The employee who obtains a position is subject to a trial period of a maximum duration of forty-five (45) days worked. During this period, if the employee does not wish to stay in the new position, or if the University establishes that she/he cannot satisfy the requirements of the position, the employee may be returned to her/his former position, with all the rights that she/he acquired in that position. During her/his trial period, the employee must receive the appropriate assistance and training in order to facilitate her/his adaptation to the new position.

This clause also applies in the case of a permanent employee from the Syndicat des travailleuses et travailleurs des métiers de l'Université Concordia – CSN (CSN-Trades) bargaining unit who obtains a permanent position in the present unit. This employee shall then be subject to a trial period of sixty (60) days worked.

6.02

A temporary employee becomes a permanent employee after twenty four (24) months of continuous service, unless said employee was hired only to fill a position temporarily vacated by its incumbent.

6.03

Seniority is defined in years, months and days of service with the University, and is used only with respect to layoffs, recalls and choices of vacation period. A new employee shall have no seniority during his probationary period, but once that period is successfully completed, seniority shall be calculated as of the employee's hire date.

6.04

An employee shall accumulate seniority for a maximum of one (1) month of leave without pay, and shall lose his seniority when he:

6.04.1 leaves his employment at the University;

6.04.2 is dismissed for just and sufficient cause;

6.04.3 is not recalled to work within twelve (12) months of being laid off;

6.04.4 is laid off for a period greater than twelve (12) months; or

6.04.5 does not return to work within ten (10) calendar days after a notice has been sent, by registered letter or messenger service, calling the employee back to work following a layoff;

6.05

An employee shall lose his seniority and his employment shall be terminated when he:

6.05.1 leaves his employment at the University;

6.05.2 is dismissed for just and sufficient cause;

6.05.3 is not recalled to work within twelve (12) months of being laid off;

6.05.4 is laid off for a period greater than twelve (12) months;

6.05.5 does not return to work within ten (10) calendar days after a notice has been sent, by registered letter or messenger service, calling the employee back to work following a layoff; and

6.05.6 fails to report to work for three (3) consecutive working days without previously having obtained permission or without providing a reason justifying his absence within these same three (3) days. The University may consider an absence of up to five (5) working days in exceptional circumstances, for which the employee has the burden of proof.

Accumulation and maintenance of seniority

6.05.7 In the event of an absence due to non work-related illness or accident, the employee accumulates seniority for the first thirty-six (36) consecutive months of his absence, after which his seniority is maintained but does not accumulate.

6.05.8 During a leave without pay, the employee accumulates seniority for the first month of absence and afterwards, his seniority is maintained for a maximum period of twelve (12) months.

ARTICLE 7 JOB POSTING

7.01 A vacant position is a position definitively vacated by its incumbent.

7.02 Positions vacated due to an illness, vacation, work accident or leave without pay are not considered vacant within the meaning of this article if the incumbent will be returning to work.

7.03 Upon hiring, the University shall give the employee a copy of her/his job description.

7.04 All new or vacant positions under this agreement shall be posted on the Union's bulletin board for ten (10) working days. All applications must be submitted by the prescribed deadline, failing which they shall be rejected. Positions shall be granted based on knowledge, skills and qualification certificates. All other things being equal, seniority shall prevail based on the following order:

7.03.1 Departmental seniority

7.03.2 Seniority within the bargaining unit

7.03.3 University seniority

- 7.05 Unless the parties agree otherwise, the University shall not defer the posting of a vacant position for more than nine (9) months.
- 7.06 Employees with the qualifications as posted by the University shall be considered before external candidates.
- 7.07 When an employee is absent for more than fifty-two (52) weeks because of a work accident, or is absent due to an illness for more than sixteen (16) consecutive weeks, the University shall post the absent employee's position.
- 7.08 The University may create a job classification not provided for in this collective agreement. In this case, the University shall notify the Union one (1) month in advance of the duties, requirements and salary for this job classification. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Union may refer the salary to arbitration in case of disagreement.

In the case of significant modifications to the duties and/or the requirements for a position that exists at the signing of the present collective agreement, the University shall present them to the Union at least one (1) month prior to their introduction. The Union sends its comments, if any, within ten (10) working days following this meeting. The University shall take into consideration the Union's suggestions and will submit the final job description to the Union within ten (10) working days following the reception of the Union's comments. A copy of the final job description is then sent to the employee concerned as well as to the Union. In case of disagreement as to the salary, the Union may submit the case to the grievance and arbitration procedure.

If an employee's ability to fulfill her/his functions is affected by a change to her/his duties or to the requirements, the University shall provide the appropriate assistance and training.

7.09 Temporary assignment within the bargaining unit

Any temporary assignment whose duration is of more than one (1) month shall be posted for a minimum of five (5) working days, on both campuses, and a copy will be sent to the Union. The posting shall include the duties, required qualifications and expected duration of the assignment.

Should the assignment end before the date indicated on the posting or if the employee does not satisfy the requirements of the assignment, the employee will receive a notice of one (1) week.

Should the assignment continue past the date indicated on the posting, it shall be reposted in accordance with the first paragraph.

7.10 Group Leader assignement

Any group leader assignement shall be posted for a minimum of five (5) working days, on both campuses, and a copy will be sent to the Union. The posting shall include, among others, the main duties of the assignment as well as the required qualifications.

ARTICLE 8 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.01 Should a dispute arise between the University and the Union concerning the interpretation and application of the terms of the present collective agreement, there shall be no interruption of work by reason of the dispute. Rather, both parties shall do their utmost to resolve the dispute as quickly as possible in accordance with the following procedure.

8.02 The parties agree that it is preferable to resolve problems through discussion with the Union and the individuals directly concerned, prior to filing a written grievance. Failing agreement, the following procedure applies:

Step One:

The employee, accompanied by a Union representative, or the Union, shall file the grievance in writing to the immediate supervisor, manager or in their absence, the director, within ten (10) working days of the occurrence of the facts leading to the grievance or of the knowledge of the occurrence of the facts.

Step Two:

The University shall render its decision in writing within ten (10) working days after receiving the grievance. The response must be remitted to the local delegate as well as to the Union.

Third Step:

Upon receiving the response from the University, the Union has fifteen (15) working days to refer the grievance to arbitration, unless the parties have agreed to extend this delay. If the grievance is not referred to arbitration within the initial delay of fifteen (15) working days or its extension, the dispute shall be considered resolved.

8.03 The arbitrator's jurisdiction shall be limited to deciding the matter at hand in accordance with the clauses of this Agreement, and the arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, delete or amend clauses of this Agreement under any circumstances or for any reason whatsoever.

- 8.04 If the superior does not provide a satisfactory response within ten (10) working days of the question being referred to him, the Union may refer the question to arbitration in accordance with the Labour Code. If this is not done within ten (10) working days of the superior's decision, the question shall be considered resolved.
- 8.05 A grievance shall state the nature of the claim, the concerned clauses of the collective agreement and the redress sought. The grievor is entitled to be present at each stage of the procedure, but the final decision shall be made by the Union representative and the University representative.
- 8.06 The aforementioned delays are mandatory and can only be modified upon written agreement between the parties.

ARTICLE 14 DISMISSAL AND OTHER DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

- 14.01 Nothing in this Agreement limits or interferes with the University's right to dismiss or discipline an employee for incompetence or negligence in the performance of his duties or other just and sufficient cause. The University recognizes that if the Union is of the opinion that the University has unjustly dismissed an employee, the Union may avail itself of the grievance resolution procedure set out in Article 8 of this Agreement. The matter must be initiated within two (2) days of the employee's dismissal or disciplinary measure, failing which the question of discharge or discipline will not be open to review.
- 14.02 All disciplinary measures, including dismissal, shall be assessed in writing. The document shall be sent to the employee and shall explain the facts and the reasons for the measure. A copy shall be sent to the Union.
- 14.03 An employee summoned by the University for disciplinary reasons (i.e. a written reprimand, a suspension or a dismissal) has the right to be accompanied by his union representative.

15.04 An injured employee may transfer the indemnity that he receives from the Commission des normes, de l'équité, de la santé et de la sécurité du travail to the University. If the employee chooses to do so, the University shall continue to pay the employee his base weekly salary for the duration of his incapacity, up to a maximum of fifty-two (52) weeks. If the incapacity lasts longer than fifty-two (52) weeks, the University shall continue to pay the employee an amount equivalent to the the compensation paid by the Commission des normes, de l'équité,

This type of payment shall continue until the Commission des normes, de l'équité, de la santé et de la sécurité du travail determines that the employee is able to return to work or is suffering from a permanent partial or total disability. If there is doubt as to whether the absence was in fact caused by an occupational injury, the decision of the Commission des normes, de l'équité, de la santé et de la sécurité du travail shall be binding on both parties.

- 15.05 At any time during the first fifty-two (52) weeks of an employee's disability, the University has the right to call upon the doctor of its choice to determine the employee's percentage of disability. If the doctor determines that the employee's disability does not render him unable to perform his regular duties, the University may cease to pay the difference between the indemnity paid by the Commission des normes, de l'équité, de la santé et de la sécurité du travail and the employee's regular weekly salary.
- 15.06 An employee who has sustained an occupational injury must report the injury to his immediate supervisor or to Health Services as soon as possible following the occurrence, and must do so before voluntarily leaving the workplace. The present article does not grant an employee any benefit, monetary or non-monetary, which she or he would not have had, is she/he had remained at work.

Section I: Maternity Leave

- 16.01 a) A pregnant employee is entitled to a maternity leave of eighteen (18) weeks duration, which subject to clause 16.04 must be consecutive.
- b) An employee who becomes pregnant while benefiting from a leave

- 16.02 The distribution of the maternity leave before and after the birth is at the employee's discretion and includes the date of delivery. However, the leave can start as soon as the beginning of the sixteenth (16th) week preceding the date of birth and ends no later than eighteen (18) weeks after the week of the birth.
- 16.03 If the birth occurs after the due date, the employee is entitled to an extension of her maternity leave for the length of time the birth is overdue, unless she has at least two (2) weeks of maternity leave left after the birth.
- 16.04 A maternity leave can be split, interrupted or extended in accordance with the conditions provided in section V of the present article 16.
- 16.05 During the maternity leave and the extensions provided in clause 16.03 and in section V of the present article 16, the employee can defer a maximum of four (4) weeks of annual vacation if the employee notifies the University in writing of the date of such deferral no later than two (2) weeks before the expiry of said maternity leave. If vacation is not deferred, the University must pay the vacation indemnity at the end of the fiscal year during which the vacation is due.
- 16.06 The maternity leave may be for a period of less than eighteen (18) weeks. If the employee returns to work within the two (2) weeks following birth, she must, at the University's request, submit a medical certificate confirming that she is sufficiently recovered to resume work.

 - 2) her working conditions involve dangers for the child whom she is breast-feeding.

The employee must present a medical certificate to this effect as soon as possible.

The employee so assigned retains the rights and privileges of her regular position.

If the assignment is not carried out immediately, the employee is entitled to a special leave to begin immediately. Unless a provisional reassignment arises afterward to cancel this special leave, the special leave terminates for the pregnant employee, on the date of the birth, and for the employee who is breast-feeding, at the end of the breast-feeding period.

During the special leave provided by the preceding paragraph, in regard to her indemnity, the employee is subject to the provisions of the Health and Safety Law on preventative measures for the pregnant or breast-feeding employees.

As soon as the University receives a request for preventive reassignment, it will immediately inform the Union and cite the name of the employee and the reasons for the request.

Should an employee other than the employee requesting to be temporarily reassigned agree, her/his position may be exchanged for that of the pregnant employee for the duration of the temporary reassignment, subject to University's approval. This provision will apply only when both employees meet the normal requirements of the task.

In case of a disagreement with the University as to the schedule, the employee is entitled to a maximum of two (2) and a half (1/2) days per week or the equivalent. Failing agreement on the distribution of these days, the University determines the schedule.

Section V: Splitting, interruption or extension of maternity, paternity or parental leave

16.12

A maternity, paternity or parental leave can be divided into weeks, or interrupted, upon the employee's request, in one or more of the following circumstances:

The employee resumes his maternity, paternity or parental leave when the event which gave rise to the splitting or interruption of said leave comes to an end. When the employee resumes his leave, the University resumes the payment of the supplemental indemnity to which the employee would have been entitled should there have been no such splitting or interruption.

- 16.13 The employee who, before the end of her/his maternity, paternity or parental leave, submits a written notice to the University accompanied by a medical certificate attesting that the health of her/his child or, in the case of a maternity leave that her own health so warrants it, is entitled to an extension of the leave for the duration prescribed on the medical certificate.

- 29.03 Whenever an employee has reason to believe that he/she is a victim of harassment, he is strongly encouraged to consult the University's Advisor on Rights and Responsibilities without delay, in an attempt to resolve the situation informally, in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Rights and Responsibilities of the University. The amount achieved by multiplying the deferral period by the percentage withheld is not to exceed 100%.
- 2.02 The Trustee shall establish, and maintain on its books for the Fund, a separate account for each participant. The Trustee shall hold the deferred salary received,
