

Undergraduate Award Bulletin

Ryan F. Cianflone Memorial Award

Ryan Francis Cianflone was a promising young student at Concordia University who participated and played Rugby at the University. Ryan was a student who was open to the community around him, who loved to be involved in sports activities, and who while carrying out many extracurricular activities showed progressive and marked improvement with his grades throughout his studies. This award was generously established in 2007 by Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Cianflone in Ryan's memory.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Applicants must be enrolled in any Bachelor's program from the Faculty of Arts & Science and in their second year (or higher).
- Applicants must be enrolled full-time for Fall 2022 and Winter 2023.
- Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents and International Students are eligible.
- Candidates must demonstrate commitment and spirit towards sports and student life activities at Concordia University and/or in the community at large, as exemplified by Ryan Francis.

Award Value: One award available valued at $2,000

How to Apply:

Qualified students who wish to be considered for this award must submit, along with their application form:

- A 500-word essay which details how their experience either in sports or student life activities at Concordia University or within the community has contributed to their current appreciation of their educational opportunities.

Essays will be judged on content, as well as the quality of the applicant's reasoning and written expression of ideas. If you have a Co-Curricular Record at Concordia University, feel free to include a copy with your submission along with the other supporting documents described above.

To submit your application, all documentation must be securely uploaded through your Student Centre. Detailed instructions on the process can be found at the following link:
