ORGANIZATION SUPPORT FORM

TO SPONSORING ORGANIZATIONS

Executive training and education in mid-career requires significant commitment from all members involved. The John Molson Executive MBA program is a partnership between Concordia University, the participant, and the organizational sponsor. Organizational support during the course of the program is critical to the applicant's success. We thank you for believing in your most valued employees and in the reputation of our program.

SPONSORSHIP STATEMENT

We recognize that the John Molson Executive MBA's course schedule is made up of full class days (i.e. 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.) on alternating Fridays and Saturdays during the Fall (September – December) and Winter (January – April) semesters over a 20-month period. We also understand that the program involves a four day orientation session in late August for first-year students, as well as an international study trip of approximately 10 days which usually takes place at the end of May, between the first and second academic year. We agree to support the above named employee for the duration of the program by granting the release time required for courses and for foreign travel and by respecting our employee's academic commitments on class days.
