Selection of Courses

- Students are advised to be flexible in their course selection and course schedule. Course descriptions can be found in the Undergraduate or Graduate course calendar on the Concordia website. Course syllabi are generally not available before the student arrives to the campus.
- Students will NOT be permitted to enroll in restricted courses, or in continuing education courses.
- Students will be required to meet prerequisites for courses (if applicable) and must be prepared to submit verification of completion of prerequisites when requested by the Concordia International office.
- Students should select at least six (6) courses (per semester) that they would like to take. Please note that a particular class may be:
 - full year (Sept. to April)... indicated as /3 courses (6 credits)
 - fall term only (Sept. to Dec)... indicated as /2 courses (3 credits or 6 credits)
 - winter term only (Jan. to May) ...indicated as /4 courses (3 credits or 6 credits)

- Students must not choose a /3 course if they are coming for only one term.
- When completing the Proposed Studies at Concordia University section of the Incoming Student Exchange Application, please include the course code, course description, and the session as presented in the course calendar. Course codes are comprised of four letters and three numbers (i.e. COMM 201). Course numbers are:
 - 2XX Introductory and first year courses
 - 3XX Second year courses (often require pre-requisites)
 - 4XX Advanced course may be restricted to Honours and Graduate students
- Course codes that commence with a 6 (i.e. HSIT 602) are generally graduate level and are restricted to students with the appropriate academic background. 500 level courses are not available to exchange students.
- Selected courses must be approved by the Concordia department in which they are taught.
- Students are not guaranteed their selected courses at any time prior to registration. They must therefore be flexible in their choices.
- Fine Arts students who wish to take studio or production courses (e.g. FMAN) must be registered for the full year.
- Students taking courses in the Faculty of Fine Arts should note that some courses and/or some programs require the payment of additional lab fee(s) not covered by the tuition waiver.
- Students taking any private study courses in Music must pay tuition and fees for these.

Please advise students to:

- Select courses for the appropriate semester or session
- Select courses for the appropriate level of study (Due to the differences in academic degree standards, some students enrolled in graduate programs at their home institutions may be advised to choose courses at the undergraduate level at Concordia University.)
- Ensure that they meet any course pre-requisites

Registration

Exchange students should register online for courses as soon as (but not before) they have been officially accepted by Concordia International and have been issued their Concordia University Student Identification number (included in the official Concordia International Acceptance Letter).

- Students accepted into the Faculty of Arts and Science are responsible for their own registration online.
- Students accepted into the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science, the Faculty of Fine Arts, or the John Molson School of Business must contact their faculty advisor in order to register.

International students must be registered full time during their exchange. In order to be considered full-time, students need to be enrolled for a:

- Undergraduates: Minimum of 12 credits per semester (normally 4 courses) and maximum of 15 credits per semester (normally 5 courses).
- Graduate students: Minimum of 8 credits and maximum of 9 credits (normally three courses). MBA students must take 12 credits (4 courses) per semester.
