1
- Course-Change Fee - per form $10
- Duplicate of Receipt $2
- *Early Registration Deposit $100
- Graduation Fee $40
- Late Application to Graduate $15
- Mailing of Degree $10
- Certification of Copy of Degree $2
- Replacement Degree $25
- Late Registration Fee $25
- Late Completion Fee $15
- Letter of Financial Standing $5
- Off-Campus Examination $10
- Special Examination Fee (CELDT) $20
- Supplemental Examination (plus Invigilation Fee when applicable) $25
- Billing Fee $1
- Fax Fee (for each 10 pages or less, excluding cover sheet):
  - Within local calling area $3
  - Elsewhere within Canada/U.S. $5
  - Other international $10
- Transcript of Academic Record (per address - maximum 3 copies) $3
- Copy of Student Record $1
- Letter of Attestation $5
- Copy of Form T2202 (no charge for first set) $2
- Copy of Form TP697v (no charge for first set) $2
- Replacement of Identification Card $10
- Re-evaluation Fee (refundable if re-evaluation is in student’s favour) $15
- Copy of University Calendar (no charge for first copy) $5
Surcharge on Private Studies Music Courses (6 credits) - subject to change $380
Health Insurance (International Students) See §19.5

In the event that Early Registration is not completed as directed, the deposit, or a portion thereof, will be forfeited. If a new Registration is effected within the same Academic Year, the forfeited amount will be applied to the new Registration.

The Board of Governors has approved a resolution by the Engineering and Computer Science Faculty to contribute $50 (full-time), $25 (part-time) per student for the acquisition and maintenance of laboratory and computer equipment. Interest is payable on the outstanding balance of student accounts at the rate of 1% per month (12.68% per annum). This rate may change from time to time in conformity with prevailing interest rates.

15.2 PAYMENT OF TUITION AND FEES

Payment of tuition and other fees may be made in accordance with the following options:

Summer Registration
Payment in full at Registration.

Fall/Winter Registration
Early Registration:
Students who early register reserve their courses for the upcoming Academic Year well in advance of regular Registration. This reservation is subject to changes in the published scale of fees, which may be made without prior notice at any time after issuance of the Registration contract but before the beginning of the upcoming Academic Year, and requires financial commitments as follows:

1. a) An initial deposit* prior to registering for courses; and
   b) by a deadline in August — payment in full, less Early Registration deposit.
   OR
2. a) An initial deposit* prior to registering for courses; and
   b) by a deadline in August — 100% tuition and other fees for Fall (/2) and Fall/Winter (/3) courses, less Early Registration deposit; and
   c) by the first day of winter-term classes — 100% tuition and other fees for Winter (/4) courses.
   OR
3. a) An initial deposit* prior to registering for courses; and
   b) by a deadline in August — 100% tuition and other fees for Fall (/2) and 50% tuition and other fees for Fall/Winter (/3) courses, less Early Registration deposit; and
   c) by the first day of winter-term classes — 50% tuition and other fees plus interest (from September to December inclusive) for Fall/Winter (/3) courses, and 100% tuition and other fees for Winter (/4) courses.

In the event that Early Registration is not completed as directed, the deposit, or a portion thereof, will be forfeited. If a new registration is effected within the same Academic Year, the forfeited amount will be applied to the new Registration.

Regular Registration:
1. Payment in full at Registration.
   OR
2. a) At Registration — 100% tuition and other fees for Fall (/2) and Fall/Winter (/3) courses; and
   b) by the first day of winter-term classes — 100% tuition and other fees for Winter (/4) courses.
   OR
3. a) At Registration — 100% tuition and other fees for Fall (/2) and 50% tuition and other fees for Fall/Winter (/3) courses; and
   b) by the first day of winter-term classes — 50% tuition and other fees plus interest (from September to December inclusive) for Fall/Winter (/3) courses, and 100% tuition and other fees for Winter (/4) courses.

Winter Registration
Payment in full at Registration.
Registration may be cancelled if a cheque is returned for any reason. (Note: For all NSF cheques, replacement must be made by cash, certified cheque, money order, Visa, MasterCard, or debit card.) In any event, a charge of $15 will be made for each returned cheque.

Failure to make payment, or to arrange satisfactory settlement of amounts owing to the University when they become due is sufficient cause to bar the student from classes or examinations, and to withhold diploma, scholastic certificate, or transcript of record until the debt is adjusted with the University.

Registration is not considered complete until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of fees.

All contracts are subject to revision for changes in the published scale of fees, which may be made without prior notice at any time after issuance of the contract but before the beginning of the upcoming Academic Year, and for the adjustment of errors or omissions, as well as in the case of courses cancelled by the University.

15.3 CANCELLATIONS – WITHDRAWALS – ADJUSTMENTS

Withdrawal from classes does not entitle a student to refunds of fees or cancellation of contract. Students who withdraw from courses or from the University must comply with the requirements and deadlines set out in the appropriate Undergraduate Class Schedule in order to qualify for a rebate of tuition according to the following scale. Complete withdrawal from the University must be done in person or in writing.

OFF-CAMPUS COURSES: Same schedule as on-campus courses.

Rebate of Tuition

Fall/Winter Session
NOTE: For dates of Fall and Winter course-change periods please see §11 — Academic Calendar.

Courses which begin in September (first-term and two-term)
Withdrawal within two weeks from the date of beginning of classes: A full refund (less $100 Early Registration deposit if applicable — no refund after two weeks)

Courses which begin in January (second-term)
Withdrawal within two weeks from the date of beginning of classes: A full refund (less $100 Early Registration deposit if applicable — no refund after two weeks).

Summer Session
Courses of at least three weeks duration: Withdrawal within one week of the start of the term.
Courses of less than three weeks duration: Withdrawal on or before the first day of the term.
N.B. Exact deadlines are published on page ii of the Summer Undergraduate Class Schedule.

16 ACADEMIC INFORMATION: DEFINITIONS AND REGULATIONS

16.1 General Information

This Calendar is the official University document defining academic programmes and the regulations which pertain to them. The regulations contained in this section apply to all students at the undergraduate level, whether they are enrolled in degree, Certificate or qualifying programmes or registered as Visiting or Independent students, with the following exceptions:

a) Degree, Certificate and qualifying programme requirements are determined by those in effect in the year of the student's admission. (See §16.2)

b) The regulations concerning Residence Requirements, Academic Performance Requirements and High Academic Achievement are also governed by those in effect in the year of a student's admission.

Students who were admitted before the current year should consult the appropriate Calendar for information on these regulations.

Specific written permission must be obtained from the appropriate authority for exemption from any academic regulation.

16.1.1 Academic Year

The Academic Year begins with a Summer Session (May to August) followed by a Regular Session (September to April).

Summer Session:
The Summer Session includes all courses offered between the beginning of May and the end of August.

Regular Session:
The Regular Session is divided into a Fall Term (September-December) and a Winter Term (January-April), each 15 weeks long. Terms include an examination period, during which any final examination must be held. The Academic Calendar §11 lists precise dates for the beginning and end of classes and examination periods.

16.1.2 Credit System

In accordance with the recommendations of the Conseil des Universités du Québec, students' academic activity is measured according to the credit system. For the average student, each credit represents a minimum of 45 hours of academic activity, including lectures, tutorials, laboratories, studio or practice periods, examinations, and personal work.

I. FULL- AND PART-TIME STATUS

A student's status is determined by the number of credits for which she or he is registered at the close of the tuition refund period, in the following way:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Full-Time*</th>
<th>Part-Time</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Registration for both Fall and Winter terms</td>
<td>24 Credits or More</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Residence Requirements

16.1.5 Cancellation of Classes

"NOTE: Students receiving Québec loans and bursaries are advised that, according to the rules established by the Government of Québec, they must maintain registration of 12 credits or more each term. For further information, see Financial Aid §18.3.3.

II. CREDIT LOADS

Regular Session — Full-Time Status
Full-time students normally take 30 credits in each Regular Session. They may register for a maximum of 15 credits in each of the Fall and Winter terms. Engineering programmes may require more than 30 credits. For information on Engineering credit loads, see §71.

Regular Session — Part-Time Status
Part-time students in all Faculties may register for a maximum of nine credits in each of the Fall and Winter terms.

Regular Session — Independent Status
Independent students may register for a maximum of nine credits in each of the Fall and Winter terms.

Summer Session
Any student, other than one in the Institute for Co-operative Education §24 or the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science §71, may register for a maximum of 12 credits during the Summer Session.

Residence requirements define the number of credits which students working towards a Concordia University degree must take at the University itself.

1. Of the total number of credits required for a bachelor’s degree, students must take a minimum of 45 credits, normally the last 45, at Concordia University. The Bachelor of Engineering requires 60 credits, normally the last 60, at Concordia.

2. At least 50% of the credits for Honours, Specializations, Majors, Minors or other concentrations must be taken at Concordia.

3. Concordia University students who wish to include courses taken at another university within their residence requirements must obtain permission in advance. (See §16.1.7)

4. Students who already have a bachelor's degree may undertake a second bachelor's degree, subject to the conditions below. (Before registering, such students should consider whether their purpose might be better served by taking a master's or graduate diploma programme.) To obtain a second bachelor's degree, students must:
   a) register in a programme with a higher concentration than a Minor, and
   b) complete 60 credits in courses other than those credited to the first degree. At least 36 of these credits must be taken in the new field of concentration.

5. Any student who is accepted at Concordia University after failing or compiling an unsatisfactory record at another university, will generally be required to complete at least 60 credits.

Students select courses for each session prior to the start of classes. To ensure a place in the courses they choose, most undergraduate students take advantage of Early Registration for the Fall/Winter Session. (Early Registration is not available to Independent students.) There is also a course-change period at the beginning of each session. For further information about registration and course-change procedures or to obtain a Class Schedule listing the dates, hours, locations of classes, contact the Student Service Centre on either campus.

Normally, a class cancellation notice is posted on the classroom door before the class begins. If no notice is posted, classes are officially considered cancelled if an instructor is 15 minutes...
Students who wish to withdraw from a course or courses must notify the Registrar's Office. This can be done in person at the Student Service Centre, or by letter. (For their own protection, students should send such letters by registered mail or by fax.) Students who wish to withdraw from the University completely must withdraw from all their courses and notify the Registrar's Office in writing. Withdrawal deadlines are listed in the Academic Calendar §11 and in the appropriate Class Schedules. Rebates of tuition and other fees are only given for a limited time. (See §15) The responsibility for taking all steps necessary to withdraw from courses is entirely the student's. Not attending classes or informing an instructor of an intent to withdraw does not constitute official withdrawal. Students who do not properly withdraw before the specified deadlines will receive failing grades.

With the exception of the programmes listed below, students who wish to take courses at other universities for transfer credit (for example, in the Summer) must obtain permission in advance from their Faculty Student Request Committee.

1. Cross-registration within Québec (Inter-University Agreement)
Québec universities have agreed to permit students registered at one university (called the home university), to take one or more courses at another university (called the host university) if they have valid reasons for doing so. A student must obtain authorization to cross-register from his or her academic adviser, the appropriate Associate/Vice-Dean of the student's Faculty, and the Registrar. Authorization forms are available from the Registrar's Office and the Faculty Dean's offices. The host university has the right to refuse to register a student from another university in any of its courses or programmes. Students are expected to follow the registration procedures of the host university and are subject to the regulations of the host university, except for tuition and fee policies which are governed by the home university. Fees are paid to the home university. Credits earned at host universities count towards Concordia residence requirements. Failures in courses at host universities count as failures at Concordia University in the usual manner.

2. International Exchange Programme
Concordia University offers a variety of student exchange programmes which enable qualified students to gain first-hand knowledge and understanding of other parts of the world. These programmes are available to full-time Concordia University students who meet the following conditions:
- they are Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents;
- they have a good to excellent academic record and are in good academic standing;
- they have completed at least one year of full-time study in the programme in which they are registered;
- they are fluent in the language of the host university;
- they must assume health insurance fees, living expenses and transportation costs to and from the host country.

Further information is available from the Centre for International Academic Cooperation – Loyola Campus, Administration Building, Room: AD 207 – (514) 848-4987 or fax 848-2888. The application deadline is February 15. Some Faculties have their own exchange programmes, normally in the Summer, and should be consulted directly for information.

Student Request Committees consider applications from full-time or part-time students for exceptions to academic regulations or related matters, such as permission for course overloads, registration or withdrawals after the deadline, course substitutions, exceptions to residence requirements, and permission to take courses at other universities. (Independent students must submit all requests relating to University regulations to the Registrar.) Each Faculty has its own Student Request Committee made up as follows:
- three faculty members appointed by the Faculty Council (which may also appoint alternates);
- one representative from the Registrar's Office or the Admissions Office;
- one student appointed by the Faculty Council;
- the Associate/Vice-Dean who acts as convener.
Each Committee establishes its own guidelines and delegates to the Associate/Vice-Dean the responsibility for handling certain kinds of requests. Requests on procedural matters will be redirected to the appropriate administrative office. Students and members of the Faculty may ask that a decision made by the Dean or his or her delegate be reviewed by the Committee as a whole. Decisions of the Committee are final.

Degree and Certificate candidates who expect to complete requirements in a particular year must submit Graduation Application Forms to the Registrar’s Office before July 15 for Fall graduation and before January 15 for Spring graduation. The forms are available at the Student Service Centre. The graduation fee is payable whether or not a student attends Convocation.

A record is a comprehensive report of a student’s academic history at the University. It is available to the student and to authorized University staff and faculty. Students may obtain a copy of their record from the Student Service Centre during normal operating hours or by written request.

A transcript is a version of a student’s record intended for the use of external institutions, organizations and employers. It is accompanied by an explanation of its terminology and is sent directly to the addressee at the written request of the student, providing there is no outstanding account owing to the University. An official transcript is printed on security paper, and is signed and sealed by the Registrar’s representative.

16.2 Curriculum Regulations

With the exception of the following conditions, the curriculum requirements in effect at the time students are admitted to a programme (e.g. Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Commerce) and/or concentration (e.g. Major, Specialization), are the requirements which apply to them until they complete their degree.

1. The University reserves the right to modify academic programme requirements in the light of (a) changing trends in academic and professional fields, and (b) the availability of resources. In the exceptional event that a programme is substantially altered by the University Senate, the University recognizes its responsibility to offer suitable transition arrangements for students. The new programme requirements should become effective for all students no later than five years after the effective date of change for newly admitted students.

2. When a programme is discontinued, the University recognizes its responsibility to offer courses in the programme while phasing it out according to a schedule appropriate to the needs of the affected students. Students will be informed of the schedule when the decision is made to phase the programme out. When students in a discontinued programme have not been registered for three years, it may not be possible to enable them to complete that programme. They may, however, transfer into another programme in the University for which they meet the admission requirements.

3. Where students acquire credit towards a degree or certificate in a discontinuous manner and over a protracted time, the University reserves the right, at any time, to require them to take further credits or fulfill additional requirements to obtain that degree or certificate.

4. Modifications to the academic regulations in §§16.1 and 16.3 become effective for all students on a given date regardless of the student’s date of admission to a programme, with the following exceptions:

   16.1.3 Residence Requirements
   16.3.10 Academic Performance Requirements
   16.3.11 High Academic Achievement

Modifications to these three regulations apply only to students admitted or readmitted to a programme on or after the effective date of such modifications.

5. In the event a student is readmitted after failing an academic year, the University reserves the right to require the student to take additional credits or to repeat certain courses. The student is also subject to changes in academic regulations or programme requirements in effect at time of the student’s readmission.
Every undergraduate programme requires a cohesive sequence of courses. To graduate, a student must have completed one of the following programme concentrations: Honours, Specialization, Major, or in the Faculty of Fine Arts, Double Minor. Honours is a highly concentrated programme with a required performance level; the Specialization and the Major require varying degrees of concentration, normally without a performance requirement; the Double Minor involves a lesser degree of concentration in two disciplines or fields without a performance requirement. An Honours, Specialization or Major can be combined with a Minor. In some circumstances, a Double Major is also possible.

1. Honours Programmes
The University offers programmes leading to an Honours degree in certain disciplines. The Honours programme consists of 60 or more credits in a discipline, with superior performance required to enter and remain in the programme. In their first year, students may register in Honours programme courses, but their acceptance as Honours students will depend on their performance. Students who do not meet requirements for Honours standing may proceed in either a Specialization or a Major programme.

2. Specialization Programmes
A Specialization, as recommended by the Conseil des Universités du Québec, is a sequence of courses totalling 60 or more credits which, in a few cases includes a performance requirement. In addition to courses in a particular discipline, the Specialization may include courses in other closely related fields.

3. Major Programmes
A Major, as recommended by the Conseil des Universités du Québec, is a sequence of courses totalling 36 or more credits, except in the Faculty of Commerce and Administration where the Major consists of at least 24 credits in a particular discipline in addition to the required 51-credit core. The Major may include certain courses in other closely related fields.

4. Minor Programmes
A Minor programme, as recommended by the Conseil des Universités du Québec, is a sequence of courses totalling 24 or more credits, except in the Faculty of Commerce and Administration where the Minor consists of at least 12 credits in the chosen discipline in addition to the required 51-credit core.

5. Double Minor Programmes
In the Faculty of Fine Arts, a Double Minor programme is made up of two sequences of courses in different disciplines, each totalling 24 or more credits.

6. Combined Programmes
An Honours, Specialization, or Major programme may be combined with a Minor programme. In some circumstances, a Major programme may also be combined with another Major programme.
16.2.4 Writing Skills Requirement

Concordia University is committed to ensuring that its graduating students possess good writing skills. Hence, every student in a bachelor's degree programme is required to demonstrate competence in writing English or French prior to graduation. Students are strongly encouraged to meet the requirement very early in their programme to avoid the risk of delayed graduation should remedial work prove necessary.

Note: Independent students and students enrolled in Certificate programmes are not subject to the writing skills requirement.

1. Students, other than those required to take an English proficiency test prior to admission, can meet the requirements in one of two ways:
   a) Taking a writing course
      Any student can satisfy the writing skills requirement by achieving a grade of "C-" or better in English (ENGL) 212 or French (FRAN) 400. Students in the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science are required to take ENCS 281. A grade of "C-" or better in that course satisfies the requirement. Students in Journalism programmes satisfy the requirement by achieving "C-" or better in the required course JOUR 201.
   b) Taking the University Writing Test (UWT)
      The UWT requires a short composition in English or French on the student's choice of several topics. The test is offered a number of times throughout the year and students may take it as often as necessary. (Unsuccessful attempts do not appear on their record.) There is no fee for the UWT.
      All newly admitted students, except those required to take ENCS 281 or JOUR 201 and those already registered for ENGL 212 or FRAN 400, should register for the first available sitting. Dates for the test and registration procedures are listed in §11 and are announced in the campus media and at the Student Service Centre. Following each sitting of the UWT, students who have taken it will be notified of one of the following:
      a) that they have passed the test and satisfied the writing skills requirement; or
      b) that they should retake the test or register for an appropriate writing course, at their discretion; or
      c) that it is unlikely they will pass the UWT or be admitted to ENGL 212 or FRAN 400 without the remedial work offered in ENGL 205, ENGL 206 or comparable courses in Études françaises.

2. Students required to take an English proficiency test prior to admission
   Students who achieve a prescribed level on the Concordia English Language Diagnostic Test (CELDT), the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or the University of Michigan English Language Test, have satisfied the writing skills requirement. Information about the scores required can be obtained from the Admissions Office. Students admitted with the requirement that they take specific courses in English as a Second Language (ESL) satisfy the writing skills requirement by achieving a grade of at least "C-" in ESL 209.

16.3 Evaluation, Grading System, Examinations and Performance Requirements

A university degree certifies that its holder has attained a measurable level of achievement as established by a recognized system of evaluation. Thus the performance of each student in each course must be evaluated by the instructor or instructors responsible for the course. Final grades are determined by students' performance on one or more of the following:
1. Assigned work, term papers, projects, etc.
2. Class participation which, in certain disciplines, may justify an attendance requirement
3. Progress tests
4. Laboratory tests and/or laboratory work
5. Mid-term and/or final examinations
6. Level of written expression.
The weight accorded to the various elements is at the discretion of the instructor or instructors responsible for the course.

At the beginning of a course the instructor will provide students with the evaluation scheme in writing. The scheme cannot be altered without appropriate notice.

Normally, an instructor will submit final grades no later than seven days after the scheduled final examination in a course or, where there is no final examination, seven days after the last scheduled class in a course. In the case of grades for potential graduates at the end of the Winter Term, instructors are asked to submit grades within three days. There may be additional delays before grades are posted as approvals of the grades and processing time are necessary.

Final grades are official only when they have been approved by the appropriate Faculty Dean or delegate and posted by the Registrar's Office. The University reserves the right to make corrections at any time in case of error.

16.3.2 Language of Instruction and Examinations

While courses at Concordia University are normally taught in English, if students prefer, they may write assignments and examinations in either English or French. However, language and literature courses may require assignments and examinations to be written in the language being studied. Students who wish to write in French should ask at the beginning of a course whether their instructor can read French or whether someone else will evaluate their work. If the work must be read by another person, extra time may be needed.

16.3.3 Grading System

At the end of each course, the instructor will submit a letter grade for every student registered. Using the grade point equivalents listed below, Grade Point Averages (GPA) are calculated for the evaluation of academic achievement, Honours standing, prizes, and academic standing.

Grade Not Reported (NR) 0

Passing courses required to fulfill curriculum requirements is not sufficient to graduate as there is also an academic performance requirement (Grade Point Average) in most degree programmes. See the pertinent section of each Faculty’s entry in the Calendar for complete details:

- Faculty of Arts and Science: §31
- Faculty of Commerce and Administration: §61
- Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science: §71
- The Faculty of Fine Arts does not have a Grade Point Average requirement for graduation.

56 - ACADEMIC INFORMATION: DEFINITIONS AND REGULATIONS
16.3.4
Failing Grades and Administrative Notations

Notations

Falling Grades "F", "FNS", "R" and "NR" notations
1. "F" indicates failure in a course in which a supplemental examination is available.
2. "FNS" indicates failure in a course in which no supplemental examination is available.
3. In a course graded "R" a student is not permitted to write a supplemental or replacement examination, apply for a "MED" notation, or complete work late.
4. Not Reported "NR" indicates that a student appears to have unofficially withdrawn from a course. It is assigned by the Registrar when no material is available to evaluate and the instructor has been unable to submit a grade. "NR" carries a grade point value of zero and counts as a failure.

In a course with an "NR" a student is not permitted to apply for a "MED" notation, write a replacement or supplemental examination, or complete work late.

16.3.5
Administrative Notations "DISC", "INC", "DNW", "MED"

1. Discontinued "DISC" indicates that a student has properly withdrawn from a course after the end of the course-change period. The notation appears permanently on academic records and official transcripts. It carries no grade point value and does not count in assessments of academic standing.
2. Did Not Write "DNW" indicates that a student has not written the final examination for a course. The notation is used only in combination with a letter grade (such as "F/DNW", "B/DNW"). A student in good standing may write a supplemental examination (if available) in a course with a "DNW" unless the grade is "R/DNW" or "FNS/DNW".
   For information on how to apply for supplemental examinations and the regulations which govern them, see §16.3.9 II.
3. Incomplete "INC" indicates that a student has not completed required course work, such as a term paper, assignment or laboratory and that the instructor has agreed to accept the work after the due date. The notation is used only in combination with a letter grade (such as "F/INC", "C/INC") and is assigned on the basis that the missing work is weighted as zero.
   When appropriate, "DNW" and "INC" can be used simultaneously (e.g. "F/INC/DNW").
   For information on how to apply to complete courses with an "INC" notation, and the regulations which govern late completion, see §16.3.6.
4. Medical "MED" indicates that a student has been unable to write an examination or complete other assignments for medical or other serious reasons, such as death in the family.
   A "MED" notation carries no grade point value.
   For information on how to apply for "MED" notations and the regulations which govern them, see §16.3.7.

Late Completion of Courses with "INC" Notations - Procedures and Regulations

1. The deadlines for completion of course assignments are given to students on the first day of class. The "INC" notation is assigned when an instructor has agreed that a student may complete work after the deadline.
2. A student with an "R" grade or "NR" notation in a course may not apply for late completion in that course.
3. Students must apply for late completion of a course. Applications for Late Completion are available from the Student Service Centre. For each course there is a charge of $15.
   Completed applications must be submitted to the Accounts Office by:
   February 1: Fall-term courses
   May 15: Winter and Fall/Winter courses
   September 1: Summer-session courses
4. The completed work must be submitted by:
   February 15: Fall-term courses
   May 30: Winter and Fall/Winter courses
   September 15: Summer-session courses
5. It is the responsibility of the instructor to submit a final grade within five days of these dates. At that time the "INC" notation is permanently removed from the student’s record.
   If the work is still incomplete, the original grade without the "INC" notation will appear on the student’s record and the transcript.

Medical "MED" Notations - Procedures and Regulations

1. A student who has missed an examination or not completed an assignment (such as a project or a term paper) for medical or other serious reasons, such as a death in the family, can apply to have his or her original grade replaced by a "MED" notation. The original grade must include an "INC" or "DNW" notation.
2. A "MED" notation cannot be assigned in a course with an "R" grade or "NR" notation.
3. Application forms for "MED" notations are available from the Examinations Office.
A completed application should be submitted to that office, not to the instructor, Department or Faculty. It must be accompanied by a medical certificate on a physician's original letterhead or, if the reasons are not medical, by other appropriate documents (e.g. a death notice or certificate or the equivalent) indicating that the student was unable to write an examination or meet a deadline on the day or days in question. Completed application forms should be submitted to the Examinations Office within 10 days of the missed examination or of the end of term in the case of a missed assignment.

4. The Examinations Office is entitled to ask the student to provide additional medical information. In such cases the student will be supplied with a form to be completed by his or her physician.

5. When the Examinations Office approves the acceptance of a medical certificate or other documents, the notation "MED" will replace the student's original grade for the course or courses concerned. The student is then entitled to write a replacement examination or complete the missing work, as the case may be. For information about replacement examinations, see §16.3.9.

6. When the replacement examination or missing work has been completed and evaluated, a new grade will replace the "MED" notation. If the student does not write a replacement examination or complete the missing work, the "MED" notation will appear permanently on his or her record and transcript (e.g. "MED/DNW" or "MED/INC"). "MED" notations carry no grade point value. Courses with "MED" notations are not included in assessments of academic standing.

7. When a student repeatedly submits medical certificates, the University reserves the right to refer him or her to a physician appointed by the University for a recommendation.

I  General
1. All students have the right to apply for the re-evaluation of any grade they receive. Such an application may be based on dissatisfaction with either the grade received or the method of grading. Grades may be lowered, maintained or raised as a result of the re-evaluation.

2. Students have the right to see their examination papers and any marked material that has contributed to the grading of a course. Students applying for re-evaluation are responsible for producing any marked material that has been returned to them by an instructor. Students have the right to have their examination papers or any other marked material re-evaluated separately. Departments are responsible for preserving written materials in their possession for a period of six months following the official release of grades and producing them on request.

II. Normal Procedure
1. Students who seek re-evaluation of their work will first endeavour to meet with the instructor and explain their position. If they remain dissatisfied, or are unable to meet with the instructor, they may, on receiving the final grade, apply formally for re-evaluation.

2. Students submit a formal application for re-evaluation to the Registrar. Each application must be submitted in writing on the appropriate form. It must explain the reasons for the student's dissatisfaction and confirm that the student has met with the instructor, or has tried unsuccessfully to do so. A fee of $15 must accompany the application. This amount is reimbursed if the student's grade is raised as a result of the application.

3. Deadlines for applications are as follows:

- February 1: Fall-term courses
- June 15: Winter-term courses
- October 1: Summer-session courses

The Registrar may extend these deadlines if the student applying for re-evaluation could not reasonably have done so within the time limit.

4. The Registrar forwards the application immediately to the Chair of the appropriate Department with a copy to the instructor and the Dean.

5. The Department Chair appoints a suitable person or persons to carry out the re-evaluation or investigation, communicating the name or names to the student, the instructor, the appropriate Dean and the Registrar. Normally, a member of the Faculty in whose course the student is currently enrolled is not eligible to conduct a re-evaluation or investigation. Where the Department Chair was the instructor of the course at issue, the appropriate Dean will make the appointments.

6. The re-evaluation or investigation will normally be completed within 21 days of the receipt of the application by the Chair.

7. The Chair will inform the student, the instructor, the Dean and the Registrar of the decision of the person or persons charged with the re-evaluation or investigation. This decision is final.

III. Priority Procedures
1. The priority appeal procedure is provided to speed the process for specific courses designated by the Faculties. A list of these courses is posted in the Student Service Centre prior to the beginning of the course-change period each term.
2. Students registered in these designated courses may file a priority appeal with the Registrar as soon as the grade is known but in no case later than three days before the end of the course-change period for the next term.
3. Students who opt for this priority procedure will still endeavour to resolve the issue with the instructor. If the issue is resolved between the student and the instructor after an appeal is launched, the student must cancel the appeal in order to be reimbursed the $15 fee.
4. The Dean will appoint a person to ensure, in collaboration with the Registrar, the timely processing of priority appeals in accordance with the procedure set out in II, 5.
5. The re-evaluation or investigation process in priority cases must be completed prior to the last day of the course-change period for the next term.
6. The Dean’s appointee will inform the student, the instructor, the Dean and the Registrar of the decision of the person or persons charged with the re-evaluation or investigation. This decision is final.

IV. Appeals
1. Both the student and the instructor have a right of appeal on procedural grounds only against a re-evaluation decision.
2. Such an appeal will be made to the Dean, normally within 14 days of the announcement of the decision by the Chair. Each appeal, explaining the reasons for the appeal, must be submitted in writing on the appropriate form.
3. It is the responsibility of the Dean to inform the student or the instructor, the Chair and the Registrar that an appeal has been received.
4. The Dean will refer the appeal to the Faculty Appeal Committee, a standing committee of Faculty Council.
5. The Faculty Appeal Committee, composed of an equal number of faculty and students, will choose a Chair from outside the Committee.
6. (a) The Faculty Appeal Committee will deal with the appeal as it deems necessary to decide whether the re-evaluation procedure was correctly followed.
   (b) Both the student and the instructor have the right to be present at the hearing of the appeal, to address the Committee, and to present witnesses. The student may be accompanied by an adviser from within the University who may speak on his or her behalf. Following the hearing, the Committee will deliberate in private.
7. The decision will normally be rendered within 21 days of the lodging of an appeal. If the Faculty Appeal Committee finds that the re-evaluation procedure was not correctly followed, it will instruct the Department Chair to arrange for a fresh re-evaluation.
8. There is no further appeal once the Faculty Appeal Committee has rendered its decision.
9. It is the responsibility of the Committee to inform the student, the instructor, the Chair, the Dean, and the Registrar of the decision.

Students must present a valid student identification card to take any examination.

I. Final Examinations
1. Academic Calendar §11 lists the official examination periods.
2. Examination schedules are posted at various locations in the University.
3. Since special arrangements cannot be made in the event of personal time conflicts, students should not make personal commitments for the examination periods until after the final examination schedule is posted.
4. When the final examination schedule indicates that a student must write examinations in three consecutive time blocks (e.g. morning, afternoon and evening or afternoon, evening and morning), students should contact the Examinations Office. The Examinations Office will make every effort to reschedule or defer one of the examinations provided they are advised by the deadline. (See Academic Calendar §11.)
5. No candidate will permitted to enter an examination room one hour after the examination period has begun, or to leave during the first hour of the examination.
6. In the Fall and Winter terms, no tests or examinations are permitted in the final week of classes. Any exceptions must be approved in advance by the appropriate Faculty Council.
II. Supplemental and Replacement Examinations

Supplemental examinations are special final examinations offered in some courses for students who have not written or who have failed the original final examination. Replacement examinations are those offered to students who have missed a final examination for medical reasons.

1. Supplemental Examinations -- Regulations
   a) Each Faculty determines for which of its courses a supplemental examination is offered.
   b) A student must be in acceptable standing in order to write a supplemental examination.
   c) A student who has received a passing grade for a course may not write a supplemental examination for that course.
   d) The grade for a supplemental examination is counted as a second attempt at the course. The grades from both attempts are included in calculating Grade Point Averages and assessments of academic standing.
   e) A student who has received an "NR" or "R" grade may not write a supplemental examination for that course.
   f) A student is permitted to write only one supplemental examination for a course, whether or not the course is being repeated.
   g) A student who fails a supplemental examination is given a grade of "R".

2. Replacement Examinations -- Regulations
   a) A student who has submitted an acceptable medical certificate or equivalent document for a missed examination is permitted to write a replacement examination.
   b) A replacement examination counts for the same weight in the course evaluation scheme and covers the same course material as the missed examination.
   c) A student cannot write a replacement examination in a course graded "R" or "NR".
   d) A student who misses a replacement or supplemental examination for medical, or other serious reasons, may apply to write another examination during the next scheduled supplemental examination period. A student who misses two replacement or supplemental examinations for medical or other reasons must repeat the course or courses to obtain credit. Students in Engineering programmes have only one opportunity to write a replacement or supplemental examination.
   e) When replacement examinations are missed for medical or other serious reasons, the "MED" notation (e.g. "MED/DNW") will appear permanently on the student's academic record or transcript. When a supplemental examination is missed for medical or other serious reasons, the original grade for the course ("F", "F/DNW") will remain permanently.
   f) When a replacement examination has been completed and evaluated, the mark is added to the student's marks for other course work. The resulting final grade will replace the "MED" notation on the student's academic record and transcript.
   g) A student who fails a course after writing or missing a replacement examination may write a supplemental examination, if available.

3. Applications for Supplemental and Replacement Examinations
   a) Applications to write supplemental examinations are available from the Student Service Centre. There is a $25 fee for each supplemental examination. Applications for replacement examinations are handled by the Examinations Office. There is no fee for a replacement examination.
   b) Supplemental and replacement examinations for fall- and winter-term courses are normally written in July or August. For summer-session courses, they are normally written in October. Graduating students may apply to write supplemental or replacement examinations for fall-term courses in February. The application deadlines are:
      June 15: Fall- and Winter-term courses
      September 21: Summer Session
      February 1: Graduating students (Fall-term courses only)
   c) In some circumstances, a student who will not be in the Montréal area during the supplemental period for regular-session courses (i.e. July or August), can write a supplemental or replacement examination at another university in Canada. A student who wishes to write at an external centre must complete an application form, available from the Examinations Office, by June 1. External supplemental or replacement examinations cannot be written outside Canada. There is a $10 fee for mailing and handling external examinations. The student is responsible for any fees that may be charged by an external centre.
Students who are taken ill during an examination and who cannot finish the examination should go immediately to the University Health Services (Monday-Friday, 9-5), to a hospital emergency department, or to their own physician. They should request a medical certificate and submit it to the Examinations Office within 10 days. (See Medical "MED" Notations §16.3.7.)

I. Performance Regulations
Students are required to maintain an acceptable standard of scholarship. Each student's academic standing is assessed at the end of every year, either on the basis of an Annual Weighted Grade Point Average (WGPA) as defined below, or for students in the Faculty of Fine Arts, on the basis of the ratio of credits failed to credits passed.

The specific regulations applicable to students registered in each Faculty can be found in the following sections of the Calendar:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Faculty</th>
<th>See Calendar Section</th>
<th>System Used</th>

</tbody>
</table>

These regulations may be modified in the case of students transferring either between Faculties or from another university.

II. Annual Weighted Grade Point Average
An Annual Weighted Grade Point Average (WGPA) for each student is calculated at the end of each Academic Year (including the Summer, Fall and Winter terms), provided that the student has attempted a minimum of 12 credits. If the student has attempted fewer than 12 credits, these credits will be included in the assessment for the following academic year.

When a student transfers from one programme to another, the WGPA is calculated only for courses recorded in the current programme. Special regulations for graduating students may be specified in each Faculty's regulations.

Grades for supplemental and replacement examinations and for late completion of courses with "INC" or "MEO" notations are included in the assessment period in which they are recorded.

In the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science, prerequisite courses required for admission to a programme will not be counted unless they are specifically listed on the student's admission letter.

The WGPA is calculated as follows:

First, for each course attempted, the number of credits for the course is multiplied by the grade points obtained for the course, as specified in §16.3.3. Then, the sum of the grade points for all courses is divided by the total credits attempted.

\text{WGPA} = \frac{\sum (\text{course credits} \times \text{grade points})}{\sum (\text{credits attempted})}

* As detailed in §16.3.3
III. Qualifying Programmes and Visiting Students
Students registered in Qualifying Programmes or as Visiting students are subject to the regulations of the Faculty in which they are registered.

IV. Independent Students
1. Independent students are subject to the same Grade Point Average requirements as students registered in programmes offered by the Faculty of Arts and Science. (See §31.003.1)
2. Independent students who are classified as failed may not re-register without permission of the Registrar.

V. Regulations for Failed Students and Students in Conditional Standing
1. Failed students or students in conditional standing are not eligible to write supplemental examinations.
2. Undergraduate students who are classified as failed may not re-register as Independent students.

VI. Recording of Failed and Conditional Standing
Failed standing is noted on the student's academic record and transcript. In the event that a student is subsequently readmitted, previous failed standing will appear only on the record. Conditional standing is noted on records only.

A degree "With Distinction" or "With Great Distinction" will be awarded to students who obtain Graduation Grade Point Averages (GGPA) of at least 3.40 or 4.00 respectively. The Graduation Grade Point Average for students in the Faculty of Arts and Science, the Faculty of Commerce and Administration, and the Faculty of Fine Arts is calculated over the last 90 credits, as determined by Graduation Department guidelines. The Graduation Grade Point Average for students in the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science is calculated over the entire programme. Additional credits in extended programmes are not normally included in any calculation. In the case of transfer students, all courses taken at Concordia will be included in calculating the Graduation GPA, but the student must have taken a minimum of 60 credits at Concordia to be eligible for either award.

1. In general, a student may repeat a failed course only once. However, a student who fails a required course twice may appeal to the appropriate Student Request Committee for permission to take the course a third time or for permission to replace the course with another. Unless permission is granted, the student will not be allowed to continue in the University towards that programme and/or degree.
2. A student who has received a passing grade for a course may repeat the course for personal reasons (e.g. to meet an external requirement). The student's record and transcript will include both grades but the second grade will carry no credit value. The original grade for the course will be used for calculating the Graduation GPA. For students in the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science who have been required to repeat courses graded "D", both grades are included in the Graduation GPA.
3. A student who fails a required course must repeat the course during the next session for which she or he registers. If a student fails a required course in the Summer Session and a supplemental examination is available, re-registration for the course may be postponed until after the supplemental examination period for summer-session courses.

I. Preamble
1. In order to maintain the integrity of the academic processes of the University, all students are expected to be honest in all their academic endeavours and their relationships with the University.
2. This Code defines the offences that constitute academic misconduct and sets out the procedures used to deal with those offences.
3. Wherever there is doubt or ambiguity regarding any provision in this Code, or the procedure to be followed, that interpretation or procedure is adopted which appears most equitable and consistent with its general purposes and philosophy. Except for those terms defined hereunder, the terms used in this Code have their usual meanings.

II. Definitions
In this Code, unless the context indicates otherwise:
1. Academic misconduct means any form of dishonest behaviour related to the obtaining of academic gain or to the avoidance of evaluative exercises. It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, personation at an examination, falsification and multiple submission, and applies to any form of evaluative exercise.

2. Chair means the Chair of the Department or the head of an equivalent academic unit in which the alleged act of academic misconduct occurred.

3. Cheating means any dishonest or deceptive practice relating to an examination, test or other evaluative exercise. It may include, but is not limited to:
   a) possessing or making use of a book, paper, script, writing, drawing or other material or equipment not expressly authorized by those conducting the examination;
   b) possessing a device allowing access to or use of any of the materials or equipment identified in sub-paragraph a);
   c) communicating with anyone other than an invigilator during an examination;
   d) tearing or mutilating an examination booklet, or taking a booklet from the examination room.

4. Dean means:
   a) the Dean of the Faculty offering the programme in which the student is, or seeks to be, registered; or,
   b) if the student is not registered in a programme, the Dean of the Faculty providing the course concerned; or, in the event that the offence is not related to a particular course, the Dean of the Faculty providing the majority of courses on the student's record; or,
   c) if the student is a graduate student, the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies.

5. Examination means any invigilated evaluative exercise.

6. Falsification means falsifying or forging academically related documents or other records or using such documents. Academically related documents and other records include, but are not limited to:
   a) University records, transcripts, or other academic data;
   b) documents issued by a physician or by another person or institution and submitted to the University.

7. Hearing Committee: If the student is an undergraduate student, the Hearing Committee is composed of:
   a) a Chair, appointed by the Dean; and,
   b) two faculty members and two undergraduate students, all appointed by the Dean from a panel made up of full-time faculty members named by Faculty Council, and of undergraduate students registered in the Faculty, named by the appropriate student association.
   If the student is a graduate student, the Hearing Committee is made up of three faculty members and two graduate students appointed by the Council of the School of Graduate Studies. The Dean appoints a Chair of the Hearing Committee from among the committee members.

8. Instructor means the instructor of the course in which the alleged act of academic misconduct occurred.

9. Multiple submission means submitting a piece of work or an important part of a piece of work for credit when that work has been, or is concurrently being, submitted for credit in another course, without the knowledge and permission of the instructor or instructors involved.

10. Personation means assuming the identity of another person or knowingly having another person assume one's own identity at an examination or other evaluative exercise.

11. Plagiarism means the presentation by a student of the work of another person as his or her own; it includes copying, translating and paraphrasing without acknowledgment of the source.

12. Sanction means:
   a) reprimand;
   b) work to be resubmitted with appropriate changes;
   c) failing grade in the work submitted; or
   d) failing grade in the course for which the work was submitted.

13. Year means:
   a) a period beginning on September 1 and ending on August 31 if the academic misconduct occurred during the Regular Session; or
   b) a period beginning on May 1, and ending on April 30, if the academic misconduct occurred during the Summer Session.

III. Offences

1. Academic misconduct is an offence under the present Code. It shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure set out hereunder.
2. Any attempt, conspiracy, participation or possession related in any way to academic misconduct is also an offence under the present Code and shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure set out hereunder.

IV. Procedure

A. PROCEDURE RELATING TO PLAGIARISM AND MULTIPLE SUBMISSION

1. Instructor meets with student: If an instructor has reason to believe that a student has committed an act of plagiarism or multiple submission, the instructor informs the student and discusses the circumstances of the matter with him or her.

2. Agreement as to satisfactory resolution reached: When an agreement can be reached between the instructor and the student as to a satisfactory resolution, which may include an appropriate sanction, the matter is settled.

3. Matter referred to the Chair: If no satisfactory resolution has been reached and the instructor is still of the opinion that the student has committed an act of plagiarism or multiple submission, the matter is referred in writing to the Chair.

4. Meeting with the Chair: The Chair meets with the instructor and the student in order to discuss the circumstances of the matter.

5. Agreement as to satisfactory resolution reached with Chair: If an agreement can be reached between the Chair, the instructor and the student as to a satisfactory resolution, which may include an appropriate sanction, the matter is settled.

6. Formal charge: If no satisfactory resolution has been reached, and the Chair is of the opinion that the student has committed an act of plagiarism or multiple submission, the Chair shall so inform the Registrar and recommend that a formal charge of academic misconduct be laid in accordance with the provisions set out below. The Chair shall send a copy of such recommendation to the Dean.

B. PROCEDURE RELATING TO FORMAL CHARGES OF ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. A person who suspects a student of academic misconduct delivers to the Registrar as soon as possible a written report setting out the grounds for the suspicion, together with any statement made by the student and other relevant material. The Registrar shall send a copy of this report to the Dean.

2. The Registrar shall consider if the laying of a charge of academic misconduct is appropriate. If the Registrar decides to lay a charge, the procedure set out in the following subsections shall apply. If the Registrar decides not to lay a charge, the Dean may refer the matter to the Vice-Rector, Academic, who may direct that a charge be laid. When a decision is made not to lay a charge, the Registrar or the Vice-Rector, Academic, as the case may be, informs the student in writing.

3. Form of the charge: The formal charge must be precise and substantiated; it is made in writing, dated and signed, and is sent to the Dean.

4. Copy of formal charge sent to student: The Dean sends a copy of the formal charge to the student and inquires in writing whether the charge is admitted or denied by the student.

5. Student answers charge: The student has 21 calendar days to admit or deny the charge in writing.

6. Student admits charge: When the student admits the charge, the Dean applies the penalty set out in Article V below.

7. Student does not admit charge or fails to respond: When the student does not admit or fails to respond to the charge, the Dean arranges for the setting up of a Hearing Committee and gives to the student a written 14 calendar days notice of the date, time and location of the hearing.

   Said hearing is to be held as soon as reasonably possible after the laying of the charge, and in any event no later than 90 calendar days after the laying of the charge. If the said hearing does not take place within the prescribed 90 calendar days, through no fault of the student, the complaint fails and the charge against the student is withdrawn.

8. Conduct of the hearing: The student and the Registrar (or a delegate of the Registrar), in the case of a charge of cheating or other academic misconduct, have the right to be present at the hearing of the charge, to address the Committee, and to present witnesses. In the case of a charge of plagiarism, or multiple submission, the student, the instructor and the Chair have such a right. The student may be accompanied by an adviser from within the University who may speak on his or her behalf. Following the hearing the Committee will deliberate in private.

9. Written and reasoned report sent to Dean: The Hearing Committee sends a written and reasoned report to the Dean on whether or not the student acted as charged. Should the student be found to have acted as charged, the Hearing Committee may recommend one or more of the penalties set out in Article V below.

10. Dean imposes penalty: If the Hearing Committee upholds the charge or part thereof, the Dean shall impose the penalty set out in Article V hereunder, depending on the circumstances of the case.

11. Dean informs student: The Dean sends to the student and the Registrar and, if appropriate, to the instructor and the Chair a copy of the report of the Hearing Committee and, where applicable, a written statement of the penalty imposed. In cases where the said penalty is different from one recommended by the Hearing Committee, the Dean provides the reasons in support of the decision. The Dean also informs the student of his or her right of appeal, indicating the date and time of the deadline for an appeal to be filed and the name of the person to whom a notice of appeal is to be delivered.

12. Appeal to the Senate Appeals Committee on Academic Misconduct (SACAM): The student and the Registrar have a right of appeal to SACAM against the decision of the Hearing Committee or the penalty, or both. The notice of such appeal is made in writing within 21 calendar days of the sending of the decision and forwarded to the secretary of Senate. It must specify the grounds of appeal. If the student or the Registrar appeals the penalty, the student may apply to SACAM for permission to be exempted from the penalty imposed by the Dean pending the outcome of the Appeal. Such an application must be treated as an urgent matter and a decision made within 14 calendar days of the receipt of the application. The decision to exempt the student may be made subject to such terms and conditions as SACAM deems appropriate.

13. Hearing by SACAM: The hearing by SACAM must be held as soon as reasonably possible after rendering of the decision appealed from, but in any event within 90 calendar days of the date of the decision rendered by the Dean. The secretary gives the student a 14 calendar days written notice of the day, time and location of the hearing. Subject to the provisions set out in Article VII, paragraph 1, if through no fault of the student, the appeal hearing does not take place within the 90 calendar days herein prescribed:
   a) when the student is the party appealing the decision, the appeal will be considered as upheld;
   b) when the Registrar is the party appealing the decision, the complaint fails and the charge is withdrawn.

14. Decision of SACAM: SACAM may confirm, quash or modify the decision or the penalty under appeal and its decision is final. It is made in writing and must be reasoned; it is sent to the student, to the Registrar, and to the Dean.

V. Penalties

1. Imposition of Penalties: Where a formal charge has been laid and a student admits to or is found guilty of academic misconduct, the penalty is one or more of the following:
   a) failing grade — a failing grade for the course in which the academic misconduct occurred;
   b) failing grade and further ineligibility — a failing grade and ineligibility for a supplemental examination or any other evaluative exercise for the course;
   c) additional courses to be followed — the obligation to take and pass courses of from three to 24 credits in addition to the total number of credits required for the programme; the courses to be taken may be specified;
   d) suspension — suspension from the University for the remainder of the year;
   e) suspension for additional period — suspension for the remainder of the year and for an additional period of not more than one year;
   f) expulsion — expulsion from the University.

2. Application for readmission: If a suspended student fails the year in which he or she was suspended and wishes to be readmitted thereafter, that student must apply for readmission.

3. Repetition: Should a student either admit or be found to have committed a second act of academic misconduct, that student shall be expelled from the University.

4. Confirmation by Rector: A sentence of suspension or expulsion is subject to confirmation by the Rector.

VI. Special Provisions Governing the Conduct of Examinations

1. Every examination paper expressly lists the materials and equipment that a student is permitted to have and use during the examination and indicates any special conditions relating to the examination.

2. Except if expressly authorized by those conducting the examination, a student in the examination area cannot speak or otherwise communicate with any person other than an invigilator.
3. A student who is suspected of academic misconduct during an examination is so informed by the invigilator and is required to leave the examination area immediately. The invigilator keeps the student's examination booklet as well as any other evidence relating to the suspected act of academic misconduct.

4. In examinations invigilated by the Registrar's Office, the student is requested in a written statement to choose one of the following options:
   a) to withdraw from the examination with the understanding that if a charge of academic misconduct is not laid or upheld, the student will be permitted to take another examination for the same course at a mutually agreed time;
   b) to continue the examination under controlled conditions in another location, in which case the invigilator provides a fresh examination booklet for the purpose and allows additional time for the examination to compensate for any time lost.

   The student is asked to sign a statement indicating which option was chosen. If the student does not indicate a choice by signing the statement, he or she is considered to have chosen to withdraw from the examination.

5. In the case of examinations not invigilated by the Registrar's Office, the student will be required to withdraw from the examination, but will be permitted to request permission to take another examination on the same subject-matter. Such permission will be granted through the Office of the Registrar, which will arrange an alternative evaluative exercise within 14 calendar days of the student having been asked to withdraw from the examination.

   If the charge of academic misconduct is not laid or is not upheld, and if another examination on the same subject-matter has not already been written, the student will be permitted to arrange, through the Office of the Registrar, to take another examination at a mutually agreed time.

6. It is the duty of an invigilator to report to the Registrar any apparent incident of suspected academic misconduct.

7. As soon as possible, the invigilator delivers a written statement setting out the grounds for his or her suspicions to the Registrar. The invigilator attaches the student's examination booklet, the student's statement, if any, and other relevant material.

8. If anyone grading an examination finds reason to suspect a student of academic misconduct, he or she delivers a written statement explaining the reasons for the suspicion to the Registrar, as soon as possible. The student's examination booklet and any other relevant material is attached.

VI. Final Provisions

1. Extension of Delays: In exceptional circumstances where the appellant can demonstrate that it was impossible to file an appeal within the prescribed delay, SACAM may allow the appeal to be filed past the deadline. If the 90 calendar day deadline for hearing a case before a Hearing Committee or SACAM falls on a date in July, August or September, the Committee concerned may decide to extend the deadline to the same date in the month of October. The Chair of a Hearing Committee or the secretary of Senate, as the case may be, notifies the student and other interested parties of the extension.

2. Written notice:
   a) Any written notice addressed to a student under this Code is sent by registered or certified mail to the last address given to the University.
   b) A student involved in proceedings under the present Code must provide a current mailing address to the University, and must notify the University promptly of any change of address.
   c) Students are advised to send all correspondence under this Code by registered or certified mail.
RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

17.1 COMPLAINT PROCEDURES
Statement of Governing Principles
The Ombuds Office
Code of Conduct (Non-Academic)
Supervisory Board

17.2 POLICY ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT
Support Mechanisms
Concordia University believes it important to set out the rights, freedoms and responsibilities of its members: i.e. its academic and non-academic staff and its students. The section which follows articulates the governing principles of those rights and responsibilities, and outlines the mandates of the Ombuds Office and the Code of Conduct (Non-Academic) designed to ensure their proper recognition. The Ombuds Office provides mechanisms for dealing informally with complaints and inquiries about University-related matters. The Code of Conduct (Non-Academic) defines procedures for receiving and responding to formal complaints, with the exception of those pertaining to sexual harassment, for which there is a specific procedure outlined in the "Policy on Sexual Harassment". (See §17.2.)

This section does not replace or supersede complaint, grievance or appeal procedures set out in any Collective Agreement signed by the University, the Code of Conduct (Academic), the University Calendars or the University Policy Manuals.

1. The University is an institution of higher education dedicated to the pursuit of truth and the advancement and dissemination of knowledge. All those who study, teach or work at the University must be concerned with maintaining the freedoms essential for those purposes.

2. All members of the University must be free to pursue their work, study, creative activity or research without undue interference. This includes freedom from any form of violence, harassment or intimidation; freedom to teach, to create and to learn; to speak freely; to associate and to assemble; to write and to publish. All members have the right to the safeguard of their dignity, reputation and honour, confidentiality of personal information, respect for property whether personal or owned by the University and access to University premises as required.

3. Members of the University shall have regard in particular for the rights of other members to: freedom from discrimination on such grounds as sex or sexual orientation, religious or political beliefs, racial or ethnic origin; freedom from violence, intimidation, and sexual harassment; the safeguard of dignity, reputation and honour; access to University premises; respect for property, whether personal or owned by the University for the benefit of the community; confidentiality of personal information.

3.1. The rules of natural justice will apply to all hearings under this code.
4. Members of the University with supervisory authority of any kind are to use such authority, both on campus and off, solely for the purposes stated or implied in University policies, and with due regard to the overall aims and purposes of the University.

5. Disciplinary authority in the University is vested in the Board of Governors. It remains the right, as well as the duty, of academic staff members and administrators to exercise disciplinary authority in areas or matters within their own jurisdiction. Faculty members are expected to take whatever immediate action is needed to ensure the continuing order of their classes and administrators to take whatever immediate action is required to ensure the proper functioning of the services or areas for which they are responsible.

A person against whom such action is taken and who believes the action unjustified may seek recourse through the Ombuds Office or the Code Administrator.

6. Only the Rector, as chief administrative officer of the University, or his or her duly appointed delegate, has the right to suspend temporarily a student or a member of the academic or non-academic staff, consequent upon action taken in line with paragraph 2 of Article 5. In the event of such suspension, procedures for final disposition of the situation will be set in motion as soon as possible.

7. All members of the University are subject to the laws of the land and have recourse to those laws. The same holds true for the University as a corporate entity. Hence, any member of the University may take legal action irrespective of the procedures cited below. Similarly, the University itself may seek legal resolution should it see fit.

8. Should any doubt or ambiguity arise regarding any provision or procedure in this document, that interpretation or procedure which appears most equitable and consistent with its governing principles and the principles of natural justice shall be adopted.

9. Whenever an official of the University is unable to exercise the functions named herein, these shall be carried out by that person's replacement.

The Role of the Ombuds Office

10. The mandate of the Ombuds Office includes the right of inquiry into the application of any policy, rule or procedure except those covered by a Collective Agreement with a certified bargaining unit. The functions of the Ombudspersons are:

a) To inquire into University-related grievances or complaints at the request of a member of the University or any person seeking to become a member, in circumstances directly affecting the application to become a member.

b) To inquire on their own initiative, if they collectively see fit, into a matter that has not been the subject of a specific grievance or complaint.

c) To bring their findings to the attention of those in authority and to make whatever recommendations they judge appropriate, and to whomever within the University they feel should receive them. Recommendations of the Ombudspersons may bear either on the actions or decisions of an individual or a group, or on the policies, rules and procedures which gave rise to them.

d) To bring to the attention of those in authority any policies, rules or procedures which appear unclear or inequitable or which might jeopardize the rights or freedoms of any member of the University. They may suggest changes to the existing policies, rules or procedures or offer advice on the development of new regulations; however, the Ombudspersons have no actual authority in regard to any policy, rule or procedure.

e) To advise members of the University community of their rights and responsibilities, and of the procedures available to pursue whatever concern or complaint they may have.

Concerns of the Ombuds Office

11. In dealing with inquiries, the Ombudspersons shall be concerned that all members of the University are dealt with and deal with others fairly; more specifically, that:

a) decisions of members of the University are made fairly and with reasonable promptness;

b) procedures used to reach decisions are adequate and the criteria and rules upon which such decisions are based are appropriate;

c) procedures and criteria used in making decisions are clearly communicated to those affected.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES • 71
Appointment to the Ombuds Office

12. There shall be one full-time and two part-time Ombudspersons. They shall be appointed by the Rector, acting on the recommendations of the Supervisory Board, Code of Conduct (Non-Academic).

13. The full-time Ombudsperson shall be appointed initially for a period of two years followed, upon recommendation of the Supervisory Board, by further terms of five years. During the fourth year of each term, the Supervisory Board shall appoint an appraiser, external to the University, who shall review the operations of the Ombuds Office and make recommendations to the Supervisory Board.

14. Part-time Ombudspersons shall be appointed for two years, renewable upon the recommendation of the Supervisory Board. The part-time Ombudspersons:
   a) shall already be in the employ of the University; and
   b) shall be partially released from their other duties or be appropriately compensated.

Procedures of the Ombuds Office

15. The Ombudspersons shall have immediate access to all University records, reports or documents other than those which cannot be released for reasons of confidentiality. Ombudspersons may appeal the decision of an officer of the University with regard to confidentiality to the Rector, unless the Rector is the official in question, in which case the appeal shall be made to the Board of Governors.

16. On the conclusion of an inquiry, the Ombudspersons shall advise the parties to a complaint of their findings and any recommendations.

17. They may refuse to take up any case where they judge their intervention would be inappropriate, and may withdraw from a case if continued involvement seems ill-advised.

18. If an Ombudsperson refuses to take up a case or withdraws from a case, he or she shall, on request provide the applicant with a written statement of the reasons.

19. Members of the Ombuds Office are free to decide who, among them shall deal with any particular inquiry or case, and whether to deal with a case individually or jointly.

20. Ombudspersons shall avoid involvement in cases where there may be conflict of interest.

Confidentiality

21. Ombudspersons shall respect the confidentiality of all applicants and consequent inquiries or recommendations.

22. Should the pursuit of an inquiry necessitate the disclosure of details that identify an applicant, the applicant shall be informed. Any disclosure shall be limited to those who have a need to know.

23. Should an applicant decide to withdraw an application in order to protect his or her anonymity, the Ombudspersons shall respect this decision.

24. The Ombudspersons shall respect the confidentiality of any confidential information or materials to which they have access.

25. Should the Ombuds Office consider that the response to its recommendations has been unsatisfactory, it is entitled to make its recommendations public, provided always that, subject to Article 22, the confidentiality of the applicants is respected.

Annual Report

26. By September 15, the Ombuds Office shall present to the community, a report covering the nature and extent of the Office's operations during the preceding academic year.

Jurisdiction

27. Any member of the University or any person seeking to become a member, in circumstances directly affecting the application to become a member, may make a complaint about a University-related matter under the Code.
28. A complaint may be made by a member individually or on the University's behalf.

29. A complaint may be made against the University itself, or against a department of the University, or against an individual member of the University. (Persons working on University premises under contractual agreements between the University and their direct employers, such as catering and maintenance employees, are not members of the University. Complaints against such persons should be lodged with their employers or with the University administrator responsible for the contract.)

30. A complaint may be made about any violation of the governing principles of this Code taking place on University premises, be they rented or owned, or in the course of any activities conducted by, or on behalf of the University, on other premises.

31. The complaint normally shall be delivered as soon as possible, usually within two months of the alleged act, incident or other cause or its discovery. This period may be extended at the discretion of the Code Administrator.

32. The Code Administrator shall refuse to receive a complaint or to continue the processing of a complaint when the complainant, the respondent or the cause of the complaint itself does not come within the jurisdiction of the Code.

33. The Code Administrator shall refuse to receive a complaint when the Code Administrator deems that a complainant does not have a direct involvement in the complaint or that the complaint is frivolous, or made in bad faith.

34. In case of such refusal, the Code Administrator shall notify the complainant and give the reasons for the refusal.

35. Within fourteen (14) working days of the date of transmission of the Code Administrator's reasoned refusal, the complainant may appeal the decision of the Code Administrator to the Hearing Board by delivering a statement setting out the reasons for the appeal to the Office of the Code Administrator.

36. Upon receipt of such an appeal, the Code Administrator shall forthwith refer the complaint, the statement of appeal, and the notice of refusal to the Hearing Board which may confirm, or reverse the decision of the Code Administrator.

37. Within seven (7) working days of the receipt of an appeal, the Hearing Board shall either confirm or reverse the Code Administrator's decision to refuse the complaint. If the Hearing Board confirms the Code Administrator's decision it shall notify the complainant and the Code Administrator. If the Hearing Board reverses the Code Administrator's decision, it shall notify the complainant and the Code Administrator who shall then proceed with the complaint in the normal way, except that the Code Administrator shall not investigate the complaint personally.

Appointment and Responsibilities

38. There shall be a Code Administrator appointed by the Rector on the recommendation of the Supervisory Board, Code of Conduct.

39. The Code Administrator shall receive all formal complaints, ensure that all formal procedures under this Code are properly followed, and explain the procedures to all concerned parties.

40. The Code Administrator shall establish and call Hearing Boards.

41. Any delay mentioned in this Code may be extended in exceptional circumstances by the Code Administrator.

42. The Code Administrator shall present to the community an annual report covering the nature and extent of the operations during the preceding year.

Complaint Procedures

43. It is the policy of the University to encourage attempts to resolve complaints informally or through the normal administrative processes of the University. Recourse to the formal process described below should be utilized only when the less formal or administrative process has failed to resolve the complaint.
Informal Resolution Process

44. If no previous attempt to resolve the complaint through normal administrative channels has been made, the Code Administrator may attempt to resolve it personally or may refer the complaint to the Appropriate Authority for informal resolution. With the parties' agreement, the Code Administrator or the Appropriate Authority may request the assistance of a mediator.

45. If, within fourteen (14) working days, a resolution is reached, the terms of the resolution shall be set out in a report which both parties shall sign, agreeing to abide by the terms and conditions set out in the report. A file containing a copy of the report shall be maintained by the Code Administrator until such time as the terms and conditions contained in the report are fulfilled.

46. Failure to comply with any of the terms of the resolution shall constitute grounds for a formal complaint under the Code.

47. If, within fourteen (14) working days, no resolution is reached:
   a) the delay may be extended for another period of fourteen (14) working days with the consent of the Code Administrator and the parties; or,
   b) the Code Administrator shall refer the complaint to the Hearing Board.

48. Unless otherwise stated in the report, the resolution shall be kept confidential.

Formal Resolution Process

49. Any person who wishes to make a formal complaint shall deliver a written, signed and dated complaint to the Code Administrator.

50. The party complained against (hereinafter called the respondent) shall be identified and the nature of the complaint shall be stated with precision, detailing date, time and place.

51. The Code Administrator shall forward a copy of the complaint to the respondent.

52. Complaints shall be dealt with as soon as possible, and generally within fourteen (14) working days of receipt.

Notice

53. The convener of any meeting or hearing shall give all concerned parties at least seven (7) working days notice in writing of such meeting or hearing.

54. In the case of a complaint about an incident which took place in a University residence, and where one or more of the parties lives in residence, a hearing or meeting may be held with only two (2) working days notice to the parties and a decision delivered within three working days.

Hearings

55. All hearings shall be conducted with due regard to the principles of natural justice.

56. All hearings shall be closed and confidential unless the parties have consented in writing to the attendance of members of the University community, or unless the Hearing or Appeal Board, at the request of one of the parties, decides to admit members of the University community.

57. The parties shall be given the opportunity to make any relevant representations, in person or in writing as they see fit, and, at the Hearing Board level, to present witnesses.

58. The parties have the right to be accompanied by an adviser from within the University who may speak on their behalf.

Decisions

59. All decisions rendered under this Code shall be reasoned, signed and dated.

Appropriate Authority

60. When the Code Administrator refers a complaint to an appropriate authority for informal resolution, the following shall apply:
   a) A complaint against a member of faculty or a person employed in a faculty or the School of Graduate Studies shall be forwarded to the appropriate Academic Dean.
b) A complaint against a student shall be forwarded to the appropriate Academic Dean, or to the director of Continuing Education.

c) A complaint against the Rector shall be forwarded to the Chairman or the Chairwoman of the Board of Governors.

d) A complaint against any other employee of the University shall be forwarded to the senior administrator (Rector, Vice-Rector, Secretary-General, Associate Vice-Rector or director as the case may be) to whom the person complained against reports most directly.

61. If for any reason, such as bias or conflict of interest, the Appropriate Authority declines to or is unable to deal with a complaint, the Code Administrator shall refer it to the Appropriate Authority's superior.

62. The Appropriate Authority shall acknowledge receipt of the complaint as expeditiously as possible and shall send copies of the acknowledgement to the parties to the complaint and the Code Administrator.

Hearing Board

63. The Hearing Board shall consist of three (3) persons drawn from a standing panel of twenty-four (24) members, comprised of three separate pools of six (6) academic staff members (up to two of whom may be part-time faculty), six (6) non-academic staff members and twelve (12) students. The members of the Hearing Board will select a chair from amongst themselves.

a) If both the complainant and the respondent are students, the Hearing Board shall be composed of three (3) students.

b) If both the complainant and the respondent are academic staff members, the Hearing Board shall be composed of three (3) academic staff members.

c) If both the complainant and the respondent are members of the non-academic staff, the Hearing Board shall be composed of three (3) non-academic staff members.

d) In all other cases, the Hearing Board shall be composed of one representative of the same constituency as the complainant, one representative of the same constituency as the respondent and one other person from the pools.

64. The Standing Panel shall be established in the following manner:

a) The pool of students shall be named, after a public call for candidates, by a nominating committee composed of four representatives of the Concordia University Students' Association and one representative of the Graduate Students' Association.

b) The pool of academic staff members shall be named by the Concordia University Faculty Association and the Concordia University Part-time Faculty Association.

c) The pool of non-academic staff members shall be named by the Concordia University Electoral College.

d) All appointments shall be for one year renewable. Every effort shall be made to achieve gender balance for each pool.

65. The decision of a Hearing Board shall be by majority vote.

66. The Hearing Board shall deliver its decision to the Code Administrator who shall forward it to the parties.

Sanctions

67. The Code Administrator, the Appropriate Authority, the mediator, or the Hearing Board may impose one or more of the following sanctions:

a) a verbal or written reprimand;

b) imposed conditions, with or without a deposit not exceeding $200.00, returnable at a specific date. Such deposits may be forfeited should any conditions be violated;

c) a fine not exceeding $100.00;

d) payment not exceeding $1000.00 as compensation for injury or damage to or loss of property;

e) exclusion from an area or function of the University for a stated period of time. If this exceeds twelve months, the sanction shall be reviewed by the Hearing Board at the end of each twelve-month period. (This sanction does not encompass the authority to suspend from any academic activity);

f) a combination of any of the above;

g) community service, as an alternative to any or all of the above; or

h) subject to confirmation by the Rector, suspension, expulsion or dismissal.
68. Should the sanction be covered by a Collective Agreement or a University policy, the provisions of that Collective Agreement or policy shall apply.

69. In the event that the respondent fails to comply with any sanction imposed under this Code, the Code Administrator, after notifying the respondent, may impose additional conditions or sanctions as mentioned in Article 66, or refer the matter to the Hearing Board for hearing and determination of additional sanctions.

Appeals

70. The complainant or the person complained against wishing to appeal the decision or the sanction or both shall apply in writing to a panel of three (3) or five (5) members of the Appeals Committee of the Board of Governors for the authorization to lodge an appeal. The said panel shall decide whether an appeal may be heard, having regard to the circumstances of each case. The application in writing shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Appeals Committee within fourteen (14) days of the rendering of the decision appealed against. The panel to hear a specific application shall be appointed, and the number of members determined, by the Chair of the Appeals Committee.

71. Such a request for authorization to appeal may be based only on the grounds of discovery of new evidence following the rendering of the decision of the Hearing Board, or the presence of serious and prejudicial procedural defects or a breach of natural justice. The written request shall state in clear and precise terms the grounds on which the appeal is based.

72. If the authorization to appeal is granted, the appeal shall be heard either by the same panel or a new panel, as determined by the Chair of the Appeals Committee.

73. The Appeals Committee shall be a standing committee of the Board of Governors, whose mandate is to hear the appeals upon authorization granted by it, in accordance with the above paragraphs.

74. When an appeal has been authorized by the Appeals Committee in accordance with the above provision, the Secretary of the said Appeals Committee shall send without delay copies of the decision authorizing the appeal to the opposite party and to the Code Administrator.

75. The Appeals Committee has the authority to confirm, reverse or modify the decision under appeal or to require a new hearing of the complaint.

76. The decision of the Appeals Committee shall be signed, dated and reasoned and shall be delivered by the Secretary of the Board of Appeal to the Code Administrator and all interested parties.

77. The decision of the Appeals Committee shall be final.

Supervisory Board

78. The Supervisory Board shall be concerned with all aspects of the Code of Conduct (Non-Academic) and the University Ombuds Office.

79. There shall be seven (7) members appointed by the Board of Governors; two (2) student representatives, two (2) academic staff representatives, two non-academic staff representatives, with a delegate of the Rector serving as Chair. The student members shall be nominated jointly by the student associations, the academic staff members by the Concordia University Faculty Association, and the staff members by the Concordia University Electoral College.

80. Appointments shall be for two years, and shall be renewable.

81. The Supervisory Board shall review the reports of both the Code Administrator and the Ombuds Office, and make any recommendations it judges appropriate to the Rector and Board of Governors, including recommendations for amendment to the Code.

82. A member of the University community may apply to the Supervisory Board to review the operation of any aspects of the Code of Conduct (Non-Academic) or the University Ombuds Office. In such instances, the responsibility of the Supervisory Board shall be to ensure that the procedures have been properly followed.
83. Three (3) members of the Supervisory Board may require at any time that the Board meet to review any aspect of these procedures.

17.2 POLICY ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Statement of Purpose
1. The University considers sexual harassment in all its forms, whether subtle or overt, to be a serious offence. Sexual harassment is a form of discrimination, of violence or both. It infringes on fundamental human rights and undermines personal dignity and integrity. It interferes with the work, study and academic environment of the University.

2. Concordia University endeavours at all times to provide a working and learning environment that is supportive of scholarship and research and of the fair treatment of all members of the University. The basis for interaction among all members of the University must be mutual respect, trust, cooperation and understanding.

3. The University does not condone behaviour, such as sexual harassment, that undermines the freedom, dignity, trust or productivity of any faculty, staff, or student.

4. Although men and women can be victims of sexual harassment, women are most often the targets of these practices. Sexual harassment can be a form of abuse of authority, and, in the case of women a manifestation of the perception of women's subordinated societal status. It can be exacerbated by discrimination on other grounds such as disability, race, religion, ethnic origin or sexual orientation. It is a serious equity issue.

5. The University has the legal and moral responsibility to ensure an environment free from sexual harassment for all its members.

6. To fulfill this responsibility, the University defines, in this policy, the term sexual harassment, provides a choice of procedures for resolution, and outlines a range of disciplinary measures up to and including dismissal or expulsion. An infrastructure to promote the prevention of incidents of sexual harassment through education is established.

Definition*
7. Conduct of a sexual nature such as, but not limited to, sexual assault, verbal abuse or threats of a sexual nature, unwelcome sexual invitations or requests, demands for sexual favours, or unwelcome and repeated innuendos or taunting about a person’s body, appearance or sexual orientation, constitutes sexual harassment when:
   a) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly, a term or condition of an individual’s employment, academic status or academic accreditation; or,
   b) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment, or for academic performance, status or accreditation decisions affecting such individual; or,
   c) such conduct interferes with an individual’s work or academic performance; or,
   d) such conduct creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working or academic environment.

*This definition is the same as that adopted in May 1989 by the Canadian Association of University Teachers (CAUT) in its “Policy on Professional Ethics and Professional Relationships”.

Jurisdiction*
8. The following individuals or bodies may initiate a complaint:
   a) any member of the University;
   b) the University, on its own behalf or on behalf of one of its members, if it chooses hearings as the procedure for resolution;
   c) any duly constituted University association or union, on behalf of one of its members, if it chooses hearings as the procedure for resolution; and,
   d) any person seeking to become a member of the University, in circumstances directly affecting one’s application to become a member.

9. The following individuals or bodies may be the subject of a complaint:
   a) any member of the University;
   b) the University; and,
   c) any duly constituted University association or union.
Members of the University are defined as faculty, staff and students.

Complaints may be made about any violation to this policy taking place on University premises, be they rented or owned, or in the course of any activities conducted by or on behalf of the University on other premises.

Reprihal or threat of reprisal against a complainant or against a person who has participated in proceedings under this policy, whether the complaint was substantiated or unsubstantiated, may constitute grounds for a complaint under this policy or under the Code of Conduct (Non-Academic).

Complaints about behaviours, other than sexual harassment, which violate the University's governing principles fall under the jurisdiction of the Code of Conduct (Non-Academic) or of the Ombuds Office.

General Principles

13. Complaints shall be made in writing and complainants shall be willing to be identified to the respondent in order for resolution to occur.

14. The complainant shall choose the procedure for resolution of the complaint; this choice is without any future prejudice.

15. Both complainants and respondents have the right to choose a member of the University, called an advisor, to accompany them throughout the proceedings.

16. Failure to comply with a resolution agreed upon as a result of the mediation or the administrative resolution procedures may result in disciplinary action by the University.

17. A complaint may be withdrawn at any time prior to the conclusion of the hearing procedure, thereby terminating the procedures.

General Procedures

1. The term "days" shall refer to working days.

2. All deadlines are binding, except where the possibility of extension is stipulated herein.

3. A detailed complaint shall be made in writing to the Sexual Harassment Officer as soon as possible, but no later than within nine (9) months of the alleged incident or of its discovery.

4. The complainant shall make a written request, within five (5) days of the filing of the complaint, to proceed with one of the following procedures for resolution:
   a) administrative resolution; or,
   b) mediation; or,
   c) hearing procedure.

5. If administrative resolution fails, the complainant may opt either for mediation or for the hearing procedure. If mediation fails, the complainant may only choose the hearing procedure. Once a complainant selects the hearing procedure as the option for resolution, there is no further recourse upon its conclusion, except for appeal.

Administrative Resolution

6. A complainant may request, in writing, administrative resolution by an appropriate authority as the first stage in the process of resolution.

7. Within five (5) days of receipt of the request for administrative resolution, the Sexual Harassment Officer shall forward a copy of the complaint and of the request to the respondent and to the Appropriate Authority.

8. The Appropriate Authority is:
   a) the Academic Dean, in the case of a complaint against a faculty member or a person employed in a faculty or in the Division of Graduate Studies; or,
   b) the Academic Dean or the director of Continuing Education, in the case of a complaint against a student; or,
   c) the Chairman or Chairwoman of the Board of Governors, in the case of a complaint against the Rector; or,
   d) the Senior Administrator (Rector, Vice-Rector, Secretary-General, Associate Vice-Rector or director, as the case may be) to whom the respondent reports most directly, in the case of a complaint against any other employee of the University.

9. The Appropriate Authority shall assist the parties in the settlement of the complaint as expeditiously as possible, but in any case not more than twenty (20) days after receiving the request for administrative resolution. This delay may be extended, in exceptional circumstances, by the Sexual Harassment Officer.

10. The Appropriate Authority may consult with the Sexual Harassment Officer in order to resolve the complaint.

11. Administrative resolution may result in a mutually acceptable resolution or in failure to resolve.

12. If a mutually acceptable resolution is agreed upon, the Appropriate Authority shall write a report detailing the steps taken to resolve the complaint and have it signed by the complainant and the respondent within five (5) days of completion of the process. The report of resolution shall immediately be sent to both parties and to the Sexual Harassment Officer.

13. If there is failure to resolve, the Appropriate Authority shall write a detailed report to this effect, within five (5) days of completion of the process, and shall immediately send the report to the Sexual Harassment Officer and to both parties.

14. If there is failure to resolve and no additional written request for resolution through the use of another procedure is received from the complainant within ten (10) days of the date of transmission of the report of failure to resolve, the complaint shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

Mediation

15. A complainant may request, in writing, mediation in the following circumstances:
   a) as the first stage in the process of resolution; or,
   b) if administrative resolution fails.

16. In the case of 15b., a complainant shall make a request for mediation to the Sexual Harassment Officer, within ten (10) days of the date of transmission of the report from the Appropriate Authority that administrative resolution has failed.

17. Within five (5) days of receipt of the request for mediation, the Sexual Harassment Officer shall forward a copy of the complaint and of the request to the respondent, and shall seek an agreement from the respondent to participate in mediation. The respondent shall reply within ten (10) days of the date of transmission of this request.

18. If the respondent has not agreed to participate in mediation within fifteen (15) days of the date of transmission of the request to participate, the Sexual Harassment Officer shall write a factual report of failure to resolve, and send copies to both parties.

19. If both parties consent to mediation, the Officer shall provide them with a trained Mediator, within ten (10) days of agreement to mediate.

20. The mediation process shall be concluded as expeditiously as possible, but in any case not more than twenty (20) days after the appointment of a Mediator. This delay may be extended, in exceptional circumstances, by the Sexual Harassment Officer.

21. If a mutually acceptable resolution is agreed upon, the Mediator shall write a report and have it signed by the complainant and the respondent within five (5) days of completion of the process. The report of resolution shall immediately be sent to both parties and to the Sexual Harassment Officer.

22. If a resolution is not reached, the Mediator shall issue a report to this effect, within five (5) days of completion of the process, and shall immediately send copies to the complainant, the respondent and the Sexual Harassment Officer.

23. If there is failure to resolve and no additional written request for resolution through the use of the hearing procedure is received from the complainant within ten (10) days of the date of transmission of the report of failure to resolve, the complaint shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.
Hearing Procedure

24. A complainant may request, in writing, the hearing procedure before a Sexual Harassment Hearing Board in the following circumstances:
   a) as the first stage in the process of resolution; or,
   b) if administrative resolution fails; or,
   c) if mediation fails.

25. In the case of 24b. or 24c., the complainant shall make a request to the Sexual Harassment Officer, within ten (10) days of the date of transmission of the report of failure to resolve.

26. Within five (5) days of receiving a request for the hearing procedure, the Sexual Harassment Officer shall forward a copy of the complaint and of the request to the respondent and to the Code Administrator.

27. The Standing Panel, consisting of pools of students, staff and faculty, as established under the Code of Conduct (Non-Academic), shall receive appropriate training.

28. Members of the Standing Panel shall elect from among themselves a Chair to preside over the Sexual Harassment Hearing Boards. The Chair shall be a permanent, non-voting member of every Hearing Board established to hear complaints of sexual harassment and shall:
   a) maintain order during the hearings;
   b) answer procedural questions;
   c) schedule hearings;
   d) grant or deny delays; and,
   e) arrange to tape-record the hearings.

29. Within five (5) days of receipt of a request for the hearing procedure, the Code Administrator shall request a written response to the nature of the complaint from the respondent. The respondent shall forward his or her reply within ten (10) days of the date of transmission of this request.

30. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of a request for the hearing procedure, the Code Administrator shall constitute a four-person Sexual Harassment Hearing Board from the Standing Panel. The Hearing Board shall be composed of:
   a) the Chair of the Sexual Harassment Hearing Boards;
   b) one member from a pool that has been selected by the complainant. If so desired, the gender of the member may also be selected by the complainant;
   c) one member from a pool that has been selected by the respondent. If so desired, the gender of the member may also be selected by the respondent; and,
   d) one member selected by the Code Administrator from any pool.

31. Prior to the hearing, the Code Administrator shall:
   a) inform both parties of the Hearing Board’s composition;
   b) inform both parties and members of the Hearing Board of the date and time of the hearing, at least five (5) days in advance;
   c) provide both parties and members of the Hearing Board with a list of the advisors and a tentative list of witnesses; and,
   d) provide both parties and members of the Hearing Board with copies of the complaint and the response.

32. All hearings shall be closed and confidential unless one or both parties petitions the Hearing Board to have an open hearing, in which case the Hearing Board may decide, at its discretion, to admit members of the University.

33. At the beginning of the hearings, the Hearing Board may grant, at its discretion, intervenor status to the University or to any duly constituted University association or union, and may restrict their comments in order to avoid duplication of testimony.

34. All Sexual Harassment Hearing Boards shall adhere to the principles of natural justice including, minimally, the rights to:
   a) make oral or written statements;
   b) object to the choice of Hearing Board members for valid reasons;
   c) defend oneself;
   d) present witnesses;
e) offer rebuttal; and,
f) make representations on sanctions and remedies.
Furthermore, advisors have the right to speak on behalf of the party they are accompanying.

35. The hearing shall be concluded as expeditiously as possible, but in any case not more than forty (40) days after the Hearing Board has been constituted. This delay may be extended, in exceptional circumstances, by the Chair of the Sexual Harassment Hearing Boards.

36. Within ten (10) days of concluding the hearings, the Hearing Board shall write a report and shall decide if there is clear and convincing evidence that sexual harassment as defined in Article 7 has occurred, thus constituting a violation of this policy. The burden of proof is on the complainant.

37. Decisions of the Hearing Boards shall be made by a majority vote.

38. Reports of the Hearing Boards shall present a summary of the facts, shall include reasons for the decision or recommendations, and shall be signed and dated. They shall immediately be sent to both parties, the Sexual Harassment Officer and the Vice-Rector responsible for the application of this policy.

39. The Vice-Rector responsible for the application of this policy shall be designated by the Rector.

40. If a violation of this policy has occurred, the Hearing Board shall request that the Sexual Harassment Officer forward any records of resolution that have been filed on the respondent, in this case or in any other case, and shall use this information in recommending appropriate sanctions and remedies.

41. Within ten (10) days of the date of transmission of the decision of violation of this policy, the Hearing Board shall provide the opportunity to both parties to submit written or oral comments on appropriate sanctions and remedies.

42. The Hearing Board shall write a report to the Vice-Rector to recommend appropriate sanctions and remedies within fifteen (15) days of the date of the decision of violation of this policy.

43. Within five (5) days of receiving the recommendations, the Vice-Rector shall render a decision on the appropriate sanctions and remedies, and shall immediately inform both parties, the Sexual Harassment Officer and the Chair of the Sexual Harassment Hearing Boards.

44. The Vice-Rector shall release the above decision, without nominative information, to the University newspapers if the decision is not appealed.

Sanctions and Remedies
45. If a violation of this policy has occurred, the Hearing Board may recommend to the Vice-Rector that one or more of the following sanctions be taken against the respondent:

a) written reprimand or warning, copy to be kept in the personnel or student file;
b) imposed conditions, with or without a deposit not exceeding $200, returnable at a specific date. Such deposits may be forfeited should any conditions be violated;
c) a fine not exceeding $100;
d) payment not exceeding $1000 to compensate the complainant for injury or damage to or loss of property;
e) exclusion from an area or function of the University for a stated period of time. If this exceeds twelve (12) months, the sanction shall be reviewed by the Hearing Board at the end of each twelve (12) month period. This sanction does not encompass the authority to suspend from any academic activity;
f) probation;
g) apology, as an alternative to any or all of the above;
h) community service, as an alternative to any or all of the above;
i) suspension, dismissal or expulsion, subject to confirmation by the Rector;
j) a combination of any of the above; or,
k) any other appropriate sanction the Hearing Board deems necessary to guarantee that the behaviour is not repeated.
46. Should the sanction be covered by a collective agreement or a University policy, the provisions of that collective agreement or policy shall apply, including grievance and arbitration procedures on sanctions.

47. If a violation of this policy has occurred, the Hearing Board may recommend to the Vice-Rector that one or more of the following remedies be taken in favour of the complainant:
   a) reinstatement in courses;
   b) reinstatement in a position, salary adjustment or promotion;
   c) reassessment of an essay or final grade;
   d) counselling;
   e) apology;
   f) receipt of payment for compensatory damages;
   g) receipt of payment from a fine;
   h) a combination of any of the above; or,
   i) any other remedy the Hearing Board deems appropriate.

Appeals
48. Appeals shall be heard in accordance with the procedures established under the Code of Conduct (Non-Academic).

49. The Vice-Rector shall release the decision of the Appeals Committee, without nominative information, to the University newspapers.

Sexual Harassment Office
1. A Sexual Harassment Office shall be established to allow for the centralization of education and complaint services relative to sexual harassment.

2. The mandate of the Office shall be to promote actively an environment free from sexual harassment at the University.

3. For this purpose, a Sexual Harassment Officer shall be designated and shall report to the Office of the Rector.

4. The Officer shall provide educational services and shall carry out the responsibilities enumerated in this policy. More specifically, the duties of the Officer are to:
   a) increase awareness on the issue of sexual harassment and provide extensive education to members of the University;
   b) publicize the Policy on Sexual Harassment to the University community, explaining the University’s responsibility to act in such cases;
   c) chair and participate actively in the Advisory Committee on Sexual Harassment;
   d) assist and advise complainants and respondents involved in cases of sexual harassment;
   e) maintain confidentiality with respect to nominative information in complaints of sexual harassment;
   f) provide appropriate training to the members of the Standing Panel established under the Code of Conduct (Non-Academic);
   g) provide information to Mediators on the University’s employment practices, policies and collective agreements;
   h) consult with senior administrators who may be involved in the resolution of sexual harassment complaints;
   i) maintain statistics on requests for information, advice and assistance;
   j) maintain confidential files on all complaints; in cases where a complaint is withdrawn before a report of resolution is made, the name of the respondent shall be deleted;
   k) maintain a file on all records of resolution, with nominative information deleted; and,
   l) prepare an Annual Report for the University to be submitted to the Office of the Rector and to the Advisory Committee on Sexual Harassment.

Advisory Committee on Sexual Harassment
5. A permanent Advisory Committee on Sexual Harassment shall be established.

6. The mandate of the Committee shall be to:
   a) assist in the development of educational programmes;
   b) make recommendations on the continued development of the Policy on Sexual Harassment.
Harassment;
c) receive and review the Annual Report of the Sexual Harassment Officer.

7. The Advisory Committee shall be formed of representatives from different constituent groups of the University.

8. Appointments shall be made for one year and shall be renewable.

18 STUDENT LIFE AND STUDENT SERVICES

18.1 STUDENT LIFE AND STUDENT SERVICES

Student Services at Concordia provides students with programmes and services to enhance their academic achievement and promote their personal development as responsible, confident, well-rounded individuals. The staff is dedicated to creating a positive learning environment which values diversity and minimizes anxiety. Student Services recognizes that all development, both intellectual and personal, is affected by a number of circumstances: financial, cultural, physical, psychological. A wide range of activities and services helps students to cope with challenges in these and other areas. Student Services also acts as advocates for students. The overall aim of all programmes is to ensure that students can make the most of their university experience.

18.1.2 Concordia Council on Student Life (CCSL)

The Council, a body responsible for Student Services programmes, policies, and budgets, studies the range of student life on both campuses. It is composed of nine students, one faculty member, and eight members of the Student Services staff. The Associate Vice-Rector, Services (Student Life) chairs the Council. Its meetings are open to all members of the University community.

18.2 DEAN OF STUDENTS

Student associations and groups, of whatever nature, are one of the primary means by which students can relate meaningfully to the institution. By providing liaison with and support to student groups and their governing bodies, the Dean of Students encourages students in the conduct of their own collective affairs, and facilitates the growth of student associations and the active involvement in them by students.

18.2.1 Social and Cultural Activities

Orientation
Orientation is designed to familiarize new students with the various services and facilities available to them, and to help new students resolve any problems that may be encountered during their introduction to university life.

Social and Cultural Activities
A wide variety of social and cultural events is presented regularly by various student organizations and departments. The Concordia orchestra and choir are open to students, and they perform several concerts annually. There is a students’ cafeteria and pub on each campus. The Loyola Campus Centre also provides lounge facilities and a games room.

18.2.2 Residences and Off-Campus Housing

RESIDENCES—Loyola Campus Only
Two buildings provide on-campus accommodation for 250 students. Hingston Hall has a modern dormitory style while Langley Hall has traditional apartment-styled rooms. Both halls are co-ed with the exception of an all-women section in Langley. Rooms are furnished.
Communal kitchens and public telephones are on each floor. Lounges have colour T.V.'s while games rooms have pool and ping pong tables. Laundry facilities and personal mailboxes are located in each building. Many activities and outings are organized for resident students. By law, students are required to sign leases. These leases will follow the academic year (September to May). Students wishing to contract for only one semester can apply for special arrangements.

Residence Fees
Room rates are the same at both Hingston and Langley Halls. The 1991-92 room rates were as follows: (These rates do NOT include meal service.)

- Single Room: $1,830.45 ($229 a month)
- Double Room: $1,582.35 ($199 per person a month)

While effort will be made to meet special requests for specific rooms or particular locations, assignments will depend upon availability of space. Since the number of rooms is very limited, applications should reach the director as soon as possible. The deadline for applications is March 1. Students applying after that date will be placed on a waiting list. Since acceptance to the University does not guarantee admission to residence, a separate application for on-campus housing must be sent to:

Director of Residences
Concordia University – Loyola Campus
Hingston Hall, Room: HA 156
7141 Sherbrooke Street West
Montréal, Québec, H4B 1R6

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING
A computerized housing list is available at CUSA, Hall Building, Room: H 637, (514) 848-7474.

18.3 ADVOCACY AND SUPPORT SERVICES
Supporting the self-development of students in exercising their own rights, working towards an environment which is open to constructive criticism, advocating against discrimination and encouraging responsible change is the challenge Advocacy and Support Services presents to students through the services of the following units.

18.3.1 Legal Information Services
Advice and help are offered to students requiring assistance on matters relating to their legal rights. An appointment to see a lawyer can be arranged. Commissioners of Oaths are also available.

Loyola Campus
Central Building, Room: CC 326
(514) 848-4960

18.3.2 Child Care
Child Care Services are offered for children of students, faculty, and staff. On the Sir George Williams Campus parents may enrol children two and a half to five years of age in the Garderie Concordia. Application forms and details may be obtained at the Information Desk in the Hall Building or at the centre. La Garderie Les P'tits Profs is located on the Loyola Campus. This “family centre” has a capacity for 37 children: five infants from three to 19 months, and 32 children from 18 months and over. For more information about this child care service please contact the centre directly.

Physical activity is an important component of student life and it provides many opportunities for individual growth and development. Recreation and Athletics offers a complete and diversified programme in order to provide an opportunity for all students to participate in a physical activity of their choice. The principles of fair play and equality of opportunity guide all programme activities.

Fitness, recreational, and skill development programmes for men and women operate on both campuses under the supervision of professionally trained instructors. These activities provide a forum for physical fitness, structured participation, and low intensity competition. The interuniversity sport programme is primarily for students with playing experience. Graduate as well as undergraduate students pursuing studies on a full-time basis, and meeting the requirements of the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union, are eligible to represent Concordia in interuniversity competition. Although Concordia has fielded national championship teams, the focus of the interuniversity programme continues to be the development of academic and athletics excellence. Towards this end, Recreation and Athletics offers a comprehensive academic athlete support programme to all student-athletes involved in competitive teams.

The south campus is the focal point of all fitness, recreation, and sport activities on the Loyola Campus. This facility includes full-length playing fields and a fitness and recreation centre complete with an ice arena, gymnasium, weight training and exercise rooms. The Sir George Williams intramural programme is centred in the Victoria School gymnasium.

18.7 FINANCIAL AID AND AWARDS OFFICE

General Information
The Financial Aid and Awards Office maintains constant staff coverage to assist students who are seeking financial assistance, and explain existing regulations. Students are encouraged to make use of the resources available to them.

Graduate Awards Office
The Graduate Awards Office assists students who are seeking financial support for study or research leading to an advanced degree. A "Guide to Awards for Graduate Studies" is published by the office and is available to students seeking such assistance. Most awards are in the form of scholarships or fellowships which normally do not require repayment. These awards are usually designed to cover books, tuition, basic living expenses, and in some cases, travel to and from the University.

For further information, contact the Graduate Awards Office at 2145 Mackay Street (basement floor).

Detailed information can be found in a government-published booklet "Rules for Awards of Student Loans and Bursaries". This booklet is available at the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

The individual student has full responsibility for communicating with the government, and making all the necessary arrangements to process his/her application form. All announcements concerning deadlines, conditions, and awards will be posted, upon receipt, on information boards located in the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

All eligible students are expected to apply for, and accept, the maximum loan and bursary. Students should note that financial assistance is limited, and they are strongly advised to weigh their financial position at the start of each academic year. An inability to meet the expenses involved can reflect directly upon academic performance and place the student's career in jeopardy. The basic principle of awarding financial aid is that the primary obligation in paying for an education rests with the students and their parents. This means that a student is expected to have savings from summer employment and that parents must contribute according to their ability. The Financial Aid and Awards Office exists solely to assist students and to help them find financial aid should it be required.
Eligibility
Students are eligible for government assistance if they meet the following conditions: 1) Canadian Citizen or Permanent Resident; 2) domiciled and residing in Québec for one year (excluding residents of other provinces who move to Québec to pursue their full-time studies); 3) must be enrolled full-time with their principal occupation being the pursuit of a course of study recognized by the Ministry of Education and lasting at least 13 weeks per session. Full-time credit load for undergraduate students is defined as a 12-credit minimum per term. In addition, the student must not have received assistance for a period exceeding:
   a) 10 semesters of university studies towards a Bachelor’s degree;
   b) 14 semesters of university studies towards two Bachelor’s or professional degrees;
   c) Nine semesters of university studies towards a Master’s degree;
   d) 12 semesters of university studies towards a Doctorate degree.
The periods described above are not cumulative but are independent of each other. A student may not receive assistance for more than 22 semesters of full-time study.

Deadlines
In order to expedite the processing of applications for financial aid, thereby accelerating the delivery of loan certificates and bursary cheques to educational institutions, the Direction générale de l’aide financière aux étudiants has set deadlines for submission of application forms as follows:
May 31: for all students who SUBMITTED a loan and bursary application form for the previous school year
June 30: for all students who DID NOT SUBMIT a loan and bursary application for the previous school year
OR: within 45 days of the date of the student’s letter of acceptance from the educational institution he/she will attend, PROVIDING this letter was sent out after May 15. A copy of the letter of acceptance must be included with the application form.
The postmark shall serve as proof of the date on which the student’s application for financial aid was mailed.

PHYSICALLY DISABLED STUDENTS
Students in any faculty, who are Canadian Citizens and have been resident and domiciled in Québec for one year, may apply for a bursary if they have suffered from poliomyelitis, tuberculosis, certain forms of cardiac trouble, or any other severe physical disability. Applications are made to the Financial Aid and Awards Office. Further information is available at Services for Disabled Students.

SECOND LANGUAGE STUDIES BURSARIES
This programme is intended for college and university (undergraduate) students, both French-speaking and English-speaking, who wish to learn their second language by immersion in an environment where that language is dominant. This programme is funded by the Department of the Secretary of State in accordance with the federal/provincial agreements on the official languages in education and is administered by the Direction générale de l’aide financière aux étudiants of the Ministère de l’enseignement supérieur et de la science.

Eligibility Criteria:
1. Applicants must be Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents, and meet one of the following conditions concerning “residence” in the province of Québec:
   a) The applicant’s permanent residence or parents’ residence must be further than 140 kilometres of distance from the institution the applicant is attending.
   b) Be unmarried and considered to be dependents of their parents if the latter resided in Québec at the time the applicants applied for a bursary. However, unmarried applicants whose parents take up residence in another Canadian province do not lose their Québec resident status, provided that they continue to reside in Québec for the purpose of undertaking or continuing their studies.
   c) Be married students or independent unmarried students or unmarried students whose place of residence cannot be established on the basis of that of their parents (for example, if their parents are deceased, missing, or reside outside Canada), provided that:
      i) the students already have resident status when they become independent
      OR
      ii) the province of Québec was the students’ last place of residence for a period of 12 consecutive months, excluding time devoted to full-time studies at an educational institution. However, married students who cannot establish Québec resident status are considered to hold such status provided that they and their spouse have their principal residence in Québec and are enrolled in full-time studies at an educational institution, AND that their spouse have Québec resident status, and an agreement exists between Québec and the province where they and their spouse have resident status.

2. Applicants must have applied for admission as full-time students to Canadian educational institutions located in areas favourable to the development of their second language.

3. In the upcoming school year, applicants must be enrolled as full-time students for two consecutive terms in programmes of studies at the college or university level (undergraduate) in which at least 75% of the courses are taught in their second language.

4. The applicants’ mother tongue must be either French or English, and is determined by the language spoken at home. In the case of individuals who speak neither French nor English at home, two years of previous studies in one of the official languages shall establish the applicants’ mother tongue.

5. Applicants must not be participants in the second-language monitor programme for the year in question.

6. Applicants must not have completed two or more years of full-time studies in their second language since the start of their schooling.

Graduate students enrolled in a Québec university, and participating in an official student exchange programme with another Canadian university, may receive this bursary provided they fulfill the other eligibility requirements.

Application forms are available at the Financial Aid and Awards Office.
Deadline for submitting applications: June 30.

SUMMER LANGUAGE IMMERSION COURSE BURSARIES
Bursaries will be granted to students across Canada to enable them to enrol in a six-week immersion course in French or English at accredited institutions.
The aim of this programme is to provide post-secondary students with the opportunity to learn one of Canada’s official languages as their second official language and to improve their knowledge of the culture represented by that language. Candidates whose mother tongue is neither French nor English may not receive bursaries to study English or French as their first official language. These bursaries will defray the cost of tuition, instructional materials, and room and board, but will not cover transportation costs or pocket money.

Inquiries regarding the awarding of bursaries (e.g., eligibility, etc.) should be made to the students’ provincial coordinator or territorial official, the names and addresses of which are available at the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

Eligibility:
Students are eligible if they meet the following conditions:

a) are Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents at the time of application. Students studying in Canada on visas are not eligible;

b) have general post-secondary standing or can prove that they will have obtained such a status by the time they become involved in the programme;

c) were enrolled as full-time students during the academic year.

OFFICIAL LANGUAGE MONITOR PROGRAMME
Monitors are students who help students with the spoken language by conveying to them the real life aspect of the language. They carry out their duties under the supervision of second-language teachers for six to eight hours per week through supplementary non-teaching activities. Monitors can receive up to $3,000 for eight months’ participation in the programme (September to April). They are also reimbursed should they need to travel to and from another province in order to participate in the programme. For further information contact the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

In all cases, the basic qualification is that applicants must be Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents with one year’s residency, without pursuing full-time studies, and domiciled in the province to which they apply.

When students apply for financial assistance from the government (Canadian or non-Canadian), and certification of student status is required on the application form, this certification is obtained from the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

In all provinces except Québec, the provincial authority listed below administers the Canada Student Loan Plan (Federal) as well as their own programmes.

Work Study Programme
Work Study is a Financial Aid programme funded by Concordia University. The programme is designed to assist full-time students with education and living costs, when their own resources are determined to be insufficient, by working part-time at Concordia University during the school year.

The intent of the programme is to give students an opportunity for career or life-related experience while, at the same time, meeting a portion of their financial need.

Students may earn up to approximately $1,250 by working on a Work Study Project. Note that students may not work more than 15 hours per calendar week.
Eligibility: A student is eligible for Work Study if he/she meets the following criteria:

a) must be a Canadian Citizen, a Permanent Resident, or an International student;
b) must be registered as a full-time student for the academic period in which the work is performed;
c) must demonstrate financial need as evidenced by a needs test done by the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

Further information can be obtained at the Financial Aid and Awards Office, and by reading the “Work Study Information and Application” pamphlet available at the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

Tuition Deferrals
Students who have received a confirmation of financial assistance from a government funding source and who are unable to pay their tuition fees by the required deadlines may apply to defer payment until such time as they receive their funds. Application for tuition deferrals must be made through the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

Emergency Loans
Funds are available at the Financial Aid and Awards Office for short-term emergency loans. Such loans are issued to undergraduate and graduate, full-time and part-time students at Concordia University. Students must see a Financial Aid and Awards officer for further information on eligibility requirements and conditions.

The service is made possible by contributions from the Concordia Council on Student Life, the Concordia University Students’ Association, the Engineering and Computer Science Students’ Association, the Graduate Students’ Association, and the St. Andrew’s Society of Montréal.

Concordia University Awards
Two types of awards are available to undergraduate students through the Financial Aid and Awards Offices; these are scholarships and bursaries.

Entrance Scholarships are available to students entering university programmes, and In-course Scholarships are available to students who have completed at least one year of full-time study at Concordia University. In all cases, scholarships are awarded on the basis of scholastic achievement and, for some awards, consideration is given to the involvement in University life.

Bursaries are available to students who have completed at least one semester of full-time study at Concordia University. These bursaries are known as In-course Bursaries, and are awarded on the basis of scholastic achievement and financial need.

Unless otherwise stated, all awards are granted to full-time students who are Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents. For additional information and application forms, contact the Financial Aid and Awards Office or consult their Guide to Undergraduate Awards and Financial Aid.

CONCORDIA ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIPS
A number of scholarships are available to students entering their first year of full-time study. These are awarded by the University Scholarship and Awards Committee on the basis of academic achievement during the first three semesters of CEGEP or equivalent. For a complete list, see §300.1 or consult the Guide to Undergraduate Awards and Financial Aid.

CONCORDIA IN-COURSE SCHOLARSHIPS
In-course Scholarships are awarded to full-time students (unless otherwise indicated) who have completed at least 24 credits at Concordia. Recipients are selected in the summer on the basis of the previous year's academic achievement. The scholarships are paid in the following Fall and Winter semesters. Recipients must maintain their full-time status throughout the year the award is tenable. Unless otherwise indicated, no application is required. Academic performance is reviewed with the Registrar’s Office. For a complete list, see §300.2 or consult the Guide to Undergraduate Awards and Financial Aid.

CONCORDIA IN-COURSE BURSARIES
These awards are made on the basis of financial need and high academic standing. The value of each award may fluctuate yearly depending upon current interest rates.

Unless stated differently, awards are given to full-time students who are Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents. For a complete list, see §300.2 or consult the Guide to Undergraduate Awards and Financial Aid.

Concordia Senior Student Bursary Programme
Concordia University has, for many years, endeavoured to facilitate access to university
Awards Offered by External Organizations

Government of Canada Awards and Scholarships

Studies for senior citizens. The University is happy to offer, to eligible students who make the request, bursaries to help defray the cost of their studies. These bursaries are non-renewable, but recipients may apply in successive years.

Eligibility: Applicants must be 65 years of age or over, and registered as full- or part-time students at Concordia University. Applicants must be considered as either senior Independent, senior undergraduate, or senior graduate students.

Value of Bursaries: The value of these bursaries will be calculated on a per credit basis corresponding to the following levels for each student category:

a) Senior Independent students: up to $32 per registered credit.
b) Senior undergraduate students: up to $27 per registered credit.
c) Senior graduate students: up to $26 per registered credit.

Approval Process: Recipients will be selected on the basis of progress in their studies, and a personal statement indicating mention of their financial need and how this bursary would be of assistance to them.

For additional information, consult the Guide to Undergraduate Awards and Financial Aid available from the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

The awards listed in the following section are sponsored and administered by external associations, companies, foundations, societies, and clubs. Applications go directly to the organization administering the award, unless otherwise noted. For a complete list, see §300.3.

Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (NSERC):
The function of the Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada is to promote and assist research in the natural sciences and engineering (other than the health sciences), and to advise the Minister in respect of such matters relating to such research as the Minister may refer to the Council for consideration.
The Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (NSERC) offers a number of awards programmes to assist in the provision and development of highly qualified scientists and engineers.

University Undergraduate Student Research Awards:
University undergraduate student research awards are intended to stimulate the interest of undergraduate students in research by providing them with valuable experience in a university laboratory, and to encourage these students to undertake graduate studies.

Eligibility:
University undergraduate student research awards are available to Canadian Citizens and Permanent Residents who, at the time of application, are registered as full-time students in an eligible undergraduate programme in the natural sciences or engineering. During tenure of these awards, students must not have more than four terms of academic work remaining for completion of their Bachelor's degree and must not have started a programme of graduate studies. They must have obtained a cumulative standing of at least second class "B" in their previous years of study. During the course of the work period, they must be exposed to research and development activities. Students are eligible if they are registered in a Bachelor's degree programme leading to an Honours degree or a degree with a Major. In the case of a degree with a Major, the programme should involve sufficient specialization, and students should have achieved a high enough academic standing that they could be expected, upon graduation, to gain admission directly to a master's degree programme at a Canadian university. Students registered in general degree programmes are not eligible to hold undergraduate student research awards.

Undergraduate Awards for Women Students:
In 1990-91, a new programme of Undergraduate Student Research Awards was instituted specifically for women undergraduates in the physical sciences and engineering. The objective of these awards is to give women who are embarking on a degree programme in engineering or the physical sciences valuable introductory research experience in a university or industrial laboratory. It is hoped that the experience so gained will stimulate their interest in pursuing their studies at the graduate level, and that they will someday seek careers in scientific or engineering research. NSERC recognizes that women are seriously underrepresented in these fields at all levels. This programme is intended to be a mechanism whereby more women are International Students attracted to, and retained in, engineering and the physical sciences, thus addressing an anticipated shortage of qualified engineering and scientific personnel in the coming decades.

Canada Scholarships Programme:
The aim of the Canada Scholarships Programme (C.S.P.) is to reward academic excellence and encourage more of Canada's most promising students to choose careers in science and engineering. A number of scholarships are available to Concordia University students who are entering eligible disciplines. The scholarships are valued at $2,000 per year, and are renewable up to three times or until the degree is completed. At least half of the scholarships are awarded to women.
Students may apply for a Canada Scholarship if they are Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents, and are planning to enter full-time first-year studies in an eligible discipline. The application forms are available from high school or CEGEP guidance services, or from the University Financial Aid and Awards Office. Recipients are required to maintain a full course load, usually 30 credits, and maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 3.40.
Applications must be received no later than June 22 for students entering undergraduate studies in September, and October 31 for students entering in January. For further information, inquire at the Financial Aid and Awards Office.

American Students:
Students coming to a Canadian university from the United States may apply for a Higher Education Loan Plan through their hometown bank. These forms must be sent to Concordia University for completion. Due to the limited amount of funds available, it is essential that application be made as early as possible.

Students from Other Countries:
The scholarships, bursaries and loans offered through Concordia University and external agencies are generally not available to overseas students. Students studying on a student visa who require financial aid should, therefore, contact their home country's Department of Education.
The Canadian International Development Agency offers training assistance to most developing countries with which Canada has a cooperative agreement; however, students must be nominated by their own government. For further information, contact the Scholarship Committee, Human Resources Directorate, Canadian International Development Agency, 200 Promenade du Portage, Hull, Québec, K1A 0G4.
Students should try to obtain adequate finances before coming to Canada. If students do not plan to return home during the summer, four additional months of living expenses should also be provided for.

The International Student Office, a member of the Advocacy and Support Services Group of Student Services, is responsible for providing programmes to promote the growth and development of international students. The services include:

- orientation sessions;
- coordination of all campus and community services available to international students;
- assisting students with personal difficulties and concerns with referrals to appropriate departments, if necessary;
- assisting students with immigration matters;
- administration of emergency loans;
- acting as the liaison with sponsoring agencies and governmental sponsors of students;
- writing letters for the military deferment, transfer of funds, and visitation letter.

Upon arrival at Concordia University, international students are encouraged to pick up an Information Package on Concordia and Montréal at the International Student Office.

19.1 ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates applying from other countries who have achieved university admission level will be considered for admission provided that better than average grades have been attained. In most cases, a specific minimum overall standard on certificates is required. The school-leaving courses presented should be appropriate for the degree programme to which application has been made. Some programmes have additional requirements, e.g. audition, interview, portfolio. Since entry to many programmes is limited, the satisfaction of minimum requirements does not guarantee entry to the University. More specific information with respect to admission requirements and placement levels may be obtained by writing to the Admissions Office.

Depending on the particular certificate, applicants are considered for entry to three-year (90 credits) or four-year (120 credits) degree programmes. The number of credits required for the Bachelor of Engineering Degree varies according to the option chosen and the previous preparation of the student, but is usually no less than 115.

United Kingdom and Commonwealth

Passes awarded in the examinations for the General Certificate of Education, The Cambridge Overseas and Higher School Certificates, The West African School Certificates, General Certificate of Secondary Education, or the equivalent, will be considered as satisfying the general entrance requirements if the conditions of either Scheme A or Scheme B are satisfied.

Scheme A: Passes in five subjects of which at least two must be passed at the Advanced Level (G.C.E.) or Principal Level (C.O.H.S.C.), and three at the Ordinary Level, GCSE or the School Certificate Level.

Scheme B: Passes in four subjects of which at least three must be passed at the Advanced Level (G.C.E.) or Principal Level (C.O.H.S.C.), and one at the Ordinary Level, GCSE or the School Certificate Level.

Some additional information attached to the fulfilment of the above schemes:

a) An average grade of D or better in Advanced or Principal Level subjects is normally expected. In the case of certain quota programmes where enrolment is limited, candidates will have to present higher grades in order to compete successfully for places at the University.

b) Two appropriate AS (Advanced Supplementary) Levels may be accepted in lieu of an Advanced Level for the purposes of satisfying the general entrance requirements of the University.

Some programmes have specific subject requirements. These have been outlined below. The following indicates, by degree, which Advanced or Principal Level subjects are required.

BAdmin, BComm, BSc — Mathematics and one other acceptable subject
BA, BEd, BFA — Any two acceptable subjects

BEng — Mathematics and Physics

BCompSc

General Science — Mathematics and Physics
Information Systems — Mathematics and any other acceptable subject
Software Systems — Mathematics and Physics Systems Architecture — Mathematics and Physics
Theoretical Computer Science — Mathematics and Physics

Students who have not written Advanced or Principal Level examinations but who have good grades in at least five appropriate Ordinary Level, GCSE or School Certificate Level subjects plus one year of formal schooling beyond Ordinary Level, in a suitable academic programme in a recognized school or college, may be considered for admission to an undergraduate programme requiring the completion of 120 credits (four years). In the case of the Bachelor of Engineering the programme would require four to five years. Applicants to an extended undergraduate programme in Engineering or Science are normally expected to have Mathematics and at least one science subject; those applying to Commerce and Administration are advised to have Mathematics as part of their entrance qualifications. Content of additional credits for the 120 credit programme will be found in the appropriate Faculty section of this calendar.

United States
High School graduates with high standards from accredited schools who have followed an academic programme designed for university entrance may apply for admission to an extended undergraduate programme of approximately 120 credits. Applicants are required to have a better than average school record and high ranking in their graduating class. While no set pattern of courses in high school is required all applicants are expected to have taken four units of English. Those applying for admission to Science and Engineering must include three or four units in Mathematics and two in the Sciences. At least three units of Mathematics are recommended for admission to Commerce and Administration. Students who have successfully passed Advanced Placement examinations in appropriate subjects with a grade of "3" or better may be granted some advanced standing.

France
Students who have completed the requirements for the Baccalauréat with satisfactory results may be considered for admission to an undergraduate programme requiring the completion of 90 credits (three years). The number of credits required for the Bachelor of Engineering varies according to the option chosen and to the previous preparation of the student, but is usually no less than 115. In cases where the Baccalauréat specialization (series) followed does not fully satisfy the entrance course requirements for the degree programme sought, the student, if admitted, will have to include the designated prerequisites as part of the first year programme. In some instances, the prerequisites must be taken in addition to the undergraduate programme.

Other Countries
Candidates applying from other countries who have achieved university admission level will be considered for admission provided that better than average grades have been attained. In most cases, a specific minimum overall standard on certificates is required. More specific information with respect to admission requirements and placement levels may be obtained by writing to the Admissions Office.

Transfers from Post-Secondary Institutions
Transfers from post-secondary institutions are referred to §13.3.4.

IB Diploma candidates who achieve passes in six subjects with three at the Higher level and who obtain a minimum total of 27 points may be considered for admission to the regular undergraduate programmes of study.

The language of instruction at Concordia University is English. For information regarding the language proficiency requirement refer to §13.4.
19.1.4 Criteria for Admission

Admission to Concordia University is selective and will be considered when all relevant academic certificates have been received, as well as the Summary of Educational Experience form. All certificates must show the actual grade obtained in each examination.

19.1.5 Application Fee

International applicants must pay a $20 application fee payable by International money order or draft drawn on a Canadian Bank in Canadian funds to Concordia University.

19.1.6 Registration

Regular registration for the September and January terms normally takes place in mid-August and mid-December respectively. For those students entering in September who live within reasonable travelling distance of the University, early registration is also possible. International students must enrol on the dates indicated in their letter of acceptance. Late registration is not normally permitted. Complete information regarding registration is sent with the letter of acceptance.

19.2 IMMIGRATION PROCEDURES

All persons, other than Canadian citizens and Landed Immigrants, who wish to pursue their studies in the province of Québec, must obtain a Québec Certificate of Acceptance (C.A.Q.) before Canada Immigration can issue a Canada Student Authorization. As it may take several weeks to obtain the Student Authorization, the application process should be started immediately upon receipt of the letter of admission from Concordia University. When applying for the Québec Certificate of Acceptance and the Canada Student Authorization, international students are required to present evidence of sufficient funds for tuition and living expenses. Evidence of financial support may be:

- an updated bank book with proof of ownership, and if necessary, documents attesting to other sources of income;
- a sworn declaration of financial support, accompanied by proof of sufficient funds from the Canadian or foreign sponsor for the current year, if applicable;
- an authorization to transfer funds from the organization which controls currency in the student’s country, if applicable;
- a bursary attestation or confirmation of a financial award, specifying the monthly or annual amount, if applicable.

Students are advised to ensure that they will have sufficient funding to complete their degree. Concordia University cannot assume financial responsibility for students who do not have adequate funds. Processing fees of $75 (Canadian funds) will be charged by Canada Immigration for the issuance of a Student Authorization.

19.3 TUITION AND OTHER FEES FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International students with Student Authorizations have to maintain a full-time status, i.e. 24 credits or more per year. The fees, payable to the University for the regular session of two terms commencing in September and concluding in April, are approximately $7302 for a full-time student. This amount covers tuition fees for 30 credits including student service and association fees, and is based on an amount of $243.40* per credit. This estimate does not include the cost of textbooks or living expenses. There is also a compulsory health insurance fee of approximately $370.

Normally, tuition fees are payable in full at registration. For Fall registration, students may choose to pay in two installments, i.e. a minimum of 50% of tuition plus all compulsory fees in August or September and the balance in January. The University charges 1%* interest per month on balances owing. Interest is charged beginning one month after registration.

* Subject to change. The University reserves the right to change the rate of interest and fees, without notice and at any time before the beginning of the term to which it applies.

Exemptions from Differential Fees

Certain international students may be eligible to pay the same fees as Canadian students. Students, who qualify for an exemption from the differential fees for international students, pay the regular home fee of $1656 (including tuition and compulsory fees for 30 credits). The following are among those exempted from paying differential fees:

1. diplomats, consular personnel, accredited representatives or civil servants of a foreign country, the United Nations or one of its organizations, an intergovernmental organization
19.4 SCHOLARSHIPS, BURSARIES AND LOANS

Scholarships, bursaries and loans offered through Concordia University and external agencies are generally not available to international students. Students should try to obtain adequate finances before coming to Canada and ensure that they will have sufficient funding to complete their degrees.

American Students

Students coming to a Canadian University from the United States may apply for a Higher Education Loan Plan through their hometown bank. These forms must be sent to Concordia University for completion. Due to the limited amount of funds available, it is essential that application be made as early as possible.

Concordia In-Course Bursaries are available to undergraduate international students. For more information, contact the Financial Aid and Awards Office and consult §18.7.

The Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) offers training assistance to most developing countries with which Canada has a cooperative agreement; however, students must be nominated by their own government. For further information, contact the Scholarship Committee, Human Resources Directorate, CIDA, 200 Promenade du Portage, Hull, Québec, K1A 0G4.

Information on awards to international students and trainees is also available in a brochure, “Awards for Study in Canada”, published by the Canadian Bureau for International Education.
Emergency loans
Funds are available at the International Student Office for short-term emergency loans. Loans are issued to full-time undergraduate and graduate students who need temporary emergency financial assistance. For further information on eligibility requirements and conditions, contact the coordinator, International Student Office.

19.5 STUDENT HEALTH AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE

Since international students are normally ineligible for government health insurance benefits, Québec Immigration Services require that all international students participate in a compulsory health insurance plan. To this end, the University has negotiated a plan on behalf of all international students.

The single coverage premium for the 1993-94 academic year is $370 (subject to change). Coverage is from August 15, 1993, until August 14, 1994. Students who register in January 1994 will pay a pro-rated premium for the eight-month period ending August 14, 1994. Students who have diplomatic status, a comparable health plan, a Medicare card, or other valid reasons, can apply for a waiver from the International Student Office prior to October 31, 1993.

19.6 WORKING ON-CAMPUS

International students are allowed to accept employment on-campus. Temporary employment is not considered as a source of funding by immigration except for graduate students receiving offers of employment as research or teaching assistants. Students accepting employment on-campus must obtain an Employment Authorization from the Canadian Embassy or Consulate in their home country, or at a Montréal Canada Immigration Centre in order to receive payment for their work. A $100 processing fee will be charged for an Employment Authorization. It is important to remember that students must obtain their Employment Authorization before they are permitted to begin their employment. It is illegal to work without the proper authorization.

After graduation, international students may work in Canada for one year provided the employment is related to their field of concentration. Students may choose to work on- or off-campus. They must apply for their Canada Employment Authorization within 60 days of the notification of their final marks. Spouses of international students are allowed to work on- and off-campus. However, spouses who are full-time international students are restricted to on-campus employment only. Further information on how to apply for a Canada Employment Authorization can be obtained from the International Student Office. NOTE: Students with valid Employment Authorizations are eligible for the Québec Medicare card. The card is issued by the "Régie de l'assurance-maladie du Québec" and is valid for the duration of the Employment Authorization.

STUDENT AND ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS

The Concordia University Students' Association (CUSA) represents the undergraduate students, both full-time and part-time. Besides organizing many events and activities, CUSA ensures student representation on University decision-making bodies, both those that legislate on academic and administrative matters and those concerned with the cultural and social life of the community. There are student members of the Board of Governors, Senate, the Faculty Councils, and, of course, the Concordia Council on Student Life, which is directly concerned with the provision of student services. Powers and responsibilities are divided between three bodies: the Executive, the Legislative Council, and the Judicial Board. The Executive is headed by two elected co-presidents. The Legislative Council consists of the elected representatives of the four Faculties. The Judicial Board is an appointed body charged with assuring the constitutionality of any new legislation. Students in two Faculties are also represented by their own associations. The Commerce and Administration Students' Association (CASA) and the Engineering and Computer Science Students' Association (ECA) send representatives to CUSA, and to the University's Senate and Board of Governors.

There are more than 75 member-clubs and associations. They may be associated with a department or discipline like the Psychology Students Association or pursue a special interest like the Debating Society. Each has its own programme of activities, which receives funding from CUSA. In addition, there are numerous clubs and associations for students of particular ethnic backgrounds. Other activities that come under the CUSA umbrella are student newspapers; The Link and the Concordian, television station CUTV, radio stations CFLI and CRSG, and the Concordia Winter Carnival. The two student newspapers; The Link and the Concordian, operate independently of CUSA. Both newspapers are incorporated, with separate, wholly autonomous Boards of Directors.

There is a CUSA office on each campus. The Sir George Williams office is in Room H-639 of the Henry F. Hall Building (514) 848-7474. The Loyola office is in Room 103 in the Campus Centre (514) 848-7470.

20.2 GRADUATE STUDENTS

Graduate students become members of the Graduate Students' Association (GSA). It is concerned with graduate student representation on the decision-making bodies and initiates a wide range of activities for graduate students and the University community as a whole, including social occasions, lectures and concerts. The association publishes a regular newsletter. Its offices are at 2030 Mackay Street.

20.3 ALUMNI

The Concordia University Alumni Association Inc. was created in 1983. In the words of its constitution, the Association is designed to "encourage the fellowship of graduates from Loyola, Sir George Williams, and Concordia University through social, educational and cultural activities", and to "preserve and promote the interests of Concordia University through alumni involvement in its future and governance".

All graduates of the University are automatically members of the Association, as are graduates of Concordia's two founding institutions; Loyola College and Sir George Williams University. The affairs of the Association are overseen by a 30-member Board of Directors. The Executive consists of the president, immediate past president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and the presidents of the Loyola Alumni Association and the Association of Alumni Sir George Williams.

The Concordia University Alumni Association provides alumni with a variety of educational and cultural programmes, as well as the opportunity to participate in University governance through committee and board involvement. The Association offers members a graduation photography service, Concordia University Magazine, tracking assistance, travel benefits and the Concordia University/Bank of Montréal MasterCard. Graduates are encouraged to enrol in our Enhanced Benefits Programme. For $10, alumni receive a permanent identification card that allows them to take advantage of university library privileges, discounts on home/auto/life insurance, computer and art supplies, fitness and health programmes. Our Mentor Programme is designed to give students the opportunity to draw upon the vast expertise and wisdom of our alumni base, while our Awards Programme honours the outstanding volunteer contributions of alumni and friends of the University.

The Concordia University Alumni Association is committed to the development and support of a worldwide network of Alumni chapters. Currently, we have active alumni in Ottawa, Toronto, Calgary, Vancouver, Boston, New York, Los Angeles and Hong Kong.

For more information please contact either of our two offices.

21.3 CONTINUING EDUCATION COMPUTER INSTITUTE
21.4 CONTINUING EDUCATION LANGUAGE INSTITUTE
21.5 EDUCATIONAL TRAVEL PROGRAMME
21.6 GENERAL SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS
21.7 HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT
As part of its commitment to the lifelong pursuit of education, Concordia University, through its Centre for Continuing Education, offers a variety of non-credit educational programmes for adults. These are designed to meet the practical needs and interests of people in the workplace, helping them to refine and improve their skills. Students may choose individual courses or a programme series to earn Certificates in a particular area. The Centre's courses and programmes do not count towards any of the degree or Certificate programmes offered by the Faculties of the University. Detailed course and programme descriptions are available from the Centre for Continuing Education.

21.1 APPLIED ARTS/COMMUNICATIONS

Communications Programme: The Centre for Continuing Education offers six Certificate Programmes in communications: Journalism, Advertising, Public Relations, Graphics, Radio and Television Production and Specialized Writing. All courses are taught by professionals who work in the media or related fields.

Practical Photography: This programme consists of six-week, ten-week, and twelve-week courses at levels ranging from the basics of camera operation or darkroom procedures to advanced photographic skills. The courses combine lectures with hands-on participation.

Instructor Certification Programme in Physical Fitness: This Certificate Programme provides both the basic theoretical and practical knowledge necessary for employment as a general fitness instructor. A Certificate in General Fitness Instruction is granted to those participants who successfully complete the requirements of the programme.

Visual Arts: The Visual Arts Programme offers interested students the opportunity to work with professional artists from the Montréal community in drawing, painting and life drawing. Each course is made up of 12 three-hour sessions given one evening a week.

21.2 BUSINESS AND ADMINISTRATION

CEBS — The Certified Employee Benefit Specialist Programme: The CEBS programme is a ten-course curriculum co-sponsored by the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and Concordia's Centre for Continuing Education. Students who successfully complete the programme earn professional designation as Certified Employee Benefit Specialists. Dalhousie University is responsible for the academic content and standards of the programme; the International Foundation is responsible for overall administration. The final certification is issued jointly.

International Trade: This series of courses is offered to people who wish to expand their knowledge in importing and exporting. Each course concentrates on one important aspect of international business.

Management Practices Programme: This series of courses in management and administrative subjects is for people who wish to expand their knowledge in selected business fields. Each course concentrates on one important area of business activity.

Purchasing and Inventory Control: This programme is designed for those who are beginning or planning to begin careers as buyers or floor managers. A Certificate in Purchasing and Inventory Control is awarded upon successful completion of ten courses.

Small Business Management Programme: Designed as a "how to" guide for the entrepreneur, this programme offers essential information and advice for assuming the risk of a business or enterprise. To qualify for the Certificate in Small Business Management, candidates must successfully complete a total of ten courses — five compulsory and any five elective courses offered in the Small Business Management Programme.

Interest courses: The Business and Administration Section also offers single courses not included in any programme. These include Tax Planning and Investments, A Guide to Real Estate Investment, Trading in Options and Stocks, Stocks, Bonds and Other Investments, and Property Acquisitions.

21.3 CONTINUING EDUCATION COMPUTER INSTITUTE

Computer Applications Programming (Day Division): Students who successfully complete this programme earn a Certificate in Computer Applications Programming, a useful qualification which demonstrates a solid background in business programming and systems analysis skills. Extensive "hands-on" experience, in addition to regular classroom teaching, is provided on the Centre's own computing facilities. To qualify for the Certificate, students must complete three intensive full-day courses. Each eleven-week course includes 25 hours of theoretical and practical work per week, with a week for completing assignments scheduled at mid-term.

Managing Information Systems: This programme offers a solid background in the management and application of computers to business systems. To qualify for the Certificate, candidates must successfully complete ten to eleven courses and two DOS workshops, either in Information Systems Management (Option 1) or Software Engineering (Option 2). Students may also take any course on an independent basis, provided any prerequisites are met.

Office Automation: The Certificate Programme in Office Automation is for students interested in acquiring the "high-tech" microcomputer skills needed in business and industry today. Students must successfully complete nine courses to obtain the Certificate. Students may also take any course on an independent basis, provided any prerequisites are met.

Complete Computer Electronics: This programme is valuable to those interested in working as computer or electronic technicians. It combines home study with periodic laboratory work in the Physics Department of the University. In this two-part programme, the student actually builds a digital computer. Part I covers background work in electronic fundamentals, and Part II covers computer circuitry, digital logic techniques, computer organization and operations.

Electronic Office Technology — Full-Day Summer Programme: The Centre for Continuing Education offers a full-day, intensive Certificate Programme in Electronic Office Technology during the summer. The programme is designed for people who wish to develop the specialized skills necessary to perform well in today's automated office or small business. The programme combines the practical training offered in the Office Automation Programme with instruction designed to prepare students to make effective managerial decisions about technology. The Certificate Programme runs for 10 weeks, with 25 hours of instruction and lab work per week.
21.4 CONTINUING EDUCATION LANGUAGE INSTITUTE

The Continuing Education Language Institute is a division of the Centre for Continuing Education offering year-round language programmes in English and French. These non-credit courses are designed to meet the needs of students seeking language training for professional, social and academic purposes. Day, evening and Saturday courses are offered from September to April. A five- or ten-week intensive English Programme is also offered during the Summer.

Students may choose from several programmes, ranging from four to 24 hours a week. Class size is limited to ensure maximum student/instructor contact. Members of the staff of the Institute have specialist training and experience in second language teaching.

English Language Programmes
Three distinct English language programmes are offered: the Intensive, the Evening, and the Saturday programmes. A Certificate of Proficiency is awarded upon successful completion of the Advanced level.

Writing workshops and a TOEFL preparation course are available to students who meet the necessary requirements.

French Language Programmes:
Courses at all levels are offered in the French language and are designed with specific vocabulary and language skills that provide for real life situations.

For students who meet the necessary requirements, the following specialized courses are offered:
- an advanced conversation course
- a course in written French
- a general business course for those who already possess a working knowledge of French.

A Certificate of Proficiency is awarded to students who fulfil the programme requirements.

Special Programmes:
Special language courses in English and French can be created to suit the needs of individual groups. Sponsoring agencies should write directly to the Administrator of the Language Institute for further information.

21.5 EDUCATIONAL TRAVEL PROGRAMMES

The Centre for Continuing Education, in co-operation with the academic departments of the University, organizes a number of travel programmes, generally between May and August. Some are regular Concordia credit courses under the direction of a faculty member; others are for interest only. The resources of academic, business and social institutions in other countries enhance the academic and cultural components of the courses. For current offerings, contact the Centre.

21.6 GENERAL SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

The Computer Institute and the Business and Administration Section regularly offer practical seminars and workshops to professionals, business personnel and others who wish to enrich their technical and business knowledge and skills. The seminars and workshops are provided either in the Centre's own well-equipped facilities or at other seminar and business locations. For information on these workshops, contact the Centre for Continuing Education.

21.7 HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT

Hospitality Management Programme: This programme provides training in the special skills required to manage hotels, restaurants, and institutional and commissary food-service establishments. Each course involves 12 weekly two-hour evening classroom sessions. Students must complete ten courses to obtain the Certificate of Hospitality Management.

Tourism Programme (Day or Evening Division): The Tourism Programme trains people for work in travel agencies, airlines, travel departments and other enterprises within the tourism industry. The courses are valuable to those beginning a career in tourism as well as to experienced travel agency employees interested in upgrading their skills. Candidates must successfully complete nine courses to obtain the Certificate in Tourism.

22.1 OFF-CAMPUS EDUCATION

Concordia University offers credit courses off-campus during the Regular (Fall/Winter) and Summer sessions. The courses are designed to be of interest to persons who find it inconvenient, for whatever reason, to attend classes on either campus. The University is prepared to offer courses wherever there is a sufficient demand, provided that qualified instructors are available. Off-Campus courses have the same credit value as On-Campus courses. Last year, courses were given in Pointe-Claire, Beaconsfield, and at various cultural centres (e.g. Saidye Bronfman Centre) throughout the Island of Montreal. Courses were offered from the Faculties of Arts and Science, Commerce and Administration. Persons interested in obtaining further information about programmes, or in having courses offered at a particular location, should contact the office.

22.2 DISTANCE LEARNING

Distance learning is not a new concept; university level correspondence courses have been available from various sources for many years. Today, thanks to the new technologies, courses may be offered via such media as audiotape, videotape, cable tv, teleconferencing, satellite or computers. The distance mode satisfies a need for students who, for professional or personal reasons, cannot attend university or are located in remote areas with no access to higher education. One of the media used by Concordia is C.A.N.A.L (Consortium pour l'Avancement de Nouvelles Applications des Langages/The Corporation for the Advancement of New Applications of Languages). This non-profit organization is a consortium of Quebec universities and colleges set up to provide broadcast facilities for the distribution of credit and non-credit courses. The consortium operates a television station on UHF Channel 29, which is also carried on Cable Channel 23 in the Montreal area and several other regions of the province. Many of the credit courses are also carried over the Radio-Quebec network. For further information please contact the Concordia Centre for Off-Campus and Distance Learning.

22.3 REGISTRATION FOR OFF-CAMPUS AND DISTANCE CREDIT COURSES

It should be noted that registration in a course does not constitute admission to the University. While registration as an independent student is possible, those registering for courses are encouraged to apply for admission to the University. To obtain information about registration for off-campus and distance courses, call (514) 848-3955/3956.

23.1 INTRODUCTION

The Ministry of Education recognizes Concordia University as a centre for teacher training in the areas of Adult Education, Early Childhood Education, English as a Second Language and Fine Arts. Successful graduates will receive a licence to teach within the province of Québec. Two types of certification programmes are available at Concordia: initial certification and re-certification. Upon graduation, students enrolled in initial certification programmes will receive their first licence to teach. Re-certification programmes are designed for individuals who have an initial teaching licence and who wish to obtain certification in another area. In addition to the certification programmes, Concordia offers several other programmes for professional development: certificate programmes made up of undergraduate courses and diploma programmes which are at the graduate level and require a bachelor's degree for admission. Because Concordia University has chosen not to organize its programmes for teachers into a single faculty, the courses and programmes for teachers are listed under several different departments and faculties. Potential students are advised to consult the specific academic departments for further information.

23.2 INITIAL CERTIFICATION PROGRAMMES

Individuals who successfully complete the following programmes will be eligible for Québec Certification. For further information please contact the appropriate academic department.

1. Certificate in Education (Restricted to individuals presently teaching in Québec with a P.T.A.) (30 credits). See §31.090
2. Bachelor of Arts (Specialization in Early Childhood Education) (90 credits). See §31.090
4. Diploma in Art Education (30 credits).
5. Diploma in Adult Education (30 credits).

23.3 RE-CERTIFICATION PROGRAMMES

Individuals who have a Québec teaching licence and who successfully complete these programmes will be eligible to receive additional certification. For further information please contact the appropriate department.

1. Certificate in Art Education for Teachers, (Elementary School Level) (30 credits). See §81.50
3. Diploma in Early Childhood Education (30 credits).

23.4 PROGRAMMES OF INTEREST TO TEACHERS

The following programmes do not lead to a teaching licence but are recognized by the Ministry of Education for Professional Development.

1. Certificate in Adult Education (30 credits). See §31.090
2. Certificate in Family Life Education (30 credits). See §31.010
3. Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers (Elementary School Level and Junior Secondary
4. Certificate in Teaching French as a Second Language to Adults (30 credits). See §31.110
5. Bachelor of Fine Arts (Specialization in Art Education) (90 credits). See §61.50
6. Diploma in Adult Education (30 credits).
7. Diploma in Institutional Administration (33 credits).
8. Diploma in Instructional Technology (30 credits).
10. Diploma in Sports Administration (33 credits).
12. Diploma in Theological, Religious and Ethical Studies (33 credits).
14. Master of Arts in Art Education (45 credits).
15. Master of Arts in Child Study (45 credits).
17. Master of Arts in Educational Technology (60 credits).
20. Doctor of Philosophy, Educational Technology (90 credits).

23.5 CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Permanent teacher certification in Québec is only available for Canadian Citizens. Students who have landed immigrant status or who hold an appropriate work permit at the time of their graduation may be eligible for a temporary licence to teach. Although students with a visa can complete teacher training programmes at Concordia University and receive a university degree, they are not eligible for certification by the Ministry of Education of Québec.

23.6 ASSISTANCE

Students who encounter difficulties with respect to certification prior to graduation should contact the Coordinator of Teacher Training and Certification. Graduates of Concordia with certification problems should contact the Directeur, Direction de la titularisation et de la classification du personnel enseignant, 955 chemin St-Louis, Sillery, Québec, G1S 4S4.
The University through the Institute for Co-operative Education offers programmes in the co-operative format in the departments of Chemistry and Biochemistry, Economics, Exercise Science, French Translation, Mathematics and Statistics, and Physics in the Faculty of Arts and Science, and in the Centre for Building Studies and the Department of Computer Science in the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science.

As it becomes feasible the University may consider offering other disciplines in the co-op format.

The Co-op Philosophy

Co-operative education is an educational process in which Academic Study terms are alternated with Work terms in the public and private sectors, giving students practical on-the-job experience in the area of their choice while continuing their studies towards a degree. Essentially, it is a system that integrates the interests of employer organizations, educators and students.

Although the potential rewards from completion of an academic programme in the co-op format are great, students should keep in mind that this format is extremely demanding with its alternating Academic and Work terms.

Advantages of a Co-op Education

Training in theory and practice in a structured and purposeful manner allows the student to come to terms with the realities of professional practice in a way that allows for the development of self-confidence, self-reliance and self-motivation. From the Work terms, students learn to accept responsibility and the importance of deadlines. Realistic career expectations may be more easily formed. In the Institute, besides technical knowledge and practical experience, students gain skills in interpersonal relations through participation in seminars, workshops, talks and social activities.

Employers benefit as well. The employer who agrees to co-operate with the Institute benefits from the opportunity to evaluate prospective personnel without making permanent employment commitments and from the availability of students on a year-round basis. In recruiting permanent employees, they have available to them trained graduates with work experience who can be productive with little or no training period.

The collaboration between employers and faculty is mutually beneficial providing an opportunity for employers to contribute to, and influence, the educational process and for the faculty to become aware of latest developments in industry. In some cases joint industry-university research projects result.

Admission to Co-op

General criteria for admission to the co-op format are given below. However, it should be noted that, in the Faculty of Arts and Science, only Honours and Specialization programmes are offered in that format by the specified department.
Applicants legally eligible to work in the public and private sectors who wish to undertake their studies in the co-op format should so indicate by filling in the appropriate box on the University Admissions Form. Such applicants may be asked to submit a résumé of past work experience and a statement of the reasons for their interest in the co-op format. An interview by the appropriate co-op committee will normally be required. Students accepted to the programme will be assigned a co-op adviser from within their academic department.

Co-op Fee
Students should note that a co-op fee was instituted by the Board of Governors to cover in part the administrative costs particular to the co-op programme. This fee is currently one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) per term and is charged for the second to penultimate terms inclusive. Students requiring less than the normal number of terms to complete their programmes in the co-op format are subject to the same total fee as those requiring the normal number of terms. Co-op fees are due one month before the first day of eligible terms and are not refundable after the first day of the third month of the term, i.e., March 1, July 1 and November 1.

Co-op Performance Requirements
Students permitted to undertake their studies in the co-op format enrol as regular undergraduates in their programme and are subject to its academic regulations. However, higher performance standards are often required to continue in the co-op format.

Students undertaking the co-op format in a programme offered by the Faculty of Arts and Science are normally required to maintain a GPA of 2.5, and normally with no grade lower than a "D" in any course, elective or required. Students registered in Honours programmes must meet the Faculty Honours programme academic requirements.

Students registered in the co-op programmes in the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science are normally required to maintain an overall GPA of 2.7 with no single term below 2.5 and no failing grades.

The evaluation of each of the four required Work terms will be based on the submission of a work-term report by the student and the evaluation of the student's performance by the employer. The student must successfully complete both components to pass the Work Term which is marked on a pass/fail basis. The work-term reports are not considered for degree credits and are normally graded by faculty members unless the report is considered confidential by the employer. In such cases the employer is responsible for the grading. Failure to meet the co-op academic requirements or failure to complete a Work Term will normally result in the withdrawal of the student from the Institute for Co-operative Education.

Work Term
Co-operative education at Concordia is not to be construed as a placement operation or an inexpensive labour apprenticeship. The Work Term is an essential part of the student's learning experience and there is to be equitable remuneration paid for work performed. The University is responsible for negotiating Work terms with employers who provide job descriptions to the Institute for Co-operative Education. The procedures for matching students to employers are managed by the Institute. Students must be willing to work anywhere in Canada, and may go abroad for a Work Term. A co-op coordinator or participating faculty member visits the students at their place of work to evaluate the work performance, gauge the learning opportunities, assess the compatibility of student and employer and, if necessary, take corrective action. It should be noted that the University does not guarantee every student a job.

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMMES

Co-op programmes offered in the Faculty of Arts and Science:

Chemistry and Biochemistry Co-op
Director: Dr. Raymond H. Zienius, (514) 848-3352

The Chemistry and Biochemistry co-operative programme is offered to students who are enrolled in the BSc Honours or Specialization in Chemistry, Biochemistry, Analytical Chemistry or Synthetic Materials.

Students in Chemistry and Biochemistry co-op take the regular academic programme; however, in the Work terms the employment opportunities range among a wide variety of industrial and government agencies located throughout Canada. Students are encouraged to choose their work-term positions in a way which provides them with experience ranging from basic analysis in industrial processes and environmental control to senior research placements.
in the laboratories of various employers. For specific details concerning the curriculum please see §31.050.

Economics Co-op
Director: Dr. Balbir S. Sahni, (514) 848-3908

The Economics co-operative programme enables students to complete a BA Honours or Specialization in Economics. The academic content of the Economics co-op programme is identical to the regular programme; however, the required Work terms provide the co-op student with the unique opportunity of experiencing economics in an applied format. Because of the course choices available, an Economics co-op student is prepared to undertake employment during his or her Work terms in a variety of public sectors including Provincial and Federal Government agencies. Private sector positions might include placements in banks, consulting firms, or planning departments in a variety of industries. For specific details concerning the curriculum please see §31.080.

Exercise Science Co-op
Director: Dr. Edmund F. Enos, (514) 848-4824

The Exercise Science co-operative programme is offered to students who are enrolled in the Community Fitness Science Option of the Specialization programme. The academic content of the Exercise Science co-op programme is identical to the regular programme with the exception of the six-credit practicum requirement. Students will select an additional six credits from a list of possible choices. The required Work terms provide Exercise Science co-op students with the opportunity to work in a variety of fitness-oriented experiences including such areas as private and commercially operated fitness classes and health spas, corporate fitness and lifestyle programmes, municipal recreation programmes, YM-YWCA and senior citizen agencies. For specific details concerning the curriculum please see §31.120.

French Translation Co-op
Director: Marthe Catry-Verron, (514) 848-7512

The Translation co-operative programme enables students to complete a specialized BA in Translation. The Translation co-op programme is identical to the regular programme; however, the required work terms provide the co-op students with the unique opportunity to apply their translation skills in the government and corporate sectors. Work opportunities are found in environments such as government ministries, communication departments, and various organizations such as technical publishers, consultants, advertising agencies, and similar. For specific details concerning the curriculum please see §31.110.

Mathematics and Statistics Co-op
Director: Dr. Zohel Khalil, (514) 848-3247

The Mathematics and Statistics co-operative programme allows students to complete the BA or BSc degrees with Honours or Specialization in Mathematics, Applied Mathematics, Statistics or Actuarial Mathematics. The academic content of the Mathematics and Statistics co-op programmes is identical to the regular programmes. Work terms provide co-op students with the opportunity to gain practical experience with a variety of employers, such as insurance companies, consulting firms, large Canadian corporations, government departments, and research establishments. For specific details concerning the curriculum please see §31.200.

Physics Co-op
Director: Dr. Nelson W. Eddy, (514) 848-3274

The Physics co-operative programme is available to students in the BSc Honours and Specialization in Physics. The academic content is very similar to the regular programmes, with some specific recommendations for courses to improve the student's job skills. While it is hoped that most of the positions will be in the Montréal area, students must be prepared to work in other parts of Canada. For specific details concerning the curriculum please see §31.230.
Co-op programmes offered in the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science:

Building Engineering Co-op
Director: Dr. Claude Bédard, (514) 848-8779

The Building Engineering programme is offered in the co-op format to selected students pursuing undergraduate studies leading to the degree of BEng (Building). The academic content of the Building Engineering co-op programme is identical to the regular programme. Work Term opportunities range for a variety of industrial, government and consulting organizations in and out-of-town. Students are encouraged to choose placement in both public and private sectors, and to mix office experience with site work. Please refer to §71.10.8 and 71.30 for specific information on programme and performance requirements.

Computer Science Co-op
Director: Dr. J. William Atwood, (514) 848-3046

All options in the Computer Science programme are offered in the co-op format to selected students enrolled in the BCompSc programme. Co-op students in Computer Science take the regular academic programme; however, they have the opportunity through the Work terms to experience computer science in the government and corporate sectors. As students near the end of their studies, they are able to choose placements directly related to their option, i.e. information systems, software systems or systems architecture. Please refer to §71.10.8 and 71.80 for specific information on programme and performance requirements.

*The 7th Campus Term applies to the BEng programme only.

NOTE 1: The above activity flow-chart is for students admitted into the co-op format in the Fall Term of the first year of their academic programme. However, students may be admitted at the start of its Winter Term, following their September entry, with special permission. All are required to register as full-time students, and they must plan their studies to give a reasonable division of the total credits required for their degree between the specified number of campus terms. Students eligible to apply for NSERC grants should note that they must take at least 15 credits per term to be considered.

NOTE 2: The Work Term negotiated with the employer is for a minimum of fourteen weeks. Extension beyond this period, to a maximum of seventeen weeks, is at the sole discretion of the employer. To complete the requirements of each Work Term, a student's work-term report must be assessed as "pass" in accordance with the procedure specified under "Co-op Performance Requirements".

  - Urban Studies
  - Women's Studies

The Faculty of Arts and Science is committed to the understanding and advancement of knowledge related to the humanities, social sciences, pure sciences, and interdisciplinary studies. The Faculty reflects this mission in its belief in the value of a liberal arts education; its dedication to teaching excellence at the undergraduate and graduate levels; its commitment to advance research among faculty members and students; and its service to the community. The Faculty also believes in an inclusionary approach to education both in terms of gender and race which reflect more accurately the society in which we live. It encourages and supports initiatives which foster an understanding of this diversity.
their programmes of concentration. This is facilitated by the programme structure and graduation requirements of the Bachelor's degrees (see §31.002 and 31.003). Bachelor's degrees normally require 90 credits of course work, consisting of at least one programme of concentration (Major, at 36 to 48 credits; Specialization, at 60 credits; or Honours, at 60 or more credits). The balance of the degree requirements may be made up of one or more Minors (24 to 30 credits) or by courses selected from a broader spectrum of disciplines. Where programme structure permits, at least 24 credits are to be taken from outside the main area of concentration.

Most Major programmes are relatively short, allowing maximal development of interests outside the area of concentration. Two areas of concentration can be combined in a Double Major. Even longer programmes (Specialization and Honours) allow students to diversify their studies for up to one third of their degree requirements.

Programme structures thus permit students to obtain a judicious balance between concentrated study and exploration of broader interests. Department and Faculty advisers are available to help students develop a plan of study which accommodates their personal interests and satisfies degree requirements.

Programmes of concentration and related Minors are published in the Calendar entries for each of the 26 disciplines in the Faculty (§31.010 onward). To facilitate innovative exploration outside these standard disciplines, the Faculty offers many alternatives. First, the University has established six Colleges (§31.500 onward) which foster various philosophies and methods of education on an intimate scale. Second, it has created Majors which cross disciplinary boundaries (Science and Human Affairs, Urban Studies, and Women's Studies). In addition, selected students may create their own Individually Structured Programme (§31.170), under the direction of the Faculty adviser.

Finally, the Faculty offers cross-disciplinary Minors (for example, Science and Human Affairs, Urban Studies, and Women's Studies) and a number of Interdisciplinary courses (§31.170) which may be chosen as electives in any programme.

A good general education — balancing the development of expert knowledge in a narrow domain with broader academic experience — can be obtained in the Faculty of Arts and Science. The programmes outlined are best considered as models of what can be planned by imaginative students and their academic advisers.

31.002 PROGRAMMES AND ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

General admission requirements are listed in §13.

Specific requirements for admission to the various programmes leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Education, and Bachelor of Science, and to Certificates, are set out in the first column of the following listings. They refer to the table of CEGEP pre-Arts and pre-Science profiles defined below. Students lacking one or more of these prerequisites may be admitted, but must include the designated prerequisites among the courses followed prior to entry into the second year of their undergraduate programme. In certain cases, the prerequisites must be taken in addition to the undergraduate programme.

Mature Student Entry

Concordia University has a tradition of concern for the education of Mature students; it has always sought to assist students of 21 and over to undertake undergraduate studies.
The primary aim of the Centre for Mature Students is to develop services to students returning to formal studies after an absence of many years. It is difficult to plunge suddenly into a very large urban University after years away from classes and studying; therefore, the Fellows and staff of the Centre hope to reach out to all Mature Entry students to offer them encouragement and guidance. The Centre has quarters on both campuses, that function as a "home base" for students who want counselling or are simply in need of some social contact with their peers.

(Please see §14.)

Extended Credit Programme
Students admitted to BA and BEd Extended Credit programmes are required to complete 120 credits for the degree (i.e., 30 additional credits) and must include the following 30 credits in the 120:

- 6 credits in English (Language or Literature)
- 24 elective credits, of which a maximum of 12 may be outside the Faculty of Arts and Science. Certain Departments in the Faculty have specific requirements. Students intending to follow programmes of concentration within these Departments must include the specified components as part of their programme.

BA Mathematics: 9 credits in Mathematics — 203, 204, 205
*Students not having MATH 202, or the equivalent, must take it in place of one of their elective courses.

BA Psychology: 3 credits in Mathematics
3 credits in Biology
6 credits in Psychology

Students admitted to the BSc Extended Credit programme are required to complete 120 credits for the BSc degree (i.e., 30 additional credits) and must include the following 30 credits in the 120:

- 6 credits in Chemistry 205, 206
- 6 credits in Mathematics 203, 205
- 12 credits in Physics 204, 205, 206, 224, 225, 226
- 3 credits in Biology 201
- 3 credits in Mathematics 204 for students intending to enter programmes of concentration in Mathematics or Physics; or electives for all other students
*Students not having MATH 201, or the equivalent, must take it in place of one of their elective courses.
Students not having MATH 202, or the equivalent, must take it in place of one of their elective courses.

NOTE: Students in the BA, BEd or BSc Extended Credit programme may not count towards their programmes of concentration courses taken as part of the first 30 credits.

31.003 DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Up to and including the academic year 1973-74, degree programmes were expressed in terms of courses, with one credit being applied to a "full course" (normally, one extending over two terms) and one half-credit being applied to a "half-course" (which was normally completed in one term).

In 1974-75, in accordance with the recommendations of the Council of Universities of Québec, the credit base was modified to take into account the total activity of the student. A student preparing for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Education, or Bachelor of Science takes a minimum of 90 credits. Each credit represents, for the average student, a minimum of 45 hours spread across lectures, conferences, tutorials, laboratories, studio or practice periods, tests, examinations, and personal work.

Since the CEGEP programmes are designed to give all students the opportunity to explore different fields and thus acquire a broad general basis for further study, the undergraduate programmes in the Faculty of Arts and Science require of students some degree of concentration in specific areas. Detailed statements about these programmes are made under the appropriate disciplinary headings in the sections of the Calendar that follow this general account of degree requirements. They represent four main forms of concentration: the Minor, the Major, the Specialization, and Honours; and a fifth form, the Certificate. The University's formal definitions of these kinds of programmes are set out in §16.2.3; for the convenience of students in Arts and Science, those definitions as they are construed in the Faculty are briefly repeated below.

The Minor is a programme consisting of a minimum of 24 credits in a single discipline and professing to give a basic introduction to the methodology and key concepts of that discipline. A Minor cannot in and by itself provide the concentration required of a candidate for a degree and is therefore always taken in combination with another programme.

The Major consists of a minimum of 36 credits taken in an approved sequence of courses. Normally within a major programme not more than 36 credits are required from a single discipline or department. In certain programmes, however, additional credits are required in cognate disciplines and departments. The Major provides a solid grounding in the academic knowledge comprehended within the field of concentration. To enter and remain in it, a student normally does not have to meet a special performance requirement; see, however, programmes in Leisure Studies §31.185, Library Studies §31.190, and Western Society and Culture §31.520.

The Specialization consists of a minimum of 60 credits, normally not more than 54 credits of which are mandated from a single discipline or Department. Like an Honours programme, it provides a comprehensive education in the field of concentration, but to enter and remain in it, a student normally does not have to meet a special performance requirement (see, however, programmes in Early Childhood Education §31.090, French/English Translation §31.110, Interdisciplinary Studies: Individually Structured Programme §31.170, Leisure Studies §31.185). Students interested in subsequent "classification" by the provincial government may be advised to follow a specialization or an Honours programme.

The Honours programme consists of a minimum of 60 credits taken in an approved sequence of courses. Normally within an honours programme not more than 60 credits are mandated from a single discipline or department. Additional credits may be required in cognate disciplines and departments. Superior academic performance is required for admission to and continuation in the honours programme, the precise level of such performance being determined by Senate. See §16.2.3 and Faculty Honours Regulations set out below for matters governing Honours programmes at Concordia. An Honours degree or equivalent, because it testifies to a student's comprehensive education in a particular field, intellectual commitment to that field, and achievement of a high level of academic performance, has traditionally been required of entrants to postgraduate programmes.

Graduation Requirements

1. A candidate for graduation must have successfully completed a programme of concentration in the form of an Honours, Specialization or Major programme.
2. A candidate for graduation must have successfully completed at least 24 credits outside the single discipline or Department from which the degree concentration has been chosen. Within every block of 30 credits taken towards the degree, a student will normally choose no more than 24 credits from any one discipline or Department.
3. A candidate for graduation must have successfully completed at least 18 credits from courses in Arts and Science in every block of 30 credits taken towards the degree.
4. A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts must have qualified for admission to, and successfully completed, a programme leading to that degree. Specific admission requirements, expressed as CEGEP pre-Arts profiles, are given in §31.002. Students wishing to transfer out of one degree programme into another must satisfy the admission requirements of the programme they seek to enter.
5. Students enrolled in a 90-credit degree or an Extended Credit degree programme in the Faculty of Arts and Science may take ESL courses for degree credit, up to a maximum of six credits.
6. A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Science must have qualified for admission to, and successfully completed, a programme leading to that degree. Specific admission requirements, expressed as CEGEP pre-Science profiles, are given in §31.002. Students wishing to transfer out of one degree programme into another must satisfy the admission requirements of the programme they seek to enter.
7. A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Education must have qualified for admission to, and successfully completed, the programme leading to that degree. The admission and degree requirements are set out in §31.320.
8. In general, the credits obtained for any course may not be used to satisfy the requirements of more than one programme. Students first registered in certain Certificate programmes may however apply credits obtained towards the Certificate to a degree.
9. Those students entering the University after September 1, 1978 as Independent students will be permitted to apply no more than 30 credits obtained as an Independent student towards any Arts and Science Faculty degree programme.

Supplemental Examinations
(Arts and Science)
Supplemental examinations shall be offered only where, as a condition for passing the course, it is required that a student pass the final examination regardless of its weighting; or where the final examination contributes 50% or more of the final grade. A student failing a course which comprises entirely, or in part, a laboratory or similar practicum, may not be eligible to write a supplemental examination. All courses which a student fails and for which there is no supplemental examination shall be graded "FNS" or "R". A failed student (see §16.3.10 V) may not write supplemental examinations.

Honours Programmes
The Faculty of Arts and Science has programmes leading to an Honours degree in certain selected fields. To enter an Honours programme, students apply to the Departmental Honours Committee (Adviser). The Departmental Honours Committee (Adviser) will accept students into Honours, subject to review by the Faculty Honours Committee. The Departmental Honours Committee (Adviser) will not normally accept students until they have obtained 30 credits at this University; students requiring fewer than 30 credits to graduate will not normally be accepted. The Department will notify the Faculty Honours Committee of the acceptance. The Faculty Honours Committee will review the Departmental acceptance and notify the Department, the student, and the Registrar's Office of the acceptance. In those cases where the Faculty Committee reverses a Department's acceptance of a student into Honours, the Department may appeal the Faculty Committee's ruling to the Arts and Science Faculty Council.

Honours Regulations (Faculty Regulations) See also §16.2.3
In order to qualify for an Honours degree, a student must comply with the regulations set forth below.

1. An Honours student must meet the general degree requirements, as well as the specific requirements for an Honours degree. A student must complete a minimum of 30 credits in the courses from the Honours component of the programme at this University to receive a degree with Honours. In certain cases, these 30 credits may include some specific courses for which pro-tanto credit may not be awarded.

2. An Honours student must maintain an average of "B" in all courses in the Honours component of the programme; the minimum acceptable grade in any one of these courses is "C".

3. An Honours student must have a minimum average of "B" over courses in the Honours component of the programme taken in each academic year. For part-time students, this will be calculated in 18-credit blocks.

4. In the courses outside the Honours component of the degree programme, an Honours student must have an average of no less than "C"; the minimum acceptable grade in these courses is "D".

5. Students who are required to withdraw from the Honours programme may proceed in the corresponding Specialization or Major programme. Reinstatement in the Honours programme is possible only by appeal to the Faculty Honours Committee.

6. A student is allowed to qualify for only one Honours degree in either a single or combined Honours programme. A student may qualify for a Minor or Major programme in addition to an Honours programme. In general, the credits obtained for a particular course may be used to satisfy the requirements of only one programme. Students may appeal their Department's determination of their status or interpretation of requirements in the Honours programme. Such appeals should be addressed to the Chair of the Faculty Honours Committee. The Faculty of Arts and Science has an Honours Committee made up as follows: three faculty members; one student member; two Student Affairs advisers (non-voting); one representative of the Registrar's Office (non-voting); the Vice-Dean, Student Affairs who acts as chair. The Faculty Honours Committee receives and reviews Departmental recommendations for acceptance into Honours programmes and graduation with Honours, and adjudicates disputes between students and Departments concerning Honours programmes. Since the Faculty Honours Committee cannot hear appeals contesting its own judgements, students and Departments who wish to appeal a decision of the Faculty Honours Committee should address this appeal to the Dean of the Faculty.

These new regulations will apply to those students entering Honours programmes as of June 1, 1979. Students already in an Honours programme may continue under the old regulations established prior to June 1, 1979.

General Certificate in Arts and Science

The General Certificate in Arts and Science is intended primarily for part-time students who qualify for admission to Bachelor's degree programmes, but who, at the time of registration, have not yet determined which programme would best serve their interests. In particular, it is designed to meet the needs of Mature students who are unwilling or unable to make the long-term commitment involved in a regular or Extended degree programme. Students who have completed a university degree do not qualify for admission into the General Certificate in Arts and Science.

The Certificate requires successful completion of 30 credits. At least 24 of these credits must be chosen from courses offered by not more than three Departments in the Faculty of Arts and Science.

Credits earned in the Certificate may not be counted towards the additional credits required in Extended programmes.

Students may transfer into the Certificate programme up to twelve credits earned in an incomplete degree or Certificate programme or as an Independent student, provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

The General Certificate programme in Arts and Science was first offered in the session commencing September 1978. Students who are admitted to the General Certificate in Arts and Science, and who wish to continue in a degree programme should apply for admission to their programme within the first 30 credits.

31.003.1
Academic Performance Regulations

Objectives

The objectives of these regulations are to ensure that the Faculty can certify that all of its graduates have achieved an acceptable level of scholarship.

Annual Weighted Grade Point Average (WGPA)

See §16.3.10 for definition of Annual WGPA.

Acceptable standing requires that a student obtain an Annual WGPA of at least 2.00.

NOTE: Although a "C-" grade (1.70 grade points) is designated as Satisfactory in §16.3.3, a WGPA of 2.00 is required for acceptable standing.

Students in acceptable standing may continue their programmes of study, following the advice of their academic Departments.

Conditional standing results when a student obtains an Annual WGPA of less than 2.00, but at least 1.50. A student is not permitted to obtain two consecutive conditional standing assessments.

Students in conditional standing may not write supplemental examinations. Students in conditional standing will not be permitted to register for further study until their programme has been approved by the appropriate adviser in their Department. They must obtain acceptable standing at the time of their next assessment.

Failed standing results when a student obtains an Annual WGPA of less than 1.50, or conditional standing in two consecutive periods of assessment.

Failed students may not write Supplemental examinations. Students who are in failed standing for a second time will be dismissed from the University. In subsequent years, should they wish to return to University studies, they must contact the Office of the Registrar for information concerning conditions and procedures for seeking readmission. Decisions of the relevant authority in the Faculty to which application is made, are final.

Failed students who are not required to withdraw may apply for readmission through the Dean's Office of the Faculty to which they wish to be readmitted. If readmitted, they will be placed on academic probation. They must return to acceptable standing at the time of their next assessment. Other conditions will be determined at the time of readmission.
Graduation Requirements
Students must satisfy all course requirements and be in acceptable standing. The standings of potential graduates who have attempted less than 12 credits since their last assessment are determined on the basis that these credits constitute an extension of the last assessment period. Potential graduates who fail to meet the requirements of acceptable standing, but meet the requirements of conditional standing, will have the following options:

a) register for an additional 12 credits and, at the next assessment, meet the requirements for acceptable standing;
or

b) register for fewer than 12 additional credits.
In this case, standing will be determined on the basis that these extra credits constitute an extension of the last assessment period.
For both option a) and option b), the additional courses taken must be approved by the appropriate member of the Dean's Office, in consultation with the student's Department where necessary.

Dean's Office
Dean's Office is to be understood as being the appropriate member of the Dean's Office, normally the Vice-Dean, Student Affairs, or delegate.

31.004 JOINT PROGRAMMES
Subject to approval of the Departments concerned, students may take these or other specially designed programmes by being admitted to the Individually Structured programme (see programme description and admission procedures in §31.170):

BA Joint Honours in Education and Philosophy
BA Joint Honours in English and History
BA Joint Honours in English and one of the Modern Languages
BA Joint Specialization in English and one of the Modern Languages
BA Joint Honours in English and Philosophy
BA Joint Honours in English and Religion
BA Joint Honours in French and History
BA Joint Honours in French and one of the Modern Languages
BA Joint Honours in History and Philosophy
BA Joint Honours in History and Religion
BA Joint Honours in Philosophy and Religion
BA Joint Honours in Philosophy and Sociology
BA Joint Honours in Religion and Sociology

Students wishing to have further information about these programmes should consult the Departments concerned.

Department Objectives

From organizational development, group dynamics, and communications, to health psychology, gerontology and family education, the Department of Applied Social Science provides the solid professional grounding essential for understanding "real world" human systems.

Close associations with a practising faculty encourage students to relate what they have already learned from life to what they are learning in the classroom. This blend of theory and practice teaches students to work cooperatively, to understand change, and to help people make constructive interventions in their lives, their organizations, and their communities. The department offers two undergraduate programmes in Applied Social Science and two certificates: one in Community Service and the other Family Life Education.

Programmes

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

60 BA Specialization in Applied Social Science
NOTE: PSYC 200 is a prerequisite for the Psychology courses included in this programme.

Students not exempted from PSYC 200 must enrol in this course during their first year.

The Sociology courses included in this programme also have prerequisites (e.g., SOCI 203 which should be taken in their first year).

- APSS 240\(^\text{3}\), 250\(^\text{3}\)
- PSYC 310\(^\text{3}\) and 315\(^\text{3}\) taken concurrently
- APSS 331
- Chosen from APSS 420\(^\text{5}\), 440\(^\text{5}\), 450\(^\text{5}\)
- APSS 490

27 Chosen from Lists A, B, C, and D.

At least six credits and not more than 12 credits must be chosen from APSS courses. At least six credits must be chosen from List A and a further six credits from one other List: B, C, or D.

List A: Social Theory
PSYC 333\(^\text{5}\), SOCI 300\(^\text{5}\), 330\(^\text{5}\), 370\(^\text{5}\)

List B: Understanding Individuals and Groups
APSS 313\(^\text{5}\), 318\(^\text{5}\), 353\(^\text{5}\), 356\(^\text{5}\), 419\(^\text{5}\), 450\(^\text{5}\), 463\(^\text{5}\), ADED 344\(^\text{5}\), 345\(^\text{5}\), PSYC 283\(^\text{5}\), 284\(^\text{5}\), 336\(^\text{5}\), 379\(^\text{5}\),
SOCI 262\(^\text{5}\), 263\(^\text{5}\), 372\(^\text{5}\)

List C: Understanding Communities
APSS 361\(^\text{5}\), 440\(^\text{5}\), GEOG 313\(^\text{5}\), 331\(^\text{5}\), SOCI 280\(^\text{5}\), 353\(^\text{5}\), 354\(^\text{5}\), 382\(^\text{5}\),
URBS 280\(^\text{5}\)

List D: Understanding Organizations
APSS 420\(^\text{5}\), MANA 266\(^\text{5}\), 340\(^\text{5}\), PSYC 375\(^\text{5}\), SOCI 329\(^\text{5}\), 429\(^\text{5}\)

42 BA Major in Applied Social Science
NOTE: PSYC 200 is a prerequisite for the Psychology courses included in this programme. Students not exempted from PSYC 200 must enrol in this course during their first year.
The Sociology courses included in this programme also have prerequisites (e.g., SOCI 203) which should be taken in their first year.

9 APSS 240, 250
6 APSS 331
6 Chosen from APSS 420, 440, 450
3 APSS 415
18 Chosen from Lists A, B, C, and D.

At least six credits and not more than 12 credits must be chosen from APSS courses. At least six credits must be chosen from List A and a further six credits from one other List: B, C, or D.

List A: Social Theory
PSYC 333; SOCI 300, 330, 370

Certificate in Community Service
The Department of Applied Social Science offers a 30-credit programme consisting of 21 credits in the Department and nine credits which complement these from other disciplines leading to the Concordia University Certificate in Community Service. Students may transfer into the Certificate programme up to 12 credits earned in an incomplete degree or certificate programme or as an Independent student provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

Admission Requirements
General admission requirements are listed in §13.
Students are required to complete the 0.00A entrance profile to enter the Certificate.
Students should be actively involved in community service, either as staff or as volunteers or members of boards, committees, or councils of community organizations and agencies.

30 Certificate in Community Service
NOTE: APSS 240, PSYC 200 and SOCI 203 are prerequisites for courses included in this Certificate.
(Courses must be taken in an approved sequence and selected in consultation with the coordinator of the Certificate programme in accordance with the selected emphasis in addiction education, community intervention, gerontology or organizational leadership.)

Stage I
9 APSS 250, 361

Stage II
9 Chosen in consultation with the coordinator of the Certificate programme from outside APSS
6 APSS 331

Stage III
6 Chosen from APSS 318, 419, 420, 440

NOTE: In the event that a student is awarded an exemption from a required course, it will be necessary for the student to replace that course with another relevant to the programme, chosen in consultation with the coordinator of the Certificate Programme.

Certificate in Family Life Education
The Department of Applied Social Science offers a 30-credit programme consisting of 18 credits of applied courses and 12 credits of foundation courses chosen as electives, leading to the Concordia University Certificate in Family Life Education. Students may transfer into the Certificate programme up to 12 credits earned in an incomplete degree or certificate programme or as an Independent student provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

Admission Requirements
General admission requirements are listed in §13.
Students are required to complete the 0.00A entrance profile to enter the Certificate.
Students should be actively involved in family life education through a sponsoring community agency or organization; or interested in becoming more effective family life educators.

30 Certificate in Family Life Education
NOTE: APSS 240, PSYC 200 and SOCI 203 are prerequisites for courses included in this Certificate.
(Courses must be taken in an approved sequence and selected in consultation with the coordinator of the Certificate programme.)

Stage I
6 APSS 250\(^1\), 354\(^1\)

Stage II
12 Chosen from EDUC 398\(^1\); PSYC 280\(^2\), 281\(^2\), 283\(^2\), 284\(^2\), 298\(^2\); SOCI 262\(^2\), 263\(^2\), 272\(^2\), 274\(^2\), 372\(^2\), 373\(^2\), 398\(^2\); RELI 333\(^3\), 334\(^3\), 370\(^3\)

Stage III
12 APSS 331\(^1\), 353\(^1\), 455\(^2\)

NOTE: In the event that a student is awarded an exemption from a required course, it will be necessary for the student to replace that course with another relevant to the programme, chosen in consultation with the coordinator of the Certificate programme.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

APSS 240 Interpersonal and Group Dynamics (6 credits)
This course is designed to foster development of understanding with respect to self, self in relation to others, and patterns of relationships in small groups. This involves skill-building in: relating and communicating with others; observation and diagnosis of relationships and group dynamics; problem-solving; decision-making; and intervention. The course also includes learning and application of interpersonal communication and group development theory. The course requires active participation, reflective assignments such as journal writing, and learning how to use theory to interpret observation and experience.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 355 and 356 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 250 Applied Social Science Approaches to Social Problems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in APSS programmes. This course focuses on two questions: What is a social problem? What is a social response? The exploration of these questions is field-based, supported by cases, research of the literature, and reflection on the issues there discovered. Students are introduced to the concepts and processes of social systems and social intervention. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 212 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 298 Selected Topics in Applied Social Science (3 credits)
APSS 299 Selected Topics in Applied Social Science (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

APSS 313 Adolescent Behaviour in Urban Areas (6 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 240; APSS 250. A survey of adolescent values, family and group relations, social mobility, friendship patterns, and educational and vocational adjustment, focusing on understanding social behaviour in urban communities. Attention is also given to programmes attempting to enhance adolescent development and reduce social problems.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 413 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 318 Gerontology for the Practitioner I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 240. This course provides an overview of the status and problems of the elderly in our society. Through interviews, visits, readings, and lecture-discussions, the course is designed to foster an understanding of some of the problems confronting the elderly. Attention is given to the resources available for the elderly as well as to approaches to the problems of the elderly that maximize their sense of responsibility.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 418 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 331 Leadership in Group Development (6 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 240; APSS 250. This course is designed to provide students with an opportunity to increase their effectiveness in leading small groups; to identify their leadership styles and to adapt individual styles to a variety of situations. The course focuses on: factors helping and hindering group process; communication patterns; problem-solving; handling conflicts; and dealing with personal needs of members. Special attention is given to tools for systematic observation, group diagnosis, and group self-analysis techniques. Students are required to study the development of an outside group through the year. Lectures, laboratory, and fieldwork.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 431 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 353  Sexuality and Human Relations  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 240. Using a variety of small group processes, the seminar explores physical and psychosocial factors in the emergence of the sexual self. Objectives of the seminar include helping students to increase awareness of sexual values and attitudes. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 453 may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: Students will receive no more than six credits from APSS 353 and HEAL 472.

APSS 354  Special Seminar in Family Communication  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: This course is for Certificate students only. Students must have completed APSS 240 to enter the Certificate programme. A course in marriage and family living, including decision-making, interpersonal relationships, communication, male-female lifestyle, and problem-solving within a family. Handling of crisis, loneliness, death, and dying are also considered. The course studies marriage and family relationships in a way that can pertain directly to the student's own living experiences. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 454 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 356  Interviewing  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 240; APSS 250. The course reviews different forms of interviewing, communication influences on the interviewer and interviewee, structure and design features of interviews, construction of questions, building rapport, controlling information flow, and limitations of the approach. Illustrations of interviewing are taken from the contexts of business, counselling, mass media, and research, among others. Approximately equal emphasis is devoted to theoretical discussions and practice.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 456 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 361  Human Services: Public Policy and Current Issues  (6 credits)
A general course concerned with human services problems in modern society; some analysis of these problems in relation to economic and cultural patterns. A description of the functional settings in which human services are practised. A consideration of the methods used in human services, and some consideration of the links between human services and religion, law, medicine, nursing, teaching, and other professions.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 461 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 398  Selected Topics in Applied Social Science  (3 credits)

APSS 399  Selected Topics in Applied Social Science  (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

APSS 415  Personal Values and Social Problems  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the BA Major in Applied Social Science and completion of 60 credits in the degree programme. This course is designed as an integrative seminar for final-year students. It is intended to help students draw together their learning from a variety of disciplines and relate it to practical conditions of the social world. The course includes identification of personal strengths, interests, goals, and values related to social and community service.

APSS 419  Gerontology for the Practitioner II  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 318. This course focuses in depth on one or two pivotal issues for the elderly in our society. In this course students interview the elderly, visit community resources for the elderly, and develop approaches to the solutions for the problems identified.

APSS 420  Organizational Change and Development  (6 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 240; APSS 250; APSS 331. This course focuses on the leader who solves problems and makes decisions in conjunction with other people in community-serving organizations. The basic objective of this course is to increase knowledge and understanding of human behaviour in the

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE • 151
The course focuses on: i) theory and research, ii) understanding of the processes of leadership and decision-making, iii) behavioural skills in working with people, iv) understanding of oneself in relation to administrative responsibility. This course relies heavily on active participation of class members. This course has a fieldwork requirement.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 421 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 440 Community Development (6 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 240; APSS 250; APSS 331. This course has students working as volunteers in a community agency engaged in outreach work or community development. Class sessions are designed for theoretical input on problems identified in students' field placement experience. Class sessions include theory presentations, games and simulations, and problem-solving. The emphasis is on discovering what a social system is by observation and participation and finding out how to manage interventions in an appropriate fashion. Lectures and a fieldwork requirement.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 441 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 450 Principles and Practices of Counselling (6 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 240. This course is designed to introduce students to the basic concepts of helping. Through theoretical and experiential approaches instruction focuses on basic concepts of relating to another person in a helping relationship and skill development in interviewing. Students are briefly introduced to various counselling theories and approaches to clarify their own theoretical position in a helping relationship. This course is not designed to equip students to become professional counsellors, but to introduce them to the field and prepare them for future study and training. The course includes skill training, observation and demonstration exercises, role play, practice and discussion sessions, theory input, and the use of films and video. This course has a fieldwork requirement.

APSS 455 Advanced Integrative Seminar in Family Life Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: This course is for Certificate students only who must be in the final year of the programme. The purpose of this course is to coordinate the other courses required by the programme and to integrate the theory derived from the contributing disciplines within an applied social science perspective. Lectures, laboratory, and fieldwork.

APSS 463 Adulthood: Patterns and Transitions (6 credits)
Prerequisite: APSS 240; APSS 250; permission of the Department. The course addresses itself to the phenomenon of adult development from early adulthood through maturity. The focus is on both the content of the life changes observed, and on the process of change from one life stage or period to another. Participants explore the patterns of change in their own lives and relate these patterns to contemporary theories of adult development. The relationship of life changes to cultural and historical features of the times, and to working in social systems as helping professionals are also examined. Thus, autobiographical accounts of class participants, and existing research evidence describing normative life changes, reactions to these, and the nature of the change process are integrated in the evaluation of relevant theory.

APSS 471 Special Projects Seminar (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Completion of 30 credits in Specialization or Major in Applied Social Science and permission of the Department. A seminar course of field projects, surveys, and research studies undertaken by each student.

APSS 472 Special Projects Seminar (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Completion of 30 credits in Specialization or Major in Applied Social Science and permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for APSS 471 may register for APSS 472 provided the subject matter is different.

APSS 487 Independent Study in Applied Social Science (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is intended for students who wish to continue a project initiated in another course in the Department. The instructor of that course must agree to supervise this independent study.

APSS 490 Approaches to Applied Social Research (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the BA Specialization in APSS and completion of 60 credits in the degree programme. This course is a project seminar which explores research approaches commonly used by social practitioners such as action research, survey-feedback studies, and programme evaluation. Each of the alternative modes of research relate directly to social and organizational change. Approaches of particular interest in this course are those which maximize involvement by people in directing their own change. The course includes a research project which utilizes an approach to applied social research of most interest to the student. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for APSS 400 may not take this course for credit.

APSS 498 Advanced Topics in Applied Social Science (3 credits)

APSS 499 Advanced Topics in Applied Social Science (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

Department Objectives

The Biology Department is dedicated to teaching and research that advances understanding of life from molecules and cells to organisms, populations and entire ecosystems. The Department's programs inspire students with an appreciation of the rich diversity of the living world.

Students acquire a comprehensive grounding in modern biology through classroom study as well as extensive hands-on training in research methodology. A variety of specialized laboratories and equipment supports both research and teaching activities.

Programmes

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

Courses offered by the Biology Department are classified as follows:

A. ANIMAL BIOLOGY COURSES

B. BOTANY COURSES
BIOL 240, 341, 342, 344, 345, 347, 348, 441, 442.

C. ECOLOGY COURSES

D. CELL AND MOLECULAR BIOLOGY COURSES

E. BIOLOGY ELECTIVE COURSES
BIOL 298, 299, 320, 321, 322, 323, 380, 396, 399, 420, 480, 481, 490, and any of the Animal Biology, Botany, Ecology, or Cell and Molecular Biology courses. Approved courses outside the Department may be taken for Biology elective credits.
NOTE: Advanced Topics courses (BIOL 498, BIOL 499) will be given from time to time and may be applied to the above areas, where appropriate. The area will be indicated in the title (i.e. Advanced Topics in Botany, ...; Advanced Topics in Ecology, ...). Please consult the current Biology Course Guide.

Although the Biology Department offers Honours, Specialization, Major and Minor programmes, we recommend that students wishing to pursue careers in Biology take either an Honours or Specialization programme. The Major and Minor programmes are not designed to provide an extensive enough background in Biology for students to progress to careers in the discipline. The Major should be considered by students requiring a less specialized degree, with a biology concentration or as part of a double major programme. The Minor is designed to be flexible and allow a student whose area of concentration is outside of Biology to take courses to provide either a general survey or to gain a more in-depth understanding of one of the major areas of biology.

For those wishing to concentrate in a particular area, recommended sequences of courses are described in course guides available in the Biology Department. It is also strongly recommended that students taking any Biology programme take full advantage of the counselling available within the Department, in order to select the courses that will best meet their needs.

72 BSc Honours in Biology
An approved sequence of courses from the following selection constitutes an Honours in Biology. Students must consult with the Departmental Honours Adviser before registering for the Honours programme.

33 CHEM 221\textsuperscript{3}, and 222\textsuperscript{3}, 271\textsuperscript{3}; BIOL 230\textsuperscript{3}, 240\textsuperscript{3}, 250\textsuperscript{3}, 261\textsuperscript{3}, 270\textsuperscript{3}, 322\textsuperscript{4*}, 490\textsuperscript{3}
6 Chosen from BIOL 333\textsuperscript{3}, 346\textsuperscript{3}, 349\textsuperscript{3}, 364\textsuperscript{3} or 464\textsuperscript{3}
33 Additional Biology credits, no more than nine of which may be taken from Group E.

NOTE: A minimum of 21 credits in 300- and 400-level Biology courses must be completed, excluding BIOL 490.

*Students entering the programme with CEGEP Organic Chemistry must replace these credits with Biology electives.

NOTE: A student who has taken MATH 242\textsuperscript{3}, 243\textsuperscript{3}, plus three credits from either MATH 343, 347 or 348 will be exempted from taking BIOL 322, and be credited with three credits in the Biology programme plus six elective credits. A student cannot replace BIOL 322 by taking MATH 242, 243 alone.

42 BSc Major in Biology
An approved sequence of courses from the following selection constitutes a Major in Biology.

21 CHEM 221\textsuperscript{3} and 222\textsuperscript{3}, 271\textsuperscript{3}; BIOL 230\textsuperscript{3}, 240\textsuperscript{3}, 250\textsuperscript{3}, 261\textsuperscript{3}
3 Chosen from BIOL 322\textsuperscript{3}, 333\textsuperscript{3}, 346\textsuperscript{3}, 349\textsuperscript{3}, 364\textsuperscript{3} or 464\textsuperscript{3}
18 Additional Biology credits of which no more than six may be from Group E.

NOTE: A minimum of six credits in 300- or 400-level Biology courses must be completed.

*Students entering the programme with CEGEP Organic Chemistry must replace these credits with Biology electives.

A student who has taken MATH 242\textsuperscript{3}, 243\textsuperscript{3}, plus three credits from either MATH 343, 347 or 348 will be exempted from taking BIOL 322, and be credited with three credits in the Biology programme plus six elective credits. A student cannot replace BIOL 322 by taking MATH 242, 243 alone.

60 BSc Specialization in Biology
An approved sequence of courses from the following selection constitutes a Specialization in Biology.

27 CHEM 221\textsuperscript{4*} and 222\textsuperscript{4*}, 271\textsuperscript{3}; BIOL 230\textsuperscript{3}, 240\textsuperscript{3}, 250\textsuperscript{3}, 261\textsuperscript{3}, 270\textsuperscript{3}, 322\textsuperscript{4*}, 490\textsuperscript{3}
6 Chosen from BIOL 333\textsuperscript{3}, 346\textsuperscript{3}, 349\textsuperscript{3}, 364\textsuperscript{3} or 464\textsuperscript{3}
27 Additional Biology credits, no more than nine of which may be from Group E.

NOTE: A minimum of 15 credits in 300- and 400-level Biology courses must be completed, excluding BIOL 490.

*Students entering the programme with CEGEP Organic Chemistry must replace these credits with Biology electives.

NOTE: A student who has taken MATH 242\textsuperscript{3}, 243\textsuperscript{3}, plus three credits from either MATH 343, 347 or 348 will be exempted from taking BIOL 322, and be credited with three credits in the Biology programme plus six elective credits. A student cannot replace BIOL 322 by taking MATH 242, 243 alone.

24 Minor in Biology
Selected from A. Animal Biology courses, B. Botany courses, C. Ecology courses, D. Cell and Molecular Biology courses.

12 BIOL electives.

78 BSc Specialization in Geology-Ecology
See §31.140, Geology.

BIOLOGY • 155
Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

BIOL 200
Fundamentals of Human Biology (6 credits)
A series of lectures, demonstrations, and seminars to provide non-biologists with a general survey of the fundamental principles of life, with special emphasis on the structures and functions of human beings. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credit. This course covers the same material as CEGEP Biology 921/931.

BIOL 201
Introductory Biology (3 credits)
Fundamentals of plant and animal biology: basic physics and chemistry of life; cell and tissue structures and functions; anatomy and physiology of human systems; survey of plant and animal taxonomy, ecology, heredity and evolution. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: Students with CEGEP Biology 301, or equivalent, may not take this course for credit. Students entering BIOL programmes without CEGEP Biology 301, or equivalent, must take this course, but not for programme credit.

BIOL 203
Fundamental Nutrition (3 credits)
This course deals with food composition (carbohydrates, lipids, proteins, vitamins, and minerals), its absorption and utilization, energy balance, special diets, and food technology. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 206
Elementary Genetics (3 credits)
A survey of classical and contemporary developments in the study of heredity, with particular attention to human examples. This course is open to the general student body. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 207
Micro-Organisms and Humanity (3 credits)
A course designed for students registered in a programme other than one leading to the BSc degree. It considers the role of micro-organisms in plant and animal diseases, food spoilage, cellulose degradation, and water pollution, as well as their ecological, industrial, and pharmacological importance. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 208
Environmental Biology I (3 credits)
This course examines the principles and concepts of ecosystems, the interaction of organisms and their environment. Energy flow and nutrient cycling in ecosystems, population dynamics, and community organization. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 210
Genetics and Human Welfare (3 credits)
A course on the principles of heredity as understood by modern biology. It deals also with the application of genetic principles to organisms, including humans. The biological basis of social problems is dealt with at some length. Organic evolution and its implications for human life and welfare are considered. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credit; may not be taken for credit with BIOL 206.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOL 205 may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 230
Animal Biology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. A survey of the major animal phyla, with emphasis on evolutionary trends, structure and function, behaviour and integration of organ systems. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 232
Entomology I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230. This course introduces the student to the variety and complexity of insect life. Basic classification is followed by a more detailed study of morphology and anatomy, together with some physiological considerations. Other topics such as adaptations for aquatic life, social behaviour, etc., are discussed. Laboratories begin with a field trip, the object of which is to observe and collect various insect species. The rest of the laboratory sessions complement the lectures. Students are advised to begin an insect collection during the summer months preceding the course. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 233
Entomology II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 232. To the initiated students, this course presents an in-depth study of insect behaviour. Topics include sensory physiology, insects and plants, light and sound production, population dynamics, and insect ecology. An attempt is made throughout the course to emphasize the relationship between the structure and function of various insect parts. Lectures and seminars.

BIOL 240  Plant Biology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. A survey of the major plant phyla, with emphasis on evolutionary trends, distribution, life cycles, morphology, development, physiology, anatomy. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 250  Fundamentals of Ecology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. This course introduces factors which affect distribution and abundance of species; the physical-chemical environment, energy flow, and species interactions. Other topics introduced include adaptation to the abiotic and biotic environment, population regulation, ecological succession, species diversity and community structure. Lectures only.

BIOL 261  Genetics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent; CEGEP Biology 401 or equivalent recommended. A course to illustrate the fundamental principles of inheritance in plants, animals, and microorganisms. Mendelian genetics, gene linkage, and mutation are covered. The role of DNA as the hereditary material and the genetic code are studied in detail, as are the mechanisms of DNA, RNA, and protein synthesis. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOL 260 may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 262  Genetics II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 261. This course develops further the principles introduced in BIOL 261 with the emphasis on an understanding at the molecular level. The following topics are covered: DNA and chromosome structure, replication, gene regulation, mutation, DNA damage and repair, extra-chromosomal elements, and genetic engineering. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a BIOL 298 number may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 270  Introductory Microbiology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. Structure and function of bacteria and viruses as related to industry, health, agriculture, and ecology. Laboratory exercises illustrate lecture material and introduce methods of handling microorganisms. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 288  Selected Topics in Biology (3 credits)

BIOL 299  Selected Topics in Biology (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

BIOL 320  History of Biology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits from the Department of Biology. This course is oriented towards the beginnings of formal biology in relation to the state of knowledge at the time, and the development of these ideas up to the beginning of the present century. Emphasis is on broad principles rather than on encyclopedic or biographical notes. Much illustrative or detailed information is provided by the class, since each student must present a seminar on a topic chosen from the history of biology. Lectures only.

BIOL 321  Evolution (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Any 12 credits from the Department of Biology. This course examines concepts leading from Darwin's theory to a modern synthesis of evolution. Lectures only.

BIOL 322  Biostatistics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Nine BIOL credits in a Biology Major, Honours or Specialization Programme. Statistical methods for the biological sciences; sampling; experimental design; data description; elementary probability; binomial, Poisson and Normal distributions; statistical inference; hypothesis testing; chi-square; analysis of variance; correlation; regression; covariance analysis; and analogous non-parametric techniques. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE See §200.7
NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOL 222 or MATH 241 may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 323  Biology of Aging (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230; BIOL 261. Aging as a biological process is examined at physiological, evolutionary, genetic, cellular, and molecular levels. Current theories of aging are examined; these include the rate-of-living theory, the error-catastrophe theory, the autoimmune theory, the cross-linkage theory, and the somatic-mutation theory. Studies on aging in protozoans, plants, animals, and cells in culture are evaluated in relation to these theories. Lectures only.

BIOL 330  Biology of the Vertebrates (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230. A survey of the fishes, amphibians, reptiles, birds, and mammals. Emphasis is placed on phylogeny of the groups and the adaptations that fit them to their environments. Topics include zoogeography, physiology, communication, reproduction, etc. Lectures only. NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOL 231 may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 331 Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy (6 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230. A comprehensive study of the development and structure of the systems of a representative series of vertebrates from a comparative and evolutionary point of view, with some emphasis on the mammals. In the laboratory, representatives of the principal classes of vertebrates are dissected. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 332 Parasitology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230 or BIOL 234, previously or concurrently. A survey of the parasitic groups of invertebrates, with special reference to human parasites. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with BIOL 339.

BIOL 333 Animal Physiology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230; CHEM 271; 30 credits in Biology. An integrated study of basic physiological phenomena of vertebrates. Topics discussed include muscle function, nervous system, circulation, respiration, temperature regulation, digestion, metabolism, excretion, and endocrinology. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 334 Vertebrate Embryology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230. The fundamental processes of growth and development in vertebrates are examined. Morphogenetic events in selected vertebrate species are compared by laboratory study. Topics covered include reproduction, gemetogenesis, fertilization, cleavage patterns, gastrulation, organogenesis, metamorphosis, regeneration and extra-embryonic membranes. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 335 Histology I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230. A comparative study of the microscopic characteristics of cells, tissues, and organs of vertebrates. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 336 Histology II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 335; BIOL 331 recommended. An advanced comparative study of the vertebrate organ systems at the ultrastructural and histological level. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 337 Invertebrate Zoology I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 201. The Protozoa, Acoelomate and Pseudocoeleome Invertebrates: A detailed survey of non-coelomate invertebrates which deals in depth with the Protozoa, Porifera, Cnidaria, Platyhelminthes, Nematoda, Acanthocephala, and Rotifera. Emphasis in lectures is placed on phylogeny, physiology, functional morphology, adaptations to specific environments, and reproduction. Close attention is paid to evolutionary trends within and between phylogenetic groups. Both origin of the metazoa from single-celled ancestors and the role of the lower metazoa in the evolution of higher animals are examined. Laboratory work stresses morphology of both preserved and living material and, where possible, live specimens are used to demonstrate behaviour. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOL 234 may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 338 Invertebrate Zoology II (3 credits)
Prerequisites: BIOL 230 or BIOL 234. The Coelomate Invertebrates: A detailed examination of the major coelomate invertebrate phyla including the Annelids, Molluscs, Arthropods (excluding Insects), Echinoderms and, if time permits, minor coelomate phyla. Lectures stress functional morphology, physiology, and reproduction. Emphasis in the laboratory is on dissection of a selected representative from each group and a detailed examination of characteristics of a range of other representatives of each group. Where possible, living specimens are used to demonstrate behaviour. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOL 235 may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 341 Biology of the Fungi (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 270. A study of the morphology, taxonomy, phylogeny, and ecology of the fungi; their importance in agriculture, industry, medicine, and research is emphasized. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 342 Eastern North American Flora (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 240, previously or concurrently. A study of higher plant life occurring in Eastern North America, including recognition, collection, identification, classification, and distribution. Fieldwork for practical experience with the regional flora in various habitats. Lectures and laboratory.
BIOL 344  Biology of Algae (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 240. Taxonomy, physiology, and ecology of algae, with special consideration of their involvement in water pollution, sewage treatment, primary production, and their utilization in industry. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOL 246 may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 345  Horticultural Science
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 240. The scientific concepts of horticulture are emphasized. Topics include plant breeding for adaptation to climate, chemical regulation of plant processes and effects on crop yield, environmental factors in crop production, pollutant impact on horticulture, problems in bulk storage, processing and marketing of perishables. The role of horticultural science in meeting world food requirements, as well as its impact on society, are discussed. Lectures only.

BIOL 346  Physiology of Plant Development (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 240. Physiological and biochemical aspects of plant growth and development. Plant responses to growth regulators, their mode of action and their use in plant tissue culture. The role of light and temperature in seed germination, dormancy, and flowering. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 347  Plant Anatomy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 240. A study of the internal structure of the plant as related to the processes of growth and metabolism. An experimental approach is presented to the study of the relationship between structure and function of various parts of the plant. The study of pathological, ecological, and economic aspects of anatomy, with emphasis on developmental anatomy. Laboratory work includes the preparation of permanent slides, using plant microtechnique. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 349  Plant Nutrition and Metabolism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 240. A study of the physiological processes of higher plants relating to water relations, mineral nutrition, photosynthesis, carbohydrate and nitrogen metabolism. These processes are discussed in relation to the environmental factors which govern them. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 352  Plant Field Ecology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 240; BIOL 250; BIOL 322. This course is normally offered for a two-week period during August at the Lacolle Centre. It involves identification of local plant species, methods of sampling of communities, and examination of the pattern of plant communities in the area. Handling of data on populations and communities is discussed, as well as statistical analysis of population and community data. A mixture of formal lectures, organized field studies, and informal discussion. Students are required to hand in a written report after the course has ended.

BIOL 355  Fundamentals of Limnology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 250, previously or concurrently. An introduction to the study of inland waters ecosystems with major emphases on geographical, physical, and chemical characteristics that govern lake productivity. Topics include: the origin of lake basins, lake morphology and morphometry, hydromechanics, the optical and thermal properties of lakes, dissolved chemicals. Questions concerning water pollution are studied. Lectures only.

BIOL 356  Microbial Ecology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 250; BIOL 270. The properties of microbial habitats, structure and dynamics of microbial communities and their role in the decomposition processes. Particular stress is placed on the interactions between microbes and higher organisms in terrestrial ecosystems that mediate the cycling of nutrients between biotic and abiotic parts of the system. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 357  Ecology and Behaviour Field Course (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 250; BIOL 322; permission of the Department. The course involves acquiring technical skills in the fields of limnology, animal behaviour, plant ecology, population and community ecology. This course is given in association with the Department of Biology of McGill University. The course lasts two full weeks at the end of August and is held at the Mont St. Hilaire-Gault Estate Field Station of McGill University.

BIOL 358  Introduction to Animal Behaviour (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 250. This course focuses primarily, although not exclusively, on the proximate causation of behaviour. Topics include development, learning, genetics, hormonal control of behaviour, motivation, cyclical changes in behaviour as well as sensory processing, orientation and perception. The course is geared to provide an ecological perspective on animal behaviour. Lectures and project.
BIOL 359  Evolutionary Ecology  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 250. This course covers current topics in evolutionary ecology and specific topics covered may change from year to year. The aim of the course is to provide students with the knowledge and ability to critically evaluate and test evolutionary hypotheses in ecology and behaviour. Topics covered may include mechanisms of evolution, natural selection, the unit of evolution, and the adaptive significance and evolution of such ecologically relevant traits as body size, sex, sex ratio, and senescence. Lectures only.

BIOL 361  Cellular Metabolism I  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 221; CHEM 222. The course covers various simple aspects of metabolism in both animals and plants, distribution of cell organelles and their metabolism, energy production and utilization, nucleic acids and protein synthesis. Lectures only.

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with CHEM 271.

BIOL 362  Cellular Metabolism II  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 361 or CHEM 271. Emphasis is placed on various aspects of intermediary metabolism, regulation of cellular processes and bioenergetics; transmission and expression of genetic information. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 364  Cell Physiology  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 221; CHEM 222 or 30 credits in a Biology, Chemistry or Biochemistry Honours, Specialization or Major programme; CHEM 271 recommended. A survey of the mechanisms involved in functions of single cells and subcellular components, particularly organelles; membrane phenomena, motility, bioenergetics, and cellular responses to environmental stress, including ionizing radiation, cold, and hydrostatic pressure. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 365  Cytology  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 221; CHEM 222; 30 credits in Biology, Honours, Specialization or Major programme. Cell structure and ultrastructure, with reference to organelle function; microscopic and cyto-chemical techniques of analysis. Emphasis is on experimental, molecular, and ultrastructure analysis, to achieve a correlation between cell structure and function. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 366  Mechanisms of Development  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230; BIOL 261. This course deals with the mechanisms of cellular interaction and genetic control which govern animal development and cell differentiation. This includes how cell movement and cell recognition takes place, how the genome is restricted in differentiation, how cytoplasmic signals influence differentiation, how gradients affect development, how genes control segmentation, and how oncogenes, growth factors, and hormones influence development. The role of genetic engineering in the understanding of developmental processes is discussed. Lectures only.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOL 463 may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 370  Intermediate Microbiology  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 270; CHEM 221; CHEM 222; CHEM 271 recommended. Designed to continue from BIOL 270. Nutrition and metabolism of micro-organisms, with special emphasis on metabolic processes unique to micro-organisms (fermentations, oxidation of inorganic compounds, aerobic respiration, and anaerobic respiration). Basic immunology and immunochemistry; brief discussion of microbes in medicine and industry. Laboratory includes metabolic and serologic methods of identifying micro-organisms. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 370  Nutrition  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 221; CHEM 222; CHEM 271 recommended. The concept of a balanced diet is studied in relation to caloric content, and to protein, lipid, carbohydrate, vitamin, and mineral requirements. The consequences of dietary deficiencies are examined. Special topics such as dieting, organic foods, megavitamins, food additives, and toxins are discussed. Lectures only.

BIOL 381  Biology of Pollutants  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 359. The purpose of this course is to study the impact of pollution on ecosystems. The major classes of pollutants are considered in relation to their nature, origin and distribution, and particularly their mode of action on individual organisms and ecosystems. Air, water, and soil are examined with their respective pollutants and a major emphasis is given to quantitative assessments of various agents and their effects. The course also includes theoretical and practical aspects of bioassays and an overview of case studies and of control measures. Lectures only.

BIOL 398  Intermediate Topics in Biology  (3 credits)
BIOL 399 Intermediate Topics in Biology (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

BIOL 420 Radiation Biology and Radiotracer Methodology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 261; BIOL 364. A survey of the elements of radiation physics, with emphasis on the properties of ionizing radiation and its interaction with matter, including dosimetry and methods of radiation counting. The biological effects of radiation at the macromolecular, cellular, and organismal level are considered. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 431 Biology of Fishes (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 230; BIOL 250; BIOL 322. A general survey of the biology of fishes with emphasis placed on their unique adaptations as aquatic organisms. Lecture topics include an introduction to systematics and evolution, anatomy, physiology, behaviour, and ecology. Laboratory exercises include two, one-day field trips to sample local fish communities in streams, and keying and identifying fishes in the Concordia fish collection. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 432 Comparative and Environmental Physiology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 333. The primary theme of this course is the physiological interrelationships between animals, and their environments. A comparative study of selected physiological processes in diverse phyla, dealing with behavioural and physiological adaptations in animals. Lectures and seminars.

BIOL 435 Advanced Parasitology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 332. An examination of the biological aspects of parasitism. Proposed topics include host findings behaviour, distribution of parasites within host populations, seasonal variation in parasite populations and its causes, interspecific and intraspecific interactions among parasites, and the evolution of host parasite relations. Lectures and laboratory.

BIOL 436 Biology of the Mammals (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 330; third-year standing.

A survey of the Class Mammalia. Theories as to the origin of mammals, and the distribution, ecology, and adaptations of modern mammals are examined. A term paper on a subject chosen in consultation with the instructor is required. Lectures only.

BIOL 441 Plant Biochemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 271. Biochemical study of the natural constituents and secondary metabolites unique to plants. Their biosynthesis, biotransformations, and functions in plants, as well as their economic and pharmacologic importance are stressed. Lectures only.

BIOL 442 Perspectives in Plant Tissue Culture and Plant Biotechnology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 348. This course looks at plant-growth regulators, nutritional requirements and other factors necessary for in-vitro culturing of plant cells and tissues. The course also discusses methods available for nuclear transfers and the propagation of transformed plants. Lectures only.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a BIOL 498 number may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 452 Ecological Genetics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 250; BIOL 261; BIOL 322; or permission of the Department. A course emphasizing the interface between ecology, population genetics and evolution: the study of genetic variation in natural populations and its relevance to evolutionary processes. Topics include, measuring genetic diversity in natural populations; patterns of diversity; selection; phenotype vs. genotype in evolution; neutral variation, genetic load; genetic structure; the species concept; the unit of evolution; Neo-Darwinism and the modern synthesis. Lectures only.

BIOL 453 Behavioural Ecology and Sociobiology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 250; BIOL 358. This course is meant to allow students who already have a basic knowledge of animal behaviour to integrate the phenomenon of behaviour into ecological and evolutionary perspectives. The lecture topics include foraging theory, both social and non-social, habitat distribution theory, sexual selection resulting from mate choice and intra-sexual competition, and evolution of social systems in both vertebrates and invertebrates. The evolution of social systems are studied from the point of view of mating systems and advantages of gregarious behaviour. Lectures only.

of procaryotes—a study of the biochemical activities underlying the life of micro-organisms. A description of the diverse biochemical adaptations used by micro-organisms to obtain energy and building materials from their various environments. Lectures and conferences.

BIOL 480
Ecotoxicology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 250; BIOL 322; CHEM 222; 60 credits. This course presents a survey of the ecological behaviour and effects of toxicants in nature. It considers the impact of pollutants on various ecosystems, including freshwater, marine, and terrestrial. Topics include the effects of certain categories of toxicants on organisms, as well as their populations and communities. The major sources and environmental pathways of pollutants are discussed. Of particular interest are the subjects of bioaccumulation and biomagnification of pollutants in trophic systems. Lectures only.

BIOL 481
Principles of Toxicology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 322; 30 credits in Biology or Chemistry Honours, Specialization or Major programme; permission of the Department. This course deals with the origin and scope of toxicology. It introduces students to basic toxicity criteria required for safety and risk assessments. Principles which govern exposure and response to toxicants are discussed. Other topics include an introduction to the processes which determine the fate of a toxicant in a target organism. Modifying factors of toxicity are considered. The course concludes by surveying the effects of some representative toxicants. Lectures only.

BIOL 482
Intermediate Statistics
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 322; 60 BIOL credits. The focus of this course is on two fundamental procedures in statistics: regression analyses and analysis of variance. The critical assumptions upon which these two procedures are based are examined. This knowledge is essential for the proper application of these procedures in research. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a BIOL 498 number may not take this course for credit.

BIOL 490
Independent Study
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: 60 credits in an Honours or Specialization programme in Biology, and permission of the Department. In this course, the student undertakes a special research project selected in consultation with, and conducted under, the supervision of a faculty member of the Department. The project is intended to develop the student’s knowledge of standard scientific procedures, including methods of researching scientific literature, the planning and execution of experimental and analytical procedures, the writing of a formal report, and the presentation of a seminar on the project.
NOTE: Students may register in September, January, or June for this course, but work must continue over two consecutive semesters.

The Canadian Studies programme seeks to give students a better understanding of the diverse origins and multi-faceted character of Canada. It provides the opportunity to obtain a liberal arts education given direction and depth by a focus on Canada. See separate departmental entries for details on courses in the programme.

Programmes

12 Elective credits in related Canadian content courses, chosen in consultation with the coordinator, from Anthropology, Art History, Communication Studies, Economics, Education, English, Études françaises, Geography, History, Interdisciplinary Studies, Journalism, Political Science, Religion, Sociology, and World Music.

30 Minor in Canadian Studies*
6 CDNS 220
6 ENGL 290, or ENGL 291 and 292
6 French Language, at a level to be determined in consultation with the Département d'études françaises

6 HIST 203 and 205
6 CDNS 421

*Admission suspended for 1993-94.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

CDNS 220 Introduction to Canadian Studies (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Canadian Studies Major, or permission of the coordinator.

CDNS 298 Selected Topics in Canadian Studies (3 credits)

CDNS 299 Selected Topics in Canadian Studies (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

CDNS 398 Selected Topics in Canadian Studies (3 credits)

CDNS 399 Selected Topics in Canadian Studies (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

CDNS 421 Seminar in Canadian Studies (6 credits)
Prerequisite: CDNS 220 or permission of the coordinator.

CDNS 498 Advanced Topics in Canadian Studies (3 credits)

CDNS 499 Advanced Topics in Canadian Studies (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
Chemistry is the science that examines the structure of substances to produce novel and useful products. It probes the behaviour of atoms and molecules. Biochemistry is that part of chemistry which deals with chemical changes occurring in biologically relevant systems; i.e., changes taking place in living cells that are responsible for life processes.

The mission of the Department is fourfold: (i) excellence in teaching and research in the fields of chemistry and biochemistry; (ii) develop and maintain strong undergraduate and graduate teaching programmes; (iii) develop and maintain state-of-the-art quality research; and (iv) meet the high standards of the scientific and industrial communities. Our programmes have strength in both the applied and the theoretical fields.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. All students are advised to include a course in a computer language in their degree programme. The Order of Chemists of Québec has fully accredited the curricula of i) Honours in Chemistry; ii) Honours in Biochemistry; iii) Specialization in Analytical Chemistry; iv) Specialization in Biochemistry; v) Specialization in Chemistry. Upon satisfactory completion of any of the above-mentioned programmes, a graduate is eligible for membership in the Order. A working knowledge of French is required.

The BSc Specialization in Synthetic Materials does not lead to accreditation as a Professional Chemist by The Order of Chemists of Québec.

Students should note that CHEM 419, 450, and 479 have a performance prerequisite and are essential for Honours and Specialization programmes. Students who cannot meet these prerequisites will not be able to complete the programmes but may complete a Major. For more details, students should consult with the Department.

Courses that consist of both laboratories and lectures require that a satisfactory performance be obtained in each of the components for successful completion of the course.

The superscript indicates credit value.
69-72 BSc Specialization in Biochemistry

45 Core Programme
9 BIOL 2613, 2703, 3643
Biochemistry Option (69 credits total)
3 CHEM 4793
6 Chosen from CHEM 4713, 4733, 4743, 4753, 4763, 4783, 4813
3 400-level CHEM
3 400-level BIOL
*These six credits may be replaced with CHEM 4503, with Departmental approval.

Medicinal Chemistry Option (72 credits total)
3 CHEM 4793
6 BIOL 3333
6 CHEM 4733 and 4743

3 CHEM 4753 or 4763
*NOTE: BIOL 2303 is a prerequisite for this course.

63-64 BSc Specialization in Analytical Chemistry

45 Core Programme
6 CHEM 2903, 3263
3-4 CHEM 3923 or PHYS 2953, 2963
3 Chosen from CHEM 3983 or 4983 (the topic must be in Analytical Chemistry)
6 "CHEM 4193 (the topic must be in Analytical Chemistry)
*With Departmental permission, the student may substitute CHEM 4503 for CHEM 4193.

76 BSc Specialization in Geology-Chemistry

See §31.140 Geology

64 BSc Specialization in Synthetic Materials*

56 MATH 2623, 2633; PHYS 2533, 2543, 2953, 2963, 3543, 4963; CHEM 2173, 2183, 2213, 2223, 2313, 2333, 2413, 3023, 3123, 3273, 3283, 4823
8 Chosen from PHYS 2323, 2523, 3353, 3553, 3963; CHEM 2323, 4193, 4353, 4923, 4983

NOTE: CHEM 4983 must be hetero­geneous catalysis, organometallic chemistry or inorganic solid state chemistry.
NOTE: Mathematics and Statistics options as approved by the programme director.
NOTE: Six credits must be at the 400 level.

45 BSc Major in Chemistry

45 Core Programme
Substitution of courses from within the Core programme by other courses in Chemistry or related disciplines (Mathematics, Physics, Biology, Geology) up to a maximum of nine credits, will be accepted, if previously approved by a Depart­mental programme adviser. It is expected that such substitutions will be in accord with the overall programme of study being followed by the student.

45 BSc Major in Biochemistry

36 Core programme, but without CHEM 2323, 3123, 3383, 3393
9 Chosen from CHEM 4793; BIOL 2613, 2703, 3643

24 Minor in Chemistry

24 Chosen from the Department’s offerings, with due regard to prerequisites, such that the courses chosen form a coherent pattern which complements the student's other areas of study. The course pattern chosen must have been previously approved by a Departmental programme adviser.

33 Certificate in Scientific Measurement (Chemistry Option)

19 CHEM 217, 218, 290, 312, 392, 491

14 PHYS 295, 296, 396, 397

NOTE: Students may replace PHYS 396 with the two courses PHYS 390 and PHYS 491 if they wish.

Chemistry and Biochemistry Co-operative Programme

Concordia students may transfer into the Certificate programme all applicable Concordia credits earned in an incomplete degree or certificate programme or as an independent student, provided they are students in good standing. Students from other institutions may transfer up to 12 applicable credits earned in an incomplete degree or certificate programme or as an independent student, provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

Director
RAYMOND H. ZIENIUS, Associate Professor

The Chemistry and Biochemistry Co-operative programme is offered to students who are enrolled in the BSc Honours or Specialization in Chemistry, Biochemistry, or Analytical Chemistry, and Specialization in Synthetic Materials. Students interested in applying for the Chemistry and Biochemistry Co-op should refer to §24 where a full description of the admission requirements is provided.

Academic content is identical to that of the regular programme, but six Study terms are interspersed with four Work terms.

Each student is supervised personally and must meet the requirements specified by the Faculty of Arts and Science and the Institute for Co-operative Education in order to continue their studies in the co-op format.

Liaison between the student, the employers and the Institute for Co-operative Education is provided by the Chemistry and Biochemistry Co-op Committee, which includes the student's advisers.

Please refer to §24 for the schedule of Study and Work terms and the full description of admission requirements.

Courses

A student may be exempted from one or more of the introductory courses, on the basis of work done at the CEGEP level. Where exemptions are given, replacement courses must be chosen with the approval of a Department adviser. In the case of certain programmes approved by the Order of Chemists of Québec, the courses must be replaced with an equivalent number of credits in the same sub-discipline as the exemptions.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

CHEM 205 General Chemistry I
(3 credits)
Stoichiometry, states of matter, atomic structure, electron structure of atoms, the periodic table, periodic properties, bonding, solids. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: This course presumes a good grounding in secondary school mathematics. Students lacking such grounding, or non-Science students seeking only an awareness of chemistry, are advised to enrol in CHEM 208.
NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration.

CHEM 206 General Chemistry II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 205. Thermochemistry, solutions and their properties, equilibrium, ionic equilibrium, pH, buffers, kinetics, reaction mechanisms, other selected topics related to biochemistry, biology, and engineering. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration.

CHEM 208 Chemical Hazards in the Work Environment
(3 credits)
An introduction to chemistry, chemical hazards and the social history of chemistry. A study of toxicity, combustion, corrosion, explosives, radiation and water reactive materials in the work environment. The course concentrates on establishing the chemical vocabulary and concepts necessary to understand the social impact of chemistry in relation to occupational... health and safety, firefighting, and environmental hazards. The necessary non-quantitative knowledge of chemistry is developed as the course unfolds.

NOTE: This course is not a prerequisite for any chemistry course. This course may not be taken for credit by Science students.

CHEM 217 Introductory Analytical Chemistry I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201; CEGEP Physics 301; CEGEP Mathematics 103; CEGEP Mathematics 203; or equivalent courses. Precipitation methods and solubility products, activity, chemical equilibria and titration curves of neutralization and complexation systems; treatment of analytical data. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 211 or GEOL 324 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 218 Introductory Analytical Chemistry II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 217. Chemical equilibria and titration curves of oxidation-reduction, precipitation, and non-aqueous systems; potentiometry and polarimetric titrations; introduction to spectroscopy with emphasis on molecular and atomic absorption spectroscopy, fluorescence spectroscopy. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 211 or GEOL 324 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 221 Introductory Organic Chemistry I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201, or equivalent. Basic aspects of orbitals and their role in covalent bonding; delocalization and valence bond and molecular orbital theory. Alkanes: structure, nomenclature, isomerism, reactions. Introductory stereochemistry: enantiomers, diastereomers, conformers, Fischer and Newman projections, specification of chirality, E/Z isomerism. Conformations of cyclic compounds. Alkylation: S$_1$, S$_2$, E1; E2 reaction mechanisms. Free-radical mechanisms, organometallic compounds. Chemistry of alcohols, ethers and related compounds. Chemistry of alkenes, alkynes and dienes. Lectures and laboratory.

CHEM 222 Introductory Organic Chemistry II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 221, or one semester CEGEP Organic Chemistry. Introduction to the use of IR and NMR spectroscopy for the identification of simple organic compounds. Benzene and aromatic compounds: aromaticity, electrophilic aromatic substitution, nucleophilic aromatic substitution, substituent effects. Chemistry of aldehydes and ketones: nucleophilic addition, oxidation, reduction and condensation reactions, tautomerism. Chemistry of carboxylic acids and their derivatives: Amines: basicity, reactions. Lectures and laboratory.

CHEM 231 Physical Chemistry I: Introduction (2 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201; CEGEP Physics 301; CEGEP Mathematics 103; CEGEP Mathematics 203; or equivalent courses. First law of thermodynamics, thermodynamics, entropy, the second and third laws of thermodynamics, free energy and chemical equilibrium, electrochemical cells and the Nernst equation, the Gibbs-Helmholtz equation. Applications of thermodynamics to systems of chemical interest. Lectures only.

CHEM 232 Physical Chemistry II: Thermodynamics (2 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 332 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 233 Physical Chemistry III: Spectroscopy and Quantum Theory (2 credits)

CHEM 234 Physical Chemistry IV: Introduction to Periodicity and Valence Theory (3 credits)

CHEM 241 Inorganic Chemistry I: Introduction to Periodicity and Valence Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201; CEGEP Physics 301; CEGEP Mathematics 103; CEGEP Mathematics 203; or equivalent courses. The structure of the atom; the periodic table; properties of atoms, covalent bonding treatments including Lewis theory, valence shell electron pair repulsion theory of structure, valence bond and molecular orbital theory. Crystal field theory applied to the structure and properties of transition metal complexes. Bonding theories of... metallic materials and semi-conductors. Lectures and laboratory.

CHEM 242 Inorganic Chemistry II: The Chemistry of the Main Group Elements (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201; CEGEP Physics 301; CEGEP Mathematics 103; CEGEP Mathematics 203; or equivalent courses. A survey of the properties and reactions of: Hydrogen; Group IA, Lithium to Cesium; and IA, Beryllium to Radium; including the theory of ionic bonding and structure. The descriptive chemistry of Groups IIIA, Boron to Thallium; IVB, Carbon to Lead; VB, Nitrogen to Bismuth; VIIB, Sulphur to Polonium; and the Chemistry of the noble gases. Lectures and laboratory.

CHEM 271 Introductory Biochemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 222. An introduction to the essentials of biochemistry; protein structure, enzymology, carbohydrate metabolism and its regulation; and an overview of bioenergetics, nucleic acids and protein biosynthesis. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 371 or CHEM 372 or CHEM 373 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 290 Laboratory Automation and Data Handling (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 212, or an equivalent course in a high level computer language; CHEM 217, CHEM 218, previously or concurrently; written permission of the Department. Introduction to some modern techniques used to transduce and manipulate raw chemical data. Topics to be discussed include: statistical treatment of chemical data, using programmes written in Basic, or other high-level language; the use of binary, decimal, and hexadecimal numbers; programming a single-board computer or modern microcomputer using machine and assembly languages; input-output operations; elementary interfacing techniques. Experiments involve the collection and treatment of data from common laboratory instruments such as electrodes and photodetectors. Lectures, tutorials, and laboratory.

CHEM 298 Selected Topics in Chemistry (3 credits)

CHEM 299 Selected Topics in Chemistry (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

CHEM 302 Industrial Chemistry, Resources and Environment (2 credits)
Prerequisite: Must be registered in a Chemistry programme and be within 42 credits of graduation; or written permission of the Department. An introduction to chemical engineering for chemists. Management and conservation of resources; pollution control; occupational and environmental health; technological and environmental impact assessment.

CHEM 304 Chemical Technology and Human Values (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Must be registered in a Chemistry programme and be within 42 credits of graduation; or written permission of the Department. The history of technology; the impact of chemistry on material life; appropriate technologies; chemistry and war; the social responsibility of the scientist.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 303 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 312 Intermediate Analytical Chemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 217; CHEM 218. A continuation of CHEM 217 and 218, with emphasis on instrumental methods of analysis. Emission spectroscopy; X-ray spectroscopy; voltammetry and polarography; amperometric titrations; coulometry and coulometric titrations, conductometry; chromatography with particular emphasis on gas chromatography, and high performance liquid chromatography. Laboratory is taken concurrently and provides experience in analytical techniques described in lectures. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for any of CHEM 310, CHEM 314, CHEM 315, or CHEM 319, may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 324 Organic Chemistry III: Organic Reactions (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 222, or equivalent; CHEM 331, previously or concurrently. A mechanistic survey of reactions of major synthetic utility. Determination of reaction mechanisms. Importance of reactive intermediates: carbocations, carbanions, radicals, and carbenes. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 322 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 325 Organic Chemistry IV: Organic Structure and Stereochemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 222, or equivalent; CHEM 331, previously or concurrently.
Organic structure and stereochemistry including the relationship of stereochemistry to physical properties and chemical reactivity. Determination of organic structure and stereochemistry by chemical and spectroscopic means. Identification of organic compounds (principally in the laboratory section). Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 321 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 326 Natural Products (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 222, or equivalent. Structure determination, synthesis, and stereochemistry of various natural products. Examples from terpenes, carotenoids, steroids, alkaloids, and pheromones. NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 398 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 327 Organic Chemistry of Polymers (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 222, or equivalent. Introduction to the fundamental aspects of polymers and polymerization. Methods of preparation, reaction mechanisms of polymer synthesis including condensation polymerization; addition polymerization: free radical, anionic, cationic; Ziegler-Natta (heterogeneous) polymerization. Lectures and problem sessions.

CHEM 328 Analytical Organic Chemistry and Spectroscopy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 218, CHEM 222; CHEM 233. Principles of physical, chemical and instrumental methods of identification and analysis of organic compounds. "Wet" chemistry as a means of functional group identification. Protocol of identification of unknown organic compounds by chemical and spectroscopic methods. Application of vibrational, electronic, nuclear magnetic resonance and mass spectrometric techniques in the elucidation of structure of organic compounds. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 311 and CHEM 316, or CHEM 391, may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 331 Physical Chemistry IV: Kinetics (2 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 232. Kinetic molecular theory. Topics in chemical-reaction kinetics, including; mechanisms of elementary reactions; theories of chemical reaction rates; free-radical reactions; factors influencing rates of reactions in solution; acid-base catalysis; catalysis by enzymes; the Michaelis-Menten mechanism; inhibition in enzyme-catalyzed reactions. Lectures only.

CHEM 338 Physical Chemistry Laboratory I (2 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 231, previously or concurrently. Introduction to experimental procedures involved in determining basic physical properties of solids, liquids, and gases. NOTE: Students who have credit for CHEM 338 and/or CHEM 339 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 339 Physical Chemistry Laboratory II (2 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 331; CHEM 232, previously or concurrently. Investigation of some interactions that occur between solids, liquids, and gases. Kinetic and mechanistic studies of chemical reactions. NOTE: Students who have credit for CHEM 330 and/or CHEM 337 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 341 Inorganic Chemistry III: The Transition Metals (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 217; CHEM 218; CHEM 241; CHEM 242. Theories of bonding in transition metal complexes, including ligand field theory, applied to structure, physical properties, and reactivity of transition metal complexes: organometallic chemistry and catalysis. Metals in biological systems. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 342 or CHEM 348 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 374 Macromolecular Synthesis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 271. Synthesis of proteins, nucleic acids, lipids; synthesis and assembly of complex structures such as membranes, ribosomes, etc. Lectures and problem sessions. NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 371 or CHEM 372 or CHEM 373 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 375 Intermediary Metabolism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 271. A survey of selected pathways in intermediary metabolism, including their regulation and physiological significance: urea cycle, fatty acid oxidation, biosynthesis of nucleosides, tetrapyrroles and carotenoids, cholesterol and steroidal hormones. The biosynthesis of vitamins and cofactors and the metabolism of selected amino acids may also be discussed. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 371 or CHEM 372 or CHEM 373 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 389 Industrial Chemical Laboratory (1 credit)
Prerequisite: CHEM 222; CHEM 233 or CHEM 232, previously or concurrently; or written permission of the Department. A course designed to provide the student with an understanding of the philosophies of industrial quality control, and of industrial research and development. Common industrial techniques are studied, including laboratory safety; measurement of physical properties; synthetic procedures, both organic and inorganic; and various separation techniques. Several instrumental analytical methods are employed, and a final report on the work of the term is submitted. Laboratory only.

CHEM 392  Introductory Instrumentation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 217; CHEM 218, or two 6-credit BIOL courses with laboratory. Introduction to measurement principles. Instrument design and basic techniques; analysis of amplifiers, integrators, filter circuits, and other basic modules used in chemical instrumentation. In the laboratory, transistor and IC circuits are studied, as well as some of the mechanical, optical and electrical transducers and recorders used in modern chemical instrumentation. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 390 or CHEM 397 or CHEM 399 may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 398  Selected Topics in Chemistry (3 credits)

CHEM 399  Selected Topics in Chemistry (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

CHEM 412  Statistical Methods in Chemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 218. This course studies a number of methods by which chemists analyze data, systematically collate data, and plan the efficient collection of further data. As much as possible the lectures will draw upon chemical examples, but there is not a heavy emphasis on theoretical proofs. Students are encouraged to use the statistical packages available on the University’s P.C. computer network to do their assignments. Lectures only.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 419  Independent Study and Practicum (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Must have completed the 45-credit Core programme, or equivalent, with a GPA of 2.00 (C) or better. In collaboration with and under the direction of a member of Faculty, the student carries out independent study and practical work on a problem chosen from the student’s area of concentration. The student submits a written report on the results of the work and the report is scrutinized by a committee of members of the Department.

NOTE: During the academic session before the one in which this project is to be undertaken, the student must have obtained the consent of the Department, by consultation with the CHEM 419 coordinator, and must have also been accepted by a faculty supervisor. Independent study and practical work.

CHEM 421  Physical Organic Chemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 324 or CHEM 325; CHEM 331. Determination of organic reaction mechanisms using kinetics, activation parameters, acid-base catalysis, Bronsted catalysis law, solvent effects, medium effects, isotope effects, substituent effects and linear free energy relationships. Lectures only.

CHEM 422  Organic Synthesis (4 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 324 or CHEM 325. Consideration of synthetic strategy and synthesis design. Modern synthetic methods and reagents, exemplified by syntheses of terpenes, alkaloids, pheromones, and novel structures. Lectures and laboratory.

CHEM 423  Heterocyclic Chemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 324 or CHEM 325. Survey of the chemistry of three-, four-, five-, and six-membered heterocyclics, with a particular emphasis on heteroaromatic systems. Synthesis and reactions of heterocyclics; their use in synthesis; factors affecting their reactivity. Lectures only.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 435  Physical Chemistry of Polymers (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 222; CHEM 232. Physical properties of polymers; polymer-solution theory; molecular-weight distributions and fractionation; molecular-weight determinations by colligative properties, light-scattering and ultra-centrifuge techniques; kinetics of condensation and addition polymerizations; co-polymerization. Lectures and problem sessions.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CHEM 335 or CHEM 336 may not take this course for credit.
CHEM 441  Single Crystal X-Ray Diffraction (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 325. Space group symmetry. Diffraction of X-rays by single crystals. Photographic and counter methods of diffraction data collection. Solution and refinement and crystal structures. Interpretation of atomic coordinates and vibrations. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 442  Physical Methods in Inorganic Chemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 341; CHEM 328, previously or concurrently. Introduction to symmetry and the character tables. Diffraction methods, X-ray, ESCA, UV-Visible, ORD and CD, EPR, Mössbauer, NQR, NMR, IR, and Raman. Lectures only.

CHEM 444  Mössbauer Spectroscopy and Magnetic Properties of Materials (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 241, CHEM 242 and CHEM 341, previously or concurrently. Introduction to the crystalline state, X-ray and neutron diffraction; vibrational properties of solids, phonons; magnetic properties of materials: diamagnetism, paramagnetism, ferromagnetism, antiferromagnetism, ferrimagnetism and other ordered states; theory of the Mössbauer effect, hyperfine interactions; Mössbauer spectroscopy, techniques, applications; examples of Mössbauer studies: iron, tin, other main group elements, other transition elements, lanthanides and actinides; combined studies of solids by X-ray and neutron diffraction, magnetic measurements and Mössbauer spectroscopy. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 445  Heterogeneous Catalysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 231. Surface phenomena in heterogeneous catalysis (adsorption; texture of solids; introduction to the main techniques for the characterization of catalysts). Relationships between surface properties and catalyst activities (basic concepts in Catalysis). Catalytic kinetics. Catalytic reaction systems (introduction to the theory of catalytic reactors; diffusion, heat and mass transfer within porous solids; shape selectivity, catalyst activity decay). Industrial Catalysis; new trends. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 446  Basic Electrochemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 231, CHEM 331; or written permission of the Department. This course covers a specialized area in physical and analytical chemistry and, in particular, develops concepts introduced in CHEM 211 and CHEM 312. The theory behind these concepts is further described to explain the principles of corrosion and battery research and development. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 447  Electronic Spectroscopy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 233; CHEM 341. This course is intended to provide the student with the theoretical background necessary to understand and work with electronic spectra, to illustrate and discuss the methods involved in assigning spectral transitions, and to explain states and symmetries. The course assumes that the student has some knowledge of atomic structure, molecular symmetry and group theory. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 449  Laboratory in Synthesis and Techniques in Inorganic Chemistry (1 credit)
Prerequisite: CHEM 442, previously or concurrently. Some of the techniques discussed in CHEM 442 are employed in the laboratory to characterize and determine properties of compounds synthesized at the laboratory bench. Laboratory only.

CHEM 450  Research Project and Thesis (6 credits)
Prerequisite: 60 credits including the 45-credit Core programme, or equivalent and enrolment in Honours in Chemistry; or written permission of the Department. By Departmental decision, such permission is only given if the student has a G.P.A. of 3.0 or better, for all courses in this programme. The student works on a research project in the student's area of concentration, selected in consultation with and conducted under the supervision of a faculty member of the Department, and writes a thesis on the results. The project is also the subject of a seminar before the Department.
NOTE: During the academic session before the one in which this project is to be undertaken, the student must have obtained the consent of the Department, by consultation with the CHEM 450 coordinator, and must have also been accepted by a faculty supervisor.
CHEM 471  Enzyme Kinetics and Mechanism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 271; 60 credits.
Steady-state kinetics, including the use of initial velocity studies and product inhibition to establish a kinetic mechanism; nonsteady-state kinetics, isotope effects, energy of activation, etc.; detailed mechanisms of selected enzymes. Lectures only.

CHEM 472  Chemical Toxicology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 271; 60 credits; or written permission of the Department.
Introduction to the general principles of toxicology with emphasis on the toxic effects of chemicals in humans. Dose-response relationship, types and routes of exposure, absorption and disposition of toxic substances, toxicokinetics, types of toxic response and factors affecting toxic response. Toxicity testing, risk assessment and interpretation of toxicological data. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 473  Medicinal Chemistry I
(3 credits)

CHEM 474  Medicinal Chemistry II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 473; or written permission of the Department. Drugs acting on endogenous messengers and their targets: cholinergic, adrenergic, dopaminergic and serotonergic neuronal systems. Histamine, amino acid neurotransmitters. Steroid and peptide hormones, prostaglandins. Enzymes as drug receptors. Drug design. Lectures only.

CHEM 475  Pharmacology I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 271; BIOL 333.
Pharmacokinetics, drug metabolism and interaction. Toxicology, carcinogenicity, and teratogenicity. Drug development and testing. Lectures only.

CHEM 476  Pharmacology II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 475; or written permission of the Department. Autonomic nervous system pharmacology. Functions of central nervous system, depressants, stimulants. Narcotic analgesics, addiction. Cardiovascular, renal, and endocrine pharmacology. Lectures only.

CHEM 478  Hormone Biochemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 271 and third-year standing. This course deals with an in-depth study of the vertebrate hormones and involves a study of the precise chemical structure and properties of each hormone, its biosynthesis and mode of secretion from the cell. The circulating form of the hormone is examined, as well as the nature of the hormone receptor. The cellular mechanism of action and the relationship of the hormone's action to the intact animal are investigated. Lectures only.

CHEM 479  Advanced Biochemistry Laboratory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Must have a grade of "C-" (grade point of 1.70 in each course) or better, in 31 credits of the 45-credit Core programme. This course deals with the theory and practice of modern biochemical laboratory techniques. Laboratory only.

CHEM 481  Bioinorganic Chemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 271; CHEM 241. Role of metals in biochemical systems. Essential trace elements, zinc enzymes, oxygen transport and storage, metalloproteins and biological electron transfer, structure-function relationships in heme enzymes, nitrogen fixation; model compounds for metalloproteins and metalloenzymes. Lectures only.

CHEM 482  Properties and Models of the Solid State (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 232; CHEM 328; or written permission of the Department; 60 credits. Crystal structure and the reciprocal lattice; lattice dynamics; free electron theory; band theory; semiconductors; dielectric and magnetic properties of solids. Lectures only.

CHEM 491  Advanced Instrumentation (4 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 392. A study of the amplifiers, transducers, and other circuit elements used to acquire data in chemistry, in the analog, time, and digital data domains. A study of these circuits as regards optimization, frequency response, sampling parameters, signal-to-noise enhancement and budget error analysis. Some of the concepts involved in computer interfacing, for both control and data collection, are discussed. In the laboratory, selected experiments illustrate the topics discussed in lectures. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: Students who have received credit
CHEM 492 Chemical Spectroscopy (4 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 321 or CHEM 324; CHEM 328. Theory and application of EPR spectroscopy, rotational spectroscopy, rotation-vibration spectroscopy, Raman spectroscopy. Lectures and laboratory.

CHEM 493 Magnetic Resonance Spectroscopy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 221, or equivalent. This course is designed to provide the background in magnetic resonance theory necessary to understand modern high-resolution NMR experiments and instrumentation. The basic theory in the introductory section also applies to electron spin resonance (ESR). Relaxation and through-bond and through-space interactions, and experiments to investigate them are considered. Spin manipulations and behaviour in multiple-pulse, Fourier transform NMR techniques used for common spectral editing and two-dimensional experiments are discussed. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 494 Mass Spectrometry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 331. Production and interpretation of mass spectra. Topics include: ionization methods (electron impact, chemical ionization and fast-atom bombardment); interpretation of mass spectra; introduction to quantitative analysis by mass spectrometry. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a CHEM 498 number may not take this course for credit.

CHEM 496 Advanced Topics in Chemistry (3 credits)

CHEM 499 Advanced Topics in Chemistry (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The study of Classics is by nature interdisciplinary, exploring the cultures of ancient Greece and Rome in all aspects, from language, literature and art to archaeology, philosophy and science. These two cultures, influenced by those of the Near East, form the roots of Western civilization.

The Department of Classics has two related aims: first, to provide a broad and stimulating programme to students interested in exploring their cultural roots; secondly, to train specialists in reading and interpreting texts in ancient Greek and Latin.

The Department offers programmes in Classical Philology, Classical Studies and Classical Archaeology.

Programmes in Classical Philology require competence in Ancient Greek and Latin and are directed towards an understanding and appreciation of classical languages and literature. Programmes in Classical Studies do not require an exhaustive knowledge of Greek and Latin, but are concerned with a broadly based study of ancient society.

The Honours programmes in Classical Philology and in Classical Studies provide the background necessary for graduate studies in different aspects of Classics. Students should inform themselves well in advance of the level of competence in classical languages required for admission to the respective graduate programmes.

Major programmes in Classics are not designed to prepare students for further specialized study. They provide an excellent liberal education and may be very effectively combined with programmes in other fields, especially in the Humanities.

The Minor programmes provide a basic exposure to the field and are designed to complement other programmes.

Most courses are open as electives to students in other departments. Students must consult the Department Chair to select the courses in their programmes. For details on suggested programmes, see the Classics Course Guide. Students are advised to refer to the Undergraduate Class Schedule for the campus where individual courses will be offered.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The Communication Studies Department takes a broad approach to the study of media and communication. The aim is to develop the student's appreciation of the role played by the mass media in society. With the emphasis on a humanistic, value-oriented assessment, the programme is designed to develop both the critical faculties and creative potential of students. Each programme has three components: a focus on humanities and liberal arts, a focus on social science and research, and a focus on creative laboratory work. These enable students to be thoroughly prepared for a wide range of career opportunities in the media industries, in public relations, and in government.

The Department has two television studios equipped with colour videocassette recording and editing facilities, two 3/4" colour video portapak units, 9 x 16mm film units, 16mm sync and editing units, and complete super 8mm film units; photographic laboratories; a holographic and laser laboratory; multiple sound facilities; a research studio for the measurement of visual-ld audio-information loads, an electronic and electro-mechanical programmer for multi-media use; and a Learning Centre with audio-slide film-video terminals for independent study.

The number of students that can be accommodated every year in our Department is physically limited by the room available in labs, the amount of equipment, and the number of professors. Approximately 120 students are admitted every year, giving a student population of about 300 in the three years of our undergraduate programme. Applications consistently outnumber the Department's capacity. For this reason, the Department of Communication Studies has a distinct admission procedure, in addition to the normal admission process of Concordia University.

The Department is prepared to receive applications as early as October, and to arrange interviews, for the following academic year. Interested candidates should obtain information about admission requirements of Communication Studies by contacting the Admissions Committee, Department of Communication Studies, Loyola Campus, Concordia University, 7141 Sherbrooke Street West, Montréal, Québec, H4B 1R6.

Graduate Work in Communication Studies
The Department also offers a one-year diploma programme for students who have completed their undergraduate degree in another field, and an MA in Media Studies for those with two years of media experience and academic work in Communications. A PhD in Communications is offered jointly with Université de Montréal and UQAM. For details, please refer to the School of Graduate Studies Calendar or contact the Department.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

The Department offers two programmes of study, and two others jointly with Journalism.

a) Bachelor of Arts, Specialization in Communication Studies: consisting of 60 credits in Communication Studies and 30 credits from electives outside the Department.

b) Bachelor of Arts, Major in Communication Studies: consisting of 42 credits in Communication Studies and 48 credits from electives outside the Department.

c) Bachelor of Arts, Specialization in Communication and Journalism: consisting of 60 credits in Communication and Journalism courses and 30 credits from electives outside Communication and Journalism.

d) Bachelor of Arts, Specialization in Broadcast Journalism: consisting of 60 credits in Communication and Journalism courses and 30 credits from electives outside Communication and Journalism.

Elective credits are understood as courses taken in other departments or Faculties of the University. Credits in Communication Studies or Journalism, or in Cinema (Faculty of Fine Arts) may not be used in lieu of electives.

200-level courses are normally taken in first year, 300-level courses in second year, 400-level courses in third year.

Written work may be required in English for courses in Journalism; please consult the Department.

Students are required to complete the appropriate entrance profile for entry into the programme (see §31.002 - Programmes and Admission Requirements - Profiles).

Courses

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

COMS 230 Basic Writing for the Media (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. This course is designed to provide knowledge of and practice in the special written forms and formats utilized by the media. Assignments are practically oriented towards possible student productions.

COMS 240 Communication Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Through lectures, discussions, and selected readings from the works of key theorists, this course introduces students to major approaches to the understanding of the process of communication.

COMS 255 Communication Analysis of Environment (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. General and detailed analysis of various information complexes; e.g., museums, galleries, exhibitions, countrysides, landscapes, city streets, highways, department stores, churches, etc., from the point of information values used to influence future prospective audiences of films, television programmes, or exhibition and theatre visitors. The basic values of light, space, sound, picture, words, and exhibit structures are explored through individual student projects in real locations. Students work on individual projects under the supervision of the directing professor. Tutorial course.

COMS 275 Visual Dynamics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. In this course, students are led to discover fundamental laws which underlie visual representation. The overall method consists of basic experiments in vision and perception: to explore distances, planes, tones, colour, light, etc. Photography is the medium by which these experiments are recorded for observation and discussion. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 276 Seminar and Practicum in Sound I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. This course is designed to provide the student with a basic working knowledge of audio systems both natural and electronic, to understand the various affective and psychological qualities of sound, and how sound may be structured into imaginative aural forms. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 284 Seminar and Practicum in Film and Video I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. A practical approach to an understanding of the common elements of film and video media, and of the specific differences inherent in their effective use. Course methodology includes lectures, screenings, readings, portapak video and super 8mm film productions. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 298 Selected Topics in Communication Studies (3 credits)

COMS 299 Selected Topics in Communication Studies (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

COMS 305  Advanced Scriptwriting for Film (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Registration in a Communication Studies programme; submission of a qualifying assignment by July 1 and subsequent approval of instructor. This assignment, which varies from year to year, is intended to test the student's writing ability and creative imagination. A practical course in writing film-drama: story construction and plotting, scene-making, characterization and character development, dialogue, dramatic continuity, timing, pacing, rhythm, suspense, and creative criticality. Many of these fictional and dramatic techniques are, as the occasion arises, applied to non-fictional scripts as well. The method consists of lecture, discussion, demonstration, critique. Assignments are on-going.

COMS 306  Documentary Film (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; open to all University students; written permission of the Department. A survey of the documentary film field from 1895 until today, with an examination of major styles (Romantic, Realistic, Expressionistic, Avant-Garde, etc.) in the works of significant documentary filmmakers. The method consists of lecture, screenings, critique, and discussion.

NOTE: COMS 307 through 316 are offered on a three-year cycle.

COMS 307  Hollywood in the Silent Era (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits. In-depth study of the 60-year career of Chaplin, with special emphasis on the great early comics (Keaton, etc.); Hollywood and the birth of the movies: D.W. Griffith, von Stroheim.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 304 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 323 Media Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 322. Analysis of the historical and current evidence in an attempt to understand what media are, what they do of themselves, their common characteristics, cumulative patterns, and necessary effects. Are there inherent "laws" of media? Emphasis is on the intellectual faculty as manifested in society's response to media.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 304 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 330 Advanced Scriptwriting for Television (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Registration in a Communication Studies programme; submission of a qualifying assignment by July 1 and subsequent approval of instructor. This assignment, which varies from year to year, is intended to test the student's writing ability and creative imagination. Anatomy of script; audio-visual components and functions; TV drama, comedy, documentary, docu-drama. The creative process: plot development, character and dialogue; uses of tension, conflict, "tricks of the trade";

COMS 331 Documentary Television (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; open to all University students; written permission of the Department. A survey of the documentary television field from its beginning until today, with an examination of characteristic styles and forms (informative, biographical, current events, compilative, etc.). The method consists of lecture, video example, critique, and discussions.

COMS 351 Biocybernetic Research (6 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 255 and written permission of the Department. An examination of the aids for information-impact measurements, demonstrated on communication media carriers. Testing is conducted on information complexes previously analyzed; e.g., photographs, advertisements, film segments, television programme sequences, exhibitions, urban environments, and open-country landscapes. The main emphasis of learning is on the methodology of tests, diagnoses, and interpretations of results for practical media productions. A biometrical and biotelemetrical approach is used for testing. Each student works on individual projects during the year. Tutorial course.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 350 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 352 Broadcasting Policy in Canada (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; written permission of the Department. This course acquaints the student with the historical development of broadcasting and broadcasting legislation in Canada. It covers the present state of broadcasting policy in Canada, its goals and problems, and explores alternative solutions.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 467 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 354 Children's Television (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; written permission of the Department. This course explores forms of communication that have developed between children and television. Topical areas include future policies and planning in the light of developmental needs, ethical parameters, and experiments in creative empowerment.

COMS 355 New Technology and Communication Media I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 275; COMS 278;
COMS 284: written permission of the Department. This course examines the applications of computers in the field of communications from conceptual, theoretical, and practical perspectives. Analog and digital representation, transmission, storage, and processing of visual and aural information are discussed. Lectures and laboratory.

COMS 356 New Technology and Communication Media II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 355; written permission of the Department. This course examines more advanced concepts and techniques for the production of computer-generated colour video graphics; computer-generated sound; information input/retrieval networks; hypertext, hypermedia, other digital media, and interactive multi-media systems. Lectures and laboratory.

COMS 360 Mass Communication (3 credits)
The course examines the nature and forms of mass communication, the social sources and uses of mass communication, its psychology, audiences, and effects. The ethics of mass communication are also discussed. Through guest lecturers from the various media and readings of contemporary analyses/critiques, issues such as media ownership and access, government and self-regulation, technological implications, media accountability, etc., are raised.

COMS 361 Seminar in Propaganda (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits. The aim of this course is to recognize the orchestration of the elements of propaganda in media, and to develop the means to deal with it. Course methodology includes lectures, discussions, and projects.

COMS 362 Psychology of Communication (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. The objectives of the course are to provide the learner with: 1) an overview of psychological processes active in the communicative act; 2) the opportunity to explore a single media area in depth, either independently or in a small group. Through a variety of formats, topic areas such as the following are explored: perception and information processing, language development, areas of para-psychology related to communication, influences on attitude/behaviour, verbal/non-verbal codes, meaning, etc.

COMS 364 Communication and the Canadian North (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; open only to students in Communication Studies programmes; written permission of the Department. The course examines the historical context of Eskimo-White interaction in the Arctic; the role that media technology has played in Northern development and social change; the current research and experimental approaches to communication problems in the Canadian North.

COMS 366 Interpersonal Communication and Cultural Context (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; written permission of the Department. This course examines the relationship between value orientations, social perception, self-concept, identity, and other culturally-determined phenomena, as well as verbal and non-verbal communication processes. It draws upon theory and research on communication between members of different cultures and subcultures. NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 363 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 367 Media and Cultural Context (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; written permission of the Department. This course examines the ways in which different cultures express themselves using print, film, radio, and television; the cultural content of media messages; the role of mass communication across cultural boundaries, as well as media representation of, and access by, cultural groups. The course utilizes screenings and case studies. NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 363 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 368 Media and Gender (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; written permission of the Department. This course investigates how sex and gender are represented in and by the media. The course examines sexuality, sexism, and theories of gender through a critical examination of contemporary media topics. NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a COMS 398 number may not take this course for credit.

COMS 374 Visual Dynamics II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 275; written permission of the Department. This course involves both theory and fieldwork in photographing human-created environments; e.g., the city, using natural light. The student acquires an understanding of the problems of distance and direction by means of lectures, critiques of fieldwork, and individual consultation. NOTE: Students are required to possess certain recommended equipment.
COMS 375 Visual Dynamics III (6 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 374; written permission of the Department. A study of the development of visual artifacts and media in the search for an increasingly adequate mimesis of persons, situations, and meanings. The course comprises both the practical and the theoretical aspects of the visual image, historically and currently, and examines the assumptions underlying the quest for the auto-communicative image. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 378 Seminar and Practicum in Sound II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 230; COMS 278; written permission of the Department. This course gives the student a knowledge of the basic disciplines necessary for constructing aural message forms from the simplest to the most complex; also, experience in the various technologies required to apply these aural forms to radio, film, television, etc. Students prepare, produce, and direct, individually and in teams, a number of projects. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 381 Seminar and Practicum in Film II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Above-average standing in COMS 284; written permission of the Department. This course involves an examination of the communicative process through the medium of film. Areas covered include scripting, directing, and shooting, with both silent and sync-sound equipment. Productions are designed to test the student's theoretical knowledge and give practical experience in the craft of filmmaking. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 387 Seminar and Practicum in Television II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 284; written permission of the Department. A study of the components related to the creation of the television documentary and short-feature programme in terms of the theoretical possibilities inherent in the medium. Student productions in the two genres, from idea-stage through completed videotape, constitute the laboratory section of the course. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 398 Selected Topics in Communication Studies (3 credits)

COMS 399 Selected Topics in Communication Studies (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

COMS 416 Film Criticism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 60 credits; written permission of the Department. An introduction to the assumptions, methodologies, and vocabularies implicit in important schools of popular and academic film criticism.

COMS 417 Film Ideas (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Seminar using film criticism to focus on aesthetic/cultural dimension of present trend-setting films, and to explore students' sensibility in the context of contemporary culture. Methodology includes viewings, discussions, written critiques, critical/aesthetic readings.

COMS 435 Documentary Film and Television Genres I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in Communication Studies. Survey of genres in documentary film and television such as: biographical, industrial, travelogue, nature, scientific, training, educational, children's films, and TV programmes. Examples from Canada, USA, Europe.

COMS 436 Documentary Film and Television Genres II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 435. An in-depth study of one of the film and television genres surveyed in COMS 435. Tutorial course.

COMS 437 Seminar in Media Forecast (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 60 credits. This course examines trends in film, sound, television, and other media for future applications. The course includes theory of media effects. Representatives from industry and government are invited to discuss future trends in media utilization. The course demands a theoretical and practical model for original or novel use of a medium or media mix.

COMS 444 Television Aesthetics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; enrolment in a Communication Studies programme. This course involves the study and application of evaluative judgments and aesthetic principles appropriate to the television medium. It emphasizes the development of television criticism and aesthetics based on a synthesis of the fundamental image elements (light, colour, space, time, motion, and sound) together with an analysis of their interrelationship in the finished product: the television programme.
COMS 445
Television Aesthetics II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 444. This tutorial course is a continuation of COMS 444 for students who wish to do research and experimentation with specific aspects of television aesthetic principles. Assignments include a research paper derived from specific experimental television production units.

COMS 454
Communication Law and Administration I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits; enrolment in a Communication Studies programme. The course focuses upon the legal and business aspects of the communications industry. Among the items covered are basic contract law, torts or delicts, libel and slander and copyright laws. The legal relationships between the various parties involved in the field of communications, e.g., producer and writer are also analyzed.

COMS 455
Communication Law and Administration II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 454. Studies of particular cases are chosen to illustrate specific problems and their resolutions. In-depth treatment is given to applications of areas developed in COMS 454.

COMS 460
Political Communication
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department. The relationships between media institutions and political institutions, both in Canada and internationally, are examined. Issues such as: the flow of political information; the social and political construction of news; the politics of regulation; the politics of influence in campaigns, nation-building socialization through media; ideology in the media, and alternatives to traditional media are explored.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 465 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 461
Organizational Communication
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department. The flow of communication within organizational and institutional structures is examined. Topics such as: communication function; patterns and networks; directionality; overload and underload; communication roles and expectations; and processes of organizing are explored. Discussion and field study are combined with readings for an emphasis on applied theory.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 465 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 462
Communication, Culture, and Popular Art
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: 60 credits; written permission of the Department. An introduction to the social analysis of works of popular art. Cultural products such as television programmes, hit records, and popular novels are examined through techniques of textual analysis. Within the context of an examination of cultural theories, the course focuses on (1) critical methods based in the theory of rhetoric and (2) theories of mass culture and alienation.

COMS 463
Semiotics
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. This course provides a detailed introduction to the semiotics of communication. The course considers the formal characteristics of signs and codes and examines how signs or "texts" produce meaning. It focuses on three types of "texts": the advertisement, the news, and the fictional narrative. Central to this course is the notion that sign-systems are fundamental to the production of "knowledge" and ideology. The course proceeds through lectures, an analytical reading of assigned texts, and student discussion and presentations.

COMS 466
Theoretical Issues in Development Communications
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: 60 credits; written permission of the Department. This seminar examines historical and current research on, and theoretical approaches to, the role media can play in indigenous and international development.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 466 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 469
Media Applications to Participatory Development
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: 60 credits; written permission of the Department. This seminar examines the impact and usefulness of appropriate media (film, television, community radio, interactive satellites, etc.) to indigenous and international development.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 469 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 470
Advertising and the Consumer Society
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department; priority is given to students in Communication Studies programmes. Advertising as an economic force is examined from a mass-media focus. Communication strategies are analyzed. A promotional campaign is prepared and presented as a team project.

COMS 471 Public Relations: Principles and Problems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department; priority is given to students in Communication Studies programmes. This course considers the principles and responsibilities of public relations, and critically examines specific P.R. problems and the choice of media in effecting solutions.

COMS 475 Visual Dynamics IV (6 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 375; written permission of the Department. Developing the visual imagination: conceiving and organizing ideas for expression through media, such as print, film, television. Each student is asked to conceive a "story" (an integrated narrative), and to determine its most appropriate visual presentation (emphasizing the story's significance and maintaining overall unity). Three presentation modes are considered: a) the controlled sequence; b) the randomly perceived message; c) the pictorial symbol. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 478 Seminar and Practicum in Sound III (6 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 378; written permission of the Department. Conceptual and practical study of the temporal and spatial structure of synthetic sound. Control of the fine and coarse structure of the volume, pitch and timbre of synthesized sound. Lectures and production projects are designed to give the student a broad acquaintance with the current concepts and techniques in electronic sound production. Lectures and laboratory.

COMS 481 Seminar and Practicum in Film III (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Above-average standing in COMS 381; written permission of the Department. An advanced course in film theory and communication. Filmmaking processes covered include scripting, directing, "A and B roll" editing, and shooting with crystal sync-sound equipment. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 487 Seminar and Practicum in Television III (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Above-average standing in COMS 387; written permission of the Department. An advanced course in television theory and communication. Possible options, depending on the ability of the students in any one year, include the dramatic documentary and the complete adaptation for television of professional plays. Lectures and laboratory: average six hours per week.

COMS 490 Communication Programming (6 credits)
Prerequisite: COMS 255; COMS 351. This course studies the interaction among several media, e.g., film, sound, television, static 2D and 3D image. Special attention is given to application in the areas of displays, exhibitions, entertainment endeavours, multi-media shows, where more than one medium is used in one coherent programme.

COMS 496 Honours Project I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Towards the end of their second year, students enrolled in a Communication Studies programme who have demonstrated scholarly and creative ability may be selected for major research or production in a communications area of special interest. During the third year, individually or in teams, the project is realized in close collaboration with faculty directors. NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 495 may not take this course for credit.

COMS 497 Honours Project II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 496 may register for COMS 497.

COMS 498 Advanced Topics in Communication Studies (3 credits)
COMS 499 Advanced Topics in Communication Studies (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The Department aims to educate students in economics, both at the graduate and undergraduate level, and to contribute to the advancement of the discipline through research and teaching. Economists study the production, distribution, and consumption of goods and services—essential knowledge for today's business people and policy makers. Blending both theory and practical applications, the Department of Economics serves students preparing for related specialized professions (Honours, Specialization, Co-operative) as well as those interested in a generalized understanding of the discipline (Major, Minor programmes).

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

NOTE: Calculus I is a prerequisite for many Economics courses. Students who have not taken MATH 209 or equivalent must take it as an elective within their first 15 credits.

Economics Co-operative Programme

Director
JOHN W. O’BRIEN, Professor

The Economics Co-operative programme is offered to students who are enrolled in the BA Honours or Specialization in Economics. Students interested in applying for the Economics Co-op should refer to §24 where a full description of the admission requirements is provided. Academic content is identical to that of the regular programme, but six Study terms are interspersed with four Work terms.
Students are supervised personally and must meet the requirements specified by the Faculty of Arts and Science and the Institute for Co-operative Education in order to continue their studies in the co-op format.
Liaison between the student, the employers, and the Institute for Co-operative Education is provided by the Economics Co-op Committee, which includes the student’s advisers.
Please refer to §24 for the schedule of Study and Work terms and the full description of admission requirements.

Courses

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

ECON 200 Introductory Economics
(6 credits)
This course is designed primarily for students not majoring in Economics or Commerce, but who wish to have an introduction to economics and the Canadian economy. Its content is essentially the same as that of ECON 201 and ECON 203. However, there is greater emphasis on the economic environment of the firm, and the use of elementary tools of analysis to study Canadian economic institutions, government economic policies and current economic issues.
NOTE: Students who have received credit or exemption for ECON 201 and/or 203, or equivalent, may not take this course for credit.

ECON 201 Introduction to Microeconomics
(3 credits)
Introduction to the functioning of the market system; concepts of supply and demand, the role of prices in resource allocation; production decisions by firms. Analysis of differences between competition and monopoly, and the implications for economic efficiency; theories of labour markets and wage determination.
NOTE: Students who have received credit or exemption for ECON 200 may not take this course for credit.

ECON 203 Introduction to Macroeconomics
(3 credits)
An introductory analysis of aggregate economic activity. The focus is on the principles of determination of the level of employment, national income, real output, inflation, and international balance of payments. The course also analyzes the principles which govern trade relations among countries. These topics are integrated by a discussion of government monetary and fiscal policies to stabilize economic activity.
NOTE: Students who have received credit or exemption for ECON 200 may not take this course for credit.
ECON 221  Statistical Methods I
(3 credits)
NOTE: See §200.7
NOTE: Credits will be given for only two three-credit courses from ECON 221 and 222, MATH 207 or MATH 242, 243, DESC 243 and 244, SOCI 212, 213, PSYC 315 and 316 or PSYC 317.

ECON 222  Statistical Methods II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 221 or equivalent; MATH 209 or equivalent. The course is an introduction to the application of statistical techniques to economic data. Topics discussed include, among others, time series, statistical inference, analysis of variance, correlation and regression.
NOTE: See §200.7
NOTE: Credits will be given for only two three-credit courses from ECON 221 and 222, MATH 207 or MATH 242, 243, DESC 243 and 244, SOCI 212, 213, PSYC 315 and 316 or PSYC 317.

ECON 251  Introduction to Economic History I: Economic Crisis and Recovery in Western Europe, 1300-1600
(3 credits)
An economic analysis of the economic downturn of the fourteenth century in western Europe and the recovery which followed. Discussion centres upon England and France. Economic theory at a very simple level is used to assess the problem of economic development and growth within the context of the changing institutional constraints.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ECON 250 may not take this course for credit.

ECON 252  Introduction to Economic History II: Sustained Economic Development and Growth: Western Europe, After 1600
(3 credits)
The economic reasoning underlying humanity's first venture into sustained growth and development is presented. This involves a discussion of the agricultural and industrial revolutions which took place in western Europe and of the regional disparities which developed, such as between England, France and Holland. Simple economic theory is used to aid in our analysis.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ECON 250 may not take this course for credit.

ECON 298  Selected Topics in Economics
(3 credits)
ECON 299  Selected Topics in Economics
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

ECON 301  Intermediate Microeconomic Theory I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203, MATH 209 or equivalent. Theory and measurement of demand, theory of consumer behaviour, production, theory of the firm, and cost and revenue analysis.

ECON 302  Intermediate Microeconomic Theory II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301. Market structures (perfect competition, monopoly, oligopoly), industrial concentration, factor markets, income distribution, economic efficiency, general equilibrium, welfare economics.

ECON 303  Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203, MATH 209 or equivalent. This course deals with the major areas of aggregate economics. Topics include the definitions and measurements of indicators of economic activity: the classical, Keynesian, and rational expectations models of the economy; the derivation of the AS schedule, the ISLM approach to the AD schedule; role of macroeconomic policy.

ECON 304  Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 303. Review of the complete Keynesian system: role of investment demand, the consumption function, the demand for money function. Other topics include the open economy models of income determination, interest rates, and exchange rates, business cycles, economic growth, macroeconomic policy and their application to Canada.

ECON 311  Economic Development I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. The course investigates comparative economic development, with special attention to problems of capital formation, population growth, quality of labour force, and social and cultural attitudes towards economic modernization. Theories of economic development are evaluated in the context of the realities of historical patterns and the varying degrees of ability to achieve modernization.

ECON 312 Economic Development II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 311. The concept and meaning of economic planning, methodology and strategy of planning, input-output and sector analysis, techniques of planning, investment criteria and priorities, study and appraisal of economic plans of a few countries.

ECON 315 The Economic Development of Québec (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course reviews past and present trends in the economic development of Québec. Emphasis is placed on the economic growth of Québec since the Second World War. Attention is given to the regional aspects of Québec's growth problems.

ECON 316 Canadian Economic Issues I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course is devoted to an analysis of some economic issues facing Canada: for example, employment and unemployment, inflation, economic growth and potential, income distribution, social-security policies, monetary and fiscal policies.

ECON 317 Canadian Economic Issues II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course is similar to ECON 316, but covers a different group of topics; for example, foreign ownership and control, regional-development problems, monopoly and competition, government regulation of business, agricultural policy, trade policy.

ECON 323 Statistical Packages and Economic Data (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. The objective of this course is to familiarize the student with techniques of obtaining, manipulating and analyzing economic data. Given the ever-increasing importance of the computer in the storage, retrieval, and processing of information, another purpose of the course is to provide a basic understanding of a computing system and of using data banks and statistical packages. Particular emphasis is given to SPSS, TSP and to CANSIM. The student should be prepared to devote at least 10 hours per week to this course. Provision is made for weekly tutorials.

NOTE: Registration is limited to those who are in the Honours, Specialization, or Major programmes in Economics.

ECON 325 Mathematics for Economists I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201, ECON 203; MATH 209 or equivalent. This course introduces the student to differential and integral calculus and to their applications in economic analysis. Topics covered include set theory, the concept of limits and rules for differentiation and integration. It also deals with the relevance of these concepts and techniques to economic problems such as maximization, equilibrium analysis, and dynamic adjustments.

ECON 326 Mathematics for Economists II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 325. The main emphasis is on the study of linear algebra and its application to the solution of economic models consisting of a system of linear simultaneous equations. Topics covered include: matrices and vectors; basic properties of determinants and their use in solving equations pertaining to economic problems, such as linear programming and constrained optimization.

ECON 331 Money and Banking (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. Overview of a monetary economy: nature, forms and the economic role of money. Monetary standards: markets, prices, and the value of money; the payments system; financial markets. Determinants of size and distribution of wealth portfolios. Supply of money: measure, composition, and size determination. The economic role of commercial banks and non-bank financial intermediaries. Central banking and monetary policy. The international monetary system. (Topics covered within the Canadian banking institutional framework.)

ECON 335 Public Sector Economics: Expenditures (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course examines government fiscal activity within the context of a free-market system. Rationale for public-sector activity is reviewed in terms of economic efficiency conditions and the market failures. Among the topics covered in the course are growth of public spending, the concept of public good externalities, collective decision-making process, pure theory of public expenditures, local expenditures analysis, and efficiency in public spending, with special reference to Québec and Canada.

ECON 336 Public Sector Economics: Taxation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. The principal purpose of this course is to examine and evaluate the important elements of the Canadian fiscal structure, emphasizing taxation and the financing of public expenditures. Among others, issues in taxation of income, both at the individual and corporate levels, excise and sales taxation, taxation of capital gains and wealth, intergovernmental fiscal relations, and tax reform are taken up.

NOTE: Accountancy Major students may not take this course for credit.

ECON 341 International Economic Relations (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course focuses on the discussion and the analysis of the major forms of economic relations among nations; viz., international trade, and international capital movements. Emphasis is placed on policies and institutions for the smooth functioning of the international economy, although some theoretical constructs are also introduced. Topics covered include international trade, protection, balance of payments, economic integration, and international monetary system.

ECON 351 Economic History of Canada (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course is designed to introduce the student to Canadian economic development from the early period of settlement to the present day. Emphasis is placed on the economic history of Canada since Confederation.

ECON 352 Economic History of the U.S.A. (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. American economic history is presented from the viewpoint of the "new" economic history. This is a topical approach in which formal economics is used to evaluate traditional historical material. Among the topics which are covered are: the economic consequences of slavery, the American business cycle, the development of American central banking, the merger movements, the causes of the American "take-off", and the economic causes and consequences of the major wars.

ECON 353 Economic History of Europe (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. The course explores the causes and consequences of the British industrial revolution and its diffusion to the Continent, in terms of differential national-growth patterns, and social problems associated with economic change. It includes an analysis of free trade, economic nationalism, the new imperialism, the importance of the crisis of 1929, in terms of economic organization, thought, and policy. Post-World War II reorganization, in terms of planning the welfare state, and economic integration.

ECON 361 Industrial Organization (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course develops the relationship of the firm to various forms of market structure. The course focuses on the objectives of the corporation, corporate interdependence, and the government control of industry. A study of policy matters centres on anti-trust and corporate regulation, with respect to both the legislative and economic aspects.

ECON 362 Economics of the Firm (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 222 or DESC 244. This course stresses the application of economic principles and methodologies to the decision-making process of the firm, with an emphasis on the role of risk and uncertainty. Topics include decision-making criteria, demand analysis and estimation, cost analysis and estimation, pricing theory under various market structures, applied topics in pricing, and the impact of government on the firm. This course is primarily of interest to Commerce students, but is open to others as well.

ECON 363 Economics of Technological Change (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course deals with a critical analysis of the technological constraints on economic processes, research and development, and the economic factors affecting the rate and direction of technological change. Topics include: the economic implications of learning by doing and technical systems; microeconomic effects of innovation and adoption theory; and the long-term macro-economic policy implications of technological change.

ECON 370 Comparative Economic Systems (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. A comparative study of contemporary economic systems. While mainly concerned with the institutional features of contemporary free-market economics, the course also deals with their counterparts, the systems of a command economy, and a socialist market economy. Of primary interest are the institutions, mechanisms, and policies which govern allocation, efficiency, growth, and distribution of income, with emphasis on the historical background of the institutions and the social, political, and ideological influences which continue to shape them.

ECON 375 The Soviet Economy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. The evolution of the Soviet economic system and the policy measures adopted to deal with the problems of establishing and consolidating a socialist state. Special attention is given to Lenin's role in the early phase of the Soviet system, and early economic measures, such as the collectivization of farms. Other topics covered are: the nature of economic planning and progress under Stalin, and the important recent reforms and modifications of the Soviet system under the impact of Liberman's proposals.

ECON 377 The Chinese Economy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course is devoted to an analysis of Chinese economic development since 1949. Topics include: performance and efficiency, strategy for development, agricultural organization, the contribution of policy to economic growth, the industrial sector, control and allocation of resources, national economic planning.

ECON 381 Labour Economics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. The general objective of this course is to acquaint the student with various theoretical and empirical issues in the area of labour economics. Particular emphasis is placed upon the relation between theoretical frameworks and their empirical counterparts in Canada. Topics include the theory of wage determination, the effects of minimum wages, human capital theory, the economics of discrimination, and the economics of the household.

ECON 382 Industrial Relations I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. A study of the general and practical problems that arise in the labour field, such as collective bargaining, the legal framework for the settlement of industrial disputes, the weapons of industrial conflict, the labour movement; contemporary labour issues, such as automation, cost-push inflation, and structural employment.

ECON 383 Industrial Relations II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 382. Topics in industrial relations, with particular emphasis on developments in Canada.

ECON 386 Economics of Human Resources (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. A study of recent contributions by economists to the understanding of and solution to social problems which society currently faces in the areas of crime, health, education, and welfare. In addition, specific federal and provincial governmental policies in these areas are analyzed with the standard tools of economics.

ECON 387 Labour Law (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. The development of the trade union movement and early labour legislation in the U.S. and Canada; collective bargaining; labour law in Canada and Québec today, with emphasis on the Industrial Relations and Disputes Investigations Act (Canada), the Québec Labour Code, and related statutes. An in-depth study of employer's free speech; evocation in matters of arbitration awards; injunctions; successor rights. Practice and procedure before the courts, and labour relations boards and commissions.

ECON 391 Economics of the Environment (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. The subject of this course is environmental quality. It proceeds through an analysis of the relationships among the natural environment, economics, and institutions. The objective is to depict the problem of environmental quality as an economic problem whose solution demands major changes in economic, political, and legal institutions. Attention is also given to policies of collective environmental actions in which the effective management of common property resources is discussed. The course concludes with a discussion of some broader issues, such as the consistency of improved environmental quality with continued economic and population growth.

ECON 392 Urban Economics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course focuses on the basic issues of economic growth and stagnation, urban land use, the problems of the urban public economy, and special urban problems, such as transportation, congestion, poverty, housing, urban renewal, and zoning.

ECON 396 Natural Resource Economics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. This course focuses on the problems of the finiteness of the natural resources base in Canada and in the world, and on an analysis of the demand for and supply of natural resources and energy. The course also discusses the economic aspects of a selected group of conservation measures (financial incentives, reallocation of property rights, regulation).

ECON 397 Economics of Discrimination (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 201; ECON 203. The purpose of this course is to examine some economic issues of discrimination, with particular reference to women in a Canadian context. Among the topics so examined are: techniques for measuring discrimination and poverty, review of empirical studies, traditional and radical approaches to the study of discrimination, and policies to combat discrimination and poverty.

ECONOMICS . 197

ECON 398 Selected Topics in Economics (3 credits)

ECON 399 Selected Topics in Economics (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

ECON 401 Advanced Microeconomic Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 325; ECON 326. Selected topics in microeconomic analysis, including: methodology, general equilibrium analysis, welfare economics; theory of the firm, factor pricing, and income distribution capital theory. Primarily for Major, Specialization, and Honours students.

ECON 403 Advanced Macroeconomic Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 303; ECON 304; ECON 325; ECON 326. Selected topics in macroeconomic analysis, including construction of models of the economy encompassing the labour, product, and financial markets; the role of monetary and fiscal policies; classical, Keynesian, and post-Keynesian models. Primarily for Major, Specialization, and Honours students.

ECON 405 Welfare Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304. This is an advanced course, intended primarily for Honours students. The course is devoted to an examination of selected topics in contemporary welfare economics and its applications.

ECON 408 History of Economic Thought (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304. This course traces the development of economic analysis from the time of the Scholastics to modern times. It also includes a description of the prevailing economic, social, and cultural environment in which economists have written. Primarily for Major, Specialization, and Honours students.

ECON 411 Quantitative Development I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 325; ECON 326. Methods of national accounting and input-output analysis for underdeveloped countries. Methods of comparing standards of living. Patterns of economic development. Appraisal of models constructed on the premises of modern theories of economic development.

ECON 412 Quantitative Development II (3 credits)

ECON 413 Economic Growth and Fluctuations (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 303; ECON 304. A review of some theories of causes of economic fluctuations. Discussion of the economic climate and of stabilization policies.

ECON 421 Econometrics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 221; ECON 222; ECON 325; ECON 326. This course develops the simple and multiple classical regression models. The problems of mis-specified structures, multicollinearity, and forecasting are also presented.

ECON 422 Econometrics II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 421. This course is a continuation of ECON 421. It deals with the problems of random-error correlation, stochastic regressors, and the simulation and the estimation of multiple-equation models.

ECON 425 Mathematical Economics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304; ECON 325; ECON 326. A set-theoretic approach to the theory of demand and production. Special topics in the application of static optimization.

ECON 426 Mathematical Economics II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 425. Optimization over time: theory and applications to problems of consumption and investment planning, growth, and capital accumulation. Differential equations.

ECON 428 Optimization Techniques (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304; ECON 325; ECON 326. This is an advanced course for Honours students, and for Specialization and Major students with the consent of the Department. Topics include linear programming and input-output analysis; basic concepts and solutions of linear programming, its application to optimum resources allocation; exposition of basic inter-industry theory within the framework of input-output techniques; its applications to structural analysis.

NOTE: Only three credits will be awarded from ECON 428 and DESC 416.

ECON 432 Advanced Monetary Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304; ECON 331, or permission of the Department. The nature of the monetarist-Keynesian controversy and critical appraisal of the IS-LM-AS model. Special topics; theory and evidence of term structure of interest rates, post-Keynesian demand for and supply of money in aggregative and dis-aggregative economic models. Theory of macroeconomic policy. Transmission mechanisms, policy coordination, lags, international constraints, and other problems.

ECON 435 Advanced Public Finance (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304. In this course, several key areas in public finance are dealt with in depth. Topics covered are selected from the following: public goods and externalities, cost-benefit analysis, pricing policy of public enterprises, structure of commodity taxation, structure of income taxation, issues in tax reform, and intergovernmental fiscal relations.

ECON 442 International Economics: Trade Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302. The basis of international trade, gains from trade, factor-price equalization, the tariff, Canadian commercial policy, trade and development, economic integration.

ECON 443 International Economics: Finance (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 303; ECON 304. International monetary economics, foreign exchange markets, adjustment mechanisms, capital flows, balance of payments and domestic policy goals, international liquidity.

ECON 450 Advanced Economic History (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 221; ECON 222; ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304. Advanced topics in economic history, with emphasis on the application of economic theory to specific historical questions.

ECON 461 Industrial Economics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 221; ECON 222; ECON 301; ECON 302. This course analyzes the structure, conduct, and performance of Canadian and U.S. industries. Topics include the determinants of industrial structure, such as economies of scale and barriers to entry, measures of conduct and performance, technological change, advertising, mergers, integration, and public policy.

ECON 462 The Corporate Economy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 221 and ECON 222 or equivalent; ECON 301 or FINA 214; ECON 303 or FINA 315. This course examines the nature of the large firm, its behaviour and its impact on the national and international economy. Topics include: the emergence and historical development of the corporate firm; the separation of ownership from control; the large firm in Canada; theories of the large firm; mergers; macroeconomic effects of large firms (administered pricing-inflation); the multinational corporation (theories, evidence, and effects).

ECON 463 Economics of Regulation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302. This course is devoted to an examination of the economic aspects of governmental regulations. Besides a critical review of the economic theories of regulation, the spectrum of the existing regulatory network, and empirical investigations aimed at discerning cost-benefits, the course focuses on the process of regulatory reforms in all aspects of the Canadian economy.

ECON 473 Economics of Socialism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302. This course analyzes the theoretical aspects of various types of socialist economies: market, centrally planned, and worker-managed. Definitions and models of the various forms are developed and compared with a capitalist model and with existing socialist economies such as those of Cuba, China, Yugoslavia, and the U.S.S.R.

ECON 476 Marxist Economics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304 or ECON 370, or permission of the Department. A general survey of Marxist theory, including historical and dialectical materialism. Marx's microeconomics: labour theory of value and its classical predecessors; theory of exploitation and the Iron Law of Wages; transformation problem and price theory. Marx's macroeconomics: business cycles. and the theory of capitalist development; crises and the breakdown of capitalism. Contemporary Marxism and the question of the withering away of the state.

ECON 481 Labour Economics II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304; ECON 381. Advanced topics in labour economics with special emphasis on labour-market problems and policies in Canada. Topics include the theory of work-leisure choice, mobility and immigration, unemployment and unfilled vacancies, income distribution, labour market information and the wage-price relationship.

ECON 491 Advanced Environmental Economics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 302; ECON 326. The course deals with the economics of the management and use of environmental resources. The course focuses primarily on two aspects of the environmental issues: 1) the economic rationale of government policies and 2) programmes for environmental protection such as taxation, pollution, property rights, emission permits, public goods, conservation, sustainable development, evaluation of environmental damage, and environmental ethics.

ECON 493 Regional Economics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302; ECON 303; ECON 304. This course introduces the student to the methods and techniques of regional economic analysis, and their application to the problems of regional economies within Canada. Among the microeconomic topics covered are: the location behaviour of firms and households, and the factors determining the allocation of land among alternative competing uses. Macroeconomic topics include: the measurement and analysis of regional income and growth levels, cyclical changes in those levels, and interregional differences in growth rates. Policy problems pertinent to Canadian regions are stressed throughout the course.

ECON 495 Economics of Transportation and Communications (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302. Congestion problems and solutions, pricing, costs, demand, and regulation in transportation. Some applications to communications.

ECON 497 Income Distribution and Economic Inequality (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ECON 301; ECON 302;
The mission of the Department of Education is to provide responsible and innovative leadership in developing and disseminating knowledge about education. In training students to teach, the emphasis is not only on sound pedagogical principles and approaches but also the values of equality, diversity and non-discrimination.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

*NOTE 1: This programme is open to full-time students. In addition to the application submitted to the University, Specialization applicants must complete a form which may be obtained from the Early Childhood secretary. Only practising professionals in the field of education may apply as part-time students.

*NOTE 2: Upon successful completion of the BA Specialization in Early Childhood Education programme and application to the Student Service Centre, students may be recommended to the Québec Teachers Certification Service for a Québec Teaching Permit (Probation), for prekindergarten, kindergarten and grades 1-3.

To be recommended for certification students must:
1. achieve at least a "B" grade in each of the following courses: EDUC 271, 371, 373, 473, 474, 475; and
2. achieve at least a "C" grade in each of the following courses: EDUC 380, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388 and 389.

Students who obtain a failing grade or a passing grade that is below the level required for recommendation for certification will be placed on conditional standing within the programme and will be so informed in writing. Students will be allowed to repeat the course(s) in question only once in order to achieve the required grade. (For the status of this grade as part of the student record, see §16.3.12).

Students who fail two internships (i.e., failing the same internship twice or two different internships) will not be allowed to continue in the Early Childhood Education Specialization programme (see §16.3.12). The provisions of this policy also apply to the Certificate in Education programme. In EDUC 471, at least a "B" grade is required for such recommendation, in EDUC 480 and 481 at least a "C" grade.

NOTE 3: Students who intend to teach Catholic religious and moral instruction will be required to take EDUC 389 in addition to THEO 210 and 330 or 350. This is in accordance with the regulations of the Catholic Committee which will begin to affect conditions of employment in 1992. The regulations may be found in the Departmental handbook.

CERTIFICATE IN EDUCATION

The Department of Education offers a 30-credit programme leading to the Concordia University Certificate in Education and certification from the Provincial Department of Education.

NOTE: This programme is restricted to individuals at present employed in a recognized educational institution in Québec and holding a provisional teaching authorization.

Admission Requirements
1. Evidence of full-time employment with a recognized institution in Québec.
2. Possession of a Québec Provisional Teaching Authorization.

Admission limited.

Courses
EDUC 201*   EDUC 445*
EDUC 210*   EDUC 471*
either EDUC 480*, 481*, or an equivalent course in teaching methodology Six additional undergraduate credits in Education chosen in consultation with the Director of the Programme.

Students may transfer into the Certificate programme up to 12 credits earned in an incomplete degree or certificate programme or as an independent student provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

NOTE:
1. The student must meet the minimum scholarity requirements set by the Provincial government before being recommended for certification. See the conditions for certification following the BA Specialization in Early Childhood Education, above.
2. This programme is not open to teachers of vocational subjects or elementary teachers.

For other programmes which may be of particular interest to teachers, see §23.
EDUC 201  The Nature and Function of Teaching (6 credits)
An introduction to the purpose, theories, and methods of teaching.

EDUC 210  Psychology of Education (6 credits)
This course introduces the student to a broad range of content in educational psychology, including its scope and methods, learning motivation, growth and development, adjustment, individual differences, guidance, and concept of self.

EDUC 211  Child Growth and Development (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Early Childhood Education Specialization, or Major in Child Studies, or permission of the Early Childhood Education Director. Students study the physical, cognitive, affective, and social development of the young child. Genetic and environmental factors that influence development are examined. The implications of developmental needs in terms of planning environments are covered.

EDUC 230  Introduction to Philosophy of Education (3 credits)
This course introduces the student to the content and form of several major educational theories, and to conceptual and logical procedures of philosophizing about education, with particular reference to teaching and learning.

EDUC 241  Education in Western Civilization (3 credits)
An introduction to selected major thinkers and systems of thought in (and impinging on) education from Antiquity to the twentieth century. Emphasis is placed on thought and practice in the context of significant cultural, socio-economic, political, and religious developments.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for EDUC 441 may not take this course for credit.

EDUC 260  History and Philosophy of Early Childhood Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Early Childhood Education Specialization, or Major in Child Studies, or permission of the Early Childhood Education Director. This course provides an introduction to the field of early childhood education. The history and philosophy of pre-schools, day care, and the nursery school movement are represented. The influences of major writers, such as Rousseau, Froebel, Pestalozzi, Itard, Seguin, Montessori, and Dewey are examined. Comparative pre-school educational practices in other countries are explored.

EDUC 262  The Family and the Child (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Early Childhood Education Specialization, or Major in Child Studies, or permission of the Early Childhood Education Director. Students are introduced to developmental, psychological, and sociological aspects of the child and the family. Emphasis is placed on the structure and functions of the modern family, the transition to parenthood, child-rearing styles, the development of attachments and early family relationships. Problems and issues of the modern family, such as divorce, dual-worker families, single parents, and step-families are also addressed.

EDUC 264  Parenthood Study (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Early Childhood Education Specialization. This course focuses on the role of parents in the development of the young child. Topical issues concerning teacher-parent-child relationships are examined. Students are required to attend a weekly laboratory session in order to observe a parent discussion group and to attend a weekly seminar.

EDUC 271  Practicum I: Pre-School Field Experiences (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Early Childhood Education Specialization. This course is designed as an introduction to the theoretical and applied aspects of Early Childhood Education. Students attend weekly seminars; topics include the development of pre-school-aged children, the role of the teacher, curriculum and instruction in Early Childhood Education. This course requires students to spend one day a week for one semester in the Concordia Child Care Centre.

EDUC 298  Selected Topics in Education (3 credits)

EDUC 299  Selected Topics in Education (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

EDUC 305  Technology for Educational Change (3 credits)
This course provides an introduction to salient advances in the theory, research, and practice of educational technology. The following topics are typically covered: traditional media survey, systems approach and instructional design, origins of information explosion, computer technologies of EDUC 306  Computers and Computing in Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: INTE 290, or permission of the Department. This course is an introduction to educational computing. Topics covered include the evaluation and selection of instructional software, and using the computer as a tool for processing information with existing applications (e.g., spreadsheets, databases, authoring languages, graphics) in an educational context. Laboratory work outside the class (IBM-PC or compatible).

EDUC 317  The Urban Child (3 credits)
This course concentrates upon the life of the inner-city child and the concomitant influences upon their development in and out of the classroom. Students are instructed in how to view the urban area from the child's perspective, through field assignments in inner-city schools or recreation centres. Lectures by social workers, police officers of the youth section, legal aid counsellors, and inner-city teachers heighten the awareness of students to the environment in which the inner-city child lives.

EDUC 321  Sex Role Socialization in the School (3 credits)
This course focuses upon how children at the elementary- and secondary-school level are socialized for different work roles, and how work segregation has occurred on the basis of this process. The role of schools and curriculum, then, is examined in relation to cultural changes in social roles.

EDUC 324  Patterns of Educational Culture (3 credits)
This course is an introduction to the variety of cultural settings in which formal schooling and informal education socialization take place. The cultural milieu of education, both inside the classroom and outside, in the family, the neighbourhood, the marketplace, and the political arena is the focus of readings and lectures. The aim of this course is to immerse the student in the concepts of anthropology and education in the broadest sense. It is hoped that students become sensitized to the concept of culture, cultural assimilation, enculturation, socialization, informal, non-formal, and formal educational systems, open and closed societies, and cross-cultural comparison.

EDUC 371  Practicum II: Classroom Interaction Dynamics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in Early Childhood Education Specialization. This course is designed to encourage both systematic and anthropological observation of children in large and small groups in the classroom. Interaction between the child and the teacher as well as peer group interaction are examined. Sociolinguistics, verbal and non-verbal communication, and teacher expectations are topics covered. The purpose of this course is to heighten students' awareness of effective communication strategies and classroom interaction patterns. Classroom observation and student participation are the means by which topics are handled in the course. A one half-day per week field placement is required.

EDUC 373  Practicum III: Curriculum, Classroom Management and Micro-Teaching (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in the Early Childhood Education Specialization. Students study curriculum development and classroom management at the pre-school level. Teaching skills are modelled and practised in micro-teaching sessions. Students plan and develop activities, lessons, and units, which they implement in the micro-teaching sessions. Videotapes of performance are reviewed and discussed. NOTE: Students who have received credit for EDUC 270 may not take this course for credit.

EDUC 374  Child Studies Practicum (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in the Major programme. This course is designed to provide students with training in observation and evaluation procedures. Students study children in a variety of child-oriented environments and programmes. Instruction focuses on evaluative methodology, e.g., observational methods and interactional analyses. Students are required to complete a one half-day per week internship in addition to the regularly scheduled class time. Appropriate field placements for this course include recreation/community centres, hospitals, day care centres, libraries, museums, fine arts centres. NOTE: Students who have received credit for EDUC 371 may not take this course for credit.

EDUC 380  Language Arts I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in either Early Childhood Education Specialization or TESL programme. The aim of this course is to give the early childhood educator the skills to develop a stimulating and appropriate language arts programme for the classroom. Current theories of literacy development and implications for instruction are addressed. The course focuses on listening.
speaking, reading, and writing, with special emphasis on integrating language arts activities into all subject areas.

EDUC 381 Language Arts II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in either Early Childhood Education Specialization or TESL programme. This course is a continuation of EDUC 380 with special emphasis on emergent writing and reading. The connection between writing and reading skills and techniques of observation and evaluation is presented.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for EDUC 386 may not take this course for credit.

EDUC 382 Teaching Science Concepts to Young Children (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in Early Childhood Education Specialization. This course examines areas of science which are relevant to the young child and emphasizes the development of the spirit of scientific enquiry. Resource materials, teaching methodology, and classroom activities for early childhood education (pre-school and primary) are examined and evaluated. Assignments emphasize developing activities for classroom use.

EDUC 383 Promoting Moral and Spiritual Attitudes and Values in Young Children (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in Early Childhood Education Specialization. This course is designed to introduce the early childhood teacher to the various issues involving the development of moral judgment and reasoning in the young child. Cultural, social, cognitive, and emotional factors influencing the growth of morality are discussed. The major focus is on examining methods and techniques to enhance the personal development of positive social behaviours (i.e., helping, sharing, caring, etc.) in pre-school and primary level children.

EDUC 384 Exploring the Human Sciences with the Pre-school and Primary Age Child (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in Early Childhood Education Specialization. This course examines the teaching of the human sciences to young children.

EDUC 385 Teaching a Second Language to Young Children (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in either Early Childhood Education Specialization or TESL programme. This course is designed to give teachers a background in current theories of language acquisition and second language learning. Teaching methodologies such as immersion, enrichment, core/complementary curricula are studied and resource materials are examined and evaluated. Assignments include the development of appropriate classroom activities for young children.

EDUC 387 Teaching Mathematics to Pre-school and Primary Children I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in Early Childhood Education Specialization. Programmes and methodologies for teaching numerical concepts typically acquired by the preschooler and the primary child are studied and evaluated. Relevant resource materials are examined and assignments focus upon development of activities for the classroom.

NOTE: EDUC 387 and EDUC 388 are designed to provide teachers of young children with the background mathematical knowledge and teaching competencies necessary for the development of an exciting and creative mathematical programme in the classroom.

EDUC 388 Teaching Mathematics to Pre-school and Primary Children II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in Early Childhood Education Specialization. This course concentrates on topics such as geometry, classification, measurement, mathematical language, and the use of the calculator. The use of manipulative aids in instructing young children is explored and illustrated. Relevant resource materials are examined and assignments focus upon the development of activities for classroom use.

NOTE: EDUC 387 and EDUC 388 are designed to provide teachers of young children with the background mathematical knowledge and teaching competencies necessary for the development of an exciting and creative mathematical programme in the classroom.

EDUC 389 Catholic Moral and Religious Teaching in the Context of Quebec Schools (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in Early Childhood Education Specialization or permission of the Department. This course is designed to provide early childhood educators with the skills to develop a programme of Catholic moral and religious instruction within the context of Quebec schools. The school curriculum, resource materials, and teaching methodologies for the primary and pre-school child is studied.
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

EDUC 405 The T.V. Child — The Educational Implications of Children's Television Viewing Patterns (3 credits)

Prerequisite: 30 credits. This course examines the effects of television on children from a cognitive-developmental perspective. Learning theory, production techniques, cognitive theory (information processing) are the basis around which the examination of the communication process between the child and the media is examined. Both the positive and negative effects of television on children are considered. The concept of media literacy and classroom use of television is also discussed.

EDUC 413 Children's Behaviour Problems (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EDUC 210 or EDUC 211. This course focuses on the nature of children's behaviour problems and on methods to understand and modify behaviours which interfere with children's emotional, social, and intellectual growth. Students are involved with the practical applications of the available strategies in order to best help a youngster with behaviour problems according to their needs. Specific classroom techniques for coping with the acting-out as well as with the withdrawn child are given. Students are taught observational tools, programming suggestions, reinforcement techniques, and evaluation methods.

EDUC 414 Learning Problems of Children (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EDUC 210 or EDUC 211. This course describes the causes and kinds of learning problems in young and school-age children. Students are taught the pre-academic skills that are involved in learning, as well as specific techniques to help youngsters overcome and/or cope with these difficulties. Educational techniques for dealing with problems in reading, mathematics, spelling, writing, and language are discussed. The whole area of learning problems is related to children's social, emotional, and intellectual levels.

EDUC 416 Education of the Gifted (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EDUC 210. This course discusses the special educational problems of gifted children. It also assesses the effectiveness of the techniques usually employed to deal with these problems.

EDUC 417 Education of the Disadvantaged Child (3 credits)

Prerequisite: 30 credits. This course deals with issues associated with teaching disadvantaged children. Social, emotional, cognitive and familial problems are discussed and techniques for coping with these problems are presented.

EDUC 422 Sociology of Education I (3 credits)

Prerequisite: 30 credits. This course emphasizes sociological concepts and their application to the study of schooling. The focus is on the education system in relation to familial, economic and political aspects and how these affect social class differences in educational achievement and social status position.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for EDUC 421 may not take this course for credit.

EDUC 423 Sociology of Education II (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EDUC 422. This course considers how a particular sociological viewpoint contributes to our understanding of school life. Topics include family, socialization patterns, teacher and pupil perspectives and how these are interrelated.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for EDUC 421 may not take this course for credit.

EDUC 426 Comparative Education I (3 credits)

Prerequisite: Six credits in Education. This course undertakes the study of the impact of political and cultural differences upon educational systems (for example, the impact of language differences, nationalism, colonialism, neocolonialism, political socialization). The approach is comparative, with particular emphasis on contrasting educational systems and practice in Western nations (Canada, the United States, United Kingdom, or Western Europe); the Soviet Union; and China or other Third-World nations.

EDUC 427 Comparative Education II (3 credits)

Prerequisite: Six credits in Education. This course examines the sources and impacts of educational change from a comparative perspective. Topics include pedagogical alternatives; socio-political alternatives; educational implications of technological change and economic policy; policies of ellism and egalitarianism. Methods include comparative case study, and analysis of specific theories of educational innovation.

EDUC 428 Philosophy of Education: Concepts and Issues (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Three credits at university level in Philosophy or EDUC 230. The course considers the application of philosophical methods to aspects of educational theory or practice, e.g., educational aims, teaching methods, concepts which occur in educational discourse, or educational controversies.

EDUC 429 Philosophy of Education: Educational Philosophers and Movements (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Three credits at university level in Philosophy or EDUC 230. The course makes a study of a philosopher or school of philosophy whose works include significant educational reference or implication: e.g., Plato, Aristotle, Rousseau, Dewey, Marxism, Utilitarianism, Modern Analytical Philosophy.

EDUC 431 Honours Essay in Education (6 credits)
Open to third-year students in Honours in Education and Philosophy (or to others by permission of the Department).

EDUC 432 Seminar in Epistemology and Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EDUC 430, or permission of the Department. Theories of knowledge are considered in this course, with special attention being given to the bearing of such topics as perception, evidence, truth, knowledge, and belief as relating to educational thought and practice. Students are expected to become familiar with recent periodical and other literature in the field.

EDUC 433 Seminar in Ethics and Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EDUC 430, or permission of the Department. Students in this course study the principles and methods of moral justification in education. They are referred to the writing of main authors and recent periodical literature.

EDUC 434 Seminar in Aesthetics and Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EDUC 430, or permission of the Department. The nature of aesthetic value and experience, and theories of art and beauty are examined. The development of the emotions and imagination, and their functions in aesthetic awareness are central concerns of this course. Students are expected to become familiar with the relevant literature in the field.

EDUC 435 Seminar in Philosophy and Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EDUC 430, or permission of the Department. This is an advanced seminar in philosophical analysis and theory, in which students present papers on, and conduct discussions about, educational concepts, aims, and practices. Students are expected to become familiar with the periodical and other literature in the areas under discussion.

EDUC 440 History of Education, Thought and Practice (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits. The course focuses on a selected theme, school of thought, or movement in education, and educational thought (e.g., "the education libertarians from Rousseau to Holt", "the evolution of the curriculum", "the origins of public education", etc.).

NOTE: Students who have received credit for EDUC 441 may not take this course for credit.

EDUC 442 Education in Canada (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Canadian history. It is advisable that students have a reading knowledge of French. This course studies the history of Canadian education and, more particularly, the history of education in Québec.

EDUC 445 Education in Québec (6 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits in a teacher certification programme, or holder of a provisional teaching authorization, or permission of the Department. This course covers the history, the contemporary movements and the structures of Québec education. The historical section covers the period from 1608 until the present. Topics included are the legislation, regulations, rules, and directives pertaining to the respective roles of the Ministry of Education, the school boards, the teachers, the parents, and the students in Québec's educational system.

NOTE: Because this is a required course for all individuals enrolled in a Québec programme of teacher training, the content is controlled by the Ministry of Education.

EDUC 471 Supervised Internship (6 credits)
This course is offered only to students enrolled in the Certificate in Education program. Teaching internship is carried out in the school where the student is employed. The students are supervised and their teaching performance evaluated. The students are expected to demonstrate positive evidence of teaching competence and professional behaviour.

Adult Education
(Andragogy)

42 "BA Major in Adult Education *Admission suspended for 1993-94."

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.
skills and competencies of adult educators in the field of practice, and courses related to some dimensions which constitute the body of knowledge of adult education.

Certificate Admission Requirements
General admission requirements are listed in §13. Applicants will be interviewed prior to admission.

Students must take:
6 ADED 201, 202
15 Chosen from the Adult Education (ADED) offerings
3 Chosen from cognate courses with the permission of the programme director
6 ADED 496, 497, Integrative Seminars

Students may transfer into the Certificate programme up to 12 credits earned in an incomplete degree or Certificate program or as an independent student, provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined in consultation with the programme director at the point of entry into the programme.

24 Minor In Adult Education
6 ADED 201, 202
18 Chosen from Adult Education (ADED) course offerings with the prior approval of the Adult Education coordinator.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

ADED 201 Concepts and Principles of Adult Education (3 credits)
This course consists of an overview of the field of adult education as a field of study with emphasis given to its philosophy, objectives, historical development, and the nature of adult learners. It also examines adult education as a field of practice with emphasis given to methods, techniques, roles, and competencies. This course stresses active student participation and self-directedness.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for ADED 200 may not take this course for credit.

ADED 202 The Scope and Nature of Adult Education Programmes (3 credits)
The course is designed to help students develop an understanding of the scope and nature of adult education programmes. Emphasis is placed on existing programmes and institutions and agencies providing them. The course stresses active student participation and self-directedness.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for ADED 200 may not take this course for credit.

ADED 220 Adults as Learners (3 credits)
This course examines the unique physiological, psychological and sociological characteristics of adults, their influence on adult learning and development, and their implications for educational intervention. Attention is given to changes which occur at various stages of the adult life cycle and particularly to the dimensions which affect the adult's self-concept and orientation to learning, the motivations, needs and interests which cause adults to participate in educational activities.

ADED 230 Roles and Competencies of Adult Educators (3 credits)
The purpose of this course is to review the state of professionalization of adult education. General skills, knowledge and attitudes expected of adult educators regardless of the setting in which they work are examined. In addition, according to the participants' needs and interests, an opportunity is given to explore competencies related to the particular roles of, e.g., administrators, programme developers, trainers, leaders, instructors, counsellors, and volunteer workers.

ADED 240 Introduction to Research in Adult Education (3 credits)
This course is designed to introduce students as to how to gain access to and utilize major information sources in adult education. In addition, the course examines research interests and problem areas studied in Adult Education and related fields, along with current trends and various methods of enquiry used.

ADED 298 Selected Topics in Adult Education (3 credits)
ADED 299 Selected Topics in Adult Education (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
ADED 333 Methods and Techniques for Facilitating Adult Learning (3 credits)

This course is designed to give adult educators an opportunity to practise and improve their skills in facilitating adult learning. Different models of educational processes and optimal conditions for promoting adult learning are examined; attention is given to case studies, role plays, and simulation methods and techniques, as well as to individualized learning formats.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for ADED 330 or 331 may not take this course for credit.

ADED 344 Design of Adult Learning Projects (3 credits)

The purpose of this course is to assist participants in developing a clear working concept of various models for planning and designing adult learning projects. To facilitate this understanding, the different steps of the process are closely examined and discussed. Participants are given an opportunity to design and conduct a learning activity in the area of subject matter speciality. A systems approach, including methods for evaluating the design of the learning project is emphasized.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for ADED 340 or 341 or 343 may not take this course for credit.

ADED 345 Evaluating Adult Learning Projects (3 credits)

The purpose of this course is to assist participants in developing a clear working concept of various models for assessing the effectiveness of adult learning projects. The course emphasizes a systematic approach to evaluation, techniques for collecting information and providing feedback to programme operation and impact. Participants are given the opportunity to conduct an evaluation of an adult learning project in the area of subject matter speciality.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for ADED 342 or 343 may not take this course for credit.

ADED 351 Introduction to Administration of Adult Education (3 credits)

This course is designed to develop a better understanding of the principles of organization and administration as they relate to various institutions, government agencies, schools, and hospitals. The course also examines the evolving relationships of administrative theory and practice.

ADED 370 Workshops for Adult Educators (3 credits)

These workshops examine a number of topics and problems related to the field of Adult Education. The issues considered may differ from year to year and will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule. The workshop format is designed to provide adult educators with learning opportunities that are flexibly scheduled in the form of a one-week intensive seminar.

ADED 398 Selected Topics in Adult Education (3 credits)

ADED 399 Selected Topics in Adult Education (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

ADED 410 Adult Education in Canada and Quebec (3 credits)

The purpose of this course is to examine the historical development and current state of adult education in Canada, with special reference to Quebec. Various factors which influenced the development of adult education in our society are explored; the focus is on present status, role and structure, and socio-cultural and philosophical underpinnings of the field.

ADED 412 Concepts and Values in Adult Education (3 credits)

This seminar is designed to encourage adult educators to reflect upon and question what one is engaged in and why. A selection of conceptual and philosophical issues underlying adult educational practice is critically examined and discussed. Attention is given to the meaning of words, the nature of ideas and values, the implications of assumptions and principles which are deemed specific in the sphere of the education of adults.

ADED 440 Issues in the Practice of Adult Education (3 credits)

The purpose of this seminar is to study and discuss current issues relating to the field and profession of adult education in general, along with more specific and local concerns. Group and individual interests have an important bearing on the design of this course.

ADED 450 Adulthood and the Process of Educational Change (3 credits)

This course examines the factors which promote and inhibit educational change in adults. It provides a basis for understanding and intervening with adults in order to facilitate their taking greater responsibility for managing their own learning and for increasing effectiveness.
ADED 496  Integrative Seminar I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ADED 201; ADED 202. This seminar is designed to assist individual students in achieving a synthesis of their own experiential learning in the light of acquired knowledge, skills, values, and attitudes through the clarification of personal aims and the philosophy of adult education.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ADED 495 may not take this course for credit.
NOTE: Students will normally enrol in ADED 496 near the end of their programme.

ADED 497  Integrative Seminar II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ADED 496. This seminar is designed to extend the personal aims and philosophy of adult education arrived at in Integrative Seminar I, and engage in a special project in an adult education facility where supervision is provided by the host institution.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ADED 495 may not take this course for credit.

ADED 498  Advanced Topics in Adult Education
(3 credits)
ADED 499  Advanced Topics in Adult Education
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The Department of English offers three types of studies—literary studies, composition, and creative writing. Literary studies help students to develop the tools for the appreciation and critical analysis of literary texts. Composition courses, offered to students throughout the University, improve the students' writing skills. Creative writing courses provide the opportunity for budding writers to discuss, develop and refine their imaginative work.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR CREATIVE WRITING COURSES AND PROGRAMMES

Genre courses in Creative Writing are conducted as workshops in which enrolment is limited to permit constructive analysis of a student's work. Students wishing to enter any introductory genre course in Creative Writing (225, 226, 227) must apply by submitting a letter of intent along with a portfolio consisting ordinarily of 20 pages of their own work in any genre. Applications will be received as early as January of each year but no later than March 15. Since student demand regularly outpaces our enrolment capacity, early application is advisable.

Creative Writing programmes (Major and Minor) are designed primarily to develop the literary skills of students with a commitment to writing as an art form. Structured workshops guide students from introductory to advanced levels through the practice of their craft under the supervision of experienced writers.

Students wishing to proceed to an advanced (400-level) workshop must achieve a final grade of "B-" or better in an introductory workshop in Creative Writing.

Students are required to complete the appropriate entrance profile for entry into the programme (see $31.002 — Programmes and Admission Requirements — Profiles).

REQUIREMENTS FOR ENGLISH LITERATURE MAJOR

All students entering the English Literature Major must take a special Composition placement test which includes a literary component. Depending on the results of the test, students will be granted exemption from the Composition requirement, or placed according to their levels in, initially, one of ENGL 208, ENGL 212, or ENGL 213. (Some sections of ENGL 212 and ENGL 213 are specially designated for English Majors.) Credits in ENGL 212 and ENGL 213 count as elective credits towards the programme total; credits in ENGL 208 count towards the BA but not towards the programme total. The Composition requirement has to be satisfied in the first year of enrolment in the programme. Note also the Genre and Critical Method requirements of the programme.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR JOINT SPECIALIZATION IN PLAYWRITING (ENGLISH AND THEATRE)

This programme is intended for a very few exceptionally talented students each year. Students wishing to enrol in this programme should make an application to either the Major in Creative Writing or the Major in Theatre (Department of Theatre). In either case, in consultation with their advisers, they should select courses which satisfy the requirements for both the Departmental Major and for the Joint Specialization. Permission to transfer to the Joint Specialization and to enrol as student playwrights in THEA 420 Playwrighting Workshop is normally granted when students enter their final 30 credits and is based upon successful completion of ENGL 227 Creative Writing; Drama and ENGL 427 Advanced Creative Writing; Drama, review of the student's writing to date, and an interview. Students who are refused permission to transfer to the Joint Specialization should expect to complete the requirements for the Departmental Major in which they originally enrolled.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value. Students should consult the annual English Department brochure to determine which of the following courses are being offered in any given year.

Students are encouraged to consult with the Department in selecting their courses.
ENGLISH 205  Basic Language Skills — Stage I (3 credits)
A course for native speakers of English who need basic training in written English. Emphasis is placed on grammar, sentence structure, paragraphing and other fundamentals of good usage.
NOTE 1: Students who have received credit for any ESL course may not take this course for credit. This course does not count for credit within any English programme.
NOTE 2: Students must take a placement test before registering for this course.

ENGLISH 206  Basic Language Skills — Stage II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGL 205. A course for native speakers of English who need basic training in written English. This course is a continuation of ENGL 205.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for any ESL course may not take this course for credit. This course does not count for credit within any English programme.

ENGLISH 208  Introduction to English Composition and Literary Analysis (5 credits)
A composition course for students who wish to improve their ability to engage in written analysis of literary texts. The course includes analysis of fiction, poetry, and literary essays.
NOTE 1: This course does not count for credit within any English programme.
NOTE 2: Students must take a placement test before registering for this course.

ENGLISH 209  Elements of Written English (3 credits)
This course is intended for students who have completed ENGL 205 and ENGL 206 or ESL 209 but who are not yet ready for ENGL 212. The course provides additional practice in English composition with emphasis on idiomatic expression and correct usage.
NOTE 1: Students who have received credit for this course may not subsequently take any ESL course or ENGL 205 or ENGL 206. This course does not count for credit within any English programme.
NOTE 2: Students must take a placement test before registering for this course.

ENGLISH 212  English Composition — Stage I (3 credits)
This course is designed to help the student write clearly, concisely, grammatically and in a logically organized way. Emphasis is placed on diction, sentence structure, paragraphing and the organization of compositions and book reports.

NOTE 1: Students who have received credit for this course may not subsequently take any ESL course or ENGL 205, ENGL 206 or ENGL 209.

NOTE 2: Unless ENGL 209 has been completed previously, students must take a placement test before registering for this course.

NOTE 3: A GRADE OF "C-" OR HIGHER IN THIS COURSE CONSTITUTES A PASS IN THE UNIVERSITY WRITING TEST.

ENGL 213 English Composition — Stage II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGL 212. This course develops further the writing skills acquired in ENGL 212. The main purpose is to familiarize students with the techniques necessary for the preparation of research papers and academic reports.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this course may not subsequently take any ESL course or ENGL 205, ENGL 206, or ENGL 209.

ENGL 224 The Creative Process (3 credits)
This is a series of lectures and discussions on aspects of the writing life, including technique, literary influences, sources of inspiration, revision, and process. Material is drawn from texts, letters, worksheets, and biographies of well-known poets, prose writers, and playwrights, as well as from the instructor's own experience. Students are invited to read widely, participate in discussions, write papers, and engage in some writing of poetry, fiction, or drama. This course is open to all students.

NOTE: Students wishing to register for ENGL 225, 226 or 227, please refer to admission requirements for Creative Writing.

ENGL 225 Creative Writing: Poetry (6 credits)
A seminar in the writing and criticism of poetry, including detailed discussion and written criticism of the students' work, and, at the discretion of the instructor, the study of selected poems.

ENGL 226 Creative Writing: Prose (6 credits)

ENGL 412 Writing of Children's Literature (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGL 225 or ENGL 226 or ENGL 227, or permission of the Department. A workshop in the writing of prose, poetry, and drama for children. This course involves an exploration of the literary techniques appropriate to the sensibilities of children and their world.

ENGL 413 Editing, Publishing, and Creative Research (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course deals with such areas as magazines, small presses, and anthologies, that stimulate and promote literary activity. Emphasis is also given to the research problems peculiar to the creative writer.

ENGL 414 Translation of Literary Texts (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Advanced workshop in the translation of literary texts. The emphasis is on re-creation in English of French source-texts, but other source-languages may be included, depending on the special competence of the instructor. Students are expected to be fluently bilingual and to have some experience in translating literary texts. The course is part of the Creative Writing programme and is not intended for students to upgrade their bilingualism.

ENGL 425 Advanced Creative Writing: Poetry (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGL 225, or approved work. A workshop in the writing of poetry. The students are expected to enter this course with competence in the fundamentals of the form, and to go on, by experimenting more fully with its material and techniques, to demonstrate their further progress in the craft.

ENGL 426 Advanced Creative Writing: Prose (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGL 226, or approved work. A workshop in the writing of fiction. The students are expected to enter this course with competence in the fundamentals of the form, and to go on, by experimenting more fully with its materials and techniques, to demonstrate their further progress in the craft.

ENGL 427 Advanced Creative Writing: Drama (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGL 227, or approved work. A workshop in the writing of plays. The students are expected to enter this course with competence in the fundamentals of the form, and to go on, by experimenting more fully with its materials and techniques, to demonstrate their further progress in the craft.

ENGL 430 Old English (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in English Literature or permission of the Department. A study of the language and literature of the Anglo-Saxon era, chiefly of the Beowulf epic.

ENGL 432 Middle English Literature (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in English Literature or permission of the Department. A study of literature written in the English dialects from 1200 to 1500, including works such as Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and other romances, early lyrics, religious prose, drama, and selections from Layamon's Arthurian Brut, Langland's Piers Plowman, and Malory's Morte D'Arthur.

ENGL 440 The Literatures of Canada and the United States (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGL 290 or ENGL 300 or ENGL 301; ENGL 302. It is to the student's advantage to enter this course with knowledge of both literatures. Studies in common and contrasting problems in the two national literatures.

ENGL 459 Contemporary Literature (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in modern literature. A study of poetry, prose fiction, and drama, written in or translated into English since the Second World War. This course is intended for students whose exploration of modern literature has already suggested to them something of the radical experimentation in form which characterizes contemporary literature.

ENGL 470 Honours Seminar (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Honours English, 24 credits in English and permission of the Department. Exceptional students not enrolled in Honours English may be admitted. The topics of the seminar vary from year to year. The seminars focus upon an oral presentation by each student.
NOTE: Enrolment is limited. Students should apply to the Department one term in advance.

ENGL 471 Independent Studies (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in an English programme or nine credits in English Literature. A tutorial programme arranged with a member of the Department.
NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with ENGL 473.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ENGL 478 may not take this course for credit.

ENGL 472 Independent Studies (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in an English programme or nine credits in English Literature. A tutorial programme arranged with a member of the Department.
NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with ENGL 473.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ENGL 478 may not take this course for credit.

ENGL 473 Independent Studies (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in an English programme or nine credits in English Literature. A tutorial programme arranged with a member of the Department.
NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with ENGL 471 or 472.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ENGL 479 may not take this course for credit.

ENGL 474 Honours Essay (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in an English programme or nine credits in English Literature. A tutorial programme arranged with a member of the Department.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ENGL 480 may not take this course for credit.

ENGL 477 Advanced Stylistics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGL 271 or permission of the Department. This course concentrates on the strategies of style through analytical study of the components of discourse such as diction, sentence structure, and paragraph formation.

ENGL 490 Joint Tutorial in History and English (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in an English programme or nine credits in English Literature. A tutorial for students in an English and History Joint Honours Programme.

ENGL 491 Joint Tutorial in Modern Languages and English (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in an English programme or nine credits in English Literature. A tutorial for students in an English and Modern Languages Joint Honours Programme.

ENGL 496 Advanced Research and Thesis (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in an English programme or nine credits in English Literature. A small number of seminars or tutorials on special themes and topics, to vary each year. Registration is limited to Honours students in their final year. All students must consult in advance with the Department.

ENGL 498 Advanced Topics in English (3 credits)
ENGL 499 Advanced Topics in English (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
L'appellation Études françaises reflète le concept pluridisciplinaire sur lequel se fondent les deux volets de notre mission universitaire: l'enseignement et la recherche. La recherche pure et appliquée se pratique dans les domaines les plus variés de la discipline en étroite liaison avec l'enseignement. De plus, nous participons à la vie intellectuelle et professionnelle de la collectivité, à l'échelle nationale et internationale. Le département d'Études françaises a une double vocation. Il offre d'une part des solides programmes de langue, littérature, traduction et didactique aux étudiantes et étudiants qui viennent y chercher une formation spécialisée. II joue d'autre part un rôle capital au sein de l'Université en offrant un vaste éventail de cours de langue, linguistique, littérature et civilisation aux étudiantes et étudiants qui souhaitent compléter la formation qu'elles ou ils reçoivent dans d'autres départements.

Il appartient à chaque étudiante et étudiant de remplir toutes les conditions requises dans son programme. L'exposant 3 ou 6 indique le nombre de crédits. N.B.: Chaque candidate et candidat aux programmes de traduction devrait inclure à son dossier une lettre d'intention rédigée dans sa langue principale.

Les étudiantes et étudiants provenant d'institutions autres que Concordia peuvent y transférer jusqu'à 12 crédits obtenus dans un programme inachevé ou à titre d'étudiante ou d'étudiant indépendant, à condition que leurs résultats soient satisfaisants. Le transfert éventuel de ces crédits sera déterminé au moment de l'inscription au programme.

Programme de traduction formule coopérative

Le programme de BA spécialisation en traduction se présente sous deux formules: la formule standard et la formule coopérative.

L'option coopérative comprend les mêmes cours, en nombre et en nature, que l'option standard; cependant aux sessions d'études viennent s'ajouter trois stages. Ces stages rémunérés se déroulent au sein de services linguistiques et sont consacrés à des tâches en traduction ou dans l'un des domaines connexes: rédaction, terminologie, documentation, etc. Les conditions d'admission au BA spécialisé en traduction de formule coopérative sont plus rigoureuses que celles du programme spécialisé standard. À l'examen du dossier CÉGEP s'ajoutent d'autres filtrages du type lettre d'intention, examen écrit, entrevue. Les conditions d'admission à l'option coopérative sont décrites à la §24 de l'annuaire. Les étudiantes et étudiants du programme coopératif sont encadrés chacun et chacune personnellement et doivent satisfaire aux exigences de la Faculté des arts et sciences et de l'Institut d'enseignement coopératif pour se maintenir dans le programme coopératif. La liaison entre l'étudiante ou l'étudiant, les employeurs et l'institut d'enseignement coopératif est du ressort du comité du programme coopératif en traduction du Département d'études françaises, comité dont les conseillères et conseillers de l'étudiant ou de l'étudiante font partie. Le calendrier du programme coopératif en traduction est différent de celui des autres programmes coopératifs et se présente comme suit:

Français

FRAN 211 French Language: Elementary (6 credits)
This course is intended for students having no previous training in French. It includes a comprehensive introduction to the basic structures and vocabulary of French and should enable students to acquire an ability to speak and understand simple conversational French. Both oral and written aspects of the language are presented, with special emphasis on oral skills. Laboratory sessions are included.

N.B.: Students who have received credit for FRAN 200 or FRAN 201 may not take this course for credit.

FRAN 212 Langue française: niveau de transition (6 credits)
Préalable: FRAN 211 ou l'équivalent. Ce cours s'adresse aux étudiantes et étudiants ayant suivi soit un an de français à l'université ou au niveau collégial, soit deux ans de français à l'école secondaire, ou l'équivalent. Ce cours permet aux étudiantes et étudiants d'accéder à un niveau de compréhension et d'expression suffisant pour communiquer en français oralement et par écrit avec une certaine assurance. Par l'utilisation de techniques de conversation dirigée, de travail systématique en classe et au laboratoire et d'explorations écrites, les étudiantes et étudiants acquerront un répertoire de structures et un vocabulaire plus étendu. Séances de laboratoire.

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 202 ou FRAN 203 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

FRAN 213 Langue française: niveau intermédiaire I et II (6 crédits)
Préalable: FRAN 212 ou l'équivalent. Ce cours s'adresse aux étudiantes et étudiants ayant suivi soit 4 ans de français à l'école secondaire, soit 2 ans de français à l'université ou au niveau collégial ou l'équivalent. Par une étude et une pratique intensive des tournures du français courant, l'étudiante ou l'étudiant pourra acquérir l'aisance nécessaire à une communication orale et écrite spontanée. Le cours fournira également quelques aperçus sur le mode de vie des francophones.

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 204 ou FRAN 205 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

FRAN 214 Langue française: niveau intermédiaire I (3 crédits)
Préalable: FRAN 212 ou l'équivalent. Ce cours s'adresse aux étudiantes et étudiants ayant suivi soit 4 ans de français à l'école secondaire, soit 2 ans de français à l'université ou au niveau collégial ou l'équivalent. Par une étude et une pratique intensive des tournures du français courant, l'étudiante ou l'étudiant pourra acquérir l'aisance nécessaire à une communication orale et écrite spontanée. Le cours fournira également quelques aperçus sur le mode de vie des francophones.

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 204 ou FRAN 213 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

FRAN 215 Langue française: niveau intermédiaire II (3 crédits)
Préalable: FRAN 214 ou l'équivalent. Suite du cours précédent.

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 205 ou FRAN 213 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

FRAN 216 Cours de grammaire: niveau intermédiaire I (3 crédits)
Préalable: FRAN 212 ou l'équivalent. Ce cours s'adresse en particulier aux étudiantes et étudiants parlant français avec une certaine aisance et qui voudraient améliorer leur expression écrite par une étude des règles fondamentales de la grammaire et par de nombreux travaux pratiques.

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 206 ou FRAN 207 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

FRAN 217 Cours de grammaire: niveau intermédiaire II (3 crédits)
Préalable: FRAN 216 ou l'équivalent. Suite du cours précédent.

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 206 ou FRAN 207 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

FRAN 218 L'art de vivre au Québec I (6 crédits)
Préalable: FRAN 212 ou l'équivalent. Cours intensif qui a pour but principal de permettre à l’étudiante ou à l’étudiant de niveau intermédiaire de s’intégrer au milieu québécois, au moyen de discussions et d’activités dirigées par une professeure ou un professeur et animées par des monitrices-étudiantes et des moniteurs-étudiants francophones. Pratique systématique du français en classe. Participation en petits groupes à des activités culturelles dépassant le cadre scolaire.

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 208, FRAN 300 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

FRAN 220 Littérature moderne (6 crédits)
Préalable: FRAN 213 ou l’équivalent. Au moyen d’un choix de nouvelles, romans, pièces de théâtre, et poèmes de la francophonie, l’étudiante ou l’étudiant apprendra à “lire” et à apprécier les caractéristiques des différents genres.

FRAN 250 Littérature québécoise en traduction (3 crédits)
Étude de la littérature québécoise en traduction, surtout du point de vue de l’écriture (vocabulaire, style, images, etc.). Étude de textes sur le plan thématique, linguistique, stylistique, et structural. Analyse des meilleures traductions disponibles. Travaux pratiques en traduction, compositions, recherches. Textes: Bessette, Le libraire; Blais, La Belle Bête; Thériault, Agaguk; Hébert, Kamouraska, etc.
N.B.: Ce cours n’est pas crédité dans les programmes de mineure, de majeure, de BA spécialisé et d’honneurs en littérature québécoise.

FRAN 252 Culture et civilisation québécoises I (3 crédits)
Panorama de la littérature québécoise, de la Nouvelle-France à la fin du XIXe siècle, vue dans une perspective socio-historique. Par l’étude de textes significatifs, on retracera le processus historique de différenciation et d’affirmation collective des Québécoises et Québécois.

Seront étudiés, entre autres, des représentantes et des représentants du théâtre politique, du théâtre de l'absurde et du théâtre nouveau qui se développe à la suite des événements de mai 1968.

FRAN 476 La littérature au féminin I (3 crédits)
À partir de manifestes et d'œuvres de création, on retracera différentes manifestations de la prise de conscience «féministe» chez les écrivaines françaises, ainsi que les solutions envisagées aux problèmes posés. Ce cours permettra de considérer les tendances actuelles dans une perspective historique.

FRAN 477 La littérature au féminin II (3 crédits)
Ce cours portera sur l'éclatement qui caractérise l'écriture au féminin à l'heure actuelle. On étudiera différents concepts tels que la «prise de parole», la valorisation de l'anima, le renversement des mythes anciens, ainsi que la révolution formelle et stylistique qui accompagne cet éclatement.

FRAN 478 Histoire de la critique littéraire (3 crédits)
Étude de l'évolution de la critique littéraire des origines au début du XXe siècle, au moyen d'un choix d'œuvres théoriques et critiques.

FRAN 479 Approches critiques du texte littéraire (3 crédits)
Étude des questions épistémologiques que pose l'analyse d'un texte littéraire en relation avec d'autres disciplines telle que la philosophie, la sociologie, la psychologie, etc. Le programme du cours comprend l'examen des principales théories et l'apprentissage des méthodes critiques qui en découlent.

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 481 ou FRAN 482 ou FRAN 483 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

FRAN 480 La sémiotique textuelle (3 crédits)
Étude des conditions générales de la production du sens et de la spécificité du texte littéraire. Examen des principales théories formalistes en France et au Québec et apprentissage des méthodes critiques qui en découlent. Travaux pratiques qui permettront à l'étudiante et à l'étudiant d'en contrôler l'efficacité et la valeur au contact des œuvres.

FRAN 488 Stage pratique d'enseignement du français langue seconde aux adultes (3 crédits)
Préalable: FRAN 381 et 9 autres crédits dans le programme d'enseignement du français langue seconde aux adultes, ou autorisation de la directrice ou du directeur du programme. Les étudiantes et étudiants auront l'occasion d'observer des professeures et professeurs expérimentés en assistant à leurs cours et devront elles-mêmes et eux-mêmes appliquer les connaissances acquises dans les autres cours du programme à un enseignement pratique dans une classe.

FRAN 489 Méthodologie des travaux de recherche (6 crédits) Destiné aux étudiantes et étudiants de dernière année et préparant aux études du deuxième cycle, ce cours permettra, par des exercices de rédaction commentés et critiqués, d’atteindre la précision, l’élegance, et l’originalité dans l’expression écrite. Analyse stylistique proprement dite (définitions et procédés de style). Théorie et pratique de l’analyse de texte; Théorie de la versification; Théorie et pratique des recherches bibliographiques.

FRAN 490 Tutorat en langue, linguistique ou traduction (6 crédits)
Préalable: 12 crédits de langue, de linguistique ou de traduction au niveau «400». Étude d’un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la langue, de la linguistique ou de la traduction.
N.B.: Toute étudiante et tout étudiant s’inscrivant pour la seconde fois au cours FRAN 490 obtient les crédits FRAN 491 et 492.

FRAN 491 Tutorat en langue, linguistique ou traduction (3 crédits)
Préalable: 12 crédits de langue, de linguistique ou de traduction au niveau «400». Étude d’un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la langue, de la linguistique ou de la traduction.

FRAN 492 Tutorat en langue, linguistique ou traduction (3 crédits)
Préalable: 12 crédits de langue, de linguistique ou de traduction au niveau «400». Étude d’un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la langue, de la linguistique ou de la traduction.
N.B.: Toute étudiante et tout étudiant s’inscrivant pour la seconde fois au cours FRAN 490 obtient les crédits FRAN 492.

FRAN 493 Tutorat en littérature (6 crédits)
Préalable: 12 crédits en littérature et autorisation du département. Étude d’un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la littérature.
N.B.: Toute étudiante et tout étudiant s’inscrivant pour la seconde fois au cours FRAN 493 obtient les crédits FRAN 494 et 495.

FRAN 494 Tutorat en littérature (3 crédits)
Préalable: 12 crédits en littérature et autorisation du département. Étude d’un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la littérature.

FRAN 495 Tutorat en littérature (3 crédits)
Préalable: 12 crédits en littérature et autorisation du département. Étude d’un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la littérature.

FRAN 496 Recherche dirigée (6 crédits)
Préalable: 12 crédits dans la spécialité et autorisation du département. Ce cours n’est ouvert qu’aux étudiantes et étudiants des programmes de majeure, de spécialisation ou d’honneurs. Il offre l’occasion d’approfondir l’étude d’un sujet à déterminer par l’étudiante ou l’étudiant en accord avec sa conseillère ou son conseiller et/ou une professeure ou un professeur du département. Chaque étudiante et étudiant exécute des travaux individuels sous le contrôle de la professeure ou du professeur spécialiste de la matière.

FRAN 497 Recherche dirigée (6 crédits)
Toute étudiante et tout étudiant s’inscrivant pour la seconde fois au cours FRAN 496 obtient les crédits FRAN 497.

FRAN 498 Étude avancée d’un sujet particulier (3 crédits)

FRAN 499 Étude avancée d’un sujet particulier (6 crédits)
Les préalables de ces cours, ainsi que les sujets particuliers qui y sont étudiés, sont indiqués dans le Undergraduate Class Schedule.

Traduction

TRAD 200 Méthodologie de la traduction (3 crédits)
N.B.: Ce cours comporte plusieurs sections, les unes réservées aux étudiantes et étudiants de l’option française, les autres à celles et ceux de l’option anglaise.
N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 260 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

TRAD 201 Traduction générale du français à l’anglais (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 200. Traduction du français à l’anglais de textes généraux et analyse des problèmes liés au transfert linguistique. (A) N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi TRAD 202 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.
N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 261 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour le cours TRAD 201.

TRAD 202 Traduction générale de l'anglais au français (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 200. Traduction de l'anglais au français de textes généraux et analyse des problèmes liés au transfert linguistique. (F)
N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi TRAD 201 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.
N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 261 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

TRAD 298 Étude d'un sujet particulier (3 crédits)
Les préalables de ces cours, ainsi que les sujets particuliers qui y sont étudiés, sont indiqués dans le Undergraduate Class Schedule.

TRAD 301 Traduction littéraire du français à l'anglais (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 201. Sensibilisation aux problèmes spécifiques à la traduction littéraire. Travaux pratiques: traduction de textes de genres variés. (A)
N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi TRAD 302 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.
N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi FRAN 360 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

TRAD 302 Thème et analyse de texte (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 202. Ce cours de traduction générale permet à l'étudiante ou l'étudiant de traduire vers la langue qui ne sera pas sa langue de travail régulière. L'accent sera donc mis sur l'analyse du texte de départ ainsi que sur les problèmes de formulation dans la langue d'arrivée. La pratique du thème vise à sensibiliser l'étudiante ou l'étudiant aux subtilités de ce qui est normalement sa langue de départ. (F)
N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi TRAD 301 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

TRAD 303 Thème et analyse de texte (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 201. Ce cours de traduction générale permet à l'étudiante ou l'étudiant de traduire vers la langue qui ne sera pas sa langue de travail régulière. L'accent sera donc mis sur l'analyse du texte de départ ainsi que sur les problèmes de formulation dans la langue d'arrivée. La pratique du thème vise à sensibiliser l'étudiante ou l'étudiant aux subtilités de ce qui est normalement sa langue de départ. (A)

TRAD 304 Traduction littéraire de l'anglais au français (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 202. Sensibilisation aux problèmes spécifiques à la traduction littéraire. Travaux pratiques: traduction de textes de genres variés. (F)
N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi TRAD 304 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

TRAD 310 Initiation à la terminologie (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 201 ou 202. Ce cours identifie certains problèmes de terminologie soulevés par la traduction et comprend des travaux pratiques tels que l'analyse lexicographique de textes français ou anglais et la préparation de glossaires sur fiches. (F/A)

TRAD 398 Étude d'un sujet particulier (3 crédits)
Les préalables de ces cours, ainsi que les sujets particuliers qui y sont étudiés, sont indiqués dans le Undergraduate Class Schedule.

TRAD 401 Traduction littéraire avancée: du français à l'anglais (3 crédits) Préalables: TRAD 301 et 303. Etude des différents principes et des différentes techniques de la traduction littéraire; aperçu de la traduction littéraire au Canada. Travaux pratiques: analyse critique et comparaison de traductions et de leur original; traduction de textes français. (A)

TRAD 402 Traduction littéraire avancée: de l'anglais au français (3 crédits) Préalables: TRAD 302 et 304. Étude des différents principes et des différentes techniques de la traduction littéraire; aperçu de la traduction littéraire au Canada.

Travaux pratiques: analyse critique et comparaison de traductions et de leur original; traduction de textes anglais. (F)

TRAD 403  Traduction scientifique et technique du français à l'anglais (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 201. Initiation aux différents domaines de la traduction technique et scientifique. Le semestre sera divisé en modules. Chaque module sera confié à une traductrice ou un traducteur spécialisé dans un domaine particulier. (A)

TRAD 404  Traduction scientifique et technique de l'anglais au français (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 202. Initiation aux différents domaines de la traduction technique et scientifique. Le semestre sera divisé en modules. Chaque module sera confié à une traductrice ou un traducteur spécialisé dans un domaine particulier. (F)

TRAD 405  Traduction commerciale et juridique du français à l'anglais (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 201. Initiation aux différents problèmes de la traduction administrative, commerciale et juridique du français à l'anglais. Le cours sera divisé en modules. Chaque module sera confié à une traductrice ou un traducteur spécialisé dans un des domaines abordés. (A)

TRAD 406  Traduction commerciale et juridique de l'anglais au français (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 202. Initiation aux différents problèmes de la traduction administrative, commerciale et juridique de l'anglais au français. Le cours sera divisé en modules. Chaque module sera confié à une traductrice ou un traducteur spécialisé dans un des domaines abordés. (F)

TRAD 408  Adaptation publicitaire (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 201 et 202. Initiation à l'adaptation de textes publicitaires. À partir d'exemples empruntés à la publicité écrite, radiophonique ou télévisée, les étudiantes et étudiants seront amenés à se familiariser avec les problèmes linguistiques, affectifs et sociaux soulevés par le travail d'adaptation. (F/A)

TRAD 409  Révision et correction en traduction (3 crédits)
Préalables: TRAD 301 et 303. Ce cours abordera les différentes méthodes de révision et de correction de textes rédigés ou traduits en anglais; il sensibilisera les étudiantes et étudiants aux aspects humains et techniques du métier de réviseur et réviseur; on touchera aussi aux problèmes de l'évaluation de la qualité des traductions. (A)

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi TRAD 410 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

TRAD 410  Révision et correction en traduction (3 crédits)
Préalables: TRAD 302 et 304. Ce cours abordera les différentes méthodes de révision et de correction de textes rédigés ou traduits en français; il sensibilisera les étudiantes et étudiants aux aspects humains et techniques du métier de réviseur et réviseur; on touchera aussi aux problèmes de l'évaluation de la qualité des traductions. (F)

N.B.: Les étudiantes et étudiants qui ont suivi TRAD 409 ne peuvent obtenir de crédits pour ce cours.

TRAD 412  Théories de la traduction (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 301 ou TRAD 304. Ce cours a pour but d'initier l'étudiante et l'étudiant aux différentes théories actuelles de la traduction. On abordera, dans un premier volet du cours, les diverses notions théoriques, et on cherchera à tracer leur évolution. Dans un deuxième volet, on examinera les problèmes théoriques tels qu'ils se posent dans les différents domaines pratiques de la traduction. (F/A)

TRAD 414  Histoire de la traduction (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 301 ou TRAD 304. Étude de la traduction depuis la Renaissance jusqu'à l'époque moderne. Ce cours traitera également certains des sujets suivants: l'histoire de la traduction au Canada, les politiques linguistiques au Canada, les traductions marquantes en anglais et en français. (F/A)

TRAD 416  Informatique et traduction (3 crédits)
Préalable: TRAD 201 ou 202. Terminologie de l'informatique. Applications de l'informatique à la traduction: traitement de textes, banques de données, banques de terminologie, traduction assistée par ordinateur. (F/A)

TRAD 420  Stage de formation: de l'anglais au français (6 crédits) Préalable: 60 crédits en traduction et autorisation de la coordinatrice ou du coordinateur des stages. Le stage a pour but d'initier l'étudiante ou l'étudiant à l'activité professionnelle dans le domaine de la traduction de l'anglais au français et de lui faire connaître le monde du travail. (Le département fera tout son possible pour faciliter l’obtention d’un stage mais ne peut s’engager à trouver un stage pour toutes les candidates et tous les candidats.) (F)

TRAD 421 Stage de formation: du français à l’anglais

(6 crédits)

Préalable: 60 crédits en traduction et autorisation de la coordinatrice ou du coordinateur des stages. Le stage a pour but d’initier l’étudiante ou l’étudiant à l’activité professionnelle dans le domaine de la traduction du français à l’anglais et de lui faire connaître le monde du travail. (Le département fera tout son possible pour faciliter l’obtention d’un stage mais ne peut s’engager à trouver un stage pour toutes les candidates et tous les candidats.) (A)

TRAD 498 Étude avancée d’un sujet particulier (3 crédits)

TRAD 499 Étude avancée d’un sujet particulier (6 crédits)

Les préalables de ces cours, ainsi que les sujets particuliers qui y sont étudiés, sont indiqués dans le Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The Department of Exercise Science is committed to teaching and research in all aspects of exercise, health, and physical activity. Through lectures, laboratory experience, and fieldwork, students explore the biomechanical, physiological, and psychological responses of able-bodied individuals and persons with a variety of physical impairments. Specialized programmes offer a variety of applied studies which prepare students for careers in the health professions. Exercise evaluation and prescription, lifestyle management, and athletic therapy are among the many programme choices.

Students are required to complete the appropriate entrance profile for entry into the programme (see §31.002 — Programmes and Admission Requirements — Profile). All incoming Exercise Science students enter the Major programme. Students seeking entry to an Honours programme must submit an application form to the EXC Honours adviser for review with respect to University and Departmental policy. The adviser will review all applications meeting policy regulations and will then direct these to the Faculty Honours Committee for final approval.

For entry into an Honours programme, students must submit an application to the EXC Honours adviser after completing the first year of the Major programme (i.e. 24 credits which include EXC 201, 221, 253, 255, 261, 262 and CHEM 221, 222).

Students entering Honours, Specialization, and Major programmes should refer to §16.3.10, Academic Regulations, and §31.003.1 regarding O.P.A. regulations. The BSc Honours in Exercise Science Athletic Therapy Option does not lead to certification as an athletic therapist by the Canadian Athletic Therapists Association.

Students must have completed the first year of the Major programme (i.e. 24 credits itemized in the Honours programme regulations) before transferring to the BSc Specialization. The BSc Specialization in Exercise Science follows Option programmes Adapted Physical Activity, Athletic Therapy, Community Fitness Science, Pre-Research with the exclusion of the respective Internships (EXC 460, 461, 463, 468). These are substituted by six Exercise Science credits at the 400 level not already required in the option of study.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

246. EXERCISE SCIENCE
The Exercise Science Co-operative Programme is offered to students who are enrolled in the Specialization in Community Fitness Science Option. Students interested in applying for the Exercise Science Co-op should refer to §24 where a full description of the admission requirements is provided.

Students in the Exercise Science Co-op take the regular academic programme with the exception of the six-credit practicum. Students must select six credits from a list of possible courses to replace the practicum requirement.

Students are supervised personally and must meet the requirements specified by the Faculty of Arts and Science and the Institute for Co-operative Education in order to continue their studies in the co-op format.

Liaison between the student, the employers, and the Institute for Co-operative Education is provided by the Exercise Science Co-op Committee, which includes the student's advisers. Please refer to §24 for the schedule of Study and Work terms and the full description of admission requirements.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.
EXCI 201  Introduction to Exercise Science (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in an Exercise Science programme. The course examines from a historical perspective the philosophical and applied concepts of exercise science. There is particular emphasis on the development of the relationship between exercise science and the allied health professions. Lectures.

EXCI 215  Psychomotor Activities in Early Childhood (3 credits)
This course considers the implementation of physical activities on the basis of psychomotor growth and development in children. Issues such as weight training, anaerobic training and aerobics for children lend themselves to discussion in this course, as do the effects of participation in competitive sport on psychosocial and personality development. Topics addressed are aquatic programmes for infants; movement education; gender differences in planning appropriate activities. Consideration is given to adaptation of activities for children with special physical and mental needs. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 221  Statistical Procedures in Exercise Science (3 credits)
This is an introductory course in statistics, presented in an applied health science context. It addresses measures of central tendency, various correlational techniques, an introductory analysis of variance, and a brief introduction to the use of computer programmes. Lectures only.

EXCI 251  Basics of the Science of Movement (3 credits)
Anatomical, physiological, and kinesiological aspects of movement are presented. Acute and chronic responses to exercise and the development of fitness programmes are studied. Detrimental as well as beneficial responses are considered. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students registered in the Major, Specialization, and Honours programmes may not take this course for credit.

EXCI 253  Human Anatomy I: The Extremities (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in an Exercise Science programme or permission of the instructor. Following an introduction to anatomical terminology, definitions, and tissues, the course concentrates on the appendicular skeleton. The skeletal and muscular systems of the upper and lower extremities are studied in depth. The circulatory and peripheral nervous systems of these areas are also presented to better understand the complete regional relationship for subsequent study in core courses in EXCI. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 255  Human Anatomy II: Head, Neck, and Torso (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 253. The course considers the axial skeleton with emphasis on the nervous, cardiovascular and respiratory systems. Consideration is also given to the muscular, digestive, urinary, and reproductive systems. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 261  Principles of Physical Conditioning (3 credits)
The major thrust of this course is a practical experience in adult physical activities, e.g., industrial fitness. This includes conditioning as well as a skill development component. Lectures and special projects relate the physical activities to theoretical concepts. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 262  Emergency Care in Exercise and Sport (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 253. This course identifies common injuries and acute pathological conditions associated with physical activity. Students learn to recognize the injury and perform emergency or initial treatment. The "how" and "why" of emergency treatment are covered. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for EXCI 337 may not take this course for credit.

EXCI 298  Selected Topics in Exercise Science (3 credits)

EXCI 299  Selected Topics in Exercise Science (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

EXCI 303  Nutrition in Exercise and Sport (3 credits)
The structure and function of the three categories of foodstuffs as well as the role of the various vitamins and minerals are examined. The course also deals with weight control, nutrition for athletes and special populations. Topics such as fad diets, nutrition texts, health foods, supplements, environmental effects on the food chain, and nutritional research are discussed.

EXCI 308  Physical Growth and Maturation (3 credits)
This course considers normal and abnormal growth and maturation patterns of the body's systems (musculoskeletal, neural, hormonal, cardiovascular, and respiratory) as well as processes of socialization and psychosocial development in an exercise of sports environment. Time frame encompasses childhood through adolescence and adulthood. Lectures.

EXCI 311 Introduction to Psychomotor Behaviour (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 221. This course examines the acquisition and performance of skilled motor behaviour. An information processing model is used to identify the major mechanisms involved in the production of skilled movement, and a social psychological approach is employed to illustrate how cognitive, emotional, social, and behavioural factors can influence motor performance.

EXCI 321 Measurement and Analysis in Exercise Science (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 221. Students are introduced to measurement processes pertinent to exercise science. Concepts of data collection, data presentation, validity, reliability, objectivity, precision and accuracy are discussed. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 331 Health Sciences (3 credits)
This course considers topics common to professionals working in health maintenance and preventive medicine. Specifically, the course synthesizes knowledge from biological, epidemiological, psychological, and medical sciences to 1) address health risk factors, 2) examine intervention strategies, and 3) identify programmes and resources presently available in the community. Lectures.

EXCI 333 Personal and Community Health Problems (3 credits)
This course presents an overview of factors influencing personal and community health. Students are exposed to prevalent physical and mental health issues from biological, psychological, and sociological points of view. Health-related consequences of alcohol abuse, drugs, birth control, sedentary lifestyle, eating disorders, and communicable diseases are among the topics considered. Lectures.

EXCI 335 Principles of Athletic Therapy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 262. This course examines mechanisms of acute and chronic pathologies associated with physical activity. Preventive techniques such as protective equipment, hazard recognition, prophylactic taping are addressed. The student also receives extensive exposure to pre-event and field protocols including strength and flexibility assessment. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 336 Assessment and Rehabilitation of Athletic Injuries (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 335. This course examines clinical assessment techniques and general rehabilitation protocols. Topics include chart recording, tissue healing, joint biochemistry, normal and atypical posture, and gait analysis. Surgical procedures of orthopaedic injuries to the spine and lower and upper extremities, and concomitant rehabilitation programmes are presented. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 351 Introduction to the Biomechanics of Human Movement (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 255. This course concentrates on the mechanical principles pertinent to an understanding of human movement. Fundamental principles of kinematics and kinetics are examined in a theoretical and practical context. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 353 Human Physiology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 222; EXCI 255. This course introduces the student to the functional organization of the human body. Cell physiology, metabolism, thermoregulation, endocrine function, reproduction, neural and muscular physiology are presented. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 357 Cardiovascular-Respiratory Physiology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 353. This course introduces the student to those mechanisms and systems which are of primary importance in the metabolic processes of exercise. The function of renal, cardiac, circulatory, and respiratory physiology are detailed. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 361 Exercise Leadership (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 261. This course provides students with the opportunity to develop, administer, supervise, and evaluate exercise programmes for a variety of populations in community and institutional settings. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 363 Behavioural Aspects in Exercise Science (3 credits)
This course introduces students to theory and research from the social and psychological sciences as they apply to exercise, sport, and physical activity. Topics include personality motivation, anxiety, mental preparation, concentration, mental health, and exercise adherence. Special attention is given to social psychological knowledge as it applies to athletic therapy, adapted physical activity, fitness, and lifestyle.

EXCI 370 Outdoor Recreation and Leadership (6 credits)
This course focuses on using and understanding the environment as a setting for recreation. Learning by experience is emphasized. Potential leaders and administrators in outdoor recreation or outdoor education will find this course of value. Lectures, laboratory: weekend field trips to be arranged.

EXCI 398 Selected Topics in Exercise Science (3 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

EXCI 403 Adapted Physical Activity (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 357. The course is an introduction to current methods used to modify physical activities and sports for the disabled. A history of corrective and adapted sports is followed by a rationale and techniques employed when planning and conducting activity programmes for people with specific chronic physical impairments and mental deficiencies. Lectures and practical experiences. NOTE: Students who have received credit for EXCI 402 may not take this course for credit.

EXCI 404 Therapeutic Exercise Physiology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 403. The course introduces the student to the role and use of exercise in the treatment of specific physiopathologies. Metabolic syndromes, cardiovascular diseases, and respiratory disorders in which therapeutic exercise is either beneficial or contraindicated are emphasized. Lectures. NOTE: Students who have received credit for EXCI 401 may not take this course for credit.

EXCI 411 Research Design (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 221; EXCI 357, recommended to be concurrent with EXCI 456; EXCI 468. Through lectures and laboratory experience, students are exposed to various research designs including: descriptive survey, historical survey, experimental and analytical design. Presentation and interpretation of data as well as guidelines for writing a research paper are covered. Lectures, seminars, and laboratory.

EXCI 412 Advanced Methods and Materials in Physical Education and Recreation (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department. The interactive behaviour between student and teacher is approached scientifically. Among topics considered are history and philosophy of physical education, modern trends in education and their adaptation to the physical education field, Moston's spectrum of styles, T.E.T. (Teacher Effectiveness Training), learning performance criteria, pupil's perception of teacher influence, behavioural objectives, values clarification, leadership theory, curriculum and daily lesson planning. In the laboratory periods, students are given the opportunity to practise various methodological techniques on peers and on adolescents and young adults in academic or recreational settings.

EXCI 414 Neural Control of Human Movement (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 311; EXCI 351; EXCI 353. This course examines the major neural mechanisms involved in the control of posture and movement. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for EXCI 313 or EXCI 317 may not take this course for credit.

EXCI 421 Fitness and Sport Management (3 credits)
The course considers the administration and management of commercial and community fitness and sports facilities. Concepts include organization of competitive and non-competitive events, budget control, marketing techniques, provincial and federal laws, and safety regulations.

EXCI 436 Current Topics in Sports Medicine (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 336; EXCI 456. Selected topics from the current literature dealing with health-oriented aspects of involvement in sport are examined. Lectures and seminars.

EXCI 452 Advanced Biomechanics of Human Movement (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EXCI 351. This course involves a commitment of 240 hours which a rehabilitation or athletic therapy clinic offers a supervised period of work in and/or in an emergency or preventative setting with an athletic team. The course prerequisites: EXCI 351; EXCI 414. This course explores the kinematic, kinetic and muscular parameters related to the clinical evaluation of normal and pathological movements.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for EXCI 417 may not take this course for credit.

EXCI 454 Clinical Kinesiology (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EXCI 351; EXCI 414. This course concentrates on the use of advanced biomechanical techniques in the understanding of dynamic human movement. Topics include link segment modelling, mechanical energy and power techniques, as well as computer applications. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 455 Preventive Medicine and Geriatrics (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EXCI 357; or written permission of the Department, recommended to be concurrent with EXCI 456. This course examines the role of physical activity as it relates to the physiological, psychological, and sociological needs which accompany the aging process. Activities are explored in view of their preventive, rehabilitative and/or adaptive benefit to the aged population. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 456 Physiology of Exercise (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EXCI 357. This course examines the acute and chronic physiological responses of the individual's participation in physical activity. Special emphasis is placed on muscle energetics, regulation of metabolic pathways, cardiovascular, and respiratory adjustments to exercise. Basic training techniques and exercise prescriptions designed to enhance work capacity are addressed. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 457 Advanced Physiology of Exercise (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EXCI 456. The course concentrates on advanced laboratory techniques used in the study of human adaptation to exercise and training. Topics and techniques focus on metabolic, cardiovascular, and respiratory changes associated with activity. Lectures and laboratory.

EXCI 460 Athletic Therapy Internship (6 credits)

Prerequisite: This course is open to Honours students who have completed 60 credits in the Athletic Therapy Option. The course offers a supervised period of work in a rehabilitation or athletic therapy clinic and/or in an emergency or preventative setting with an athletic team. The course involves a commitment of 240 hours which will include specific evaluation procedures and subsequent treatments and a weekly seminar.

EXCI 461 Community Fitness Science Internship (6 credits)

Prerequisite: This course is open to Honours students who have completed 60 credits in the Community Fitness Science Option. The general objective of the Community Fitness Internship is to expose students to a fitness-related environment where they will gain experience in the operation of the fitness industry as it functions in a community and private setting. Throughout the 240 hours, students may be introduced to a variety of specific activities such as: fitness class instruction, fitness testing and evaluation; and programme planning and development.

EXCI 463 Adapted Physical Activity Internship (6 credits)

Prerequisite: This course is open to Honours students who have completed 60 credits in the Adapted Physical Activity Option. The course offers a supervised period of work as activity leader or exercise technician in a hospital or rehabilitation centre or similar institution, a technician assisting in physiological evaluation or a related position. The course involves a commitment of 240 hours including a weekly seminar.

EXCI 468 Pre-Research Internship (6 credits)

Prerequisite: This course is open to Honours students who have completed 60 credits in the Pre-Research Option. In consultation with a faculty supervisor, students are given the opportunity to study laboratory measurements, data collection and treatment, statistical analyses, data illustration, and professional presentations or other activities in a research setting. The course involves a commitment of 240 hours including a weekly seminar.

EXCI 470 Scientific Principles of Outdoor Education (6 credits)

The course offers a comprehensive analysis of outdoor education. The aims and objectives of outdoor education are examined; organization and administration of model programmes are analyzed; innovative units of instruction and outdoor education programmes are evaluated. Students plan, teach, and participate in outdoor learning experiences. Lectures, laboratory, seminars, and field study. This is an intensive four-week summer course that involves participation on some weekends as well as regular classroom study. Alternate summers.
EXCI 472  Outdoor Education — Administration and Implementation (6 credits)
The course explores use of the out-of-doors to enrich the school curriculum. In addition, outdoor education as a strategy in the wider context of education is examined. Students receive instruction in skills necessary for planning, administering, and implementing outdoor education programmes. The philosophical base for this educational approach is assessed, particularly as it pertains to interdisciplinary methods in the elementary and high school curricula. This is an intensive four-week summer course that involves participation on some weekends as well as regular classroom study. Alternate summers.

EXCI 491  Independent Study in Exercise Science (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department. Students work on topic(s) chosen in consultation with their Department supervisor. The study can include readings, field studies, interviews, and fieldwork. An in-depth report of the activities conducted by the student is presented to the supervisor upon completion of the course.

EXCI 498  Advanced Topics in Exercise Science (3 credits)

EXCI 499  Advanced Topics in Exercise Science (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

Programmes
Students are required to complete the appropriate entrance profile for entry into the programme (see §31.002 — Programmes and Admission Requirements — Profiles).
Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

The Department of Geography emphasizes the multidisciplinary nature of the field. In its studies of the environment, of places and regions, and of societal issues, geography spans the social sciences, the natural sciences, and the humanities. Whether a student's special interest tends to physical geography or human systems, programmes encourage a holistic perspective. The Department aims to produce students who are knowledgeable about both global and community issues and sensitive to both the human and physical environment.

Specific topics for these courses, and navigation, and elementary geophysics, as well as an account of travels and discovery ending with modern scientific exploration of the deep. Topics include coasts and islands; ports, ships, and shipping; submarine topography; waves, tides, and earthquakes; marine life, fish, and fisheries.

GEOG 275   Climate and the Biosphere (3 credits)
A study of the energy systems of the atmosphere and an introduction to environmental geography. The hydrologic cycle, world climates, and weather systems. Interrelationships in the biosphere and human impact upon them. Weather and climate maps are also studied. Lectures: Three hours per week, including laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 271 may not take this course for credit.

GEOG 276   Landforms and the Biosphere (3 credits)
An introduction to the energy systems of the earth's crust and oceans, and the processes that have shaped our environment. The evolution of land forms and human impact upon landscapes. The Pleistocene and Recent epochs in Canada, and their effects on soils and land use. The study of relevant topographic land-use maps and aerial photographs. Lectures: Three hours per week, including laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 271 may not take this course for credit.

GEOG 298   Selected Topics in Geography (3 credits)
GEOG 299   Selected Topics in Geography (6 credits)
prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule and the Geography Course Guide.

GEOG 303  Human-Environment Relations: A Framework for Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211; GEOG 267; GEOG 271 or GEOG 275 and GEOG 276. This course emphasizes the global nature of environmental issues and provides a holistic framework for the analysis of human-environment relations. It examines the role of economy, social institutions and values in shaping human relationships to the environment and how these have changed over time. It explores the spatial and structural interdependence among human societies and the environment. The course stresses concepts and theories rather than practical experience. However, students will be expected to apply concepts, theories and methods of analysis to the examination of specific human-induced environmental problems.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 305 may not take this course for credit.
NOTE: Prerequisites of GEOG 271 or GEOG 275 and GEOG 276 are waived for students in the BSc Land Use and Resource Analysis programme. (Dept. of Geology)

GEOG 304  Human-Environment Relations: Population, Culture, Land and Resources (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211; GEOG 267; GEOG 271 or GEOG 275 and GEOG 276; GEOG 303. This tutorial course is a continuation of GEOG 303. Five topics are examined: the relationship between population growth and resources, values and attitudes to the environment, land tenure and its relationship to population growth and resource management, property rights and their impact on environmental management, holistic theories of conservation and development of resources.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 305 may not take this course for credit.

GEOG 306  The Tropical Rain Forest (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six GEOG credits, or permission of the Department. The course focuses on three themes: how tropical forest ecosystems function and change; the causes and consequences of forest conversion, and the relations between conservation and sustainable development. The course concludes with a detailed case study. Lectures only.
NOTE: If credit has been received for this topic under a 398 or 498 number, this course may not be taken for credit.

GEOG 312  Political Geography (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211, or permission of the Department. The course is structured around traditional and contemporary themes in political geography. Emphasis is on the political/administrative organization of space, the interrelationships between politics and environment, electoral geography, and the geographical aspects of public policy.

GEOG 313  Montréal: Habitat and Society (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211, or permission of the Department. The course is an introduction to the urban geography of Montréal, both past and present. Three themes are investigated. They are: (a) "habitat": the biophysical environment of the site, the growth of the physical fabric of the city, and the evolution of its architectural forms; (b) "Society and ways of life": the origins and growth of population, the ethnic and cultural heritage of the city, and the pattern of social areas within the metropolitan region; and (c) "the contemporary urban scene": the personality of the city's landmarks, nodes, streetscapes, and districts. Fieldwork is an important part of the course.

GEOG 315  Cultural Geography (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211, or permission of the Department. Cultural Geography is concerned with the application of the concept of culture to geographic problems. Attention is focused on the spatial patterning of material and non-material elements of culture (culture areas); on the processes of cultural, temporal, and spatial change; on the relationships between people and land (cultural ecology); and especially on how these relationships are reflected in different ensembles of people and land (cultural landscapes).

GEOG 317  Population Geography (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211, or permission of the Department. The characteristics, dynamics, and distribution of world populations. Census data and techniques of census analysis. Rural/urban populations and their varying proportions. The vital processes of population change; natural increase and migration. Growth rates, population policies, and population pressure. Study of selected groups. The demographic prospects.

GEOG 325  Introduction to Historical Geography (3 credits) Prerequisite: GEOG 211, or permission of the Department. This course aims to develop a geographical understanding of the past for its own sake and for its relevance to interpreting present geographical patterns of population, settlement, and economic activity. The focus is on sources and techniques in historical geography. These are demonstrated through case studies of selected themes and problems.

GEOG 331 Urban Geography (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211 or URBS 280, or permission of the Department. The course focuses on the contemporary western city. It explores the spatial structure of national systems of cities, and examines internal land use and social and political patterns. A major concern is the application of geographical ideas and concepts to modern urban problems.

GEOG 347 Geography of Canada (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Geography, or permission of the Department. An overview of the bases of regional differentiation in Canada. The course provides an analysis of cultural landscapes, the space economy, and environmental issues.

GEOG 352 Geography of Recreation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211 or 30 credits in the Leisure Studies programme, or permission of the Department. The course examines the geographical aspects of recreation. The approaches followed are from the viewpoints of spatial patterns, landscape analysis, and environmental issues. The topics studied are within the framework of (i) recreation in the countryside and (ii) recreation in the city. Specific topics include national parks, recreation land capability analysis, landscape evaluation, and city parks.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 356 may not take this course for credit.

GEOG 353 International Tourism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211 or 30 credits in the Leisure Studies programme, or permission of the Department. The course examines the geographical aspects of international tourism. Topics studied include the analysis of tourist flows, the role of tourism in area development, the spatial aspects of selected elements of tourism (such as transportation and marketing), and geographical analysis of resort cities.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 356 may not take this course for credit.

GEOG 355 Resource Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211, or permission of the Department. Problems of resource inventories and allocations between users, present and future, are examined with examples drawn from land use, energy, and fishing. Particular emphasis is placed on perceptions and attitudes of resource users, and on institutional and policy models of resource management.

GEOG 358 Economic Geography I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211, or permission of the Department. This course deals with the spatial organization of agricultural land use, industrial patterns and networks, with some attention given to tertiary activities and urban land use. The focus is on the classical location theories — Von Thunen, Weber, Lösch and Christaller - and their application to behaviour in the real world, characterized by individual and corporate decision-making. Selected examples of real-world distribution are considered.

GEOG 359 Economic Geography II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211; GEOG 358, or permission of the Department. The aim is to integrate the various aspects of GEOG 358 by focusing on the question of regional systems and development. The course examines various models of regional structure, such as: the heartland-periphery paradigm and integrated spatial systems. Consideration is given to current restructuring of the spatial division of labour.

GEOG 361 Introduction to Geographical Research (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211; GEOG 267; GEOG 271 or GEOG 275 and GEOG 276. The course introduces students to the methods and techniques used to acquire original geographical information in the field, laboratory, and archives. The course may include a weekend field camp.

GEOG 362 Quantitative Geography I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 12 credits in Geography, or permission of the Department. An introductory course in the applications of descriptive and analytical statistical techniques in geography. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE A/See §200.7

GEOG 366 Intermediate Cartography (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. The focus of this course is the detailed study of the nature of graphic variables together with their implementation, by traditional and computer methods, in black and white small scale mapping. The course includes lectures, seminars, practical assignments, and relevant field trips.

GEOG 369  Field Studies in Geography (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 361, or permission of the Department. A field course in which a selected area is intensively studied.

GEOG 371  Biogeography (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 271, or permission of the Department. A study of the distribution of plants and animals, with emphasis on their soil and climatic interrelations. Relevant field trips are included.

GEOG 372  Analysis of the Environment (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 271 or GEOG 275 and GEOG 276, or permission of the Department. A review of the processes operational in the biophysical environment with an emphasis upon applied methodologies for water resources survey, capability mapping, environmental assessment, and conservation planning. The course includes a discussion of the Quaternary era in terms of environmental change.

GEOG 373  Climatology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 271, or permission of the Department. The broad aspects of world regional climates considered from the point of view of both physical and dynamic climatology. The course includes practical work.

GEOG 391  History of Geographical Thought (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 18 credits in Geography or permission of the Department. A study of the development of the field of geography from ancient times down to the present. Representative geographical works of the Greeks, the Romans, and of the Middle Ages, the Age of Discovery, the nineteenth and twentieth centuries are examined and discussed. The present-day concepts of the field and function of geography receive special attention.

GEOG 398  Selected Topics in Geography (3 credits)

GEOG 399  Selected Topics in Geography (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule and Geography Course Guide.

GEOG 403  Human-Environment Relations: Sustainable Development (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 211; GEOG 267; GEOG 271 or GEOG 275 and GEOG 276; GEOG 302. This course deals with selected aspects of the relations between humans and the environment in the contemporary world. It focuses specifically on the concept of sustainable development and deals mainly with problems and issues at the global scale.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 405 may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: Prerequisites of GEOG 271 or GEOG 275 and GEOG 276 are waived for students in the BSc Land Use and Resource Analysis Programme. (Dept. of Geology)

GEOG 404  Human-Environment Relations: Case-Study and Practice (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 403. The precise content of this course varies from year to year. The focus is on empirical analysis of contemporary Canadian human-environment problems and issues. This course has a tutorial format, in which students work together in problem-solving with respect to specific human-environment issues.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 405 may not take this course for credit.

GEOG 433  Applied Urban Geography (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 331, or permission of the Department. An applied course in urban design and land use planning. An overview of current theory and practice is balanced, during the second term, by studio planning projects emphasizing a team approach.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 401 or URBS 433 may not take this course for credit.

GEOG 462  Advanced Cartography (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 366. This course exposes students to many of the issues and problems faced by the cartographer in compiling, designing and producing colour maps. A laboratory assignment of a practical nature forms an important part of the course.

GEOG 475  Hydrology I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 271 and one of GEOG 371, 372, or 373, or permission of the Department. Theories and practice of hydrology, with emphasis on geographical aspects and resource utilization. Includes introduction to glaciology.

GEOG 476  Hydrology II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 475. Soil moisture experiments, textural analysis, hydrological models, and field trips.
GEOG 477  The Geography of Soils
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 271; GEOG 371 or GEOG 372 or GEOG 373, or permission of the Department. This course examines the basic properties of soils and the processes operating within them. The major soil types and their distribution are surveyed together with aspects of soil degradation. Lectures, laboratory, and fieldwork.
NOTE: If credit has been received for this topic under a GEOG 498 number, this course may not be taken for credit.

GEOG 491  Honours Essay (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. The course requires the student to propose and conduct a research project and to produce a substantial report under the supervision of a faculty adviser.

GEOG 498  Advanced Topics in Geography (3 credits)

GEOG 499  Advanced Topics in Geography (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule and Geography Course Guide.

Department Objectives

Geology is about the Earth and how natural processes change and shape the environment. The Department acknowledges the influence of industrial and human activity on this planet with programmes that incorporate interdisciplinary and environmental aspects of Geology. Integrated studies through lectures, laboratory and field studies in small class sizes are the norm. Advanced students are encouraged to undertake research projects.

Programmes

In addition to programmes in geology, the Department, in cooperation with Physics, Chemistry and Biochemistry, Geography and Biology Departments, offers four geology-based interdisciplinary programmes. The Geology-Physics and Geology-Chemistry programmes are designed for students who wish to pursue careers in Geophysics and Geochemistry respectively, through subsequent job training or graduate studies. The programme in Resource Analysis and Land Use is designed to develop the conceptual and technical facility to enable graduating students to make objective judgements regarding the resource potential and land use of a geographical region. The programme in Geology-Ecology is designed to provide a strong foundation in geology with an orientation towards ecology as a subdiscipline of biology. Students are required to complete the appropriate entrance profile for entry into the programme (see §31.002 — Programmes and Admission Requirements — Profiles).

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

69 BSc Honours in Geology
Stage I
18 GEOL 2103, 2113, 2123, 2133, 2163, 2313
3 COMP 2123
3 Chosen from BIOL 3223, GEOG 3633
Stage II
24 GEOL 3113, 3133, 3143, 3163, 3183, 3313, 3323
 Stage III
15 GEOL 4113, 4133, 4153, 4173

83 BSc Specialization in Geology-Physics
Stage I
30 GEOL 2103, 2113, 2123, 2133, PHYS 2323, 2433, 2533, 2543, MATH 2623, 2633
Stage II & III
24 GEOL 2163, 2313, 3113, 3313, 3323, 4153, 4223
9 Chosen from GEOL 2323 and
Courses

82-83 BSc Specialization in Geology-Chemistry

Stage I
30 GEOL 210, 211, 212, 213, 216, CHEM 217, 218, 241, 242, COMP 212

Stage II & III
18 GEOL 231, 311, 313, 332, 415
12 Chosen from GEOL 232, 313, 390, 411, 417, 421
17 CHEM 231, 232, 233, 290, 312, 338, 341
5-6 Chosen from CHEM 221, 222, 339, 399 or 498

78 BSc Specialization in Resource Analysis and Land Use

Stage I
27 GEOL 210, 211, 212, 213, 216, 231; GEOG 211, 267

Stage II & III
15 GEOL 311, 331, 332, 415
12 Chosen from GEOL 232 and Geology 300- and 400-level courses
18 GEOG 303, 317, 355, 372, 475
6 from either POLI 361, 363 or "ECON 391, 396"

*Requires prerequisites of ECON 201 or ECON 203

78 BSc Specialization in Geology-Ecology

Stage I
24 GEOL 210, 211, 212, 213; BIOL 230, 240, 250, 322

Stage II & III
24 GEOL 216, 224, 231, 311, 331, 332, 415
9 Chosen from GEOL 232 and Geology 300- and 400-level courses
18 BIOL 270, 344, 352, 355, 359 or 391, 480
3 Chosen from BIOL 321 or 454

39 BSc Major in Geology

Stage I
18 GEOL 210, 211, 212, 213, 216, 231

Stage II & III
15 GEOL 311, 331, 332, 415
6 Chosen from GEOL 232 and Geology 300- and 400-level courses

24 Minor in Geology
12 GEOL 210, 211, 212, 213
12 GEOL elective credits

NOTE: GEOL 203, 205, 206, 207, 208 cover topics of general interest in Earth Sciences and may be taken by students without a strong background in science.

Students without CEGEP Geology 901 or equivalent are required to take GEOL 210.

Field Trips and Field Schools
Field trips, normally conducted on week-ends, are mandatory in some of the geology courses. In addition, two field schools (GEOL 216, GEOL 316) are conducted by the staff in the two weeks immediately following the Spring exams. Enrolment in field schools is normally restricted to students registered in programmes for which they are required courses. Other geology students with appropriate prerequisites will be accepted only if space is available in the courses.

Summer Employment
It is strongly recommended that, prior to graduation, at least one summer be spent in some phase of geological work. Although the Department of Geology cannot guarantee summer employment, its students can normally expect to work in geology with government agencies or private exploration companies during the summer months.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

GEOL 203 Introduction to Environmental Geology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: None; GEOL 210 recommended. Geology in the ecosystem. The earth's atmosphere, hydrosphere, lithosphere, and biosphere in geologic time. Long-range geological effects of ecosphere pollution. Trace nutrients and health, with emphasis on the geology of trace-elements and their cause and effect on biological systems. Understanding of, control for, and prevention of natural hazards. Changes in the earth's climate. Role of Geology in land use. Lectures only.

NOTE: Students in degree programmes in Geology may not take this course for Geology credits.

GEOL 205 Non-Renewable Resources
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: None; GEOL 210 recommended. Rocks and ore minerals. Present and future availability of earth resources. The nature, classification, and mode of occurrence of mineral deposits. Exploration, development, and rational exploitation of mineral resources. Elements of mining economics. Distribution of oil, gas, coal, and base-metal deposits. Evaluation of the effects of mining operations on the environment. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students in degree programmes in Geology may not take this course for Geology credits.

GEOL 206 Earthquakes, Drifting Continents and Volcanoes
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: None. The aim of the course is to provide an up-to-date account of our present knowledge of earthquakes and volcanoes and their global connections which are of general interest for students with little or no previous background in earth science. Areas of concentration are: nature, distribution and causes of earthquakes and volcanic eruptions, earthquake waves and their effects, measuring earthquakes, great earthquakes and volcanic eruptions in world history, products of volcanic eruptions, four billion years of volcanism on the Earth and elsewhere in the solar system. Prediction of earthquakes and volcanic eruptions and global connections between earthquakes, drifting continents and volcanoes. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students in degree programmes in Geology may not take this course for Geology credits.

GEOL 207 North America and the Great Ice Age
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: None. The aim of the course is to present the major principles of geology upon which our knowledge of the ice age is based. Areas of concentration are: the development of the glacial theory, glaciers and glaciation, tracking ancient glaciers, glacial chronology in North America, two million years of cold spells and warm spells, earlier glaciations, causes of glacial climates, speculations for the future and the effect of glacial loads on the earth’s crust. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students in degree programmes in Geology may not take this course for Geology credits.

GEOL 208 The Earth, Moon and the Planets
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: None. The course emphasizes the cosmic perspective of the Earth and focuses attention on how the results of the last two decades of planetary exploration have brought about an intellectual revolution concerning the planets, especially their surface features, processes and histories. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students in degree programmes in Geology may not take this course for Geology credits.

GEOL 210 Physical Geology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: None. An elementary study of minerals and rocks, and of the internal and external processes which shape the earth’s surface. Laboratory work deals with identification of minerals, rocks, and fossils, as well as interpretation of topographic and geologic maps. Field trips to Mount Royal, Eastern Townships, and Laurentians. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 211 Mineralogy I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: None. Physical and chemical properties of minerals. Crystallography, crystal notation, stereographic projection. Crystal structures. Identification, description, and classification of minerals. One or two field trips near Montréal. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 212 Invertebrate Palaeontology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 210, or equivalent. A systematic survey of major invertebrate fossil groups, with chief emphasis on morphology, classification, and geologic occurrence. Study of principles of evolutionary concepts and zonation. Some selected discussion on paleo-ecology. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 213 Structural Geology I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 210 or equivalent, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. Major structural features of the Earth; principles of rock deformation; primary structures in igneous and sedimentary rocks and their significance. Classification and analysis of folds and fractures, study of secondary structures associated with folding. Laboratory deals with structural problems solved by orthographic and stereographic methods. Several field trips to selected outcrop areas, with reports. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 216 Field Methods
(3 credits)
geophysics and exploration geochemistry. One lecture per week in the Winter Session and two-week field school in the Spring, immediately after the final examinations.

GEOL 224 Introduction to Remote Sensing and Terrain Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 210 or GEOG 271. GEOL 213 recommended. An introduction to a variety of remote sensing techniques including aerial photography, airborne magnetometer surveys, aerial thermography, side-looking aerial radar and multispectral scanning imagery from satellites. Emphasis is placed on geological and geographical applications of terrain analysis. LANDSAT imagery, airphoto, stereopairs, and aeromagnetic maps are used in the laboratory for the analysis of a number of selected areas. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOL 215 may not take this course for credit.

GEOL 231 Physics of the Earth (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 103; 203; CEGEP Physics 301; GEOL 210 or equivalent. This course is directed towards the general understanding of physical phenomena of the solid earth. Subjects for consideration include the following: Earth's origin, age, radioactivity, magnetism, gravity field, seismology, heat flow, structure and physical state of the Earth's interior. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOL 221 may not take this course for credit.

GEOL 232 Introduction to Geochemistry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201; CEGEP Physics 301; CEGEP Mathematics 103; CEGEP Mathematics 203; GEOL 210. The course focuses on the application of concepts of elementary chemistry to geological problems. Subjects for consideration include: application of thermodynamics to geological problems, phase equilibria relationships in petrogenesis, partitioning of elements, crystal chemistry, distribution of elements, chemistry of natural waters including properties of water at high temperatures and pressures. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOL 223 may not take this course for credit.

GEOL 233 Introductory Hydrogeology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 210; CHEM 206; MATH 205. This course is an introduction to the physical and geochemical aspects of hydrogeology, with emphasis on groundwater in its physical and geochemical aspects, influence on geotechnical engineering, and contamination. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a GEOL 298 or 398 number may not take this course for credit.

GEOL 298 Selected Topics in Geology (3 credits)

GEOL 299 Selected Topics in Geology (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

GEOL 311 Introductory Petrology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 211. The identification and description of hand specimens of igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks. Rock associations. Classification and origin of major rock groups. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 313 Optical Crystallography (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 211. Behaviour of light in crystals. The optical indicatrix. The polarizing microscope and optical properties of minerals. Identification of non-opaque minerals in oil immersion and thin sections. If time permits, use of the Universal Stage will be introduced. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 314 Stratigraphy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 212; GEOL 311, previously or concurrently. Introduction to historical developments of stratigraphic concepts. Role of natural dynamic processes in the evolution of stratigraphic record. Discussion on stratigraphic classification and nomenclature. Major classification of tectonic elements in sedimentary basins, and broad patterns in the distribution of sedimentary rocks in relation to tectonic framework. Detailed analysis of stratigraphic principles, such as correlation (lithostratigraphic, biostratigraphic, chronostratigraphic), facies (lithofacies; biofacies), unconformities, and cyclothem. Critical evaluation of stratigraphic sequences using modern and ancient examples for the recognition of aeolian, alluvial fan, fluvial, lacustrine tidal flats, barrier coastlines, carbonate shoreline, shallow marine and submarine environments. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 316 Field Geology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 216; GEOL 311, or permission of the Department. Two-week field work right after the final examination period. Working in groups, students map an area, prepare sections, and submit a geological map and/or written report. Group studies of important outcrops or outcrop areas and quarries. Transportation is provided by the Department but students must pay for board and lodging.

NOTE: Students taking this course in their final year may not be able to graduate in the Spring of the same year.

GEOL 318 Structural Geology II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 213. Concepts of strain and mechanics of deformation. Description of tectonic fabrics and analysis of folds; identification and interpretation of polyphase deformation. Regional structural associations and their evaluation. Laboratory includes field oriented structural problems, drill holes and regional structural analysis. Use of aerial photographs in the preparation of geological maps and sections. Several field trips and structural mapping of selected outcrops or outcrop areas. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 325 Geostatistics and Computer Applications in Geology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 210; INT 290 or COMP 201 or permission of the Department. This is an introductory course in the application of statistical methods to geological problems. Topics covered include sampling from geological populations, binomial, Poisson, normal and lognormal distribution; sampling distribution and applications; analysis of variance: simple linear regression, introduction to multivariate data analysis techniques; multiple regression, factor analysis, cluster analysis and discriminant analysis. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 331 Historical Geology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 212; GEOL 213; or permission of the Department. Fundamental concepts in Historical Geology; principles of stratigraphy, paleo-geography and geochronology. A systematic review of the geological history of the Earth, and development of life forms from the Precambrian to Recent. Geological evolution of classical areas with special attention to the North American continent. Studies of stratigraphic sections and geological maps. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 332 Economic Geology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 311 previously or concurrently. The course deals with the genetic concepts leading to the formation of metallic and non-metallic mineral deposits, their classification, world distribution and economic evaluation. Concepts related to zonation, metallogenics, regional structural associations and exploration and evaluation of mineral deposits are also dealt with. Laboratory includes examination and study of selected ore-suites from the most important mining camps, ore reserve calculations, core logging and economic feasibility studies of classical mineral deposits. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 390 Petrology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 311; GEOL 313. Microscopic study of thin sections of common igneous, metamorphic and sedimentary rocks. Selected topics in petrogenesis. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 398 Selected Topics In Geology
(3 credits)

GEOL 399 Selected Topics In Geology
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

GEOL 411 Igneous and Metamorphic Petrology
(6 credits)

GEOL 413 Sedimentary Petrology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 311; GEOL 313. General principles of sediment diagenesis, followed by detailed analysis of the diagenetic evolution of sandstone, shale, and carbonate rocks. Emphasis is placed heavily on the microscopic criteria in the recognition of diagenetic fabric. Problems of primary sedimentary structures and their hydro-dynamic interpretation are also discussed. Specialized topics on current development in sedimentary lithogenesis are also included. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 414  Undergraduate Research
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: For third-year Honours students. Honours students in their final year are expected to show competence in isolating and examining a geological problem under the supervision of a faculty adviser. A written application to take the course, including a brief outline of the research project, must be made to the Department before April 15 of the second year. The application is reviewed by a committee and a decision forwarded by mail. The results of research must be presented in the form of an undergraduate thesis, two copies of which must be submitted by April 1.

NOTE: Written requests from Specialization students, with appropriate academic records, to take the course will be considered.

GEOL 415  Plate Tectonics and Crustal Evolution
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 213; GEOL 231; GEOL 311. Techniques of data collection in tectonics. Structure and rheology of the upper mantle. Tectonics of crustal types to include shields, platforms, passive continental margins, phanerzoic foldbelts, continental rifts, island-arc trench belts and oceanic rises, sea-floor spreading, plate tectonics, magma associations and plate reconstructions. Crustal origin and growth. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOL 315 may not take this course for credit.

GEOL 417  Mineral Deposits
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 332; GEOL 390 or GEOL 411 previously or concurrently. The course deals with the study of ore deposits generated by magmatic segregation, contact metasomatic, hydrothermal, volcanogenic, sedimentary and supergene enrichment processes. Concepts of geothermometry, geobarometry and stable isotopes are also dealt with. Examples of particular geological interest from the most representative mining districts of the world. Laboratory includes petrological examination of metallic suites, fluid inclusion and Vickers microhardness tests. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOL 416 may not take this course for credit.

GEOL 421  Exploration Geochemistry
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 311, or permission of the Department. Basic principles; primary and secondary dispersion processes and their significance in geochemical exploration; field and analytical techniques (one field excursion early in the fall term); interpretation of geochemical data; organization of exploration programmes; selected case histories. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 422  Exploration Geophysics
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 231, or permission of the Department. A brief study of the principles of magnetic, gravimetric, electric, and seismic methods of mineral exploration; interpretation of geophysical data; organization of exploration programmes; selected case histories. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 424  Engineering Geology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 210 or equivalent; (GEOL 213 and GEOL 224 are recommended). Engineering properties of rocks and soils. Landslides, groundwater, frost action, and permanently frozen ground. Application of geology to engineering problems—concrete petrology, tunnels, slope control, foundations, roads, airports, dams, and reservoirs. One term paper to be prepared. The laboratory period includes field trips, engineering geology case histories, and feasibility study of engineering geology problems. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 425  Fossil Fuels
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOL 314; GEOL 415, previously or concurrently or permission of the Department. Origin and accumulation of petroleum hydrocarbons and coal. Distribution of oil, natural gas, and coal deposits as a function of geological environments. Geology of major oil and coal fields of the world. Global energy requirements and production forecasts. Lectures and laboratory.

GEOL 498  Advanced Topics in Geology
(3 credits)

GEOL 499  Advanced Topics in Geology
(6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
It is the mission of the Department of History not only to train historians but to produce articulate and informed graduates who share its commitment to serving the broader community. The department therefore encourages strength in both teaching and research, responsiveness to a wide range of intellectual perspectives, and involvement in community affairs.

Programmes

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

60 BA Honours in History

The following courses in an approved sequence constitute Honours in History. Students intending to enter the Honours programme are advised to consult with the Department.

6 HIST 201, 202 (European)
6 HIST 203, 205 (Canadian)
6 HIST 200 level (Non-Western) or HIST 251, 253 (American)
6 HIST 200- or 300-level courses (6 credits or 3 credits)
6 HIST 397 (required Honours Seminar)
12 HIST 300-level courses (6 credits or 3 credits)
6 HIST 493 (Honours Essay Tutorial)

12 HIST 400-level courses (6 credits) or related course(s) in another Department with History Department approval.

60 BA Specialization in History

6 HIST 201, 202 (European)
6 HIST 203, 205 (Canadian)
6 HIST 200 level (Non-Western) or HIST 251, 253 (American)
6 HIST 200-level courses (6 credits or 3 credits)
24 HIST 300-level courses (6 credits or 3 credits)
12 HIST 300- (6 credits or 3 credits) or 400-level courses (6 credits) or related course(s) in another Department with History Department approval.
Students who have completed 200-level (Field Surveys), HIST 201^1, 202^1 (European) or HIST 203^1, 205^1 (Canadian) or

(Non-Western) or HIST 251^1, 253^1 (American) 6

HIST 200-level courses (6 credits or 3 credits)

6 HIST 300-level courses (6 credits or 3 credits)

30 Minor or Certificate in the History of Québec

This programme is designed to prepare teachers at both the Secondary and CEGEP levels to offer courses in the History of Québec. It also provides an outline of study for those who are generally interested in the topic of Québec History.

3 HIST 209^3

3 HIST 210^3

12 Chosen from HIST 307^3, 308^3, 313^3, 314^3 or from HIST 398^3, 399^3 (when the Department determines such courses to have adequate Québec content)

6 Chosen from HIST 411^3, 498^3, or 499^3 (when the Department determines such courses to have adequate Québec content)

6 Chosen from courses on Québec or French Canada offered by the Departments of Economics, Études françaises, Geography, Political Science or Sociology, or related courses approved by the Department.

Students may transfer into the Certificate programme up to twelve credits earned in an incomplete degree or certificate programme or as an Independent student, provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

Courses

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

N.B.:

(1) 300-level courses are generally open only to students who have successfully completed at least 12 credits of 200-level History courses (normally 201-202, European, and 203-205, Canadian). Aside from designated cross-listed offerings, qualified non-History students may be admitted to 300-level courses with the permission of the Department.

(2) 400-level seminars are normally open to honours students or students of high academic standing or permission of the Department.

HIST 201 Introduction to European History to 1789 (3 credits)

A survey of the history of Europe to the French Revolution, with emphasis on the development of ideas and political institutions.

HISTORY - 267
HIST 202  Introduction to European History, from 1789 to the Present (3 credits)
A survey of the history of Europe from the French Revolution to the present, with emphasis on the development of ideas and political institutions.

HIST 203  History of Canada, Pre-Confederation (3 credits)
A survey of Canadian history, from settlement to Confederation, emphasizing readings and discussions on selected problems.

HIST 205  History of Canada, Post-Confederation (3 credits)
A survey of Canadian history from Confederation to the present, emphasizing readings and discussions on selected problems.

HIST 206  Introduction to the Non-Western World I (3 credits)
By giving an account of the worlds of Asia, Africa and the Americas between c. 1400 and c. 1900 we seek to show the interplay between local and international historical developments in the making of the global economy. In this course we study both the largely autonomous developments of such centres of civilization as China and the Ottoman Empire and the effects on the non-Western world of European expansion. The course ends with a discussion of the Age of Empire.

HIST 207  Introduction to the Non-Western World II (3 credits)
Continuing from HIST 206 (which is not a necessary prerequisite) this course is concerned with the period from the late nineteenth century up to the period of the Third World in the 1960s. It principally focuses on the objects and effects of colonialism, anti-colonial struggles, the emergence of the non-aligned bloc and Western interventionism.

HIST 209  Québec to 1867 (3 credits)
An introductory survey of the history of Québec from its origins as a colony to the creation of modern Canada by the British North American Act of 1867. Particular emphasis is placed on a consideration of those elements of Québec's past which best assist in the comprehension of the trends prevalent in modern Québec.

HIST 210  Québec since Confederation (3 credits)
A survey of the history of Québec from the time of Confederation until the present.

While due emphasis is placed on political developments in the province, the purpose of the course is to acquaint the student with the significant economic and social trends in modern Québec.

HIST 211  Canadian Business History (3 credits)
This course looks at the forces influencing the history of Canadian business from the French régime to the present. The nature of business organization, the sources of capital and the relationship between government and business are among the factors to be considered.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for HIST 316 may not take this course for credit.

HIST 215  History of Recreation and Leisure in Canada (3 credits)
A survey of the history of recreation and leisure from the time of European contact with native peoples to the present day. It is placed in the context of Canadian history to examine such phenomena as European and American influences on Canada, effects of urbanization, the roles of women in society, and the commercialization of leisure. Recreation and leisure are understood to include not only sports and games but such activities as rural bees, education, drinking, gambling, and celebrations. The course also provides an introduction to the historical literature on recreation and leisure, and to the discipline of History.

HIST 219  (also given as CLAS 230) Ancient Near East (3 credits)
A survey of the political, social, economic, and intellectual history of the Ancient Near East, from the Neolithic age to the Indo-European invasions of the early 2nd Millennium, with special emphasis placed upon the problem of the emergence of civilization in Mesopotamia, Egypt, and the Indus valley. Ancient sources utilized wherever possible.

HIST 223  (also given as CLAS 240) Introduction to Greek History (3 credits)
A political, social, economic, and cultural history of Greece from Minoan—Mycenaean times to the end of Classical Greek civilization in the fourth century B.C., with special emphasis placed upon fifth-century Athens.

HIST 225  (also given as CLAS 242) History of Rome (3 credits)
A study of the various aspects of the history of Rome from the city's origins to the establishment of the Roman Empire under the Emperor Augustus. The main theme of this course is the growth of the city of Rome from an early settlement on the Tiber River to mistress of the Mediterranean world. The ideologies and institutions of Republican Rome are analyzed in detail, and a study is made of the transitional period that later on came to form the basis of the Roman Empire. The time-span with which this course is concerning itself is from 753 B.C. to 27 B.C.

HIST 251 History of the United States to 1877 (3 credits)
Survey of American history from settlement to 1877. The course deals with the political and economic framework of American history, and with social and cultural trends.

HIST 253 History of the United States since 1877 (3 credits)
Survey of American history from 1877 to the present. The course deals with the political and economic framework of American history, and with social and cultural trends.

HIST 261 History of India (3 credits)
An introduction to the intellectual traditions, social structures, and political institutions of South Asia, with particular attention to developments during the past two centuries.

HIST 262 History of China (3 credits)
A survey of China's history from earliest times to the modern era.

HIST 263 History of Japan (3 credits)
A survey of Japan's history from earliest times to the modern era.

HIST 264 History of Africa (3 credits)

HIST 499 Advanced Topics in History (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The Faculty of Arts and Science Principles of Education (§31.001) reinforce the value of broadening skills and experience beyond the boundaries of a single concentration. The Faculty of Arts and Science recognizes that specialized and intensive knowledge in a particular discipline or field is a necessary part of the development of an educated person. Interdisciplinary studies involves students in a range of thought, from scientific to humanistic. Courses are designed to illuminate principles, methods, and skills that cross disciplinary boundaries. They are particularly intended for students whose programmes of study at the Bachelor's level are constrained by the demands of the working environment or graduate school.

INDIVIDUAL STUDIES
Under the direction of M. Santateresa, Academic Adviser, Faculty of Arts and Science (SGW Campus)
Individually Structured Programmes (Specialization or Honours)

Opportunities are available in some departments and programmes to follow an Individually Structured Specialization or Honours programme. Students must apply to the Department that seems most relevant to the central aspect of their proposed programme. Students in general must have demonstrated in their previous academic endeavours that they are capable of Good ("B" level) achievement, but in exceptional cases a student may be admitted provisionally on the recommendation of the Department undergraduate coordinator. Formal entry to the ISP may occur only after completion of preparatory courses such as are required in Mature Entry and ECP programmes. Students wishing to follow an Honours programme must follow the Faculty procedures and regulations concerning admission to Honours programmes. (See Degree Requirements — Honours, §16.2.3 and 31.003.)

The programme will consist of not less than 60 credits. The courses chosen must be based on a Departmental or programme core, usually the Major, but not less than 24 credits. Students will thus be required to complete necessary prerequisites, and general preparation courses such as Research Methods or Statistics, so that they could later follow a regular Departmental programme if they so desire.

A Specialization student must maintain* an average of "C+" in all Specialization courses; the minimum acceptable grade in any single Specialization course is "C-".

*for purposes of continuation in the programme from year to year, as well as for graduation.

The programme of study must be worked out at the time of student registration into the programme. Admission to the programme must be finalized before a student registers for the final 60 credits of the 90-credit portion of their degree. To allow for the non-availability of certain courses during certain sessions, allowable substitute courses must be listed in advance. Such substitution provisions will be necessary only in the case of specialized courses that are known not to be available on a session by session basis. The intention of this regulation is to assure that the programme does not become an ad hoc mixture of courses without clearly rationalized academic coherence.

Students must prepare a careful, not necessarily long, statement of their goals indicating the specific reasons for their programme choice. The rationale and the sequence of courses chosen must be approved by the Departmental programme coordinator and the Vice Dean for Student Affairs.

Courses
Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.
INTE 215  Ideas in Mathematics
(3 credits)
Mathematical ideas and techniques permeate western civilization, but because mathematics operates at a high level of abstraction and uses an esoteric language, its contribution is not well understood. Avoiding mathematical technicalities as much as possible, this course attempts to demonstrate a few of the powerful ideas that have animated the development of mathematics. Examples of mathematical thinking from various periods of mathematical history are examined and related to their scientific and social impact.
NOTE: This course is designed as a suitable elective for students following an undergraduate programme. It has no formal prerequisites and will not qualify students to enrol for any other mathematics course, and cannot be used to satisfy a mathematics requirement in any BA or BSc programme.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for MATH 215 may not take this course for credit.

INTE 223  Critical Thinking
(3 credits)
This course is designed to help students to think more clearly and critically and to improve their ability to present, defend, and evaluate arguments. Sample topics may include the nature of definition, validity and truth, formal and informal fallacies.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHIL 223 may not take this course for credit.

INTE 229  Philosophy and Literature
(6 credits)
This course focuses on the interaction of philosophy and literature in a selected period of history (for example, the ancient world; the Middle Ages and Renaissance; and the modern world), through readings and discussion of literature with a high thematic content and philosophical writings with important literary connections.
NOTE: Students who have received a total of six credits for the set of courses consisting of INTE 230 or 231, or a total of six credits for the set of courses consisting of INTE 232 or 233 may complete the sequence by taking INTE 229 in the appropriate year (six credits).

INTE 250  Introduction to Science and Human Affairs
(3 credits)
The social and historical context of scientific and technological change. The reciprocal interactions of science with government, ideology, economic development, religion, literature and social theory; science and the city; science and the control of human life; science and human liberation; new definitions of scientific responsibility may be considered.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCHA 250 may not take this course for credit.

INTE 283  World History
(6 credits)
A survey for non-Major in History, designed principally for students in other departments and Faculties, emphasizing basic concepts, comparative study, and awareness of global patterns of historical development. Development of writing and research skills is stressed in conference.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for HIST 283 may not take this course for credit.

INTE 290  Introduction to Computer Usage
(3 credits)
This course is intended for students who would not normally encounter computers in their programme of study. It is designed to introduce them to fundamental uses of computers in word processing, data management and elementary programming, as a basis for more advanced applications within their disciplines. This is accomplished by means of a series of tutorial packages combining printed text, videotapes, and software. The format is self-instructional, encompassing 40 hours of hands-on experience in the laboratory.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for general computer courses may not take this course for credit.

INTE 291  Advanced Computer Usage
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: INTE 290 or equivalent. This course introduces advanced uses of computer packages, including mail merge, electronic mail, file management, data communications. The format is self-instructional, using computer-based tutorial packages, videotapes, and text. A minimum of 40 hours of laboratory work is required.

INTE 292  Computer Usage in the Sciences I
(3 credits)
This course introduces the use of contemporary computing tools, (currently BASIC) in scientific applications. It is designed for students with some familiarity with the fundamentals of computing, who wish to use computers as tools for research within other disciplines (e.g. psychology, biology, mathematics). The format is largely self-instructional, using computer-based tutorial packages. A minimum of 40 hours of laboratory work is required.

INTE 293  Computer Usage in the Sciences II
(3 credits)
This course introduces the use of contemporary computer tools (currently PASCAL) in scientific applications. It is designed for students with some familiarity with the fundamentals of computing, who wish to use computers as tools for research within other disciplines (e.g. psychology, biology, mathematics). The format is largely self-instructional, using computer-based tutorial packages. A minimum of 40 hours of laboratory work is required.

INTE 298  Special Topics (3 credits)

INTE 299  Special Topics (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

INTE 398  Special Topics (3 credits)

INTE 399  Special Topics (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

INTE 400  Generalized Empirical Methods (3 credits)

This course engages students in the task of integrating their University discipline into the more general enterprise of human knowing and deciding. Students reflect on their personal experience of knowing and deciding, and attempt to objectify this experience with the aid of a basic study of generalized empirical methodology. The text is selected from the works of Bernard Lonergan or of other comparable theorists.

INTE 498  Special Topics (3 credits)

INTE 499  Special Topics (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
Journalism studies are designed to help students become the intelligent and versatile reporters and writers upon which society depends for the exercise of its democratic functions. Above all, journalism is an intellectual activity with rigorous standards for gathering, processing, and disseminating information. To help students become knowledgeable and versatile reporters and writers, the Department of Journalism offers a professional education that combines theory and practice.

Writing and production workshops emphasize the practical, simulating as much as possible the assignments of working journalists. Newsroom standards are universally applied. Complementing these courses are lectures and seminars which analyze the social and political contexts in which journalism is practised.

Enrolment in the writing workshops in the Department of Journalism is limited and depends on the applicants' successful completion of the admission procedures outlined in the following paragraphs.

All applicants should apply through the University Admissions Office. In addition, they must submit a letter of intent to the Department of Journalism by March 1.

Admission procedures include: a letter of application of about 300 words describing the student's academic and work background and aspirations in journalism; a test of English proficiency; and an interview. Although it will not determine acceptance, applicants are advised that a working knowledge of French is important.

A student must achieve a final mark of "C" or better in the reporting workshops in order to proceed to the next level.

To graduate with a Minor, Major or Specialization in Journalism, a student must demonstrate a working knowledge of French. Tests of oral and reading proficiency in French are administered by the Département d'études françaises on behalf of the Department of Journalism, which is responsible for the final evaluation of each student's competence.

Written work in writing and reporting workshop courses is in English; please consult the Department.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

JOUR 201 Writing and Reporting I (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in a Journalism programme. This course gives training in basic reporting and newswriting. Students practice writing news and receive out-of-classroom assignments.

JOUR 205 History of Journalism (3 credits)
A history of the news media in the English-speaking world, starting with the government gazettes of seventeenth-century England and their illegal, underground competition, through the "news" papers of the eighteenth century, the rise of the yellow press, the human interest story, the penny press in the nineteenth century, down to today's corporate press. The course is designed to show that our expectations of the news media are not inherent in human nature, but are the result of historical processes that continue to evolve.

JOUR 210 The Media in Québec (3 credits)
This course studies the special characteristics of Québec media, focusing particularly on the historical development of Québec journalism and the part it has played in the shaping of modern Québec. Particular attention is given to the influence of journalists in cultural and political affairs. The recent increasing concentration of media ownership is examined. Much of the reading material is in French.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for JOUR 305 may not take this course for credit.

JOUR 215 Contemporary News Media (3 credits)
This course introduces students to the increasingly complex structures of modern media. It examines the organizations, practices and problems of news media, focusing on key functions in their day-to-day activities. In any given year, it may explore in detail a particular development or problem in the news media.

JOUR 298 Special Topics in Journalism (3 credits)
JOUR 299  Special Topics in Journalism (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

JOUR 302  Reporting Methods (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 201. This course builds solid foundations for a variety of journalistic assignments: feature writing, background and in-depth reporting, analyses, and investigative reporting. It is designed to help students understand and master a variety of information-gathering techniques, and overcome some of the hurdles confronting the contemporary journalist. It covers: information sources, interpretation and use of documents, access to information, and reporting and interviewing techniques to supplement official and conventional information sources.

JOUR 303  Feature Writing (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 302. This course is designed to help students develop and enhance their writing abilities, preparing for the broadest range of journalistic feature writing, from brief colour stories and profiles to in-depth articles. It consolidates interviewing techniques and introduces a variety of writing approaches. Students will be building the final foundations for a full spectrum of print-oriented writing assignments, preparing for advanced reporting work and the demands of specialized journalism.

JOUR 306  Radio News (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 302. Students learn to write for newscasts and for longer broadcast formats. There are field assignments in interviewing, tape editing, and preparation for broadcast.

JOUR 310  The Press and the Law (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 201, or permission of the director. Lectures cover those aspects of criminal and civil law which bear most directly on the work of professional journalists — libel, slander, contempt of court. NOTE: Students who have received credit for JOUR 405 may not take this course for credit.

JOUR 343  Broadcast Public Affairs (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 201, or permission of the director. This course focuses on the principles, practices, and debates in Canadian public affairs radio and television. American broadcasting is also considered. The course also examines current affairs broadcasting in the world community. NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 340, 342 or 343 may not take this course for credit.

JOUR 398  Special Topics in Journalism (3 credits)

JOUR 399  Special Topics in Journalism (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

JOUR 400  Advanced Reporting (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 303. Students are introduced to several areas of specialist reporting — economics and business, public affairs, medicine and science, the arts, etc. — and to a variety of journalistic treatments: background, interpretive, and investigative reporting. NOTE: Students who have received credit for JOUR 401 may not take this course for credit.

JOUR 402  Specialist Reporting (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 400. Students cover a beat in the field of their choice for several weeks, producing news, features, and background stories. A term-end major background story is also produced. There are seminars and discussions, with leaders from the media on the specifics of beat coverage and on general media topics, such as trade unionism, ethics, journalistic responsibility.

JOUR 404  Magazine Writing (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 400 and a qualifying assignment. This is a workshop for students who intend to write in the burgeoning magazine field. Students develop and apply the techniques used in a variety of magazine formats, from the highly specialized to the general: news magazines, special interest, topical or industrial publications, expansive feature formats, and internal corporate publications. It is of particular interest to students wishing a freelance career.

JOUR 410  Principles of Editing (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 302. Lectures and workshops in the art of story editing, with an introduction to layout and design. While the material used is designed primarily for print reproduction, the techniques, and particularly the intellectual processes employed, are applicable to all media.

JOUR 415  Television News (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 306. The study of and practice in the application of news writing and editing for television. Classes and field assignments cover writing, interviewing, and editing of videotape for short television newscast items and for longer news feature formats.

JOUR 420
Advanced Television Journalism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 415 and permission of the Department. An advanced workshop in television journalism, working in the areas of news and current affairs programming. Emphasis on editorial control and journalistic treatment of subjects. Weekly critiques by professor and invited guests.

JOUR 430
Advanced Radio Journalism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 306 and permission of the Department. Workshop production of daily news on the student radio station. Students function as reporter, assignment editor, and news reader. Weekly critique by instructor and invited radio journalists.

JOUR 446
Ethics and Responsibility in Journalism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: JOUR 310 or permission of the director. This course considers journalism in the context of philosophical and ethical principles. It aims to assess realistically the responsibilities of reporting and news analysis and to examine critically the role of journalism in society.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS 446 may not take this course for credit.

JOUR 450
Independent Study
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in a Journalism programme. Students who have demonstrated ability may, near the end of their programme, be allowed to undertake independent study, in either research or production, in an area of special interest in Journalism. The study or project is done in close collaboration with one or more members of the faculty.

JOUR 451
Independent Study
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in a Journalism programme. Students who have received credit for JOUR 450 may register for JOUR 451.

JOUR 498
Advanced Special Topics in Journalism (3 credits)

JOUR 499
Advanced Special Topics in Journalism (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
Leisure Studies offers an interdisciplinary programme focusing on the growing awareness of leisure as a social and cultural force in society. Students are introduced to the many aspects of the field including managing, programming, counselling, and coordinating. Involvement in community service provides an important link between the University and members of the community, thereby offering a genuine context for the exchange of knowledge and expertise. The Leisure Studies programme is committed to equality in gender relations, living in harmony with the environment and respect for diversity.

There are three programmes within Leisure Studies. They are:

a) Bachelor of Arts, Specialization in Leisure Studies: consisting of 60 credits in Leisure Studies and 30 elective credits.

b) Bachelor of Arts, Specialization in Therapeutic Recreation: consisting of 60 credits in Therapeutic Recreation and 30 elective credits.

c) Bachelor of Arts, Major in Leisure Studies: consisting of 42 credits in Leisure Studies and 48 elective credits.

Recreation and leisure are studied from a multi-dimensional perspective for those students interested in a career in leisure services, together with those students who foresee the increasing need for academic inquiry into the field.

The programmes draw from the Departments of Applied Social Science, Biology, Études françaises, Exercise Science, Geography, History, Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology and the Faculties of Commerce and Administration, and Fine Arts.

The Therapeutic Recreation Specialization is designed to highlight the developing role of specialists in this field. The application of recreation as a specific intervention to promote independent functioning and positive leisure experiences is studied in a variety of clinical and community settings.

Students are required to complete the appropriate entrance profile (10.1) for entry into the programme (see §31.002 — Programmes and Admission Requirements — Profiles). All required and elected courses within the programme should be chosen in consultation with an adviser.

Additionally it will be required that students must maintain an overall average of 2.00 in order to (1) continue into the second and third years of their studies, and (2) graduate.

Students registered in the programme who are not fluent in French are strongly advised to use some of their elective credits in pursuit of French-language competence.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

Students should consult with the programme adviser prior to registering for Leisure Studies courses.

LES R 210  Tourism in Canada
(3 credits)
An examination of the concepts, research, and practices of tourism in Canada. Topics covered include destination motivation, commercial recreation, business travel, traditional tourism, history of Canadian tourism, trends in tourism development, and government agencies (Tourism Canada; Tourisme Québec).

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a L E S R 298 or 398 number may not take this course for credit.

LES R 211  Tourism Promotion
(3 credits)
An examination of the principles of leisure promotion as applied to the tourism industry. Topics covered include the economics of promotion, social objectives, market segmentation, ethical and legal considerations, foreign and domestic promotion, and business vs. recreational advertising.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a L E S R 298 number may not take this course for credit.

LES R 241  Recreation and Leisure in Contemporary Society
(3 credits)
The course provides a basis for understanding recreation and leisure as increasingly important aspects of our culture. In an era of rapidly changing lifestyles, with a high incidence of anxiety and frustration, the value of worthy use of free time in maintaining mental and physical health is presented. Topics discussed include: motivations for participation in leisure and recreation; social, psychological, and historical foundations of leisure; education for leisure; and the analysis of special problems.

LESR 261 Principles of Leisure Services (3 credits)
The fundamental concepts of programming in the field of leisure studies are the focus of this course. Analysis of planning models in social, cultural, physical, intellectual, and adventure recreation, as they relate to the provision of leisure services is the basis of study. Lectures and field study.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for LESR 250 may not take this course for credit.

LESR 281 Introduction to Therapeutic Recreation (3 credits)
An examination of the fundamental concepts of therapeutic recreation. Included is the study of the historical foundations and the basic terminology, purposes, and theories of therapeutic recreation.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for LESR 393 may not take this course for credit.

LESR 298 Selected Topics in Leisure Studies (3 credits)

LESR 299 Selected Topics in Leisure Studies (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

LESR 336 Leisure and the Older Adult (3 credits)
An examination of the unique features of leisure programming and services for older adults with special attention to cultural, intellectual, social, physical, and volunteer recreation.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a LESR 398 number may not take this course for credit.

LESR 340 Employee Recreation Services (3 credits)
Examination of the origins and development of recreation related to the place of employment. Critical analysis of the research literature in the areas of: work/leisure relationships; cost/benefits; government intervention; programme design and family involvement.

LESR 350 Leisure Education (3 credits)
An introduction to the field of leisure education. The history and underlying philosophy of the concept is presented. The roles of the school, community, and community-serving agencies are examined.

Existing models are analyzed and discussed.

LESR 360 Play, Adult Learning and Development (3 credits)
This course examines the concept of play in adult learning and development. Gender, age, ethnic and social class diversity are explored as they relate to adult play behaviour.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a LESR 398 number may not take this course for credit.

LESR 361 Leisure Services Leadership (3 credits)
An analysis of leadership theory and its application to leisure services. Major topics are the principles and practices of leadership, group dynamics, leadership skill development and programme planning.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a LESR 398 number may not take this course for credit.

LESR 371 Concepts in Community Recreation Programming (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LESR 261. A comprehensive analysis of current community recreation practices with emphasis on community leisure needs, assessments, cultural programming, leadership, volunteers, evaluation, and resource integration.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for LESR 250 may not take this course for credit.

LESR 381 Concepts in Therapeutic Recreation Programming (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LESR 261; LESR 281. A comprehensive analysis of current therapeutic recreation practices with emphasis on rehabilitation in community and clinical settings such as hospitals, group homes, psychiatric centres, rehabilitation clinics, and correctional centres. Leisure planning and assessment models are studied to identify the modes of recreational activity which may be used as an intervention.

LESR 398 Intermediate Selected Topics in Leisure Studies (3 credits)

LESR 399 Intermediate Selected Topics in Leisure Studies (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

LESR 420 The Legal Aspects of Leisure Services (3 credits) Analysis of the law as it applies to aspects of recreational activities in such areas as organization, promotion, supervision, and participation. Included are studies of the Québec Civil Code, the Canadian Constitution, and the Commission des droits de la personne du Québec.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a LESR 398 number may not take this course for credit.

LESR 427 Administration of Leisure Services (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the final year* of a Leisure Studies programme or permission of programme director. Analysis of the processes involved in planning and managing leisure service delivery systems. Topics to be studied include principles of planning, organization, budgeting, and supervision. *30 credits or less remaining in degree programme

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a LESR 426 may not take this course for credit.

LESR 428 Structures of Leisure in Québec (3 credits)
An analysis of the administration of recreational activities in provincial, regional, and municipal governments. The relationships of these bodies to the federal government, private non-profit, and commercial recreation agencies are studied.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under a LESR 498 number may not take this course for credit.

LESR 431 Leisure Studies Seminar (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the final year* of a Leisure Studies programme. This is a third-year interdisciplinary seminar in which students can tie together all they have learned in the Leisure Studies Programme. Additionally, students are set on a course of study that should continue after they graduate so that they can keep up with future developments in this area.

*30 credits or less remaining in programme

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE 430/LESR 430 may not take this course for credit.

LESR 432 Seminar in Therapeutic Recreation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the final year* of Specialization in Therapeutic Recreation. A third-year integrative seminar which allows students to consolidate all they have learned in their studies. Students will critically evaluate current issues in the field and commence a course of study that should continue after graduation, allowing them to keep up with future developments in therapeutic recreation.

*30 credits or less remaining in programme

LESR 450 Leisure Counselling (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in second year* of a Leisure Studies programme or permission of programme director. The application of counselling theory to the field of leisure services is considered in this course. The aims, methods, concepts and assessment tools are the focus of study. Lectures and laboratory.

*60 credits or less remaining in programme

LESR 464 Leisure Studies Internship (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the final year* of a Leisure Studies programme. In consultation with their mentors, students are given the opportunity to study theoretical and practical problems confronting professionals in the field of recreation. The course offers a supervised period of work with a selected organization. Each student, during seminar sessions, formulates a study proposal. The internship commences when the proposal has been approved. The internship involves a minimum of six-week 240-hour period.

*30 credits or less remaining in programme

LESR 481 Therapeutic Recreation and Special Populations (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LERS 281. An overview of the services required for individuals with special needs. Analysis of the barriers to recreational participation along with the planning/designing of a safe and accessible recreational environment are major focuses of the course. Legislation trends and resources for community recreation integration are also studied.

LESR 485 Therapeutic Recreation Internship (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the final year* of Specialization in Therapeutic Recreation; LERS 464 must be taken concurrently. In consultation with their mentors, students are given the opportunity to study theoretical and practical problems confronting professionals in the field of therapeutic recreation. The course offers a supervised work experience in an organization offering therapeutic recreation programmes. Each student, during seminar sessions, formulates a study proposal. The internship commences when the proposal has been approved. The internship involves a minimum three-week 120-hour period.

*30 credits or less remaining in programme

LESR 490 Independent Study I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the programme director. Students work on topics in consultation with a study supervisor. The study may include readings, field studies, and/or research.
LESR 491   Independent Study II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the programme director. A student who has received credit for LESA 490 may register for LESR 491.

LESR 498   Advanced Topics in Leisure Studies (3 credits)

LESR 499   Advanced Topics in Leisure Studies (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The overall objective of the Library Studies programme is to provide strong undergraduate and graduate programmes which prepare students for paraprofessional work in the field of library/information studies and/or further study in other areas. The use of computers is integrated throughout the curriculum, and classes are scheduled in a variety of Concordia University Computing Centre labs including the MAC lab and the PC labs. For the majority of courses, students are required to use the Concordia University libraries extensively.

Through its programmes, Library Studies works to meet the needs of the library/information community by offering university-educated individuals for employment in the field, as paraprofessionals, thus filling the gap between the library clerk and the professional librarian.

Students are required to complete the appropriate entrance profile for entry into the programme (see §31.002 — Programmes and Admission Requirements — Profiles). Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

NOTE: All Library Studies students must take LIBS 205 as a prerequisite to all other Library Studies courses, the only exception being LIBS 411, 433 and 481.

The Library Studies programme offers a Major in Library Studies to those who wish to pursue a career in library work at a non-graduate level. For those interested in taking advanced studies in any subject area including library and/or information science/studies at the Master’s level, consultation with an adviser at the beginning of the programme is recommended. All students must preregister with the programme and obtain course approval prior to the date of registration.

Students will be expected to maintain an average of “C” throughout the programme. The Certificate in Library Studies is offered to meet the needs of students who may not wish to fulfill the requirements of a Bachelor of Arts degree. Sixty credits are required to complete the Certificate programme, 36 of which consist of Library Studies, with 24 credits of electives. Students may transfer into the Certificate programme up to 12 credits earned in an incomplete degree or Certificate programme or as an Independent student, provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

Diploma in Library Studies

The Department also offers a Diploma programme for students who have completed their undergraduate degree in another field. Detailed information on the programme is given in the School of Graduate Studies Calendar.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

LIBS 205 Introduction to Library Services (3 credits)

This course, which is the prerequisite to all others in the programme, introduces students to the organization, functions and services in various types of libraries. Basic information sources available in the literature of librarianship and bibliographic form used in documenting research will also be covered.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for LIBS 201 and LIBS 202 may not take this course for credit.

LIBS 250 Introduction to Library Research Practices (3 credits)

This course is designed to introduce students to basic library research practices. It familiarizes students with a variety of information sources in both print and non-print formats. Emphasis is placed on systematic search strategy in the use and evaluation of these information tools. Topics such as outlining and bibliographic format are covered as part of the library research process.

NOTE: Library Studies students may not take this course. Students in degree programmes in Library Studies may not take this course for Library Studies credit.

LIBS 298 Selected Topics in Library Studies (3 credits)

Specific topics for these courses will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule. Prerequisites relevant in each case to be discussed with the academic adviser.
LIBS 303  Information Services
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 205. This course examines the theories and principles of information services and literature searching. Standard general reference works are studied.

LIBS 305  Bibliographic Searching
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 205. This course examines the theories and principles of reference work and provides a broad introduction to bibliographic searching. General and subject bibliographies, indexes and abstracts are examined and evaluated.

LIBS 320  Cataloguing
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 205. Familiarity with a computer keyboard is desirable. This course is designed to give the student a basic knowledge of bibliographic control in both manual and automated environments. Emphasis is on pre-cataloguing routines, descriptive cataloguing, MARC coding, and on-line editing.

LIBS 324  Subject Access and Classification
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 320. This course is designed to give the student, who possesses a thorough understanding of descriptive cataloguing, a basic knowledge of the principles of subject cataloguing and classification. While emphasis is placed on Sears and Library of Congress Subject Headings and the Dewey Decimal and Library of Congress Classification Systems, the principles learned are transferable to other subject cataloguing and classification schemes.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for LIBS 325 and LIBS 330 may not take this course for credit.

LIBS 350  Automated Library Systems I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 205. This course deals with automation as a tool for improvement of library processes and services. The fundamental principles of computer applications in library systems are covered with emphasis on microcomputers. The course focuses on the areas of acquisitions and cataloguing and how automation can be applied to these functions.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for LIBS 331 and LIBS 345 may not take this course for credit.

LIBS 355  Automated Library Systems II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 350. This course continues the study of automation as a tool for improving library processes and services. Areas examined include serials control, circulation, reference services, and spreadsheet applications for libraries. Current trends and future developments in software and hardware for library automation are covered.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for LIBS 331 and LIBS 345 may not take this course for credit.

LIBS 398  Selected Topics in Library Studies
(3 credits)
LIBS 399  Selected Topics in Library Studies
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule. Prerequisites relevant in each case to be discussed with the academic adviser.

LIBS 407  Research Methodology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 303; LIBS 305. The aim of this course is to develop an understanding and appreciation of research methods and approaches specific to subject disciplines, based on the consideration of general principles of research methodology, and the planning of logical research strategies. The library-oriented approach ensures a solid background of data from which problems may be attacked and solutions derived. Topics covered in logical progression include: selecting and defining the problem; planning the research programme; developing and testing hypotheses; collecting, classifying, evaluating, and analyzing evidence; drawing conclusions; presenting results. The course assumes general knowledge of reference and bibliographic sources for at least one academic discipline. Students are evaluated principally on a term paper related to a research strategy, and methods applied to a problem of their own choosing, and on class participation.

LIBS 409  Library Research and Library Resources in Science and Technology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 205; or enrolment in Engineering or in a Major in Science. The course is designed to introduce Science and Engineering undergraduates, as well as the Library Studies student, to the structure of scientific literature, to the basic types of information sources in science and technology, and to information networks, and computer-based retrieval systems. The student also becomes familiar with search strategies and indexing techniques. Emphasis is placed on developing skills in the student's particular discipline or interest.
LIBS 410 On-line Information Retrieval (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 305. A theoretical and practical introduction to the operation and use of on-line information retrieval systems. Emphasis is on database file structure, search protocol, Boolean logic, vocabulary control, and search strategy development in relation to searching bibliographic and full text databases.

LIBS 411 Library Service and Work with Children (3 credits)
The course is designed to introduce the student to the major genres of children's literature. The student examines the methods used in the library to stimulate the child's love of reading and evaluates children's literature through assignments, films, and a field trip to a children's library.

LIBS 421 School Library Services, Collections and Programmes (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 205. The duties and responsibilities of the library assistant, library technician and teacher-librarian are discussed. Topics include programmes for teaching the use of the library, methods for cooperating with teachers, the assembling of materials for instructional units, responding to curriculum demands upon the library, and examining the effects of new curriculum trends in education upon the school library/resource centre.

LIBS 432 Library Service and Work in the College and University (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 205. The organization, administration, and functions of academic libraries are studied, with special references to curriculum-oriented library service, and to services relating to large academic research libraries and college libraries.

LIBS 433 Technical Skills in Multi-Media Operations (3 credits)
This course examines current trends in the information revolution and their effects on communication. Through hands-on experience with desktop publishing and other software, students explore the library applications of multi-media, hypermedia and computer networking, and learn to create promotional materials.

LIBS 435 Organization of Audio-Visual Collections (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 320. All aspects of audio-visual materials available in public, university, school and special libraries are studied. The student is introduced to basic reference sources, aids for acquisition, ordering, storage and circulation. Coverage also includes pre-cataloguing routines and MARC coding. Materials featured are those frequently found in libraries, such as records, cassettes, films, kits, and slides as well as those which are becoming more common such as microforms, video cassettes and videotapes as well as computer programmes and software.

LIBS 441 Library Service and Work in Business and Industry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 205. The role of the library in relation to business and industry is examined. The specific skills and devices employed to provide direct information to the users are explored. Management and administrative concerns are reviewed from the viewpoint of the library and the sponsoring organization.

LIBS 451 Library Service and Work in the Public Library (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LIBS 205. This course traces the development of the public library, particularly in Québec. It deals with the objectives, roles, and functions of public library service in contemporary society. Topics such as freedom of access to information, copyright, public-lending right, and collection and preservation of library materials are explored.

LIBS 461 Library Service and Work with the Young Adult (3 credits)
This course explores through books the major phenomena of the teenager's world. Some of the skills needed to serve young adults in a library setting are examined. Literature written especially for young adults, and some adult literature which is especially popular with, and suitable for, young people, is studied. A pre-course reading list is available.

LIBS 495 Field Practice (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Completion of all other required Library Studies courses. In consultation with the appropriate supervising librarian, the student is placed in a local library system other than the library in which the student is employed. The duration of the field practice is five weeks. Field practice includes a wide variety of library tasks. In addition the student is required to complete a written research project on a topic approved by the professor.

LIBS 498 Advanced Topics in Library Studies (3 credits)

LIBS 499 Advanced Topics in Library Studies (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule. Prerequisites relevant in each case to be discussed with the academic adviser.

Department Objectives

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics provides the general mathematical culture necessary for training those who will either be using the tools of mathematics in their work or who will become future mathematicians. For students who are contemplating graduate work in mathematics, the Department has leading researchers in the fields of Number Theory and Computational Algebra, Differential Geometry and Mathematical Physics, Dynamical Systems, Mathematics Education and Probability and Statistics.

In addition to its Co-op programme, alternating Work and Academic terms, the Department offers a programme in Actuarial Mathematics and prepares students for the associateship examinations of the Society of Actuaries.

The Department also provides instruction at the remedial and introductory levels to enable students who have been out of school for some time to re-enter the academic stream; and offers special courses for teachers of mathematics who wish to keep abreast of recent ideas and applications.

Programmes

Students are required to complete the appropriate entrance profile for entry into the programme (see §31.002 — Programmes and Admission Requirements — Profiles). A student wishing to follow a Mathematics programme but not meeting the entrance requirements should consult with the Department.

By careful choice of electives, students can select whether the emphasis of the programme will be in the area of Pure Mathematics, Applied Mathematics, Statistics, or Actuarial

MATHEMATICS AND STATISTICS CO-OPERATIVE PROGRAMME

Director
ZOHEL KHALIL, Professor

The Mathematics and Statistics Co-operative programme is offered to students who are enrolled in the BA or BSc Honours or Specialization programmes. Students interested in applying for the Mathematics and Statistics Co-op should refer to §24 where a full description of the admission requirements is provided.

Academic content is identical to that of the regular programme, but six Study terms are interspersed with four Work terms.

Students are supervised personally and must meet the requirements specified by the Faculty of Arts and Science and the Institute for Co-operative Education in order to continue their studies in the co-op format.

Liaison between the student, the employers, and the Institute for Co-operative Education is provided by the Mathematics and Statistics Co-op Committee, which includes the student's advisers.

Please refer to §24 for the schedule of Study and Work terms and the full description of admission requirements.

"NOTE: See §14.4.2 (Mature Entry) and 61.20 (Extended Credit).

NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration.

MATH 209 Fundamental Mathematics II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 206, or equivalent. This course is a prerequisite course for Commerce and Administration students*. Limits, differentiation of rational, exponential, and logarithmic functions, theory of maxima and minima, integration.

"NOTE: See §14.4.2 (Mature Entry) and 61.20 (Extended Credit).

NOTE: Students who have received credit or exemption for MATH 203 or equivalent may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration.

MATH 210 Mathematics for the Biological Sciences I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 103, or equivalent. Discrete probability, probability distributions, difference equations, differential equations, transients, steady-state solutions, system concept, block diagrams, linear programming, game theory. Markov chains, applications to ecology, population models, physiology.

MATH 211 Fundamental Mathematics III (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 209. This course is a prerequisite for Commerce and Administration students*. Functions of two variables, partial derivatives, maxima and minima; iterated integrals; difference and differential equations, Taylor polynomials, root approximations, numerical integration.

"NOTE: See §14.4.2 (Mature Entry) and 61.20 (Extended Credit).

NOTE: Students who have received credit or exemption for MATH 205 or equivalent may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration.

MATH 215 Ideas in Mathematics (3 credits)
Mathematical ideas and techniques permeate Western civilization, but because mathematics operates at a high level of abstraction and uses an esoteric language, its contribution is not well understood. Avoiding mathematical technicalities as much as possible, this course attempts to demonstrate a few of the powerful ideas that have animated the development of mathematics. Examples of mathematical thinking from various periods of mathematical history are examined and related to their scientific and social impact.

NOTE: This course is designed as a suitable elective for students following an undergraduate programme. It has no formal prerequisites and will not qualify students to enrol for any other mathematics course, and cannot be used to satisfy a mathematics requirement in any BSc or BA programme.
MATH 216  Introduction to Mathematical Thinking (3 credits)
Number systems, finite vs. infinite, role of examples and counter-examples; role of specialization and generalization; role of symbols, notation, and definitions; techniques of problem-solving and styles of mathematical discourse.

NOTE: This course is restricted to students in Mathematics programmes.

NOTE: Students with more than nine credits in Mathematics may not take this course for credit.

MATH 220  Mathematical Methods in Chemistry (3 credits)

MATH 225  Introduction to Actuarial Mathematics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 202 or MATH 208; MATH 203 or MATH 209 or equivalent. Simple-interest, compound interest, force of interest; annuities-certain, continuous annuities-certain, perpetuities; amortization and sinking funds, graduated mortgage schemes; bonds and related securities; capital cost and depletion. Brief introduction to life insurance.

MATH 229  Workshop in Actuarial Mathematics I (2 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 263; MATH 283 previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. This workshop is intended to prepare students for the general mathematics examination of the Society of Actuaries and the Casualty Actuarial Society. Special topics from calculus, introductory real analysis, and linear algebra which are not normally included in first courses are covered with the instructor.

MATH 231  Introduction to Applied Mathematics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 282, or equivalent. Introduction to the theory of optimization, linear programming, the Simplex Method. Deterministic and stochastic models for growth processes. Introduction to graphs and networks. Applications. NOTE: Only three credits will be awarded from MATH 231, DESC 250, 313, ENGR 412.

MATH 232  Computing in Mathematics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 105; CEGEP Mathematics 203, or equivalent. Introduction to APL, primitive and dyadic operators, simple and mixed functions. Programming and editing, dealing with workspaces. Applications to calculus (sequences, series, convergence, and integrals); to statistics (simulations, combinatorics, and distributions) and to algebra (systems of equations, matrices, and non-linear equations).

MATH 242  Introduction to Probability (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 203, or equivalent. Elementary combinatorics, elementary rules of probability, random variables, probability distributions, mathematical expectation, sampling distributions. NOTE See §200.7

MATH 243  Introduction to Mathematical Statistics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 242, or equivalent. Point and interval estimation, hypothesis testing, non-parametric methods, introduction to regression and correlation. NOTE See §200.7

MATH 262  Advanced Calculus I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 105; CEGEP Mathematics 203, or equivalent. Geometry of curves and surfaces, functions of several variables, partial derivatives, chain rule, tangent planes, extrema, Lagrange multipliers, Jacobians of transformations and multiple integrals, infinite series, power series and Taylor series.

MATH 263  Advanced Calculus II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 262, or equivalent. Functions from $\mathbb{R}^n$ to $\mathbb{R}$. Transformations between different coordinate systems, line integrals, Green's theorem, potentials and vector fields, divergence and curl, conservative fields, exact differentials, surface integrals, Gauss' and Stokes' theorems, applications.

MATH 271  Differential Equations I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 105; CEGEP Mathematics 203. Separable equations, exact equations, integrating factors, force fields, first-order linear equations, input-output concept, second-order equations, reduction of order, variation of parameters, n-th order linear equations with constant coefficients, Laplace transforms, block diagrams and signal-flow graphs.

MATH 282  Linear Algebra I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 105, or equivalent. Systems of linear equations, vector spaces, bases and dimension, linear transformations and matrix representation, rank, determinants, eigenvalues and eigenvectors.

MATH 283 Linear Algebra II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 282, or equivalent. Diagonalization, minimal polynomial, canonical forms, Cayley-Hamilton theorem, inner product and orthogonality, isometries, perturbations, quadratic forms.

MATH 290 Algebraic Systems (Introduction) (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Collegial pre-Science Mathematics profile, or equivalent. Sets, functions, binary operations, examples of number systems, polynomial functions, divisibility, definitions and examples of groups and subgroups, fields.

MATH 298 Selected Topics in Mathematics (3 credits)
MATH 299 Selected Topics in Mathematics (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

MATH 310 Mathematics for the Biological Sciences II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 210, or equivalent. Continuous probability, stochastic processes, population models, systems of linear difference and differential equations, Laplace transforms, signal-flow graphs, systems trajectories, stability, applications to ecology and biology.

MATH 311 An Introduction to Numerical Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 105; CEGEP Mathematics 203, or equivalent; MATH 232, or equivalent. Error analysis and computer arithmetic. Numerical solution of non-linear equations, fixed point iterations, rate of convergence. Interpolations and approximations, Lagrange polynomials, divided differences, discrete least-square approximation, Legendre polynomials. Numerical integration, Newton-Cotes formulas, Romberg integration.
NOTE: Only three credits will be granted from MATH 311 and COMP 361.

MATH 312 Numerical Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 311 or COMP 361 or equivalent; MATH 263; MATH 283 or equivalent. Linear Systems: Cholesky decomposition for positive definite systems; tridiagonal case. Orthogonal factorizations: Householder matrices, least-square solutions for overdetermined systems. Data fitting: piecewise, splines, continuous least-squares. Quadrature: infinite intervals, orthogonal polynomials, Gaussian quadrature. Differential equations: systems of ODE’s, predictor-corrector formula, stability, error analysis. Eigenvalue problem: Bisection, deflation, tridiagonalization, inverse iteration.

MATH 322 Mathematical Logic (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Eighteen credits in post-Collegial Mathematics. This course deals with the mathematical ideas and techniques required to state and prove one of the most spectacular theorems of modern mathematics: Godel's incompleteness theorem establishing the non-algorithmic nature of Arithmetic and, hence, of most of higher mathematics. The subject involves the study of formal languages and recursive functions and is suitable for students interested in computer science.

MATH 326 Theory of Interest (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 262; MATH 282 previously or concurrently, and permission of the Department. Measurement of interest; annuities, amortization, schedules and sinking funds; bonds and securities; capital cost and depletion; life insurance.

MATH 327 Life Contingencies I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 326. Measurement of Mortality: survival function, mortality tables, force of mortality; special topics.

MATH 329 Workshop in Actuarial Mathematics II (2 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 243, or permission of the Department. This workshop is intended to prepare students for the Probability and Statistics Examination of the Society of Actuaries and the Casualty Actuarial Society.

MATH 332 Introduction to Game Theory (3 credits)

MATH 334 Combinatorics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Eighteen credits in post-Collegial Mathematics. General principle of counting, permutations, combinations, identities, generating functions; Fibonacci numbers; partitions, recurrence relations.
Stirling numbers, Catalan numbers, principle of inclusion-exclusion, cycles of a permutation, orbits of permutation groups, parity of a permutation, Pólya's theorem.

MATH 336  Linear Programming  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 231; MATH 283. Convex sets and convex functions, polyhedral sets and cones, degeneracy and cycling, the revised Simplex method, sensitivity and parametric analysis, the transportation and assignment problems, minimal cost network flows, maximal flow problems; integer programming.

MATH 337  Introduction to Stochastic Methods of Operations Research  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 231; MATH 243. Random variables, distributions, conditional probability, conditional expectations; Markov decision process and applications; inventory theory; applications in queuing systems. NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 314 may not take this course for credit.

MATH 342  Quality Control and Industrial Statistics  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 243, or permission of the Department. Concepts of statistical control; X, R, P, and C charts; acceptance-sampling inspection, continuous-sampling plans, reliability and life tests.

MATH 343  Sample Surveys  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 243, or permission of the Department. Simple random sampling, stratified random sampling, systematic sampling, multi-stage sampling, regression and ratio estimates, non-sampling errors.

MATH 347  Non-Parametric Statistical Methods  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 243. Chi-square and Kolmogorov-Smirnov Goodness-of-Fit tests, the sign, rank, and Mann-Whitney Wilcoxon tests for one and two samples, Kruskal-Wallis tests for k-samples, rank correlation and Kendall's TAU statistics, computer packages.

MATH 348  Regression and Correlation  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 243. Simple, multiple and polynomial regression, least square estimations, Gauss-Markov theorem; analysis of residuals; analysis of binary data; multi-collinearity, auto-correlation models; step-wise regression; multivariate normal distributions and correlation analysis.

MATH 351  Concepts of Probability  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 243. Axiomatic approach to probability, combinatorial probability, discrete and continuous random variables, geometric probability, expectation, conditional probability and conditional expectations, introduction to Markov chains and the Poisson process.

MATH 353  Stochastic Processes and Applications  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 351. Continuous stochastic processes, Poisson processes, continuous-time Markov processes, queuing models, birth and death processes, renewal theory and reliability of systems.

MATH 362  Introduction to Analysis I  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 263; MATH 283. The real number system, least upper bounds. Limits, continuity. Differentiation and integration. The Fundamental Theorem of the integral Calculus.

MATH 363  Introduction to Analysis II  (3 credits)

MATH 366  Complex Analysis I  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 263. Algebra and geometry of complex numbers, linear transformations, analytic functions, Laurent's series, calculus of residues, special functions.

MATH 371  Differential Equations II  (3 credits)

MATH 373  Qualitative Theory of Differential Equations  (3 credits)
MATH 379
Discrete Dynamical Systems and Chaos
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 362, or permission of the Department. Introduction to discrete dynamical modelling. First order linear dynamical systems. Non-linear dynamical systems: complex behaviour, bifurcation theory and chaos. Higher dimensional non-linear systems, phase plane analysis, computer simulation.

MATH 380
Differential Geometry I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 263; MATH 271; MATH 283. Calculus on Euclidean space, tangent vectors, directional derivatives, differential forms, mappings, curves, frame fields, Serret-Frenet formulas, covariant derivatives; Calculus on a surface, tangent spaces, differential forms on a surface, mappings between surfaces, integration of forms, Stokes’ Theorem.

MATH 381
Linear Algebra III
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 283. Matrices, linear transformations, determinants, metric concepts, inner-product spaces, dual spaces, spectral theorem, bilinear and quadratic forms, canonical forms for linear transformations, matrix functions, selected topics.

MATH 392
Elementary Number Theory
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Eighteen credits in post-Collegial Mathematics. Number systems, division and factorization, number-theoretic functions, congruences, algebraic congruences and primitive roots, quadratic residues, diophantine equations.

MATH 393
Algebraic Systems I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in post-Collegial Mathematics, or permission of the Department. Introduction to algebraic systems: groups, rings, fields, homomorphisms.

MATH 394
Algebraic Systems II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 393, or equivalent. Normal subgroups, quotient groups, isomorphism theorems, polynomial rings, principal ideal rings, elementary field theory.

MATH 397
History of Mathematics
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 263; MATH 283, or permission of the Department. Early mathematics, Greek mathematics, European mathematics in the Middle Ages, the origin and development of analytic geometry and calculus, mathematics as free creation, the generality of mathematics in the twentieth century.

MATH 398
Selected Topics in Mathematics
(3 credits)

MATH 399
Selected Topics in Mathematics
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

MATH 427
Life Contingencies II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 327. Life annuities; pure endowments, annual payments, continuous annuities, net annual premium, net level premium reserves; the expense factor; special topics.

MATH 428
Life Contingencies III
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 427. Applications of Contingency Theory in areas of Life and Health Insurance, Annuities and Pension; individual risk theory, ruin theory.

MATH 429
Workshop in Actuarial Mathematics III
(2 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 327, or permission of the Department. This workshop reviews and consolidates the material from other courses in the programme of the Actuarial Society’s Examination on Life Contingencies.

MATH 432
Theory of Graphs and Networks
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Directed and undirected graphs. Partitions, planar graphs, matrix representation, applications to network theory.

MATH 433
Calculus of Variations
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 373. Nature of problems, Weak variations, the first variation, Euler’s equation. The second variation, Jacobi’s equation, Legendre’s test, conjugate points. Relative maxima and minima, isoperimetal problems. Integrals with variable end points. Applications to problems in pure and applied mathematics; the principle of least action. Strong variations, the Weierstrass E-function.

MATH 435
Advanced Numerical Analysis
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 311; MATH 312. Advanced problems and techniques in numerical linear algebra, systems of non-linear equations, roots of polynomials, spline fitting, mini-max fitting, extrapolation techniques, solution of initial value problems in ordinary differential equations, solution of two-point boundary value problems in ordinary differential equations, elliptic partial... differential equations, finite difference and finite element methods for hyperbolic and parabolic partial differential equations.

MATH 436 Non-Linear Programming (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 336, or permission of the Department. Classical methods of optimization, Lagrange multipliers, Kuhn-Tucker conditions; line search methods, quadratic programming, gradient methods. Introduction to dynamic programming.

MATH 437 Applied Stochastic Models in Operations Research (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 337 or MATH 351. Dynamic programming, renewal theory and applications, system reliability; simulation and Monte-Carlo technique; network analysis.

MATH 443 Time Series and Forecasting (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 348. Time Series, forecasting by trend and irregular components (using multiple regression analysis and exponential smoothing); forecasting seasonal time series, additive and multiplicative decomposition methods, Box-Jenkins methodology, moving average, autoregressive and mixed models. Standard computer packages are used.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 447 may not take this course for credit.

MATH 445 Applied Statistics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 348; MATH 351, or permission of the Department. The course contents are chosen from: sequential procedures; multivariate analysis; time series; reliability; advanced design of experiments; estimations and testing of hypothesis.

MATH 448 Analysis of Variance (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 348. Single and multiple factor analysis of variance (ANOVA); fixed, random and mixed effects models; multiple comparison; determination of sample size; nonparametric procedures.

MATH 451 Advanced Probability (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 351. Markov Chains, occupancy and matching problems, characteristic functions and moment-generating functions, central limit theorem and weak law of large numbers, probability generating functions and applications to combinatorial problems, random walk and the reflection principle, branching processes.

MATH 454 Mathematical Statistics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 351. Multivariate distributions, derivation of distributions using transformation method; standard sampling distributions, order statistics, descriptive and inferential statistics; estimation, properties of estimators, Rao-Cramer Inequality, Rao-Blackwell Theorem; maximum likelihood and method of moments estimators; tests of hypotheses, Neyman-Pearson Theory, likelihood ratio tests and their properties.

MATH 464 Real Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 363. Metric spaces; function spaces; compactness, completeness, fixed-point theorems, Ascoli-Arzela theorem, Weierstrass approximation theorem.

MATH 466 Complex Analysis II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 363; MATH 366. Cauchy’s theorem, singularities, maximum modulus principle, uniqueness theorem, normal families, Riemann mapping theorem.

MATH 467 Measure and Integration (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 363. Lebesque measure and integration on the real line, convergence theorems, absolute continuity, completeness of L^1(0,1).

MATH 471 Partial Differential Equations (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 371 or MATH 373. Classification of partial differential equations, the Cauchy-Kowalewski theorem, characteristics, boundary value and eigenvalue problems for elliptic equations, initial value and initial boundary value problems for parabolic and hyperbolic equations.

MATH 472 Linear Systems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 283; MATH 371 or MATH 373. State-space analysis and design of continuous and discrete systems. Controllability and observability, modal control, pole-placement techniques. Luenberger observers, Liapunov stability.

MATH 473 Stability Theory of Differential Equations (3 credits)

MATH 474 Introduction to Mathematical Control Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 363; MATH 472. Linear

MATH 480  Differential Geometry II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 380. Connection forms, structural equations of Cartan, topological properties of surfaces, shape operators for surfaces, curvature, isometries, intrinsic geometry of surfaces, integration and orientation, congruence; Riemannian geometry, geometric surfaces, curvature, geodesics, Gauss-Bonnet theorem.

MATH 491  Abstract Algebra I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 394, or equivalent. Sylow theorems, composition series, ideal theory of rings, noetherian rings, modules.

MATH 492  Abstract Algebra II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 491, or equivalent. Elements of field and Galois theory, including straight-edge-and-compass construction and the unsolvability of equations of fifth degree.

MATH 496  Mathematical Thinking
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is intended to stimulate the students' mathematical creativity and to improve their ability to think systematically, analyze problems, and communicate their reasoning. Students participate actively in discussing and solving problems drawn from a variety of sources (including previous Putnam competitions) and are expected to explain their thinking both orally and in writing. Discussions include the following topics: problem-posing, Polya's techniques of problem-solving; equivalence and similarity of problems; generalization; applications. The problems are selected from: combinatorics, geometry, group theory, number theory, real analysis, etc. NOTE: Students who have received credit for MATH 499 may not take this course for credit.

MATH 498  Advanced Topics in Mathematics
(3 credits)

MATH 499  Advanced Topics in Mathematics
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

Department Objectives
The Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics offers undergraduate programmes leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts in German, Italian, Spanish, and Linguistics. Through its commitment to teaching and research, the Department seeks to provide a stimulating intellectual milieu for learning languages and linguistics skills and theory, and for the humanistic and analytic study of literature.

Programmes
Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value. All these programmes can normally be completed within the regular three-year University sessions.

60 BA Honours in German
Students entering the programme are required to have a basic knowledge of German. GERM 250 and higher level courses may be chosen.
NOTE: Upon consultation with the Department, advanced students are not required to take any of the courses under GERM 300.

60 BA Honours in Italian
6 ITAL 210
6 ITAL 250, 252
12 ITAL 300, 310, 311
36 credits in an approved sequence chosen from any of the following:
ITAL 305, 360, 399, 399, 410,
415, 416, 420, 421, 425, 430,
432, 433, 435, 436, 437, 439,
441, 443, 445, 446, 460, 480,
481, 482, 483, 498, 499
NOTE: Upon consultation with the Department, advanced students may not be required to do any courses under ITAL 300.

36 BA Major in German
A student entering this programme may have, but does not need to have, “a basic knowledge of the language”. GERM 250 and higher level courses may be chosen.
NOTE: Upon consultation with the Department, advanced students are not required to take any of the courses under GERM 300.

42 BA Major in Italian
6 ITAL 210
6 ITAL 250, 252
12 ITAL 300, 310, 311
18 credits in Italian at the 300 level or higher in a sequence approved by Coursese programme. language, designed to make the student conversant with the grammar, pronunciation, and ordinary vocabulary. Equal emphasis placed on speaking and understanding, reading and writing. May be taken concurrently with GERM 220 and/or GERM 235. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: This course does not count towards the requirements for any German programme.

48 BA Major in Spanish
6 SPAN 250
3 SPAN 301
3 SPAN 302
36 credits in approved sequence chosen from one of the following options:

- Language Option: 255, 305, 306, 351, LING 200, LING 441 or six additional credits approved by the Department

*Students who have received credit for SPAN 465 prior to 1986-87 may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: Upon consultation with the Department, advanced students may not be required to do any courses under SPAN 301.

30 Minor in German
A student entering this programme will select any German courses in consultation with the Department.

30 Minor in Italian
12 ITAL 210, 250
18 credits in Italian at the 300 level or higher

NOTE: Upon consultation with the Department, advanced students may not be required to do any courses under ITAL 300.

NOTE: "A/B" and "B" 200-level courses. The second-term content of six-credit language courses designated "A/B" is identical to that of three-credit courses, with the same title, labelled "B." The "A/B" courses are designed to permit less advanced students to reach the level of students taking only the "B" course. Students in "A/B" courses may not withdraw after completing the Fall term and receive credit.

Written work may be required in the language being studied for these courses; please consult with the Department.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

German

GERM 211 Introductory Course in German A/B (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is equivalent to the second term of GERM 210. It is designed for students who have taken some German at the CEGEP level, or equivalent. May be taken concurrently with GERM 221 and/or GERM 235. Lectures and laboratory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GERM 210 may not take this course for credit.

GERM 220 Introduction to German Studies A/B (6 credits)
An introductory language course, which develops all basic skills. Emphasis on the audio-lingual approach; i.e., on speaking and understanding. May be taken concurrently with GERM 210 and/or GERM 235. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: This course does not count towards the requirements for any German programme.

GERM 221 Introduction to German Studies B (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is equivalent to the second term of GERM 220. It is designed for students who have taken some German at the CEGEP level, or equivalent. May be taken concurrently with GERM 211 and/or GERM 235. Lectures and laboratory. NOTE: Students who have received credit for GERM 220 may not take this course for credit.

GERM 235 Translation I (6 credits)
This course gives the student sufficient training to read German and to translate from German into English with reasonable competence. No previous knowledge of German required. Texts include a variety of reading materials of current interest. NOTE: This course alone may not be used as a prerequisite for advanced courses in German.

GERM 250 Intermediate German A/B (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 210 or GERM 220, or equivalent. Advanced instruction in the language. Emphasis upon idiom, and usage in conversation and composition. Readings from German authors and other texts. Lectures and laboratory.

GERM 251 Intermediate German B (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is equivalent to the second term of GERM 250. It is designed for students who have taken at least four semesters of German at the CEGEP level, or equivalent. May be taken concurrently with GERM 255. NOTE: Students who have received credit for GERM 250 may not take this course for credit.

GERM 255 Translation II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 210 or GERM 220, or equivalent. This course is a continuation of Translation I and presents more complicated problems of translation from German into English. It is also an introduction to the basic skills required to translate English into German.

GERM 260 German Culture (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 210, or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This is a course designed to develop the speaking ability of the student. The topic of the course is an introduction into the cultural heritage of the German-speaking people.

GERM 298 Selected Topics in German (3 credits)

GERM 299 Selected Topics in German (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

GERM 300 Advanced Composition and Stylistics (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 250 or GERM 255, or equivalent. This course is intended to give the student increased fluency in and a firmer command of the language. The emphasis of the course is on stylistics and composition.

GERM 305 Translation III (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 250, or equivalent. This course is a continuation of Translation II and deals with advanced problems and techniques of translating from English into German.

GERM 345 Germany and Austria in Modern Times (6 credits)
Socio-economic change and the development of nation-states in German Central Europe from the eighteenth century to the present.

GERM 360 German Civilization (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 250 or GERM 255, or equivalent. This course is designed to acquaint the student with the intellectual and cultural history of German-speaking nations as reflected in their writers.

GERM 398 Selected Topics in German (3 credits)

GERM 399 Selected Topics in German (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

ALL COURSES WITH NUMBERS 400 AND HIGHER ARE CONDUCTED IN GERMAN

GERM 400 Survey of German Literature 800 to 1600 (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 250, or equivalent, or permission of the Department. A survey of Old High German, Middle High German, and Early New High German literature.

GERM 405  German Literature from 1600 to 1750 (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 250, or equivalent, or permission of the Department. A detailed study of representative writers of the German Baroque, Rococo, and Enlightenment periods.

GERM 410  Literature of the Classic Period (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 250, or equivalent, or permission of the Department. Pre-classic and classic German literature, with its philosophical background.

GERM 415  Literature of the Romantic Period (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 250, or equivalent, or permission of the Department. Romanticism as a universal attitude. The works of the major German Romantics and their influence.

GERM 420  German Literature of the Nineteenth Century (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GERM 250, or equivalent, or permission of the Department. A study of representative works of post-Romantic authors and the writers of German realism.

Selected Topics in Linguistics
(6 credits)
prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

LING 300  Sociolinguistics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LING 200, or permission of the Department. A study of the beliefs, interrelationships, and values of societal groups as reflected in language.

LING 312  Theory of Grammars
Prerequisite: LING 200, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. This course deals with the history and development of grammatical theory prior to Chomsky. Considerable emphasis is placed on traditional grammar, the school of de Saussure, and Bloomfieldian structuralism. The principles of historical linguistics and the development of semantic theory and Meaning-Structure Grammar are also examined.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for LING 410 may not take this course for credit.

LING 320  Semantics I (3 credits)
This course introduces the basic notions required for analysis of meaning within a theory of language. The central objective is the representation of the logical structure of natural language as a basis for explaining how competent users interpret words, phrases, and sentences. Readings focus on elements of grammatical structure, lexical content, and the context of utterance. Some contemporary works in linguistic semantics are critically examined.

LING 321  Semantics II (3 credits)

LING 330  Sanskrit (6 credits)
Prerequisite: LING 200, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. An accelerated introduction to the fundamentals of Sanskrit grammar through the extensive reading of texts, first in transliteration and later in devanagari. Particular attention is given to the language of the Rig-Veda.

Prerequisite: LING 400, or equivalent. Subject raising; reflexive interpretation; structure-preserving, trace, and cyclic principles; constraints; fillers; the binding theory and current developments.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for LING 411 may not take this course for credit.

LING 421  Non-Indo-European Structures (6 credits)
Prerequisite: LING 200, or permission of the Department. This course is intended to give the student an in-depth acquaintance with the structures of several languages differing markedly in their nature from Indo-European. Possible areas of study might be Eskimo, Finnish, Japanese, Swahili, Turkish, some Amerindian or Malayo-Polynesian language, etc. As a general rule, only four languages are investigated in a particular year.

LING 431 Comparative Indo-European Linguistics (6 credits)
Prerequisite: LING 200, or permission of the Department. Through a comparative study of the phonology of the various branches of the Indo-European language family (Indo-Iranian, Hellenic, Italic, Germanic, Slavic, Baltic, etc.), this course familiarizes the student with the techniques used in linguistic reconstruction. Emphasis is given to the development and differentiation of languages through time.

LING 435 Advanced Indo-European Studies (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LING 431, previously or concurrently. Detailed study of the synchronic and diachronic grammar of an Indo-European dialect essential to the reconstruction of the proto-language. Extensive readings are undertaken in both original texts and in scholarly contributions to their elucidation. Emphasis is placed on current issues and research in the field.

LING 437 Problems in Indo-European Comparative Grammar (3 credits)
Prerequisite: LING 431, previously or concurrently. This course explores one or more areas of Indo-European comparative grammar of particular interest in current research. Extensive reading in the scholarly literature is undertaken with emphasis on the principles by which hypotheses in historical linguistics can be framed and the criteria for testing such hypotheses.

LING 441 Comparative Romance Linguistics (6 credits)
Prerequisite: LING 200, or permission of the Department. A study of the evolution of Classical into Vulgar Latin and its subsequent development into modern Romance dialects, such as Portuguese, Castilian, Catalan, Occitanian, French, Italian, Rumansch, Romanian, etc.

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The central mission of the Department is to contribute to the development of a critical, informed and open mind. Classes and scholarship within the Department therefore both concentrate on and extend beyond the principal philosophical traditions that have influenced Western thought. Undergraduate courses provide a sound general education while encouraging students to follow related interests, such as Political Science, Mathematics or Medicine. Specialization and Honours programmes prepare students for graduate studies. Students enrolled in Philosophy programmes are required to confirm their status with the Department during the second week of lectures of each year. Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

Courses

PHIL 201  Problems of Philosophy  (3 credits)
This course is designed for students who wish to be acquainted with philosophy through problems rather than through the historical approach. Methods used in philosophy are discussed and topics, such as the existence of God, the mind-body problem, freedom and determinism, rights and duties, are used to illustrate philosophical approaches.

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit by students who have taken PHIL 202 at Concordia; CEGEP students who have been exempted from PHIL 202 may take PHIL 201 for credit with the permission of the Department.

PHIL 202  Introduction to Philosophy  (6 credits)
A study of basic questions in the major areas of philosophy, and the classical attempts to answer them.

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with PHIL 201 at Concordia.

PHIL 211  Philosophical Classics  (6 credits)
A critical discussion of selected philosophical classics. Readings are chosen from Plato, Aristotle, Descartes, Hume, Kant, and one recent or contemporary philosopher.

PHIL 223  Critical Thinking  (3 credits)
This course is designed to help students to think more clearly and critically and to improve their ability to present, defend, and evaluate arguments. Sample topics may include the nature of definition, validity and truth, formal and informal fallacies.

PHIL 224  Introduction to Logic  (6 credits)
A study of the basic elements of Aristotelian and modern logic, including an analysis of argumentation, language, definition, fallacies, deduction, and induction.

PHIL 226  Elementary Deductive Logic  (3 credits)
This course begins with an analysis of syllogistic logic and proceeds to an extensive treatment of propositional logic. The course concludes with an examination of the rudiments of predicate logic. The techniques of constructing formal derivations are included.

PHIL 228  Methods of Enquiry  (3 credits)
A study of the methods and structure of basic types of organized knowledge: mathematics, science, history, and normative disciplines. This course discusses crucial concepts in scientific methodology, such as the axiomatic system, the hypothetico-deductive method, and scientific explanation.

PHIL 230  Human Identity  (3 credits)
A critical examination of some theories of human identity, including reference to male and female identity, the unity of self, and transcendence of self. Works are selected from the history of philosophy, literature, and the social sciences.

PHIL 231  Introduction to General Systems Theory (6 credits)
An elementary survey of the transdisciplinary general systems approach. Such basic concepts as structure information and regulation are explored, and a teleological framework suited to the social and behavioural sciences are developed.

PHIL 240  Philosophical Anthropology (6 credits)
A study of representative classical and contemporary positions on human nature, action, and life. Such topics as knowledge, affectivity, freedom, person, are treated.

PHIL 241  Ethics (6 credits)
A study of the principles underlying moral conduct with reference to classical and contemporary positions.

PHIL 242  Business Ethics (3 credits)
The purpose of this course is to elucidate the key ethical notions with reference to the business world. The intention is to make students aware of situations in which ethical implications arise rather than to impose specific rules.

PHIL 244  Social and Political Philosophy (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. This course treats of the individual in relation to the State and Society through the reading and discussion of selected texts. Problems treated: political authority, its sources and varieties; the limits of political authority; classical images of humanity; personality and society; the paradox of social control.

PHIL 245  Philosophy and Society (3 credits)
The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the philosophical treatment of social problems. Examples would include conceptions of the person as individual and as citizen, as free and as determined, as well as conceptions of the state and of the community.

PHIL 246  Introduction to Philosophy of Religion (3 credits)
This course examines the classical arguments for the existence of God. Course content includes the nature of faith and of religious experience, as well as the nature of religious language.

PHIL 248  Biomedical Ethics (3 credits)
This course is a study of the moral and legal norms involved in medical issues such as health care priorities; euthanasia; fertility control and abortion, protection of the incapable; preventive medicine; problems of physician and patient relationships; human experimentation; genetic engineering; and behaviour modification.

PHIL 255  Philosophy of Leisure (3 credits)
This course examines philosophical problems relating to such issues as: leisure, recreation, labour, time and fulfilment. The aim is to stimulate the student to think critically about the goals of individuals and of society as they concern these issues. The course is of interest to students in Recreation and Leisure Studies and to others interested in the problems of using free time to best advantage.

PHIL 298  Special Topics in Philosophy (3 credits)

PHIL 299  Special Topics in Philosophy (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

PHIL 310  Ancient Western Philosophy (6 credits)
A study of the principal developments from the Presocratics through Plato and Aristotle up to Plotinus. Emphasis is placed on the critical reading of selected texts.

PHIL 312  Existentialism (6 credits)
A course designed to acquaint the student with the fundamentals of the existentialist movement as a philosophical perspective. Among philosophers considered are Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Heidegger, Sartre, Merleau-Ponty, Jaspers, Marcel, and Berdyaev.

PHIL 313  Contemporary Philosophy (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A study of selected philosophers of the twentieth century. Movements and figures discussed vary from year to year. Such topics as the following are considered: positivism, pragmatism, Marxism, phenomenology, existentialism, and philosophical analysis.

PHIL 321  Symbolic Logic (6 credits)
An introduction to modern formal logic, its techniques and applications. The course covers sentential logic, first-order predicate logic with identity, intuitive set theory, relations, and functions.

PHIL 323  Predicate Logic (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHIL 226 or its equivalent. A study of first order predicate logic, including its meta theory. Some applications or extensions of the basic calculus are dealt with. NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with PHIL 321.

PHIL 328 Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth Century Science I (3 credits)
This course begins with a consideration of the structure and growth of scientific theories and of the relationship between theory and observation. This is followed by a fairly detailed exposition of Einstein's theories of special relativity and general relativity. The philosophical implications of the two theories is carefully considered, with particular attention being devoted to the fundamental revisions of the concepts of space and time, which these theories have forced upon us.

PHIL 329 Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth Century Science II (3 credits)
The major part of this course is devoted to the conceptual development of quantum mechanics, with special attention to such topics as the wave-particle duality, causality and determinism, the principle of indeterminacy, and the distinction between the knowing subject and the object of knowledge. It concludes with a discussion of Godel's celebrated incompleteness theorem, which has profound implications concerning our views on the relationship between logic and mathematics, the nature of mathematical truth and even for the ultimate prospects for the field of artificial intelligence.

PHIL 332 Philosophical Ideas in Literature I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy or permission of the Department. A critical examination of philosophical ideas as expressed in various literary works. The subject matter is chosen for its relevance to such themes as the nature of human action and interaction, choice, freedom, war and men, chance, and values. NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHIL 331 may not take this course for credit.

PHIL 333 Philosophical Ideas in Literature II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy or permission of the Department. An approach to philosophical ideas in literature through a comparison of authors. This could involve authors from different historical time frames, different cultural world views, or elaborate different perspectives of a single author. NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHIL 331 may not take this course for credit.

PHIL 334 Russian Anarchism and Marxism (3 credits)
The contradictory character of Russian cultural and philosophical development is used as a basis for an analysis of the main philosophical differences between Anarchism and Marxism as presented in the works and activities of its main protagonists (Bakunin, Kropotkin, Plekhanov, Lenin). Philosophical relevance of such major Russian writers as Dostoyevsky, Tolstoy, and Solzhenitsyn is shown as well.

PHIL 335 Contemporary Marxism (3 credits)
Critical and comparative analysis of different schools and individual thinkers of twentieth-century Marxism, in particular, those in Russia, Germany, and France. These positions are considered primarily on their philosophical merits.

PHIL 338 Philosophical Psychology (3 credits)
A critical examination of the explanation of human behaviour and the self in the light of new developments in philosophy and psychology. Detailed studies of selected problems such as motives, intention, the concept of person, choice, reason, freedom, purpose, and action.

PHIL 340 Contemporary Theories of Love (6 credits)
Prerequisite: One previous course in Philosophy. A two-semester topical analysis of love and attendant phenomena, with special emphasis on their metaphysical, epistemological, psychological, aesthetic, social, theological, and linguistic dimensions. The classes are conducted on a lecture-seminar basis.

PHIL 341 Political Philosophy (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. This course concentrates on the theoretical foundations of communism, fascism, and democracy through the reading and discussion of selected texts.

PHIL 342 Political Philosophy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. Critical analysis of contemporary political-philosophical concepts such as tolerance, violence, separatism, racism, and the nationalism of visible minorities.

PHIL 344 Law, Liberty, and Human Rights (3 credits)
In this course, the student examines several perspectives from which the problem of the relation between law and morality may be treated. Conflicting concepts of law, morality, and the relation of the individual to society are discussed. The problem of authority is examined in relation to issues of civil liberties, civil rights, and the social basis of legal conflicts.

PHIL 345 Philosophy of Social Science (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy or third-year standing in a social science department, or permission of the Department. Following the distinction between natural and social sciences, this course is concerned with philosophies of the social sciences. It investigates the structure, methodology, and problems of these sciences towards understanding and clarifying how they function as quasi-separable disciplines and how they contribute to a wider understanding of individuals and their varied social relations.

PHIL 346 Philosophy of Social Science (3 credits)
Philosophical examination of the structure and methodology of the social sciences. Special attention to problems of functionalism, teleological explanation, and the testing of social theories.

PHIL 347 Phenomenology and Psychology (3 credits)
This is an introduction to the fundamentals of Phenomenology through a study of conscious experience, both subjective and inter-subjective. Standard psychological models and methods are examined in order to open up phenomenological alternatives in the fields of aesthetics, literary criticism, religious and moral experience. Phenomenology complements psychological research in these areas.

PHIL 348 Philosophy of Culture (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. This course entails a philosophical critique of contemporary culture, stressing such issues as identity crisis, the weakening of structures of orthodoxy, meditation and humour in relation to the vita activa, work in relation to labour, and the socio-cultural manifestation of value crisis.

PHIL 349 Philosophy of Education (6 credits)
An examination of philosophical principles underlying educational theories and of the problems arising from the practical implementation of those theories.

PHIL 350 Philosophy of Communication (6 credits)
This course is concerned with a philosophical analysis of the foundations of communication acts: linguistic and non-linguistic, cognitive and affective.

PHIL 351 Philosophy of Religion (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A critical assessment of modern developments in Philosophy regarding the question of whether the thinking individual can maintain a religious belief in God.

PHIL 352 Philosophy of History (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in History, or permission of the Department. An analysis of the nature of historical knowledge and explanation is followed by a study of classical and contemporary attempts to elucidate the meaning of history. Authors discussed include Augustine, Vico, Kant, Hegel, Marx, Spengler, Popper, Toynbee.

PHIL 353 Aesthetics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A philosophical analysis of selected aspects of the aesthetic experience and the logic of appraisal. Specimen topics include perception in art, symbolic expression, the role of feeling and emotion in aesthetic judgment, objectivity and subjectivity of value judgments, commensurability of values.

PHIL 354 Artificial Intelligence (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy or in Computer Science. The purpose of this course is to explore the analogy between mental activity and the operation of computers or "electronic brains"; with a view to answering the question: Can machines think? Such topics as the following are treated: the concept of the Turing machine; the Turing test of intelligence; the functionalist theory of the mind; the nature of creativity; and the alleged implications of Gödel's incompleteness theorem.

PHIL 357 Philosophy of Law: General Jurisprudence (3 credits)
A philosophical study of natural law, legal positivist and legal realist replies to the question of what law is. Contemporary and classical replies are criticized and are applied to cases. The associated issues of legal moralism, legal justice, legal obligation and its limits, and legal reasoning are treated.

PHIL 358 Legal Philosophy: Legal Rights and Duties (3 credits)
A philosophical study of the nature, sources and functions of rights and duties. Attention is given to the particular rights associated with contract and property, and their abuse, to duties arising by law alone, to excuses and justifications for failure to fulfill duties, and to enforcement, punishment and compromise.

PHIL 362 Second-Year Seminar (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. Problems in Moral Philosophy, with topics to be announced. This seminar conducts the students through a series of problems on moral topics.

PHIL 398 Intermediate Special Topics in Philosophy (3 credits)

PHIL 399 Intermediate Special Topics in Philosophy (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

PHIL 410 Medieval Philosophy (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PHIL 310, or permission of the Department. A study of Western Philosophy from Augustine to the later Scholastics.

PHIL 412 Modern Philosophy (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A study of Western Philosophy from Descartes to Hume.

PHIL 417 Nineteenth-Century Philosophy (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. An examination of some of the main currents of post-Kantian philosophy. Hegel and the post-Hegelians, the romantic reaction, positivism, and pragmatism.

PHIL 421 Philosophy of Science (6 credits)
Prerequisite: One course in logic, or permission of the Department. A critical examination of problems pertaining to the structure and status of scientific theories and the logic of scientific inference. Such topics as the following are discussed: explanation, confirmation, verifiability and falsifiability, problems of definition, observational and theoretical terms, models and analogies.

PHIL 422 Advanced Topics in Logic (3 credits)
Prerequisite: A 300-level course in Symbolic Logic, or permission of the Department. This course is designed to extend the basic knowledge of logic by introducing students to areas such as modal logic, deontic logic, higher-order calculi, logical theory, and logical semantics.

PHIL 449 Phenomenology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. Origins and development of phenomenology from Brentano and Meinong through the different stages of Husserl's writings. Post-Husserlian modifications are considered briefly. The second term is devoted to a discussion of the influence of the phenomenological movement on contemporary developments in the social sciences and humanities. Actual topics are determined by the student's areas of interest and academic qualifications.

PHIL 453 Epistemology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A study of characteristic problems in epistemology, with particular emphasis on their historical and systematic contexts. The concepts analyzed include fundamental questions in the empirical sciences.

PHIL 454 Metaphysics (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. In this course, metaphysics is treated in two ways: firstly, the problem of being in classical and contemporary ontologies; secondly, the metaphysical suppositions underlying epistemological, moral, and social theories.

PHIL 455 Aesthetics II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. This course examines central problems in the philosophy of art and sensibility, examining the works of major authors in this area, such as Aristotle, Longinus, Kant, Hegel, Dewey, Santayana.

PHIL 456 Recent Ethical Theory (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A critical analysis of leading contemporary ethical theories from Moore to the present. Special attention is given to the naturalistic fallacy, the reducibility or normative statements, ethical reasoning, and the relation of ethics to psychology and sociology.

PHIL 457 Philosophy of God (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. The problem of the natural knowledge of God, including readings from Plato, Aristotle, Anselm, Aquinas, Descartes, Hume, Pascal, Kant, Hegel, Feuerbach, Marx, Kierkegaard, Newman, Nietzsche, Sartre, Ayer, and Russell.

PHIL 460 Honours Seminar in Epistemology and Metaphysics (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. Intensive study of major contemporary issues in the theory of knowledge and metaphysics, the course is designed to accommodate honours students in any department.

PHIL 467 Contemporary Analytic Philosophy I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. The investigation of selected philosophical problems as they arise in the writings of such early analytic philosophers as Moore, Russell, Ayer, Carnap, and the early Wittgenstein.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHIL 469 may not take this course for credit.

PHIL 468 Contemporary Analytic Philosophy II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. The investigation of selected philosophical problems as they arise in the writings of such later analytic philosophers as the later Wittgenstein, Quine, Ryle, Wisdom, Austin, and others.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHIL 469 may not take this course for credit.

PHIL 471 Tutorial in Philosophy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This is an opportunity to carry out a personal project under the supervision of a Faculty member. An intensive reading programme is undertaken in the student's area of special interest. Tutorials may be arranged with any Faculty member, and students must make these arrangements and obtain written permission in advance of registration.

PHIL 472 Tutorial in Philosophy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. See PHIL 471 for description.
NOTE: Students who have completed PHIL 471 may take this tutorial for credit provided the subject matter is different.

PHIL 485 Kant (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in Philosophy,

Department Objectives

In the twentieth century, breakthroughs in physics have revolutionized thinking about the fundamentals of matter, motion and energy. Physics is the study of these fundamentals. The Physics Department is committed to preparing students for careers or advanced study in both the theoretical and applied aspects of physics. Students in the Co-op programme gain valuable job experience and discover the career opportunities open to them in addition to regular course work.

Programmes

Students are required to complete the appropriate entrance profile for entry into the programme (see §31.002 — Programmes and Admission Requirements — Profiles).

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

PHYSICS CO-OPERATIVE PROGRAMME

Director
NELSON W. EDDY, Associate Professor

The Physics Co-operative programme is offered to students who are enrolled in the BSc Honours and Specialization in Physics. Students interested in applying for the Physics Co-op should refer to §24 where a full description of the admission requirements is provided. Academic content is very similar to that of the regular programmes, with some specific recommendations for courses to improve the student’s job skills. While it is hoped that most of the positions will be in the Montréal area, students must be prepared to work in other parts of Canada.

Students are supervised personally and must meet the requirements specified by the Faculty of Arts and Science and the Institute for Co-operative Education in order to continue their studies in the co-op format.

Courses

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

PHYS 204  Mechanics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 203, or equivalent, previously or concurrently. Kinematics, Newton’s Laws of Motion, Statics, Dynamics, Conservation of momentum and energy, Rotational motion, Periodic motion. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration. See PHYS 224 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYS 205  Electricity and Magnetism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 203; PHYS 204, or equivalent. Electrical charge and Coulomb’s Law, Electrical field and potential, Capacity, steady state, and transient currents, Electromagnetic induction and alternating currents. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration. See PHYS 225 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYS 206  Waves and Modern Physics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 204, or equivalent. Simple harmonic motion, Wave propagation, Superposition, Stationary waves, Doppler effect, Interference, Diffraction, Photoelectric effect, Compton effect, Bohr’s atom, Radioactivity, fission, fusion. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration. See PHYS 226 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYS 207  Heat and Sound (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits of CEGEP Physics, and six credits of CEGEP Calculus or equivalent. Temperature and thermometry, heat effects, measurement and transfer, thermal properties of matter, thermodynamics, first and second laws, kinetic theory, waves, vibrations, and acoustical phenomena. Lectures: three hours per week.
NOTE: This course is intended for pre-Engineering students. Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 210  Discoveries in Physics (6 credits)
A non-mathematical course in physics specifically designed for students who have had little or no experience in physics. It traces the fundamental ideas from which modern physics has emerged and attempts to develop insights into the understanding of natural phenomena. Lectures only.
NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 215  The Mechanics of Visual Representation (3 credits)
An introductory course combining laboratories and lectures illustrating the basic laws that govern the mechanism of image reproduction. Relevant topics concerning the interaction of light and materials are discussed and demonstrated. Students perform experiments with light-sensitive materials, the pinhole camera, light intensity, and illumination measurement. Human visual response, the grey scale, sensiometry, densitometry, the characteristic curve and ASA, DIN; film speeds are examined in depth. This course is designed to complement COMS 275 (Visual Dynamics I). This course is designed for students in Communication Studies. Laboratory and lectures: three hours per week.
NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 217  The Physics of Photoreproduction (3 credits)
A combined laboratory and lecture course designed for students in Communication Studies who have some basic knowledge of physical laws. Ideas introduced in the “Mechanics of Visual Representation” (PHYS 215) are further developed, covering such topics as exposure measurements and control, and the Standard Association Institute Photographic Exposure Guide. The mechanics of a lens, image formation, f-stops diaphragm openings, the three-colour composition of light, the colour-temperature scale, and filters are studied. This course is designed so that students gain an intelligent and efficient use of their equipment. Laboratory and lecture: 3 hours per week.
NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit.
PHYS 219 Physics of Photography (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits of CEGEP Physics, or equivalent. This course is intended for students in University science programmes. It includes the following topics: light, illumination; the photographic process, tone reproduction, the grey scale; sensimetry; the characteristic curve; characteristic curve analysis, gamma, contrast index, film speeds; exposure measurement and control; the exposure guide; previsionalization, exposure zones; correct exposure, control of development; optics: image formation, lenses, standards of definition, depth of focus, depth of field; covering power, perspective: image brightness, exposure, shutters; colour analysis, filters. Lectures and laboratories: three hours per week.

PHYS 224 Introductory Experimental Mechanics (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 204, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. A laboratory course covering fundamental experiments in classical mechanics. Experiments include: resolution of forces, centrifugal force and conservation of energy, pendulums. Laboratory only, 10 experiments.

NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration.

PHYS 225 Introductory Experimental Electricity (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 205, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. A laboratory course covering fundamental experiments in electricity. Experiments include Kirchhoff's Law, resistors in series and parallel, oscilloscope, induction, alternating current. Laboratory only, 10 experiments.

NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration.

PHYS 226 Introductory Experimental Waves and Modern Physics (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 206, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. A laboratory course covering the fundamental experiments in waves and modern physics. Experiments include spectrometer measurements. Newton's rings and measurements involving radioactivity. Laboratory only, 10 experiments.

NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit to be applied to their programme of concentration.

PHYS 232 Theoretical Physics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 262, previously or concurrently. Linear algebra - abstract vector space, fundamental concepts of the vector space; linear maps and their representation, orthogonal maps, products of linear maps; an introduction to the eigenvalue problem. Introduction to differential equations - linear first-order and second-order ordinary differential equations (homogeneous and non-homogeneous); general method to find particular solutions; the power-series method: problems from mechanics and electricity. Lectures only.

PHYS 233 Computational Methods in Physics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 243; PHYS 253, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. Applications of computers to solve physics problems: solutions of systems of linear equations, least squares analysis; curve fitting/plotting; numerical integration; Monte Carlo techniques. Emphasis on Fortran, but Basic, Pascal or C may be used.

PHYS 241 Biomechanics of Human Motion (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 204, or equivalent. The application of elementary laws of mechanics to the understanding of static equilibrium conditions of the human body subjected to external forces — the efficiency of human movement seen from the reference point of physical laws as applied to sports. This course is intended for the physiotherapist, the athlete, and all those interested in understanding body mechanics in the light of inanimate physical laws. Lectures only.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHYS 243 or equivalent may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 243 Classical Mechanics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 205; PHYS 204, or equivalent. Fundamental concepts, the laws of motion, equilibrium of forces, friction, forces of constraint, centre of mass, work, potential, motion of a particle, motion in resisting media, simple harmonic oscillation, damped oscillations. Lectures only.

NOTE: See PHYS 291 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYS 244 Classical Mechanics II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 243, or equivalent. Central forces, Kepler's Laws, dynamics of a system of particles, mechanics of rigid bodies, Lagrange's equations, Hamilton's equations. Lectures only.

NOTE: See PHYS 292 for laboratory associated with this course.
PHYS 252 Optics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 205, or equivalent. Geometrical optics: general treatment of optical systems. Wave optics: review of simple harmonic motion, wave equation, superposition of waves, electromagnetic waves, scattering, polarization, interference-coherent sources, interference-uniformly extended sources, diffraction, waves in a dispersive medium, lasers. Lectures only. NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHYS 352 may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 253 Electricity and Magnetism I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 205, or equivalent; MATH 262, or equivalent, previously or concurrently. Electric charge, Coulomb's Law, electrostatic forces, electric field, Gauss's Law, electric potential, stored energy. Dielectrics, properties of materials in electric fields. Electric current, conduction in a vacuum and in material media, displacement current, magnetic field of a current, force on a current-carrying wire, magnetic induction, electromagnetic force, energy stored in a magnetic field. Magnetism in material media, magnetic circuits, Time-varying fields. Capacitance, resistance, inductance; circuitry. Lectures only. NOTE: See PHYS 293 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYS 254 Electricity and Magnetism II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 253, or equivalent; MATH 263, or equivalent, previously or concurrently. The field concept. Maxwell's equations. Boundary conditions. Power and energy. The electrostatic field. Electrostatic potential. The concept of capacitance. Polarization. The concept of local field in matter. The magnetostatic field. The Biot-Savart Law. The scalar magnetic potential. Plane waves. Total internal reflection. Lectures only. NOTE: See PHYS 294 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYS 270 Introduction to Energy and Environment (3 credits)
This course is designed for students who have little or no background in physics. Topics covered include: relationship of physics to environment and energy. Concept and definition of work and energy. Interaction of people and inanimate objects with the environment. Heat and chemical energy. Electromagnetic and nuclear energy. Conservation of energy — how it affects everyday life. Sources of energy used on earth. Solar energy. Production of wind power, water power, solar cells from sun's energy, biological uses, biopower. Lectures only. NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 273 Energy and Environment (3 credits)

PHYS 291 Experimental Mechanics I (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 243, previously or concurrently. A laboratory course in mechanics. Experiments include pendulum, coefficient of restitution, centrifugal force, rotational inertia, inelastic impact.

PHYS 292 Experimental Mechanics II (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 291. A laboratory course in mechanics. Experiments include the use of air tracks to study acceleration, collisions, dissipative forces, and periodic motion. Other experiments include viscosity and surface tension of liquids.

PHYS 293 Experimental Electricity and Magnetism I (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 293, previously or concurrently. A laboratory course in electricity and magnetism. Experiments include motion of electrons in electric and magnetic fields, exponential relaxation, damped oscillations, resonance, non-linearity, negative resistance.

PHYS 294 Experimental Electricity and Magnetism II (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 293. A laboratory course in electricity and magnetism. Experiments include the transistor, amplification and frequency response, transient response and negative feedback, positive feedback and oscillation, periodic structures.

PHYS 295 Experimental Electronics I (2 credits)
A practical laboratory course in electronics. Experiments include resistors in series and parallel, voltmeter, Ohm's law, Kirchhoff's current and voltage laws, Ohmmeter, capacitor, inductor, transformer, rectifiers, voltage doubler, zener diode, power supplies.

PHYS 296 Experimental Electronics II (2 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 295. A practical laboratory course in electronics. Experiments include oscilloscope, biasing of bipolar transistors, transistor amplifiers, voltage and current regulators, field-effect transistor, oscillators, operational amplifier circuits, audio amplifier, I-F transformer, limiter, amplitude and frequency modulation.

PHYS 297 Experimental Optics (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 295, previously or concurrently. An experimental course in optics. Experiments include diffraction, optical instruments, resonance, and various experiments using lasers. Laboratory only, 10 experiments.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHYS 392 may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 298 Selected Topics in Physics (3 credits)
PHYS 299 Selected Topics in Physics (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

PHYS 300 Physics of Sound (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 299, previously or concurrently. Linear algebra: linear map, linear coordinate transformations, eigenvalue problem, vector space of functions, Sturm-Liouville problem, Fourier series and applications. Lectures only.

PHYS 301 Theoretical Physics II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 299, previously or concurrently. Linear algebra: linear map, linear coordinate transformations, eigenvalue problem, vector space of functions, Sturm-Liouville problem, Fourier series and applications. Lectures only.

PHYS 302 Theoretical Physics III (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 301, or equivalent. Classification and derivation of partial differential equations in physics. Separation of variables technique. The Fourier method for solving partial differential equations. Special functions. Application to physical problems arising from electrostatics, heat conduction, wave propagation, etc. Lectures only.

PHYS 344 Advanced Classical Mechanics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 292, or equivalent; PHYS 294, or equivalent; MATH 263, or equivalent, previously or concurrently. Lagrangian and Hamiltonian dynamics, collision between particles, motion of rigid bodies, Hamilton-Jacobi theory, small oscillations. Lectures only.

PHYS 345 Special Relativity (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 244; PHYS 254; PHYS 364. Historical introduction, Einstein and relativity, application of the Lorentz transformation, four-vectors, the Lorentz invariance of physical theories. Lectures only.

PHYS 346 Electronics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 295, or equivalent. Semi-conductor physics: p-n junction, bipolar transistor, field-effect transistor, circuit theory, diode applications, bipolar transistor: h-parameters, small-signal amplifiers. Lectures only.

PHYS 347 Electronics II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 346. Biassing of transistors; feedback analysis, common circuits involving operational amplifiers; large signal amplifiers, digital circuits: gates, flip-flops, logic functions. Lectures only.

PHYS 348 Atomic Physics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 205, or equivalent; PHYS 206, or equivalent; PHYS 254 recommended. Special relativity, Wave-particle duality. The Rutherford atom, the Bohr-Sommerfeld atom. Origin of quantum theory. Schroedinger's equation, Electrons and ions. Electromagnetic radiation. Atomic structure. Lectures only.

PHYS 349 Introduction to Astronomy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 205, or equivalent; PHYS 206, or equivalent. The celestial sphere. The solar system. Celestial mechanics. Basic stellar characteristics. The galaxy — structure and content. Extragalactic objects. Lectures only.
PHYS 385  Astrophysics (3 credits)

PHYS 390  Experimental Digital Electronics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 296, or equivalent. Breadboarding digital circuits; gating a signal; truth tables; decade counter; decoders, demultiplexers, multiplexers and sequencers; light-emitting diodes and LED displays; tristate and open collector outputs; flip-flops, monostable multivibrators; semiconductor memories; registers, binary counters, arithmetic elements; Schmitt triggers. Laboratory only.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHYS 396 may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 391  Introduction to Experimental Microprocessors and Assembly Language Programming (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 233; COMP 212, or equivalent. 8-bit microprocessor architecture with emphasis on Motorola 6800, 6809: opcodes, addressing modes, memory mapped I/O, vectored interrupts, etc. The MS/DOS operating system, word processing, Motorola assembly language; pseudocodes, labels, subroutines, interrupt service routines, structured programming techniques. Cross assemblers, RS232 serial transmission of ASCII and binary data to remote computers. Laboratory only.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHYS 396 may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 393  Experimental Thermodynamics (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 334, previously or concurrently. A laboratory course in thermodynamics. Experiments include Clement and Desormes' experiment, vaporization, specific heats, liquid nitrogen boiling. Laboratory only, 10 experiments.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PHYS 494 may not take this course for credit.

PHYS 394  Experimental Atomic Physics (1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 226, or equivalent, or permission of the Department. An experimental course in atomic physics. Experiments include the Frank-Hertz experiment, the Zeeman effect, mass spectrometer, and some X-ray work. Laboratory only, 10 experiments.

PHYS 396  Computer Electronics (5 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 296, or equivalent. Diode clipping circuits, transistor as a switch, multivibrator circuits, logic circuits. Study and troubleshooting of integrated circuit logic gates, J-K flip-flops, analogue-to-digital and digital-to-analogue converters, frequency-divider circuits, digital multiplexers and demultiplexers, pulse-distributor logic gates. Study and implementation of basic logic functions and Boolean expressions to programme a small digital computer. Laboratory only.

PHYS 397  Experimental Medical Electronics (5 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 296, or equivalent. A laboratory course in the maintenance and use of medical instruments, including ECG monitor, electrocardiograph, cardio-tachometer, blood-pressure recorder, respiration-rate recorder, and clinical thermometer. The component parts of the instruments are studied first, and then the instruments are constructed and operated. Laboratory only.

PHYS 398  Selected Topics in Physics (3 credits)

PHYS 399  Selected Topics in Physics (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

PHYS 435  Statistical Physics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 334; PHYS 364. Basic probability concepts, statistical description of systems of particles, thermal interactions, microscopic theory and macroscopic measurements, temperature and entropy, M-B, F-D, B-E statistics. Canonical distribution in the classical approximation, general thermodynamics interaction. Lectures only.

PHYS 436  Theoretical Physics IV (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 335. Theory of complex variables leading to residue theory, with applications to physics. Tensor calculus: tensor algebra; line element, covariant differentiation; applications. Lectures only.

PHYS 455  Electromagnetic Theory I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 254; PHYS 336. Derivation of the laws of electrostatics and magnetostatics from the basic experimental laws; methods of images; solutions of Laplace's and Poisson's equations for electrostatic problems, magnetism, Maxwell's equations. Lectures only.
PHYS 457  Electromagnetic Theory II
(3 credits)

PHYS 465  Nuclear Physics
(3 credits)
NOTE: See PHYS 495 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYS 467  Solid State Physics
(3 credits)

PHYS 477  Quantum Mechanics I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 244; PHYS 335; PHYS 364. State functions and their interpretation, wave packet, linear momentum, motion of a free particle, Schrödinger’s equation, stationary state, solution, potential wells. Lectures only.

PHYS 478  Quantum Mechanics II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 477. The harmonic oscillator, creation operators, approximation methods of solving Schrödinger’s equation, perturbation theory, system of particles, motion in three dimensions, spin, angular momentum, hydrogen atom. Lectures only.

PHYS 480  Directed Readings in Theoretical Physics
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. A course for advanced students in which a special topic, selected in consultation with a faculty member, is studied in depth.

PHYS 491  Experimental Microprocessor Interfacing
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 390; PHYS 391, or equivalent. Address decoding, multiplexing and demultiplexing with TTL integrated circuits. Address decoding circuits, drivers and receivers. Parallel, serial and non-TTL I/O. The STD bus and the Motorola 6800/6809 MPU. Breadboarding, wiring and soldering techniques. The use of oscilloscopes, logic probes and computers for circuit troubleshooting. Drawing schematic diagrams. Timing diagrams. Data sheets. Laboratory only.

PHYS 495  Experimental Nuclear Physics
(1 credit)
Prerequisite: PHYS 394; PHYS 465, previously or concurrently. A laboratory course in nuclear physics. Experiments include gamma- and beta-ray spectroscopy, nuclear magnetic resonance, absolute counting, half-life determination, nuclear activities. Laboratory only, 10 experiments.

PHYS 496  Methods of Experimental Physics
(4 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 294; PHYS 296; PHYS 394, or equivalent, or permission of the Department. Projects may include experiments in nuclear physics, optics, solid state, etc. Two examples are a fibre optics laboratory (with laser) and detection and analysis of environmental radioactivity (e.g., radon gas). Students are encouraged to propose projects and have the opportunity to design and build equipment. Laboratory only.

PHYS 498  Advanced Topics in Physics
(3 credits)

PHYS 499  Advanced Topics in Physics
(6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The Department of Political Science offers a wide range of courses and programmes to acquaint students with the complex workings of contemporary government and politics. The curriculum provides the theoretical foundations, analytical skills, and research methods for understanding the making of government policy as well as the underlying nature and purpose of political processes and institutions. The aim is to prepare well-rounded, concerned citizens for careers in the public service and the private sector, or for graduate or law school.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

BA Honours in Political Science

60

- POLI 200
- 6 Chosen from POLI 270, 271, 273
- 6 Chosen from POLI 372 or 374
- 42 Chosen from at least three of the five groups in Political Science, with a minimum of 30 credits taken at the 300 or 400 level, of which must be seminar courses.*

*Six credits may be taken in a cognate discipline with the permission of the Department.

BA Specialization in Political Science

60

- POLI 200
- 12 Chosen from Group V: Theory
- 42 Chosen from at least two of the other four groups in Political Science. A minimum of 30 credits must be taken at the 300 or 400 level, six of which must be a seminar course.*

*Six credits may be taken in a cognate discipline with the permission of the Department.

BA Honours in Political Science (Concentration in a Special Field of Study)

60

- POLI 200, 270, or 271 and 273, 372 or 374
- 18 Chosen from at least three of the five groups in Political Science
- 24 Chosen from one of the five groups in Political Science with a minimum of 12 credits taken at the 400 level.*

*Six credits may be taken in a cognate discipline with the permission of the Department.

BA Major in Political Science

42

- POLI 200
- 36 Chosen from at least three of the five groups in Political Science. A minimum of 24 credits must be taken at the 300 or 400 level.

The Department of Political Science offers the following programmes of study: a general Honours; an Honours, with concentration in a special field of study; a Specialization; a general Major; a Major, with concentration in a special field of study; and a Minor. In order to maintain Honours status, students must obtain approval for their programmes from the Honours adviser each year prior to registration. In the second year of the Honours programme, each student will choose a faculty adviser to advise the student on course selection and seminar research essays. The Specialization is designed for students who wish to acquire a broad knowledge of the discipline without the additional requirements of the Honours programme. The programme of courses leading to a Minor in Political Science consists of 24 credits in the Department. The Minor is designed to provide an opportunity for students to make a combination with a Specialization, a Major, or Honours in another discipline. A student's Minor will be arranged in consultation with the Department of Political Science so that it relates to courses in the Major area of study.

Explanation of Course Numbers.
1. Courses in the 200 range are open to all Political Science students, and to students in other departments.
2. All 400-level courses are taught as seminars and require at least one 300-level prerequisite.
3. Special permission of the Department is required for exemptions to the above.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

POLI 200  Introduction to Political Science (6 credits)
A description of the features universal to the governing processes of societies, and the nature and consequences of the major variations in these processes. The course combines a theoretical and conceptual framework, with a study of selected political systems and countries. It is designed to act both as an introduction to the discipline for those students who plan to study further and to serve also those students who require a systematic examination of the field in a single course.

POLI 210  International Relations (6 credits)
An introductory course in world affairs. Among the topics covered are: the historical evolution of the international system; definitions of basic concepts; types of conflict and cooperation among states; environmental, economic, socio-cultural, and ideological factors; critical problems, current issues, and major trends in world politics.

POLI 240  Canadian Public Law (6 credits)
This course is an introduction to Canadian public law, emphasizing such areas as constitutional law, criminal law, administrative law, applications for bail, and consumer protection. In addition, the course involves a study of the organization and functioning of the court system.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for POLI 350 may not take this course for credit.

POLI 250  Canadian Government and Politics (6 credits)
An institutional and functional analysis of the Canadian federal system. The course centres upon the major problems of concern in the Canadian political process and considers the formal and informal institutions within which these problems might be solved. The political system is studied within the context of federalism; the electoral system; political parties; interest groups; public opinion and the Canadian political culture.

POLI 260  Introduction to Public Policy and Administration (6 credits)
An introductory course in the processes of implementing and making policy as practised in the principal political systems of the modern world. The course emphasizes the role of the civil service at the various levels of government in preparing and executing public policies and legislation.

POLI 270  History of Political Theory (6 credits)
A general survey of the writings of the great thinkers in the Western political tradition, from the classical period to the middle of the nineteenth century. This course provides a general introduction to the history of political thought.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for POLI 271 or 273 may not take this course for credit.

POLI 271  Ancient Greek Political Philosophy (3 credits)
A study of the political thought of the ancient Greeks. The principal texts studied are The Republic of Plato and The Politics of Aristotle. This course is particularly recommended for students in the political theory area of concentration.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for POLI 270 may not take this course for credit.

POLI 273  Roman, Medieval, and Renaissance Political Philosophy (3 credits)
A study of the political thought of Rome, the Middle Ages, and the Renaissance, with special emphasis upon the political writings of Cicero, St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, and Machiavelli. This course is recommended for students in the political theory area of concentration.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for POLI 270 may not take this course for credit.

POLI 275  Women and Politics (3 credits)
A study of the role of women in public movements, public policy and political parties, with reference to ideology theories on the role of women in society.

POLI 298  Selected Topics in Political Science (3 credits)
POLI 299  Selected Topics in Political Science (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

POLI 311  International Public Law (3 credits)
An introductory course in legal interstate relations. Among the topics covered are: the sources and development of law; relationships with municipal law; meaning of legal concepts; rights and duties of states; sovereignty and territoriality; state recognition and succession.

POLI 313 International Law and Power Relations (3 credits)
A general course on the role of law in world politics. Among the topics covered are: the theory and reality of law; international transactions and diplomatic law; customary and treaty law; judicial settlement of disputes; the laws of war and neutrality.

POLI 315 International Organizations (3 credits)

Department Objectives

Psychology is the scientific study of mental life, both its neurological bases and its manifestations in behaviour. Psychology also examines the factors that promote change in behaviour and mental activity.

Through teaching and research, the Department serves the community by furthering such knowledge and applying it to promote human welfare. The commitment of faculty members to research assures that students keep up with current developments. Their involvement in community programmes keeps students and faculty alike in close touch with the practical application of the discipline.

Programmes

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

PSYCHOLOGY - 341
Students must apply to the Departmental Honours adviser for formal admission to Honours programmes. The application is usually made after completion of the first-year courses. For additional information concerning programmes and courses, students should consult the course guide published annually by the Department.

12 Psychology electives at the 300 and 400 level selected in consultation with a psychology programme adviser.

NOTE: In addition students must take a minimum of 15 science credits outside the Department selected in consultation with a psychology programme adviser.

Psychobiology Option

Students wishing to do BSc Specialization (Psychobiology Option) must take six credits of PSYC 358, 359, 362, 365, and 367 as part of their Psychology programme. To complete the option students will select 21 credits in Chemistry and Biology from the courses listed below. Fifteen (15) of these 21 credits will replace the 15 outside credits of science electives. Up to six of these 21 credits may be substituted for six credits of Psychology electives.

Stage I
6 CHEM 221\(^3\) and 222\(^3\)
6 BIOL 230\(^1\) and CHEM 271\(^3\)

Stage II and III
9 Chosen from BIOL 261\(^2\), 321\(^3\), 333\(^4\), 335\(^1\), 336\(^1\), 339\(^4\), 340\(^1\), 364\(^3\), 462\(^2\), CHEM 473\(^3\), 474\(^3\), 475\(^1\), 476\(^3\), 478\(^3\)

42 BA Major in Psychology

Stage I
12 PSYC 310\(^3\), 315\(^3\) concurrently.
PSYC 320
Stage II and III
12 Chosen from PSYC 343, 346, 349, 352, 358, 365
12 Chosen from PSYC 330, 333, 336, 339
6 Psychology electives at 300 or 400 level except PSYC 358, 359, 362, 365, 367; selected in consultation with a psychology programme adviser.

PSYC 353, 355
Stage II and III
12 Chosen from PSYC 343, 346, 349, 352, 358, 359, 362, 365, 366, 367
6 Psychology electives at 300 or 400 level selected in consultation with a psychology programme adviser.

NOTE: Students in programmes leading to the BSc degree are reminded that PSYC 320 and PSYC 390-394 do not count as science credits. All other 300 and 400 level Psychology courses count as science credits.

Students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

PSYC 200  Introductory Psychology (6 credits)
This comprehensive survey course introduces the student to the phenomena and terminology encountered in a number of areas of scientific psychology. Topics covered include basic mechanisms of the receptors and nervous system, memory, motivation, perception, learning, abnormal psychology, personality, cognition, and social aspects of behaviour.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for or exemption from Introductory Psychology at CEGEP or elsewhere may not take this course for credit.
NOTE: Students entering PSYC programmes who have not received credit for or exemption from Introductory Psychology at CEGEP or elsewhere must take this course, but not for Psychology programme credit.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 200 or equivalent may not take MANA 213 for credit.

PSYC 281  Learning Disabilities (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Introductory Psychology or equivalent. This course deals with selected aspects of theory and practice related to learning disabilities including perceptual and motor disabilities, language disabilities and methods of diagnosis and remediation.
NOTE: Students registered in a Psychology programme may not take this course for credit.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 377 or 392 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 283  Emotional Development (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Introductory Psychology or equivalent. This course focuses on emotional development in childhood. Topics that may be considered include prenatal and genetic influences on emotion, attachment formation, effects of alternative child care, role of father and poverty. The normal development of anxiety, fear, and affection is discussed.
NOTE: This course is intended primarily for students in the Family Life Education Certificate programme (Department of Applied Social Science).
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 220, Sec. A or B (1980-81); Sec. B (1981-82); or Sec. A (1982-83) may not take this course for credit.
NOTE: Students registered in a Psychology programme may not take this course for credit.
PSYC 284 Socialization (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Introductory Psychology or equivalent. This course examines socialization processes during infancy, childhood, and adolescence. The effects on socialization of factors such as family structure, disciplinary techniques, and social class are considered. The development of social skills, morality, pro-social behaviour, and aggression are examined.

NOTE: This course is intended primarily for students in the Family Life Education Certificate programme (Department of Applied Social Science.)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 221, Sec. B or C (1980-81); Sec. A (1981-82); or Sec. A (1982-83) may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: Students registered in a Psychology programme may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 286 Psychology of Leisure (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Introductory Psychology or equivalent. This course explores the rapidly developing psychologically oriented theory and research on leisure and its meaning and importance for the individual. Topics that may be considered include motivation for leisure activities, planning for leisure and/or retirement, therapeutic value of leisure, new conceptions of work and leisure, leisure and self-development.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 222, Sec. 60 (1981); Sec. 02 (1981-82) or Sec. 51 (1982-83); or PSYC 223, Sec. 60 (1982) may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: Students registered in a Psychology programme may not take this course for credit.

SELECTED TOPICS IN PSYCHOLOGY
The 200-level Selected Topics courses (PSYC 297; PSYC 298; PSYC 299) are designed as elective courses for students who are not registered in a psychology programme. These courses, which have only Introductory Psychology (usually CEGEP 102 or PSYC 200) or equivalent as a prerequisite, cover a wide variety of areas of contemporary interest. The particular topics vary from session to session and the material is dealt with in a manner appropriate for students who have minimal formal background in psychology. Students should consult the Psychology Department Course Guide (published yearly) to find out the topic titles for a particular session.

NOTE: Students registered in a Psychology programme may not take these courses for credit.

The Department also offers 300 and 400 level topic courses for students registered in Psychology programmes. (See below.)

PSYC 297 Selected Topics in Psychology (3 credits)

PSYC 298 Selected Topics in Psychology (3 credits)

PSYC 299 Selected Topics in Psychology (6 credits)

PSYC 310 Research Methods in Experimental Psychology I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Introductory Psychology or equivalent; PSYC 315 to be taken concurrently. An examination of the experimental method in psychology. Students complete experimental projects to acquaint themselves with procedures in various areas of psychology, such as perception, learning, and motivation. Statistical procedures for analysis of the results of the experiments are presented in the concurrently taught course in psychological statistics. Lectures and laboratory.

PSYC 311 Research Methods in Experimental Psychology II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315; PSYC 316 previously or concurrently. This course builds on the experience gained in PSYC 310 and 315. It is devoted to a critical examination of more complex designs used in psychology. Students are required to conduct and evaluate experiments. An opportunity is provided for them to undertake a supervised research project.

PSYC 312 Field Research Methodology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. This course deals with techniques for studying complex behaviour in non-laboratory settings. Topics such as the neutrality or invisibility of the observers, participant observation, categorization, and recording problems may be studied. The relationship between laboratory findings and findings from the non-laboratory setting is considered.

PSYC 315 Statistical Analysis in Experimental Psychology I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Three approved credits in Mathematics at CEGEP or university; PSYC 310 to be taken concurrently. This course is an introduction to statistics, presented in an experimental psychology context. Topics dealt with include frequency distributions, measures of central tendency and dispersion, the normal curve, correlation, elementary probability theory, an introduction to hypothesis testing, and the t test. These topics are coordinated with the... laboratory projects in Research Methods I which must be taken concurrently.
NOTE See §200.7

PSYC 316 Statistical Analysis in Experimental Psychology II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. This course builds on the experience derived from PSYC 310 and 315 to advance the student’s understanding of hypothesis testing and statistical inferences. The material dealt with includes non-parametric statistics, the chi-square and F-distribution, introductory analysis of variance, and various correlational techniques. NOTE See §200.7

PSYC 317 Introductory Statistical Methods in Psychology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Any two CEGEP courses in Mathematics. Topics dealt with include frequency distributions, measures of central tendency and dispersion, correlation and regression, elementary probability theory, the binomial and normal distributions, sampling and statistical inference, simple analysis of variance, miscellaneous non-parametric techniques. Lectures and laboratory. Only six credits will be recognized from PSYC 315, 316, or 317. NOTE See §200.7

PSYC 318 Advanced Statistical Methods in Psychology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 315; PSYC 316. (Or PSYC 317 or equivalent.) The course is intended for students who already possess some background in statistics. Knowledge of elementary descriptive and inferential statistics is assumed. The course covers topics such as advanced analysis of variance designs, introductory multivariate analysis, advanced topics in correlation and regression.

PSYC 320 Modern Psychology in Historical Perspective (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Introductory Psychology or equivalent. The course deals with the historical background of psychology from ancient and medieval times up to the present. Early contributions to psychology from the fields of philosophy, physics, physiology, and psychophysics are presented and related to the various schools of psychological thought from the late-nineteenth century to the modern era.

PSYC 330 Developmental Psychology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. Basic findings and contemporary issues concerned with human cognition, social and emotional development are considered. The course deals with a variety of topics such as the behavioural organization and competence of the new-born, relationships in the pre-school period, effects of different early environments, Piaget's theory of cognitive development.

PSYC 333 Social Psychology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. The behaviour of the individual as a member of a larger group or society is dealt with. The study of the social influences on individuals or groups involves consideration of topics such as attitude change and development, intra-group communication and problem-solving, leadership, prejudice, development of social movements, and cults.

PSYC 336 Personality: Normal and Abnormal (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. The organization, functioning, and development of personality are discussed according to major theories of personality. Evidence from experimental studies and field findings is discussed. Socio-economic, cultural, and biological system factors may also be considered.

PSYC 339 Behaviour Disorders (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. The course deals with contemporary research and theory related to the aetiology, diagnosis, and treatment of various psychological disorders. Psychoneuroses, psychoses, and psychosomatic conditions are studied. Social, learning, and biological influences on the development of such disorders as schizophrenia, depression, anxiety neuroses, and phobias are discussed.

PSYC 343 Motivation I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. This course reviews and evaluates theories and empirical findings concerning motivation. Topics include the study of motivation in historical perspective, the biological and evolutionary bases of motivation, drive, arousal, and incentive theories of motivation.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 342 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 344 Motivation II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 343. This course is a continuation of PSYC 343; it presents a more focused and thorough treatment of selected topics in motivation. These may include sleep, hunger, sex, aggression, altruism, achievement, pain, fear, and play. Different sections of the course may cover different sets of topics.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 342 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 346 Learning I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. This course reviews and evaluates theories and empirical findings concerning basic mechanisms of learning. Topics include the study of learning in historical perspective, Pavlovian conditioning, operant conditioning, reinforcement, stimulus control of behaviour, and the aversive control of behaviour.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 346 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 347 Learning II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 346. This course is a continuation of PSYC 346, it presents a more focused and thorough treatment of more advanced topics in learning. These may include developmental aspects of learning, animal memory and cognition, human applications of conditioning principles, biological constraints on learning, or the physiology of learning and memory. Different sections of the course may cover different sets of topics.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 345 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 349 Sensation and Perception I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. Psychological and physiological bases of sensation and perception. Topics such as pitch perception, colour vision, perception of movement, size, and distance are included. The areas of sensation and perception are integrated through a human information-processing approach to the understanding of audition, vision, and other modalities.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 348 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 350 Sensation and Perception II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 349. A continuation of PSYC 345. This course examines current topics in the area of sensation and perception with an emphasis on recent research and developments in vision and audition, including areas such as colour vision, space perception, the anatomical and physiological bases of perception, the perception of illusions, and motion perception. Different sections of the course may cover different sets of topics.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 348 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 352 Cognition I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. A course that introduces the general area of cognitive psychology through the presentation and discussion of the theoretical and experimental foundations for our current understanding of how humans acquire and use language. Current research findings and theories in the areas of pattern recognition, attention, memory and imagery are surveyed. Following this introductory course, students should have the necessary background to pursue advanced topics in cognition.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 351 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 353 Cognition II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 352. A continuation of PSYC 352 that presents thorough treatments of topics such as cognitive development, psycholinguistics, concept acquisition, reading, speech perception, problem-solving and reasoning. Different sections of this course may cover different sets of topics.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 351 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 354 Mathematical Theories of Behaviour (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. The course surveys applications of mathematical techniques to problems of psychology in such areas as motivation, learning, decision-making, sensory psychophysics, and perception. Students enrolling in this course should have a mastery of elementary probability theory and should be confident of their ability to deal with elementary calculus, algebra, and logic.

PSYC 358 Fundamentals of Behavioural Neurobiology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BIOL 200 or BIOL 201. The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the neural substrate of behaviour. Topics include the structure and function of neurons as well as neural communication, an introduction to neuroanatomy and endocrinology, the processing of sensory information, and the control of movement.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 357, 360, or 363 may not take this course for credit.
PSYC 359  Neuropsychology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 358. The purpose of this course is to introduce students to basic neurology, including the neurological examination, clinical tests, and neurological disorders. The general principles underlying human neuropsychology are discussed, as well as the development of neural functioning and recovery following brain damage.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 363 may not take this course for credit.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 357 or 360 may take this course for credit.

PSYC 361  Psychology of Drug Dependence (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. (Or six credits from among PSYC 358, 359, 362, 365, and 367). This course focuses on the behavioural and pharmacological mechanisms underlying the phenomenon of drug dependence. Concepts such as physical and psychological dependence, tolerance, reinforcement and aversion are discussed. In addition the role of these concepts in the development of new treatment procedures is assessed.

PSYC 362  Psychobiology of Learning and Memory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 358. A number of mechanisms subserving learning and memory are investigated, including models based on relatively simple nervous systems, e.g., conditioning in Aplysia, as well as more complex systems, e.g., the neuronal mechanisms mediating eyeblink conditioning in the rabbit and the neuronal pathways that mediate reinforcement. Other topics may include the anatomical bases of memory, including the role of the hippocampus in spatial memory and the role of the NMDA receptor in learning and memory.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 357 or 360 may not take this course for credit.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 363 may take this course for credit.

PSYC 364  Introduction to Behavioural Medicine (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. (Or six credits from among PSYC 358, 359, 362, 365, and 367). This course surveys some of the areas dealt with by psychologists who conduct research or provide clinical services relating to physical health. The structure of the course reflects the growing recognition that psychological factors can be of major importance for both the development and eventual treatment of physical disorders. The course introduces students to the history and basic concepts of the field and covers psychological aspects of the etiology and treatment of such problems as pain and headache, substance abuse, anxiety and stress, cardiovascular disorders, sexual dysfunction. In discussing treatment, emphasis is placed on psychologically-based procedures, although somatic interventions (e.g., medication, diet, and surgery) are also reviewed at a level appropriate to the non-medical nature of the course.

PSYC 365  Psychobiology of Sensation and Perception (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 358. The course examines the relationship between the structure of sensory systems and perceptual function. Some of the topics addressed are how the structure of the eye and ear determines how and what we see and hear; the modularity of cortical organisation; segregation and integration of visual information; PDP and other models; bottom-up and top-down processing; the reconstruction of the perceptual world.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 357 or 360 may not take this course for credit.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 363 may take this course for credit.

PSYC 366  Animal Behaviour (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. (Or nine credits in CEGEP-level Chemistry and Biology courses or permission of the Department). The study of animal behaviour is approached from the point of view of sociobiology, ethology, and comparative psychology. Research findings from the experimental laboratory and from studies of animals in their natural environment are discussed. A study of genetic and evolutionary aspects of behaviour is intrinsic to the course.

PSYC 367  Psychobiology of Motivated Behaviours (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 358. The course examines the neural mechanisms mediating motivated behaviour. Topics addressed include the following: pleasure and pain; ingestive behaviour; sexual and reproductive behaviour; aggression; temperature regulation; sleep, arousal, and biological rhythms.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 357 or 360 may not take this course for credit.
NOTE: Students who have received credit... for PSYC 363 may take this course for credit.

PSYC 369 Hormones and Behaviour
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently; PSYC 358. The course deals with the role of hormones in integrating the activity of various neural, endocrine, and sensory systems to bring about organized, purposeful behaviour. Topics discussed include the reproductive, sexual, or environmentally adaptive systems, with treatment of material ranging from the molecular to the behavioural level.

PSYC 372 Psychology of Physical Activity
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. (Or permission of the Department). The relationship between physical and psychological well-being is systematically explored. Topics that may be dealt with include philosophical roots of the mind body problem, the structural and metabolic basis of both emotional expression and physical activity, the role of aerobic fitness level in altering emotional reaction patterns.

PSYC 375 Industrial and Organizational Psychology
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. A systematic examination of current research and theory about human behaviour as it occurs in the context of work organizations. Possible topics are: motivation to work, communication in organizations, career development, and systems approach to conceptualizing the social psychology of organizations.

PSYC 377 Abnormal Development
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315; six credits from among PSYC 330, PSYC 336, PSYC 339 previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. This course covers major theoretical and applied issues in abnormal child development. Topics covered may include gender and sex-role-related problems, anxiety and fear-related problems, conduct disorders and delinquency, childhood anorexia and obesity, hyperactivity and attentional disorders, learning and school-related problems, mental retardation, and childhood psychosis.

PSYC 378 Learning in the Classroom
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. A systematic examination of psychological principles and research reports that contribute to an understanding of learning in the school.

PSYC 379 Adolescent Development
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315; six credits from among PSYC 330, 336, 343, 344, 352, 353 previously or concurrently. This course examines the physical, cognitive and motivational changes in puberty and early adolescence, their underlying mechanisms, interrelations and behavioural effects. Topics that may be covered include effects of early and late pubertal onset, parent and peer relations, sex differences and sex roles, and identity issues.

PSYC 380 Psychology of Aging
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315; six credits from among PSYC 330, 333, 336, 343, 344, 352, 353 previously or concurrently. This course examines psychological development during the later phases of life. The material covered includes methodological issues in the study of aging as well as research findings in such areas as adjustment and well-being, coping styles and stress, age-related changes in memory and learning, the impact of social and family variables on aging, and health and medical issues related to the elderly.

PSYC 381 Scaling
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. The theoretical basis and application of scaling methods in psychophysics and social psychology are studied. Quantitative scales for the measurement of attitudes and sensations are derived and constructed. Other topics that may be covered include subjective estimate methods, the law of comparative judgement, unfolding techniques, and signal-detection theory.

PSYC 384 Measurement
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. A consideration of the general theory of psychological measurement and its application in the development and use of various psychometric instruments such as achievement, intelligence, aptitude, personality, and interest tests. Derived scores, norms, reliability, and validity of these instruments are discussed in the context of general measurement problems in psychology.

PSYC 390 Sexual Differentiation
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. (Or Introductory Psychology and completion of 30 credits in any degree programme in Arts and Science or enrolment in the Family Life Education Certificate, or permission of the Department). The genetic, hormonal, and social influences shaping the behaviour of men and women from embryonic life through adulthood are examined. Topics discussed include gender identity, sexuality, aggression, and cognitive abilities. The course, primarily approached from the point of view of women, includes an exploration of some of the myths surrounding the differences between men and women.

PSYC 393 Psychology of Language and Communication (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 315. (Or a minimum of three credits from among TESL 211, LING 200, FRAN 381 or COMS 240 or permission of the Department). The course deals with the cognitive, developmental, and social aspects of language and human communication. Topics discussed may include psychological consideration of modern linguistic theories, child-language development, second-language development in children and adults, speech perception, biological basis of language, social psychological aspects of human communication.

PSYC 394 Community Psychology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310 and PSYC 315 previously or concurrently. (Or Introductory Psychology and completion of 30 credits in any degree programme in Arts and Science, or permission of the Department). The course relates psychology to the day-to-day problems of people in society. The contributions of psychology to community leadership in the study of personal, social, cultural, and ecological arrangements are considered as they relate to such institutions as the family, school, prisons, health and welfare, and political structures.

SELECTED PROBLEMS IN PSYCHOLOGY
The Selected Problems in Psychology courses (PSYC 398 and PSYC 399) are designed for students enrolled in a Psychology programme. The material is dealt with in a manner that assumes a background in experimental psychology and, in some cases, specific preparation through prior completion of a related course. The minimal prerequisite is PSYC 310 (Research Methods I) and PSYC 315 (Statistical Analysis in Experimental Psychology I). Students should consult the Psychology Department Course Guide (published yearly) for details concerning available courses.

PSYC 398 Selected Problems in Psychology (3 credits)
PSYC 399 Selected Problems in Psychology (6 credits)
PSYC 400 Advanced Experimental Psychology (6 credits)

Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 311; PSYC 315; PSYC 316 or equivalent, and permission of the Department. The course provides experience in the design, conduct, analysis, and reporting of independent research in the major areas of psychology. The research is undertaken under the supervision of a faculty member.

PSYC 410 Supervised Practicum in Psychology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310, PSYC 311, PSYC 315, and/or permission of the Department. A limited number of opportunities for gaining advanced practical experience in various institutional or fieldwork settings are available. The student activities are closely supervised by a qualified faculty member.

PSYC 421 Honours Seminar: Selected Topics in Psychology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 311 and 316, and permission of the Department. This seminar critically examines current topics in psychology such as learning, perception, cognition, and language. Emphasis is on current theory as it relates to selected topics from these areas.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 420 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 422 Honours Seminar: Selected Topics in Psychology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 311 and 316, and permission of the Department. This seminar critically examines current issues in psychology such as social and developmental processes, motivation, emotion, and the biological bases of behaviour. Selected issues from these areas are discussed from theoretical perspectives specific to given phenomena.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for PSYC 420 may not take this course for credit.

PSYC 430 Honours Thesis (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Open to final-year Honours students. This course requires the student to propose and conduct a study and submit a thesis written according to the APA format. The work is supervised by a thesis chair selected by the student from within the Department.

PSYC 437 Directed Research in Psychology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PSYC 310; PSYC 311; PSYC 315; PSYC 316 or equivalent, and permission of the Department. Under the supervision of a faculty member, the student carries out an independent research project and reports it in writing. The area of study must be decided upon through consultation with the faculty member.

PSYC 438 Directed Readings in Psychology (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Acceptance by a supervisor and confirmation by the Department. This course is designed for the advanced student wishing to do independent, individually supervised literature research on a specific topic in psychology. This research culminates in a written paper. Students should have a well-defined topic in mind before registering for this course.

SPECIAL ADVANCED SEMINARS
Permission of the Department is required for registration in the Special Advanced Seminars (PSYC 498 and PSYC 499). These courses are normally open to Specialization and Honours students who are completing their final 30 credits. The usual minimal prerequisite for these specialized courses is PSYC 310, PSYC 311 (Research Methods I & II) and PSYC 315, PSYC 316 (Statistical Analysis in Experimental Psychology I & II). Because the various topics offered are dealt with in depth at an advanced level, specific preparation through prior completion of a related course may also be required.

PSYC 498 Special Advanced Seminar
(3 credits)

PSYC 499 Special Advanced Seminar
(6 credits)
The Department of Religion is dedicated to the academic study of various faiths and of social and cultural phenomena affected by religions. The curriculum includes the comparative study of the major religious traditions of the world as well as many minor traditions. At both the undergraduate and graduate levels, students are encouraged to develop an understanding of at least two religious traditions. Whatever the student's special focus, the informed appreciation of the beliefs and values of other cultures is considered an essential dimension of education for today's world.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

human sexuality using materials drawn from a variety of religious traditions, with special attention to such topics as: incest taboos, adultery, celibacy, ritualized sexual acts,
and patterns of marriage.

RELI 341  Religion and Literature
(6 credits)
This course deals with the questions raised for the study of religion by works of literature. An account is given of the recent development of interdisciplinary studies in religion and literature, and of the problems of method that have arisen. The relation between the interpretation of religious language, with its use of myth, parable, symbol and metaphor, and literary criticism is explored. The religious implications, direct and indirect, of selected literary works are discussed.

RELI 342  Religion and Science
(6 credits)
A historical investigation of the reasons for the conflict between religion and science in Western culture, and an examination of the chief issues involving both science and religion still under discussion today.
NOTE: Students who have received credit

A historical and sociological analysis of some of the Hindu religious organizations that have been created in Canada in order to meet the religious needs of Hindus in Canada.

RELI 361 Studies in the History of Christian Thought (6 credits)
An introduction to the classics of Christian thought from the Fathers to the modern period. Authors studied at length may vary from year to year, but, in any case, students acquire a basic knowledge of Augustine, Aquinas, Luther, and Calvin.

RELI 362 Questions from the Christian Tradition (6 credits)
A study of some of the major religious questions and controversies in the history of the Christian West. The questions chosen vary, but examples are: grace and free will, faith and reason, history and eschatology, church and state, contemplation and action.

RELI 363 Religion in Canada (6 credits)
The historical development of the major religious traditions in Canada, their influence on the social, political, and cultural areas of Canadian life and their contemporary significance. Attention is also focused on the interaction of Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Indian, and Eskimo groups.

RELI 370 Death and Dying (6 credits)
A comparative examination of conceptions of death and dying among the major religious traditions. Attention is paid as well to exploring contemporary notions of death and dying both in so far as we are still informed by traditional conceptions, and to the extent that, for many, such notions have lost their cogency.

RELI 371 Religion and Healing (3 credits)
An examination of the interaction between religious conceptions and practices on the one hand and healing arts on the other. The course considers such phenomena as: shamanism; healing and Christian shrines; native healing rites, folk medicine of the Third World; modern spiritual healing groups; the contemporary dialogue between established forms of medicine, psychiatry, and religion in the twentieth century.

RELI 372 The Human Body in Religious Faith and Practice (3 credits)
A study of: 1) the attitudes to the human body in various religious traditions; 2) the impact of the body-mind problem upon religious conceptions of human life and destiny; 3) the body as the foundation of religious symbolism and ritual.

RELI 373 Comparative Mysticism (3 credits)
This course introduces students to the study of mysticism and mystical experience using materials drawn from a wide range of cultural and religious sources and examining the work of such contemporary theorists as William James, Rudolph Otto, W.T. Stace, R.C. Zaehner and Robert Ellwood.

RELI 374 Islamic Mysticism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: RELI 313, or permission of the Department. A study of the major themes of Islamic mystical thought as expressed in philosophical writings and in poetry.

RELI 376 Religion, Myth and Magic in Classical Antiquity (3 credits)
An examination of the interaction and significance of religion, myth and magic in classical antiquity, in the East and the West, as discernible in such cultures as: Ancient Egypt, Babylonia, India, China, Israel, Greece, and Rome through the beginnings of the Christian era and the medieval period.

RELI 377 Religion and Occult Ideas in Modern History (3 credits)
An examination of the basic ideas and cultural impact of occult traditions in the modern period from the so-called "Rosicrucian Enlightenment" in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, as described by Frances Yates, to the nineteenth- and twentieth-century resurgence of occult themes in what Robert Ellwood has called "an alternative reality tradition in the West."

RELI 378 Religion and the History of Psychical Research (3 credits)
A review of the history of psychical research (including discoveries, claims, limitations and problems) from the foundation of the British and American Societies for Psychical Research in the nineteenth century through the establishment of contemporary "experimental parapsychology" in the West and behind the Iron Curtain. An evaluation of the possible significance of this material for comparative studies in the philosophies of religion and science.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for RELI 465 may not take this course for credit.

RELI 379 Religion and Contemporary Psychic Experience (3 credits)
An examination of the contemporary varieties of psychic experience being claimed by persons in the modern world and reported in popular literature, sociological surveys, and medical or psychological literature. This material is critically evaluated in the light of the theories of C.G. Jung, William James, and others.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for RELI 465 may not take this course for credit.

RELI 380 Comparative Religious Ethics: West and East (6 credits)
This course identifies the ways in which different religious and ideological traditions from West and East consider and deal with ethical issues. Examples of such traditions are: Navajo, Jewish, Christian, Islamic, Hindu, Buddhist, Confucian, Humanist, Communist. The ethical values and ideals found in these traditions, and their influence upon individual life patterns and social organization, are considered.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for RELI 435 may not take this course for credit.

Programme

The Faculty of Arts and Science offers a Certificate in the Teaching of Science (Elementary School Level) for the professional development of teachers interested in science. Practising teachers are offered the opportunity to improve their knowledge of science in order to help them teach modern science more effectively. The presentation will generally be in workshop form, with emphasis on assignments that develop activities for classroom use. Courses will be offered on- and off-campus during the Winter and Summer months, subject to sufficient demand and the availability of suitable instructors.

Admission to this programme is open to teachers who already hold either a General Elementary Licence or an Elementary Special Education Licence. Under certain conditions individuals certified to teach at the Secondary level may be admitted into this programme depending on their educational background and teaching experience.

Science courses in this programme have been renumbered.

Certificate in the Teaching of Science (Elementary School Level)

SCIE 315 Philosophy and Methodology of Teaching Science, Elementary Level (6 credits)
A study of the role, impact, and responsibility of science at the Elementary School level, a study of science programme design, teaching processes, and classroom activities at the Elementary level.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCIE 314 may not take this course for credit.

SCIE 316 Matter and Energy (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SCIE 315. States and properties of matter, change of state, force, common machines, mass, volume, expansion, gravitation, heat, light, sound, electricity, magnetism, other sources of energy, conservation of energy.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCIE 310 may not take this course for credit.

SCIE 317 The Human Environment (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SCIE 315. Temperature, soil, water, air, atmosphere, reproduction, heredity, erosion, weather, nitrogen cycles, pollution, ecology and ecosystems.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCIE 311 may not take this course for credit.

SCIE 318 Our Earth and the Universe (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SCIE 315. Time cycles, volume, density, constitution, and properties of the solar system, gravity, seasons, water, and carbon cycles.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCIE 312 may not take this course for credit.

SCIE 319 Living Things and Their Activities (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SCIE 315. The cellular... structure of living things, food chains, plants, animals, germination, growth, soil, water, respiration, nutrition, life cycles.
Classification into families, communities, and populations.

CERTIFICATE IN MATHEMATICS FOR TEACHERS (Elementary School Level)

Programme Director

FLORENCE STEVENS, Associate Professor and Vice-Dean

Admission Requirements

Admission to this programme is open to teachers who already hold either a General Elementary Licence or an Elementary Special Education Licence. Under certain conditions individuals certified to teach at the Secondary level may be admitted into this programme depending on their educational background and teaching experience. The Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers a Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers (Elementary School Level) for the professional development of teachers interested in mathematics. This programme was designed in accordance with the programme-cadre for Elementary Mathematics issued by the General Directorate of Elementary and Secondary Education and approved for "perfectionnement" by the Higher Education Branch of the Department of Education on February 15, 1974.

Practising teachers are offered the opportunity to improve their knowledge of mathematics in order to help them teach mathematics more effectively. The presentation will generally be in workshop form with emphasis on assignments which develop activities for classroom use. Courses will be offered on- and off-campus during the Winter and Summer months subject to demand and the availability of instructors.

30 Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers
(Elementary School Level)

6 MATH 305
24 Chosen from MATH 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 307, 309

NOTE: Where students have completed similar courses in previous studies, pro-tanto credits may be approved up to a maximum of 12 credits. In some cases, students with fewer than 12 pro-tanto credits may, with approval of the Faculty of Arts and Science obtained upon the recommendation of the programme director, be permitted to take courses in related areas for credit towards the Certificate. However, at least 18 of the credits must be taken within the programme.

* Admission suspended for 1993-94

CERTIFICATE IN MATHEMATICS FOR TEACHERS (Junior Secondary School Level)

Programme Director

FLORENCE STEVENS, Associate Professor and Vice-Dean

Admission Requirements

Admission to this programme is open to teachers who already hold a teaching licence at the Secondary level. This licence may be a generalist licence or a mathematics specialist licence. The Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers a Certificate in Mathematics for teachers who teach mathematics at the Junior High School level. Some of the courses offered have been specially designed to deal with new subject matter which is being introduced into the Secondary school curriculum, as well as with aspects of mathematical pedagogy necessary for the teaching of this material. This programme was approved for "perfectionnement" on February 14, 1974, by the Higher Education Branch of the Department of Education.

NOTE: In some cases where students have completed similar mathematical courses in previous studies, the Mathematics and Statistics Department may modify a student's programme to meet his professional requirements. It may grant pro-tanto credits up to a maximum of 12 credits.

* Admission suspended for 1993-94

Courses

MATH 300  Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers I (6 credits)
This course and the following course, MATH 301, are designed to cover the main mathematical topics in the programme-cadre for Elementary schools. In both courses, the study of the mathematical content is linked to thorough consideration of classroom applications. A project is included among the assignments in both courses. In both courses, the mathematical language of sets, relations, functions, and operations is applied where appropriate, and various modes of graphical representation used. Counting numbers and systems of numeration, number operations, factors and multiples, numbers as measures, classification, and properties of geometrical shapes.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 301  Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers II (6 credits)
This course and the preceding course, MATH 300, are designed to cover the main mathematical topics in the programme-cadre for Elementary schools. In both courses, the study of the mathematical content is linked to thorough consideration of classroom application. A project is included among the assignments in both courses. In both courses, the mathematical language of sets, relations, functions, and operations is applied where appropriate, and various modes of graphical representation used. The extension of the number system to fractions, decimals, and signed numbers. Equalities and inequalities, bases of symmetry and geometric transformations.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 302  Transformation Geometry (6 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 301, or permission of the Department. A more advanced study of symmetry and geometric transformations, applications in two and three dimensions, an overview of a K-6 programme of geometry.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 303  Measurement (6 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 300, or permission of the Department. A more advanced study of measures and measurement, descriptive statistics, and elementary notions of probability, an overview of a K-6 programme of measurement.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 304  Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers III (6 credits)
Prerequisites: Permission of the Department. More advanced mathematical studies to meet the needs of potential developments in the elementary school curriculum.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 305  Psychology of Mathematics Education (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Any three chosen from MATH 300, 301, 302, 303, 304; or permission of the Department. The content of the course is selected from those areas of psychological theory and research which have implications for the teaching of mathematics. It normally includes: psychological theories of cognition, studies of mathematical learning in children, motivation, applications of research to the classroom.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 307  Microcomputer Applications to Mathematics Education I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Elements of programming of the LOGO language. An introduction to TURTLE graphics. Recursion as a simplifying and generating tool. Applications to the teaching of elementary arithmetic and geometry. Design of programmes to produce graphic displays and simple instructional sequences.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 309  Microcomputer Applications to Mathematics Education II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 207*, or permission of the Department. More advanced programming in the LOGO language. Further study of TURTLE graphics. List processing, editing, and developing procedures. Applications to the teaching of algebra and geometry. Production of interactive programmes. Consideration of LOGO as an educational environment.
*For a description of MATH 207 please see §31.200
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.
MATH 400  Seminar on the Teaching of Mathematics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is conducted in the form of a workshop and examines alternative methods of presentation of mathematical ideas at the Secondary School level. It studies relevant aspects of the psychological development of the adolescent in the context of existing mathematics curricula. NOTE: This course should be taken at the end of the programme and is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 401  Functions (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course examines the topics in a traditional functions course: the concept of a function and its inverse. Linear and quadratic functions, rational functions, exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions. Graphing is stressed. A historical overview is given. Methods of teaching these topics and of preparing Secondary school students for a functions course are discussed. NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 402  Algebra I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 401, or equivalent previously or concurrently. Progressions, combinations, permutations, Binomial Theorem, mathematical induction, inequalities, polynomials, cartesian and polar forms of complex numbers; conics. NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 403  Calculus I (3 credits)

MATH 404  Geometry for Teachers (6 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 401, or equivalent. Certain fundamentals of Cartesian, vector and transformation geometry. Distance preceving motions in the plane, affine transformations with applications in Euclidean geometry. Projective transformations and applications to conics. Applications of these methods to topics presented as informal geometry in grades 7-10. NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 405  Calculus II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 403. Differentiation and integration of trigonometric functions. Derivatives of inverse trigonometric functions, logarithmic functions, and exponential functions. Methods of integration by parts, by substitution, by separation into partial fractions. Improper integrals. L'Hopital's Rule. Series: Convergence tests, Maclaurin and Taylor Theorems. NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 406  Algebra II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 401, or equivalent. Systems of equations, determinants, Cramer's rule. Matrices, operations on matrices, the inverse matrix. Gauss-Jordan method. Matrix transformations. Linear programming. NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 407  Geometry for Teachers (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 401, or permission of the Department. Studies designed to meet more advanced mathematical and professional needs of students in the light of potential developments in the geometry curriculum at the Junior Secondary school level. NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 408  Computational Mathematics I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Introduction to the microcomputer as a teaching and learning environment. Elements of programming. Editing and debugging. Flow charts and problem analysis. Applications to the teaching of arithmetic and algebra; simple data processing. Design of simple instructional sequences. NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 410  Curriculum Seminar (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Conducted in the form of a workshop. Examines arithmetic, algebraic, and geometric aspects of the mathematics curricula, grades 7—11. Critical examination of various textbooks and pedagogic approaches used in the schools. NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 411  Probability and Statistics for Teachers (3 credits) Prerequisite: MATH 401. Elementary probability, permutations and combinations, binomial and normal distribution. Analysis and organization of statistical data. Tests of hypotheses. Confidence limits. Introduction into linear regression and correlations. Lectures and laboratory.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for MATH 407 may not take this course for credit.

MATH 417 Diagnosis and Remediation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Diagnosis and remediation in the light of current research in psychology and the learning of mathematics.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATH 419 Computational Mathematics II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 409, or permission of the Department. More advanced programming. Use of the microcomputer for problem solving and simulation. Applications to the teaching of algebra and functions. Uses of the computer in the school environment. Individual programming projects.
NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.
31.300 SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS

Faculty

Director
SUSAN SHEETS-PYENSON, Associate Professor

Location

Sir George Williams Campus
J.W. McConnell Building, Room: LB 647-3
(514) 848-2050

Programme Objectives

The Science and Human Affairs programme explores the social dimensions of science and technology. It provides an interdisciplinary examination of the cultural, economic, political, ethical, and environmental aspects of scientific and technological change. The curriculum is organized into three streams: the history and philosophy of science, the social and ethical aspects of science and technology, and the human dimensions of environmental change. The programme prepares students for the growing number of non-science careers requiring an understanding of scientific research, technical innovation, and industrial development as well as an understanding of their social implications. It also provides science and engineering students with the opportunity to explore the social dimensions of their disciplines.

Programmes

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.
Students should consult with the programme coordinator prior to registering for Science and Human Affairs courses.

Courses

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

SCHA 250 Introduction to Science and Human Affairs I
(3 credits)
The social and historical context of scientific and technological change. The reciprocal interactions of science with government, ideology, economic development, religion, literature, and social theory; science and the city; science and the control of human life; science and human liberation; new definitions of scientific responsibility may be considered.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE 250 may not take this course for credit.

SCHA 251 Introduction to Science and Human Affairs II
(3 credits)
A continuation of SCHA 250. This course may be taken independently.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE 251 prior to 1990-91 may not take this course for credit.

SCHA 253 Environmental Issues I
(3 credits)
The scientific, social and cultural nature of one’s relationship to the environment. Emphasis is placed on pollution, conservation, population resources, and human ecology.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE 253 or URBS 253 prior to 1990-91 may not take this course for credit.

SCHA 254 Environmental Issues II
(3 credits)
A continuation of SCHA 253. This course may be taken independently.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE 254 or URBS 254 prior to 1990-91 may not take this course for credit.

SCHA 260 Science and Culture in the Western Tradition
(3 credits)
Surveys the place of science in Western culture from the ancient Greeks until the present day. The aim of the course is to acquaint a nonspecialist audience with how a scientific world-view has profoundly shaped modern day society.

SCHA 296 Selected Topics in Science and Human Affairs
(3 credits)

SCHA 299 Selected Topics in Science and Human Affairs
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

SCHA 351 Astronomy, Cosmology and the Space Age
(6 credits)
The nature of the universe as interpreted by relevant scientific theories; cosmology and the shape, size and structure of the universe; possibility of intelligent life in the universe; social implications of space flight.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE 351 prior to 1990-91 may not take this course for credit.

SCHA 353 Science and Society: From Ancient Times Until 1789
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: SCHA 250; SCHA 251, or permission of the director. This course surveys the history of science from the ancient Greeks until the French revolution, with an emphasis on the social history of science.

SCHA 354 Science and Society: Since 1789
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: SCHA 250; SCHA 251, or permission of the director. This course surveys the history of science from the French revolution until the present day, with an emphasis on the social history of science.

SCHA 355 Technology and Society: From Ancient Times Until 1780
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: SCHA 250; SCHA 251. This course deals with the social role and impact of technology from the ancient Greeks until the industrial revolution.

SCHA 356 Technology and Society: Since 1780
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: SCHA 250; SCHA 251. This course deals with the role and impact of technology in Western society from the industrial revolution until the present.

SCHA 398 Selected Topics in Science and Human Affairs
(3 credits)

SCHA 399 Selected Topics in Science and Human Affairs
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

SCHA 452 Advanced Study in the History of Science
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the director. Seminar in a specific question in the history of science. The emphasis is on encouraging students to conduct historical investigation on their own under a professor’s guidance. The specific content varies from year to year depending on the Instructor.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCHA 451 prior to 1988-89 may take this course for credit provided that the subject matter is different.
SCHA 453  Science and Public Policy
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: SCHA 250; SCHA 251, or permission of the director. This course deals with those public policy issues which involve a major component of science and technology, i.e., energy, environment, resources, health, etc. The course also covers the general relationships of science and government relating to the making of science and technology policy particularly emphasizing the Canadian context, but including such topics as technology aid and transfer.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE 453 prior to 1990-91 may not take this course for credit.

SCHA 454  Seminar in Science and Human Affairs  (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Major or Specialization in Science and Human Affairs, or permission of the director. This seminar affords an opportunity for intensive examination of an explicitly interdisciplinary theme.
NOTE: With the permission of the director students may take this course twice for credit provided that a different subject is dealt with the second time and will register under SCHA 455.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE 454 prior to 1990-91 may not take this course for credit.

SCHA 455  Seminar in Science and Human Affairs  (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the director. Students who have received credit for SCHA 454 may register for SCHA 455 provided the subject matter is different.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE 455 prior to 1990-91 may not take this course for credit.

SCHA 498  Advanced Topics in Science and Human Affairs
(3 credits)

SCHA 499  Advanced Topics in Science and Human Affairs
(6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

Certificate in Community and Ethnic Studies
The 30-credit Certificate programme is designed to provide basic conceptual and research skills for those involved in work with a community or ethnic focus.
Students wishing to enter the programme must consult with the director of the Centre for Community and Ethnic Studies. All students are required to take the Seminar and Practicum in Community and Ethnic Studies. Additional courses are selected from offerings in Sociology, Anthropology, and several other University disciplines.

General admission requirements are listed in §13.
Students must have completed SOCI 203 and ANTH 202 or equivalent courses. Students should be actively involved in community service related to community or ethnic topics, either as staff or as volunteers or members of boards, committees, or councils of community organizations and agencies. The programme is structured so that students may enrol on a part-time basis.
Students should be proficient in at least two languages, English and either French or the language of the minority community with which they wish to work.

Courses

NOTE: The course-numbering system in Sociology uses the first digit of the course number to indicate the number of prerequisites required for admission to a course. A 2—course has no prerequisites, a 3—has one, and a 4—has two prerequisites. The second digit indicates the place of a course among different subject groups. -1- courses constitute the research methods group, -0- courses the theory group. Thus, when a prerequisite is stated as “one 300-level course from group 2”, any course whose number is 32- (i.e., 320, 323, 324, 325) fulfills the prerequisite requirement.

Because of therenumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

SOCI 203 Introduction to Society
(3 credits)
An introduction to the sociological study of society. The course begins with a consideration of the concepts, models, and methods used by sociologists. This is followed by an examination of selected substantive areas of social life, ranging from the relations between individuals and groups to total societies.

SOCI 212 Statistics I
(3 credits)
Priority is given to enrol in this course to students who are in a Sociology or Anthropology programme. This course provides an introduction to the basic principles of statistics for social scientists. Topics include the concept of the level of measurement, standardization, the interpretation of graphs, measures of univariate distributions, cross classification, elementary measures of association, the logic of controls, and the basic principles of inferential statistics. The emphasis is on the implications of these statistical techniques for theoretical understanding of sociology and anthropology. NOTE: See §200.7

SOCI 213 Statistics II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 212. Priority is given to enrol in this course to students who are in a Sociology or Anthropology programme. Students are encouraged to take SOCI 212 immediately preceding SOCI 213. This course is designed to follow Statistics I. Topics include measures of association, the principles of probability and sampling distributions, hypothesis testing, and tests of significance. The emphasis is on the implications of these statistical techniques for theoretical understanding in sociology and anthropology. NOTE: See §200.7

SOCI 220 Social Organization
(3 credits)
Examines the basic characteristics of societal organization through the use of comparative and evolutionary perspectives.

SOCI 230 Race and Ethnic Relations
(3 credits)
Race and ethnicity are examined as bases of social differentiation. Ethnic group relations are analyzed in relation to stratification and the exercise of power. Explorations of the phenomena of discrimination, prejudice, and intergroup accommodation.

SOCI 261 Social Problems
(3 credits)
Consideration of a range of social problems from a sociological perspective. Examination of the process by which “social problems” are socially defined and recognized.

SOCI 262 Social Deviance
(3 credits)
Attention is focused on various forms of anti-social behaviour, particularly those that are socially-induced. This course examines the nature, forms, sources, functions, and dysfunctions of deviations from social norms, and the mechanisms of social order and control. Deviance is viewed as a social process of interaction and relationships that derive from the social structure and have consequences for it. Various forms of deviance are considered in terms of contemporary social theory and research. NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 260 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 263 Juvenile Crime and Delinquency
(3 credits)
This course examines the nature of juvenile crime and delinquency and their social causes and consequences. Juvenile crime and delinquency, as special kinds of deviance, receive the focus of attention, with emphasis on criminal-justice, juvenile-justice, criminal behaviour systems, and social policy on juvenile crime and delinquency. NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 260 may not take this course for credit.
SOCI 264  Sociology of Sport
(3 credits)
This course provides a systematic analysis of the social influences upon sport in North America. Special attention is directed to the interrelationships between sport and various social institutions.

SOCI 270  Socialization
(6 credits)
Examination of the social and cultural processes by which the individual becomes a functioning member of society. Attention given to adult socialization and re-socialization in diverse institutional contexts; e.g., schools, occupations, hospitals, prisons, the military. The relation of social structure to role acquisition and role performance is a major focus of the course.

SOCI 272  The Family
(6 credits)
The family as an institution is examined in relation to social structure and historical change. Special emphasis is placed on trends in the nuclear family patterns of contemporary North American society, and on the relation of the family to the broader societal environment.

SOCI 274  The Sociology of Aging
(6 credits)
This course examines the changes in society and in living conditions as populations and people age. The sources and the effects of these changes are looked at in the light of several substantive areas and in terms of their implications for social policy. While the major emphasis is on the Canadian experience, some comparative materials are used to widen the perspective.

SOCI 280  Québec Society
(6 credits)
Focus upon the historic changes in Québec society, with emphasis upon the period following the Second World War. Examination of issues which have provoked conflicting interpretations, including the Conquest, the nature of Confederation, Québec nationalism, and the language question.

SOCI 282  Canadian Society
(6 credits)
Analysis of Canadian social structure and change; the relation of the whole of Canadian society to its constituent elements; the relation of Canadian society to its international environment.

SOCI 298  Selected Topics in Sociology
(3 credits)

SOCI 299  Selected Topics in Sociology
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

SOCI 300  Classical Social Theory
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. Examination of the origins of sociology and of the sociological works of nineteenth- and early twentieth-century European theorists, with consideration of the social and political context. Particular emphasis is given to the works of Durkheim, Marx, and Weber. Readings include primary sources and critical commentaries.

SOCI 310  Research Methods
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203; SOCI 212. Introduction to qualitative and quantitative methods of research in sociology.

SOCI 311  Survey Research Methods
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203; SOCI 212. Examination of methods of conducting survey research. Topics include design, sampling, pretesting of instruments, data collection, logic of analysis, multivariate analysis, and report writing.

SOCI 313  Fieldwork Research: Observation
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. The collection of primary data by observational methods in natural settings is studied and practised on field trips. NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 312 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 314  Fieldwork Research: Interviewing
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. A variety of types of interviewing is studied and practised on field assignments. NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 312 may not take this course for credit.

The course includes analyses of theories of management; the impact of the labour union movement; changes in the nature of the labour market; the significance of the growth of the service sector; the changing role of governments in labour-related issues; and contemporary thought on new forms of industrial organization.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 342 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 350 Sociology of Urban Regions I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203 or SOCI 220 or SOCI 230. Analysis of the historical development of the city, focusing on the pre-industrial city from a cross-cultural perspective.

SOCI 351 Sociology of Urban Regions II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203 or SOCI 220 or SOCI 230. Analysis of the growth of urbanization in North America, concentrating on the social and spatial organization of Canadian cities, especially Montréal.

SOCI 353 Community Studies I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203 or SOCI 220 or SOCI 230. The study of locale. The major theoretical approaches used in the study of locale are examined in terms of their content and methodological implications. Special attention is given to the social system and structuralist approaches.

SOCI 354 Community Studies II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203 or SOCI 220 or SOCI 230. Analysis of selected studies of Canadian communities in terms of one or more theoretical approaches current in the field. Some course materials are available only in French.

SOCI 357 Population and Society (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. A critical analysis of population dynamics, including an examination of theories concerning the population-resources problem (e.g. Malthus and Marx). Emphasis is given to the relation between ideology and methodology in population study.

SOCI 358 Social Demography (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 212. Basic principles, issues, data, and methods of population study. Primary focus on social factors that affect demographic processes, and the ways in which demographic change is related to social structure and social change. Consideration of the basic components of demographic analysis: fertility, mortality, and migration.

SOCI 361 Criminology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. The major objectives of this course are to come to an understanding of the emergence of European and North American criminology and an understanding of the contemporary perspectives explaining crime, criminal behavior, and its control.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOC/360 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 362 Crime and Justice (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. The major objectives of this course are to come to an understanding of the issues and perspectives related to the problems of apprehending, processing, and punishing the criminal. Thus the process by which the criminal is legally judged to be guilty, the problem of sentencing, the problem of corrections, and the victim are some of the important issues.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOC 360 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 368 (also given as HIST 368) The History and Sociology of Genocide (6 credits)
Through the comparative and historical examination of a number of cases, this course investigates the meaning of genocide and the processes that have led to it.

SOCI 370 Self and Society (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. Study of the basic concepts and theories regarding social definitions of the Self. Emphasis on ideas regarding personality, motivation, and interpersonal attitudes, viewed in terms of the interplay between actors and social structures.

SOCI 372 Gender and Society (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. Examination of the social status and roles of men and women in society. Use is made of comparative, historical, and empirical research. Particular attention is paid to the Marxist, feminist, and socialist-feminist theoretical perspectives on the patriarchal nature of society.

SOCI 373 Sociology of Childhood (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. Comparative and historical approach to the study of the status and role of the child in the family and in the larger society. Emphasis on the sociological aspect of childhood in modern industrial societies.

SOCI 374 Symbols, Rituals and The Body (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203; ANTH 202. The study of the social roles of the body. Topics include body image and self-esteem, the symbolism of beauty and ugliness, height, hair, dress, the face, body language, health and fitness, eating and drinking patterns. The course is considered in anthropological and sociological perspectives.

SOCI 377 Sociology of Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203. Analysis of the social structures within a formal education system. Trends in education are examined in relation to broader patterns of social change.

SOCI 380 Social Movements in Québec (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203 or SOCI 280. Analysis of historically significant movements for social change in Québec.

SOCI 382 Intergroup Relations in Canada (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203 or SOCI 230 or SOCI 282. Canadian ethnic group phenomena are examined in the light of theories of intergroup relations. The groups include Indians, Inuit, Blacks, Jews, and English- and French-speakers. The mosaic theory of Canadian ethnic relation is considered.

SOCI 398 Selected Topics in Sociology (3 credits)
SOCI 399 Selected Topics in Sociology (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

SOCI 401 The History of Social Thought (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 300. Overview of the various ideas and schools of thought which attempt to explain the organization, development, and change of various aspects of human societies. Emphasis on the philosophical underpinnings of the discipline of sociology. The timespan ranges from ancient Greek social thought to early nineteenth-century European thought in which sociology was founded.

SOCI 402 Contemporary Sociological Theory I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 300. Critical examination of contemporary sociological theories against the background provided by Marx, Durkheim, and Weber. The theories are analyzed in terms of their assumptions, conceptual distinctions, methodological features, and ethical implications. Theoretical approaches are chosen to represent a range of approaches to sociology, such as neo-positivism, functionalism, conflict theory and structuralism.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 400 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 403 Contemporary Sociological Theory II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 300. Critical examination of contemporary sociological theories against the background provided by Marx, Durkheim, and Weber. The theories are analyzed in terms of their assumptions, conceptual distinctions, methodological features, and ethical implications. Theoretical approaches are chosen to represent a range of approaches to sociology, such as symbolic interactionism, social phenomenology, and critical theory.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 400 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 404 Sociology of Literature (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203; ANTH 202; or a minimum of six credits in English Literature, Communication Studies or Political Science. A critical study of literature and para-literature as a cultural and social practice. Various approaches to the sociology of literature are examined. The emphasis is on that approach which deals with social genesis of literature and literature as a social product of a social force. Selected Canadian fiction and drama are analyzed.

SOCI 406 Sociology of Knowledge (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 300. Examination of a variety of theories of the relation of knowledge, belief, and meaning to the social context.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 405 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 407 Sociology of Science (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 300. Study of the social context of science; the impact of societal factors upon science; the production of scientific knowledge viewed as a social process; the social uses and consequences of science. Consideration of the relation of the sociology of science to the other social studies of science.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 405 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 409 Honours Seminar (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 410 and permission of the Honours adviser. Consideration of methodological and theoretical ideas related to the formulation of an Honours research proposal. Second-term work involves completion of research and writing of an Honours paper.

SOCI 410 Research Design and Analysis (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203; SOCI 212; SOCI 213. Study of quantitative methods of data collection and analysis. Topics include: experimental and quasi-experimental design, principles of measurement, survey design, secondary data sources, techniques of multivariate analysis, and interpretation.

SOCI 411 Logic of Sociological Inquiry (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203 and six credits of courses from group 1. Consideration of the interaction between sociological theory and empirical research. Critical study of the conceptual bases for truth-claims within the major sociological perspectives.

SOCI 429 Dynamics of Formal Organizations (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 329 or six Sociology credits at the 300 level. Analysis of major social dynamics at work in formal organizations and examination of the impact of external societal factors on organizations.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SOCI 340 may not take this course for credit.

SOCI 450 Seminar in Urban and Metropolitan Studies (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203 and one course from group 5. Intensive study of selected theories and monographs dealing with aspects of urbanization.

SOCI 451 Seminar and Practicum in Community and Ethnic Studies (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203; ANTH 202, enrolment in the Certificate in Community and Ethnic Studies or permission of the Department. This seminar centres around student projects which involve research relating to community or ethnic issues. Such research may be of a theoretical or applied nature. In the seminar, students are helped to choose, design, conduct, and present their research. Research topics may be related to agencies, organizations, or practical issues in which the students are already involved.

SOCI 460 Law and Society (6 credits)
Prerequisite: SOCI 203; SOCI 262 or SOCI 263, or SOCI 361, SOCI 362. Study of the legal system as an institutionalized system of social control, using historical and comparative data. Special attention is given to the study of law and legal organizations in contemporary society in relation to other areas of sociological inquiry, especially social change, conflict, and decision-making.

SOCI 498  Advanced Topics in Sociology (3 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.
ANTH 202  Introduction to Culture
(3 credits)
An introduction to the anthropological study of culture. The course begins with a consideration of the concepts, models, and methods used by anthropologists. This is followed by an examination of the many ways in which peoples of the world, past and present, have organized the activities, institutions, and belief systems that sustain social life. The course concludes with a discussion of the relevance of cultural anthropology to contemporary issues.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ANTH 211 may not take this course for credit.

ANTH 203  Culture and Biology: An Anthropological Perspective
(3 credits)
This course focuses on the interrelationship between culture and human biology. The first part of the course examines current debates about human origins, human variation, and the influence of cultural adaptation on human biology. This is followed by a critical examination of the strategies of sociobiology for the study of socio-cultural phenomena.

ANTH 296  Selected Topics in Anthropology
(3 credits)

ANTH 299  Selected Topics in Anthropology
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

ANTH 302  Art, Aesthetics, and Anthropology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. An introduction to the social uses of paintings, sculptures, masks, body tattoos or paintings, and costume decorations in native societies of North and South America, Africa, and Pacific, etc. The first part of the course deals with how traditional "primitive art forms" are structured through the study of selected examples. The second part offers an analysis of the functions of art objects and art forms in archaic societies. The third and last part is devoted to a discussion of where "primitive" artists find the source of the particular aesthetic form they resort to in their work.

ANTH 303  Aboriginal Indian and Inuit Socio-Political Organizations
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. A study of the various forms of socio-political organization achieved by the Indian and Inuit peoples of North America before the colonization of their continent by Europe. The course gives a sense of what social life was in these societies, and provides a background which helps to better understand the contemporary conflicts between present-day native people and the Canadian and American governments.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ANTH 363 may not take this course for credit.

ANTH 304  Native People Today
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. First, a review of the aboriginal cultures of native Americans followed by an outline of the history of the Native-White relations, and of the legal status granted to the first people of Canada and the U.S.A. by the various past and present governments. Second, an examination of the demographic and social characteristics of today's native people, including the Metis, as well as of the Indian-Inuit Affairs programmes and government policies. Third, a discussion of present-day native organizations, native claims, and of the prospects for improvements.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ANTH 362 may not take this course for credit.

ANTH 305  Culture and History
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This course presents different ways in which history has been understood in our own culture as well as in other non-Western cultures. The course includes questions about history as legitimating charters, as repeating cycles, as a scientific inquiry, as a series of unique events and as a basis for ethical judgements.

ANTH 306  Culture and Language
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. An introduction to major issues in language as they relate directly to problems in anthropology, and indirectly in sociology, philosophy, and psychology. We survey different approaches to the interrelation of language, thought, and culture.

ANTH 307  Understanding Myths
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. Competing interpretations of some classic myths such as the Oedipus, the Abraham and Isaac, or the Job stories are studied and discussed.
The interpretations of these classic myths in Western culture is followed by an examination of Claude Lévi-Strauss' structuralist interpretation of a non-Western myth. The course concludes with an examination of mythmaking in our own contemporary culture, by reviewing stories such as that surrounding Kennedy's death.

ANTH 308  Female, Maleness and Otherness in Cross-Cultural Perspective
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. The first part of the course is devoted to cultural variations regarding sex and gender: What is female? What is male? Is there a third gender? Its second part is an introduction to theories regarding equality, autonomy, denomination, complementarity or exploitation between the genders. Its third part deals with various indigenous theories concerning the body, its working, sex and reproduction, pollution, as well as female, male (and other) codes of "honour".

ANTH 309  Matrilineal Kinship
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. An introduction to the literature on matrilineal societies. The readings, class discussions, and written exercises focus on a critical review of current positions on matriline. Questions are raised about how anthropologists have interpreted matrilineal kinship, about how its distinction from patrilineal and bilateral systems has been dealt with, and about the roles and power of the sexes in matrilineal settings.

ANTH 310  The Making and Unmaking of Anthropological Theories
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. Priority is given to enrol in this course to students who are in Anthropology and Sociology programmes. This course provides the student with a broad critical perspective on various theoretical approaches to anthropology (evolutionism, functionalism, structuralism, cultural materialism, and marxism). Anthropology is always balancing between fieldwork and theories. This course shows how fieldwork has shaped and continues to shape the making and the unmaking of theories.

ANTH 321  The Stateless Societies of Africa
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. The course surveys stateless societies spread across the Sudan into Nigeria. The course outlines hominid evolution in Eastern and Southern Africa and sketches the outlines of African prehistory as reconstructed by archaeologists. These are followed by an investigation of such present-day hunters and gatherers as the Kalahari Bushmen and the Ilfuri forest pygmies. The bulk of the course studies a number of stateless societies in the area, such as the pastoral Nuer and the agricultural Tiv. Particular emphasis is given to the ways in which kinship and marriage organize social, political, and economic relations and preserve social order in these cultures without institutionalized chieftainship.

ANTH 322  Pre-Colonial Kingdoms of Africa
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. An extensive review of African states from the Nubian dynasties of Egypt and the Sudanic Forest Kingdoms of the pre-mercantilist period. Their political, economic and social structures are examined from the viewpoint of their contrasts and vulnerability to colonialism, with the aim of providing an explanation for the rise of nationalism in the post-colonial states of Africa.

ANTH 323  Peoples and Cultures of the Middle East and North Africa
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This course emphasizes the diversity of religious practices, social values, economic organization, and family and gender relations in several different Middle Eastern societies by examining ethnographic material on the transformations and continuities in the lives of tribespeople, peasants, and townspeople.

ANTH 325  Magic, Science, Religion, and Ideology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or RELI 211 or RELI 213, or permission of the Department. An introduction to the field of belief systems and of their attendant rituals and practices. The first part of the course is devoted to the problem of how anthropologists differentiate between magic, religion, and ideology. The second part deals with specific aspects of magic, of religion, of ideology, and of science. The third part discusses the issue of whether social belief systems institute the social reality in which the believers live, or whether they mask the true social relations that they entertain with each other.

ANTH 332  Health, Illness and Healing in Cross-Cultural Perspective
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. An exploration of some of the alternatives to Western definitions and ways of treating disease, with particular emphasis on shamanistic and East Asian medicine. The major part of the course is devoted to the study of ethnomedicine, elaborating a sociological approach to the study of patterns of disease distribution, and exploring some of the central questions of transcultural psychiatry. The course concludes with a discussion of the role of the anthropologist in international health-planning.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under an ANTH 398 or 399 number may not take this course for credit.

ANTH 340 The Anthropology of Food (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This course approaches food through four main themes: archaeology of food production (domestication of plants and animals); class, cuisine and the development of taste; cosmic and other symbolism of food; and the political economy of food and hunger.

ANTH 370 Anthropology and Contemporary Issues (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202, or permission of the Department. This course examines contemporary world issues from an anthropological, i.e. cross-cultural, perspective. Our discussions range from a critical examination of anthropological concepts and methods to a consideration of the uses of anthropology in practical applications. Specific issues dealt with include the consequences of underdevelopment, modernization, and the place of folk cultures and tradition in contemporary societies.

ANTH 371 Peasant Societies and Cultures (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202, or permission of the Department. This course examines agrarian societies in different cultural and political contexts. The course begins with a brief discussion of the archaeological evidence for early and later Neolithic agriculturists. This is followed by an examination of peasantries, their persistence and transformation. The course concludes with a discussion of the role that subsistence producers play in contemporary societies.

ANTH 398 Selected Topics in Anthropology (3 credits)

ANTH 399 Selected Topics in Anthropology (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

ANTH 401 Neo-Marxism and Archaic Societies (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. An exploration of the neo-marxist literature on archaic societies. The first part of the course offers a systematic introduction to the basic concepts of historical materialism. The second part is devoted to selected case-studies: societies from ancient Africa, America, etc. are analyzed in the neo-Marxist perspective. The course concludes with an appraisal of economic life in non-industrial societies.

ANTH 402 Neo-Marxist Anthropology and Culture (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. This course is a critique of classical cultural anthropology for its concession to a theoretical framework which cannot grasp the logic of cultural reproduction. It proposes a thesis which emphasizes the importance of a communicative and critical sense of rationality for understanding the centrality of culture in the reproduction of social life.

ANTH 410 Theories of Culture (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ANTH 202 and 12 credits in 200- and 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. Term I: Classical psychoanalysis and Marxism. The First Term develops an analysis of Freud's and Marx's positions on culture. Term II: Hermeneutics and structuralism. The Second Term focuses on Max Weber's overall approach to culture, the implicitly hermeneutic anthropology of Ruth Benedict and members of the "American School" led by Franz Boas, and Claude Lévi-Strauss' structuralism.

ANTH 420 Psychological Anthropology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. This course presents an examination and critique of the theoretical concepts of Western academic and folk psychology from the perspective of the psychologies of other cultures. Topics considered include the anthropology of perception; the cultural construction of the emotions; altered states of consciousness; the culture-bound syndromes (windigo psychosis, amok); and indigenous theories of dream interpretation.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for this topic under an ANTH 498 number may not take this course for credit.
ANTH 426  Symbolic Anthropology
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. An exploration into interpretive anthropology by examining ways of seeing, knowing, believing, and feeling in our own culture. Since interpretive anthropology is at the crossroad of several disciplines, the course discusses the work not only of cultural anthropologists, but also of linguists, art and literary critics, as well as philosophers. Authors studied include among others, Lévi-Strauss, Sapir, Chomsky, Orwell, John Berger, Wittgenstein, Marx and Engels.

ANTH 430  Anthropology of Development
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. This course considers the systematic reduction of poverty and powerlessness at individual and societal levels. Several development problems are examined including national debt crisis, population growth, urbanization, and various degrees of state withdrawal from regulating the market. Special emphasis is given to case studies from major regions of the Third World on the varied impact development on gender relations and on the eradication of social and economic inequalities.

ANTH 459  Political Anthropology
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. An examination of political process and political organization in cross-cultural perspective. Part I considers the differing approaches to political organization and processes, leadership, power, and authority in non-Western cultures of various degrees of complexity. Part II analyzes social conflict in relation to politics, social continuity, and social change.

ANTH 460  Kinship and Social Anthropology
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: Twelve credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. The first part of the course deals with residence, descent, generation and eldership, with special consideration given to the functionalist and Marxist approaches to the study of lineage societies. Its second part is devoted to the prohibition of incest, sex and marriage, terminology, kinship attitudes, and symbolic kinship with special attention given to the structuralist alliance theory.

ANTH 495  Honours Essay
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: Honours in Anthropology. Under the supervision of an Anthropology staff member, the student prepares an Honours essay on a subject chosen in consultation with and approved by the professor.

ANTH 498  Advanced Topics in Anthropology
(3 credits)

ANTH 499  Advanced Topics in Anthropology
(6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The work of the TESL Centre is to prepare teachers and other professionals to develop, staff, manage, and evaluate English as a Second Language (ESL) programmes. Through the Centre, students earn either an undergraduate degree or a Certificate in the teaching of ESL, with special attention to the needs of the Québec education system. A graduate programme in Applied Linguistics is offered for experienced language educators. The Centre also provides a University-wide testing service for incoming students whose first language is not English as well as comprehensive instruction for those seeking to improve their mastery of English for academic purposes.

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (Teaching English as a Second Language)

The Centre for the Teaching of English as a Second Language offers the Degree of Bachelor of Education (Teaching English as a Second Language).

General admission requirements are listed in §13 (Admission Regulations). Specific requirements are as follows:

1. Satisfactory completion of a two-year pre-university programme in a CEGEP or equivalent. Within the programme, the students will be required to have successfully completed the equivalent of four semester courses in English.

2. Owing to the specialized nature of this programme, no more than 30 pro-tanto credits will normally be permitted, and the University reserves the right to determine which ones these should be.

3. Candidates must demonstrate competence in English. All non-native speakers of English must take a formal test of English proficiency and obtain a score acceptable to the TESL Centre.

NOTE I: Arrangements for taking the proficiency test may be made through the Admissions Office.

4. The BEd(TESL) is open to both prospective and experienced teachers. The BEd(TESL) is offered in the day and evening, and in the Summer Session. The internship package of courses (TESL 324, 385, 415, 424, 485) is offered only as daytime Fall/Winter courses. Some of the courses may also be offered outside Montréal through the Office for Off-Campus Education.

CERTIFICATE IN THE TEACHING OF ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE: SEQUENCE I

This 30-credit programme is offered to experienced teachers who are not native speakers of English.

1. Candidates must have an appropriate teacher’s certificate or the equivalent of one year’s experience as a full-time second-language teacher (400 hours).

2. Candidates must take a formal test of English proficiency and obtain a score acceptable to the TESL Centre.

NOTE: Arrangements for taking the proficiency test may be made through the Admissions Office.

Concordia students may transfer into the Certificate programme all applicable Concordia credits earned in an incomplete degree or Certificate programme or as an independent student, provided they are students in good standing. Students from other institutions may transfer up to 12 applicable credits earned in an incomplete degree or Certificate programme or as an independent student, provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

The TESL Certificate: Sequence I programme is offered in the evening and in the Summer Session, and may be offered outside Montréal through the Office for Off-Campus Education.

NOTE II: Individuals who have completed TESL Certificate: Sequence I are not eligible for admission to TESL Certificate: Sequence II.

CERTIFICATE IN THE TEACHING OF ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE: SEQUENCE II

This 30-credit programme is offered to experienced teachers whose native language is English or whose proficiency in English meets native-user standards.

1. Candidates must have an appropriate teacher’s certificate or the equivalent of one year’s experience as a full-time second-language teacher (400 hours).

2. Candidates must demonstrate competence in English. All non-native speakers of English must take a formal test of English proficiency and obtain a score acceptable to the TESL Centre. NOTE: Arrangements for taking the proficiency test may be made through the Admissions Office.

Concordia students may transfer into the Certificate programme all applicable Concordia credits earned in an incomplete degree or Certificate programme or as an independent student, provided they are students in good standing. Students from other institutions may transfer up to 12 applicable credits earned in an incomplete degree or Certificate programme or as an independent student, provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

The Certificate: Sequence II programme is offered in the day and evening, and in the Summer Session. Some of the courses may also be offered outside Montréal through the Office for Off-Campus Education.

NOTE III: Individuals who have completed TESL Certificate I are not eligible for admission to TESL Certificate II.
INFORMATION RELEVANT TO ALL PROGRAMMES

NOTE IV: Upon successful completion of the BEd (TESL) programme and after application to the coordinator of Graduation (Evaluation) in the Student Service Centre, a graduate may be recommended to the Québec Teachers Certification Service for a "Permis d’enseigner (probation): autorisation personnelle temporaire". This temporary teaching permit will be issued by the Québec Ministère de l'éducation to teach ESL at the Primary and Secondary levels in French-speaking schools. The graduate then has five years to complete the two-year full-time probationary teaching period. When this has been done, the graduate will be eligible for a "Brevet d’enseignement: autorisation personnelle permanente" (a teaching diploma).

Upon successful completion of the TESL Certificate Sequence I or TESL Certificate Sequence II, a graduate previously certified to teach in Québec will be recommended for an additional "Brevet d’enseignement: autorisation personnelle permanente". This teaching diploma will be issued to teach ESL at the Primary and Secondary levels in French-speaking schools. A graduate who has been granted a temporary teaching permit to teach a subject other than ESL may be recommended for an additional permit to teach ESL.

There is no comparable certification process for teaching ESL at CEGEP level — Collège d’enseignement général et professionnel (junior college) or other adult level.

To be recommended for certification (Permit or Diploma), students must achieve at least a "C" grade in methodology and teaching practice courses: that is,

1. for the BEd, in TESL 324, 424, 385, and 485;
2. for the Certificate Sequence I or II options, in TESL 324, 424, and 433.

Students who obtain a passing grade that is below the level required for recommendation for certification will be placed on conditional standing within the programme and will be so informed in writing by the director of the TESL Centre. Students will be allowed to repeat the course(s) in question only once in order to achieve the required grade. (For the status of this grade as part of the student record, see Calendar §16.3.12.)

Students who fail to repeat the course successfully within one year will, to remain in the programme, be required to acknowledge in writing that they have forfeited the right to be recommended for certification.

Students who obtain a failing grade (F, R or NR) in any of the courses listed in paragraphs (1) and (2) above will be required to withdraw from the programme and will also be so informed in writing by the director of the TESL Centre.

To be recommended for certification in Québec, students must demonstrate reasonable fluency in French.

In the event that a student meets regular University standards but does not satisfy the requirements for recommendation for certification, the student may apply to receive the University degree or Certificate but will not be recommended to the Ministry.

NOTE V: Upon admission, students may be granted exemptions from courses in TESL programmes if they have completed equivalent work at the University level. Replacement for these exemptions must be made in accordance with the guidelines established by the TESL Centre and approved by the University. Copies of these guidelines may be obtained in the TESL Centre.

Courses in English as a Second Language are designed for students who are not native speakers of English and who need further training in the effective use of English in the University setting. Students must be tested for placement in ESL 207, 208, 209, or 210. Information about placement testing schedules may be obtained from the English Language Proficiency Testing Office, TESL Centre, 2155 Guy, Room: 601-3, (514) 846-2463. A special examination fee is charged. (See §15.1)

Written work may be required in English for these courses; please consult with the Department.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see §200.1 for a list of equivalent courses.

NOTE: Students enrolled in a 90-credit degree or an Extended Credit degree Programme in the Faculty of Arts and Science may take ESL courses for degree credit, up to a maximum of six credits.

ESL courses must complete them before commencing TESL 221.

TESL 231  Modern English Grammar I  (3 credits)
This course is primarily designed for students who intend to teach ESL. The course involves a study of important aspects of English structure. It aims to prepare students to apply their knowledge of grammatical structure to the teaching of ESL, for example in the identification and analysis of errors and in the preparation of pedagogical materials.

NOTE: Students who are required to take ESL courses must complete them before commencing TESL 231.

TESL 232  Modern English Grammar II  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 231. This course continues the study of English grammatical structure begun in TESL 231. It aims to increase students' knowledge in this field and to improve their ability to apply this knowledge to the teaching of ESL.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for TESL 431 may not take this course for credit.

TESL 298  Selected Topics in TESL  (3 credits)

TESL 299  Selected Topics in TESL  (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

TESL 318  Theories of Reading and Writing  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Nine TESL credits including TESL 324. The course examines the theoretical and research basis for current practice in the teaching of reading and writing. Students become familiar with the concerns and practices of those investigating the development of reading and writing in second language learners in particular, and become aware of how this is related to teaching materials and activities.

TESL 324  Methodology I  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 221; TESL 231 or TESL 201; TESL 205, each with a grade of "C" or better, and admission to a TESL programme or permission of the Department. This course reviews current theory in applied linguistics which relates directly to teaching and learning ESL in the classroom. Techniques and methods appropriate to child, adolescent, and adult learners are discussed and demonstrated. In this course the emphasis is on classroom-oriented techniques and materials related to the teaching of listening and speaking.

NOTE: Student must have achieved at least a "C" in this course in order to be recommended for teacher certification upon completion of the programme.

TESL 341  Language Acquisition  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 221; TESL 231, or permission of the Department. This course analyzes developmental processes of both native-language and second-language acquisition. Research is examined in terms of implications for second-language teaching.

TESL 351  History and Development of the English Language  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 221; TESL 231, or permission of the Department. A study of the morphological, phonological, syntactical, and semantic changes that have taken place from Proto-Indo-European to the present. Students are required to do elementary linguistic analyses of texts from different stages in the development of the language.

TESL 361  Teaching English for Specific Purposes  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 324, or permission of the Department. This course provides instruction in the teaching of language skills to those who require English either as an auxiliary to their scientific, technical or professional skills or as a medium for training in these areas.

TESL 385  Internship I  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 324 and TESL 413 previously or concurrently. This course is offered as part of a cluster of daytime fall-term courses which introduces the student teacher to the ESL classroom. Students observe experienced teachers, and have opportunities for micro-teaching, as well as some teaching to ESL students. Opportunities are provided for observation and practice with ESL learners at different ages and levels of proficiency in English.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for TESL 433 may not take this course for credit.

NOTE: Students must have achieved at least a "C" grade in this course in order to be recommended for teacher certification upon completion of the programme.

NOTE: Students will complete the in-school portion of this course in a (M.E.Q.-approved) private or public Primary or Secondary school (where French is the language of instruction), in order to be recommended for teacher certification at these levels. Teaching practice completed with adults will not qualify students to be recommended for teacher certification.

TESL 398 Selected Topics in TESL (3 credits)

TESL 399 Selected Topics in TESL (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

TESL 413 Audio-Visual Aids (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 324 previously or concurrently. This course examines audio-visual resources and their effective use in second-language teaching. Students are given experience with the technical equipment generally available for use in second-language classrooms. In addition, students produce their own audio-visual materials.

TESL 415 Testing and Evaluation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 324. An introduction to the general purposes and methods of language testing, with a description of the chief characteristics of sound educational measures. The course examines the processes involved in constructing and administering tests designed to evaluate achievement in the ESL classroom.

TESL 424 Methodology II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 324. This course continues the presentation of techniques and methods begun in TESL 324. In this course the emphasis is on classroom-oriented techniques and materials related to the teaching of reading and writing.

NOTE: Students must have achieved at least a "C" grade in this course in order to be recommended for teacher certification upon completion of the programme.

TESL 430 Computers in Language Learning (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 324. This course allows students to investigate the many facets of the field of Computer-Assisted Language Learning (CALL). The focus is on the evaluation and selection of CALL materials, the integration of computers into an ESL/EFL environment, practical aspects of using computers with students, and the production of teaching materials for CALL. Stress is placed on the pedagogical aspects of CALL, with technical considerations introduced only to the level required for teachers to make use of computers in a teaching environment. No knowledge of computer programming is required, nor will it be taught.

TESL 433 Practicum (3 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 324. This course is open only to students enrolled in Certificate Sequence I or II. In this course students practise techniques which were introduced in their methodology courses. There are opportunities for observation of ESL classes taught by experienced teachers. Techniques presented in TESL 324 and 424 are practised in micro-teaching, peer teaching and sessions with groups of ESL students. Requirements include lesson planning and evaluation of one's own teaching performance.

NOTE: Students must have achieved at least a "C" grade in this course in order to be recommended for teacher certification upon completion of the programme.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for TESL 385 may not take this course for credit.

TESL 434 Error Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Fifteen TESL credits including TESL 324 and TESL 341. In this course current theories of second-language acquisition are reviewed and applied. Each student carries out analyses of ESL learners' language, focusing on patterns of errors. The identification and classification of errors is followed by the development of teaching materials which the student uses in order to help learners overcome some persistent errors.

TESL 442 Problems in Bilingualism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Fifteen TESL credits. This course is an introduction to some linguistic, social and psychological aspects of languages in contact, with particular attention to the situation in Canada. Emphasis is placed on the description and evaluation of different types of bilingual education programmes and the factors which influence the choice of particular models.

TESL 486 Internship II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: TESL 385, or equivalent. This course provides supervised teaching in ESL classes, in addition to seminars and discussions on teaching techniques appropriate to different ages and levels of proficiency in English. Students take a daytime winter-term section, together with a daytime section of TESL 424. Evening sections of these courses are open to experienced teachers who are currently teaching ESL.

NOTE: Students must have achieved at least a "C" grade in this course in order to be recommended for teacher certification upon completion of the programme.

NOTE: Students will complete the in-school portion of this course in a (M.E.Q.-approved) private or public Primary or Secondary school (where French is the language of instruction), in order to be recommended for Québec provincial teacher certification at these levels. Teaching practice completed with adults will not qualify students to be recommended for teacher certification.

NOTE: Students who completed TESL 385 in a Primary school will change to a Secondary school in this course. Those who taught in a Secondary school will change to a Primary school.

TESL 491 Study in a Special Subject
(3 credits)

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course provides an opportunity for advanced students to intensify their study beyond the area of specialization already represented by the curriculum. The selected subject varies with the special interest of the instructor conducting the course in any given year.

TESL 492 Study in a Special Subject
(3 credits)

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. A student repeating TESL 491 registers for credits under TESL 492.

TESL 498 Advanced Topics in TESL
(3 credits)

TESL 499 Advanced Topics in TESL
(6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

Department Objectives

Theology builds a bridge between religious experience and human society. To expand understanding of the human person and of God, the Department seeks to make accessible to all its students an immense tradition of knowledge—especially through interpretation theory, historical analysis, psychological insight and theoretical elaboration.

Within the spectrum of world religions, it focuses on the Christian experience, and the Roman Catholic tradition in particular. The Department is dedicated to training professional theologians and researchers while expanding the horizons of those who wish to appreciate their heritage.

Programmes

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

Students must have their programmes approved by the Department. All courses in the Department are open to any qualified student of Concordia.

THEO 499 Advanced Topics in Theology (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
Urban Studies is a multidisciplinary programme, designed to introduce the student to the processes of planned change in urban environments. Urban Studies provides a core of urban planning courses involving field studies, planning projects, and the acquisition of technical skills. Complementary courses in Sociology, Political Science, Economics, and Geography provide the necessary approaches and understanding in order to consider complex urban development. The programme is designed for students planning to undertake a post-graduate degree in planning or a related field and also provides required training for work in the planning, real estate, and social service fields.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value. Students should consult with the programme coordinator prior to registering for Urban Studies courses. Students exempted from any required courses must replace them with others that are relevant to the programme, chosen in consultation with the programme coordinator.

For the following programmes URBS 280 may serve as a prerequisite for courses in Urban Sociology, Urban Geography, and Urban Politics.

Courses

For equivalent course numbers used in previous years, see §200.1.

URBS 280 Urban Development (6 credits)
This course surveys urban development as a physical phenomenon, created and reshaped by technological change and socio-economic forces. Some reference is made to the part urban planners may play in this process.

URBS 334 Urban Design Graphic Techniques (3 credits)
Prerequisite: URBS 280. This course familiarizes the student with graphic techniques and materials used by planners and urban designers in preparing their plans for public exposition and for implementation.

URBS 379 Urban Planning in Historical Perspective (3 credits)
Prerequisite: URBS 280. A broad frame of reference is developed by using both evolutionary and archetypal approaches to elucidate both long- and short-term historical perspectives. The evolutionary concept is used to explore the relationship between recent Canadian, American and British planning experience. In contrast, plan form and planning style are shown as dynamic systems of archetypes, responding over time to shifting cultural preoccupations and world views.

URBS 382 Legal Aspects of Urban Planning (3 credits)
Prerequisite: URBS 280. The legal aspects of land use planning are discussed including zoning, conservation, and restoration of historic enclaves and older neighbourhoods, environmental protection and related issues, in the context of legislation and jurisprudence in Québec and Canada since the beginning of the twentieth century.

URBS 433 Applied Urban Geography—Urban Design (6 credits)
Prerequisite: GEOG 331, or permission of the coordinator. An applied course in urban design and land use planning. An overview of current theory and practice is balanced, during the Second Term, by studio-planning projects emphasizing a team approach.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG 433 may not take this course for credit.

URBS 481 Seminar in Urban Studies (6 credits)
Prerequisite: URBS 379; URBS 382. Sixty credits; enrolment in Urban Studies programme. This is an advanced seminar which studies urban phenomena in the Canadian context. The seminar explores relevant urban issues and seeks the development of urban policy positions. Students are asked to prepare and submit appropriate research policy papers.

URBS 483 Practical Experience in Urban Planning I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: URBS 379; URBS 382. Sixty credits; enrolment in Urban Studies programme. This is a field assignment to allow students to gain work experience in the field of urban planning, including job search and interviews. Students are responsible for finding and negotiating their own placements, with the help of a list of potential employers. Occasional seminars will be held to aid students’ understanding.

URBS 484 Practical Experience in Urban Planning II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: URBS 382; URBS 483. Sixty credits; enrolment in Urban Studies programme. This is a field assignment to allow students to gain work experience in the field of urban planning, including job search and interviews. Students are responsible for finding and negotiating their own placements, with the help of a list of potential employers. Occasional seminars will be held to aid students’ understanding.

URBS 485 Special Problems in Planning Practice (3 credits)
This course deals with equivocal planning issues related to the conflict between growth and change and the need to maintain community and environmental stability. Subjects examined may include gentrification, public housing, women and the city, and planning in harmony with nature. Particular attention is paid to questions of professional discretion and potential influence raised by such issues.
NOTE: This course is limited to Urban Studies students who have completed 30 Urban Studies credits.

URBS 486  Site Selection Criteria
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: URBS 382; GEOG 331. Site selection and planning of facilities and infrastructure is based on skilful compromise. Understanding the process is the function of this course. Techniques for the planning and evaluation of a number of urban development elements are investigated in the light of planning goals, principles, performance criteria, funds, timing and public participation. Alternative sites are sought and evaluated.

URBS 487  The Computer and Urban Planning
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: URBS 280; URBS 334; INTE 290. This course is to familiarize the student with Geographic Information Systems (GIS) using the city of Montréal's system as a case study.

URBS 488  Urban Ecology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: URBS 280; URBS 379; URBS 382. This course studies the city as an ecosystem, qualitatively influenced by direct and indirect human interventions. It analyses the city as a support system to sustain human life and provide environmental health for generations to come. The course considers the harmonization of human needs within a sustainable urban environment.
The Department of Computer Science offers a Minor in Computer Science available to students in the Faculty of Arts and Science. For further details on this programme, see §71.80.5.
The Faculty of Arts and Science is the largest Faculty in the University. In order to combat the depersonalization so often found in a large faculty, the Faculty of Arts and Science has created smaller, more manageable units offering a personalized approach to education. At present, there are five such units in existence: Liberal Arts College, Lonergan University College, School of Community and Public Affairs, Science College, and Simone de Beauvoir Institute. Each unit is composed of a group of students and fellows who are united by a particular philosophy of education.

Each unit operates in much the same fashion. Normally a student admitted to the University will enrol in a specific department-based programme — a Major, Specialization, or Honours. Students in the Liberal Arts College may, however, elect to enrol in the College Major in Western Society and Culture instead of in a departmental programme. Similarly, students in the Simone de Beauvoir Institute may enrol in a Major programme in Women’s Studies. Students attracted by the particular educational opportunities offered by one of the units will apply to the unit in question. Once admitted to the College, Institute, or School of their choice, students may benefit from the academic curriculum, the extra-curricular activities, and social and intellectual environment provided in each of these units. It is the goal of these units to assist students to broaden their specialized disciplinary education with carefully chosen electives, with specially designed tutorials, and with career-oriented advising, all set in a more personal and friendly “university college” environment.

Each unit has a physical location of its own, where its students may gather to exchange ideas, whether in the classroom or in one of the lounges provided for such interaction. As well, there is a library of basic books and periodical literature. From time to time, there will be planned activities, special-interest seminars, and stimulating lectures by invited guest speakers.

Each unit has a group of faculty members from within the University assigned as fellows or tutors, whose major function will be to act as student advisers. Together, students and fellows or tutors plan a carefully integrated undergraduate programme based on the philosophy of education promoted.

The advantage of this approach to education is that students may utilize the resources of a large Arts and Science Faculty, yet still enjoy the effective interchange of ideas that only a small unit can provide.
Through the Institute for Co-operative Education, the University offers programmes in the co-operative format in the Departments of Chemistry and Biochemistry, Economics, Exercise Science, Mathematics and Statistics, and Physics in the Faculty of Arts and Science, and in the Centre for Building Studies and the Department of Computer Science in the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science.

Co-operative programmes in the Faculty of Arts and Science are open to students who are enrolled in many of the Honours and Specialization programmes offered by the above Departments.

As it becomes feasible the University may consider offering other disciplines in the co-op format.

(Please see §24 of this Calendar.)
The Liberal Arts College, a small community of fellows and students, provides a unique liberal arts emphasis within the Faculty of Arts and Science. Built on a core of seven courses, the multidisciplinary curriculum is designed to guide students in exploring the foundations and development of Western civilization and culture. The aim is to foster the major values of the Western tradition—those of critical thinking and respect for intellectual freedom.

The major goal of Liberal Arts College is to assist the student in the process of becoming an educated person. The College seeks to translate into modern idioms the traditional vision of education as a preparation for life. Its core courses and seminars, sharing a common concern with the changing nature of society and culture, aim at the development of an informed critical consciousness.

Emphasis is also placed on sharpening the basic expressive and analytical tools indispensable to social and cultural understanding. All College students are expected to present, or to acquire, a knowledge of a second language (normally, French), necessary for their research and to write and to express themselves clearly. Training in research techniques is stressed, and original, independent work encouraged.

Liberal Arts College, linking demanding general education to significant specialization, is committed to serious intellectual work. Through its curriculum, staff, standards, and academic environment, it hopes to communicate the excitement and creativity of such engagement to its students.
in their College core curriculum; all others must maintain a "C" average in their College core curriculum. All Honours students in the College are expected to undertake significant original work, on a staff-guided basis, in their final year.

Les étudiantes et étudiants francophones devront donner la preuve de leur connaissance de la langue anglaise.

Staff

Faculty fellows chosen from the University’s Departments form the staff of all College courses, seminars, and tutorials. Teaching fellows are resident in the College, as is its principal, who also teaches in the core curriculum. It is intended that, each year, a distinguished visiting fellow, selected on the basis of outstanding academic achievement and renown, will be resident and will teach in the College.

Facilities

Liberal Arts College is located on Concordia University’s downtown Sir George Williams Campus. Much of its seminar and tutorial teaching is done in the same building that houses the College’s principal and core fellows. The College has student study areas, a course-materials library, and audio-visual facilities, as well as common rooms and a collection of important newspapers, journals, and periodicals. The College is the focus of an extra-curricular programme of visiting speakers and cultural events, and is a place where the exchange of ideas and views generated in courses and seminars continues on a more informal basis.

Counselling

Close student-faculty contact and exchange is part of the Liberal Arts College’s stress on serious intellectual work. Each student is assigned to a faculty fellow who acts as a personal adviser, and who follows the student’s progress through the College, advising on the choice of disciplinary or area specialization. All students’ work is evaluated annually by the principal and fellows.

College Council

Council, composed of fellows and students, is the formal decision-making body of Liberal Arts College. It meets regularly, chaired by the principal, as a forum in which current issues and future policy are discussed and decisions taken. Council is that body which ensures the democratic participation of all members of the College in its on-going academic and extra-curricular work.

---

Programmes

All Liberal Arts College students must take the core curriculum. These interrelated courses, including seminar and tutorial work, as well as the final-year Integrative Seminar, constitute a significant segment of the course work required for College-sponsored BA programmes. Liberal Arts College stresses Honours work, although a student may, with the permission of the College, combine the core curriculum with a Departmental Specialization or Major programme, or with the Individual Studies programmes. Selected students may, with College permission, be admitted to the College’s BA Major in Western Society and Culture. (See §31.170 of this Calendar).

In addition to completing the core curriculum, students must meet the Faculty of Arts and Science degree requirements and complete a Departmental Major, Specialization, or Honours programme, or the Individual Studies programme or the Major in L.A.C. Western Society and Culture. The core curriculum may also be applied towards Specialization or Honours work in the Individual Studies Programme. (See §31.170 of this Calendar).

All College students must consult with a College adviser before selecting courses in other disciplines or fields. Generally, courses in the Liberal Arts College are open only to members of the College.

Honours candidates must maintain a "B" average in their College courses, with no grade lower than a "C". Students in a Major or Specialization programme must maintain a "C" average in their College courses, with no grade lower than a "D".

Objectives

The members of Lonergan University College seek to engage in interdisciplinary dialogue about fundamental questions of value in culture, art, science, and religion. The College is dedicated both to studying Bernard Lonergan’s interdisciplinary approach and to fostering students’ capacities for interdisciplinary dialogue. As teachers and students of traditional disciplines in the University, members participate in a Fellows seminar, student seminars, and lectures at the College. Each year, a visiting scholar leads the College in studying the works of a selected thinker.

Dedication

Lonergan University College is named in honour of Dr. Bernard F. Lonergan, a former student, and later a professor at Loyola College, Montréal. Dr. Lonergan’s work has been recognized throughout the world and is the subject of several hundred books and dissertations. Recently, an international Journal of Lonergan Studies has been initiated in the United States.

General Philosophy

Lonergan University College exists for those, students and professors, who believe in an education beyond the current tradition of depersonalized and compartmentalized knowledge. Lonergan students maintain a regular Department-based programme of studies. At the same time, however, they share with others the dynamics of human enquiry that transcends the narrowness of disciplinary methodologies.

Inquiry into “Value”

The Fellows of Lonergan University College are convinced that the deepest issues of life are implicitly involved in all the academic disciplines, and that both honesty and sanity demand that we attend to this fact and reflect upon it.

LONERGAN UNIVERSITY COLLEGE • 403
The subject matter chosen for the College Seminar (LUCC 399) serves as a focus for each year's activity. There are no limits to the choice of a particular thinker except that he or she be considered as among the foremost in shaping Western civilization. In each choice, however, the scholarship is clearly concerned with values: they may be values centred on the question "should it be done?" as opposed to "can it be done?"; they may be values so entrenched in fundamental assumptions as to appear self-evident and beyond argument; or they may be values considered by some to be ultimate and beyond rational understanding. In each case, the value systems are exposed and critically analyzed, allowing the individual to come to his or her own conclusions.

Method
The College has adopted an educational strategy which is interdisciplinary and empirical. This strategy is interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary because central and ultimate issues of human life are involved in all disciplines; yet many of these issues overlap the traditional boundaries of knowledge and must be analyzed without the dominance of any one perspective. This strategy is empirical in the sense that all knowing begins with enquiry about experience of the world and of ourselves as subjects. Resulting judgement of truth and value must be verified through a methodologically precise appeal to this experience. Following this strategy, Lonergan students use their Departmental study as a resource to be shared and extended by working with students and Fellows from other Departments on a common intellectual project as determined by one of the Lonergan courses. The work and method of Bernard Lonergan are studied by many of our students. His influence is reflected in the concept of education at the College whether or not students choose to study his work explicitly.

The Style of the College
Lonergan University College offers its students all the resources of Concordia University. Lonergan students take a regular degree programme in the Department of their choice on either of the two campuses of Concordia University. Moreover, the College aims to contribute to a style of life which will heighten intellectual experience and enrich personal growth during the student's university years. It does this, not by claiming to "raise standards", but rather by demanding that its students relate what they learn to their personal lives and deeper values. A university is the place where the universe should be discussed and intellectually appropriated. Conversation, as much as courses or research, is at the heart of university life. It is precisely this aspect of university life that has been undermined in this century by the incredible growth in knowledge itself, and by the proliferation of specialties. What universal knowledge is now possible? What do students have in common to discuss? Lonergan University College believes that there is something in common to be discussed, and dedicates its resources to assure the depth and vitality of that discussion. It involves all its members, both students and Fellows, in structured conversation that will grow in breadth and meaning through the three years of a student's university career.

Membership
1. Students usually join the College on a continuous basis by undertaking the College programme outlined below. This commitment constitutes full membership in the College, and it may be made when the student is first admitted to the College or at a later date. Full members are assigned an academic adviser though they may wish to seek counselling from any of the Fellows should they so wish.
2. Concordia students may also join the College on a yearly basis by registering in one of the College seminars. Annual membership entitles students to use the College lounges and facilities and to participate in the social activities of the College.
3. Students who complete the programme will be graduated officially as Lonergan students and will have this fact noted on their transcripts.

Academic Programme
1. Most distinctive in the College programme is the unique opportunity for students and Fellows to participate each year in a College seminar.
2. The Lonergan curriculum may be described as a programme of general education, which focuses on "value". Such a study, which is both interdisciplinary and integrative in nature, is designed to complement the student's regular programme of specialized education.
3. Students must meet the degree requirements of the Faculty of Arts and Science, and complete either a Departmental or interdisciplinary Major, Specialization, or Honours programme.
4. The Lonergan programme consists of 24 credits outside the above Major, Specialization or Honours. These 24 credits may be taken as follows:

I) College seminars (18 credits)
   a) These credits may be amassed over three or more years by a succession of six-credit and/or three-credit seminars.
   b) Students who are admitted to the College after completing 30 credits at Concordia will be required to complete only 12 credits in College seminars.

II) College courses (6 credits)
   a) These courses must be selected in consultation with the student's academic adviser in the College. They may be taken in College courses listed below, or else from the list of Lonergan-approved electives established each year by the College Curriculum Committee.
   b) Late entrants to the College who have been exempted from seminar credits under I b) above, may complete their general requirements of 24 credits by substituting additional College courses or Lonergan-approved elective courses.

College Facilities and Activities
The College is governed by a set of by-laws, and by a College Council composed of students and Fellows.
The central activity of the College is its weekly seminar. The seminar focuses each year on the work of a major thinker, one who has decisively influenced our culture for good or for evil. The topic will change each year, but the depth of human integration and social awareness of the authors we choose ensures continuity in our discussion. As participants in the seminar are competent in diverse academic disciplines, an understanding of the topic develops which on the one hand does justice to the diversity of contemporary awareness, and on the other demands levels of understanding which transcend technical jargon. An internationally recognized scholar will be invited to come to Lonergan University College as the "Distinguished Visiting Scholar", to lead the College seminar. The Visiting Scholar will also give university lectures and public addresses, as deemed appropriate.
Each student of Lonergan University College joins with a small number of others to form a seminar group. College Fellows will direct the group and be available for academic advising to students. These groups will meet for two hours every week.
Students and Fellows will be encouraged to share in College government, to participate in College events, and, in various ways, to make the College the centre of their lives at the University.
The College offers a comfortable lounge, a specialized library, and several quiet rooms for study. It also has a research centre for Lonergan studies with a complete set of manuscripts, and of published works.

Admissions and Applications
Students seeking admission to the College should fill in the appropriate section (Box D) of the University Admissions Application form. Interested students may also contact the College directly by telephoning, or by coming to the College, or else by writing to the College at the following address: 7141 Sherbrooke Street West, Montréal, Québec, H4B 1R6. Each candidate for admission will be invited to an interview with the principal.

Courses

LUCC 200 The Creative Experience of Understanding (6 credits)
This course deals with questions such as how ideas develop, what it means to understand, and how human knowing is creative. Once aware of the creative process in their own thinking, students are helped to recognize its presence in the diverse kinds of thinking represented in such major thinkers as studied in the Lonergan University College interdisciplinary seminar (LUCC 399).

LUCC 398 Special College Seminar (3 credits)
Students who for good reason cannot follow the regular College Seminar (LUCC 399) meet every second week for two semesters or every week for one semester, under the direction of a College Fellow. The same text is read as in the regular seminar, and the discussion has the same aim.

LUCC 399 Lonergan College Seminar (6 credits)
A different work is selected by the College
Council each year from among those classics which have shaped our civilization. In the past the following were selected: Bernard Lonergan, Carl Jung, Northrop Frye, Niccolo Machiavelli, Teresa of Avila, Charles Darwin, Sigmund Freud, and Dante. The seminar meets each week through two semesters, to read segments of the work in appropriate intellectual contexts, and to move eventually to a personal, value-oriented, dialectic with the work. One week the Fellows discuss with the Visiting Scholar with student participation. The following week students meet in small groups with individual Fellows to deepen and broaden discussion.

LUCC 410  Introduction to the Works of Bernard Lonergan
(3 credits)
A selection of Lonergan's works is read and discussed.

LUCC 440  The Interdisciplinary Experience
(3 credits)
This course is cross-listed with INTE 400. This course engages students in the task of integrating their University discipline into the more general enterprise of human knowing and deciding, and attempts to objectify this experience with the aid of a basic study of Lonergan's integrative methodology. The texts are selected from the works of Bernard Lonergan and other comparable theorists.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for LUCC 400 may not take this course for credit.

LUCC 498  Lonergan University College Selected Problems
(3 credits)

LUCC 499  Lonergan University College Selected Topics
(6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The School of Community and Public Affairs (SCPA) offers multidisciplinary training in public policy – how it is made or influenced and by whom. The School prepares its graduates to be knowledgeable participants in the policy-making process at the community, corporate or government levels.

An innovative combination of academic and practical training exposes students to a wide range of public issues. In small classes encouraging participation, students develop specialized abilities to do research, to communicate, and to organize. An internship programme also enables students to gain the necessary experience of working in a public affairs job.

The School will be of interest to excellent students in a variety of disciplines, including economics, history, political science, sociology, urban studies, journalism, communication studies, and business. While some of our students enter the work force upon completion of their undergraduate degree, the majority continue their education. SCPA graduates tend to do graduate work either in their disciplines or, more often, in professionally-oriented programmes including Public or Business Administration, International Affairs, Industrial Relations, and Law. The historic Mackay Street building which the School occupies is an ideal site for small classes, public lectures, social events, and meetings. School facilities include a common room, a reading room and documentation centre, a seminar room, a computer room, and faculty and student offices.

Programme

Students who enrol in the School of Community and Public Affairs will follow a programme composed of the following elements:

Prerequisite: Permission of the School of Community and Public Affairs. This course takes a multidisciplinary approach to the problems of decision-making and policy formulation, with particular attention paid to the complex interaction among groups and institutions in society. The course is designed to provide insights into the design, implementation and evaluation of policies.

Special emphasis is placed on data and information analysis and communication skills. Topics covered include: the state and public policy; business, government and society; labour and unions; non-profit and community groups; interest groups and policy agendas; media and society; international institutions.

Performance Requirement and Exemptions Policy

Students are required to maintain an average of "B-" in the Core courses of the School and an overall average of "C". In addition, all members of the School are expected to participate in its operation. Where exemptions are granted for any of the Core courses, students are required to replace them with an equal number of credits chosen in consultation with the SCPA adviser.

Entrance Requirements

Students admitted to the University and seeking to enter the School must have achieved a "B" average, or the equivalent at the previous educational level. Students wishing to enter the School will be interviewed personally. In exceptional circumstances, a candidate who has failed to meet the grade requirement will be admitted on the basis of a personal evaluation of potential capacities, as against those realized in previous studies. Each student enrolled in the School will have to demonstrate a working knowledge of English and French.

For further information on curriculum, programmes, personnel, and objectives, please call the principal, at 848-2575.
the School of Community and Public Affairs. This seminar is normally taken by students in their second year. Under the direction of a Fellow, the seminar consists of a series of "modules" of approximately three weeks' duration. The modules are both skill and problem oriented and draw on the expertise of both academics and practicing professionals drawn from public and private agencies. Topics vary from term to term, but focus on specific functions and areas in public affairs in order to equip students with a range of skills needed to pursue careers in the field.

SCPA 411 Internship (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the School of Community and Public Affairs. An essential part of the School's programme is a one-semester apprenticeship in some aspect of community and public affairs. After completing 60 credits of the BA programme, including a significant portion of the School's core, students are required to complete a practicum that will allow them to test their ideas in a real situation. Placements may be drawn from all areas of possible employment, including the private sector, government and community service organizations. Students are expected to participate fully in finding and defining possible internships. Employers are asked to join in an evaluation of the work period. Students are required to submit a written report which summarizes and evaluates their work experience.

SCPA 412 Research Seminar (3 credits)
Prerequisite: SCPA 411. Students who have completed their internship are required to define a set of problems, normally based on some aspect of their practical experience. They then define a policy agenda on which further research is undertaken. Working in groups, they organize a series of seminars relating to the policy agenda. These seminars are presented by academics and practising professionals and are open to all members of the School. In unusual circumstances, SCPA 412 may be taken concurrently with SCPA 411 with permission of the School.

SCPA 498 Advanced Seminar in Community and Public Affairs (3 credits)

SCPA 499 Advanced Topics in Community and Public Affairs (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The aim of the Science College is to prepare students enrolled in one of Concordia's science programmes for a life of research, teaching or some similarly demanding intellectual pursuit in a profession. The academic programme of the College complements the regular undergraduate curriculum and includes cross-disciplinary courses, and student participation in laboratory research activities from the first year on. The collegial atmosphere fosters interaction among students and between students and faculty.

In Science College, students will gain an understanding of several areas of science, while specializing in whichever one they choose. Curricular structures frequently restrict students to a single discipline. To help counteract excessive specialization, the Science College has designed a series of courses to show what practising physicists think about physics; what mathematicians do when they are thinking mathematics: not "an introduction to", but "the state of the art".

The College provides an opportunity for students to become acquainted with science as practised and understood by scientists today. Its curriculum is planned to fulfill the primary goals of the College — to provide an opportunity for experience in a research environment, for thinking about the nature of science, and for becoming aware of the style and content of the various scientific disciplines.

In Science College, students have the opportunity to work individually with active research scientists. This is done through a programme of directed or independent study in each undergraduate year which enables them to undertake or participate in projects of discovery in a variety of different areas of scientific endeavour.

Students of the College will also be provided with an opportunity to consider the nature of science. The College offers courses in the intellectual and social context of science. Designed specifically for College students, these courses raise questions of broad interest to scientists and presume an understanding of the subject matter of science itself.
Students will also be given the opportunity to consider the social and cultural framework of their science studies through a basic course in some aspect of humanistic studies. This will bring them into intellectual contact with students in our fellow College of Liberal Arts. Finally, students will be encouraged to appreciate the link between clarity of thought and clarity of expression, through the availability of tutorial assistance in the development of writing skills.

Facilities
The College has study and lounge areas, computer facilities, a small library and a collection of periodicals of general interest. The College offers students the opportunity and facilities to discuss matters of interest among themselves and with their professors. Science College also offers a number of courses and invites scientists to visit the University to meet College students.

Requirements for Admission to Science College
The programme of Science College is academically demanding, involving concentration in one discipline and a critical investigation of other aspects of science. The College is committed to serious academic work and high standards, and seeks to attract talented and enthusiastic students who are willing to work hard in a search for a deeper understanding of their subject. Science College represents a new departure at Concordia's downtown campus. Students must enrol in a science programme that leads to a BSc degree in order to be part of Science College. Students registered for a BA in Journalism are also eligible, as are students registered in the General Science Option of Computer Science.

In addition to the normal requirements for admission to the University's various programmes, applicants are expected to have a good academic average. They will be considered on the basis of their academic record, and a personal interview. Preference will be given to students who show a disposition and an aptitude to profit from the unique features of the sort of fundamental scientific education which the College offers. Applicants are encouraged to provide evidence of the range of their intellectual interests and of any creative activity in which they may have been involved.

Students must be prepared to attend courses at times outside the normal University schedule. The College is open to full-time students only.

Science College and Journalism
A limited number of students who have been admitted to the Major in Journalism programme may be allowed to register in the Science College, with a view to combining a basic understanding of science with a training in journalism. For such students, a second six-credit course in the historical, philosophical, and social aspects of science will be offered. Other members of the College will have the option of taking this course if they so desire.

Performance Requirement
Students in the College must maintain a “B” average in courses offered by the College, with no grade lower than a “C”.

Further Information
Further information on the courses and activities of the Science College may be obtained either by writing or by telephoning the College office. Personal interviews with a fellow of the Science College may be arranged through the Science College office.

Science College Core Curriculum
The College offers a core of courses which is required of all students. This core consists of 30 of the 90 credits normally required for a BSc degree. These courses have been developed specifically for the College with the intention of providing a unique, integrated programme of education in science.

In addition to completing the Core Curriculum, students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements by completing a departmental Honours, Specialization, or Major programme leading to a BSc. The superscript indicates credit value.

This course may be repeated twice for credit in this programme provided the subject matter is different.
SCOL 251  Current Issues in Physical Sciences I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. These courses are designed to help students understand the "state of the art" in fields of science in which they are not specializing. They discuss problems under current study, and attempt to identify possible future directions of research. The approach is qualitative. Detailed technical knowledge is not prerequisite.

SCOL 252  Current Issues in Biological Sciences I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. For description see SCOL 251 above.

SCOL 253  Current Issues in Mathematical and Related Sciences I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. For description see SCOL 251 above.

SCOL 270  Historical, Philosophical, and Social Aspects of Science (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. This course discusses the intellectual framework of science and the relationships between science and society, and the political and philosophical questions inherent in the scientific process. This course is primarily intended for College students and relies heavily on primary sources. Students are expected to understand the scientific issues at the level at which they were originally addressed.

SCOL 290  Directed and Independent Study I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. The student works under the supervision of a member of the Faculty on either a practical laboratory project or a literature study. A formal, written report is required.

SCOL 298  Selected Topics in a Scientific Discipline (3 credits)

SCOL 299  Selected Topics in a Scientific Discipline (6 credits)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

SCOL 351  Current Issues in Physical Sciences II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. For description see SCOL 251 above.

SCOL 352  Current Issues in Biological Sciences II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. For description see SCOL 251 above.

SCOL 353  Current Issues in Mathematical and Related Sciences II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. For description see SCOL 251 above.

SCOL 390  Directed and Independent Study II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. A student who has completed SCOL 290 registers for SCOL 390. Students are encouraged to work in a field different from that of their SCOL 290 project.

SCOL 398  Topics for Multidisciplinary Study (3 credits)
The purpose of this course is to introduce students to problems and areas of study which transcend traditional disciplinary barriers. A chosen area of investigation is treated from the viewpoint of various disciplines. Lecturers from different areas may be used for this purpose. The aim is to show the contributions made by each field to the understanding of the problem, and how they complement each other.

SCOL 399  Topics for Multidisciplinary Study (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

SCOL 490  Directed and Independent Study III (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. A student who has completed SCOL 390 registers for SCOL 490. Students are encouraged to work in a field different from that of their SCOL 290 and 390 projects. Students complete a research project approved in advance by the College, under the supervision of a fellow of the College and/or a faculty member in a scientific discipline. NOTE: After consultation with the Science College, a student may register in BIOL 490, CHEM 450, GEOL 414 or PSYC 430 and upon successful completion be exempted from SCOL 490.

SCOL 498 Advanced Topics

(Will not be offered in this academic year.)

Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The Institute strives to stimulate the investigation and understanding of the role of women in society and to encourage women to develop their creative potential. In research and teaching, special attention is given to gender, race, class, and sexual orientation.

The Institute has several objectives: to investigate the history, current situation, and changing needs of women; to generate support for research topics relevant to women; to encourage full recognition of women's contribution to human achievement; to ensure that women and gender issues are studied in a non-discriminatory manner; to strengthen women's rights and the conditions for exercising them; to ensure the equality of all individuals without distinction of race, sex, age, language or religion.
Women's Studies encompass and modify all areas of knowledge. Through the introduction of new perspectives and new research, this field of study helps to correct and complete the traditional scholarly record. It is in essence interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary since the specificity of the condition of women embraces all existing disciplines. It thus questions the concept and structures of knowledge contained within the disciplinary boundaries and contributes to bringing about a reunification of the knowledge and scholarship that has become increasingly fragmented.

SIMONE DE BEAUVIOR INSTITUTE
Founded in 1978 to promote the understanding of the historical and contemporary situation of women in society, the Simone de Beauvoir Institute of Concordia University helps women to discover and develop their potential, both by its academic base in Women's Studies and by its co-curricular activities. We are honoured that Simone de Beauvoir authorized us to use her name, and expressed great interest in being informed of our activities until her death.

All students registered in the Major, Minor or Certificate in Women's Studies are normally members of the Institute. Other undergraduate students are welcome to become members if they undertake to complete nine credits of WSDB courses.

The co-curricular life of the Institute is extremely important, and all members are expected to contribute to our activities. Exciting opportunities are available to organize workshops, colloquia and debates on subjects which interest the members, as well as to collaborate with women's organizations outside the University on research projects and other joint ventures.

Admission Requirements for the Simone de Beauvoir Institute
Students may apply simultaneously to Concordia University and the Simone de Beauvoir Institute by filling out and submitting the Concordia University Application for Admission with the box for "colleges" checked and "Simone de Beauvoir Institute" written in the space provided. The Admissions Office will inform us of your application as soon as they receive it.

Further information about the Institute can be obtained by calling us or by visiting our offices. Student members of the Institute are required to complete nine credits chosen from WSDB courses. The choice of these courses must be approved in advance by the principal or her delegate.

Courses

NOTE: The “SDEB” and “WMNS” designations for Women’s Studies courses have been changed to “WSDB”.

NOTE: Please consult §200.1, Equivalents, for a list of equivalent courses.

WSDB 290  Woman’s Identity and Image: Historic Attitudes  (3 credits)
Women’s Studies, because of its emerging yet rapidly developing nature, both affects and transcends pre-existing disciplines. On the one hand, this course shows, in a historical context, how by the use of new developments in various disciplines, fresh light can be shed on traditional assumptions. On the other, it studies not only the “mirror image” of women as found in certain male writings but also the images women have projected of themselves and the reasons underlying those projections. Topics may include: the witch question; the place of women in ecclesiastic reforms; the “blue stockings”; women and contraception; women and public life; women and education; women and socialism; theories of the family; the economic status of women; elitist feminism.

WSDB 291  Woman’s Identity and Image: Recent Approaches  (3 credits)
Again, by using new tools, culled from various disciplines, this course looks at the recent history of women; in particular, the diverse ways in which they have struggled to attain autonomy and the obstacles confronting them. Topics may include: women and revolution; women and work; theories of caste and class; changes in the status of women; women and personhood; women and their bodies; women and language; women and the national question.

WSDB 298  Selected Topics in Women’s Studies  (3 credits)

WSDB 299  Selected Topics in Women’s Studies  (6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

WSDB 370  Workshops in Special Areas of Women’s Studies  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: WSDB 290; WSDB 291. The purpose of these workshops is to examine a number of topics and problems related to the field of Women’s Studies. The issues considered may differ from year to year; several workshops are offered over one academic year and students are required to select two workshops of one and a half credits each from the package. The workshop format is designed to allow Women’s Studies students to participate in learning opportunities with flexibility in scheduling as well as to benefit from the experience of experts who visit Montréal on a short term basis. Possible topics are: women and biotechnology, education of immigrant women, women and continuing education, women and pressure groups.

WSDB 390  Women and Peace: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits, including WSDB 290 and 291, or permission of the Institute. This course examines topics related to women and peace; e.g., women’s roles in social protest movements, violence, pacifism, militarism, hierarchy, revolution, inequality, and ecofeminism. Various alternative proposals are examined.

WSDB 391  Women and Health  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits, including WSDB 290 and 291, or permission of the Institute. This course examines issues related to women’s health. Basic concepts of anatomy and physiology, the biological events of production, and issues in mental health are to be among those topics discussed. The social, health and political implications of these events are also examined.

WSDB 392  Les féminismes d’expression française
(3 credits)
Préalable: 30 crédits, y compris WSDB 290 et 291, ou autorisation de l'Institut. A partir de textes théoriques, d’ouvrages de synthèse ainsi que des œuvres traitant de la vie quotidienne, on examinera les similitudes, les analogies et les traits distinctifs des luttes des femmes durant la dernière décennie ici et ailleurs dans la francophonie, notamment les luttes des femmes arabes, des Antillaises ou encore des femmes d’Afrique noire. Ce cours permettra, tout en tenant compte des différences, de mieux cerner l’expression des féminismes au sein de la francophonie.

WSDB 393  Les théories féministes: histoire et approches récentes
(3 credits)
Préalable: 30 crédits, y compris WSDB 290 et 291, ou autorisation de l'Institut. Dans ce cours sont étudiées les différentes théories féministes. L’accent est mis sur leur développement dans le monde occidental. Les étudiantes et les étudiants sont encouragés à utiliser une méthode à la fois synchronique et diachronique.

WSDB 394  Women of Ideas: History of Feminist Theory
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: 30 credits, including WSDB 290 and 291, or permission of the Institute. This course considers the development of feminist theories focusing mainly on the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, and concluding with an overview of some twentieth-century themes.

WSDB 398  Selected Topics in Women’s Studies
(3 credits)

WSDB 399  Selected Topics in Women’s Studies
(6 credits)
Specific topics for these courses, and prerequisites relevant in each case, will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

The following departmental courses are also offered as components of the programmes in Women’s Studies.

The Faculty of Commerce and Administration is engaged in the education of students for business life. The Faculty’s overall aim is to provide students with a liberal, well-rounded business education and to accomplish this the Faculty features an intellectually challenging curriculum which is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary.

In addition to its undergraduate programmes, the Faculty of Commerce and Administration offers a comprehensive range of graduate programmes which include: PhD, MBA, Executive MBA, Aviation MBA, MSc in Administration, Diploma in Accountancy, Diploma in Institutional Administration and Diploma in Sports Administration.

61.20 ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

General admission requirements are listed in §13.

Specific requirements for admission to the Faculty of Commerce and Administration for students in CEGEP are Mathematics 103, 105, 203, or equivalent. Arrangements will be made in the first-year programme to give special instruction to those students who lack adequate mathematical preparation.

Individuals accepted under the provisions of the Extended Credit Programme will be required to complete the following additional 30 credits within their first year:

- MATH 208, MATH 209, MATH 211;
- ENGL 205, 206, or 211, or an appropriate alternative six credits;
- 15 additional elective credits.

*These electives must be selected from outside the offerings of the Faculty of Commerce and Administration, but not from disciplines represented in its degree programmes.

NOTE: Because of the extensive use of computers in various programmes, students are strongly advised to have access to a personal computer.

61.20.1 Bachelor Degree Programmes

The Faculty of Commerce and Administration offers two distinct Bachelor programmes. The Bachelor of Commerce (BComm) degree is a structured programme in which the student will select a Major from those offered in Commerce or Economics. The Bachelor of Administration (BAdmin) degree is a flexible programme which permits the student to pursue interests outside the Faculty, and offers the possibility of complementing a fundamental grounding in Administration with minor concentrations in an area of interest. Degree requirements listed below apply to all students entering the programme on or after June 1, 1993.

61.20.2 Core Requirements

The required 51-credit core is identical for both programmes and comprises the following courses:
1st Year
ACCOUNTANCY 213
DECISION SCIENCES AND MANAGEMENT
INFORMATION SYSTEMS 243
ECONOMICS 201
MANAGEMENT 266
MARKETING 213
ACCOUNTANCY 218
DECISION SCIENCES AND MANAGEMENT

MANAGEMENT 340
DECISION SCIENCES AND MANAGEMENT
INFORMATION SYSTEMS 250
MARKETING 350
MANAGEMENT 475
FINANCE 315

3rd Year
MANAGEMENT 460

NOTE: Students are responsible for following the correct sequence of courses required for the completion of a particular programme.

This programme involves education in all aspects of business with emphasis on one particular area. All students follow the same sequence of courses. The first year introduces the operational skills, attitudes and tools underlying the core concentration. The second year blends theory and practice to prepare students to analyze, formulate, evaluate and resolve business challenges. The last year allows students to specialize in the area of their choice.

Degree Requirements
To obtain the degree of Bachelor of Commerce, all students are required to follow a Major Programme. A Major consists of at least 24 credits in the chosen discipline in addition to the required 51-credit core. The remaining credits are unrestricted electives and may be selected to form a Minor programme if applicable. Major and Minor programmes are available in the following areas:

Students will indicate their preferred field of concentration at the time of application for entry. It should be noted, however, that since the programme of study of the first year is common to all programmes, students may change to another programme provided, of course, that the capacity of the programme permits it.

This programme is not open to students registered in a programme leading to the degree of Bachelor of Commerce or Bachelor of Administration.

Students may transfer into the Certificate programme up to 12 credits earned in an incomplete degree or certificate programme or as an Independent student, provided they are students in good standing. The credits that may be so transferred are determined by the University at the point of entry into the programme.

Students of this Faculty who elect to major in any of the disciplines of the Faculty or Economics will be enrolled in a Bachelor of Commerce degree programme.

 Bachelor of Administration

Specialization: X

General Administration (60 credits)

30 credits must be selected from courses outside the Faculty of Commerce and Administration, but at least 15 credits must be beyond the introductory level.

* Both degrees have a common core of 51 credits out of a total of 90 credits.

 Students may follow an Honours in Economics, but they must obtain approval from the Arts and Science Faculty (Department of Economics).

The aim of the Bachelor of Administration Programme is to develop capable problem-solvers and decision-makers. The programme provides students with a fundamental grounding in administration and offers them the opportunity to pursue a wide range of interests amongst the various courses offered by the University.

Degree Requirements

To obtain the degree of Bachelor of Administration, students are required to complete the 51-credit core and nine elected credits from Commerce and/or Economics to complete the 60 credits required for Specialization. The remaining 30 credits must be selected from courses outside the Faculty of Commerce and Administration, but at least half of these must be beyond the introductory level.

Students wishing to complete a minor in the Faculty of Commerce and Administration may do so provided they meet all other requirements of the programme.

NOTE: The GPA regulations apply to all students, including those with Visiting status, registered in programmes offered by the Faculty of Commerce and Administration. This also includes the Minor in Business Studies and Certificate programmes.

The objectives of these regulations are:

a) to ensure that the Faculty can certify that all of its graduates are qualified to enter their profession,

b) to ensure that students can, with the assistance or intervention of the Faculty, assess themselves objectively, and plan programmes of study designed to meet their individual needs.

Annual Weighted Grade Point Average (WGPA)

*See §16.3.10, II for definition of Annual WGPA.

Acceptable standing requires that a student obtain an Annual WGPA of at least 2.00.

NOTE: Although a "C-" grade (1.70 grade points) is designated as Satisfactory in §16.3.3, a WGPA of 2.00 is required for acceptable standing.

Students in acceptable standing may proceed subject to the following conditions: any failed grade must be cleared by repeating the failed course or in the case of an elective, by replacing the failed course by an alternative within the same group of electives. Any variation must be approved by the Dean's Office.

Conditional standing results when a student obtains an Annual WGPA of less than 2.00, but at least 1.50. A student is not permitted to obtain two consecutive conditional standing assessments. Students in conditional standing may not write supplemental examinations but may proceed subject to the following conditions:
a) They must receive academic counselling from the appropriate member of the Dean’s Office.

b) They must repeat successfully all courses in which failing grades were obtained, or replace them by alternatives approved by the Dean’s Office in consultation with the student’s Department.

c) In no case will the number of credits exceed 15 per term for full-time students and six per term for part-time students.

d) They must obtain acceptable standing at the time of their next assessment.

Failed standing results when a student obtains an Annual WGPA of less than 1.50, or conditional standing in two consecutive periods of assessment. Failed students may not write supplemental examinations. Students who are in failed standing for a second time will be dismissed from the University. In subsequent years, should they wish to return to university studies, they must contact the Office of the Registrar for information concerning conditions and procedures for seeking readmission. Decisions of the relevant authority in the Faculty to which application is made, are final.

Failed students who are not required to withdraw may apply for readmission through the Dean’s Office of the Faculty to which they wish to be readmitted. If readmitted, they will be placed on academic probation. They must return to acceptable standing at the time of their next assessment. Other conditions will be determined at the time of readmission.

Graduation Requirements

Students must satisfy all course requirements and be in acceptable standing. The standings of potential graduates who have attempted less than 12 credits since their last assessment are determined on the basis that these credits constitute an extension of the last assessment period.

Students who fail to meet acceptable standing but meet conditional standing will have the following options:

a) Register for 12 credits and meet the criteria for acceptable standing.

b) Register for fewer than 12 credits. In this case, standing will be determined on the basis that these constitute an extension of the last assessment period.

In both case a) and b), courses taken must be approved by the appropriate member of the Dean’s Office in consultation with the student’s Department where necessary. Normally, these courses will be selected from the offerings of the Faculty of Commerce and Administration or Department of Economics.

NOTE: Dean’s Office is to be understood as being the appropriate member of the Dean’s Office, normally the Associate Dean, Student Affairs, or delegate.

61.30 General Information

Old Credit Programme (Transition)

Students who have enrolled in a programme at this Faculty prior to June 1, 1976 will complete the programme as shown in the University Announcement 1975/1976. For substitution of courses not offered in the new programme, students will consult with representatives of the respective departments.

Failures

Students are cautioned that a failure in a first-term course will prohibit them from proceeding to a second-term course for which the first is a prerequisite. Students who find themselves in this position must drop the second-term course and register in a section of the failed course, if available.

There will be a course-change period at the beginning of the Second Term, at which time students failing in the above category must make arrangements with the Office of the Registrar for the necessary course changes.

NOTE: THERE ARE NO SUPPLEMENTAL EXAMINATIONS IN THE FACULTY OF COMMERCE AND ADMINISTRATION.

French Language

The business community, as well as governments, now express a preference for university graduates who are bilingual. We, therefore, advise all students to take advantage of the opportunities available during their years at this University to ensure that they are bilingual when they present themselves for employment upon graduation.
Courses Non-Commerce Students
Students not enrolled in the Faculty of Commerce and Administration Programme may register for six credits per term for a maximum of 30 credits (total) within the Faculty of Commerce and Administration.

Students not registered in the Faculty of Commerce and Administration, who wish to undertake any courses offered by the Faculty, but do not have the stated prerequisites, must obtain permission in writing from the Student Request Committee, Faculty of Commerce prior to registration.
The Department of Accountancy is dedicated to providing leadership in accounting education through a strong commitment to excellence in teaching and leadership in the discovery and dissemination of accounting knowledge. It acts as a bridge between the university and business, government and professional accounting as they relate to various facets of accountancy at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

The Department continuously strives to provide leadership and scholarship that are recognized provincially, nationally and internationally by offering unique, creative, innovative and "lifetime-learning" opportunities. The Department is responsive to its diverse constituencies and both nourishes and preserves an equitable, just and non-discriminatory environment.

ACC 213 Introductory Financial Accounting (3 credits)
This course examines the theory and practice involved in recording and reporting an organization's financial information. Concepts of asset valuation and income measurement are discussed with respect to both large and small enterprises. Professional and legal requirements concerning financial statement disclosure are introduced and the needs of decision-makers requiring financial information are considered.

NOTE A/See §200.2
ACC 217 Financial and Managerial (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 213. This course is designed to develop, through verbal analysis of business cases, an understanding and skill in the preparation of statements for financial accounting purposes, taking into account the needs of business management. The student must be able to analyze these statements and comment critically thereon. NOTE A/See §200.2
NOTE: Major and Honours students in Accountancy may not take this course for credit.

ACC 218 Introductory Managerial Accounting (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 213. This course examines the development of accounting information for the purposes of planning, control, decision-making, and, in general, for the more efficient operation of enterprises, large and small. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACC 220 An Accounting Approach to Management (3 credits)
This course is designed to cover certain major aspects of management related to the accounting process. These include: business organization; accounting concepts; financial statement analysis; management uses of accounting information; and the effect of taxation on business decisions. NOTE A/See §200.2
NOTE: Commerce and Administration students may not take this course for credit.

ACC 221 Accounting and Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 220. This course is sequential to ACC 220, and examines in greater depth the areas covered in that course. NOTE A/See §200.2
NOTE: Commerce and Administration students may not take this course for credit.

ACC 303 Cost and Management Accounting (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 218. In this course a detailed examination is made of the various techniques, systems, and procedures applicable to the managerial use of accounting information for decision-making, profit-planning, and control. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACC 323 Intermediate Accounting I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 213. This course extends the material covered in the earlier financial accounting course, integrating the previous work with more advanced theory and application. Intensive study is made of the theory and practice of external reporting by commercial entities. Concepts and procedures involved in the valuation of resources are studied, as are the concepts of income determination. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACC 326 Intermediate Accounting II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 323. This course continues the intensive study of Intermediate Accounting I, with particular emphasis on accounting for liabilities, shareholders' equity and other related areas such as earnings per share, pension accounting and accounting for income tax.

ACC 335 Advanced Accounting (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 326. This advanced course is concerned primarily with intercorporate investments and combinations. A study is also made of other accounting areas including foreign currency translation. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACC 407 Accounting Practice and Policy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 335, ACC 429. Areas previously or concurrently covered in the field of corporate financial reporting are extended, and current accounting literature and pronouncements of professional accounting bodies are examined. Extensive use is made of the case method of instruction. NOTE A/See §200.2
NOTE: This course will be offered in the Second Term only.

ACC 410 Specialized Accounting (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 326. In this course an examination is made of specialized aspects of accounting for not-for-profit organizations such as municipal governments, colleges, and hospitals. The course focuses on both the financial and managerial applications of accounting principles and theory.

ACC 414 Accounting Information Systems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 218. This course examines the systems for collecting and processing information necessary in planning, decision-making and the control of business organizations. Theory and practice are combined in a case-study approach which includes "hands-on" computer experience with spreadsheet and database programmes. NOTE A/See §200.2
NOTE: Introductory-level knowledge of computer systems is recommended.

ACC 422 Cost and Management Accounting (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACC 303. This course continues at an advanced level the study of modern cost and managerial systems using cases, readings and problems. Coverage includes a critical evaluation of accounting control systems, related quantitative business controls and conceptual and measurement problems in evaluating performance. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCO 429 Auditing Concepts
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 323. This course introduces auditing theory and its application by external and internal auditors in fulfilling their respective objectives and responsibilities. The focus is on the audit function and the role and purpose of different types of auditors. Fundamental concepts in auditing are discussed in terms of current practices and standards. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCO 432 Financial Auditing
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 326, 429. This course emphasizes the role of the public accountant in expressing an opinion on the financial statements of an organization. The use of audit standards, procedures, and internal control is related to the expression of an auditor's opinion. Cases and problem-solving form the basis of student involvement in this course. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCO 433 Auditing and Investigation
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 429. This course deals with questions related to professional accounting practices and also covers different types of management services that auditors are frequently requested to undertake. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCO 441 Taxation I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 213. This course examines the federal taxation structure, including the taxation of employment, business and property income and capital gains. While emphasizing the income taxes levied on individuals, the course also examines the taxation of corporations. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCO 442 Taxation II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 441. This course extends the coverage of ACCO 441 with an examination of specialized topics in personal and corporate income tax, including a detailed review of the taxation of corporations, and tax planning including the tax effects of various theoretical and practical business combinations. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCO 451 Computer Auditing
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 211 or equivalent, and ACCO 429. This course explores the impact of large scale computer use on auditors and their examination of a company's records and systems of internal control. The emphasis is on helping auditors understand when a computer can be used to assist them and how to follow through with its use. Topics covered include the different controls and techniques required in a computer system, the audit trail, approaches to computer auditing and computer application for auditing, computer and software security, and consideration of the various computerized audit packages available. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCO 461 Accounting Theory I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 335. This course examines the framework underlying current accounting thinking and procedures. A study is made of the development and the influence of professional accounting organizations and regulatory bodies on accounting theory. Controversial areas are emphasized. NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCO 462 Accounting Theory II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 461. This course extends the coverage of ACCO 461. Particular emphasis is placed on developments in the current literature and in problem areas facing the accounting profession.

ACCO 468 International Accounting
(also listed as IBUS 470)
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 462 or IBUS 462; ACCO 218; FINA 315. This course examines accounting practices employed by different countries; accounting and financial control of international operations, and various consolidation procedures and their effect on the interpretation of financial statements are discussed. NOTE: This course will be offered in the Second Term only.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for IBUS 470 may not take this course for credit.

ACCO 470 Special Topics in Accounting
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department. Intended to complement and supplement accounting courses taken previously or concurrently at the senior level, this course emphasizes accounting literature and modern thought. Students are encouraged to work independently on research topics of interest to them. Enrolment is restricted and is subject to departmental approval. NOTE A/See §200.2

NOTE: Specific topics for this course and prerequisites relevant in each case will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
ACCO 471  Accounting Seminar
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 470. This course examines in greater depth areas of individual interest. Enrolment is restricted and is subject to departmental approval. Students repeating ACCO 471 register for credits under ACCO 472.
NOTE A: See §200.2
NOTE: Specific topics for this course and prerequisites relevant in each case will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

Departmental Objectives

The Department of Decision Sciences and Management Information Systems strives to equip its students with an integrated set of decision-making skills.

The Decision Sciences major aims to develop expertise in all important aspects of Managerial Statistics, Operations Research and Production/Operations Management. It prepares graduates for careers that require skills in the collection and analysis of relevant data for decision-making with respect to the effective and efficient management of human resources, capital and time.

The Management Information Systems major aims to develop expertise in all important aspects of the development, use and management of Information systems. It prepares graduates for careers in information systems analysis and design, database design and administration, as well as management of information technology.

Programmes

NOTE: The “QUAN” designation has been changed to “DESC”. This is a department name change only (formerly Quantitative Methods).

A student in any Major or Minor programme in Decision Sciences and Management Information Systems is required to take DESC 222 in addition to the courses which are listed for the programme.

Students majoring in Decision Sciences and Management Information Systems are strongly recommended to take DESC 250 at the earliest opportunity in their programme.

An option in Information Systems is offered by the Department of Computer Science. Details are available in the Engineering and Computer Science section (§71.80) of the Undergraduate Calendar.

The Department of Decision Sciences and Management Information Systems offers two Majors — a Major in Decision Sciences with three Options and a Major in Management Information Systems. Within these two Majors there is a listing of Common Courses totalling 12 credits. These must be taken by all students majoring in Decision Sciences or Management Information Systems. They are as follows:

DECISION SCIENCES AND MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS - 431

Courses

DESC 222 Introduction to Management Information Systems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 213; MANA 266 previously or concurrently. The objective of this course is to introduce students to the principles of management information systems. Topics include hardware and software of various information technologies, information requirement analysis, systems design, different types of computer-based information systems, implementation of information systems, data management, and end-use computing. Moreover, students acquire skills necessary for solving small information-processing problems encountered in functional areas of business. NOTE: See §200.2

DESC 243 Introduction to Business Statistics and Decision Models (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 208; MATH 209 previously or concurrently. (Students admitted from CEGEP with the 10.12 profile are eligible for direct entry into DESC 243.) The aim of this course is to introduce students to the fundamentals of probability and statistics as applied in the various areas of business and administration. Topics covered include univariate descriptive measures, probability theory (decision trees, conditional probability, Bayes theorem), probability distributions (binomial, Poisson, normal and exponential), bivariate data and probability (scatter plots, covariance, correlation), sampling distribution, estimation and model-based simple regression. Students use statistical software packages on mainframe and/or microcomputers to solve applied problems. NOTE See §200.7

DESC 244 Introduction to Statistical Analysis for Business and Administration (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 243 or equivalent. This course introduces students to basic statistical methods in the context of applied data analysis in business and administration. Topics covered include hypothesis testing, analysis of variance, applications of chi-square statistic, nonparametric methods, quality control, regression and correlation analysis, time series analysis and forecasting techniques. Students use statistical software packages on mainframe and/or micro-computers to solve applied problems. NOTE See §200.7

DESC 250 Introduction to Production/Operations Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 211; DESC 243 previously or concurrently. (Students admitted from CEGEP with the 10.12 profile are exempt from MATH 211.) The objective of this course is to introduce students to analytical decision making in the production/operations management context. The functional aspects of operations and the relationship of production/operations management to the other business functions are emphasized throughout the course. Linear programming, sensitivity analysis, aggregate planning, operations scheduling, inventory control models and project management are the subject areas emphasized within the context of manufacturing and service industries. NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 313, 314 or 315 (QUAN 313, 314 or 315) may not take this course for credit.

DESC 350 Production/Operations Systems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 250. This course discusses various operational planning and control problems in manufacturing and service systems. Among the subjects covered are forecasting, capacity planning, facility layout, waiting-line models, work design, quality assurance and measurement of productivity. Issues in operations strategy are discussed with an emphasis on recent developments and trends in manufacturing and information technologies. NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 365 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 355 Operations Logistics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 250. This course develops concepts and understanding about planning and control of movement and storage activities of materials in business organizations. Various operational issues and cases in facility location, distribution systems, materials handling, warehouse operations, maintenance planning and reliability are covered.

DESC 361 Linear Optimization (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 250. This course deals with advanced topics in linear optimization and implementation aspects of problem solving in a business environment. Elements of linear modeling process and primal simplex algorithm are reviewed. Functional areas where linear optimization may be applied are discussed. Among the advanced topics covered are revised simplex algorithm, duality, dual simplex algorithm, parametric linear programming, the transportation problem, integer and goal programming. Case studies are discussed to highlight the implementation aspects. NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 316 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 362 Discrete Models in Business I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 250. This course introduces the student to the decision-making process through the use of discrete models having application to problems such as planning, distribution, scheduling, location and resource allocation. Topics include the application of tree algorithms, path algorithms, network flow algorithms, and dynamic programming to modelling in a business environment. NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 412 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 371 Business Decision Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 244 or equivalent. This course introduces students to the basic ideas of decision analysis. Topics covered include elementary decision modelling, probability assessment, utility estimation, multiattribute problems, and complex decision problems. NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 435 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 375 Business Sampling Techniques (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 243 or equivalent. This course deals with the design, execution and analysis of sample surveys, including the necessary theory to carry out these tasks properly in the different areas of business and administration. Topics include simple random, stratified, cluster, two-stage, ratio and regression estimates, systematic sampling, and some aspects of survey design and management. Students, either individually or in small groups, are required to carry out or critique a survey. Ability in the use of statistical software packages on mainframe and/or microcomputers is desirable. NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 448 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 376 Business Applications of Statistical Models (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 244 or equivalent; DESC 222 or equivalent. This course is intended to give the student a strong foundation in data analysis using linear models, with emphasis on applications in business, administration and economics. Topics include linear regression on one, two and several explanatory variables, model-building techniques and forecasting models, analysis of variance and covariance and elements of experimental design. Students, either individually or in small groups, are required to carry out a project. This is an applied course with a heavy emphasis on actual data analysis using statistical software packages on mainframe and/or microcomputers.
DECISION SCIENCES AND MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

DECISION SCIENCES AND MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

covers deterministic and stochastic systems and in-process inventory models.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 444 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 381 Personal Computing in Business (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 222. This course has two objectives. First, students are exposed to common information processing problems in the functional areas of business. Second, they learn how to use personal computers to solve these problems. In the process, students are introduced to a programming language, such as BASIC, and selected application development packages.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 323 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 382 Business Data Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 222. This course introduces students to the management of data in a corporate environment. Topics include data management, elementary data modelling, physical structures for representing business data, file organization, data dictionaries, file design, database administration, and issues in documentation. Use is made where feasible of professional data management software to illustrate course concepts.

NOTE: MIS Majors are strongly recommended to take COMP 251 either prior to or at the same time as this course.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 327 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 383 Application Software Development (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 222, COMP 251. This course is divided into two parts: First, conventional methodologies utilized in the development of business application software is examined using the COBOL programming language. Topics of study include structured design, structured programming, and the management of software development. Second, the impact of new trends in the area, such as fourth-generation languages, end-user computing, and prototyping, on the traditional life-cycle development is examined.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 423 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 451 Inventory Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 250. This course covers deterministic and stochastic inventory models. Dependent demand systems and in-process inventory models are dealt with. New trends in inventory control are discussed. The fundamental forecasting techniques are also reviewed.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 416 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 452 Computer Integrated Production/Operations Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 350, DESC 355 or DESC 451. This course studies the recent developments and trends in manufacturing and information technologies and the impact of these on the planning and control aspects of production/operations management. Case studies are used to illustrate the implementation aspects of the subjects covered.

DESC 462 Discrete Models in Business II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 362, or permission of the Department. This course introduces students to further discrete models with an emphasis on integer programming modelling and solution techniques. Topics covered are matching and covering algorithms, the Chinese postman and the travelling salesman problems, routing heuristics and location models. Case studies are used to illustrate the modelling and the implementation aspects of the subjects covered.

DESC 464 Non-Linear Programming (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 361 or equivalent. This course introduces some fundamental concepts in non-linear optimization. The topics covered include convexity, formulation of non-linear problems, identification of optimal points, unconstrained and constrained optimization techniques. Emphasis throughout the course is placed on business-related problems.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 415 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 466 Decision Models in Service Sector (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 350. The course surveys applications of decision models in the service sector. Efficiency and effectiveness issues in the service sector such as police deployment, municipal resource allocation, health care and criminal justice models are covered. Case studies from Canada and other countries are discussed using operations research, operations management and statistical techniques.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 414 may not take this course for credit.
DESC 477  Statistical Forecasting
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 244 or equivalent;
DESC 222 or equivalent. This course presents the foundations of applied time-series analysis for managerial forecasting. It includes forecasting methods and objectives, fundamental concepts in time-series analysis, models for seasonal time-series, model for nonstationary time-series, Box and Jenkins methods, forecast evaluation. This is an applied course with a heavy emphasis on actual data analysis using statistical computer packages on mainframe and/or microcomputers.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 447 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 478  Business Applications of Multivariate Data Analysis
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 244 or equivalent. This course deals with analysis of data consisting of measurements of several variables on a sample of individuals. The emphasis is on the methods of multivariate statistical techniques as applied to research in business and administration. Topics include simultaneous regression models, multivariate analysis of variance, discriminant analysis, principal components, factor analysis, clustering and canonical correlations. Substantial use is made of statistical software packages on mainframe and/or microcomputers.

DESC 481  Information Systems
Analysis
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 381, DESC 382.
(Computer Science students may take this course without the stipulated prerequisites,
but with the permission of the DS & MIS Department.) This course covers the first phase of the systems development life process, which culminates in the systems proposal. Topics include the preliminary survey, analysis of existing systems and identification of deficiencies, the development of functional specifications, feasibility and cost/benefit analysis and development of a recommended course of action. In addition, various diagramming techniques are examined.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 424 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 482  Information Systems
Design
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 381, DESC 382, DESC
481. Methods and procedures for designing business information systems are discussed. Topics include data and process modelling, preparing screen and report layouts using data dictionaries and documentation within the design process. A comprehensive case study using current computer-aided technologies demonstrates various design concepts.
NOTE: To ensure proper succession in the thought process, students are strongly recommended to enroll in this course in the term immediately following the successful completion of DESC 481.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 425 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 483  Management of Information Systems
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 381, DESC 382.
(Computer Science students may take this course without the stipulated prerequisites,
but with the permission of the DS & MIS Department.) This course explores various topics related to management of information resources and services in the organization.
First, the basic principles of information systems management are introduced.
Topics include planning, control, development, and operations of information technology. Through the examination of several case studies, students are given the opportunity to acquire the necessary skills to identify, analyze, and communicate different issues surrounding these topics.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 422 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 485  RPG II Programming
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 381, DESC 382, COMP
251. RPG is a programme generator-type language intended for use in business applications. Working in an IBM environment, students deal with typical data processing problems, including multiple-level control-break reports, table processing, sequential and indexed file updating. Various elements of the RPG III programming language are examined.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 421 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 486  Office Information Systems and Telecommunications
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 381, DESC 382. This course covers two distinct but interrelated areas of information technology. First, students are exposed to various organizational issues surrounding office information systems. Specifically, students learn how to evaluate, implement, and support these systems to enhance office productivity. In the second part of the course, students are introduced to the principles of telecommunications in the corporate environment. Emphasis is placed on the effective management of these systems.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 427 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 490  Special Topics in Decision Sciences and Management Information Systems
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department.
This course allows for more intensive examination of one or more topics in production/operations management, operations research, business statistics or management information systems.

DESC 492  Business Systems Simulation  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 250; DESC 381 or permission of the Department. Computer simulations of deterministic and stochastic systems are studied, using procedural languages such as FORTRAN and BASIC, as well as special simulation-oriented languages. Topics include the collection and preliminary analysis of input data, verification, validation, design of model experiments and the analysis and presentation of the results. Students study and simulate a real-life situation.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 426 may not take this course for credit.

DESC 493  Decision Support and Expert Systems  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 350; DESC 378; DESC 381; DESC 382. New developments in information technology such as data bases, fourth-generation languages, and artificial intelligence have changed the nature of traditional business decision support systems (DSS). This course starts by examining the human decision-making process and categories of decision tasks. It then evaluates the requirements for an effective user-machine interface. The impact of the new end-user computing tools is considered in relation to DSS design. Finally, the principles of business expert systems are explained, with examples of potential areas for application.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for DESC 417 may not take this course for credit.
Bachelor of Commerce students who wish to follow an Honours or Major programme in Economics may meet the requirements of the Faculties of Commerce and Administration and of Arts and Science by following the programmes described below. The course descriptions for Economics courses may be found in §31.080.

Students seeking admission into the Honours programme require approval of the Department, following a recommendation from its Honours Committee.

Bachelor of Commerce students wishing to take a Minor in Economics may do so by selecting 30 credits in Economics in consultation with the Economics Department.

Department Objectives

The Department of Finance is committed to excellence in both research and teaching and has earned a solid reputation as a productive and research oriented academic unit. The Department’s research activities include theoretical, empirical, and applied contributions—all aimed at furthering knowledge in the field. Its teaching activities cover a wide range of topics including corporate finance, investment, international finance, personal finance, optimization techniques, portfolio management, options and futures and fluctuations in security prices, exchange rates and interest rates.

Teaching effectiveness represents the cornerstone of the Department’s teaching objectives. The Department’s curriculum is a dynamic one which keeps up with current trends and innovations in the financial area. Department members have been recognized not only with Faculty Teaching Awards but also internationally by winning the 3M Teaching Fellowship Award.

The Department has developed orientation and training programmes with major corporations and financial institutions for its students. Through this type of external involvement, classroom teaching is effectively blended with the complexities of the real world thereby providing students not only with a more meaningful education but also with job opportunities.

Courses

FINA 214 Introduction to Finance I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 213; DESC 243; ECON 201 or 203 previously or concurrently. This course deals with corporate financial analysis and planning, the management of current assets, the time value of money concept, fixed asset management and capital expenditure decisions. NOTE: Students who have received credit for FINA 314 may not take this course for credit.

FINA 315 Introduction to Finance II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 214. This course deals with sources of short- and long-term financing, leasing, the cost of capital, capital
FINA 417  Capital Budgeting Theory
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 440; FINA 460. This course provides an in-depth coverage of analytical techniques for rational capital investment decisions by corporations. Emphasis is placed on the assessment of investment choices within the overall strategic framework of the firm, and on the practical as well as the theoretical aspects of the decision process. NOTE A/See §200.2

FINA 419  Options and Futures
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 440; FINA 460. This course on options and futures is a comprehensive analysis of the options and futures markets in North America. The student is introduced to the different markets for these instruments and their institutional details. The different types of options and futures currently trading are examined. The principles of valuation of futures and options, their use in risk management through hedging techniques and their use in speculative strategies are studied. Emphasis is placed on the analysis of financial options and futures.

FINA 420  Short-Term Financial Management
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 440; FINA 460. This course is concerned with the key aspects of short-term financial management. It begins with a brief coverage of the institutional environment facing the financial manager in Canada. A detailed coverage of sources for short-term borrowing and investments is presented. The structure of the Canadian financial system along with a description of the various methods of effecting payments as well as the clearing and settlement system are covered. Topics in overall liquidity management are briefly reviewed from a theoretical perspective. Traditional subjects in cash management, i.e., collections, disbursement and control, forecasting, company bank relationships, and short-term investment and borrowing are examined next. Such new developments as Electronic Data Interchange and EFT/POS are also examined. The course also provides a coverage of trade credit both from a theoretical positive standpoint and normative viewpoint.

FINA 424  Personal Finance Management
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 315. This course is designed to assist the student in making rational decisions when consulting in personal financial activities. Topics covered include: personal budgeting, spending pattern analysis, the proper use of credit, housing, investment (both traditional and modern), tax and retirement planning. Case studies are utilized when possible.

FINA 430  Financial Management
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 315. The intent of this course is to develop skill in the identification and structuring of financial problems, in the selection of appropriate analytical techniques for their solution, and in the application of such techniques to decision-making in actual business situations. A variety of cases are used to achieve these objectives. NOTE A/See §200.2

FINA 431  Applied Corporate Finance
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 440; FINA 460. This course uses case discussions to focus on the application of the financial management principles learned in FINA 440 and FINA 460 in real-world contexts, with particular emphasis on capital structure and dividend policies, valuation and corporation acquisitions, cost of capital determination, and capital expenditure decisions. NOTE A/See §200.2

FINA 440  Theory of Finance
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 315. This course is designed to provide a rigorous theoretical foundation on which subsequent 400-level finance courses can be built. The first part of the course covers, in depth, the theories of investor choice under conditions of uncertainty focusing on portfolio theory, asset pricing and option pricing theories. Building on such theoretical foundations, the second part of the course focuses on developing the basic theory of the firm's decision-making process under ideal capital market conditions. This analysis is extended to incorporate the implications of some fundamental imperfections such as agency problems and informational imperfections. NOTE A/See §200.2

FINA 441  Theory of Corporate Finance
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 440; FINA 460. This course focuses on the application of the modern theory of finance to corporate decisions. Building upon the material covered in FINA 440 and 460, it examines the firm's investment and financial decisions under various economic and capital market conditions. More specifically, topics covered include cost of capital, capital structure decisions, evaluation and the application of the recently developed financial innovations in the debt market (e.g., swaps and junk bonds), mergers and acquisitions and leveraged buyout decisions, and dividend and equity management strategies. NOTE A/See §200.2

FINANCE • 439
FINA 452 Investment Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 440; FINA 460. This course is devoted to an examination of the investment decision, both from the viewpoint of the individual investor and the institutional investor. Valuation of different financial instruments such as treasury bills, bonds, common stocks, preferred stocks, options, warrants, convertibles, rights, futures both commodity and financial, mutual funds and pension funds and the use of different instruments in various investment strategies such as speculation, hedging and arbitrage, are examined. Techniques examined by analysts to pick investments, such as fundamental analysis, technical analysis and quantitative analysis are studied. NOTE A/See §200.2

FINA 453 Portfolio Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 440; FINA 460. This course focuses on modern investment theory and its application to the management of entire portfolios. Topics include: a) construction of optimal asset portfolios using techniques such as the single index model, b) extensions of the capital asset pricing model theory and tests example, the zero-beta model, c) criteria for evaluation of investment performance, d) active vs. passive portfolio management, e) portfolio insurance, f) market efficiency. A computer exercise is assigned to illustrate the application of the theory. NOTE A/See §200.2

FINA 455 Seminar in Finance (3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 440; FINA 460. This course is intended primarily for Majors and provides an opportunity for more intensive study in one or more specific topics of finance. The topic varies according to the special interests of the professor and the students. Students repeating FINA 455 register for credits under Finance 456. NOTE A/See §200.2 NOTE: Specific topics for this course and prerequisites relevant in each case will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

FINA 460 Domestic and International Capital Markets (3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 315. This course provides an understanding of the way in which domestic and international capital markets operate. It is designed to be a foundation course for all subsequent 400-level finance courses. Emphasis is placed on describing the nature and functioning of the Canadian financial system and evaluating its efficiency in terms of the relevant theories of financial intermediation. Specific topics that are addressed include the term structure of interest rates, and the structure and operations of securities, mortgages, and money markets. The latter part of the course extends the analysis into an international framework with a discussion of the international monetary system, foreign exchange markets, overseas capital markets, and an introduction to foreign exchange risk exposure and management. NOTE A/See §200.2

FINA 461 Management of Financial Institutions (3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 440; FINA 460. The objective of this course is to provide a framework for understanding the fundamental variables and relationships that affect the management of Canadian financial institutions in the domestic and international environment. Specific topics include: an overview of the financial institutions sector, regulatory framework, performance and cost analysis, strategic planning, capital structure issues, asset and liability management, management of financial institution risk, international intermediation, and financial innovation. MANA 463 Personnel Management II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 462 and two Human Resource Management Major course electives. This course is a final-year integrative seminar for Human Resource Management majors. It focuses on the philosophies underlying current Human Resource Management principles and policies and the processes of their implementation. It utilizes cases to integrate Human Resource Management areas such... as recruitment, selection, training, performance appraisal, compensation and benefits administration.

MANA 466 (also listed as IBUS 466)
Management of Multinational Corporations
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 462 or IBUS 462; MANA 340. This is a course that demonstrates the analytical tools of operations and organization theory applicable within a multinational company. The course is designed to give students a grasp of the problems of strategy formulation and organization, and inculcates a general knowledge of the major parameters in which an international manager operates. Focus is on the Canadian as well as other international companies based in U.S.A., Europe, Japan, etc.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for IBUS 466 may not take this course for credit.

MANA 467
Management Theory — Advanced
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 266. This course attempts to develop further the conceptual framework which was established in Management Theory I. To this end, it examines selected management concepts and appraises their value in terms of their application to the actual practice of business. Issues such as the effect of innovation and technological change, managing the knowledge worker, organization planning, and comparative management are considered.
NOTE A/See §200.2

MANA 468
North American Labour Movements
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 364. This course focuses on the evolution of the labour movements in the U.S., Canada and Québec since 1945. The structure and philosophy of American, Canadian and Québec unions since that date are also analyzed. The similarities and dissimilarities of the labour movements in the U.S., Canada and Québec, their impact on society, and the emerging role of the state in union affairs are also covered.

MANA 469
Industrial Relations in the Public Sector
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 364. Historically, the government plays a third party role in collective bargaining. But as the state emerges as the largest employer in advanced industrial society, its combined roles as employer and mediator demand clarification and modernization. This course analyses the development of the state as an employer, the growth of public sector unionism, and the impact of public sector collective bargaining on the private sector. Emphasis is on the Québec and Canadian experiences, with comparisons made to public sector industrial relations in other countries as well.

MANA 470
Comparative Industrial Relations Systems
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 364. This course begins by presenting and contrasting the major theories of labour-management-state competition for control of the work situation. It then moves to applying those theories to national industrial relations systems in advanced industrial capitalist societies, in developed state socialist societies, and in underdeveloped societies.

MANA 471
Issues in Québec Industrial Relations
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 364. In this course, the focus is on industrial relations in specific industrial sectors in Québec, stressing the impact of interests and forces outside the sector which influence the nature of industrial relations within it. The specific sectors are chosen each term by the instructor and the students in order to respond to special interests of the students.

MANA 472
Grievance and Arbitration
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 364. What is the nature and limits of a collective agreement? What can be covered and what not? This course discusses these questions and then goes on to analyse the grievance process and the various forms of grievance arbitration from technical and social perspectives.

MANA 474
Institutional Administration
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 340. Management of institutions and agencies in the non-profit (private and public) sector presents unique opportunities and challenges to the manager. This class provides an introduction to that field. Emphasis is given to those characteristics of the organization and functioning of these programmes which distinguish them from commercial firms, including the peculiar nature of human services, and the influence of social-political processes. Class activities utilize theoretical and case material and field observations. Student projects concentrate on policy formulation and administrative function in an agency of the student’s choice.

MANA 475
Business Law I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: DESC 243; ECON 203; MANA 266; MARK 213; FINA 214. This course deals with the Canadian and Québec Law governing business organizations, and the Québec Civil Law concerning persons, property, and ownership obligations, civil responsibility, contracts in general and mandate.

MANA 476  Business Law II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 475. Federal and provincial government regulation of business, including bankruptcy, anti-competes, trade marks and patents, labour law, insurance, special commercial contracts including secured transactions, fair employment, environmental law.

MANA 477  The Law of Insolvency and Secured Transactions (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 475. An examination of the various laws and cases, both federal and provincial, across Canada, governing commercial insolvency, with particular emphasis upon the liability of directors and officers, and the creditor's rights in bankruptcy, including the role of inspectors and the trustee. An examination of the various forms of secured transactions, of which creditors may avail themselves, more particularly financial institutions, including assignment of book debts, pledge, mortgages, bonds, trust deeds.

MANA 478  Company Law (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 475. The examination of important legal issues relating to the business corporation, including an analysis of their legal nature and structure, and the powers, rights, and obligations of directors, officers, and shareholders, including analysis of the legal implications, insider trading, company re-organization, mergers, joint ventures, and takeovers. These matters are studied through the Federal, Québec, and Ontario Companies' Acts and relevant court cases.

MANA 479  Labour Law (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 475. A study of the law and relevant court cases dealing with major labour-management issues, including collective bargaining, union certification, strikes, lock-outs, grievances, and arbitration. Covers Canadian law, primarily that of Québec.

MANA 480  Transportation Policy (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MANA 340. This course provides an overview of the economic and institutional setting of the transportation system, including both freight and passenger operations. Government and corporate policies affecting shippers and carriers are examined, as well as policy development in a deregulated environment. This course provides an introduction to the transportation industry. The surface, both rail and truck, as well as marine modes are covered in terms of the regulatory issues, which impact upon the movement of freight. Attention is also given to passenger transportation in the air and bus modes.

MANA 493  (also listed as IBUS 493)  International Business Law (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 462 or IBUS 462; MANA 475. This course is an introduction to International Business Law. The focus is Canadian but comparative material is included and problems relating to other legal systems are examined. Topics to be covered include private loans applicable to international business transactions, international sales, federal regulations, export controls and anti-dumping, export insurance, and bilateral trade agreements.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for IBUS 493 may not take this course for credit.

MANA 499  Special Topics in Administration (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department. Intended to complement and supplement business courses taken previously or concurrently, this course emphasizes business literature and modern thought. Students are encouraged to work independently on research topics of interest to them. Students repeating MANA 499 register for credits under MANA 498.

NOTE: Specific topics for this course and prerequisites relevant in each case will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.
The Marketing Department seeks to cultivate in each student the skills and perspectives essential for effective and responsible marketing. Emphasis is on creating marketing strategies and plans based on a thorough understanding of consumer and industrial buying behaviour. The Department is committed to fostering a dynamic entrepreneurial orientation together with an appreciation of the essence, importance and potential power of marketing.

MARK 213 The Marketing Process (Introductory) (3 credits)
The course examines the nature of marketing, its role in society and the interrelationships that are operative within the marketing process — both externally, as related to society and the consumer, and internally as related to the organization of the marketing process within the firm. Many of the factors influencing these relationships are examined. NOTE A/See §200.2

MARK 350 Marketing Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 213. The course is an introduction to the managerial concepts and practices of marketing. The four basic elements of the marketing mix — the product, the price, promotion and distribution — and their interrelationships are examined. Use of the case method helps students apply these concepts to realistic marketing problems in a host of business settings, including the small business and the international environment. The course builds on the concepts presented in MARK 213 and develops in the student a critical appreciation of how the concepts and theories relate to the basic tools of marketing; the ability to manipulate these tools in an integrated fashion in a variety of business settings.

MARK 351 Transportation and Marketing Logistics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350. This course deals with economic principles underlying the various modes of transport: i.e., rail, water, motor, air, and pipeline. Current problems of each are discussed. In addition a survey of the principles of business logistics are covered. Cases are utilized when possible. NOTE A/See §200.2

NOTE: Students who have received credit for Administration 350 may not take this course for credit.

MARK 352 Buyer Behaviour (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 213 and DESC 243. This course analyses the motivations, roles, and behaviour of the consumers, how they are affected by economic, social, and cultural influences, and how the marketer may model this behaviour for decision-making purposes. NOTE A/See §200.2

MARK 402 Marketing Research I (Methods) (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350 and DESC 244. The role of research in the marketing process, the role of models, and the development of measurement techniques are discussed. Emphasis is placed on the nature and scope of marketing research methods for obtaining internal and external data, and on the steps and principles involved in gathering and analyzing data. The student is also briefly introduced to applications of marketing research. NOTE A/See §200.2

MARK 452 Marketing Research II (Application) (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 402. The application of marketing research to problem areas such as advertising, sales management and product strategy. Alternative research designs are applied to actual problems. NOTE A/See §200.2

MARK 453 Advertising and Sales Promotion Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350. The objectives of this course are to provide the student with an introduction to an understanding of the principles of advertising and sales promotion from three different viewpoints: the nature of services provided by advertising agencies, the needs of the users (i.e., business, institutions) of these services, the needs of society in economic, ethical and legal terms. NOTE A/See §200.2

MARK 454 Sales Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350. The course deals with the theoretical and applied aspects of management of personal selling. Through cases, simulations and special presentations the student learns how to recruit, select, train, organize, motivate, evaluate, compensate, supervise, and control the sales forces. NOTE A/See §200.2
MARK 462 (also listed as IBUS 462) Environment of World Business (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 218, DESC 244, FINA 214, MANA 266, MARK 350. This is a foundation course in international business; the objective is to present information which exposes the student to cultural, social, political, economic, legal, and financial environments in which Canadian executives manage their operations abroad. All students are encouraged to develop their own philosophy towards international business activities by developing research and analytical skills in analyzing current and long-term problems perceived in different economic systems and environments. Specific topics include empirical dimensions of world economy, economic development, international trade and investment patterns, regional economic co-operation, area studies, Canadian nationalism, and foreign investment in Canada, etc.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for IBUS 462 may not take this course for credit.

MARK 463 Retail Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350. This course seeks to apply the theories of marketing and administration to the retail situation. Topics to be covered include store location for single and multi-unit retail outlets, organizing and staffing the retail operation, the wholesaler-retailer relationship, consumer behaviour in the retail situation. The impact of such new developments as consumer cooperatives, franchising, discounting, and computer technology on the future of retailing is also considered.
NOTE A/See §200.2

MARK 464 Consumerism (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350. The current evolution of marketing and consumerism is subjected to critical evaluation and analytical review. Problem areas which may be examined include: marketing costs and efficiency, the social objectives of and objections to marketing, the impact of marketing on the environment, the "pollution of advertising", ethics of marketers, and the role of governments in the market place.
NOTE A/See §200.2

MARK 465 (also listed as IBUS 465) International Marketing Management (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350; MARK 462 or IBUS 462. This course studies the management approach to international marketing, with emphasis on key variables that are controllable by the international marketing manager. Attention is focused on market measurement, product policy, channels, pricing, and promotion, with special emphasis on the development and control of multinational marketing strategies and programmes.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for IBUS 465 may not take this course for credit.

MARK 467 (also listed as IBUS 467) Marketing in Selected Parts of the World (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 462 or IBUS 462. This is an area study course in which selected parts of the world are covered in depth. The course demonstrates the use of sources and methodologies not typical in Canadian business research. Countries/region to be covered may include Japan, Pacific Region, the Middle East, India, China, Russia, East European Countries, Western Europe, Africa, and Latin America.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for IBUS 467 may not take this course for credit.

MARK 468 (also listed as IBUS 468) Export/Import Procedures and Organization (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 462 or IBUS 462. This course deals with the administration of foreign trade from a Canadian perspective with emphasis on applied techniques. Topics to be covered include world trade patterns, trade theories, export financing, customs tariffs and operation, international transportation and government export promotion services.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for IBUS 468 may not take this course for credit.

MARK 473 Advertising Strategy and Planning (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 352; MARK 402; MARK 453. This course deals with advanced topics in the strategic application of advertising to marketing problems and opportunities. Its major focus is the development of the advertising plan. Through case studies, assignments and group projects, the student develops a deeper understanding of the various steps involved in developing an advertising campaign in Canada, particularly strategy planning, development of objectives, creative and media planning as well as all forms of advertising research.

MARK 485 Industrial Marketing (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350. The course focuses on the managerial aspects of industrial marketing. The concept of organization buying behaviour and its impact on marketing strategy formulation are discussed. Management of the industrial marketing mix considering product service development, intelligence, promotion, channels, and performance measurement is covered, both in existing product lines and new product-launch activities.

MARK 486 Product Management
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350. In addition to analyzing product cycles and their characteristics and strategies which relate to each stage, this course delves into some of the more practical aspects of product policy-setting strategy formulation of the analysis, development, and execution of marketing programmes for new and existing products. This course should make the student familiar with one or more product management operations through case discussions and/or field studies.

MARK 487 International Transportation and Distribution
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 350; DESC 244. The objective of this course is to provide the student with an overview of international transportation and physical distribution marketing strategies. The course deals with matters such as the international flow of goods and people, the different international transportation modes and available equipment, physical distribution logistics, advances in transportation, distribution and communication technology which result in lower costs and time efficiency, intermodal competition and cooperation, government’s roles in international transport, the international transportation regulatory environment, and international transportation facilitators such as freight forwarders, customs brokers, and documentation.

MARK 488 Passenger Transportation
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: FINA 214; MARK 350. The object of this course is to make students aware that within the overall field of transportation an important segment deals with passengers. Through the use of lectures, case studies and project presentations, the student becomes familiar with the concepts related to this field.

MARK 490 Marketing Policy
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 213; MARK 350 and 9 additional credits in marketing courses. A capstone course in marketing, utilizing readings, projects, and selected case studies requiring the student to incorporate concepts and techniques of previous marketing courses in determining marketing policy. NOTE A/See §200.2

MARK 491 Special Topics Seminar
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department. This seminar is an inquiry into various selected topics which vary from year to year. Students repeating MARK 491 register for credits under MARK 492. NOTE A/See §200.2
NOTE: Specific topics for this course and prerequisites relevant in each case will be stated in the Undergraduate Class Schedule.

MARK 492 Cross-Cultural Communications and Management
(also listed as IBUS 492)
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MARK 462 or IBUS 462. This course deals with the multicultural dimensions of international business operations. The objective is to develop Canadian managerial skills for effective performance in an international setting. Topics to be covered include international negotiations, management of multicultural personnel, cross-cultural consumer behaviour profile, cross-cultural communication, and other cultural aspects of marketing strategy. NOTE: Students who have received credit for IBUS 492 may not take this course for credit.

61.160 Special Certificate Programmes

There are many organizations within the business community designed to serve the needs of people working in specialized areas of business. These organizations recognize that the educational qualifications of those seeking membership must be continually upgraded. Therefore, they sponsor an Academic Certificate which may be obtained through correspondence courses, or through a lecture programme.

The Faculty of Commerce and Administration cooperates with these business organizations by permitting personnel to register as Visiting students, and to take courses leading to a certificate to be awarded by the organization concerned.

Students must comply with the University regulations regarding dates of application and Visiting Commerce student entrance requirements as outlined in the Academic Calendar §11. In addition, they must meet the requirements of the specific organization.

The credit courses taken may be applied towards the Bachelor of Commerce degree, provided the student meets the admission requirements and wishes to transfer from Visiting Commerce status to undergraduate status after completing a certificate programme. Students are advised that they must meet the Bachelor of Commerce curriculum requirements in force at the date of transfer.

Each certificate programme has one or more special courses required to complete the programme. These courses do not carry credit towards a Bachelor’s degree and are designated as non-credit courses.

Students interested in the following certificate programmes may obtain details of required courses from the organization concerned:

- The American Marketing Association (Montréal Chapter)
- Institute of Canadian Bankers
- Association of Human Resources Professionals of the Province of Québec
- The Insurance Institute of Canada
- The Trust Companies Institute of Canada
- Professional Secretaries International (CPS)
- Canadian Institute of Management

61.170 Special Programmes in Accountancy

The three professional organizations listed below recognize certain Concordia University courses for course exemptions or standing in their professional designation programmes.

L’ORDRE DES COMPTABLES AGRÉÉS DU QUÉBEC: Chartered Accountant (CA)
The Faculty of Commerce and Administration offers a Diploma in Accountancy which has been approved by the Order of Chartered Accountants of Québec. Entry into the programme normally requires a Bachelor’s degree in Commerce, and a Major in Accountancy with high academic standing. Applicants lacking an appropriate pattern of undergraduate work will be required to complete successfully certain qualifying courses, as assigned by the director of the diploma programme. For further details, refer to the Concordia University School of Graduate Studies Calendar.

LA CORPORATION PROFESSIONNELLE DES COMPTABLES EN MANAGEMENT ACCREDITES DU QUÉBEC: Certified Management Accountant (CMA)

NOTES:

1. This equivalence table is subject to amendment by the Corporation.
2. A minimum grade of "C" (65%) is required to obtain an exemption from the Corporation for any of the CMA's Level 3, 4, and 5 courses. Students taking University courses must satisfy the necessary prerequisite courses.

3. The Final Accreditation Examinations of the Society of Management Accountants of Canada are mandatory. Coaching seminars for these courses are encouraged prior to writing the Final Accreditation Examinations. A student may not sit for these examinations until all other Corporation courses or their equivalents have been successfully completed.

4. Students completing the Bachelor of Commerce degree programme with the following sequence of courses will be eligible to write the entrance exam, leading to the Professional Programme of the Corporation:

ACCO 323; ACCO 326; ACCO 335; ACCO 303; ACCO 422; ACCO 470;
ACCO 414; ACCO 429; ACCO 441; ACCO 442

5. Prospective CMA students should note that the above sequence of exams is a prerequisite to the new CMA programme, which commences with an Entrance Examination (held in June each year). It is necessary to sit the Entrance Examination in order to take part in a 24-month Professional Programme. The Programme consists of work experience, independent study, group and residential sessions, together with a Final Examination. All candidates for the Entrance Examination must be registered student members of the Corporation.

Applications from graduates of CEGEP technology programmes will also be considered. Programme requirements for successful applicants will be determined on an individual basis.
APPLICANTS FROM OUTSIDE QUÉBEC
Academic qualifications presented by students applying from institutions outside Québec should be comparable to those expected of students applying from within Québec. Where the pre-university education is shorter than in Québec, students may be considered for admission to the first year of the Extended Credit Programme. (See §13.4.2 to 13.4.6, §71.20.2 and 71.80.3)

MATURE ENTRY
Admission requirements are listed in §14.

Students should refer to the Academic Regulations of the University in §16.

Definitions
Assessable courses: All record entries of courses listed in this Concordia Calendar for which a grade point value is specified in §16.3.3. However, any course which is a requirement for admission to a programme offered by the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science will not be counted unless specifically listed on the student's admission letter.

Dean's Office: Appropriate member of the Dean's Office, normally, the Associate Dean.

Programme of Study: Course requirements in effect at the time of the latest admission or re-admission to a programme, for example, BEng (Civil) or BCompSc (General Science) or Certificate in Quality Control, including modifications on an individual basis as specified or approved in writing by the Dean's Office, or the Student Request Committee of Faculty Council.

Grade Points: As defined in §16.3.3 of this calendar.

Weighted Grade Point Average (WGPA): As defined in §16.3.10 of this calendar. A grade obtained as a result of writing a supplemental examination and/or completing the work for a course graded "INC" or "MED" is included as part of the assessment period in which it is recorded.

Academic Year: A period of time which includes a Summer and its subsequent Fall and Winter terms.

Objectives
The objectives of these regulations are:
a) to ensure that the Faculty can certify that all of its graduates are qualified to enter their profession, and
b) to ensure that students can, with the assistance or intervention of the Faculty, assess themselves objectively, and plan programmes of study designed to meet their individual needs.

Grading System
See §16.3.3 for the Concordia grading system.

NOTE: Although a "C-" grade is designated as Satisfactory, a weighted grade point average of 2.00 is required for acceptable standing in the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science.

Regulations
1. Students' standings are assessed at the end of each academic year providing they have registered for at least 12 credits subsequent to their previous assessment, or in the case of a first assessment, subsequent to their admission to a programme of study.

Standings of students who have attempted less than 12 credits since their last assessment are assessed as follows:
a) The standings of potential graduates are determined on the basis that these credits constitute an extension of the last assessment period.
b) The standings of other students are determined at the end of the academic year in which they have attempted a total of at least 12 credits since their last assessment.

2. Students' standings are determined according to the following criteria.

Acceptable Standing:
A WGPA of at least 2.00 for the assessment period.

Students in acceptable standing may proceed subject to the following conditions: any failing grade must be cleared by passing the supplemental examination, if one exists, and/or completing the work for the course or by repeating the failed course or in the case of an elective, by replacing the failed course by an alternative within the same group of electives. Any variation must be approved by the Dean's Office.
Conditional Standing:
A WGPA of at least 1.50 but less than 2.00 for the assessment period.
Students in conditional standing may not write supplemental examinations but may proceed subject to the following conditions.

a) They must repeat successfully all courses in which failing grades were obtained, or replace them by alternatives approved by the appropriate member of the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's Department.

b) They must repeat or replace by approved alternatives at least one-half of those courses in which they obtained grades in the "D" range. The specific courses to be repeated will be determined by the appropriate member of the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's Department.

c) Courses to be taken may be specified by the Dean's Office. In no case will the number exceed five per term for full-time students and two per term for part-time students.

d) They must obtain acceptable standing at the time of their next assessment.

Failed Standing:
Failure to meet the criteria for acceptable or conditional standings, or conditional standings over two consecutive assessments.
Failed students may not write supplemental examinations; they are subject to the following regulations.

1. Failed students who are not subject to regulation 2 below may apply for readmission through the Dean's Office of the Faculty to which they wish to be readmitted. If readmitted, they will be placed on academic probation. They must return to acceptable standing at the time of their next assessment. Other conditions will be determined at the time of readmission.

2. Students who are in failed standing for a second time will be dismissed from the University. In subsequent years, should they wish to return to university studies, they must contact the Office of the Registrar for information concerning conditions and procedures for seeking readmission. Decisions of the relevant authority in the Faculty to which application is made, are final.

Availability of Supplemental Examinations

1. Supplemental examinations are available only to students in acceptable standing who have an "F" grade in a course for which such an examination is offered.

2. Except as specified in 4 below, or otherwise approved by the Faculty Council for individual courses, supplemental examinations are available in all 200- and 300-level courses offered by the Faculty.

3. Supplemental examinations are available in those 400-level courses offered by the Faculty for which:
   a) it is required that a student pass the final examination as a condition for passing the course, or
   b) the final examination contributes at least 50% of the mark producing the final grade for the course.

4. Supplemental examinations are not offered in Computer Science courses at the 200 level other than COMP 201 and COMP 212.

1. Students (other than failed students) whose registration in the programme has lapsed for 30 consecutive months or more must apply to the Dean's Office in order to have their curriculum obligations re-evaluated as per paragraph 2 of §16.2.1 of this Calendar. Permission to register will be granted only upon presentation of the results of this re-evaluation.

2. The maximum regular session course load for full-time students in the regular programmes is three more than one-third of the total credits for their particular option as specified in subsequent sections.

3. The maximum regular session course load for full-time students in the Extended Credit and Mature Student programmes is 30 credits until they have completed all the courses required beyond those specified for their particular option in subsequent sections.

4. The fall- and winter-term course loads of full-time students may be unbalanced by up to three credits without permission; further differences between the two terms require the permission of the appropriate Associate Dean, or delegate.

5. Except for students registered for the co-operative format, the maximum load in a Summer Session is eight credits, with no more than four and a half credits in either of its terms.
Students must be in acceptable standing and satisfy the requirements specified for the academic programme in which they were admitted. The structure and courses of the programme may change in the period between admission and graduation due to curriculum development, but students remaining in acceptable standing are not required to complete more credits than were required at the time they were admitted.

The maximum numbers of credits obtained as an Independent student which may be transferred into programmes offered by the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science are as follows:

BEng and BCompSc: 30
Certificate in Quality Control: 15

Full-time students in the Engineering programme will choose a six- or eight-term sequence. Due to the heavy workload involved, six-term sequences are only recommended for the exceptional student. In general, introductory level courses are offered in both day and evening. Subject to the Registration Regulations in §71.10.4 above, a student may register on a part-time basis. Further information on sequencing may be found in the Undergraduate Programme Guide issued by the Office of the Associate Dean.

The Undergraduate Programme Guide specifies course sequences for the BEng and BCompSc programmes, including their Mature Entry and Extended Credit programmes.

A limited number of high ranking students entering the first year of the regular programme leading to the Bachelor of Computer Science degree and the Bachelor of Engineering degree in Building Engineering are permitted to undertake their studies in the co-operative format in conjunction with the Institute for Co-operative Education. See §24.

While the academic content is identical to that of the regular programmes, in order to continue their studies in the co-operative format in the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science students must:

(i) attain an annual WGPA of at least 2.50;
(ii) maintain a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) * of at least 2.70 after their first year of study in their programme;
(iii) be assigned a pass for each work term report.

For additional information, please refer to §24 and §71.30 (Building Engineering) or §71.80 (Computer Science).

* The CGPA is calculated over all courses attempted since admission to the programme in the manner described in §16.3.10 for the WGPA.

The University offers programmes leading to the degree of Bachelor of Engineering in the fields of Building, Civil, Computer, Electrical, Industrial and Mechanical Engineering. Students enrolled in the BEng programme in Building Engineering may, after the completion of all but one of their 200- and 300-level courses, apply through the Associate Dean to enter a combined degree programme leading to the joint award of a Bachelor’s and Master’s degree in this field.

The BEng degree requires completion of a minimum of 115.5 to 118.5 credits depending on the programme chosen. Course requirements comprise a group of required courses with a group of elective courses which allow students to select part of their programme to provide some depth in an area of specialization according to their particular interests, or breadth in the general field of their chosen discipline.

Students may register for courses beyond the introductory 200 level only if they have completed, or will have completed in the current academic year, all of the 200-level courses required for their programme. They must complete the requirements for their degree in a maximum of four academic years after that in which they first register for courses beyond the 200 level. Students failing to satisfy this requirement are withdrawn from the programme; they may be granted permission by the Dean’s Office to continue in the programme for one additional year provided they are eligible to apply for readmission according to the regulations in §71.10.3. Students who fail a fall term 200-level course which is inherent to their discipline are required to repeat it in the immediate subsequent Winter Term. In addition, students obtaining grades in the “D” range for such courses may choose to repeat them. The courses to which this regulation applies are specified annually by discipline in the Undergraduate Programme Guide.
In their final undergraduate year, students with high standing may apply for permission through the Associate Dean's Office to register for a limited number of graduate courses offered by the Faculty in lieu of some courses in the undergraduate programme. Successful completion of a BEng programme requires hard work and considerable dedication on the part of each student. Courses are presented with the expectation of an average of about two hours of "outside" work for each lecture hour and about one-half hour of "outside" work for each hour spent in the laboratory for all programmes of study.

Students admitted to an Extended Credit Programme under the provisions of §13.3.2 or 13.8.1 must successfully complete the requirements of a specific programme, as set out in §71.30 to 71.60, plus the following courses:

a) Building, Civil, Industrial and Mechanical Engineering:
   - MATH 202, 203, 204, 205
   - PHYS 204, 205, 224, 225
   - CHEM 203
   - COMP 203
   - Six credits chosen from courses in the humanities and social sciences.

b) Electrical and Computer Engineering:
   - The courses specified in a), plus PHYS 206

The baccalaureate degree programmes in Civil, Building, Computer, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering are accredited by the Canadian Engineering Accreditation Board of the Canadian Council of Professional Engineers. The Board has recommended to the Constituent Associations of CCPE that graduation from the above curricula be considered as sufficient academic qualification for purposes of registration in all Provinces and Territories in Canada.

The Ordre des ingénieurs du Québec (O.I.Q.) has fully accredited the Bachelor of Engineering curricula in Building, Civil, Computer, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering, and will admit graduates of these five programmes as members according to the Engineers Act and the O.I.Q. By-Laws, providing candidates can complete the French language requirements. Industrial Engineering, which was an accredited option of the Mechanical Engineering curriculum until 1989-90, is now a separate Option of the Bachelor of Engineering degree and accreditation will be sought for it before students first graduate from it.

Québec law now requires that candidates seeking admission to provincially-recognized Québec professional corporations (such as the Ordre des ingénieurs du Québec) possess an appropriate knowledge of the French language. Such knowledge is deemed appropriate when candidates can demonstrate either:

a) that they have had three years of schooling in the French language on a full-time basis, at or above the secondary school level, or

b) that they have taken and passed one of the following courses at Secondary IV or V level: Français 412, 416, 422, 426, 432, 512, 522, 526, 532, 542, 552 (courses that have the same numbers and are entitled French are not acceptable).

Otherwise, candidates must pass the test prescribed by the Office de la langue française. Information on this testing programme of the Office de la langue française may be obtained by writing to: Office de la langue française, 800 Place Victoria, 13e étage, C.P. 316, Montréal, Québec, H4Z 1G8, (514) 873-8361.

To be recommended for the degree of Bachelor of Engineering, students must satisfactorily complete the courses of the Engineering Core as well as those specified for their particular programme in subsequent sections in accordance with the graduation requirements in §71.10.5.

NOTES:
(a) Offered in both day and evening.
(b) To be submitted at the beginning of the Academic Year in which the student expects to graduate.
(c) Students in Building Engineering must successfully complete BLDG 481 as part of the six credit requirement. (For all students, three of these six credits may be replaced by a specified course or courses in French, or by other non-technical courses subject to the approval of the Associate Dean. A list of such courses is available from the Office of the Associate Dean.)
Building Engineering, as a discipline, encompasses the body of knowledge which pertains to all phases in the life-cycle of a constructed facility, namely conception, planning, design, construction, operation and disposal. Concordia has a unique undergraduate programme leading to a BEng in Building Engineering designed to meet the needs of the construction industry for engineers familiar with the overall design of built facilities.

In addition to the basic engineering sciences, the programme emphasizes the fundamentals of building materials, structural analysis and design, building services (acoustical, heating, lighting, air conditioning), economics and project management. The student also has available certain electives which will be of use in the design of various phases of a building.

Students who complete all but one of their 200- and 300-level courses with a sufficiently high standing may apply through the Associate Dean, Academic Programmes to enter a combined programme leading to the joint award of both a BEng and an MEng degree in Building Engineering. It is expected that those who aspire to leadership roles within the building industry will enter such a combined programme. The combined programme requires a further 12 months of full-time study, after which graduates will not only have obtained further grounding in the basics, but will also have specialized in one of four branches: Building Science, Building Environment, Building Structures, Construction Management. For details of the graduate component, refer to the School of Graduate Studies Calendar.

The programme in Building Engineering consists of the Engineering Core, the Building Engineering Core, and a further 12 elective credits chosen from a specified group of courses. The normal length of the programme is 116.50 credits.

Engineering Core (28.75 credits)
See §71.20.5. Note that students in the BEng (Bldg) programme must replace one of the required Social Aspects courses with BLDG 481.

71.30.2
The Co-operative Format

Claude Bédaard, Associate Professor

Students entering the programme leading to the Bachelor of Engineering degree in Building Engineering may request permission to undertake their studies in the co-op format by following the application procedure specified in §24. Academic content is identical to that of the regular programme, but seven Study terms are interspersed with four Work terms. Students in Building Engineering will complete between 15 and 18 credits in each Study Term to obtain the required 116.5 credits for a BEng (Building). Students are supervised personally and must meet the requirements specified in §71.10.8 in order to continue their studies in the co-op format. Liaison between the student, the employers and the Institute for Co-operative Education is provided by the Building Engineering Co-op Committee, which includes the student's advisers. Please refer to §24 for the schedule of Study and Work terms and the full description of admission requirements.
Civil Engineering is primarily concerned with the creation of the complex systems of construction facilities for sound economic growth of the community. In a broad sense, civil engineers learn to control and modify the environment effectively so as to satisfy the needs and desires of society. Their responsibility for design ranges from foundations and superstructures of our common structures such as buildings, bridges, dams, tunnels, wharves, to many unusual structures such as rocket installations, containment vessels for nuclear reactors, supports for radio telescopes, frameworks for aircraft. In addition, civil engineers are concerned with the engineering aspects of water resources, rivers, harbours, irrigation and drainage; with the disposal of wastes and the control of the quality of air and water; with highways, railroads, airports and other transportation facilities; with measuring, mapping and interpreting the physical conditions of the surface of the earth; and with planning metropolitan areas and conducting and managing their public facilities.

The programme is designed so that students, after having obtained grounding in the fundamentals of civil engineering, may specialize in one of two options.

The programme in Civil Engineering consists of the Engineering Core, the Civil Engineering Core, and one of the options described below. The normal length of the programme is 116.25 credits.

Total Credits: 69.00
The Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering offers two distinct programmes, one leading to the Bachelor of Engineering in Electrical Engineering, the other to the Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Engineering.

Electrical Engineering is concerned with the conversion of energy from mechanical, thermal, nuclear, wind and solar sources to electricity, the design of systems for the control and transmission and transportation from generating station to consumer, and the design of converters that transform this energy back to forms that meet the needs of the user.

Computer Engineering, on the other hand, focuses more directly on the design and use of computing devices and systems for the processing, retrieval and storage of information. Great emphasis is placed on giving the student a solid foundation in mathematics, electrical and computer engineering fundamentals and design techniques so that they will be equipped both to contribute and to respond to a rapidly evolving technology. Of equal importance is the fostering of an awareness of the interaction of the profession and the society it serves, and of the ability to communicate effectively both with colleagues and with fellow citizens.

The programme in Electrical Engineering consists of the Engineering Core, the Electrical Engineering Core shown below, and one of three elective options. The normal length of the programme is 116.25 credits.

The Department of Mechanical Engineering offers two distinct programmes, one leading to the Bachelor of Engineering in Mechanical Engineering, the other to the Bachelor of Engineering in Industrial Engineering.

Mechanical Engineering is concerned with all forms of power generation (hydro-electric, steam, internal combustion, nuclear, jet rocket, and fuel cells), the design of mechanisms and machines, transportation systems, controls and automation, vibration analysis, environmental control (heating, ventilation and refrigeration), materials handling, and precision measurement. The Mechanical Engineering curriculum consists of a combination of core courses with a series of technical electives that allow students to obtain some specialization in a particular area of the field depending on their interests and expected future professional activity. Three options are available: Thermo Fluid and Propulsion Engineering; Design and Production Engineering; and Automation and Control Systems.

Industrial Engineering is concerned with the design, organization, analysis and integration of people and industrial systems components in order to achieve or enhance effectiveness. These components include whole machines, transportation and conveyance elements, physical plant, organizational frameworks, schedules and budgets. The Industrial Engineering curriculum is therefore designed to give students the background needed to define and solve problems related to the conception, improvement, integration and implementation of industrial systems.

The programme in Mechanical Engineering consists of the Engineering Core, the Mechanical Engineering Core and option requirements as shown below. The normal length of the programme is 117.75 credits.

Option Requirements

Students in the Mechanical Engineering programme must complete at least 16 elective credits from one of options A, B or C. Prior to registration for electives courses, students indicate their choice of option on a form available from the Department, which must be submitted to the Chair's office for approval prior to March 15.

1. Option A — Thermo Fluid and Propulsion

Students must complete a minimum of 16 credits from the following courses, including at least two of the three courses marked *.

ENGINEERING MATHEMATICS

EMAT 212 Calculus and Differential Equations (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 204 (CEGEP Mathematics 105) previously or concurrently; MATH 205 (CEGEP Mathematics 203). Introduction to ordinary differential equations with applications to engineering problems. Functions of several variables: differentiation and multiple integrals. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorials: two hours per week.

EMAT 232 Matrices and Advanced Calculus (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 212 previously or concurrently. Review of matrix algebra; solution of systems of linear differential equations with examples drawn from physical systems; vector spaces, characteristic value problems, Cayley-Hamilton theorem with applications. Vector calculus: gradient, divergence, Curl, Green's theorem. Divergence theorem, Stokes theorem. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorials: two hours per week.

EMAT 252 Complex Variables (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 212; EMAT 232 previously or concurrently. Algebra of complex numbers in Cartesian and polar forms; functions and inverse functions of complex variables. Derivatives and Cauchy-Riemann, analytic and harmonic functions. Exponential, trigonometric, hyperbolic, and logarithmic functions. Complex line integrals, Cauchy-Goursat theorem, Cauchy integral formula. Taylor's and Laurent's series. Residue theorem and applications. Lectures: three hours per week.

EMAT 311 Transform Calculus and Partial Differential Equations (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 232. Elements of complex variables. The Laplace transform: Laplace transforms and their properties, solution of linear differential equations with constant coefficients. Further theorems and their applications. The Fourier transform: orthogonal functions, expansion of a function in orthogonal functions, the Fourier series, the Fourier integral, the Fourier transform, the convolution theorem. Partial differential equations: physical foundations of partial differential equations, introduction to boundary value problems. Lectures: three hours per week.

EMAT 312 Laplace Transforms and Advanced Differential Equations (3 credits)

EMAT 391 Numerical Methods in Engineering (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 232; COMP 212 or COMP 293. Roots of algebraic and transcendental equations; function approximation; numerical differentiation; numerical integration; solution of simultaneous algebraic equations; numerical integration of ordinary differential equations. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorials: one hour per week.

ENGINEERING AND COMPUTER SCIENCE

ENCS 245 Mechanical Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: PHYS 204 and PHYS 224 (CEGEP Physics 101); EMAT 212 previously or concurrently. Forces in a plane and in space, moments of forces, Varignon's theorem, rigid bodies in equilibrium, free-body diagram. Centroids, centres of gravity. Distributed forces, moments of inertia. Principle of virtual work. Kinematics of particles and rigid bodies. Forces and accelerations; work and energy; impulse and momentum. Kinetics of particles and rigid bodies. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

ENCS 281 Technical Writing (2 credits)
Technical writing form and style. Technical and scientific papers, abstracts, reports. Library research and referencing methods. Business communications. Students may be required to attend tutorial writing workshops based on the results of placement tests administered at the start of the course. Lectures: two hours per week. Tutorial: two hours per week.

ENCS 454 Introduction to VLSI (4 credits)

Prerequisite: COMP 325 or COEN 414. Review of IC development and realization of logic elements. CMOS inverter, logic levels, power and speed considerations, area of implementation. Electrical analysis using SPICE, input, output, delay time and loading. CMOS NAND/NOR gates, fan-out limitations, and layout considerations. Simple CMOS process, design rules, and layout exercises. CMOS logic system design and analysis using SPICE. Logic simulation and testing specification of input, output and delay for fault simulation. Other CAD facilities for logic simulation and testing. Gate arrays and semicustom CMOS design considerations. CMOS dynamic VLSI circuits; CMOS memories. NMOS dynamic and static circuit design: NMOS memories. Hierarchical approach to digital design of VLSI circuits. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week.

ENCS 455 Introduction to VLSI Architecture (4 credits)

Prerequisite: COMP 325 and COMP 326 or COEN 416 previously or concurrently. Introduction to VLSI technology. Synchronous system design. Computational structures and algorithms. Applications of VLSI to problem-solving. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week.

ENCS 456 VLSI Technology (3 credits)

Prerequisite: ELEC 312 previously or concurrently. Introduction to basic VLSI technologies such as crystal growth, epitaxy, dielectric and polycrystalline film deposition, diffusion, ion implantation, lithography, metallization, VLSI process integration, assembly techniques and packaging, yield and reliability. Lectures: three hours per week.

ENCS 471 Algorithmic Aspects of Robotics (3 credits)

ENCS 472 Robot Manipulators (3.75 credits)

Prerequisite: ENCS 245; ENGR 274. Spatial descriptions and transformations. Manipulator forward and inverse kinematics. Jacobians: velocities and static forces. Manipulator dynamics. Trajectory generation. Position control of manipulators. Force control of manipulators. Robot programming languages. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ENGINEERING

ENGR 211 Technical Drawing (2 credits)

Fundamentals of technical drawing, including drawing and dimensioning practices, orthographic projections, isometric drawing and sketching, auxiliary and sectional views, and computer-aided drafting. Examples and applications are taken from all disciplines of the engineering programme by means of team-teaching. Lectures: one hour per week. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

ENGR 242 Statics (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EMAT 212 previously or concurrently; PHYS 204 and PHYS 224 (CEGEP Physics 101); MATH 204 (CEGEP Mathematics 105). Resultant of force systems; equilibrium of particles and rigid bodies; distributed forces; statically determinate systems; trusses; friction; moments of inertia; virtual work. Shear and bending moment diagrams. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

ENGR 243 Dynamics (3 credits)

Prerequisite: EMAT 212; ENGR 242. Kinematics of a particle and rigid body; forces and accelerations; work and energy; impulse and momentum; dynamics of a system of particles and rigid bodies, introduction to vibrations. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

ENGR 244 Mechanics of Materials (3.75 credits)

Prerequisite: ENGR 242; EMAT 232 previously or concurrently. Mechanical behaviour of materials; stress; strain; shear and bending moment diagrams; introduction to inelastic action. Analysis and design of structural and machine elements subjected to axial, torsional, and flexural loadings. Combined stresses and stress transformation. Deflections. Introduction to elastic stability. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ENGR 251 Thermodynamics I (3 credits)

Prerequisite: MATH 203 (CEGEP Mathematics 103). Basic principles of thermodynamics and their application to

ENGINEERING COURSE DESCRIPTIONS · 481
ENGR 273 Basic Circuit Analysis (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 212 previously or concurrently; PHYS 205 and PHYS 225 (CEGEP Physics 201). Current, voltage, power and energy; instantaneous, average, and RMS values. Resistors. Ohm’s law. Dependent and independent sources. Kirchhoff’s laws, mesh and modal analysis. Network theorems: super position, reciprocity, Thevenin, Norton, maximum power transfer. Inductors and capacitors. Step response of simple RC, RL and RLC circuits. Sinusoidal steady-state response of simple RLC circuits. Phasors, power, impedance, resonance. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ENGR 274 Modelling and Analysis of Physical Systems (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 273. Representations of idealized linear lumped mechanical, fluid, and thermal systems in terms of electrical circuits. Singularity functions, system response to singularity functions as input. The Laplace transform as a method of solving system equations. The representation of circuit elements and initial conditions in the transform domain. Generalized impedance and system functions; properties of linear systems; frequency response. Coupled coils and transformers. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ENGR 342 Structural Analysis I (2 credits)

ENGR 343 Structural Analysis II (3 credits)

ENGR 344 Structural Design I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 342 previously or concurrently. Basis for limit states design. Code requirements. Structural steel design: tension and compression members, beams and beam-columns. Connections. Introduction to the design of timber members. Lectures: two hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week.

ENGR 345 Structural Design II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 342 previously or concurrently. Reinforced concrete behaviour in flexure, compression, shear and bond. Ultimate strength design of reinforced concrete beams, columns, walls and footings. Introduction to prestressed concrete and masonry. Lecture: two hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week.

ENGR 361 Fluid Mechanics I (3 credits)

ENGR 371 Probability and Introduction to Random Processes in Engineering (3 credits)

ENGR 372 Fundamentals of Control Systems (3.75 credits)
ENGR 401 Engineering Economics and Management Principles (1.5 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 371. This course is presented in relation to the practice of engineering, and includes the following topics: role and activities of the manager, enterprises and organizations; organizational modes. Planning and control; principles and practice of decision-making. Interest and the time value of money; expected value and decision trees. Capital expenditure appraisal, discounted cash flow, and other methods. Sensitivity analysis. Lectures: one and a half hours per week. NOTE: Students who have received credit for ENGR 403 may not take this course for credit.

ENGR 402 Engineering Law (1.5 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 401 or ENGR 401 or INDU 313 previously or concurrently. A review of Quebec laws such as those pertaining to engineering registration, property, the right of ownership and its restrictions, civil responsibility and contracts, particularly in application to engineering and related professions, as well as corporations and other business organizations. Lectures: one and a half hours per week.

ENGR 410 Technical Report (1.5 credits)
Prerequisite: ENCS 281. Students in the BEng programme must submit a technical report on entering their final year. The report must be from 2,000 to 5,000 words long, on a topic closely related to the student’s option. The report must present a review of a current engineering problem or current engineering practice; a student’s summer work may provide a suitable basis. Students are responsible for acquiring a set of complete instructions and the document Form and Style in the spring before entering the final year of the BEng programme. These documents are available from the Office of the Associate Dean. N.B. The topic must be approved by the student’s Department no later than the last Monday in June. The report must be submitted no later than 5 p.m. on the third Monday after Fall classes begin.

ENGR 451 Construction Engineering (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 341 or CIVI 341. The nature of construction and the environment in which the industry works; organizational structures for project delivery; construction contracts and documents; introduction to construction processes: excavation and site works, foundation layout, concrete form design, concrete, steel, timber, and masonry construction; project planning, scheduling and control; construction safety. Lectures: three hours per week.

ENGR 452 Matrix Analysis of Structures (3 credits)

ENGR 455 Introduction to Structural Dynamics (3 credits)

ENGR 471 Linear Systems (3.75 credits)

ENGR 472 System Optimization (3.75 credits)

ENGR 473 Control System Design (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 372. A course in industrial control design procedures by case study, including practical sensing, control, and actuating elements; optimization of system performance by choice of components and compensation; nonlinearities, introduction to multi-loop systems. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.
ENGR 475  Process Dynamics and Control (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 372. Dynamics of mechanical and chemical processes; system capacity; resistance; piping complexes; characteristics and dynamics of control valves; process time constants; proportional, reset, and derivative control actions; feedforward and cascade control; direct digital control. Case studies on liquid-level control, temperature and heat exchanger control. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ENGR 481  Engineering Project (4 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 410 concurrently, and permission of the student's Department. The Engineering Project provides an opportunity for final-year students to undertake a supervised design, simulation or experimental project. The topic must be approved by the appropriate Department(s) prior to registration in the course. Topic proposals submitted for approval must include evidence that a faculty member will supervise an individual student's project, while those for interdisciplinary projects by two students from different Departments must include such evidence from a faculty member in both Departments. Each student registered in the course is to present a complete report on the project by the end of the 12th week of the Winter Term. Equivalent laboratory time: four hours per week, two terms.

SOCIAL ASPECTS OF ENGINEERING

ENGR 491  Engineers and Society (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENCS 281; 20 courses in BEng programme. Sociological analysis of the interaction between the engineering profession and society, the development of the profession, growth of technical societies, trends in engineering and engineering technology education, relationship to other professions. Role of engineers in Canadian industry, government and industrial research. Lectures: three hours per week.

ENGR 492  Historical Impact of Technology on Society (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENCS 281; 20 courses in BEng programme. Social history of technology and of science including ancient and medieval periods, industrial revolution, and modern times. Engineering and scientific creativity, social and environmental problems created by uncontrolled technology, appropriate technology. Lectures: three hours per week.

ENGR 493  Engineering, Resources and Environment (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENCS 281; 20 courses in BEng programme. Sources, consequences and control of air, water, noise, solid and radiation pollution. Management of mineral and energy resources. Conservation of resources through engineering efficiency, recycling and communal practices. Renewable resources. Case studies of engineering projects. Lectures: three hours per week.

ENGR 494  Effect of Technology on the Person (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENCS 281; 20 courses in BEng programme. Psychological effects of various technologies. Changes in personal, family and community values arising from various patterns of industrial development. Enhancement of personal development by technology, adaptation of the machine to humanity. Lectures: three hours per week.

ENGR 495  Technology Assessment and Control (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENCS 281; 20 courses in BEng programme. The organization of mechanisms and institutions to control and mediate the unwanted and unanticipated side-effects of contemporary technology. Environmental impact assessment, analysis of industrial health and safety, risk analysis. Technological forecasting, future studies, appropriate technology, the conservers society. Relationships of technology assessment to science policy, resource planning, and energy strategy. Lectures: three hours per week.

ENGR 496  Science Policy and Engineering Innovation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENCS 281; 20 courses in BEng programme. An analysis of the basic concepts in science and technology policy including the allocation of resources, research and development, invention, innovation, and diffusion. The social impact of policy decisions and the structure and programmes of government organizations involved in the field. Of particular concern will be issues such as foreign ownership, science and technology development within a regional context; the role of government, industry and the universities within a balanced science and technology policy. Lectures: three hours per week.

ENGR 497  The Management of Transition to an Information Society (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENCS 281; 20 courses in BEng programme. Understanding the social role of the new technologies of the information machine, the emerging information society, the rate of adoption of new technologies, the implications of the information machines for global societies. The effects of the new technology on the structure of decision-making process.
Lectures: three hours per week.

BUILDING ENGINEERING

BLDG 211 Building Engineering Drawing (2 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 211. Theory and applications of descriptive geometry in building design; computer-aided building drawing. Graphics standards; architectural and working construction drawings; project: presentation and detailing of a building and its subsystems. Lectures: one hour per week. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

BLDG 341 Building Engineering Systems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP C211 or COMP 212; EMAT 232 previously or concurrently. Introduction to systematic solution of building engineering problems. Techniques treated include linear programming, network analysis, nonlinear programming, geometric programming, and an introduction to decision analysis and simulation. Techniques illustrated by application to problems in building science, building environment, building structures and construction management. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 363 Building Science I (4 credits)

BLDG 364 Building Science II (4 credits)

BLDG 371 Building Service Systems (3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 364. Principles of building service systems, including electrical, gas, communications, service water supply and distribution; introduction to plans, codes and standards for utility distribution systems. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week, alternate weeks.

BLDG 401 Building Economics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 341 previously or concurrently. Development of economic performance measures of interest to developers, owners, contractors, and users. Sources of finance and the determinants of the cost of money. Treatment of life cycle costing, economic risk; tax regulation, inflation, forecasting techniques; model building; cost indices, elemental estimating, computerized information systems. Consideration of economic analyses of projects, single buildings, and building components. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 459 Computer-Aided Building Design (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 341; BLDG 401 previously or concurrently. Identification of objectives, decision variables, processes, and information flow in building design. Applications and evaluation of computer systems to components of the building design process. Determination of decision variables in problem modelling and sensitivity of results. Current applications in structural analysis and design, space layout, electrical distribution systems, HVAC design, lighting design, estimating, specification editing and scheduling. Evaluation of issues of interdisciplinary information control and interchange. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 461 Building Enclosure Design (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 363; BLDG 364; CIVI 321. Technical influences on the design of building exteriors including the control of heat flow, air and moisture penetration, building movements and deterioration. Special emphasis is given to the principle of rain screen walls and to energy conserving designs. Analytical techniques and building codes are discussed through case studies and design projects. Lectures: three hours per week.
BLDG 462 Modern Building Materials (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CIVI 321. Engineering properties of building materials such as: plastics, synthetic fibres, adhesives, sealants, caulking compounds, foams, sandwich panels, composites, polymer concrete systems, fibre-reinforced concretes, plastic mortars, polymers for flooring, roofing, synthetic wall papers. Their structural, thermal and acoustical properties. Consideration of corrosion, bio- and thermal-degradation, stability to ultraviolet and solar radiation. Laboratory sessions to illustrate synthesis, application, testing, deterioration, and protection. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 465 Fire and Smoke Control in Buildings (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 363; BLDG 364. Topics treated include: fire and smoke control; failure mechanisms of building enclosure illustrated by case studies; code requirements for enclosure systems; systems approach for fire safety. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 471 HVAC System Design (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 371; BLDG 476 previously or concurrently. Principles of HVAC system design and analysis; component and system selection criteria including room air distribution, fans and air circulation, humidifying and dehumidifying processes, piping and ducting design. Air quality standards. Control systems and techniques; operational economics; computer applications. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week.

BLDG 472 Building Energy Conservation Technologies (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 471 previously or concurrently. Identification of the optimal energy performance achievable with various types of buildings and service systems. Reduction of infiltration. Control systems and strategies to achieve optimal energy performance. Low energy heat rejection and recuperation systems. Effective utilization of daylight, heat pumps, passive and active solar heaters, heat storage, heat pipes and thermosyphons in new and old buildings. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 473 Building Acoustics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 363. Noise control criteria and regulations, instrumentation, noise sources, room acoustics, walls, barriers and enclosures, acoustical materials and structures, vibration and noise control systems for buildings. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 474 Building Illumination (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 363. Production, measurement and control of light, design of lighting systems. Design in respect to daylighting. Integration of lighting systems with mechanical systems. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 475 Indoor Air Quality (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 371 previously or concurrently. Elements of indoor air quality, physical/chemical characteristics of contaminants, health effects, standard requirements. Estimation of the levels of indoor air contaminants in buildings. Design of ventilation systems for pollutant control. Air pollution due to outdoor air supply through ventilation systems. Effect of outdoor air pollution on indoor air quality. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 476 Thermal Analysis of Buildings (3 credits)
Prerequisite: BLDG 364. Two- and three-dimensional steady state and transient conductive heat transfer together with convection and radiation as applied to building materials and geometries. Heating and cooling load analysis including building shapes, construction type, solar radiation, infiltration, occupancy effects and daily load variations. Computer applications for thermal load analysis. Introduction to heat exchangers. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 481 Architectural Appreciation and Design (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 20 courses in the BEng programme. Historical and modern architectural theories. Meaning, intentions and formal issues in contemporary design. The influence of technology, energy conservation and environmental constraints on built form. Architecture vs. industrial design. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 491 Labour and Industrial Relations in Construction (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 451. The study of labour legislation with special emphasis on the construction industry, union organization, the theory and practice of negotiations, mediation, contract administration and arbitration. Review of actual contracts, discussion of future trends. Lectures: three hours per week.

BLDG 492 Construction Processes (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 451. A study of current construction methods and techniques. The subjects include site preparation and

BLDG 493 Legal Issues in Construction (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 451. Legal concepts and processes applicable to the development of constructed facilities and to the operation of the construction firm. Emphasis on Québec law and institutions. Lectures: three hours per week.

CIVIL ENGINEERING

CIVI 211 Civil Engineering Drawing (2 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 211. Descriptive geometry of points, lines, planes, and solids; pictorial representation of three-dimensional objects. Working and detailed drawings of steel and concrete structures, foundations, and highways. Computer-aided drawing applications. Lectures: one hour per week. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorials: one hour per week.

CIVI 231 Geology (2.75 credits)
Basic principles of physical and structural geology with emphasis on topics related to civil engineering, study of minerals, rocks and soil types, load formation, techniques of air photo interpretations, and geological maps. Lectures: two hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

CIVI 271 Surveying (3 credits)
Elementary operations employed in engineering surveying; use, care, and adjustment of instruments; linear and angular measurements; traversing; earthwork calculations; theory of errors; horizontal and vertical curves and curve layout; slope stakes and grades, application of surveying methods to city, topographic surveying, and introduction to advanced surveying techniques; use of digital computers in surveying calculations. Summer school taken before entering second year of study in the BEng programme. Lectures and fieldwork: eight hours per day; six days per week for three weeks.

CIVI 321 Engineering Materials (3.75 credits)
Linear and non-linear material behaviour, time-dependent behaviour; structural and engineering properties of structural metals; behaviour of wood; production and properties of concrete; bituminous materials, ceramics, plastics; introduction to composite materials. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

CIVI 341 Civil Engineering Systems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 371 previously or concurrently; COMP 212. Development of concepts and techniques commonly associated with systems engineering which are applicable to design and operation of systems that concern civil engineers. Design and planning process; problem formulation, optimization concepts, linear programming, decision analysis; system simulation; network planning and project scheduling; computer applications. The techniques developed are used to solve problems in transportation, water resources, structures and construction management. Lectures: three hours per week.

CIVI 351 Environmental Engineering (3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 361. Perspectives of environmental problems. Impact of engineering activities on the environment. Water and sewage characteristics, design of treatment operations and processes. Stream pollution. Air quality, meteorological aspects, acid rain, air pollution control. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week, alternate weeks.

CIVI 372 Transportation Engineering (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CIVI 341. Fields of transportation engineering; transportation's roles in society; planning and design of road, rail, air and waterway system components: terminals, right-of-way, control systems: evaluation of alternative modes and decision-making process; introduction to computer-aided design and management of systems. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

CIVI 381 Open Channel Hydraulics (3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 361; EMAT 271 or ENGR 371. Open channel hydraulics; critical flow, uniform and non-uniform flows; design of erodible and non-erodible channels; flow profile, classification and computation. Practical problems. Lectures: two hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week.

CIVI 431 Soil Mechanics (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 244. Index properties and classification of soils. Weight-volume relationships. Soil structures. Moisture-density relationships. Permeability.

CIVI 435 Foundation Design (3.5 credits)

CIVI 437 Advanced Geotechnical Engineering (3 credits)

CIVI 453 Design of Reinforced Concrete Structures (3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 343; ENGR 345. Design of long columns, columns subjected to biaxial bending, two-way slabs, flat plates, girders, and shells. Design of frames, shear-walls, and prefabricated structures. Prestressed concrete: losses, short and long term deflections; design requirements for shear, flexure, bond, and anchorage. Lectures: two hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week.

CIVI 454 Design of Steel Structures (3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 343; ENGR 344. Trends and developments in structural steel design. Framing systems. Floor systems; composite construction; plate girders. Design of braced frames, moment resisting frames. Connections. P-Delta effects. Introduction to steel bridge design. Lectures: two hours per week Laboratory: three hours per week.

CIVI 463 Waste Management (3.5 credits)

CIVI 471 Highway Design (3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: CIVI 271; CIVI 372. Design criteria including capacity and level of service; alignment and right-of-way considerations; earthworks; geometric design and construction practices. Pavement materials and tests; computer applications in geometric design and pavement management; pavement and geometric design project. Lectures: two hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week.

CIVI 472 Traffic Engineering (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CIVI 341; CIVI 372. Analysis of existing traffic flow conditions; study of traffic characteristics; volume and speed surveys; capacity-performance relations for urban streets and intersections; signal timing and coordination; traffic and environmental management; computer applications in incident detection and control; analysis and management of safety. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: two hours per week; alternate weeks.

CIVI 474 Urban Transportation Planning (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CIVI 341; CIVI 372. Forecasting future travel patterns; systems approach to transportation planning process; land-use data collection and demand analysis: trip generation, trip distribution, modal split, and route assignment; transportation of commodities; environmental impact analysis. Computer modelling. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: two hours per week; alternate weeks.

CIVI 481 Water Supply Systems (3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 362. Water use cycle; capacity of water supply systems; sources of raw water; development of surface water and ground water; water quantities and requirements; steady closed conduit flow analysis; design of distribution systems; storage; pumping; water quality; introduction to water purification practices. Lectures: two hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week.

CIVI 483 Hydrology (3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: CIVI 381. Weather elements: precipitation, stage-discharge relations; evapo-transpiration; ground water flow; streamflow hydrography, unit hydrography, synthetic hydrographs; laminar flow; hydrologic routing; instantaneous hydrograph; hydraulic routing, method of characteristics, kinematic routing; statistical analysis, confidence intervals, stochastic generator, autoregressive model; applications of hydrology. Lectures: two hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week.

CIVI 489 Computational Hydraulics (3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: CIVI 381. Continuous and discrete forms of conservation laws; mass, momentum, and energy in one-, two- and three-dimensional forms; St. Venant and Boussinesq equations; numerical methods; finite differences, implicit and explicit schemes; finite elements; application to engineering and environmental hydraulics; computer applications. Lectures: two hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week.

COMPUTER ENGINEERING

COEN 231 Introduction to Discrete Mathematics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 204 or CEGEP Mathematics 105. Sets and binary relations. Algebraic structures including binary operations, semigroups, groups, rings, and morphisms. Lattices including posets and distributive lattices. Graphs. Boolean algebras including lattice representation of Boolean algebras and canonical expressions. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week. NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 231 may not take this course for credit.

COEN 241 Programming Methodology (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 205 (CEGEP Mathematics 203); COEN 231 previously or concurrently; COEN 242 previously or concurrently. Overview of notations and programming development including natural programming language, conditional instructions and conditional executions, repeat instruction and repetition, procedures and functions, arrays, searching and sorting. Lectures: three hours per week. NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 244 may not take this course for credit.

COEN 242 Language Laboratory - Pascal (1 credit)
Prerequisite: COEN 241 previously or concurrently, or COMP 212 previously. General form of Pascal programme; decisions and the if statement; repetition and the while statement; procedures and parameters; simple data types; the case and repeat statement; arrays; records; multidimensional arrays; sets and strings; files; recursion; stacks and queues; dynamic data structures. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week. NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 291 may not take this course for credit.

COEN 311 Computer Organization and Software (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 212 or COMP 244. Introduction to basic functional units in a computer and terminology; fixed-point and floating-point arithmetic; machine programming fundamentals; instruction structure and addressing modes; subroutine, stack, the assembly process. Microprocessors: examples of architectures, assembler and addressing modes, instruction set, programming; input/output, programmed and interrupt driven I/O; memory management; operating systems concepts. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

COEN 312 Digital Systems Design (3.75 credits)
Boolean algebra, logic minimization, multiple output circuits. Designing with MSI and LSI chips, decoders, multiplexers, adders, multipliers, programmable logic devices. Introduction to sequential circuits; flip-flops. Completely specified sequential machines. Machine equivalence and minimization. Implementation of clock mode sequential circuits. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks. NOTE: Students who have received credit for COEN 413 may not take this course for credit.

COEN 412 Digital Electronics (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ELEC 312. Modelling of semiconductor devices for analysis and simulations; MOS, CMOS, TTL, Schottky TTL, ECL and GaAs circuits. Switching speeds, power dissipation, noise immunity, fan-in and fan-out. Flip-flops and multi-vibrators; interface and BiCMOS circuits. Static and dynamic random-access memories; read-only memories and programmable logic devices and arrays. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

COEN 414 Sequential Circuits (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: COEN 312. State equivalence and minimization of completely-specified sequential machines. State compatibility and minimization of incompletely-specified sequential machines. Analysis and design of fundamental mode and pulse mode asynchronous sequential circuits. Races and hazards in asynchronous circuits; race-free assignments and hazard-free logic. State assignment and structural decomposition of sequential circuits; series, parallel and common-factor decompositions. Information flow in sequential machines; testing and diagnosis of sequential circuits; test sequence generation. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

COEN 416 Computer Architecture and Design (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COEN 311; COEN 312.
Processor organization; overview of computer architecture and design methodology; data path, control unit, ALU design, advanced techniques for fast multiplication and design; bit-slice and pipelined processors. Control unit division and optimization: microprogramming, hard-wired control, sequence counters, delay and state methods, optimization techniques, bit-slice sequencers. Memory Organization: memory hierarchy, paging and segmentation, virtual memory, cache and associative memories, replacement algorithms, memory interleaving, examples. Pipelining: prefetching, control algorithms, performance criteria, multi-function pipelines. Lectures: three hours per week.

COEN 417 Microprocessor Systems (4.5 credits)
Prerequisite: COEN 311; COEN 312.
Introduction to microprocessor interfacing. Bus functions, bus interconnections, synchronous and asynchronous bus. Signal flow and data transfer, decoding for I/O and memory, memory organization and structures. Interfacing examples; parallel interfacing, serial interfacing, the interrupt system; bus arbitration and DMA. Analog-to-digital and digital-to-analog structures and interfacing. Floppy disc and CRT controllers: bus standards; local area networks. Benchmarking and comparative study of recent microprocessors. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week.

COEN 418 Real-Time System Design (4.5 credits)
Prerequisite: COEN 417; COMP 343.
Introduction to real-time systems. Requirements, programming, design, applications, reliability, and fault tolerance. Real-time multi-tasking operating systems. Multi-tasking and schedule, task control, intertask communication and synchronization, interrupt and exception handling, examples. Real-time multi-processor system design: concurrent programming and examples of programming languages, concurrent processes and reliability, resource sharing and control, inter-processor communication and synchronization, bus configuration and link configuration, special processors. Case studies in real-time system design. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week.

COEN 431 Software Engineering (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 343. Overview of an object-oriented language. Introduction to the lifetime of a software system; software reliability; basics of information hiding, object-oriented design, requirements analysis, scenario development, facilities dependency diagram. System structure, module interfaces, module interface specifications, algebraic specifications, trace specifications, canonical traces. Mapping module specifications into module implementations; testing and debugging, test derivation from module specifications, test plans; code walkthroughs, reports. Product delivery, maintenance, configuration management, versions; CASE tools. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 354 may not take this course for credit.

COEN 498 Topics in Computer Engineering (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. The course, when offered, will include topics which complement elective courses in computer engineering and computer science. Lectures: three hours per week.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

ELEC 251 Fundamentals of Applied Electromagnetics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 273; EMAT 232 previously or concurrently. Electric charge, Coulomb's Law, electrostatic forces, electric field, Gauss' Law, electric potential, stored energy. Dielectrics, properties of materials in electric fields. Electric current, conduction in a vacuum and in material media, displacement current, magnetic field of a current, force on a current-carrying wire, magnetic induction, electromotive force, energy stored in a magnetic field. Magnetism in material media, magnetic circuits. Time varying fields. Capacitance, resistance, inductance, elements of electric circuits. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

ELEC 311 Electronics I (4.5 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 274. Review of linear

ELEC 351 Electromagnetic Waves and Guiding Structures (3 credits)

ELEC 353 Basic Electromagnetics and Transmission Line Theory (3 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 312; ELEC 341. Laws of electromagnetism including differential forms. Boundary conditions. Maxwell's...
492 . ENG ING COURSE DE S CRIPTIONS

ELEC 401  Electrical Engineering Seminar (1 credit)
Prerequisite: ENCS 281. Seminars are organized on a regular basis to provide students with an opportunity to exercise their ability to present and defend their thoughts on topics of their own choice. Students will be encouraged to devote some of their presentations to such topics as continuing professional education and professional ethics. Seminars: two hours per week.

ELEC 411  Pulse and Waveform Generation (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 312; ELEC 312. Modelling and techniques of analysis. Multivibrator circuits: analysis, design, and applications. Oscillator circuits. Linear sawtooth generators. Pulse transformers and blocking oscillators. Negative-resistance devices and some applications. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ELEC 421  Solid State Devices (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ELEC 321. Physics of solid state monojunction devices. Basic semiconductor and physical mechanisms of p-n junctions, tunnel diodes, interface and thin-film devices, electroluminescence diodes, solar cells, and photodetectors. Design, fabrications, and evaluation of planar silicon diodes. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ELEC 422  Design of Integrated Circuit Components (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ELEC 421. The structure, characteristics and design of I.C. device components. Fabrication of I.C.'s: mask layout, interconnections, performances, reliability and yield of production. Competitive I.C. technologies. A planar bipolar transistor will be designed, fabricated, and evaluated in the laboratory. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ELEC 431  Electrical Power Systems (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ELEC 331. Inductance, capacitance, resistance of polyphase transmission lines; current and voltage relations of transmission lines; load flow studies; symmetrical and unsymmetrical faults; power system stability. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ELEC 432  Control of Electrical Power Conversion Systems (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 372; ELEC 331. Basic considerations and control requirements. Control system principles and structures. Controller characteristics and operation. Static power conversion systems. Electro-mechanical systems and electrical machine modelling. Control system design. Applications to electric motor drives and typical power conversion systems. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ELEC 433  Static Power Converters (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 372; ELEC 311; ELEC 331. The principles and classification of power converters; types of commutation and power switches. Diode and thyristor line-commutated converters; rectifier and inverter operation. Ac controllers and dc inverters; voltage and current source inverters. PWM patterns and practical considerations. Power supplies for computer and aerospace applications. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ELEC 441  Modern Filter Design (3.75 credits)

ELEC 442  Introduction to Digital Signal Processing (3.75 credits)

ELEC 453  Microwaves and Optics: Transmission (3.75 credits) aperture antennas, diffraction, linear arrays. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ELEC 454 Optical Electronics (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 312; ELEC 341; ELEC 351. Properties of dielectric and fibre waveguides. Multilayer optical impedance transformation. Optical couplers, gratings and distributed feedback structures. Principles of electro-optic devices. Interferometric devices. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ELEC 455 Acoustics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ELEC 351. Sound generation and propagation in elastic media; conversion between acoustical, electrical, and mechanical energy. Lumped-parameter approximations, sound in rooms, underwater acoustics, microphones; loudspeakers and audio communications problems; noise and vibration control problems. Lectures: three hours per week.

ELEC 461 Communication Circuits and Systems (3.75 credits)

ELEC 462 Statistical and Digital Communications (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 271 or ENGR 371; ELEC 461. Transmission and filtering of random signals, analysis of modulation systems, in particular pulse code modulation, phase shift keying, frequency shift keying, etc., and introduction to noise analysis, information theory and coding. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

ELEC 463 Telecommunication Networks (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 371. Introduction to layered network architecture; data link control and communication channels. Delay models in data networks; simple queueing systems; multiaccess communications; ALOHA, CSMA, reservation schemes, conflict-free access schemes. Satellite, packet radio networks, token rings and polling; routine and flow control; ISDN. Lectures: three hours per week.

ELEC 471 Random Processes (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 371. Definition and classification of random processes, ergodicity and stationarity, auto and cross correlations, power spectral density Gaussian processes, linear transformations, estimation and prediction, nonlinear transformations (full- and half-wave rectification), diffusion processes, Markov chains, Markov processes, Poisson processes, application to queueing. Lectures: three hours per week.

ELEC 498 Topics in Electrical Engineering (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course may be offered in a given year upon the authorization of the Electrical Engineering Department. The course content may vary from offering to offering and will be chosen to complement the elective courses available in a given option or options. Lectures: three hours per week.

INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING

INDU 313 Industrial Economics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ACCO 213. Development of economic performance measures. Sources of finance and the cost of money. Consideration of: life cycle costing, economic risk, tax regulations, inflation, short- and long-term forecasting techniques, model building, cost indices, elemental estimating, computerized information systems. Lectures: three hours per week. NOTE: Students who have received credit for BLDG 401 may not take this course for credit.

INDU 320 Production Engineering I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: INDU 323. The systems approach to production; interrelationships among the component blocks of the system including capacity planning, plant location, layout of physical facilities, maintenance. Lectures: three hours per week.

INDU 321 Production Engineering II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: INDU 320. A continuation of Production Engineering I with emphasis on the design of the control systems for the production facility. Topics include allocation of resources, scheduling work methods and measurement, materials handling, process control and quality control. Lectures: three hours per week.

INDU 323 Industrial Operations Research
Prerequisite: COMP 212. An introduction to deterministic mathematical models with emphasis on linear programming. Applications to production, logistics, and service systems. Computer solution of optimization problems. Lectures: three hours per week.

INDU 330 Organizational Management
Organizational structures, their growth and change. Motivation, leadership, and group behaviour. Design of alternatives for improving organizational performance and effectiveness. Lectures: three hours per week.

INDU 371 Advanced Probability and Statistics
Prerequisite: ENGR 371. Parameter estimation and hypothesis testing. Goodness-of-fit and independence tests; linear regression and correlations; Quality control; Monte Carlo simulation. Reliability analysis: parallel and series systems, exponential model, active and standby redundancy, life testing and model estimation; queuing analysis: discrete-time and continuous-time Markov chains, steady state probabilities, availability analysis, pure birth-death processes, flow-balance, elementary queuing models. Applications to industrial engineering problems. Lectures: three hours per week.

INDU 410 Safety Engineering
Prerequisite: INDU 412. Hazard evaluation and control; design criteria; occupational injuries and diseases; machine guarding. Topics are considered in the fields of ventilation, air cleaning, process alteration, radiation, heat, noise, and vibration. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: two hours per week.

INDU 411 Computer Integrated Manufacture and Assembly
Prerequisite: ENGR 372 previously or concurrently; MECH 311. Concepts and benefits of integrated computer-aided manufacturing and assembly illustrated with case studies. Control of machine tools (NC, CNC, DNC) with an introduction to computer and direct numerical control, integration with CAD. Robots in manufacturing applications. Survey of kinematic structures in robots, typical applications in tool- and work-handling, path control. Computerized material handling. Reduction of storage requirements and transfer time. Computerized conveyor systems. Automatic guided vehicles. Overall factory automation. Design of work centres, work cells, optimal manufacturing operations, computer-aided inspection and quality control. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

INDU 412 Human Factor Engineering
Prerequisite: INDU 412. Hazard evaluation and control systems; the role of forecasting in controlling inventories; the role of inventories in physical distribution; inventories in manufacturing; systems such as KANBAN and Just-In-Time. Lectures: three hours per week.

INDU 423 Inventory Control
Prerequisite: INDU 321. Inventory analysis and control systems; the role of forecasting in controlling inventories; the role of inventories in physical distribution; inventories in manufacturing; systems such as KANBAN and Just-In-Time. Lectures: three hours per week.

INDU 480 Industrial Engineering Project
Prerequisite: 20 courses in the Industrial Engineering programme. Students are assigned, as individuals or as small groups, specific industrial engineering projects. It is expected that these projects will be drawn from local industry and will thus reflect actual problems faced by industry. Students give an oral presentation and prepare a project report under the supervision of a faculty member. Lectures: one hour per week, one term. Laboratory: two hours per week, two terms.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

MECH 211 Mechanical Engineering Drawing
MECH 221  Materials Science
(2 credits)
Prerequisite: CHEM 205 (CEGEP Chemistry 101). Relationships between properties and internal structure, atomic bonding; molecular, crystalline and amorphous structures; crystal-line imperfections and mechanisms of structural change; microstructures; structures and mechanical properties of polymers. Lectures: two hours per week. Tutorial: two hours per week.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ENGR C221 may not take this course for credit.

MECH 311  Manufacturing Processes
(2.5 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 313. Fundamentals of manufacturing processes and their limitations, metrology, machine shop practice, forming, machining and casting processes, welding and joining, plastic production and non-conventional machining techniques. Laboratory includes use of be, l c machines, preparation of shop drawings with emphasis on production and field trips to local industries. Lectures: two hours per week. Tutorial: four hours per week, alternate weeks including industrial visits. Laboratory: two hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 313  Machine Drawing and Design
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR-213. The use of drawings and other graphical methods in the process of engineering design. Industrial standards and specifications, standard components and their use in product design. Detailed study of machine elements and assemblies, their representation and function in design and working drawings. Dimensioning and tolerance systems related to manufacturing processes, interchangeability, quality control, patent procedures. Pencil thinking and computer graphics in the design process. Computer-aided machine drawing. A student design project will be an integral part of this course. An eight hour introduction to machine shop techniques forms part of the tutorial. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: two hours per week.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for ENGR C214 and MECH C312 may not take this course for credit.

MECH 321  Properties and Failure of Materials
(3.5 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 221. The service capabilities of alloys and their relationship to micro-structure as produced by thermal and mechanical treatments; material codes; material selection for design; strengthening mechanisms, composite materials. Modes of failure of materials; fracture, fatigue, wear, creep, corrosion, radiation damage. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week. Laboratory: two hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 341  Kinematics and Dynamics of Mechanisms and Manipulators
(2.5 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 232; ENGR 243. Geometry of motion and mobility criteria; planar and spatial mechanisms; general relationship governing relative motion, displacement, velocity, acceleration and Coriolis acceleration. Vector calculus, complex vectors, and graphical methods for velocity and acceleration. Instantaneous centres; line of centres method for velocity determination. Static and dynamic force analysis of planar mechanisms; effect of friction forces; static force-torque relationship for manipulators; virtual work method; dynamics of manipulators. Lectures: two hours per week. Tutorial: two hours per week, alternate weeks. Laboratory: two hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 342  Theory of Machines
(2.5 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 341. Cam kinematics; cam layout; basic follower motions; pressure angle; cam curvature constraints. Velocity, acceleration and jerk of cam followers. Kinematics of spur gears; standard teeth-layout of gear and pinion; involutometry; contact ratio; non-standard gears. Helical gears for parallel and crossed shafts; worm gear layout. Straight bevel gears, spiral and hypoid bevel gears. Gear trains; planetary gear trains. Differentials and differential screws. Force analysis of gears. Gyroscopic effect in machines. Static and dynamic balancing of rotating masses reciprocating machinery with single and multiple cylinders. Lectures: two hours per week. Tutorial: two hours per week, alternate weeks. Laboratory: two hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 351  Thermodynamics II
(3.75 credits)

MECH 352  Heat Transfer I
(3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 311. Steady state and transient heat conduction, numerical methods for two-dimensional steady state heat conduction. Radiation heat exchange between black bodies, between grey bodies, and from gases, vapours, and flames. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 361 Fluid Mechanics II (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 361. Selected solutions of the Navier-Stokes equations. Introduction to turbulent flow. Fully developed pipe and duct flows, major and minor losses, flow measurement. Euler equations, potential flows, superposition of elementary plane flows. Boundary layers, flow about immersed bodies. Propagation of sound waves, isentropic flow of ideal gases in one dimension, stagnation properties, normal shocks. Introduction to open channel flows. Laboratory experiments: flow visualization, laminar and turbulent pipe flows, lift and drag of airfoils, Stokes' flow, numerical solution of potential flows. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 373 Instrumentation and Measurements (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 274. Unified treatment of measurement of physical quantities. Principle, characteristics, design, and calibration of components and systems for measuring position, velocity, acceleration, force, pressure, flowrate, temperature, proximity detection, etc. Background knowledge of electronics covering signal generation, processing, and data acquisition. Concepts of accuracy and repeatability, linearity, response criteria, bandwidth, input and output impedance, matching of measuring systems, drift and bias. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 411 Design and Analysis of Mechanical Components (2.5 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 311. Analytical review of current design practices and specification of standard components encountered in mechanical engineering. Introduction to overall system reliability estimates, interchangeability of mechanical devices and influence of stress-strength in determining the actual configuration of mechanical elements. Standard components covered include: various types of mechanical drives, cams, clutches, couplings, brakes, seals, fasteners, springs, and bearings. Lectures: two hours per week. Tutorial: two hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 412 Computer-Aided Mechanical Design (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 313; MECH 411. Introduction to computer hardware, graphical input and output devices; computer-aided drawing; generation of points, vectors, 2D modelling, windowing, rotation, plane curves, 3D modelling and transformations; projections, space curves and surfaces, elimination of hidden lines and surfaces; orthographic and axonometric drawings; computer-aided linkage design; computer-aided design and analysis of machine elements; introduction to finite element methods with applications. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 421 Mechanical Shaping of Metals, Plastics and Composites (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 221. Metal forming: extrusion, forging, rolling, drawing, pressing, compacting; shear line theory, sheet forming limits. Metal cutting, machinability, tooling. Plastics/composites shaping: extrusion, pultrusion, moulding, vacuum forming, lay-up, filament winding, laminating. Consideration of the mechanical parameters critical for process control and computer applications. Interaction of materials characteristics with processing to define product properties: cold working, annealing, hot working, super plasticity, thermomechanical treatment. Energy conservation, safety, product quality and liability. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 422 Mechanical Behaviour of Polymer Composite Materials (3 credits)

MECH 423 Casting, Welding, Heat Treating, and Non-Destructive Testing (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 221. Comparative analysis of the various techniques of casting, welding, powder fabrication, finishing, and non-destructive testing. Consideration of the control parameters that are essential to define both automation or robot application. Materials behaviour which determines product micro-structure and properties. Technology and theory of solidification, normalizing, quenching, surface hardening, tempering, aging, and thermomechanical processing for steels, cast irons and A1, Cu, Ni and Ti alloys. Energy conservation, worker safety, quality control, and product liability. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 431  Principles of Aeroelasticity
(3 credits)

MECH 441  Mechanical Engineering Design
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 244; MECH 313; MECH 342. Concepts in design; failure of mechanical elements under dynamic loading; shafting; bolted and welded joints; anti-friction and journal bearings; design of gears. Lectures: two hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week.

MECH 443  Mechanical Vibrations
(3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: EMAT 311; ENGR 274; MECH 342. Transient vibrations under impulsive shock and arbitrary excitation: normal modes; free and forced vibration. Multi-degree of freedom systems, influence coefficients, orthogonality principle, numerical methods. Continuous systems; longitudinal torsional and flexural free and forced vibrations of prismatic bars. Lagrange's equations. Vibration measurements. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 444  Guided Vehicle Systems
(3 credits)

MECH 445  Machine Design
(4 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 441. Design of springs; design of gear and hydraulic drives, design for hydrodynamics and hydrostatic lubrication; optimum design of mechanical systems, design strategy, value and merit function, maximizing and minimizing procedures. Laboratory work includes an advanced design project representative of those encountered in industry. Equivalent laboratory time: four hours per week, two terms. NOTE: Not available for credit for students taking ENGR 481.

MECH 446  Process Equipment Design
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 321. Design of pressure vessels, towers, reactors, tanks, heat exchangers, piping systems, etc. as used in the petro-chemical, power generation, pulp and paper, and related industries. Compliance with pertinent codes and regulations; detailed analysis of shells, formed heads, flat closures; expansion stresses; wind and earthquake effects. Application to actual problems from industry. Lectures: three hours per week.

MECH 447  Fundamentals of Vehicle System Design
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 342. Mechanics and construction of wheels and tires: rolling resistance, tractive and braking forces, brake system design: components of mechanical, hydraulic and pneumatic brake systems, braking efficiency, antilock braking devices, performance characteristics of road vehicles: transmission design, driving condition diagrams, acceleration, speed and stopping distance, gradability, steering mechanisms: design and kinematics, suspension spring and shock absorbers: anti-roll and anti-pitch devices, chassis and body design considerations. Student participation in SAE design competitions is required. Lectures: three hours per week.

MECH 448  Vehicle Dynamics
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 447 previously or concurrently. Tire-terrain interactions; side-slip, cornering and aligning properties of tires; camber angle and camber torque; estimation of braking/tractive and cornering forces of tires; steady-state handling of road vehicles; steering response and directional stability; handling and directional response of vehicles with multiple steerable axles; handling of articulated vehicles; handling and directional response of tracked and wheeled off-road vehicles; directional response to simultaneous braking and steering.

MECH 452 Heat Transfer II (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 362; MECH 352.
Review of momentum transfer, free and forced convection heat transfer, dimensional analysis as applied to convection heat transfer configurations, heat exchangers, introduction to mass transfer. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 453 Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning Systems (3 credits)

MECH 454 Vehicular Internal Combustion Engines (3 credits)

MECH 461 Gas Dynamics (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 362; MECH 351.
Review of one-dimensional compressible flow: Normal and oblique shock waves; Prandtl-Meyer flow; combined effects in one-dimensional flow; non-ideal gas effects; multi-dimensional flow; linearized flow; method of characteristics. Selected experiments in supersonic flow, convergent-divergent nozzles, hydraulic analogue and Fanno tube. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 462 Turbomachinery and Propulsion (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 362; MECH 351.

MECH 463 Fluid Power Control (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 361; ENGR 372.
Introduction to fluid power: pneumatic devices; fluidic devices; hydraulic system components; hydraulic and electro-hydraulic systems; dynamic performance of fluid power systems; fluid logic. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 464 Aerodynamics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 461. Flow conservation equations, incompressible Navier-Stokes equations, inviscid irrotational and rotational flows: the Euler equations, the Potential and Stream Function equations. Dynamics of an incompressible inviscid flow field: the Kelvin, Stokes and Helmholtz theorems. Elementary flows and their superposition, panel method for non-lifting bodies. Airfoil and wing characteristics, aerodynamics forces and moments coefficients. Incompressible flows around thin airfoils, Biot-Savart law, vortex sheets. Incompressible flow around thick airfoils, the panel method for lifting bodies. Incompressible flow around wings, Prandtl's lifting line theory, induced angle and downwash, unswept wings, swept wings. Compressible subsonic flow: linearized theory, Prandtl-Glauert equation and other compressibility correction rules, the area rule. Transonic flow: Von Karman's ransonic Small Disturbance Equation, transonic full potential equation, supercritical airfoils. Lectures: three hours per week.

MECH 465  Gas Turbine Design
(3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: MECH 462; MECH 464 concurrently. Study of practical criteria which influence the design of a gas turbine engine including relevant mechanical and aerodynamic constraints. The aerodynamics of each of the three major components of a modern turbo-fan engine, namely the compressor, the combustor, and the turbine is considered. Air system acoustics, engine aerodynamic matching of components, and modern performance testing methods. A design project is assigned for each of these components. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 471  Microprocessors and Applications  (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: ELEC 318. Introduction to the concepts and practices of using microprocessors and microcomputers in such applications as instrumentation, manufacturing, control and automation; architecture and programming techniques; interface logic circuits; I/O systems; case studies of engineering applications. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: three hours per week, alternate weeks.

MECH 472  Driverless Ground Vehicles  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ENGR 372. Definition and classifications; case studies of major industrial and research vehicle prototypes; applications; kinematic modelling for feedback control of a driverless vehicle as a planar rigid body; vehicle motion and its relation to steering and drive rates of its wheels; coordinate systems assignment, transformation matrices; condition for rolling without skidding and sliding; sensor models and sensor integrations; dead-reckoning control; global and local path planning; introduction to dynamic modelling of driverless vehicle with and without the dynamics of wheel assemblies; design of optimal controllers; introduction to adaptive neuro-morphic controller. Projects are an integral part of the course for which the following may be used: TUTSIM, FORTRAN, or C.

MECH 498  Topics in Mechanical Engineering  (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department chair. This course may be offered in a given year upon the authorization of the Mechanical Engineering Department. The course content may vary from offering to offering and will be chosen to complement the elective courses available in a given option or options. Lectures: three hours per week.
Computer Science is the study and design of computer systems: hardware and software. Computer scientists are primarily concerned with the design of algorithms, languages, hardware architecture, systems software, applications software and tools. Applications range from simple game playing to the control of space vehicles, power plants and factories, from banking machines to intelligent fault and medical diagnosis. Computer professionals, in short, are concerned with the creation of computer and information systems for the benefit of society.

The Computer Science programme emphasizes fundamentals and techniques that will provide the basis for the fast changing world of the future. It consists of a combination of core courses in computer science, programme courses attached to the options, and technical electives. The Computer Science core provides a basic and broad study of theory, programming methodology, computer architecture, systems architecture, data structures and databases, operating systems and software engineering. The option courses are designed to provide an integrated and yet specialized training in particular application areas of the discipline. Each option involves the study of selected advanced elective courses in computer science, as well as courses in other disciplines, to provide further depth in computer science and the particular application area.

The Department offers the following five options: Information Systems, Software Systems, Systems Architecture, Theoretical Computer Science, and General Science. An Honours programme in Computer Science is also available. All options are offered in the co-operative format, alternating Study and Work terms, for a limited number of high-ranking students.

The Information Systems option focuses on the application of computers in business, with a special emphasis on databases, software engineering, and management information systems. The Systems Architecture option focuses on aspects of the design of digital circuits, and their integration into computer architectures.

The Theoretical Computer Science option focuses on numerical analysis and symbolic computation.
The General Science option permits the student to define an area of speciality within the sciences.

The Software Systems option is concerned with the design and analysis of large-scale software systems.

To be recommended for the degree of Bachelor of Computer Science, students must satisfactorily complete an approved programme of at least 90 credits comprising the courses of the Computer Science Core and those specified for their particular option in accordance with the graduation requirements in §71.10.5.

Computer Science Core

This is composed of four required courses of four credits each, five courses of three credits and two courses of two credits each for a total of 35 credits.

- COMP 215, 220, 231, 243, 326, 335, 346, 352, 393, 354 and ENCS 281

1. Information Systems Option

   NOTE: Admission profile is 10.12.

   Please refer to §71.10.2.

   - 35 Computer Science Core
   - 1 COMP 292 – Language Laboratory – COBOL
   - 9 Chosen from COMP 445, 451, 457, 458, 472, 474
   - 3 Elective Computer Science credits chosen from COMP or ENCS courses numbered above 220 but including no more than two language laboratories.
   - 30 ACCO 213, 218, ECON 203, 203', FINA 214, MANA 266, MARK 213, DESC 243, 244, 250
   - 6 Elective credits chosen from courses having prefixes ACCO, ECON, FINA, MANA, or MARK except ACCO 220, 221, MANA 211
   - 6 Chosen from any department

   *See note following the description of the Software Systems option.

2. Systems Architecture Option

   NOTE: Admission profile is 10.10.

   Please refer to §71.10.2.

   - 35 Computer Science Core
   - 1 Language Laboratory
   - 3 COMP 361
   - 6 Two courses chosen from COMP 327, 421, 445, ENCS 455
   - 3 Chosen from COMP or ENCS courses numbered above 220 but including no more than two language laboratories
   - 27 EMAT 212, 232, 252, 312, ENGR 273, 274, 371, ELEC 311, 313
   - 9 Chosen from ENCS 245, 456, ENGR 372, 375, 471, ELEC 312, 341, 442, 461, 462, 465
   - 6 Chosen from any department

   *See note following the description of the Software Systems option.

3. Theoretical Computer Science

   NOTE: Admission profile is 10.10.

   Please refer to §71.10.2.

   - 35 Computer Science Core
   - 1 Language Laboratory

   - 3 COMP 361
   - 6 Chosen from COMP 441, 465
   - 3 Chosen from COMP or ENCS courses numbered above 220 but including no more than two language laboratories
   - 18 MATH 242, 243, 262, 263, 282
   - 9 Mathematics credits chosen from one of the lists below
   - 9 Mathematics credits chosen from any department

   *See note following the description of the Software Systems option.

4. General Science Option

   NOTE: Admission profile is 10.10.

   Please refer to §71.10.2.

   - 35 Computer Science Core
   - 1 COMP 361
   - 6 Elective credits chosen from:
     a) those offerings of the Faculty of Arts and Science which are creditable towards a 90-credit BSc programme;
     b) those offerings of the Faculty of Commerce and Administration which are creditable towards a 90-credit BComm or BAdmin degree;
c) those offerings of the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science other than COMP 201;
d) other courses as authorized by the Office of the Associate Dean, in consultation with the Department.

6 Chosen from any department

*See note following the description of the Software Systems option.

5. Software Systems Option

NOTE: Admission profile is 10.10.

Please refer to §71.10.2.

35 Computer Science Core
1 Language Laboratory
19 COMP 361, 442, 444, 445, 451, 465
5 Chosen from COMP or ENCS courses numbered above 220 but including no more than two

*Students should note that certain courses are not creditable towards some 90-credit programmes, or cover certain material already found in the Computer Science or option cores. As such they are not recognized as electives. A listing of these exclusions and other information on choice of electives is found in the Faculty Programme Guide. Exceptions require the approval of the Dean’s Office.

Students admitted to an Extended Credit Programme under the provisions of Sections 13.3.2 or 13.8.1 must successfully complete a minimum of 120 credits including:

90 Programme requirements as set out in Section 71.80.2
12 MATH 202, 203, 204, 205
3 COMP 201
15 Additional credits, as indicated below:

a) Information Systems Option:
15 elective credits chosen from outside the Faculty of Commerce and Administration and the Department of Computer Science.

b) Other Options:
CHEM 205
PHYS 204, 205, 224, 225
and at least four credits chosen from:
BIOL 201, CHEM 206, ECON 201, 203, ESL 207, 208, PHYS 206, 207, 226

71.80.4 Honours Programme

Students should refer to Section 16.2.3 of the Calendar for academic regulations for the Honours programme. In addition, the following regulations apply to the BCompSc programme. 1. Applications to enter an Honours programme must be submitted to the Office of the Associate Dean at least three months before the start of the term in which the student wishes to enter the programme.

2. Students must complete a minimum of 30 credits towards the degree after entering an Honours programme.

3. Each Honours student’s programme, including electives, requires the approval of the student’s Honours adviser prior to each registration.

4. Students must achieve an Annual Weighted Grade Point Average (WGPA) of at least 3.20 to remain in an Honours programme.

5. Students who are required to withdraw from an Honours programme may continue in the regular programme of their option provided they are in acceptable or conditional standing according to the academic regulations in 71.10.3.

Course Requirements for Honours Programmes

1. Honours in Information Systems
35 Computer Science Core

1 COMP 292
7 COMP 465, 490, 495
6 Chosen from COMP 445, 451,
Minor in Computer Science

15 COMP 215, 220, 231, 241, 245, 352
9 Computer Science electives, including at least one language laboratory.
Both major and minor programmes in Management Information Systems can be found in the Commerce and Administration Section of the Undergraduate Calendar, §61.

Director

J. WILLIAM ATWOOD, Associate Professor

Students entering any option of the programme leading to the Bachelor of Computer Science degree may request permission to undertake their studies in the co-op format by following the application procedure specified in §24. Academic content is identical to that of the regular programme, but six Study terms are interspersed with four Work terms. Students are supervised personally and must meet the requirements specified in §71.10.8 in order to continue their studies in the co-op format. Liaison between the student, the employers and the Institute for Co-operative Education is provided by the Computer Science Co-op Committee, which includes the student's advisers. Please refer to §24 for the schedule of Study and Work terms and the full description of admission requirements.

Please note that new course numbers have been implemented. For equivalent course numbers under the old system, please consult §200.6

COMP 201 Introduction to Computers and Computing (3 credits)

History of computers; survey of computer technology and application; introduction to hardware and software; problem-solving and algorithms; data organization; programme design and development. A programming language will be introduced to develop and convey the above topics. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTES:
1. Students who have received credit for COMP C211 or COMP 212 or COMP 215 may not take this course for credit.
2. This course may not be taken for credit in the regular undergraduate programmes in Engineering and Computer Science.

COMP 212 FORTRAN for Engineers and Scientists (3 credits)

Prerequisite: MATH 204 or CEGEP Mathematics 105; MATH 205 or CEGEP Mathematics 203. Note: It is also assumed that students have had some exposure to computers, either through a CEGEP course or through exposure to personal computers. A brief introduction to computers and computing systems. A thorough grounding in the use of FORTRAN 77 as a tool for the solution of engineering and scientific problems. Introduction to the principles of software engineering: problem specification, requirements analysis, programme design with emphasis on structured programming, testing and validation; programme documentation. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTES:
1. Students having credit for a FORTRAN programming course from CEGEP with a mark of at least 85% may, during the first two weeks of the course, apply to the course coordinator to undertake a FORTRAN programming project appropriate to their field of study in lieu of the normal requirements of the course.
2. Students in the BCompSc programme may not take this course for credit.

COMP 215 Introduction to Computer Science (2 credits)

Problems and problem-solving: algorithms and heuristics; a high-level language (Pascal) — Basic structure and layout, control structures, modules, structured data types. Lectures: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTES:
1. Students may apply for exemption in this course if they have had sufficient experience in an earlier course in the high-level language used (Pascal). An examination may be required to verify the level attained.
2. If exempt, the student must take equivalent credits in a Computer Science elective.
3. Students who have received credit for COMP 244 or COMP 291 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 220 Computer Organization and Assembly Language (4 credits)

Prerequisite: COMP 215; COMP 231. Basic features of the assembly language and instruction set level description of a selected contemporary computer. Principles of computer organization including the memory, CPU and I/O subsystems. Representation of integers, ASCII characters and IEEE floating point format, instruction sequencing, addressing modes, and instruction interpretation. Semiconductor RAM, ROM and DISK memories including address decoding. Input/output techniques - polling, DMA and I/O channel concepts. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 224 or COMP 265 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 231 Introduction to Discrete Structures (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 204 (CEGEP Mathematics 105). Set theory, relations, propositional logic and proofs, algebraic structures, graphs, lattices and Boolean algebra, enumeration. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

COMP 245 Programming Methodology (3 credits)

COMP 251 Introduction to Business Programming (3 credits)
Prerequisite: CEGEP 420-911 or equivalent. Introduction to business data processing. Basic file organization and handling, record layouts, elementary information storage and retrieval. Detailed specifications of the Common Business Oriented Language (COBOL). Structured programming concepts will be emphasized. This course will include programming assignments involving basic business applications, to be prepared, tested, and documented individually. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one and a half hours per week.

NOTE: Restricted to students registered in a Commerce and Administration programme.

COMP 293 Language Laboratory — FORTRAN (1 credit)
Prerequisite: COMP 244 or COMP 245. Use of computer system. Syntax and semantics of the programming language FORTRAN. The design, development, and documentation of programmes. Projects requiring the proper choice of data structures, control structures, and tools of software design. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 391 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 294 Language Laboratory — LISP (1 credit)
Prerequisite: COMP 245 or equivalent. Syntax and semantics of the programming language LISP. Projects requiring the proper choice of data structures, control structures, and tools of software design. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 391 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 295 Language Laboratory — PL/I (1 credit)
Prerequisite: COMP 245 or equivalent. Syntax and semantics of the programming language PL/I. Projects requiring the proper choice of data structures, control structures, and tools of software design. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 392 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 296 Language Laboratory — APL (1 credit)
Prerequisite: COMP 245 or equivalent. Syntax and semantics of the programming language APL. Projects requiring the proper choice of data structures, control structures, and tools of software design. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 393 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 297 Language Laboratory — Ada (1 credit)
Prerequisite: COMP 245 or equivalent. Syntax and semantics of the programming language Ada. Projects requiring the proper choice of data structures, control structures, and tools of software design. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 394 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 298 Language Laboratory — C (1 credit)
Prerequisite: COMP 245 or equivalent.
Syntax and semantics of the programming language C. Projects requiring the proper choice of data structures, control structures, and tools of software design. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

COMP 326 Computer Architecture (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 346 previously or concurrently or COMP 343 previously. Classification schemes. Functional units, bussing systems and input/output structures, storage systems, instruction sets. Microprogramming. Survey of different kinds of computer architectures. Software influences on architecture. Advanced topics in computer architecture. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

COMP 327 Digital System Design (4 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 325 or COMP 386 or COEN 312 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 335 Introduction to Theoretical Computer Science (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 231 or COEN 231; COMP 245 or equivalent. Finite state automata, context free grammars, push-down automata, LL(1) and LR(1) parsing, Turing machines, computability and complexity theory, formal methods of programme specification, programme testing, and programme verification. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

COMP 346 Operating Systems (4 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 352; COMP 220 or COMP 224 or COEN 311. Operating system evolution and services. Process management: concepts of processes, concurrent languages, process states, process communication, operating system structure, processor scheduling, monitors. System management: virtual memory, resource allocation, queue management, communication with peripherals, exception handling. File systems. Interactive computation. Protection. Distributed systems. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 343 or COMP 385 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 352 Data Structures and Algorithms (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 231 or COEN 231; COMP 245 or equivalent. This course will emphasize the definition, usage, and manipulation of fundamental data structures and their associated algorithms: stacks and queues, trees, tables, lists, arrays, strings, sets. Lectures: three hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

COMP 353 Files and Databases (4 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 352. Files and access methods: physical and logical organization, access methods, basic files, external sorting, B-trees, multi-key organizations. Classical database management: modelling, data integrity, data independence and security, ANSI/SPARC architecture, data models (relational, hierarchical and network), database design, detailed study of the relational model. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

COMP 354 Software Engineering (4 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 335; COMP 353 previously or concurrently. Scientific principles and managerial guidelines for software construction; comparative study of software life cycle models; software requirements analysis and specification methods; software design concepts, aids, and tools. Alternate approaches to software design — prototyping, executable specification, and object oriented design; software testing, verification, and validation methods; reliability of embedded systems. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week. Tutorial: one hour per week.

NOTE: Students having completed COEN 431 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 361 Elementary Numerical Methods (3 credits)
COMP 421 Microprocessor Systems Architecture (4 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 327 or equivalent.
Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 427 or COMP 468 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 441 Comparative Study of Programming Languages (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 352; COMP 294 previously or concurrently. Run-time structures for procedural languages. Introduction to other language classes, such as functional, logic, and object oriented, and their run-time structures. Comparison of typed and untyped languages. Students will obtain practical experience by writing programmes in various languages.
Lectures: three hours per week.

COMP 442 Compiler Design (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 220 or COEN 311 or equivalent; COMP 335; COMP 352.
Lectures: three hours per week.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 342 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 443 Logic for Computer Science (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 335. First-order logic: first-order languages, syntax, semantics. Important logic systems: Horn clause logic, lambda calculus, type theory. Applications: logic programming, expert systems, theorem-proving, computational models, semantic models for distributed and concurrent systems.
Lectures: three hours per week.

COMP 444 System Software Design (4 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 298; COMP 346 or equivalent. Detailed examination of data structures and algorithms of a contemporary operating system: file system, processes, memory management, device management. Comparison of techniques used with those employed in other operating systems.
Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 423 or COMP 446 or COMP 485 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 445 Data Communication and Computer Networks (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 346 or equivalent. The study of remote access to and communications between computers. Network architectures and topology; communication protocols and interfaces, functional layers; transmission facilities including communications equipment, line utilization, switching, and error handling; standard protocols; network interfaces including routing and flow control; point-to-point, broadcasting, and local networks theory and current practice; high-level protocols; reliability and security, encryption.
Lectures: three hours per week.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 372 or 373 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 451 Database Design (3 credits)

COMP 457 Office Automation (3 credits)

COMP 458 Structure of Information Systems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 353. Information systems and organizations. Representation and analysis of system structure. Decision theory. Information system applications. Information centres. System evaluation and selection. Lectures: three hours per week.

COMP 463 Discrete System Simulation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 245 or equivalent; EMAT 271 or MATH 243 or DESC 244 or ENGR 371. Discrete random variables and their distributions. A comparison of simulation techniques: discrete, continuous and hybrid. Queuing models, analysis of data. Model building. Review of simulation languages. Application to business problems and operations research. Lectures: three hours per week.
NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 475 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 465  Design and Analysis of Algorithms (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 335; COMP 352.

COMP 467  Introduction to Symbolic and Algebraic Computation (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 335; COMP 352. Comparison, familiarization, and use of several symbolic systems and languages (such as MACSYMA, MU-MATH, REDUCE, SAC). Symbolic algebra, factorization, integral and differential calculus, method of homomorphism. Lectures: three hours per week.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMP 437 may not take this course for credit.

COMP 468  Formal Languages and Syntax Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 335. Review of context-free grammars and languages. LL(k) and LR(k) parsing techniques. Earley's parsing algorithm. Attribute grammars and attribute evaluation. Lectures: three hours per week.

COMP 469  Performance Modelling of Computer Systems (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 346 or equivalent; EMAT 271 or MATH 243 or DESC 244 or ENGR 371. Review of elements of probability theory and statistics. Random variable generation. Reliability of computer systems. Review of basic results in queueing theory. Analysis and simulation of computer systems. Application of queueing models to performance modelling of computer systems. Lectures: three hours per week.

COMP 471  Computer Graphics (3.75 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 220 or COEN 311; COMP 352. Display memory; generation of points, vectors, etc. Interactive versus passive graphics; CRT devices and plotters, analog storage of images. Digitizing and digital storage. Pattern recognition. Data structures and graphics software. The mathematics of three-dimensional transformations; projections. Applications in computer-aided design and instruction. Lectures: three hours per week. Laboratory: two hours per week.

COMP 472  Introduction to Artificial Intelligence (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 294; COMP 353 previously or concurrently. Scope of AI: Heuristics. Problem-solving methodologies. Game-playing. Reasoning by deduction and induction. Natural language processing. Lectures: three hours per week.

COMP 473  Pattern Recognition (3 credits)

COMP 474  Introduction to Expert Systems (3 credits)

COMP 490  Computer Science Project I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credits. Students will work on a computer science project under the supervision of a faculty member and submit a suitable written report on the work carried out. Students planning to register for this course should consult with the Department prior to registration in the final year of study.

COMP 492  Computer Science Project II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: COMP 490 previously or concurrently. Students having permission of the Department to carry out a major project will register for both COMP 490 and 492. Alternatively, they may carry out a second smaller project.

COMP 495  Honours Seminar (1 credit)
Prerequisite: Registration in final year of the Honours programme. Students are required to attend a required number of Departmental seminars (initially 10) and submit a written report on one of them. There will be an administrator in charge of this course.
Students are no longer admitted to this programme; applicants interested in it are referred to a similar programme in the Centre for Continuing Education. The following course descriptions are given for the benefit of those already admitted to the programme.

To be recommended for the award of the Certificate in Quality Control, students must satisfactorily complete the programme of 48 credits specified below in accordance with the graduation requirements specified in §71.10.5. The courses offered in the programme will provide the student with an in-depth understanding and working knowledge of the principles and practices used in the rapidly expanding field of quality control.

The programme is fully endorsed by the Montréal section of the American Society for Quality Control (ASQC). It has been designed in keeping with the requirements stipulated by the Education Institute of the ASQC headquarters and, as such, does much to prepare candidates for the ASQC Quality Engineer Certificate examinations. It should be noted, however, that the Certificate programme does not lead to admission to the Order of Engineers of Québec, or to the legal use of the title Engineer.

Students are subject to the academic regulations specified in §71.10.3.

To be recommended for the award of the Certificate, students must satisfactorily complete the following courses:

- QUAL 200 Elementary Metrology
- QUAL 201 Advanced Metrology
- QUAL 202 Statistical Quality Control
- QUAL 203 Statistical Sampling
- QUAL 204 Basic Concepts of Reliability
- QUAL 205 Advanced Reliability
- QUAL 206 Quality Management
- QUAL 207 Design of Experiments
- QUAL 208 Quality Assurance Technology
- QUAL 209 Product Cost Control
- QUAL 210 Computer Applications of Statistics
- COMP 212 FORTRAN for Engineers and Scientists
- Three elective credits from Computer Science or Decision Sciences and Management Information Systems.

Course descriptions are given below, except for electives and COMP 212, which may be found in the Computer Science, and Decision Sciences and Management Information Systems sections of the Calendar.

Please note that new course numbers have been implemented. For equivalent course numbers under the old system, please consult §200.6.

Courses

QUAL 200 Elementary Metrology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 204; MATH 205
(CEGEP Mathematics 105 and 203). An introductory course dealing with general measurement concepts, methods for estimating accuracy, systematic and constant errors. Included are: mathematical bases of metrology, statistical analysis of measurement, master standards, principles involved in the use of projectors, pneumatic comparators, and direct reading measuring machines.

QUAL 201 Advanced Metrology
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: QUAL 200; QUAL 202. This course applies the principles presented in Elementary Metrology, and explores the value of these principles through everyday applications to modern technology. Special consideration is given to the Système International (Modernized Metric System) and its influence on industry (including the use of conversion tables and formulae). The course treats non-destructive testing techniques and their applications, including (in some depth) radiographic, ultrasonic and nucleonic gauging and measurement.

QUAL 202 Statistical Quality Control
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 204; MATH 205
(CEGEP Mathematics 105 and 203).
Techniques for establishing, monitoring and maintaining process control of manufactured products. A workshop course with full student participation in solving a variety of practical statistical quality control problems. Discussed are the concept of variation, frequency distributions, functions of a frequency distribution, the various types of control charts including those for attributes and variables data, analysis of patterns, process capability studies and other related topics.

QUAL 203 Statistical Sampling
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: QUAL 202. Statistical sampling theory and its application to quality control. Also discussed in lecture workshop/sessions are risks for producer and consumer. Topics include elements of probability theory; the binomial; Poisson, and hyper-geometric distribution; sampling theory; sampling plans, classification of sampling plans — AOL, AQOL and LTPD, types of sampling plans within each classification, such as single, double, multiple, unit sequential, and continuous plans and their associated operating characteristic curves. MIL-STD-105D and MIL-STD-414 are discussed in detail and the Dodge and Romig tables are highlighted.

QUAL 204 Basic Concepts of Reliability (3 credits)
Prerequisite: QUAL 202. A mixed format of lectures, workshops, problems, and discussions designed to familiarize the student with the basic principles of reliability. Building gradually from historical review, definitions and concepts, the course discusses probability theory, Poisson and exponential distributions, reliability equation, MTBF and failure rate concepts. Weibull analysis, mean and median ranks, confidence statements, life characteristic curves, system reliabilities, standby systems, associated problems, and other related topics.

QUAL 205 Advanced Reliability
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: QUAL 202; QUAL 204. Statistical methods in life testing. Introduction, reliability concepts and definitions, historical review and development. Life characteristic curve, Poisson and exponential distributions, exponential reliability equation, MTBF and failure rate concepts. Chi square confidence statements and intervals, Weibull analysis, mean and median ranks, associated problems. Probability theory, system reliabilities, standby systems, and other related topics.

QUAL 206 Quality Management
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 204; MATH 205 (CEGEP Mathematics 105 and 203). Emphasis is on general principles of planning and management rather than quality control methodology. The concept of total quality control, from design, development, and manufacture to customer use, is developed. The economics of quality, the planning and implementation of a quality cost programme, organization for quality, value engineering, system quality audit, and product liability are topics treated in detail.

QUAL 207 Design of Experiments
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: QUAL 202. An introductory course providing a more systematic approach to experimentation with emphasis on the use of statistical designs for data interpretation and known confidence in the result and overall costs. The course covers: tests of hypotheses, F, t, and X^2 tests, analysis of variance, goodness of fit tests, use of probability paper, and control chart analysis of experimental results. Also included are experimental design methods such as full and fractional factorial designs, regression analysis, multiple and random balance designs, Latin square, cube and nested designs.

QUAL 208 Quality Assurance Technology
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: QUAL 202. The basic principles of quality assurance, and its definition as a planned and systematic pattern of actions necessary to provide adequate confidence that a product or service conforms to established requirements. The development of the individual quality system in a modular format to cover the various phases of the industrial and commercial enterprise. Topics include: development of quality organizations, systems engineering, closed loop feedback systems, principle of modular systems, what the customer expects vs. what he or she gets, development of quality product, computer software QA, product safety and reliability, vendor-vendee relations, manufacturing, processing, and post-production servicing.

QUAL 209 Product Cost Control
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: MATH 204; MATH 205 (CEGEP Mathematics 105 and 203). This course introduces the student to product cost control and related areas. Topics include introductions to accounting, procedures, cash flow, budgeting, capital equipment costing and amortization, product costing, cost of quality control systems ("quality costs"). Lectures: three hours per week.

QUAL 210 Computer Application of Statistics (3 credits)
Prerequisite: QUAL 203; COMP 212. This course is designed to familiarize the student with the application of computers to statistical problems. Fortran programmes are used to develop a working knowledge of standard programmes for control charts, analysis of experimental design, sampling plans, forecasting and statistical analysis common to many other fields.

During its fourteen years of existence, the Faculty of Fine Arts has achieved an internationally recognized standard of excellence in undergraduate education with the visual and performing arts. The Faculty situates its students within both the pluralism of the academic experience of the University and our multicultural urban environment. At the same time, Fine Arts curriculum and teaching responds to the context and demands of a changing artistic community. Programmes and courses in studio or academic disciplines within the visual and performing arts prepare students for entry into that community or for higher education in the arts.

The Faculty of Fine Arts has two divisions, comprising 10 departments offering numerous programmes.

The PERFORMING ARTS DIVISION consists of the following Departments:

- Contemporary Dance
- Music
- Theatre

The VISUAL ARTS DIVISION consists of the following seven Departments:

- Art Education and Art Therapy
- Art History
- Cinema
- Design Art
- Painting and Drawing
- Printmaking and Photography
- Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres

81.10 Programmes and Admission Requirements

General admission requirements are listed in §13. In addition, the following specific requirements exist for the various programmes.

In addition to successful completion of a two-year pre-university CEGEP programme (or equivalent), some programmes have distinct requirements as follows:

1. There are no specific courses or procedures required for the Major and Minor in Art History.
2. Applicants to the Minor in Women and the Fine Arts must submit a letter of intent with their application.
3. Applicants to the Major in Interdisciplinary Studies must submit a letter of intent as well as attend an interview and present an audition or portfolio of their own work. Applicants must contact the Interdisciplinary Studies programme office for particulars.
4. Applicants to specializations in Drama in Education and Theatre Performance; majors in Contemporary Dance and Integrative Music Studies; and the minors in Music and Theatre are required to attend an interview and audition as part of the admission process. These applicants must contact the relevant Department for appointments. Students applying for entrance to the Department of Music are accepted into the Major in Integrative Music Studies. Upon completion of 30 credits, students may apply for transfer into a specialization programme.
5. Applicants to the Major in Photography, the Specialization in Design for the Theatre, Joint Specialization in Playwriting (English and Theatre) must submit a portfolio as well as attend an interview and audition. Applicants must contact the relevant Department for particulars regarding portfolio submissions and auditions.
6. Applicants to the Major in Cinema, Specialization in Film Production, Specialization and Major in Film Studies are required to submit a portfolio. A letter of intent and/or an interview may also be required depending upon the cinema concentration chosen. All applicants should contact the Department of Cinema in January for detailed information regarding these requirements.
7. Applicants to the Major in Theatre must attend an interview and audition and submit a letter of intent. Applicants must contact the Department of Theatre for particulars.
8. Applicants to the Majors in Art History and Studio Art; Studio Art; Painting and Drawing are required to submit a portfolio of their own work (see §81.10.5) as well as a letter of intent (see §81.60.1 and §81.110.2). Applicants to the Majors in Ceramics; Fibres; Printmaking; Sculpture; are required to submit a portfolio of their own work (see §81.10.5). Accepted applicants who have the CEGEP 10.6 profile are automatically exempt from Art 200. Studio Art I. Accepted applicants without the 10.6 profile are normally required to complete Art 200. However, they may be granted exemption if the quality and range of their portfolio submissions are of exceptional merit. Applicants to the Major in Design Art must attend an interview and submit a letter of intent as well as a portfolio of their own work (see §81.90.1). Applicants must contact the Department of Design Art for particulars.

9. Applicants to the Specialization and Major in Art Education and the Minor in Art History and Studio Art normally require the CEGEP 10.6 profile. Applicants who have the CEGEP 10.6 profile are automatically exempt from Art 200, Studio Art 1. Applicants who do not have this profile but have a background in Studio Art are required to submit a portfolio (see §81.10.5) requesting exemption for Art 200. Accepted applicants without exemption for Art 200 are required to complete this course during their first year as part of their programme requirements.

81.10.2 Transfer Students

Applicants who have completed courses in other colleges or universities may be granted credits (advanced standing) on the basis of the programmes at Concordia University. Applicants follow the same admission procedures as those from Quebec institutions (see §81.10.1 above).

Applicants to a second Bachelor's degree must complete a minimum of 60 credits, other than those credited towards the first degree, at least 36 of which must be taken in the new field of specialization (§16.1.3). Students transferring credits towards a first degree must complete a minimum of 45 credits at Concordia (see §16.1.3).

Students must complete all programme and degree requirements, as well as the Faculty of Fine Arts residence requirements (see §81.20.2).

81.10.3 Mature Entry

General admission requirements to the 108-credit programme (Mature Entry) are listed in §14. Students admitted into the Faculty of Fine Arts through the Mature Entry plan are required to complete 18 credits in addition to the 90 credits normally required for the BFA degree. Fine Arts students are required to complete 18 credits appropriate for entry into the student's ultimate area of concentration and chosen with the approval of a Faculty adviser.

81.10.4 Extended Credit Programme

Definition of the Extended Credit Programme is listed in §13.2. Students admitted to an Extended Credit Programme in Fine Arts are required to complete 120 credits for the degree, that is, 30 additional credits. A maximum of 18 of these 30 credits may be selected from courses offered in the Faculty of Fine Arts which are appropriate for entry into the student's area of concentration and chosen with the approval of a Faculty adviser. The remaining 12 credits are selected from other introductory level courses in other Faculties.

81.10.5 Portfolio Evaluation Committee

In addition to admission portfolio committees in each of the Studio Art departments, there is a Portfolio Evaluation Committee which reviews the portfolios of applicants to all Studio Art programmes who have not completed the required 10.6 profile in the CEGEP. Applicants without the 10.6 profile are normally required to complete Art 200, however, they may be granted, upon request, exemption if the quality and range of their portfolio submissions are of exceptional merit. All portfolio requirements (those of applicants requesting Art 200 exemption as well as admission to specific programmes) are listed under Admission in each of the Department sections.

To ensure early processing of applications to the Faculty of Fine Arts Studio Art programmes, the deadline for portfolio submission is Monday, March 15, 1993 (4:00 p.m.). It is the responsibility of the applicants to submit their portfolios before the deadline.

Students in other Faculties and Independent students wishing to register for a Studio Art course, other than Art 200, must submit their portfolio requesting exemption from Art 200 unless they have completed the 10.6 profile in CEGEP. The deadline for submission of these portfolios is Friday, May 14, 1993 (4:00 p.m.).

81.20 Degree Requirements

Students preparing for the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts require a minimum of 90 credits. Each credit represents, for the average student, a minimum of 45 hours of work spread across
1. A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts must have qualified for admission to, and successfully completed a programme of concentration in the form of a Specialization (See §16.2.3), Major (See §16.2.3) or a Double Minor* programme in the Faculty of Fine Arts. A selection is made upon entry, prior to registration. The requirement of selecting a programme upon entry should not be thought of as being necessarily a final commitment. Students wishing to transfer out of one degree programme must satisfy the admission requirements of the programme they seek to enter. Programme changes are, however, subject to limitations where certain programmes are in great demand. Students should be aware that to effect certain transfers they may be required to complete more than the 90 credits normally required for the degree.

*A Minor consists of an approved sequence of 24-30 credits. The term "Double Minor" refers to a combination of two minors selected from the Faculty of Fine Arts; a planned programme of study in two specialized fields in Fine Arts with a lower degree of concentration in both than is afforded by a Major programme.

2. A candidate for graduation must have successfully completed at least 18 credits selected from course offerings outside the Faculty of Fine Arts. (Courses in the Department of Communication Studies do not fulfil this requirement of outside the Faculty of Fine Arts.) Within every block of 30 credits taken towards the degree, a student is encouraged to choose no more than 24 credits from the Faculty of Fine Arts.

3. A candidate for graduation normally may apply no more than 54 credits in studio work towards the 90 credits required for the BFA degree.

4. A candidate for graduation must fulfill all University graduation requirements (See §16.2.4).

5. The credits obtained for any course may not be used to satisfy the requirements of more than one programme.

Students are subject to the University residence requirement (see §16.1.3) which states that of the 90 credits required for the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree, a minimum of 45 credits must be taken at Concordia University. Combining both residence requirements implies that the full-time student must enrol for a minimum of two years of study at Concordia University. To fulfill the residence requirements for a BFA degree with a concentration in:

1. Art Education, Ceramics, Design Art, Fibres, Painting and Drawing, Printmaking, Sculpture, or Studio Art: a minimum of 30 credits in Studio Art and six credits in Art History must be completed at Concordia.

2. Art History, Art History and Studio Art, Cinema, Film Animation, Film Production, Film Studies, Photography, Contemporary Dance, or Interdisciplinary Studies: at least half of the concentration requirements must be completed at Concordia.

3. Drama in Education, Theatre, Theatre Performance, or Design for the Theatre: Conception & Realization: a minimum of 30 credits from the Department of Theatre must be completed at Concordia.

4. Integrative Music Studies, Jazz Studies, Music Performance Studies, Music Theory/Composition, or Selected Music Studies: a minimum of 30 credits required from the Department of Music must be completed at Concordia.

5. Minor programmes: at least half of the required credits must be completed at Concordia.

The normal course load for students enrolled in the Faculty of Fine Arts is 30 credits per year for all full-time students, and a maximum of 18 credits per year for part-time students.

i) Full-time students may not register for more than 18 credits of their maximum 30 credits in any studio area in any given academic year. Part-time students may not register for more than 12 credits.

ii) Students may register for a maximum of six credits in which films are produced as a course requirement during any given academic year. See §81.70 for list of courses. Also, students are limited, during their degree programme, to 18 credits in Film Production or Film Animation courses in which films are produced as a course requirement (§81.70).

iii) Students may register for a maximum of six credits in Theatre Production in any given academic year, up to a maximum of 18 credits in all.

iv) Students may register for a maximum of six credits in Music Private Study in any given academic year, up to a maximum of 18 credits in their degree programme.
For purposes of these regulations, "failure" includes the grades "F", "FNS", "R", and "NR". Failed students are not eligible to write supplemental examinations.

Definitions of Failed Standing

1. Failed — May Not Re-Register Without Special Permission

a) Any student who fails courses equivalent to more than the number of credits prescribed below before obtaining the number on record specified, will be Failed. In order to re-register, such a student must obtain special permission from the Faculty Dean.

b) A Failed student who is given permission to re-register is placed on Academic Probation.

c) A student placed on Academic Probation must pass the next 30 credits on the first attempt and satisfy any other conditions specified for readmission. A student failing to meet these requirements is in failed standing for a second time and will be dismissed from the University. In subsequent years, should the student wish to return to university studies, he or she must contact the Office of the Registrar for information concerning conditions and procedures for seeking readmission. Decisions of the relevant authority in the Faculty to which application is made, are final.

2. Failed — May Not Re-Register

Any student who fails courses equivalent to more than the number prescribed below will be Failed and may not apply for readmission.

Prerequisite: Faculty of Fine Arts 320 or written permission of the coordinator. A continuation of FFAR 320.
81.40 INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

Chair
THOMAS WAUGH, Associate Dean, Academic Programmes

Admission to the Major in Interdisciplinary Studies

Programme Objectives
Interdisciplinary Studies embraces multiple and hybrid approaches to the creation, study and teaching of art. The programme focuses on art processes and art forms that cross traditional boundaries within Fine Arts. Recent artforms such as video, performance, computer work, installation, as well as various interactive, environmental and conceptual experimentation within both the Visual and Performing Arts, are among the artistic activities engaged. A dialogue with the more traditional patterns of disciplinary mixing, such as musical theatre, is also encouraged.

The Interdisciplinary Studies programme offers a curricular structure with a sequential core of studio seminars. At the same time, specialized courses allow maximum potential for individual and group work, and existing Departments offer additional scope for interdisciplinary activity. Evolving out of the former Inter-Related Arts programme, Interdisciplinary Studies is based on the active participation of faculty from Departments in both Visual and Performing Arts.

Admission to the Major in Interdisciplinary Studies

The Interdisciplinary Studies Major has a distinct admission procedure in addition to the normal admission process of Concordia University. All applicants are required to attend an interview and present an audition or portfolio as part of the admission process. Applicants must contact the programme office between March 1–15 to arrange their appointments and for detailed information regarding audition/portfolio/interview requirements. Applicants must also submit a letter of intent along with a copy of their academic record directly to the programme director at the same time that they submit their completed application to the Admissions Office, i.e. prior to March 1. This short letter of intent should summarize the applicant’s academic and artistic backgrounds and describe their particular interests and goals in Interdisciplinary Studies within Fine Arts.

Courses

Interdisciplinary Studies:

| IDYS 200 | Studio Seminar in Interdisciplinary Studies I (6 credits) | Prerequisite: Enrolment in the Major in Interdisciplinary Studies or written permission of the Interdisciplinary Studies programme director. A studio/seminar course providing the basis for an | interwoven theory and practice in an interdisciplinary context. An art practice is developed through a critical approach to materials, issues, and artmaking. Required readings pertinent to current issues are discussed in relation to studio production. NOTE: With permission of the appropriate Department Chair, this course may satisfy a studio or seminar elective requirement in a student's degree programme. Students are required to bear the costs of materials and processing, if applicable.

IDYS 250 The Visual and Performing Arts in Canada in the Current Decade (6 credits)
A lecture course surveying the current practice and theory of the visual and performing arts in Canada, with a special focus on interdisciplinary forms. The institutional, regional, and cultural traditions of the arts in Canada are discussed as contexts of contemporary developments; as well, artistic avant-gardes are related to popular cultures and the media. Invited guests and other experts in various disciplines are an essential part of the syllabus.

IDYS 300 Studio Seminar in Interdisciplinary Studies II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Interdisciplinary Studies 200, and second-year standing* in the Major in Interdisciplinary Studies, or written permission of the Interdisciplinary Studies programme director. A practice-oriented seminar focusing on topics central to the interdisciplinary study of art in contemporary social and cultural contexts. Issues within areas such as history, gender, race and technology are considered within the context of varying perspectives. Students' studio production is challenged within a contemporary interdisciplinary environment. NOTE: With permission of the appropriate Department Chair, this course may satisfy a studio or seminar elective requirement in a student's degree programme. Students are required to bear the costs of materials and processing, if applicable. "66 or fewer credits remaining in degree programme.

IDYS 490 Independent Study (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Third-year standing* and written permission of the Interdisciplinary Studies programme director. A course of independent study through which the student explores a specific interdisciplinary project. NOTE C/See §200.3 "33 or fewer credits remaining in degree programme.

IDYS 491 Independent Study I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Third-year standing* and

IDYS 492 Independent Study II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: IDYS 491 and written permission of the Interdisciplinary Studies programme director. A student who has completed IDYS 491 may register under 492.

IDYS 498 Special Topics in Interdisciplinary Study (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Interdisciplinary Studies programme director. An intensive study of specific aspects of interdisciplinary study.

IDYS 499 Special Topics in Interdisciplinary Study (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Interdisciplinary Studies programme director. An intensive study of specific aspects of interdisciplinary study.

Inter-Related Arts:

INRA 300 Inter-Related Arts Seminar I (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Second-year standing* in the Major in Inter-Related Arts, or written permission of the coordinator of Inter-Related Arts. A forum for the consideration of theory and practice addressing the nature of relationships between the fine arts. NOTE: This course will be discontinued in the 1994-95 academic year. "fewer than 66 credits remaining in degree programme.

INRA 400 Inter-Related Arts Seminar II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: INRA 300. A student repeating INRA 300 registers under INRA 400.

Video:

VDEO 300 Video Production (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Second-year standing*, and written permission of the Interdisciplinary Studies programme director, or the Department of Cinema. A studio course introducing video technology as a tool for aesthetic investigation and creation. Students work individually and collaboratively to develop a proficiency in the medium and to evolve their particular thematic and formal concerns. Concepts and issues specific to video are discussed.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES • 521
through the analysis and demonstration of video art.
NOTE: Students are required to bear the cost of materials and processing.
*66 or fewer credits remaining in degree programme.

VIDEO 350  Video History and Theory
(6 credits)
A survey lecture course introducing the history and theory of art video practice since its inception in the 1960's. The course locates the roots of this art form in such divergent impulses as conceptualism, community activism, technological experimentation, and broadcast television, as well as in narrative and documentary traditions. In addition, regional Canadian video artists and cooperatives are situated within international historical trends and the development of post-modern and other theoretical perspectives. Weekly screenings.
The mission of Art Education is to promote among artists and teachers a critical and creative understanding of the artistic traditions and the role of art in society and human life. The Department is committed to the principle that art should be taught by experienced artists. Thus the programmes link practical studio experience to the most effective teaching methods for both technical and academic skills in the study of art. With a special mandate for innovative leadership from the Québec Ministry of Education, Concordia's offerings in Art Education include undergraduate diplomas as well as degrees at every level. These comprehensive programmes mean that an extensive pool of resources is available to all students.

Students are responsible for fulfilling their particular degree requirements; hence, the following sequence must be read in conjunction with §81.20. The superscript indicates credit value.

THE CERTIFICATE IN ELEMENTARY ART EDUCATION

The Department of Art Education offers a Certificate in Elementary Art Education for the professional development of teachers. The programme is designed in accordance with the guidelines of the Québec Ministry of Education and consists of studios, seminars, lectures, and a practicum.

The programme offers classroom teachers opportunities to acquire the knowledge and skills needed to implement the Elementary Art programme and to enrich the curriculum by relating art to other subject areas. Courses are scheduled in the late afternoon or evenings, both on- and off-campus for the convenience of teachers.

Admission Requirements

Entry to the programme requires that the candidate be legally qualified to teach either at the Elementary or High School level. The Faculty of Fine Arts may allow up to 12 pro-tanto credits to students who have completed appropriate courses that have been applied to a previous degree or certificate.

| 30 Certificate in Elementary Art Education |

DIPLOMA IN ART EDUCATION

The Faculty of Fine Arts offers a one-year post-graduate programme leading to the Diploma in Art Education. This programme is integrated with the Bachelor of Fine Arts, Specialization in Art Education, to provide a continuous pattern of studies preparing art specialists for teaching in Elementary and Secondary schools.

A detailed description of the programme may be found in the School of Graduate Studies Calendar.

DIPLOMA IN ART THERAPY

The Faculty of Fine Arts offers a one-year post-graduate programme leading to the Diploma in Art Therapy.

This programme is designed to offer intermediate training for students intending to become qualified art therapists through further study and to provide basic skills in art therapy for members of the helping professions who wish to develop the use of visual arts in their work.

A detailed description of the programme may be found in the School of Graduate Studies Calendar.

Art Education:

ARTE 200  Studio Orientation to Art Education (6 credits)
An introductory studio/seminar course in which students work with basic art forms such as drawing, painting, printmaking, sculpture, and video arts. Intrinsic to the course content is a consideration of the underlying dynamics of the learning/teaching process as it evolves, and as it raises implications for teaching others.
NOTE A/See §200.3
NOTE: Students who receive credit for this course may not take ARTE 201 for credit.

ARTE 201  Art in Early Childhood I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrollment in the Specialization in Early Childhood, Major in Child Studies, or written permission of the Department of Art Education and Art Therapy. An introductory study of the art-making process in early childhood. This course is a studio workshop which investigates potential media and teaching approaches appropriate for the young child.
NOTE: Students who receive credit for this course may not take ARTE 200 for credit.

ARTE 202  Art in Early Childhood II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: ARTE 201. A continuation of ARTE 201.

ARTE 203  Arts in Recreation (3 credits)
A workshop/seminar course in which students are introduced to various art forms currently used in recreation centres. Intrinsic to the course content is a consideration of the role of the arts in recreation and leisure populations.

ARTE 300*  An Introduction to Art Education (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Eighteen credits in Studio Art and second-year standing, or written permission of the Department of Art Education and Art Therapy. A workshop/seminar course in which materials and art concepts are investigated and related to the teaching of art. Readings in the literature of art education are included.
*With permission of one of the Studio Art Chairs, this course may satisfy a Studio Art elective requirement in the student's degree programme, Major in Studio Art.
Fewer than 66 credits remaining in degree programme.

ARTE 301  Methodologies and Resources for the Teaching of Art History (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Art History. This course deals with the methodologies, resources, and content for teaching Art History in Elementary and Secondary schools. The course consists of lectures, museum seminars, and field trips.

ARTE 310  Art Education in the Museum (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Six credits in Art History. An examination of the role of art education in the museum and to the function of the museum in society. Fundamental problems in museum studies are considered in relation to the collection, preservation, exhibition, and interpretation of art objects. The museum as an educational institution is studied in lectures, seminars, readings, and field work. Topics include the educator's responsibilities in the planning and installing of exhibits, organizing docent and lecture programmes, and the preparing of audio-visual materials for the public.

ARTE 330  Supervised Practicum in Elementary Art Education (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ARTE 200, ART 200, and enrolment in the Certificate Programme in Art Education for Teachers. The course includes seminars which examine the role of art in the educational system, and the theoretical framework for the planning and implementation of art activities. Students design curriculum-units in art for the Elementary level and teach these under supervision in a school setting. Teaching performance is evaluated.

ARTE 398  Special Topics in Art Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Art Education and Art Therapy. A course which provides an opportunity for the study of specialized aspects of art education. Topics chosen for consideration vary from year to year.
NOTE C/See §200.3

ARTE 400  Seminar and Practicum in Art Education (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ARTE 300, enrolment in the Specialization or Major in Art Education or written permission of the Department of Art Education and Art Therapy. A seminar/practicum course in which students...
interrelate theory and the teaching of art to develop professional skills. Readings and supervised practicum involve the planning and implementation of a curriculum and individual sessions within the framework of an articulated philosophy of art education.

NOTE A/See §200.3

ARTE 430*  Multi-Media (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Eighteen credits in Studio Art and second-year standing, or written permission of the Department of Art Education and Art Therapy. An introduction to photography, super-8 filmmaking, video, and sound. The course deals with the practical and theoretical aspects of these media and explores their potential for the artist and art educator. NOTE A/See §200.3

*With permission of one of the Studio Art Department Chairs, this course may satisfy a Studio Art elective requirement in the student's degree programme, Major in Studio Art.

fewer than 66 credits remaining in degree programme.

ARTE 498  Special Topics in Art Education (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Art Education and Art Therapy. A course for advanced students which provides an opportunity for the study of limited and more specialized aspects of art education. The topics chosen for consideration vary from year to year according to the instructor's field of specialization. NOTE C/See §200.3

Art Therapy:

This course in Art Therapy is intended as part preparation for graduate study in this area.

ATRP 300  An Introduction to Art Therapy (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Second-year standing* and written permission of the Department of Art Education and Art Therapy, PSYC 200 (or equivalent); Major in Art Education or 12 credits in Studio Art. Through lectures, seminars, and workshops, students examine basic concepts of art therapy and some of their practical application.

Departmental Objectives
Art History is important for both the student scholar and the student artist. An understanding of creative and visual responses to the world throughout the history of humankind gives students valuable perspectives on both their own work and on contemporary visual culture. Art History is more than art appreciation. It is a lively, at times even controversial, discipline which invites investigation of the roles which intellectual, cultural, political, social and economic factors play in defining the work of art and its subsequent reception. For this reason, students are encouraged to explore such disciplines as history, literature, philosophy, religion and the social sciences, and are strongly advised to study languages appropriate to their interests. A programme carefully structured by the student and an advisor may open up for the art history graduate a future in a variety of fields – museums, galleries and libraries, conservation, education, journalism and research.
The Department of Art History offers Major and Minor programmes, providing students with a solid, but individualized foundation in the critical issues involved in a full understanding of the work of art. Also available are the Major and Minor programmes in Art History and Studio Art which balance studio work with historical/theoretical studies.

ART HISTORY - 527
81.60.1
Admission to the Major in Art History and Studio Art

In addition to the normal admission procedure of Concordia University, there is a distinct admission procedure for applicants to the Major in Art History and Studio Art.

All applicants must submit a portfolio of their own work, as well as a letter of intent as part of the admission process. Accepted applicants who have the CEGEP 10.6 profile (see 81.10.1) are automatically exempt from ART 200, Studio Art I. Accepted applicants without the 10.6 profile are normally required to complete ART 200. However, they may request exemption if the quality and range of their portfolio submissions are of exceptional merit.

1. Portfolios should consist of a minimum of 20 and maximum of 30 of the applicant's own work.
2. Portfolios should consist of both two-dimensional and three-dimensional work in a variety of mediums.
3. Individual works must be labelled including applicant's name, date, size of work and medium(s) used.
4. Each portfolio must contain a list of contents including all the above information.
5. Works larger than 20 x 24 inches (50 x 60 centimetres) and three-dimensional works must be submitted in slide form.
6. Portfolios should be presented in a sturdy folder; works should be flat and unframed.
7. Out-of-town applicants may submit photographs and/or slides of their work. Return shipment of out-of-town portfolios is by prior arrangement only.

Portfolios are submitted to the Portfolio Committee, Visual Arts Building, Room 237, prior to the deadline of Monday, March 15, 1993. For more detailed information regarding admission to the Major in Art History and Studio Art, applicants should contact one of the Studio Art Departments.

Education in Cinema is the mission of the Department. This implies an ongoing effort to maintain the highest standards for the curriculum, faculty, staff, facilities, and services on the undergraduate and the developing graduate levels. It also implies that there must be an effort to create an optimal learning environment for students who not only attend lectures but also make films and study completed films as central components of their education at Concordia. Recognizing the complexity of the assignments given to students, faculty and staff expertise and accessibility become crucial. Conjointly, the continuing faculty research, which both enriches the education of the students and contributes to the field of Cinema, has to be given a place of importance. Successfully balancing the desire to provide individual and small group instruction to a large number of highly motivated students with the need to provide the time required for faculty research is a priority for the Department. All aspects of the Department’s mission are to be carried out with respect for humanistic values, justice and human rights.

Students are responsible for fulfilling their particular degree requirements; hence, the following sequences must be read in conjunction with §81.20. The superscript indicates credit value.

The Department of Cinema has distinct admission procedures in addition to the normal admission process of Concordia University. While all applicants are required to submit a portfolio, a letter of intent and/or interview may also be required depending upon the Cinema concentration chosen.

In order to allow themselves sufficient preparatory time, applicants are strongly encouraged to contact the Department of Cinema in January for detailed information regarding these requirements as well as for submission deadline dates.

NOTE: The Major in Cinema, Option A, Film Production Programme and the Specialization in Film Production are offered at the second- and third-year levels, respectively. Successful applicants to Film Production concentrations are accepted to the Major in Cinema with no option specified for their first year of study. Upon attainment of second-year standing (66 or fewer credits remaining to be completed in the programme), students may apply for transfer to the Major in Cinema, Option A, Film Production. Upon attainment of third-year standing (33 or fewer credits remaining to be completed in the programme), students in the Film Production option of the Cinema Major may apply for transfer to the Specialization in Film Production.

Weekly screenings.
*66 or fewer credits remaining in degree programme.

FMST 321  Studies in Film Directors (6 credits)
Prerequisite: FMST 211 or second-year standing*. A concentrated study of the work of several major directors, principally narrative, from different periods in film history. Each director’s work is examined in detail with representative films from distinct periods. The films are considered in terms of thematic and stylistic consistency and variation as well as biographical, social, and political factors. Weekly screenings. NOTE A/See §200.3
*66 or fewer credits remaining in degree programme.

FMST 322  History of Film since 1959 (6 credits)
Prerequisite: FMST 211 or second-year standing*. A cross-cultural historical examination of selected aspects of world cinema since 1959, including trends in documentary and experimental film. The principle focus on European and American cinema is contextualized through reference to Canadian, Japanese and Third World film. A range of perspectives is introduced, including genre and auteur study, formal analysis and feminist analysis. Films are studied in their political and cultural contexts. Weekly screenings.

FMST 323 History of Animated Film (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the Major in Cinema, Option B Film Animation, Minor in Film Animation, or second-year standing*. A survey of animated film from the first decade of the twentieth century to the present. Styles of animation ranging from abstract experimental film of the 1920’s, to the Disney Studio, to computer animation are viewed and discussed. The contribution of the National Film Board of Canada and particularly that of Norman McLaren is considered. Weekly screenings.

FMST 323 Histoire du cinéma d’animation (3 crédits)

FMST 324 Film Script Analysis (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Second-year standing* and six credits in Film Studies. A study of the film script both as a basis for the construction of a film and as an identifiable component of film with its own history and value. Examples from film history as well as the work of major scriptwriters are analyzed in their written form and through film screenings. The stages of script development from story idea through shooting script are discussed.

FMST 324 Analyse de scénarios (3 crédits)

FMST 325 Film Acting (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Second-year standing.* A study of film acting centered on examining performances and individual scenes from films. Among the issues studied are the creation of star personas, casting against type, the influence of the script in the performance, the use of improvisation, the gesture system in silent film acting, ensemble acting, stylization and exaggeration. Weekly screenings.

FMST 326 Non-fiction Film Since 1956 (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Second-year standing*. A cross-cultural survey of contemporary developments in the documentary film. The course begins with the precursors of cinéma-direct in North America and Europe during the fifties, and extends through the most recent applications of cinéma-direct in the emerging cinemas of the Third World. Emphasis is placed on both the artistic achievement and the theoretical, cultural, and political context of the non-fiction film during this period of technological and aesthetic transition. Weekly screenings.

*66 or fewer credits remaining in degree programme.

Departmental Objectives
The Contemporary Dance Department offers comprehensive training which combines formal dance training with extensive studies in choreography. Encouraging students to discover and develop their individual creative capacities as both dancers and choreographers is the mission of the Dance programme. Performance is a crucial element in this development, and students at Concordia gain valuable experience performing or staging their own choreographies.

Programme
Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements; hence, the following sequence must be read in conjunction with §81.20. The superscript indicates credit value.

66 BFA Major in Contemporary Dance
18 Dance 200\(^6\), 300\(^6\), 400\(^6\)
12 Dance 210\(^5\), 310\(^5\), 390\(^5\), 410\(^5\)
12 Dance 320\(^6\), 420\(^6\)
3 Dance 211\(^3\)
3 Dance 313\(^3\)
6 Dance 230\(^6\)
3 Theatre Performance 201\(^3\)
3 Design Art 202\(^3\)
6 Electives from within the Faculty of Fine Arts, excluding courses offered in Dance.

81.80.1 Admission to Contemporary Dance
There is a distinct admission procedure for admission to the Major in Contemporary Dance in addition to the normal admission process of Concordia University. All applicants to Contemporary Dance are required to attend an audition as part of the admission process. Applicants must contact the Department of Contemporary Dance before Monday, March 15, 1993 to arrange their audition and for detailed information regarding admission to Dance.

Courses

Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. Sequences of studio sessions which may include body movement, improvisation, performance technique, and choreography. Studio: Four hours per week. Laboratory: Two hours per week. NOTE: Students enrolled in the Major in Contemporary Dance may not take this course for credit towards their programme requirements.

DANC 262  Summer Workshop in Dance II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A continuation of DANC 261. Studio: Four hours per week. Laboratory: Two hours per week. NOTE: Students enrolled in the Major in Contemporary Dance may not take this course for credit towards their programme requirements.

DANC 300  Workshop in Dance II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DANC 200, and enrolment in the Major in Contemporary Dance, or written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A continuation of DANC 200. Studio: Four hours per week. Laboratory: Two hours per week.

DANC 310  Body Movement II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DANC 210 or DANC 330 and enrolment in the Major in Contemporary Dance, or written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A continuation of DANC 210. Studio: Six hours per week.

DANC 313  Aspects of Production for Dance (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the Major in Contemporary Dance, or written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A study of sources and materials used in the technical aspects of dance production. Topics may include costume, make-up, and audio-visual support. Lecture course.

DANC 320  Choreography I (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DANC 300, previously or concurrently, and enrolment in the Major in Contemporary Dance, or written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. The organization of movement, space, and time into dance performances. The process of choreographic creation is followed through stages of originating the idea, developing the theme and structure, rehearsing, and performing. Students' works are performed. Studio: Four hours per week. Practice laboratory: Two hours per week. Rehearsal: Four hours per week.

DANC 330  Principles of Anatomy and Body Movement (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DANC 210 and written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A workshop of movement fundamentals based on the practical understanding of anatomy and dance technique. Studio: Six hours per week.

DANC 398  Special Topics in Dance (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. Topics vary from year to year, taking into account the special aptitudes of instructors and students. Studio: Six hours. NOTE C/See §200.3

DANC 400  Workshop in Dance III (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DANC 300, and enrolment in the Major in Contemporary Dance, or written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A workshop that provides opportunities for the extension of creative potential, improvement of performance abilities, and development of methodologies in research, using movement and other related art forms. Studio: Four hours per week. Laboratory: Two hours per week.

DANC 410  Body Movement III (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DANC 310 or 330 previously and DANC 400, previously or concurrently, and enrolment in the Major in Contemporary Dance, or written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A continuation of DANC 310. Studio: Six hours per week.

DANC 420  Choreography II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DANC 320 and enrolment in the Major in Contemporary Dance, or written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A continuation of DANC 320. Studio: Four hours per week. Practice laboratory: Two hours per week. Rehearsal: Four hours per week.

DANC 441  Independent Study I
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A course of independent study in which the student explores a specific area of Contemporary Dance. NOTE A/See §200.3

DANC 442  Independent Study II
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. A student repeating DANC 441 registers for credit under DANC 442.
NOTE A/See §200.3

DANC 499  Topics in Dance (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Contemporary Dance. Advanced choreography where movement shares equal emphasis with all other arts developed into multi-media theatre. Studio: Four hours per week. Practice laboratory: Two hours per week. Rehearsal: Four hours per week.

Department
Objectives
The Department of Design Art offers a three-year undergraduate programme providing a firm foundation for what is essentially a multi-faceted discipline. The programme emphasizes the interdependence of design, fine arts, humanities and sciences. Personal creative expression and aesthetic sensitivity are balanced by an understanding of the cultural impact, societal applications and ethical responsibilities of the design artist. Students study design history, theory and practice, and acquire an understanding of contemporary critical issues and innovative practices. In both the theoretical and practical components of the programme, the curriculum emphasizes creative experimentation and imaginative risk-taking. Students are encouraged to develop a keen sense of critical analysis through a process of rational inquiry, and to develop and utilize powers of intellectual curiosity, flexibility, and imagination in problem-solving. Visual literacy, articulate verbal and written expression, together with an understanding of fundamental technical skills are all integral components of the programme.

Programme
Students are responsible for fulfilling their particular degree requirements; hence, the following sequence must be read in conjunction with §81.20. The superscript indicates credit value.

*Chosen from the following departments: Design Art, Painting and Drawing; Printmaking and Photography; Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres.

81.90.1 Admission to the Major in Design Art
In addition to the normal admission procedure of Concordia University, there is a distinct admission procedure for applicants to programmes in the Major in Design Art. All applicants must submit a portfolio as part of the admission process. Accepted applicants who have the CEGEP 10.6 profile (see §81.10.1) are automatically exempt from ART 200, Studio Art I. Accepted applicants without the 10.6 profile are normally required to complete ART 200. However, they may be granted exemption if the quality and range of their portfolio submissions are of exceptional merit.

1. Portfolios should consist of a minimum of 20 and maximum of 30 of the applicant's own work.
2. Portfolios should consist of both two-dimensional and three-dimensional work in a variety of mediums.
3. Individual works must be labelled including applicant's name, date, size of work and medium(s) used.
4. Each portfolio must contain a list of contents including all the above information.
Courses

5. Works larger than 20 x 24 inches (50 x 60 centimetres) and three-dimensional works must be submitted in slide form.
6. Portfolios should be presented in a sturdy folder; works should be flat, unframed, and well-presented.
7. Out-of-town applicants may submit photographs and/or slides of their work.
   In addition:
8. The portfolio should demonstrate creative potential as a designer/artist. Works presented must represent an ability to draw, to compose, to use colour, and to work in other visual mediums including work in three dimensions.
9. A letter of intent written in either English or French must be submitted to the Department office by the applicants when arranging an interview appointment. The letter must state the reason for applying to the Design Art programme and the ways in which the applicant's education background, work experience, and general interests can act as a preparation for the Design Art programme.
10. Applicants are required to attend an interview during which they will be required to answer questions pertinent to Design Art and other disciplines. Applicants must contact the Department of Design Art early in March (before the deadline date of March 15) for an appointment time. Late applicants will be considered when appropriate. Please contact the Department for additional information.
11. Applicants are required to submit a copy of their transcript to the Department office when arranging an interview appointment.
12. Portfolios must be brought by the applicants to their interview.

NOTE: Students are required to bear the cost of materials in Studio Art courses.

DART 200  Design Art Theory and Practice (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ART 200, or exemption, or ART 200 concurrently and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. An introduction to design art concepts and methods. Content focuses on the use of artistic innovation in visual, perceptual, and structural elements; including line, shape, colour, mass, materials, and their organization. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 202  Design in the Arts I (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Design Art, Major in Contemporary Dance, or second-year standing* in a Fine Arts degree programme. A foundation course in the elements and principles of design for Fine Arts students, with concentrations outside of Studio Art. The focus is on process rather than product creation in this theoretical and practical preparation for design problems in the student's area of concentration.
NOTE A/See §200.3
NOTE: Students in a specialization/major in a Studio Art department may not take this course for credit in their degree programme. *fewer than 66 credits remaining in degree programme.

DART 203  Design in the Arts II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: DART 202. A continuation of DART 202. NOTE A/See §200.3
NOTE: Students in a specialization/major in a Studio Art department may not take this course for credit in their degree programme.

DART 210  Introduction to Research Methodology in Design Art (6 credits)
Prerequisite: ART 200, or exemption, or ART 200 concurrently and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. A project-based study providing basic experiences in research methodology including light and colour theories. The content of this course focuses on the personal, economic, and cultural implications of design. Knowledge from a variety of academic and other disciplines is applied to the design art process.
NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 260  The History of Design: Theory and Practice (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the Major in Design Art, or written permission of the Department of Design Art. A consideration of design theory and practice, with emphasis on the interrelationship of stylistic, socio-cultural, and technical aspects. Examples are drawn from a broad spectrum of epochs and geographical areas, but particular attention is given to historical approaches that have importance for contemporary design.
NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 300  Individual Projects in Design Art (Analysis and Application) (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DART 200 and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. Problem-solving in Design Art. Individual projects involving experimentation and innovation are completed and analysed in terms of their application to the assigned objectives. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 310 Group Projects in Design Art (Research Coordination) (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DART 200, 210; DART 300, previously or concurrently, and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. Problem-solving in Design Art. Group projects involving experimentation and innovation are completed and analysed in terms of their application to the assigned objectives. Team research and coordination are major requirements of this course. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 400 Design Art Seminar (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DART 300, previously or concurrently, and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. An advanced study of recent developments in visual-thinking in design art. Content may include workshops, visiting lecturers, and field trips. Students are required to attend additional workshops and lectures outside of the course time. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 410 The Computer as a Design Tool (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DART 300 and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. A project-based course working with computers for design art purposes.

DART 422 Experimental Design: Image (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DART 300 and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. A design studio in which innovative concepts, techniques, and tools of image-making are investigated and developed. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 423 Experimental Design: Object (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DART 300 and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. A design studio in which innovative concepts, techniques, and tools of object-making are investigated and developed. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 424 Applied Design: Image (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DART 300 and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. A design studio course in which individual student projects, based upon social and environmental issues, address the use of image in the marketplace. A range of practice employed in contemporary image-making is investigated. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 425 Applied Design: Object (6 credits)
Prerequisite: DART 300 and either enrolment in the Major in Design Art or written permission of the Department of Design Art. A design studio course in which individual student projects, based upon social and environmental issues, address the use of object in the marketplace. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 440 Independent Study (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Design Art. Independent study in which the student explores a special area of design art. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 499 Special Topics in Design Art (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Design Art. A course of independent study in which the student explores a special area of design art. NOTE A/See §200.3

DART 499S Special Topics in Design Art (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Design Art. A course of independent study in which the student explores a special area of design art. NOTE A/See §200.3

Departmental Objectives

The Department of Music prides itself on flexible programmes, offering students choices ranging from a generalized music education to highly specialized performance training. Whether the focus is vocal or instrumental performance, contemporary and historical studies, composition or jazz, students hone their skills within a supportive bilingual environment of artists. The facilities for music at Concordia include one of the finest small concert halls in Montréal for both listening and performing.

Programmes

Students are responsible for fulfilling their particular degree requirements; hence, the following sequences must be read in conjunction with §81.20. The superscript indicates credit value.

SPECIALIZATION IN MUSIC

The Faculty of Fine Arts offers four Specialization programmes in Music, each of 66 credits. Students applying for entrance to the Department are accepted into the Major in Integrative Music Studies. Upon completion of 30 credits, students may apply for transfer into a Specialization. Acceptance into a Specialization is based on the student's general academic performance in all University courses, but especially in the Music courses. Students are expected to participate in public performances as part of any Specialization, and are required to do so in the Specializations in Music Performance Studies and Jazz Studies.

Admission to Programmes in Music

Admission to Courses in Music for Non-Music Students

Ensemble Auditions

Keyboard Exam

The Department of Music has a distinct admission procedure in addition to the normal admission process of Concordia University. All applicants (to Music programmes) attend an interview/audition as part of the admission process. At the time of their interview they will be required to write a Theory Placement Test (for placement in theory courses). Applicants are required to contact the Department of Music before March 15 to arrange their appointments and other information regarding admission procedures. Applicants begin their studies in the Major in Integrative Music Studies.

Specific procedures must be followed by all non-Music Majors wishing to register in the Department of Music:

a) Not all courses are available to non-Music students. Please consult the Department of Music for policy and accessibility of courses.

b) Students who wish to register for courses which have a theory prerequisite, given availability, must write the Theory Placement Test. This is done in the Department of Music at least two weeks prior to the registration appointment date.

c) Students who wish to sing or play in an ensemble must contact the Department of Music for information concerning audition and registration for Music Performance courses.

All Music Majors and non-Music students wishing to register for a music ensemble (jazz ensembles, choirs, orchestra, chamber ensembles) must contact the Department of Music at least two weeks prior to registration to arrange an audition.

All students in the BFA programmes in the Department of Music must take and pass a keyboard exam as a graduation requirement.

1. A copy of a typical examination is given to each new student at the time of their initial advising appointment for course selection.

2. Methods of preparing for the exam are as follows: a) Independently securing private

Review:

Upon completion of the courses in this Specialization, the Special Project is evaluated by the appropriate Review Committee. The type of evaluation used depends upon the nature of the project: exhibition, concert, recording, essay, musical production, etc.

Music:

MUSI 200  Musical Literacy (6 credits)
An intensive seminar/workshop in theory and aural training designed to extend musical literacy for the student with limited background. Classroom and laboratory.

NOTE: Students in a Major, Minor or Specialization programme in the Department of Music may not take this course for credit towards their degrees.

MUSI 210  Theory/Aural Training (6 credits)
Prerequisite: MUSI 200 or exemption. An extensive course in musicianship, including music theory, harmony, counterpoint, aural training. NOTE A/See §200.3

NOTE: Students enrolled in any Specialization offered by the Department of Music may not apply credits for this course towards the 90-credit degree requirements.

MUSI 223  Understanding Music (3 credits)
A course in analytical listening for the student who has little or no musical background. The works studied represent the major styles and idioms of Western music. NOTE A/See §200.3

MUSI 230  Private Study I (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Music. This course offers individual vocal or instrumental instruction in an approved area of music coordinated with the student's programme.

NOTE: Students are required to assume part of the cost of private lessons.

NOTE: Upon the recommendation of the individual instructor, public performance may be required as part of the course.

MUSI 231  Private Study II (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Music. This course offers individual vocal or instrumental instruction in an approved area of music coordinated with the student's programme.

NOTE: Students are required to assume part of the cost of private lessons.

NOTE: Upon the recommendation of the individual instructor, public performance may be required as part of the course.

MUSI 330  Private Study III (6 credits)
Prerequisite: MUSI 230 or MUSI 231 and

MUSI 331, and written permission of the Department of Music. Continuation of MUSI 230. NOTE A/See §200.3

NOTE: Students enrolled in the Specialization in Music Performance Studies register in MPER 390.

NOTE: Students are required to assume part of the cost of private lessons.

NOTE: Upon the recommendation of the individual instructor, public performance may be required as part of the course.

MUSI 430  Private Study IV (6 credits)
Prerequisite: MUSI 330 and written permission of the Department of Music. Continuation of MUSI 330.

NOTE: Students are required to assume part of the cost of private lessons.

NOTE: Upon the recommendation of the individual instructor, public performance may be required as part of the course.

MUSI 431  Private Study V (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MUSI 331 and written permission of the Department of Music. A continuation of MUSI 331.

NOTE: Students are required to assume part of the cost of private lessons.

NOTE: Upon the recommendation of the individual instructor, public performance may be required as part of the course.

MUSI 491  Special Project in Music (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Music. This course is intended for students enrolled in the Specialization in Selected Music Studies. It affords an opportunity for extensive development of the final project under the direction of a Faculty member. The content of this course varies according to the particular area being studied.

NOTE: Students repeating MUSI 491 register for MUSI 492 for credit provided the subject matter is different.

NOTE: If the special project is within the realm of performance, the student is required to participate in public performances.

MUSI 492 Special Project in Music (3 credits)
Prerequisite: MUSI 491 and written permission of the Department of Music.
Continuation of MUSI 491.

NOTE: If the special project is within the realm of performance, the student is required to participate in public performances.

The Department of Painting and Drawing provides an in-depth programme in Painting and Drawing, combining theoretical, historical and practical study at all undergraduate levels. The aim is to provide students with a broad foundation on which they can base their own creative contributions.

Studio courses, seminars and independent projects on such varied topics as Open Media, Collage and Women's Studies, supplement the core courses on painting and drawing at all levels. Recognizing the importance of providing basic skills and knowledge, in an atmosphere of freedom, the programme is supported by a large number of faculty and guest artists, exposing students to a full range of approaches to drawing and painting. A graduate programme in Painting and Drawing and Open Media is available for further studies.

Students are responsible for fulfilling their particular degree requirements; hence, the following sequence must be read in conjunction with §81.20. The superscript indicates credit value.

BFA Major in Painting and Drawing

- 72 credits
- 12 credits from PTNG 200 and/or DRAW 200 must replace ART 261 with a (non-studio) course approved by the Department of Painting and Drawing.
- 6 ART 200 (or, if exempt, a Studio Art elective)
- 6 ART 261, ART 460, SCUL 465*, or Art History elective
- 6 DRAW 200*
- 6 Art History electives
- 24 Studio Art electives
- 12 credits from 300 and 400 level in a single medium from one of the following Departments:
  - Painting and Drawing
  - Printmaking and Photography
  - Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres

*ART 261 is normally in a triad with special sections of PTNG 200 and DRAW 200. All students in the Major are encouraged to complete these courses in their first year, but part-time students unable to take the courses together, as well as students who have already passed or been exempted but part-time students unable to take the courses together, as well as students who have already passed or been exempted from PTNG 200 and/or DRAW 200 must replace ART 261 with a (non-studio) course approved by the Department of Painting and Drawing.

"Studio Art courses offered by the Department of Design Art and the Department of Art Education and Art Therapy may be selected as Studio Art electives, but these credits do not satisfy the 300- and 400-level sequence requirements.

81.110.1 Admission to the Major in Studio Art and the Major in Art History and Studio Art

In addition to the normal admission procedure of Concordia University, there is a distinct admission procedure for applicants to the Major in Studio Art and the Major in Art History and Studio Art.

All applicants must submit a portfolio as part of the admission process. Accepted applicants who have the CEGEP 10.6 profile (see §81.10.1) are automatically exempt from ART 200, Studio Art I. Accepted applicants without the 10.6 profile are normally required to complete ART 200. However, they may request exemption if the quality and range of their portfolio submissions are of exceptional merit.

1. Portfolios should consist of a minimum of 20 and maximum of 30 of the applicant’s own work.
2. Portfolios should consist of both two-dimensional and three-dimensional work in a variety of mediums.
3. Individual works must be labelled including applicant’s name, date, size of work, and medium(s) used.
4. Each portfolio must contain a list of contents including all the above information.
5. Works larger than 20 x 24 inches (50 x 60 centimetres) and three-dimensional works must be submitted in slide form.
6. Portfolios should include a copy of recent academic record.
7. Portfolios should be presented in a sturdy folder; works should be flat and unframed.
8. Out-of-town applicants may submit photographs and/or slides of their work. Return shipment of out-of-town portfolios is by prior arrangement only.

Applicants submit this portfolio to the Portfolio Committee, Visual Arts Building, Room 237, prior to the deadline of Monday, March 15, 1993. For more detailed information regarding admission to the Major in Studio Art, applicants should contact one of the Studio Art departments.

81.110.2 Admission to the Major in Painting and Drawing

In addition to the normal admission procedure of Concordia University, there is a distinct admission procedure for applicants to the Major in Painting and Drawing.

All applicants must also submit a portfolio—please see §81.110.1, items 1 to 8, for portfolio requirements.

Additional requirements for the Major in Painting and Drawing are:

9. Portfolios must be accompanied by a letter of intent explaining the applicant’s special interests in painting and drawing.

Applicants must bring both their portfolios and their letters of intent to the Department of Painting and Drawing, Visual Arts Building, Room 238, prior to the deadline of Monday, March 15, 1993. For more detailed information regarding admission to the Major in Painting and Drawing, applicants should contact the Department Office.

Departmental Objectives
The Printmaking programme focuses on the language of printmaking as a context for the exploration of aesthetic issues in visual art. The medium of printmaking shares with other studio arts the historical, theoretical and analytical concerns of making imagery in contemporary society. Through an emphasis on studio practice, the tradition of printmaking as visual language is rendered new by the relevance of contemporary as well as personal imagery. The curriculum integrates a thorough knowledge of technical processes and studio practice with the demands of exploratory and experimental imagery.

The Photography programme acknowledges photography as a discipline with a distinct artistic and historical identity. It also recognizes that contemporary photographic practice encompasses a rich multiplicity of formal and conceptual approaches. The course structure of the programme and the orientation of its faculty reflect a concern that the students receive a strong historical and theoretical comprehension of the medium. The programme stresses the need for students to acquire the concepts and vocabulary necessary for critical discussion of their own photographic work and that of others. Emphasis is placed on the understanding of photography's sociological and artistic ramifications.

Programmes
Students are responsible for fulfilling their particular degree requirements; hence, the following sequence must be read in conjunction with §81.20.
The superscript indicates credit value.

66 BFA Major in Printmaking
12-18 PRIN 210°, 220°, 230°, 240°
18-24 Printmaking electives
6 DRAW 200° or Studio Art elective chosen in consultation with an adviser
3 ARTH 263°
3 ARTH 349° or Art History elective
6 Art History electives*
6 ART 200° (or, if exempt, a Studio Art elective)
6 Studio Art electives
*ART 261°, ART 460°, SCUL 465° may be substituted for electives in Art History

12 PHOT 300, 310, 320, 330, 399, 498
6 Photography or another visual arts elective

In addition to the normal admission procedure of Concordia University, there is a distinct admission procedure for applicants to the Major and Minor in Photography. Applicants must submit a portfolio as well as attend an interview. The applicants must contact the Department of Printmaking and Photography before Monday, March 15, 1993 for particulars regarding portfolio submissions and interviews.

In addition to the normal admission procedure of Concordia University, there is a distinct admission procedure for applicants to the Major in Studio Art and the Major in Art History and Studio Art.

All applicants must submit a portfolio as part of the admission process. Accepted applicants who have the CEGEP 10.6 profile (see §81.10.1) are automatically exempt from ART 200, Studio Art I. Accepted applicants without the 10.6 profile are normally required to complete ART 200. However, they may request exemption if the quality and range of their portfolio submissions are of exceptional merit.

1. Portfolios should consist of a minimum of 20 and maximum of 30 of the applicant’s own work.
2. Portfolios should consist of both two-dimensional and three-dimensional work in a variety of mediums.
3. Individual works must be labelled including applicant’s name, date, size of work and medium(s) used.
4. Each portfolio must contain a list of contents including all the above information.
5. Works larger than 20 x 24 inches (50 x 60 centimetres) and three-dimensional works must be submitted in slide form.
6. Portfolios should be presented in a sturdy folder; works should be flat and unframed.
7. Out-of-town applicants may submit photographs and/or slides of their work. Return shipment of out-of-town portfolios is by prior arrangement only.

Applicants submit this portfolio to the Portfolio Committee, Visual Arts Building, Room 237, prior to the deadline of Monday, March 15, 1993. For more detailed information regarding admission to the Major in Studio Art, applicants should contact one of the Studio Art departments.

Applicants to Printmaking may apply to enter directly into the Major in Printmaking or may enter the Major in Studio Art with the intention of transferring upon completion of the first year. In addition to the normal admission procedure of Concordia University, there is a distinct admission procedure for applicants to Printmaking.

All applicants must also submit a portfolio — please see §81.120.2, items 1 to 7, for portfolio requirements. In addition, for the Major in Printmaking:
8. Portfolios must contain a minimum of 10 works in drawing and/or prints.
9. Portfolios must be submitted to the Department Office before the deadline date of Monday, March 15, 1993, 4:00 p.m.

It is recommended that full-time students in Studio Art who plan to apply for transfer to the Major in Printmaking register for 12 credits in printmaking courses in their first 30 credits. Upon completion of the first year (less than 66 credits remaining), students apply for transfer through the Department of Printmaking and Photography. Acceptance into the Major is based on accomplishment and potential in printmaking and on the student’s academic performance at Concordia and especially on the portfolio.

The Department of Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres offers the opportunity for intensive study, both practical and theoretical, of the art and technology of sculpture, ceramics and fibres. Within the Fine Arts curriculum, these courses help students to explore the relationship of object, surface and space. Such creative investigation, allied with technical proficiency, provides the base students need to develop as young artists. Courses are available at all levels, ranging from beginner classes to independent study for advanced students wishing to focus on a single project. To enrich their artistic training, students concentrating in other areas of Fine Arts may also take most courses offered by the Department.

An introductory course in which students explore the expressive potential of various materials and processes of fibre structures such as loom weaving, feltmaking, basketry, surface applications, and other experimental constructions. NOTE A/See §200.3

FBRS 260  Textile Printing and Dyeing I (6 credits)
Prerequisite: Art 200 or exemption; or Art 200 concurrently with enrolment in either the Major in Ceramics, Major in Fibres, Major in Sculpture, or the Major in Studio Art and written permission of the Department of Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres. An introductory course in which students explore the creative potential of printing, painting, dyeing, resist work, and construction with fabric. NOTE A/See §200.3

FBRS 340  Fibre Structures II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: FBRS 240. An intermediate level course which emphasizes the visual and conceptual development of the student in fibre media. Complex woven structures, painting and dyeing, fibre sculpture, and other experimental approaches are explored.

FBRS 360  Textile Printing and Dyeing II (6 credits)
Prerequisite: FBRS 260. An intermediate level course in textile printing and dyeing with an emphasis on content. Students investigate traditional and non-traditional approaches such as resist work, discharge, and photo processes.

FBRS 398  Special Topics in Fibres (3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department. A workshop/seminar course providing an opportunity for study of specialized aspects of fibres.
NOTE C/See §200.3

FBRS 399 Special Topics in Fibres
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres. A workshop/seminar course providing an opportunity for the study of specialized aspects in fibres.
NOTE C/See §200.3

FBRS 450 Independent Study
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: FBRS 480, previously or concurrently, and written permission of the Department of Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres and third-year standing*. This workshop provides the opportunity for a limited number of students to independently pursue advanced studies in Fibres.
*fewer than 33 credits remaining in the degree programme.

FBRS 470 Papermaking
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: Twenty-four credits in Studio Art. The making of paper and its use as a medium of expression. The scope of investigation ranges from surface and image to embossing, casting, and three-dimensional construction.

FBRS 480 Advanced Fibres
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: FBRS 340 or FBRS 360. An advanced level course in which students create a personal body or work, refine technical expertise, and develop a visual and critical language related to fibres and textiles. NOTE C/See §200.3

SCUL 399 Special Topics in Sculpture
(3 credits)
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Department of Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres and third-year standing*. A workshop/seminar course providing an opportunity for the study of specialized aspects of sculpture. NOTE C/See §200.3 *fewer than 33 credits remaining in the degree programme.

SCUL 400 Sculpture III
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: SCUL 300. Advanced investigation into a single or group of concepts and materials through the development of a body of personal work.
NOTE A/See §200.3

SCUL 450 Independent Study
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: SCUL 400, previously or concurrently, and written permission of the Department of Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres and third-year standing.* This course provides the opportunity for a limited number of students to pursue advanced studies in sculpture.
*fewer than 33 credits remaining in degree programme.

SCUL 465 Aesthetics of Sculpture
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the Major in Sculpture, in Ceramics or in Fibres; or written permission of the Department of Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres. A study of selected works emphasizing unique achievements in sculpture; including field trips, studio visits, and presentations by visiting artists.

SCUL 490 Spatial Relationships
(6 credits)
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the Major in Sculpture, in Ceramics or in Fibres; or written permission of the Department of Sculpture, Ceramics and Fibres. A studio course providing an opportunity for the study of specialized aspects of space manipulation as it relates to sculpture.
The Department of Theatre is committed to identifying and developing students who demonstrate the potential to contribute to the continuing evolution of theatre. The Department sets out to prepare theatre practitioners, designers, researchers, scholars, playwrights, producers, performers, and those individuals who wish to focus on the educational, rehabilitative and therapeutic aspects of theatre. To this end, the Department offers courses under the rubrics of theatre, drama in education, performance, production, and design for the theatre. The learning activities are to a great extent integrated with actual theatrical productions. The Department emphasizes excellence in research, scholarship, and service to the community at large in an environment where values of equality and tolerance of diversity prevail. Within unique bilingual and multi-cultural surroundings, the Department works to apply research and creative activity in cooperative and collaborative ways.

Students are responsible for fulfilling their particular degree requirements; hence, the following sequence must be read in conjunction with §81.20. The superscript indicates credit value.

At least three credits must be in twentieth-century drama

6 Electives in English Literature or Creative Writing

*This programme is intended for a very few exceptionally talented students each year. Students wishing to enrol in this programme should make an application to either the Major in Theatre (Bachelor of Fine Arts) or the Major in Creative Writing (Department of English, Bachelor of Arts). In either case, in consultation with their advisers, they should select courses which satisfy the requirements for both the departmental Major and the Joint Specialization. Permission to transfer to the Joint Specialization and to enrol as student playwrights in THEA 420 (Playwrighting Workshop) is normally granted when students enter their final 30 credits and is based upon successful completion of ENGL 227 (Creative Writing: Drama) and ENGL 427 (Advanced Creative Writing: Drama), review of the student’s writing to date, and an interview. Students who are refused permission to transfer to the Joint Specialization should expect to complete the requirements for the departmental Major in which they originally enrolled.

Students in Playwrighting are given an assignment of an appropriate dimension.

6 Drama in Education, Theatre Performance, and/or Design for the Theatre electives

18 Electives from the Department of Theatre

The Department of Theatre has a distinct admission procedure in addition to the normal admission process of Concordia University. All applicants to Theatre are required to attend an interview as part of the admission process. Applicants who indicate an interest in Theatre Performance and in Drama in Education are required to audition.

Applicants to the Major in Theatre must submit a letter of intent (approximately 500 words) expressing their goals and interests in the theatre and in the programme. This letter of intent must be received in the Department of Theatre office at least one week prior to the applicant’s scheduled interview.

Applicants who indicate an interest in Design for the Theatre must bring to the interview a portfolio of material which demonstrates their creative abilities and interests.

Applicants planning to apply for transfer into the Joint Specialization in Playwrighting must, prior to the interview, submit a portfolio of written material which demonstrates their creative potential.

Applicants are required to contact the Department of Theatre before Friday, March 15, 1993 to arrange their appointments and to obtain detailed information regarding interviews, auditions, portfolios, and letters of intent.

Curriculum changes in the Faculty will affect some of the entries in the following list. Students should consult with their programme adviser if they already have credits for a course which may be equivalent to another.

Students who have taken a given course under an old number may not repeat it for credit under an equivalent number.

Some courses in statistics offered by Departments in the Faculties of Arts and Science, and Commerce and Administration have common elements, but are not necessarily equivalent. A hierarchical order has therefore been established. The possible substitution of courses for each other proceeds from top to bottom of Figure 1.

No course may be substituted for any course which appears in a box above it in Figure 1.

Any six-credit pair of statistics courses may be substituted for any other six-credit pair which is shown in the same box or in a box which is beneath it in Figure 1.

Any six-credit pair of statistics courses may be substituted for any three-credit introductory statistics course.

Any three-credit statistics course may be substituted for any course which is shown in the same box, or in a box which is beneath it in Figure 1.

No more than six credits will be awarded among the six-credit pairs, and no more than three credits will be awarded among the three-credit courses.

CONCORDIA ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIPS

Fall Entrance Scholarships: A number of scholarships are available to students entering their first year of full-time study. These are awarded by the University Scholarship and Awards Committee on the basis of academic achievement during the first three semesters of CEGEP or equivalent. The value of Entrance Scholarships vary from $1,000 to $2,500 per year, many of which are renewable for a maximum tenure of three years.

January Entrance Scholarships: A number of scholarships are available to students entering Concordia in January. These scholarships are valued at $1,000 per semester. These awards are renewable for five subsequent semesters providing the renewal requirements are met.

Mature Students Entrance Scholarships: This programme is intended for students admitted to the University as "Mature Students". Application forms are accepted from students who have successfully completed at least 18 credits, but no more than 30 at Concordia University. These scholarships are valued at $2,000 per year and are renewable for two subsequent years providing the renewal requirements are met.

Senior Students Scholarships: A number of scholarships are awarded to students 60 years of age or over. These scholarships have a value of $500 each per academic year and are renewable for a maximum of four subsequent years providing the renewal requirements are met.

Senior Students Entrance Scholarship: Awarded annually to a newly admitted undergraduate student in any faculty. The scholarship is renewable twice for a maximum tenure of two years provided the recipient maintains his/her full-time status and achieves a Grade Point Average (GPA) of no less than 3.0. This award is made possible by the generosity of Senior Students at Concordia University.

The Rona and Irving Levitt Family Foundation Entrance Scholarships: Intended to assist capable students to attend Concordia University, a number of scholarships are available to students entering their first year of full-time study. The scholarships are valued at $1,000 and are not renewable. These are awarded by the University Scholarship and Awards Committee on the basis of academic achievement during the first three semesters of CEGEP or equivalent, and a personal statement provided by the applicant.

The Concordia Shuffle Entrance Scholarships: Established through the participation and generosity of the University Community and Friends of the University. The Concordia Shuffle consists of a fund-raising Walk-a-Thon between the Sir George Williams and Loyola campuses of Concordia University. A number of entrance scholarships are awarded to students entering their first year of full-time study without restriction to their fields of study. The recipients will be selected on the basis of academic achievement during the first three semesters of CEGEP or equivalent. Mature students may apply after having successfully completed at least 18 credits, but no more than 30 credits at Concordia University.

The Loyola Alumni Association Education Grant: Established to assist deserving students who wish to attend Concordia University. These grants will be issued annually to students who have excelled in their studies leading to their university level programme. Although the grants are unrestricted, preference will be given to children of members of the Loyola Alumni Association.

SECTION 400
SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES

The graduate programmes offered by the University are divided into doctoral, master’s and diploma programmes. Doctoral programmes offer students the opportunity to carry out fundamental and applied research. The results of this research are presented in the form of a thesis containing an original contribution to knowledge. Doctoral theses are defended in public examinations.

The length and specific format of a doctoral thesis is discipline dependent. All doctoral programmes require the passing of special sets of comprehensive examinations, and a minimum of 90 credits of study. At the master’s level, the University offers a variety of thesis and non-thesis options. All master’s programmes require a minimum of 45 credits. Some master’s programmes also have a comprehensive examination.

The academic goals of the graduate diploma programmes are somewhat different from those of doctoral and master’s programmes. They are designed either to offer a further specialization in a field or discipline already studied at the undergraduate level, or they provide the introduction to a new field of study or discipline, with the express intent to develop some level of specialized knowledge. A graduate diploma consists of a minimum of 30 credits and normally a maximum of 33 credits. Diploma programmes do not require a thesis, although a graduating essay, project or report may be required. Diploma programmes may require a comprehensive examination.

With the exception of the special individual doctoral and master’s programmes, all graduate programmes offered by the University are administered by a particular academic department in one of the four Faculties of the University, under the general supervision of the Council of the School of Graduate Studies and its chair, the Dean of Graduate Studies. All graduate programmes are described in the Graduate Calendar. Each description outlines the full-time faculty involved in the programme, the objectives of the programme, and the research interests of the faculty. Admission requirements, application procedures, and degree requirements and programme options are specified. In most cases, courses are given in the late afternoon and evening, or in the evening only, making it possible for both full-time and part-time students to attend. Please contact the graduate programme director at the number indicated for further information.
