

Digital Sobriety in Information Management

Hosted by: Records Management and Archives

Date of Event: April 17, 2024

Project Led by: Julie Daoust Email: julie.daoust@concordia.ca

Sustainability report

Gold
87% score
26 / 30 actions taken

Diversity & Inclusion | 80%

- Included and adequately compensated voices of underrepresented communities in event's content
- Established a code of conduct and clarify channels for participants to report violations

Indigenization | 100%

- Adapted the land acknowledgement available from Indigenous Directions

Accessibility | 66%

- Followed basic best practices for universal accessibility
- Event was free

Waste & Transportation | 100%

- Considered reusable options for event promotion and signage
- Encouraged sustainable modes of transportation
- Donated leftover food

Purchasing & Sponsorship | 100%

- Gave non-physical gifts, prizes and giveaways or, if necessary chose products that were environmentally and / or socially responsible
- Offered an equal number of plant-based dishes

Digital Consumption | 100%

- Sent documents to participants using cloud-based sharing
- Invited participants to reduce their streaming quality and turn off their cameras

Sustainability Awareness & Reporting | 100%

- Communicated the sustainability measures that were being taken for the event
- Calculated the greenhouse gas emissions of their event