US DIRECT LOAN CONSUMER INFORMATION

As per the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) of 2008, the US government requires all institutions certified to disburse Title IV aid to disclose the following consumer information.
 Please contact the Financial Aid & Awards Office (fundingyoureducation@concordia.ca) if you require any clarification of the following information.

Nondegree Programs	As a Title IV Foreign Institution, recipients of Direct Loan funding, are not eligible to enroll in nondegree programs.
First Professional Programs	As a Title IV Foreign Institution, recipients of Direct Loan funding are not eligible to enroll in first professional programs. First-professional degrees represent a category of qualifications in professional subject areas that require students to have previously completed specified undergraduate coursework and/or degrees before enrolling. They are considered graduate-level programs in the U.S. system because they follow prior undergraduate studies, but they are in fact first degrees in these professional subjects. Holders of first-professional degrees are considered to have an entry-level qualification and may undertake graduate study in these professional fields following the award of the first-professional degree. Several of these degrees use the term “doctor” in the title, but these degrees do not contain an independent research component or require a dissertation (thesis) and should not be confused with PhD degrees or other research doctorates.
Foundation Programs	As a Title IV Foreign Institution, recipients of Direct Loan funding are not eligible to enroll in foundation programs. A foundation program is a non-degree program that caters to students who wish to develop the necessary background for further study in undergraduate degree program.
U.S. student admissions requirement	U.S. students must have a high school diploma or equivalent to be admitted: https://www.concordia.ca/admissions/undergraduate/international/usa.html
Cost of Attendance	Information regarding the cost of tuition, fees, mandatory health insurance and student housing please refer to https://www.concordia.ca/students/financial/tuition-fees/rates.html . Other expenses such as books and housing can be estimated based on the undergraduate admissions page: https://www.concordia.ca/students/financial/tuition-fees/costs.html
