

Careers in Sustainability

Hosted by: Career Advising and Professional Success (CAPS)

Date of Event: April 25, 2024

Project Led by: Marian Pinsky

Email: marian.pinsky@concordia.ca

Sustainability report

Platinum
81% score
21 / 26 actions taken

Diversity & Inclusion | 25%

- The event was promoted to all departments and student associations, as well as student-facing units such as NouLa and Otsenhakta.

Indigenization | 100%

- Adapted the land acknowledgement available from Indigenous Directions and personalized it to the sustainability context

Accessibility | 86%

- Enabled accessibility accommodations
- Event was free

Waste & Transportation | 83%

- Provided compostable diningware and served items in bulk
- Provided extra signage at waste bins
- Donated leftover food to students
- Printed as little as possible and borrowed lanyards for the event

Purchasing & Sponsorship | 100%

- Purchased from at least one supplier and/or catering business owned by underrepresented communities
- Provided over 50% plant-based food options options, including a vegan dessert
- Chose gifts for speakers that were environmentally and / or socially responsible, such as Stingers Roast coffee

Digital Consumption | Not applicable

Sustainability Awareness & Reporting | 100%

- Communicated the sustainability measures that were being taken for the event