LEADERSHIP BOOTCAMP

Preparing you for a changing world. That's our business.

Are you ready to develop your leadership stamina, and to build your agility and problem-solving skills in ten weeks? The JMEC's Leadership Bootcamp hybrid program will equip you with the tools and confidence to up your game and propel you ahead in your career with our next-generation solution. Before you come, you will complete the Leadership Versatility Index assessment. The results of the assessment will be used throughout the program.

Business fundamentals. Flexible learning. Healthy executive.

We're flexible so you don't have to be. Ten out of twelve modules are completed on-line. Most of our Bootcamp will adapt to your demanding agenda, and will be available on your desktop, tablet or mobile, even when you are on the move.

In-class, and on-line, you'll tackle individual and team projects drawn from the John Molson and other leading universities' world class programs.

Taught by world-class faculty and industry experts focused on giving you the latest trend industry learnings needed for you to achieve your business goals and push your professional boundaries.

At JMEC we know healthy businesses, careers and lifestyles are all inextricably linked. Mental and physical health are as vital as business skills. We include a healthy executive component to ensure that the Leadership Bootcamp has health and wellness at its core.
