Eligibility

- Doctoral students already accepted into or in year one, two, or three of a full-time program in the humanities or social sciences whose work relates to one of the Foundation’s four themes:
  - Human Rights and Dignity;
  - Responsible Citizenship;
  - Canada and the World; and
  - People and their Natural Environment

- Canadian citizens, whether at a Canadian or an international institution
- Up to 25% of Scholars in a given year may be non-Canadians (permanent residents or foreign nationals) enrolled in a doctoral program at a Canadian institution

Please consult the Trudeau website for more eligibility criteria.

How to Apply

1. Make sure you are eligible according to the eligibility criteria and at the same time, have received confirmation from your department before beginning an online application. This step must be predetermined by your Graduate Program Director at Concordia University.

2. The competition is now open in order for you to fill out your registration request form: https://trudeaufdn.fluxx.io/apply/scholars

Once you have been granted access to the Foundation’s portal, you will be able to complete your online submission. If you are eligible, you will receive a username and password within 4 business days (check your spam folder). Complete your online application form by filling out your contact information in the “Coordonnées / Contacts” section of the portal and by filling out your submission form in the “Ébauche / Draft” section of the portal.

3. To request your three (3) letters of reference, enter the email address of your referees in the box provided. An email will automatically be sent to them, asking them to attach their reference letter in PDF format directly into our portal. We advise that you follow up with your references. The letters will be attached to your file.

You must have: (1) one letter must be from an academic referee concerning academic achievements; (2) one letter must be from a non-academic referee concerning your leadership abilities; and (3) the third reference letter may come from an academic or non-academic referee.

4. Upload your transcripts covering all of your post-secondary education, including your CEGEP transcript for candidates who attended CEGEP in Quebec.

Detailed instructions are available here on the Foundation’s website:

A screening process will follow based on the Foundation’s evaluation criteria:
http://www.trudeaufoundation.ca/en/programs/scholarships/become-scholar
If nominated by the Concordia University’s Internal Selection Committee, the School of Graduate Studies will request your department to submit an institutional letter of nomination and will submit your application to the Foundation’s attention.

By March 2019, the semi-finalists will be invited for an interview and the selected candidates will be notified by the agency by May 2019.

Nominating Department
A Graduate Program Director can be contacted and/or may recruit their top candidate.
If selected by the internal adjudicating committee, the School of Graduate Studies will forward the application(s) to the respective departments by February 1st, 2019.

Departments must submit a nomination letter (2 to 3 pages / saved as Word Document) to the School of Graduate Studies by February 13th, 2019. The nomination letter should highlight the candidates’ accomplishments, research potential and portray the link to the candidate’s research to one or more of the four themes of the Foundation. The letter will be signed by a high-ranking official of the institution (president, vice-president, dean of graduate studies, etc.); and submitted to Trudeau’s attention.
