

P U B L I C

C O N F E R E N C E

UNDERSTANDING HOW CHANGE HAPPENS

WITH DUNCAN GREEN

Strategic Adviser for Oxfam Great-Britain and author of From Poverty to Power

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13

3:00 PM
Room CI 104

School of Community
and Public Affairs,
Concordia University
2149 MacKay

In his talk, Duncan Green introduces his new book How Change Happens and explores how political and social change takes place, and the role of individuals and organizations in influencing that change.

PRAISE FOR HOW CHANGE HAPPENS

'This is a splendid treatise on how to change the actual world—in reality, not just in our dreams'

— Amartya Sen

'An indispensable guide for activists and change-makers everywhere.'

— Francis Fukuyama

'Duncan Green is the rare global activist who can explain in clear yet analytical language what it takes to make change happen.'

— Dani Rodrik

'A book that made me think differently about something I have been doing for my entire life.'

— Winnie Byanyima, Executive Director of Oxfam International

The School of Community and Public Affairs

OXFAM
Québec