GENERAL INFORMATION

The decision to readmit a failed student is a faculty decision and is considered a privilege and not a right. Readmission, if approved, is based on the information you provide in your application for readmission. Courses taken at another institution while in failed standing will only be used to determine readmission. If 24 or more credits are taken at another institution while in failed standing, a new application will be required. Evidence of relevant and constructive activities will strengthen your application.

CONDITIONS OF READMISSION

- Readmitted students are normally placed on probation and restricted to part-time status
- Some student may be required to take UNSS 200 and/or 201 as part of their readmissions conditions
- Students must be in acceptable academic standing (min. GPA of 2.0) by their next academic assessment (May)
- Readmitted students placed in failed standing at the next assessment, will be dismissed from Concordia for a minimum of 3 academic years
- Students may be required to fulfill additional conditions of readmission as determined by their faculty advisor
- By signing this application form, you are confirming your understanding of the above Conditions for Readmissions

PROCEDURES CHECK LIST (please read and check off each item below)

- I have viewed the Readmission Information Video
- I have attached the results of the Learning and Study Skills Inventory (LASSI) to this application
- I have attached my response to the Readmission questions required by my Faculty
- I have attached all supporting documentation (if relevant - medical, police reports, employer etc)
- I understand that my Faculty's decision regarding readmission is final
