Pariso Scholarships in Communication Studies

This essay competition scholarship for Undergraduate students was established in 2006 through the benevolence of Mr. Stephen Pariso, BA 2004, and Ms. Shauna Vineberg-Pariso. It is available to Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents, and International Students who are in their second year of studies or higher in the Communication Studies program.

Academic Criteria

- At least one year of study completed, and full-time enrollment for Fall / Winter 2020-2021
- Minimum Assessment GPA for 2019-2020 of 3.30

Essay Subject

Essays must be 750 Words in length, in response the following questions:

- How is your background different from that of a majority of students in Communication Studies?
- How have your past life experiences added to your classroom experience?
- What unique factors do you bring to Communication Studies as a student?
- How do your life experiences provide a unique or different perspective to your studies?
- How do these experiences help add diversity to the classroom experience?

Essays must address all of the above questions in a scholarly fashion. Essay submissions must include an application form, and a cover sheet bearing the title, "Pariso Scholarship Essay Competition". If you have a Co-Curricular Record at Concordia University, feel free to include a copy with your submission along with the other supporting documents described above.
