Pariso Scholarship in Communication Studies

This essay competition scholarship for Undergraduate students was established in 2006 through the benevolence of Mr. Stephen Pariso, BA 2004, and Ms. Shauna Vineberg-Pariso.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Applicants must be enrolled in the Communication Studies program, in their second year of studies (or higher).
- Applicants must be studying full-time during the Fall 2022 and Winter 2023 terms.
- Applicants must have a GPA of at least 3.30
- Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents and International Students are eligible

Award Value: One award available valued at $1,250 – Non-renewable.

How to Apply:

Qualified candidates who wish to apply for this award must submit, along with their application form:

- A 750-word essay, in response to the following questions:
 - How is your background different from that of a majority of students in Communication Studies?
 - How have your past life experiences added to your classroom experience?
 - What unique factors do you bring to Communication Studies as a student?
 - How do your life experiences provide a unique or different perspective to your studies?
 - How do these experiences help add diversity to the classroom experience?

Essays must address all of the above questions in a scholarly fashion. Essay submissions must include an application form, and a cover sheet bearing the title, "Pariso Scholarship Essay Competition." If you have a Co-Curricular Record at Concordia University, feel free to include a copy with your submission along with the other supporting documents described above.

To submit your application, all documentation must be securely uploaded through your Student Centre. Detailed instructions on the process can be found at the following link:
