The First Graduating Class Award is presented on behalf of the first graduating class of the Faculty of Arts, Science and Commerce of Sir George Williams College, known as the Guinea Pig Club, for the most innovative contribution either academic or extracurricular to University life. The award is presented at the Spring Convocation Ceremonies.

Criteria
1. The award is available to all members of the University community, student, faculty, and staff.
2. The award is presented to a person or group who has made the most innovative contribution, either academic or extracurricular, to University life.

Submission Procedures
a) Nominators must sign the nomination form.
b) The nominee(s) must agree to have their name(s) put forward.
c) The award will be adjudicated by the Special Graduation Awards Committee of Senate.
d) Nominations must be submitted by April 18 to Enrolment Services, c/o Convocation Awards, S-FB-900.

Failure to submit the following required* documents will result in an automatic disqualification of the nomination:
☐ Nominator(s) must submit a personal, signed letter of recommendation* that clearly demonstrates how the candidate meets the criteria for the Award.
☐ Nominations must include the candidate’s curriculum vitae* and a cover letter*. If a group, background material, newspaper clippings, etc. and a cover letter must accompany the nomination form.

Nomination Form

Family Name

First Name

Faculty

Outstanding Contribution

Nominator's Signature

Family Name

First Name

Signature

Department

Telephone