GradProSkills empowers Concordia graduate students and postdoctoral fellows to engage with community resources, optimize their graduate school experience and equip themselves to realize their professional and academic goals. We are currently seeking three facilitators for our French conversation groups, offered from beginner to advanced levels. The duties of this role include: facilitating our weekly French conversation classes; identifying activities to stimulate French conversation which is adapted to the group’s aptitude; assessing student’s French spoken ability against pre-defined criteria; and contributing to the development of our French training resources. If you would like to expand your teaching experience and have a mastery of French, we encourage you to apply to join the 2019-20 GradProSkills Team.

Requirements:
- MUST be a graduate student, currently enrolled in a Concordia graduate program and continuing in program until April 2020.
- MUST have a mastery of French.
- Experience teaching or facilitating group discussions with adults in a multicultural setting.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills in order to keep students engaged.
- Knowledge of lesson plan development and different teaching methodologies.
- Completion of the Graduate Seminar in University Teaching is highly desirable.
- Professionalism, sense of responsibility and flexibility in terms of schedule organization of work.
- Demonstrated ability to perform professionally both independently and in a team environment.
- Familiarity with Concordia facilities, services and the GradProSkills program.
- Willingness to work on other GradProSkills events/activities as required.

Application process:
- Interested applicants must submit, by email, their resume with a cover letter before the deadline: Sunday, August 25, 2019 at 11:59pm.
- Applications must be sent to: gradproskills-jobs@concordia.ca. Please use the position title as the subject.
- If selected for the position, we will require approval from your Graduate Program Director or graduate program supervisor to confirm you are in good academic standing and that the time commitment of the position will not interfere with your program requirements.
