I, the undersigned, agree that:

1. Locker keys are the property of the Chemical and Materials Engineering Department.
2. Lockers are intended for daily use only, with no overnight storage of items.
3. Only liquids in closed containers can be stored inside a locker.
4. The CME department will not be held responsible for any damages to, or loss of locker contents, including theft. Valuables left in your locker are left at your own risk.
5. The assigned locker is for my use only and is not to be shared. I may not give the key to any other person.
6. Once I have finished my work in the lab at the end of my studies, I will return the key to the department administrator.

I have read, understood, and will respect the above conditions:
