Graduate Certificate in Quantitative Business Studies

concordia.ca/gdba

Located in vibrant downtown Montreal, Concordia University's John Molson School of Business is a world-renowned business school in a next-generation university.

"The GDBA was an extremely interesting learning experience for me because of how multi-faceted the curriculum was. Each class was unique and engaging, forcing you to focus on different strengths. This made me evolve as a student, but also prepared me for the work environment because each day presented a new challenge. The extracurricular activities and services allowed me to network outside of the classroom. I came out feeling much more equipped to launch my professional career."

Daniel Powell, GDBA, BSc Biology
Senior Caseworker at AmerisourceBergen

Get the skills employers want

JMSB's Graduate Certificate (GCBA), Diploma (GDBA) in Business Administration and Graduate Certificate in Quantitative Business Studies (GCQBS) introduce students to key business concepts and help students acquire business skills that will help them become more efficient and effective managers and administrators.

All 3 programs offer a flexible course schedule, with daytime and evening classes, as well as some online options.

GDBA

30 credits: 10 courses, 3 credits each

The GDBA helps students acquire the fundamental business skills they need to complement their undergraduate degree and advance in their career. Students gain a solid understanding of functional areas within an organization and appreciate how they interrelate.

The GDBA can be completed in three semesters (one year full-time, or two or more years, part-time).

Diploma core courses:

- GDBA 530 Business Data Analytics
- GDBA 531 Professional Business Skills
- GDBA 532 Accounting
- GDBA 533 Managing People in Organizations
- GDBA 534 Marketing Management
- GDBA 535 Finance
- GDBA 536 Operations Management
- GDBA 537 Managerial Economics
- GDBA 538 Strategic Management

GCBA

15 credits: 5 courses, 3 credits each

The GCBA is for candidates seeking a short and focused business program introducing key business concepts. Students gain a good understanding of the functional areas within an organization.

The GCBA can be completed in two or three semesters. It is not open to international students.

Certificate Core Courses

- GDBA 531 Professional Business Skills
 - GDBA 532 Accounting
 - GDBA 533 Managing People in Organizations
 - GDBA 534 Marketing Management
- Plus one elective* course

GCQBS

15 credits: 5 courses, 3 credits each

The Graduate Certificate in Quantitative Business Studies provides students with the essentials of business data analysis, managerial and financial accounting, the fundamental concepts of finance, and the principles of economics with an emphasis on the role of the decision maker who has to identify and implement profitable decisions.

The GCQBS can be completed in two or three semesters. It is not open to international students.

Certificate Core Courses

- GDBA 530 Business Data Analytics
 - GDBA 532 Accounting
 - GDBA 535 Finance
 - GDBA 537 Managerial Economics
- Plus one elective* course

Our students

The GCBA, GDBA and GCQBS programs welcome more than 200 students each year. They come from a diverse range of backgrounds and most earned an undergraduate degree in a discipline other than business.

Beyond the classroom

Our students have many opportunities to connect with business and community partners through extra-curricular activities and events. Many of these organizations recruit and hire our graduates.

There are also student-organized events and clubs under the leadership of the John Molson Graduate Student Association (JMGS) to help students establish and develop future working relationships.

Career Management Services (CMS)

CMS supports all JMSB students and alumni in their careers, providing relevant resources to increase employability and build connections. Students have access to a dedicated graduate advisor to assist with strategic career planning. CMS also offers many career-building resources to help students become confident and ready for the job market.

“The GDBA program was instrumental to my landing a position after graduation and the practical skills I acquired have contributed to my success. In addition to excellent peer-to-peer learning, the benefits of the GDBA extend far beyond the classroom. Through extra-curricular groups I was able to contribute to Concordia in a concrete way while networking and learning from professors, industry leaders and students. In addition, the opportunities for workshops, networking, and career coaching through JMSB’s Career Management Services contributed to my great experience at JMSB.”

“JMSB is my home away from home. I felt supported before even arriving in Montreal! Moving to a new city can be lonely, but JMSB’s orientation programs and events made the transition so smooth! The GDBA taught me the basics of administration which my training as an engineer didn’t provide. Now I’m a successful, employed professional! Merci beaucoup JMSB!”
