

Residence Life – Code of Community Living Standards and Discipline

1.0.0 Introduction/ Guiding Principles

1.0.1 The Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards is in place to ensure a safe, comfortable, and enjoyable experience for all members of the Residence community. The spirit of the Residence community is one of cooperation and mutual respect. It is the responsibility of each Resident to contribute in positive ways to the development and maintenance of this spirit.

1.0.2 The objectives of the Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards are to ensure a positive living environment for all Residents. While recognizing the nature of a residential environment, Residence Life seeks to educate Residents about community standards and the effect that their choices may have on others around them. Residents have the privilege of enjoying social activities as long as they do not conflict with the rights of other Residents to pursue academic endeavors, or other acceptable activities. It is prohibited to engage in activities that result in injury or insult to another person, or damage to property.

1.0.3 Residence Life employs student staff, known as Resident Assistants, who live in each Residence. They act as resource personnel and agents of Residence Life and assist with the application of the Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards. The Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards applies to all Residence buildings, entrances, walkways, fire escapes and surrounding lawn areas. Every reasonable effort is made to investigate all policy infractions in a timely and effective manner. Cooperation with staff is expected to ensure that all information can be gathered; failure to cooperate with any staff is a contravention of the Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards.

1.1.0 Behaviour

1.1.1 The Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards sets out clear expectations of acceptable behaviour within the Residence community and the consequences for behaviour that is contrary to these expectations. The system has been created to classify actions based on three levels of offences which, with the exception of egregious situations, are progressive in order to discourage repetitively unacceptable behaviour. Residents who commit offences will be dealt with in a manner that is in accordance with the guidelines set out in the Code of Community Living Standards and proportional to the gravity of the offence. The repeat of any offence in any one level will be carried to the next level and addressed accordingly by the Manager, Residence Life, or designate.

2.0.0 Unacceptable Behaviour

2.0.1 Unacceptable behaviour is behaviour which is inconsistent with the above principles and objectives. When such behaviour occurs, it constitutes an offence. Ignorance, non-active participation, anger, and alcohol or substance abuse, do not diminish a Resident's responsibility for such behaviour. Residents and their guests are responsible for observing the terms of the Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards as well as the University's Code of Rights and Responsibilities at all times.

Furthermore, if a Resident is aware of a problem, he/she is expected to advise the appropriate personnel so that steps may be taken to prevent the situation from escalating, persisting or reoccurring. Residents are strongly encouraged to come forward to report problems or infractions. When possible, and in accordance with the law, the University will keep confidential the identity of the person who reports such problems/infractions.

Residents are responsible for their own behaviour and that of their guests and the consequences of any behaviours that takes place in Residence at all times.

2.0.2 Any inappropriate behaviour or breach of the Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards will result in an investigation by Residence Life staff. This investigation is to determine the relevant facts and draw the most likely conclusion(s) as to the behaviour suspected and/or observed.

The University may take all means required to uphold the present Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards and to fully investigate incidents which may be occurring in Residence. Such steps could include but are not limited to: video surveillance, interviews, and seeking the cooperation of other Residents, Security and/or the Police.

If the involvement or intervention of the Police is required, the University will fully cooperate with and support such investigation and prosecution, as the case may be.

2.0.3 In all such cases, an incident report will be written (by a Residence Life Staff and/or by Security) and submitted to the Manager, Residence Life, or designate. The Manager, or designate, will review the incident report and will determine the appropriate course of action which, depending on the situation, may include fines, community service, and/or a recommendation to seek the cancellation of the lease. The decision rendered by the Manager, or designate, may be reviewed by the Director, Residence Life, or designate. Decisions rendered by the Director, Residence Life, or designate, are final.

2.0.4. A 'Student-of-concern' is defined by the Policy on Student Involuntary Leave of Absence, PRVPAA-15 (<http://www.concordia.ca/content/dam/common/docs/policies/official-policies/PRVPAA-15.pdf>) as any student whose apparent physical and/or mental state and/or related conduct is such that he/she may be or have become a threat to themselves, others, the educational process, or the University community in general.

Any resident that exhibits concerning behaviour may be brought forward as a 'student-of-concern' by Residence Life to the office of Rights and Responsibilities. Assessment of a 'student-of-concern' might be done under advisement, or in coordination, with other University departments. In these cases, a student can be subject to interventions by Residence Life, the Office of Rights and Responsibilities and/or other departments. Interventions by Residence Life may include but are not limited to adhering to a wellness contract with various conditions, the pursuit of a voluntary or involuntary leave of absence from the University through the Policy on Student Involuntary Leave of Absence, or other actions deemed suitable by Residence Life and the University including cancellation of the lease. Actions taken under the above policy are meant to be supportive in nature and shall not be considered disciplinary actions, and will be done in accordance with and taking into account other University policies, including the Code of Rights and Responsibilities, BD-3.

If there is, in the estimation of Residence staff, a clear and imminent danger or risk, designated staff members, including Resident Assistants, are immediately empowered to take appropriate steps pursuant to University policies and/or may contact Security (extension 3717) who may, after evaluating the urgency of the situation, contact the appropriate internal or external resources and/or departments.

Nothing in this Section is intended to supersede any University policy.

2.1.0 Activities that may result in the University seeking the immediate cancellation of the lease include and are not limited to the following:

- The distribution, possession, use, or sale of illegal drugs and/or the distribution, possession, misuse, or sale of prescription drugs, or facilitating the distribution or sale thereof
- Willful or negligent damage to Residence property
- Any act of violence or threat thereof, any hateful acts and/or harassment toward other members of the Residence Community
- The commission of a serious offence, even if only committed once, or the repetitive nature of the misconduct (serious or not) could, at the discretion of the University, warrant seeking the immediate cancellation of the lease.

In the event that a decision results in the cancellation of a Resident's lease they will normally be asked to leave Residence with one week's notice and will be banned from returning to all Residence properties.

2.2.0 In addition to offences which lead to the immediate cancellation of a lease, there are three levels of offences under the Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards, which are as follows:

2.2.1 – Level 1

Actions by an individual(s) which:

- interfere with the rights of others to the peaceful use and enjoyment of his/her private or shared space in Residence
- amount to a failure to cooperate with Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards

Sanctions

Normal range of sanctions: warning and/or minimum $50.00 fine, and/or behavioural contract, and/or community service. Restitution for damage(s) where applicable.

2.2.2 Level 2

Actions by an individual(s) which:

- create a significant nuisance and/or disturbance to another Resident or the Residence Community

Sanctions

Normal range of sanctions: warning and/or minimum $100 fine, and/or behavioural contract, and/or community service. Restitution for damage(s) where applicable.

2.2.3 Level 3

Actions by an individual(s) which:

- endanger the safety and security of themselves and/or others
- compromise personal or University property
- attack the dignity/integrity of another individual
- contravene the municipal, provincial or federal statutes and regulations or certain policies or rules of the University

Sanctions

All offences could be subject to any or all of the following: warning and/or minimum $150 fine, and/or behavioural contract, and/or community service, probation, and/or seeking cancellation of the lease. Restitution for damage(s) where applicable.

2.2.4 The commission of any offence may lead to the University to seek the immediate cancellation of the lease if the situation is deemed serious or if the behaviour is of a repetitive nature.

2.2.5 The charts below include a limited number of examples of actions that may be considered as included within the three different offence levels defined above.

2.2.6 It should be noted that a Resident's behaviour is considered along with the seriousness of the circumstances. After determining the offence level, the actions are compared to the specific examples in the charts found on pages 13 through 16. Therefore, context and other factors associated with any incident will be used to determine the appropriate punitive measures. In addition to the levels of sanctions outlined above, Residents may be subject to additional sanctions such as the imposition of a behaviour contract, and/or an educational sanction, such as a fine, to pay restitution for damages and/or a ban from visiting other Residences.

3.0.0 Enforcement of the Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards Program

3.0.1 The sanctions listed in this document are examples only, and other or additional sanctions may be imposed should the situation warrant it. All financial costs incurred as a result of a Resident's behavior or the behavior of a guest of a Resident are the responsibility of the Resident(s) involved. For the sake of clarity, Residents are solely responsible for their own guests' actions.

3.1.0 Residence Life Administrator

3.1.1 A Residence Life Administrator is any individual working on behalf of Concordia University's Residence Life Department. Such individuals include, but are not limited to: Directors, Managers, Administrative Assistants, Service Assistants, Coordinators, Community Facilitators, Resident Assistants or other designates.

3.1.2 Residents are expected to fully cooperate with all University employees. Cooperation is defined as complying with the directives of a University official who is acting in an official capacity. In the event that a Resident feels that they have been mistreated or wrongfully accused, they are asked to address their concerns, by appointment with the Manager(s), of the Residence Life Department on the next business day.

3.2.0 Incident Report

3.2.1 The primary purpose of an incident report is to constitute a tool for the Resident Assistants in documenting an event that has taken place. The purpose of documenting events is to inform the Residence Life administration of events/situations that are relevant to the functioning of their position. These reports are considered confidential internal working documents. The Residence Manager who receives the report will decide what, if any, follow up is required.

3.2.2 A Resident may receive one or more of the sanctions listed below as a result of violations of the Residence Life Code of Community Living Standards:

3.3.0 Incident Report Notification

3.3.1 This email communication is used to inform Residents that they are required to meet with a Residence Life Administrator as the result of the filing of an incident report. The communication will be sent via email to the address listed in the Resident's application to Residence, and creates an opportunity for a Residence Life Administrator and the implicated Resident to discuss an event after it has taken place. It is the responsibility of the Resident to obtain an appointment at their soonest opportunity with the Residence Life Manager. The appointment must occur during normal University business hours in the Residence Life Office. It should be noted that not all events or incidents require an incident report notification. In some cases, a Residence Life Administrator will contact the Resident verbally about an incident. Failure to obtain an appointment and/or appear at the meeting will be considered refusal to cooperate with Residence Life employees and will result in an appropriate behavioural sanction.

3.4.0 Verbal Warning

3.4.1 Verbal warnings are used at the discretion of the Residence Life Administrators when it is believed that the warning will result in a change of unacceptable behaviour. Residents do not have a right to a verbal warning and they are not given in cases that are repetitive in nature. Asking a Resident to stop a behaviour is considered a verbal warning.

3.5.0 Meeting with the Manager / Director, Residence Life

3.5.1 Meetings may be initiated by either a Resident or a Residence Life Administrator. If a Resident has received an incident report notification or a request to meet (when no official incident report has been filed), it is the responsibility of the Resident to initiate the meeting. Usually the Resident will meet with the Manager and/or the Director Residence Life. The appropriate Resident Assistant may also partake in the meeting, at the Manager/Director Residence Life's sole discretion. Sanctions may be imposed with respect to a documented incident based on the nature of the behaviour, past history, the result of the meeting and any other factors that are deemed relevant. Failure to appear at the meeting will be considered refusal to comply with Residence Life staff and will result in an appropriate sanction.

3.6.0 Warning Letter/Notice

3.6.1 A Resident may be sent a letter outlining facts regarding a violation and its consequences. This is an official letter of warning and it will be delivered to the Resident's mailbox and/or sent electronically to the email address on the Resident's application for Residence.

3.7.0 Fines

3.7.1 Fines are a monetary penalty assessed as a sanction for inappropriate behaviour. Fines will be posted directly to the Resident's student account.

3.8.0 Community Billing and/or Discipline

3.8.1 Community billing and/or discipline may be imposed in order to hold multiple members of a community accountable for damages caused by actions or behaviour that have proven to have originated within that community or area of Residence (hallway, floor, cluster of rooms, wing, etc.). These damages include, but are not limited to: fire alarms, common area damage, leaks or floods, etc. These sanctions include, but are not limited to: community service, a reduction of services (i.e. closing of the elevator and/or common rooms), and restitution for damages.

3.9.0 Educational Sanction

3.9.1 An Educational Sanction may accompany a warning letter, fine, or probation. These sanctions include, but are not limited to: community restitution, community service, attending an educational workshop appropriate to the violation, preparing an educational program for the community and/or a reflection paper describing the lessons learned by the Resident. It is up to the Resident to fulfill the sanction within the delay allotted. Unfulfilled community service hours may be replaced by a fine equivalent to an hourly rate determined by a Residence Life Administrator, at a rate that will be no less than minimum wage.

3.10.0 Behavioural Contract

3.10.1 A behavioural contract is a set of behavioural expectations and limits that is determined with the Resident and set out in contractual terms. The Resident thereby agrees to abide by the terms of the behavioural contract and any breach of said contract will result in the application of the consequences agreed upon therein. A behavioural contract may accompany a warning letter, fine, probation, or other sanctions deemed appropriate.

3.11.0 Restitution for Damages

3.11.1 Any Resident that causes damage to University property is required to pay for the cost of the repairs. Residents are also responsible for any damages caused by their guests. Residents who borrow games room equipment, cleaning equipment or any other item from the Residence Life Office are responsible for those items. In the event that damage is caused to either the equipment or the equipment is used to damage University property, the Resident who gave their ID to sign out the equipment will be held responsible. The costs of the repair or replacement will be solely determined by the Residence Life Administrator, communicated to the Resident in writing, and will be charged directly to the Resident's student account.

3.12.0 Residence Probation

3.12.1 When a Resident is placed on probation, a notice is sent indicating that any further offence may result in the cancellation of their lease. Probation may be used in addition to any other sanction outlined herein and imposed by the designated Residence Life Administrator.

3.13.0 Banning from Residences

3.13.1 Students may be banned from Residence(s) and not allowed to return. If the banned student is found in the Residence building(s), Security will be called and the student may be charged with trespassing. Students that disregard this ban and are found in Residence by Security or a member of the Residence Life Administration may be charged under the University's Code of Rights and Responsibilities. A ban from Residences may accompany a warning letter, fine, probation, or lease cancellation. Acting as a host for a posted individual and/or a person whose visiting privileges have been revoked is prohibited. Any Resident hosting a guest who has been banned will be sanctioned accordingly.

3.14.0 Lease Cancellation

3.14.1 The lease is a contract between the Resident and Concordia University. A Resident may be asked to vacate their Residence and/or the immediate cancellation of the lease may be sought by the University, along with any damages suffered by the University, depending on the offence and its severity. The appropriate Residence Life Administrator is responsible for this decision. The student may also be banned from all Residence buildings. In circumstances where there may be an immediate threat posed to an individual or the community, a student may be immediately removed from Residence.

3.15.0 Charge through the Code of Rights and Responsibilities

3.15.1 This document outlines behaviour considered to be inconsistent with the goals and wellbeing of the University community. Charges by students involving alleged breaches of the Code of Rights and Responsibilities, which is applicable to all members of the University, are heard by a hearing panel. Refer to the Office of Rights and Responsibilities for more information.

4.0.0 The Appeal Process

4.0.1 All sanctions levied against a Resident are effective as of the date of imposition, and will be communicated to the Resident in writing. It is the Resident's responsibility to check their Residence mailbox and the e-mail address listed on their application for Residence for this notice.

4.0.2 The Resident may appeal each step of the disciplinary process. The Director, Residence Life, or designate, will hear all appeals regarding the Manager's decision. In certain situations, Residence infractions may go directly to the Director, especially when the personal safety of an individual or the community is threatened. Decisions made by the Director are final.

4.0.3 A Resident has two business days from the date of the imposition of the sanction to submit a written appeal on the following grounds:

- Bias and/or unfair treatment – procedural error, improper investigation, discrimination, etc.
- The sanction does not suit the infraction/behavior.
- New information has become available that was previously unavailable – new witness, a fact unknown when the original decision was made.

4.0.4 Please note that a Resident may only appeal a decision once and an appeal may result in one of the three following outcomes:

1. The original decision is upheld.
2. The original decision is overturned.
3. Sanctions can be modified, which may include increasing the sanctions originally levied.

Offences

5.0.0 Level 1 Offences

5.1.0 Actions by an individual(s) which:

- interfere with the rights of another individual(s) to the peaceful use and enjoyment of his or her space in Residence

8.o.o Administrative Rules

Access Cards and Keys: For the protection of personal possessions, Residents are advised to lock their door when leaving their room. Lost keys should be reported immediately to the Residence Life Office. Replacement keys cost $20/key. If a Resident loses their bedroom key more than two times, the Residence Life Office will change the Resident's lock at a cost of $80.00 charged to the Resident's student account to cover the cost of labour and materials. If a Resident forgets their keys or access card and are locked out, there will be a $5.00 charge to access the building/room.

Lost access cards must be replaced in person at the Security Office during business hours at a cost of $20/card. The cost to replace individual room or mailbox keys is $20/key. Each of these costs will be charged to the Resident's student account.

Only lease-holding Residents will be allowed into their individual rooms. Any student lending out his or her access pass or student ID card will be disciplined accordingly. This is for the safety and protection of all Residents and for personal property – the Resident must be present for access by a Residence Life Administrator or Security Agent, telephone/email permission is not an acceptable alternative. Residents are held financially responsible for any damage or losses to their room or its contents and for the cleanliness of the room upon vacating it.

Courtesy/Quiet hours: As per above, quiet hours and 24 hour quiet or courtesy hours are in effect at specified times, and a Resident's right to quiet supersedes a Resident's right to make noise.

Commercial Use: The use of a Residence room, mailbox, and telephone or data connection for any commercial purpose is prohibited.

Other Charges: This may include damage repairs, improper checkout or room transfers, storage, etc. Situation based.

Emergencies: In the event of an emergency situation, as deemed by Residence Life Management, the department reserves the right to contact a Resident's emergency contacts as provided to the University.
